Mr. Wesley Smith and family left last week for Caron, Sask., where Mr. Smith has purchased a homestead. Their many friends in Havelock and Belmont wish them every success.

Miss Mary Dineen spent Tuesday and Wednesday with friends in Peterborough.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Buchanan, "Clydeholm," Belmont, on March 11th, when their only daughter, Annie Edith, was united in matrimony to Mr. Ernest Moss, second son of Dr. J. H. Moss, formerly of Havelock. Rev. Mr. Stirling, of Havelock, was the officiating clergyman and promptly at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening the bride entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch of evergreens and roses.

The bride looked charming in a gown of point d'esprit over white taffeta silk and wore the customary veil, caught with a pretty wreath of lillies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by two little girls, Miss Lila Kirk as ring bearer, and Miss Viola Buchanan, as flower girl, both wearing pretty white organdie dresses with pink sashes and carrying baskets of pink and white carnations.

After congratulations had been bestowed upon the young couple, the bridal party and over one hundred guests adjourned to the dining room (which was most beautifully decorated with cut flowers), and partook of a sumptuous repast.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace set with amethysts.

The young couple left the following morning on the 7 o'clock train for a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto and other western points, amid showers of rice and the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness. The bride travelled in a suit of navy blue venetian cloth trimmed with silk and braid, a picture white hat and a sable ruff, the gift of her brother. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Moss will reside at their home "Tyncholm," Belmont.

The spring millinery openings will take place on Thursday and Friday of next week, March 26th and 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Metheson are in Toronto this week, where the former is attending the Grand Lodge meeting of the A. O. U. W.

Mr. J. P. McLaren, of Mt. Albert, formerly of the Sovereign Bank staff here, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in town en route to his home at Lanark.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, of Sharbot Lake, will conduct the Lenten service in St. John's Church on Thursday night.

Rev. Ralph Fulcher, of Marmora, preached a most interesting Lenten sermon on Thursday night of last week.

Mrs. R. F. Denike has returned after an extended visit at her home in Cobourg.

Nichol also added much to the improvement of the programme. Miss Bessie Sargent also gave a recitation. Proceeds amounted to $45.50. Good order ruled and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed.

OTONABEE CASE MERELY AN ACCIDENT

Mr. Cooney Explains How He Was Injured Last Week.

Mr. James Cooney of Otonabee called at the Examiner office on Saturday and stated that the paragraph which had appeared in the Examiner earlier in the week rather exaggerated the condition of the accident which he met with at his home on Monday morning. He says the facts are that early in the morning after the fire had been kindled, Mrs. Cooney was preparing breakfast and he was getting ready to go to the barn, when a friendly scuffle took place, in which his wife happened to have a knife in her hand, and the knife, of course, gave him a severe cut. It was unintentional on the part of his wife—a mere accident.

The deep snow of Monday morning delayed the doctor a considerable time in getting to his residence, and he bled freely from the wound, but outside of the fact that he had a severe accidental cut with a sharp knife, nothing serious occurred.

The concert will be under the management of Mr. George A. Wesley.

There was no skating in the rink Monday evening on account of the ice being flooded after the heavy rainstorm of Sunday.

The Allenlok farmers are still cutting Rice Lake to Keene, but it is probable that the ice will not remain safe much longer, as on account of the heavy snowfall this year the ice is not very thick and what there is of it is not blue ice, but snow ice.

Mr. John Hewie, Westwood, attended the skaters' dance held here the evening of St. Patrick's day.

Mrs. Grass, Toronto, and Mrs. Bushell, Kingston, are the guests of Mrs. (Rev.) D. D. McDonald.

The Sun Life of Canada

Has Had Another Year of Great Prosperity

From THE MONETARY TIMES)

New policies issued to the number of 12,429, an income premium of close upon $5,000,000, and a net surplus of $2,151,884 is the record of the Sun Life Company for last year. The large volume of new assurances is particularly gratifying in view of the prevailing financial conditions; as a matter of fact, over 4,000 more policies were applied for than were granted. The total amount in force on the books of the company is $111,135,694 under 83,401 policies. The total income last year was $6,249,288 and the assets $26,488,595. The profitable nature of the business enabled the company to pay dividends on a scale which has given great satisfaction, and which, it is believed, are not surpassed on this continent. The amount distributed was $422,930. After setting aside the full reserve, assuming only 3½ per cent. interest for all policies issued prior to December 31st, 1902, and but three per cent. for all those issued since, there remains an undivided surplus of $2,046,884 over all liabilities and capital stock. This is, indeed, a good showing.

SIMPLE WAY TO TEST THE SEED

Germinating Power Should be Thoroughly Investigated—Some French Tests.

If you buy seed of the seed man, demand a guarantee from him f its quality; then test the seed yourself, and find out if he is telling you the truth. Reliable seedsmen will guarantee their seeds, and if they do not do so, don't buy. Also don't grumble at the price of guaranteed seed

One of the simplest and best methods of testing the germinating power of seed, is as follows: Secure a piece of blotting paper, or flannel cloth, moisture and fold together, after placing a counted number, say, 100, of the seed between the folds. Put the blotter or cloth on a plate, and cover with another inverted plate, and place in a warm room. From 10 to 28 or 30 days should be allowed for the test, depending upon the kind of seed. The germinated seed should be counted and removed from day to day and at the end of the test the percentage of good seed may easily be computed. S eedmay be tested in soil, but the germinations are likely to be from 10 to 15 per cent. lower than by the foregoing plan. The cloth or blotter plan is simple ,and can be carried on during the cold weather, and before the busy season opens.

As to the germinating power of good seed, it should not be lower than 75 or 80 per cent., for the leading grain crops. The United States Department of Agriculture places the standard of germination for clean seed, harvested and preserved under favorable conditions, and not over one year old, for a number of vegetable and grains, as follows: Beans, 90 per cent.; beets, 142 plants from 100 seed balls; cabbage, 90 per cent.; carrots, 80; cauliflower, 80; celery, 60; corn, (fluit and sugar) 87; cucumber, 87; lettuce, 85; musk melon, 87; onion 80; parsley, 70; paranip, 70; peas, 93, pumpkin, 87; radish, 90; spinach, 84; squash, 87; tomatoes, 85; turnips, 90; and water melons, 87 per cent These figures are based upon results secured in a sun testing apparatus, where the conditions of moisture and temperature could be controlled. Under ordinary methods the percentage obtained might not run as high, but would run sufficiently near it to give a good idea of the vitality of the seed.

Testing your seed is advisable, whether you buy your seed or grow it yourself. Unless the germinating power of the seed is known, it is impossible to tell how much seed to sow to the acre. If one is compelled, because of a bad crop, to fall back upon seed that is over a year old, the testing process is necessary.

Some recent French tests have shown that two year old carrot seed gives less leafy plants, and more highly colored roots than fresh seed With pumpkins, squashes, melons and gherkins, seed two and three years old, proved most satisfactory. In a general way, therefore, it may be stated that while fresh seed gives the best results, there are some exceptions, more particularly in the case of vegetables. Generally speaking, it may be stated that fresh seed should be used, when it is desired to produce a plant with a strong leaf growth, while for plants which it is desired should head or fruit well, like cabbage, melon, cucumber, etc., it is preferable to use two or three year old seed.

DANGEROUS PURGATIVES

Many People Ruin Their Health Using Purgatives in Spring.

A spring medicine is an actual necessity. Nature demands it as an aid to carrying off the impurities that have accumulated in the blood during the winter months. Thousands of people recognizing the necessity of a spring medicine dose themselves with harsh, griping purgatives. This is a serious mistake. Ask any doctor and he will tell you that the use of purgative medicine weakens the system, but does not cure disease. In the spring the system needs building up—purgatives weaken. The blood should be made rich, red and pure—purgatives cannot do this. What is needed in the spring is a tonic, and the best tonic medical science has yet devised is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine actually makes new rich red blood. This new blood strengthens every organ, every nerve, every part of the body. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills banish pimples and unsightly skin eruptions. That is why they cure headaches, backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, general weakness and a host of other troubles that come from poor, watery blood. That is why men and women who use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills eat well, sleep well, and feel thright, active and strong. Mrs. Joseph Lepage, St. Jerome, Que., says: "My daughter suffered from headaches and dizziness. Her appetite was poor. She had no strength and could not study or do any work. She was thin and pale as a sheet. A neighbour advised the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and after taking a couple of boxes we could see an improvement in her condition. She used the pills for some weeks longer when they fully restored her health, and she is now enjoying the best health she ever did." Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills this spring if you want to be healthy and strong. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

THE CARE OF LITTLE THINGS

The Proper Way to Take Care of Ashes And Refuse.

The taking care of the little things about the house, has been responsible for the reducing of housekeeping to a fine art. The quicker and more promptly the refuse of all kinds is disposed of, the better for the healthfulness and comfort of the home.

Keep the ashes free from organic waste and they can be used to advantage on the garden walks, or to fill up the low places. They should never be stored in wooden boxes, when taken from the stoves, nor in barrels, or in ash pit. Purchase for a small sum, a galvanized can, not too large. This can be easily emptied, and should be fitted with a tight lid. Many serious fires are caused from the careless manner of using a wooden receptacle for ashes.

Kitchen refuse from the preparation of food, can be, and should be, saved for the pigs and the chickens. It should be also collected in a galvanized iron pail, if possible, and the pails, no matter of what material they are made, should be kept covered with air tight covers, especially in summer. The pails should be washed and scalded each time they are emtied, and once a week, especially in summer, they should be rinsed with some good antiseptic, a teaspoonful to a pint of water.

Old refuse that the junk dealer will buy (old iron, tin, leather, rubber, etc.) should be cleaned and stored in large sacks, specially for that purpose, and placed in some dry outhouse to await his next trip through the country. Do not leave any damp or decaying rubbish in dark or out of the way places. Make it a practice not to allow old papers or other refuse to accumulate in the yards, or sheds. Nothing begets dirt and refuse, like dirt and refuse itself. Have a thorough cleaning out of all such places this spring, and keep them in a better condition hereafter. You will be well repaid, every time you come near the dark corners.

TO KEEP CAKE FROM STICKING

If you do not want your cake to stick to the pan after it is baked, butter the dish or pan, then throw in a handful of sifted flour. Shake the pan till the flour sticks to the butter, then turn the pan bottom side up and beat it so as to remove all flour that does not adhere. Do not allow the cake to remain in the pan more than two minutes, after it is done.

The whites of eggs, beaten to a stiff froth, with 3 teaspoonfuls of sugar to each egg, and a teaspoonful of breakfast cocoa, mixed with both, makes a good filling for layer cakes, when you do not have plenty of sweet cream; but do not try to make frosting from an egg that has been chilled, as it will not beat up nicely.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION MEANS SICKLY BABIES

The baby who suffers from indigestion is simply starving to death. It loses all desire for food and the little it does take does it no good; the child is peevish, cross and restless, and the mother feels worn out in caring for it. Baby's Own Tablets always cure indigestion, and make the child sleep healthily and naturally. Mrs. Geo. Howell, Sandy Beach, Que., says: "My baby suffered from indigestion, colic and vomiting and cried day and night, but after giving him Baby's Own Tablets the trouble disappeared and he is now a healthy child." JAUNT THROUGH CANADA'S FERTILE LANDS OF THE WEST electric lines running to the beach. I was down there several times and it was magnificent to stand on the beach and watch the ocean waves come rolling up the sands. I spent much time picking shells up from the sands, and to do this and to look away out over the ocean, made me think of the time when I was a boy, and wondered if I would ever see the ocean. I then realized my boyhood's dreams.

Los Angeles itself is not a very pretty city, but some of those little suburban cities around it are very fine. All along the beach there are many of them, of populations ranging from 15,000 down. They are, of course, all summer resorts, and summer and winter being alike there, they carry on their trade all the time. One of the suburbs is called Pasadena. It has a population of about 12,000, and is noted the world over for its famous show held on New Year's Day, and called The Tournament of Roses. I was there to see it, and saw a sight that I will never forget. The show is merely a procession of fancy rigs, dressed up in all forms, but the dress must take the form of flowers of some sort. There were wagons, buggies, democrats, gigs, floats, and all other sorts of conveyances, all covered with flowers, so that you could not possibly see any part of the rig itself. The flowers were principally roses, carnations, and calla lilies, and a very large flower peculiar to California called the Poinsettia. This flower is usually about 15 inches in diameter, and is a bright scarlet in colour. Imagine, then, every conceivable form of rig absolutely covered with some sort of gigantic flowers, and horses and all covered also, and imagine a procession so long that it took exactly an hour for it to go past the spot where I was standing, and you will have some idea of the tournament. There were tens of thousands of dollars worth of flowers used, and the young folk in the rigs were dressed up also for the occasion. They represented fairies, clowns, gypsies, queens, etc., and were very pretty. The queen of the whole show was a young lady noted the world over. Her name is Miss May Sutton, and she is noted for being the champion lady tennis player of the world.

After remaining in this region for some two weeks, I went to Redland's to visit Uncle David's, and as you will all be more interested in them than in anything else I could tell you, I will tell you all about them. I was two weeks in Los Angeles before I knew where they were, but a card from Uncle Joe found me at Los Angeles and I wrote at once to Uncle David, and, needless to say, I was not long in getting a reply from Uncle David telling me to get to Redlands as quickly as possible. But he told me to be sure to go to Pasadena to see the Tournament of Roses.

The tournament took place on a Wednesday, and on the following Monday I went to Redlands, which, by the way, is by far the prettiest city in the south. Uncle David met me at the station, and we drove home through a perfect paradise of drives. Of course, Uncle David is getting old, nearly 77 now, and he could not be expected to be as spry as a man of younger years, but I believe I can say that I have not often met men of his age who are so able as he. His hair is quite white, but he looks young in other ways, and is in the habit of taking walks up town, a distance of more than a mile, whenever occasion demands. But he usually drives. He has not done anything at his profession for about ten years. Aunt Nellie is not very well, being troubled with asthma, but she is well in other respects, and both of them, and indeed, the whole family, are very popular with everyone. They lived for some time in San Diego, then in Los Angeles, then moved to Redlands. There are only two of the young folks at home, Bertha, who teaches in the city schools, and who certainly knows her business, and Florence, the youngest of the family, who is also teaching business colleges at a neighbouring city called San Bernardino, who comes home every night, as the places are very close together.

Of a large family of twelve, there are but six living, the two girls, and the four boys, Wilmot, and engineer; Walter, a mine manager in Mexico; Harold, who is with Walter at the mining business, and Ed, who had to give up his business as a jeweller, on account of ill health, and who is now at Prescott, Arizona, managing an engine. The boys have all prospered, and are very highly in the confidence of their employers, and of everyone else. Ed. and Wilmot are married, but Walter and Harold are not. I had not the pleasure of meeting any of the boys.

Uncle David's address is 106 San Mateo street, Redlands, California, and I am sure he would be very much obliged to everyone if we would write a little oftner than we have done. I may say just here that I do not know of a bunch of relatives anywhere on earth who are more delinquent in the matter of writing than we are, and of course, I am no exception to the rule. But they were all so interested in all I had to say about the relatives in Canada, and asked me all sorts of question about all of you, that I am sure an occasional letter would come very acceptably to them. The girls were very much interested in the photos of the cousins which I took down with me. The young people there have not much idea of what Canada is like, any more than I had of what California was like. They may come up to Canada in a year and a half, or a year from next summer. I stayed there two weeks, and certainly, they gave me the time of my life. We were out driving almost every day and nothing seemed to be too much trouble to them if it would give me any degree of pleasure.

Now, I must stop a minute to tell you about the oranges, for you must know that Redlands is right in the centre of the orange district, in fact the home of the oranges. The land is quite red in its nature, hence the name of the city. And oranges are to be found wherever they can be planted. There are simply tens of thousands of acres all planted out in orange orchards, and as December, January, and February are the months for the picking, you will see that I was there at the right season for the fruit. This industry is by far the most important of all in the South, at least, so far as Redlands is concerned. An orange tree is very pretty when it is laden with the fruit. The leaves are very dark in colour and thick, so that you cannot see through an orange tree as you can through an apple tree. Then the bright, golden oranges, which are not only on the outside of the tree, but are all through it, make a very pretty picture. The trees are rather smaller than apple trees, and are planted very much closer together than apple trees. But they require much more attention than the apples, and must be irrigated, cultivated, and cared for in other ways. But the crop is very profitable, and if a man has about ten acres of oranges, he has not only enough work to keep him busy, but has an income for life. There are all species of oranges grown there, but the most famous are the navel oranges, which are almost the only ones shipped to Canada. You have probably heard that ripe oranges, green ones and blossoms all are found on the same tree all year round. That is true, but it is by no means common. I saw a few blossoms there, but very few. But green oranges and ripe ones on the same tree are more common. The trees are green all year round. Lemons and olives are also a great crop there, but there are not so many lemons as there are oranges. It is possible to grow oranges, lemons, and those larger grape fruit, all on the same tree, and there is one man there who has seven different kinds of fruit all on the same tree. This is done by careful grafting. It is done merely for curiosity. Uncle David has not a very large orchard, but it is covered with orange trees, and in common with their general kindness to me, Aunt Nellie insisted on my bringing home with me a large valise full of oranges, which I picked myself. I was at their place two weeks.

American Women

It is sometimes said there is no difference between Americans and Canadians. That is not true, but it is not easy to tell wherein the difference lies. The American women seem much more free from care than the Canadian women, and I imagine they have a better time of it. Then they are a much more polite people than we are. They will spare no pains to make strangers feel at home, and will do anything on earth to answer questions or to give a fellow information. Their politeness is most noticeable, and I noticed it at once, when I landed at San Francisco. In all the time I was away, and of all the questions I had occasions to ask of strangers—and I asked hundreds of them—I was spoken to with incivility only once.

They are a far more enterprising people than we are, and seem to have the science of advertising down fine. California grows large quantities of alfalfa, and sometimes gets three crops a year from it. Irrigation is very common there in the whole state.

There is, of course, no snow there, except what you can see on the tops of some of the highest mountain peaks. It is simply eternal summer, and that was the only thing I did not like about the state. There are no changes of seasons of any account.

Divorce Question

Redlands is about seventy-five miles from the coast. When on my way home I remained over night again at Los Angeles and took occasion to visit the court house. I was anxious to see a divorce case, and I was not disappointed. There were two on the day I was there, and it took the judge exactly twenty-five minutes to dispose of the two. It looks funny to us Canadians to think even of such a thing as a divorce, but it is just my private opinion that it would be a better thing for Canada if we had some such thing. Here we cannot get divorced without special act of Parliament, and this costs too much. But they make it far too easy to get a separation.

The products of the state are very numerous, consisting of almost everything you can think of. This makes it a very desirable place to live. Some of the products are oranges, lemons, cotton, olives, apples, wheat, alfalfa, grasses of all kinds, lumber, and all the common minerals. It is not what we would call a wheat country. It is, though, pre-eminently a fruit country. Fruit lands sell for about $150 an acre or more, but sometimes you can get them for very little. There is still a little wild land, which may be taken up, but it is not likely to be much.

Los Angeles is the very centre of a series of electric radial lines, which run in every direction. You can go almost every way for fares from 25 cents to $2.50, and some of the trips are beautiful in the extreme. One trip I took was to an island in the ocean, called Santa Catalina. It is 28 miles from the shore. It is simply a big rocky affair with one port. While there I saw a sea lion, the only thing of its sort I ever saw. We saw also several shoals of porpoises.

From the names of the different places I have mentioned, such as Santa Catalina, Santa Barbara, San Francisco, etc., you will notice that the Spanish Catholics were very active at one time. They colonized the state in the first place. The word "San" means saint, and Santa is the feminine of San. Evidently the Catholics think there were some Women who were saints.

Education is very far advanced, and the system is as far advanced as in Ontario. There are two very large universities, and I visited them both. I also visited several colleges, and high schools, and was very much impressed with all I saw there.

Better Preachers Here

The Californians do not keep Sunday as we do in Canada. That is their special day for amusements of all sorts, including excursions, baseball games, theatres, etc., but for all that they are a fine people and I was very much taken with them.

The preachers there are not up to much. They are not half as good as our men in Canada, but some of them are better speakers. But they have nothing seemingly to say, and seem to be lacking in thought. The two most noted I heard were Dr. Robt. McIntyre, formerly of Ottawa, and Dr. Frank DeWitt Talmage. They are both fine speakers, but have no ideas on earth.

Return to Canada

I left Los Angeles to come home on a Tuesday night, and sailed to San Francisco on a lumber ship. It took thirty-six hours to make the trip. I stayed there twenty-four hours, and then took a good boat the "Umatilla," for Victoria. We had a most beautiful sail, not a sign of a storm taking place. I landed at Victoria on Sunday night and managed to get my luggage inspected by the customs officer, and to pass quarantine in time to catch the C. P. R. boat for Vancouver. Then I went to New Westminster again to see Ed., remained there a few hours and took the train on the main line for Medicine Hat.

I had a good time, saw a great deal of the world, have pleasant reminiscences of my trip, and am not a bit sorry I went. I would strongly advise everyone to try to make some such trip at least every few years, as there is nothing which can broaden a man like travelling.

Now, of course, I expect this letter to go to all the relatives, for you can easily see that I cannot write such a book to everyone. I would suggest the following route for it to take. I am sending it to you, Uncle Jim, and you better give it to Uncle George, Aunt Mary and Aunt Fannie, and to any of the others there who might be interested. Then send it to Uncle Joe, who will send it to Uncle Ned, who will send it to Wilbert, who will send it to Jack, at Strathclair, Man., who will send it to Uncle Johnny, at Manitowaning, who will send it to Mother, at Heathcote, who will keep it.

Alf and Louie are well, and I am at their place now, as I type this. I cannot say that I am very much better in health for my trip, but have resigned my job here, and will be better when I can get some sort of an outside job, which I can do.

We have no winter here in Alberta to speak of, very little or no snow, and not much cold weather. This is by far the finest town I have ever seen to spend the winter, as this inexhaustible supply of natural gas makes life worth living.

Do Not Trifle With a Cold

Is good advice for men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Long experience has proven that there is nothing better for colds in children than

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

It is a favorite with many mothers and never disappoints them. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given with implicit confidence.

If We Could Look at the Heart of a Pale-Faced Person!

Few people ever stop to consider what matter to the countenance means. In the first place it indicates an absence from the blood of the rich, red, life-giving elements so requisite to health; and in the second place it indicates a weakened heart action. These two things act and re-act. If we could look at the heart of one of these pale-faced people, we would see it flabby, weak and pale. No wonder they are easily tired, get out of breath quickly, have palpitation, are nervous and downhearted. Their muscles are poor, their stomach disordered, and their lives are seldom free from misery.

Let them take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills; there is no remedy to equal them for making pale faces rosy, weak hearts and shaky nerves strong, flabby muscles firm, and infusing new hope and ambition into life.

Mr. W. J. Churchill, Lombardy, Ont., writes: "I was troubled for three years with a weak heart and nervousness. I could not sleep and ever so little food would distress me. I also had faint and dizzy spells, and doctored with three doctors but was growing worse. After taking three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I feel as well as ever I did. They are the best pills on earth."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COOL CURING OF CHEESE ADVOCATED

At Dairymen's Convention at Cowansville—Agitation to Dock Commissioners.

The cool curing of cheese was strongly advocated by Dairy Commissioner Ruddick, at the Dairymen's Convention at Cowansville, Que. The Government Illustration Station had done good work, and in other sections of Quebec, and of Canada, it was being followed out better than at Cowansville. The reason for apathy at Cowansville, was that the factory was owned by an individual, instead of by the farmers, and this factoryman derived no good from the superior quality of the cheese, whereas the farmers who would derive the benefit would not put money into a cool curing plant belonging to another man.

During the last ten years agitation had been made to the Dock Commissioners at Liverpool and London, and better cool-curing service secured. Mr. A. A. Ayer, of Montreal, pointed out that this had been the means of revolutionizing the business over there, and had caused one large firm to lose nearly all its business, in favor of another firm, because the latter would, and the former would not, put in cold storage

Raincoat

A Raincoat is like a Gun—when you need it you need it bad. No matter how many Overcoats you may have your wardrobe is incomplete

Without a Raincoat

When Old Prebs says "Rain," put on your Raincoat, and if his prediction doesn't come true, it will answer all the purposes of an Overcoat. Many fresh air men will wear Raincoats all through the coldest weather; they like them because they are not as clumsy as a regular Overcoat, yet their length protects the limbs. FLORENCE IS FINED

Was Assessed Five Dollars and Costs for Peddling Without A License—Not In Court.

IS ATTENDING A WEDDING

The case of Louis Florence, who appeared last Saturday in the police court on a charge of peddling without a license, was brought up again before His Worship. The magistrate decided to give judgment against Florence, and fined him $5 and costs, amounting to $9.85, or thirty days in jail.

Mr. Kerr, who appeared for Florence, said his client was in New York, attending a wedding.

"Well, I'll give him ten days to pay it in.'

"But these Jewish weddings last over two weeks,' said Mr. Kerr.

"Well, you see that he pays it when he comes back.'

MANUFACTURING DIFFICULTIES HAVE BEEN SETTLED

Messrs. Stratton and Fortye have returned from Toronto, where they have been attending a meeting, called to effect a solution of the difficulties existing between manufacturers of spades and shovels. Perhaps the most bitter warfare that has occurred in manufacturing lines has existed the past few months among the manufacturers of shovels and spades in Canada, the arbitrary position assumed by some of them being the provoking cause. The Peterborough Shovel and Tool Company has, perhaps, suffered the least of any by the condition referred to, but it has suffered.

There have been several meetings of all the different manufacturers, to endeavour to arrive at a decision to do business on business principles. These meetings, however, did not result in bringing the parties concerned any closer together. As a last resort another meeting was held in Toronto on Monday and Tuesday last, at which an adjustment of business difficulties was amicably arranged. The public and dealers have had the advantage of the "scrap," and the loss to shovel manufacturers will be between $40,000 and $60,000. The president and manager of the Peterborough Shovel and Tool Company have been the means of getting the disturbing element quieted and peace and harmony once more prevail. Since the Peterborough company was established two other companies have been organized.

ICE ON RICE LAKE SHOWS NO SIGNS OF BREAKING UP

Mr. Fred Roseborough returned this morning from Pluisville, near Gore's Landing, where he was on a business trip looking after horses. About four o'clock this morning he started on his homeward trip and arrived in the city after eight o'clock. Mr. Roseborough says that the ice on Rice lake shows no sign of breaking up, and excellent driveways have been formed between opposite points on the lake. Mr Roseborough thinks that no better ice racing grounds could be found.

MR. B. FALLEY PRESENTED WITH TRUNK LAST NIGHT

The spacious dining room of the Peterborough House, Hunter street, was gaily decorated last night, when twenty-five of the employees of the Brinton Carpet Company, from Kidderminster, England, gathered to celebrate the birthday of one of their popular fellow workmen, Mr. H. Falley, generally known as "Farmer keeps on doing it." A very dainty banquet was spread and heartily enjoyed by those who gathered around the festive board.

At the conclusion of the banquet Mr. Falley was presented with a handsome trunk and a splendid address, to which he made a suitable reply.

THE ALLIANCE SECRETARY TO GIVE ADDRESSES

To-morrow the Rev. W G Hanna, B. A., provincial secretary of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance will be in the city. In the morning he will preach at the Mark street Methodist church and in the evening at Knox Presbyterian church in the interests of the Lord's Day Alliance.

At 8.30 a mass meeting will also be held at St. Paul's church at which he will give an address and all who are interested in the work are requested to attend.

INDIAN WOMEN NEAR KENORA HAVE STILL ALL THE MANUAL LABOUR TO PERFORM AS OF OLD

Almost every day despatches are received of mining accidents in the Kenora district and many workmen have met death in the blasting operations which are continually occurring. A local man, who spent some time in that part of the country, referred to these frequent disasters and told of scenes which he himself had witnessed. Speaking of different incidents he recalled he stated foreigners are engaged extensively in the work, especially the more laborious tasks. Swedes, Poles and a few Italians are found and of the former not many can speak English. They receive several dollars a day for leading horses that draw the broken rocks as they are unable to drive them in the ordinary way. The methods of blasting are very interesting, but are dangerous to the careless workman.

The Indians

The speaker also mentioned the Indians, who live in that district. They possess the same lineal characteristics as of old. To the uninitiated it is a strange sight to see an Indian riding into the town on a little pony, which is barely tall enough to prevent the brave's feet from trailling on the ground. He sits his diminutive steed with a grace acquired through long practice and most of them smoke long pipes, which rest on their breasts.

The Indian is accompanied by his wife, who has charge of the family when the children are brought along, which is not very often. The squaw walks on snowshoes in winter, and does not keep on the road, which the shaggy pony has to follow. She is practically another beast of burden, for to her falls the duty of carrying the pelts which her master has secured from his numerous traps.

Work for the Squaw

Arrived in town the Indian's pony takes him into his usual hotel where he is sure his squaw can secure an afternoon's work in scrubbing or cleaning in the house. Mr. Indian then starts out on his favourite work of bartering his pelts. This generally consumes considerable time, and, then loaded with the family's provisions for a couple of weeks or a month, the Indian returns to the hotel to prepare for the return trip. He collects his squaw's earnings from the proprietor, procures any other incidentals he may have overlooked, and leaving the provisions for his wife to carry, lights his pipe and the little procession starts again in the same order on the homeward journey to the semi-civilized hut in the depths of the forest.

The Case Against Randall Was Enlarged Without Evidence

Lindsay, March 20.—Kenneth Randall, right wing of the Lindsay hockey team, appeared before Magistrate Jackson in the police court here this afternoon on a charge of assaulting A. E. Switzer of the Midland hockey team, and, much to the disappointment of the large crowd which jammed the court room, the case was enlarged until Tuesday, 31st March, no evidents being taken at to-day's sitting.

The case is causing great excitement in Lindsay, and was the principal topic of conversation to-day. At 1.30 p.m., the hour set for the commencement of the trial, the court room was crowded to the doors with a throng eager to hear the case threshed out, but they were doomed to disappointment. The popular feeling here, of course, is in sympathy with Randall.

When court opened Magistrate Jackson read the following charge; "That Kenneth Randall, at the skating rink on Lindsay street, in the town of Lindsay, on Friday, the 21st day of February, did unlawfully commit an assault upon, and beat, Albert Edward Switzer, and did thereby then and there occasion actual bodily harm to him, the said Albert Edward Switzer."

Randall elected to be tried summarily by the magistrate and pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Mr. D. S. Story of Midland, who appeared for Switzer, stated that he had thought the case would be sent before the county judge, and had, therefore, only summoned enough witnesses to warrant that being done. He asked for an adjournment in order to allow him a chance to get his witnesses present.

Randall's counsel, Mr. G. H. Hopkins of Lindsay, stated that he had his witnesses on hand and was ready to go on with the case.

Magistrate Jackson enlarged the case until Friday of next week, it being understood that there will be a further adjournment until the following Tuesday.

It is said the number of witnesses will approach the record set in the Thaw case. It is expected that the defence and prosecution will have about forty witnesses each, and it is not regarded as likely that the case will be gotten through in one day, witnesses having been subpoenaed from Toronto, Orillia, Barrie, Peterborough and other outside points.

Resignation Of Directors Of The Y. M. C. A. In A Body Last Night

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. held last evening it was decided to call a special meeting of the members at an early date.

As it was considered desirable that there should be a larger representation of younger men on the directorate, the following resolution was moved by Messrs. J. D. Thornton and J. S. Knapman, was carried:

"That in view of the fact that it has been considered wise to have on the Board a larger representation of the younger members, it is the opinion of this meeting that the best interests of the association will be served by the Board as a body placing their resignations in the hands of the membership, to be dealt with as they may deem best."

The following resolution, moved by Messrs. J. D. Thornton and J. S. Knapman, was carried:

Omemee Gets Grant Of $2000 To Improve The Pigeon River

Omemee, March 20.—(Special).—The citizens of Omemee are very much elated to learn that the sum of $2,000 has, through the efforts of Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., of Lindsay, been placed in the estimates this year for the purpose of improving navigation in Pigeon River. The work of removing the weeds and bogs that, at the present time, clog the channel of the Pigeon River from Pigeon Lake to Omemee will be proceeded with as far as possible this summer, and a sufficient channel for medium-sized crafts will be made ready by the month of July, or thereabouts.

There is every reason to believe that if the work is accomplished without much difficulty this summer, an additional sum for further improvements will be obtained for next year.

The citizens of Omemee are to be congratulated upon the energetic manner in which they have carried on the campaign for this waterway improvement and Mr. McLaughlin is to be congratulated in having been successful in inducing the Government to grant a sum of money for this work.

The work of clearing the channel will be commenced as soon as navigation opens.

Cases Which Come Before Chief Justice Murdoch On Monday

The Spring Assizes of the High Court of Justice will open on Monday afternoon at one o'clock with Chief Justice Mulock, of Toronto, as the presiding judge. There is one jury case and two non-jury cases to be heard.

The jury case is one in which the plaintiffs are the Port Hope Brewing and Malting Company and the defendants Wm. Moffatt and Irvine A. Jackson, of Belleville. The plaintiffs claim that the defendants owe them a balance of $125 and interest on nine installments in connection with the subscription by the defendants of five shares of stock in the plaintiffs company. Messrs. O'Connell & Gordon, for the plaintiffs and Messrs. Porter and Carmen, of Belleville, for the defendants.

One of the non-jury cases is that of Ada Hill, of Dummer against Francis Kavanagh, also of Dummer, in which the plaintiff claims that she bought a portion of land for $225, and after she had paid $10 on the property, the defendant refused to carry out the agreement. Messrs. O'Connell & Gordon for the plaintiff, and Mr. Geo. J. Sherry, of Norwood, for the defendant.

WAS INSPECTOR R.N.W.M.P.

Mr. R. C. Strickland of Lakefield yesterday received a telegram from the West containing the sad news of the sudden death of his eldest son, Mr. D'Arcy Strickland, inspector of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, with headquarters at Fort Saskatchewan. He was 42 years of age and leaves a wife, whom he married in the West, and two children.

Mr. D'Arcy Strickland was born in Lakefield, but had been in Western Canada many years.

The family here had not received any notice of this illness, and were much surprised at the news received of his sudden death yesterday. No details of his illness and death have yet been heard.

Those assigned to the Peterborough district were Messrs. P. McNaught, J. A. Mackenzie and H. J. Hofferd. Mr. John Austin was appointed to the Lindsay district.

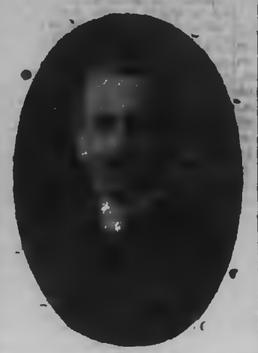
An important meeting of the Harrier Club of the Y. M. C. A. is called for Tuesday evening next at 7.30 o'clock sharp. Besides the routine work of electing new officers and receiving annual reports special business will be discussed. The question of sending a team to Toronto and Hamilton to compete in the Olympic trials this spring will be of unusual moment and will be carefully considered. The special events that the local Y. M. C. A. will give their attention to are the 100 yards, 3 miles and the Marathon.

All the members are requested to attend this meeting.

PETERBORO COP WANTED FOR THE MILLBROOK FORCE

The residents of Millbrook are agitating for an increase in their police force. They believe that the police protection of their village is very inadequate only having one man to guard the citizens. It is also learned that they are very desirous of having one of the Peterborough force, but as this city also complains of having too small a force for the size of the city, it is thought that Millbrook will have to look elsewhere.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF CHARLOTTE STRETT METHODIST CHURCH



REV. H. M. MANNING.
Pastor of Charlotte Street Methodist Church.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH THE KIDNAPPING OF A BOY TO GAIN ITS FATHER'S LOVE

New York, March 21.—(Special) — Mary Chambers, who kidnapped four-year-old George Wilson last Saturday from his parents' home, No. 75 Bank street, "because she loved him so" was captured in Trenton yesterday with the boy in her charge.

Following her arrest the police make the following charge that she really kidnapped the boy in order to win the love of the child's father.

The child was found yesterday noon, following a telegram sent by the New York detectives that he and Miss Chambers probably would be found at the residence of James M. Miller, a negro., Miss Chambers was held, in Trenton, awaiting requisition papers, while Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their little son were brought to Police Headquarters in this city last night.

Suggested the Kidnapping

After the father of the child had been questioned and confronted with a letter, Detective Daniel J. Sheahan, who had traced the kidnapped boy, said:

"This is a strange kidnapping case. The father admits that Miss Chambers suggested to him several weeks ago that she kidnap the child. He spurned her suggestion, but it appears from the facts and Chambers' own statement that she stole the little boy in the hope that she could thus induce the father to follow the child and live with her.

Did you know that your son had been stolen by Miss Chambers in order to persuade you to go with her?" Mr. Wilson was asked by an American reporter.

The father hesitated a moment, consulted with two police officials and finally replied:

"Whatever Detective Sheehan says is right."

The kidnapped boy did not at first wish to leave Miss Chambers, even when his mother appeared. Miss Chambers had purchased for him a little red tin automobile on the day she took him away from home, and the toy was clutched in his hands when he was found by the police.

George Shepherd Is Wanted In Gananoque For Forgery

It is evident from the following letter which Chief Rensel recived this morning, enclosed with a letter from Chief Bond of Port Hope, that George Shepherd has been too active with the pen in other places outside of Peterborough:

Gananoque, March 18.

Chief Constable,
Port Hope,—

Dear Sir,—I saw in the Brockville papers that you had under arrest one, George Shepherd, wanted in Peterborough for forgery. We also want him here on a similar charge. Will you kindly let me know if he gets off, or, if he is sentenced, what the sentence is? We will follow if he gets a good send-off up there. He cashed a forged cheque here for fifteen dollars.

Yours truly,
CHIEF RYAN.

It is also learned that there are other places which are after Shepherd.

Two Men Charged With Theft From The Canadian General

The Canadian General Electric Company, city, have been the victims to a long succession of thefts and have made up their minds to stop the leak in their business. Only a few days ago four young men who had been watched by a detective from Toronto, were arrested, but allowed to go on suspended sentence. The pattern shop of the C.G.E. Co. has missed a large quantity of mahogony. The Chief of Police was notified a few days ago and after making an investigation he decided to make an arrest. P. C. Newhall went to the works yesterday afternoon and arrested two young men, George Scott and Wm. Allan, employees of the pattern shop, on a charge of theft. The officer, after looking the two men in the cells searched their rooms and found a large quantity of mahogany in Scott's room and a small quantity in Allen's.

The two men were brought before Magistrate Dumble yesterday afternoon and pleaded not guilty to the charge. His Worship enlarged the case until Monday morning and allowed both to go on their own bail.

The Street Railway Service Was Held Up In The South End

The Street Railway service in the south end was blocked for a considerable length of time this afternoon owing to the breaking of the trolley wire at Lake street. The repair wagon was hurried to the scene and the Light and Power gang under the supervision of the foreman, Mr. H. A. Fife, had the wire repaired.

Choked His Cow By Giving It A Liquid "Rinser" For Its Illness

A cow belonging to Mr. Wood, Mather's Corners, met death recently in a strange manner. He was treating it for an illness and was giving it what he called a rinsing. He was pouring some kind of a mixture into it when suddenly the liquid choked it and in a few minutes it was dead. Suffocation was caused so quickly that Mr. Wood scarcely knew what to do before the cow was overcome. He valued it highly and never expected to lose it in such an unlooked for manner.

Two Aged Sisters Pass Away Within Month Of Each Other

Mr. J Irvine Davidson, 815 George street, to-day received word from Scotland of the death at Aberdeen of his sister, Mrs. Alexander Smith, aged 69 years. She passed away on Sunday, March 8th. It was only on February 1st that another sister of Mr. Davidson died in the person of Mrs. F. Wilson, aged 76 years. The former's maiden name was Jean Davison, and the latter's Helen Davidson. She died at Oshawa.

Magazine Enters On 29th Year Of Its Publication In The City

The current issue of St. Luke's Parish Magazine marks the entrance upon the 29th year of its publication. This magazine has always been popular among the parishioners and it is a credit to the editor, Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, the rector. It contains news of all meetings and doings in connection with the church as well as items of interest from the outside world with reference to the Anglican church. It is a publication, too, that is widely read.

Bulk tea not only loses flavour, but it takes on new ones such as oranges, kerosene, molasses, etc. Rich uniform, deliciously-flavoured tea can always be purchased in the air-tight lead packets of "Salada." A pound of "Salada" will go as far as a pound and a quarter of most teas.

WORD FROM ROME

From Mr. W. D. Lummis, President of Cavendish Lumber Co.—Pleasant Trip To The Holy Land.

TO BE HOME IN APRIL

A communication was to-day received from Mr. W. D. Lummis, president of the Cavandish Lumber Company, who has been on an extended tour through the Holy Land. The letter was sent from home and he gave in it a splendid description of that ancient and historic city. During his tour he had a lengthy trip on the Nile River, which he greatly enjoyed. He is on his way home now and expects to be back in Peterborough about April 1st.

LATEST ISSUE OF STUDENTS' MONTHLY IS UP TO STANDARD

The March issue of the Collegiate Echoes has been received and still continues as a worthy production of the students of the Collegiate Institute. Those contributing special articles are Mr. H Brown, Form IV.; Miss Bessie Read, Form II; Jimmy O'Brien, Form IB, and Miss Jack Hanstone, Form IV. The regular columns are particularly interesting.

On the editorial page is an article dealing with the education of girls of to-day. The writer says that the education should be comprehensive and concludes his article as follows, after mentioning that her training is not all it should be:—

That is the weakness of the educational system for girls to-day. They must be either literary or domestic; they must either devote their whole energies to the mind or to the body. Cooks or blue stockings! What a fate! What we should aim at is the development of the all-round woman, one who can prepare a meal with taste and daintiness, and yet be able to talk intelligently on the development of the drama or the philosophy of Herbert Spencer.

SUDBURY MAN WANTS TO ENTER WALKING RACE

The big walking match to be held here, beginning April 20, is attracting attention all over the Province. Dava Hartley has received the following letter from Walter Harrow of Sudbury in regard to the match:

Dear Mr. Hartley,—Seeing you are going to have a 30-hour walk, I should like to be in it. I am an old champion of England as a long distance walker. I am 59 years of age and winner of 72 matches out of 80. I have been out here four years and am an old sport at the game and should like to have a go. I am about the same age as you and well known down east. Let me know about it as soon as you can, because I would like to be in the race.

I am Yours,
WALTER HARROW,
Walker.

LAKEFIELD.

It is not difficult to see the object of placing the village of Lakefield in the East Riding for provincial election purposes, as is contemplated by the redistribution bill now before the the Provincial Legislature. It is to be regarded as a Conservative portion of the riding, having given the Conservative candidate in the last provincial elections a majority of 62. It is taken out of the west riding for purely party purposes—to give East Peterborough a party advantage that from a Conservative point of view West Peterborough can dispense with. Under ordinary conditions, Lakefield commercially, socially and otherwise, is more directly in affiliation with Peterborough as the County Town. The translation of Lakefield to the east riding is not necessary as regard to equalization of riding population. It is simply done to help the Conservatives in the east riding and Mr. Bradburn in the west, for reasons which he, himself, can easily appreciate. It is placed where it can do the least harm and the greatest good to the Conservatives and for party tactics is a good enough move. It is all very well for Mr. Whitney to say that Lakefield desires to be so shifted. To his mind two or three active local politicians can easily be held to represent Lakefield.

As a matter of fact the Lakefield people do not wish to be placed in East Peterborough. Two or three Conservatives may think so, but they do not represent public opinion. If Lakefield people want to confer with their member it would be much easier to confer with Peterborough, than with Norwood or Havelock, or Belmont, or even Otonabee. Even Mr. Bradburn would prefer to use his influence for favours for someone in his own constituency. Placing Lakefield in some one constituency is right in principle, but Lakefield people will be the worse for not being placed in the west for all purposes. Two or three Conservative politicians in Lakefield may feel that their chances of getting the Conservative nomination will be improved by adding Lakefield to the East Riding, but time will show their mistake. The City of Peterborough which is in West Peterborough will always be the centre of influence in this county.

THE CLAIM OF THE HOSPITALS.

The request of the recent deputation representing the hospitals of the province, that the Ontario Government increase the per capita payments to these beneficent institutions can be endorsed on the most tenable grounds. Years ago the lump sum voted by the legislature and divided pro rata amounted to 40 cents per head. But with the number of hospitals greatly increased as well as the number of patients, the grant has been reduced to 17 cents per patient, and this is pretically reduced to a much smaller sum by the fact of its purchasing power being lessened through the great advance in price of all articles entering into the dietary and other expenses incident to the maintenance of a hospital. The necessity of an increased grant is further emphasized by the greater modern tendency to send certain cases of illness to hospitals instead of treating them in homes. This is reasonable, for patients can have better treatment and have better chances of recovery in hospitals than the vast majority of private homes can afford or supply even if the expense were provided for.

The hospital present good claims for generous consideration. The Government provides liberally for the expense of education, for the administration of justice, for agriculture and many other necessary and indispensable public services. The extent of the provision for these services is liberal out of all proportion to the expenditure devoted to the maintenance of hospitals. All these services are necessary in the public interest; but the health of the people is of paramount importance. If all the services indicated are maintained in thriving condition, what will that avail if the health of the people is neglected, impaired by, failure to provide adequate means for the treatment of disease? A healthy people with stinted material means would be a much happier and useful people than a people provided with all the conditions governments are equipped to supply, if health is lacking.

The request of those interested in hospitals could, reasonably, in view of the interests involved, constitute a demand upon the government for a great expansion of liberality in the treatment of hospitals. The Whitney Government is increasing the provincial expenditure "by leaps and bounds." While it is to be admitted that in a growing country there is bound to be increasing expenditure, there is also increase of revenue and while other less important public services secure increased proportion of expenditure from this increased revenue, it does not seem right that in the interests of public health, hospitals should with doubled cost of maintenance, only have half as much as was paid years ago. The claim of the hospitals to increased assistance should meet with ready recognition at the hands of the Ontario Government. Any expenditure in this direction will have to be, indeed, extravagantly lavish before it will meet with public censure or condemnation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. E. J. B. Pense, M.P.P., Kingston, "got off" rather a good one on the lawyers, or rather a lawyer, in the House on Thursday. At the Whitney banquet, Mr. George L. Blackstock himself a lawyer, described the late Ross Government as an "unscrupulous band of banditti." Mr. Pense pointed out that last year the Whitney Government had paid lawyers about $33,000 for services and fees, four or five times the amount expended by the Ross Government "banditti" in their last year in office for the same purpose. The idea of the average lawyer calling anybody else a "bandit."

Here's a chance for the Review and other Conservative slang-whangers to change their tune. They grow red in the face day after day denouncing the extravagance of the Liberal Government at Ottawa. Now they have a splendid chance at the Conservative Whitney Government. This Government, during its three years of office has increased the provincial expenditure as much per head as was done in the whole "thirty-three years in the saddle" of the Liberal Government of the Province. During the long Liberal lease of power the increase of expenditure was a dollar per head. The same increase per head has been achieved by the Whitney Government in three years.

Hon. Mr. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, boasts of a net revenue of $235,000 from the operation of the Provincial Railway, the T. & N. O. He and the province owe this and much more to the Ross Government. They owe the greater part of $1,665,601, added to last year's revenue, and derived from the mines—served by this railway in the form of mining sales and leases mining licenses and fees and royalties, and the province owes the large and valuable trade in New Ontario developed by the railway to the Ross Government which explored the northern section of the province, when it was unheeded, unknown and unvalued, and conceived and built the provincial railway which is such a valuable money-maker and wealth producing agent. And they did these things in face of the passive, if not active, obstruction of the Conservative Opposition of the time. They now have access to a source of revenue of over $2,000,000 a year from New Ontario which they would not have had if it had not been for the foresight, energy and enterprise of the Ross Government.

RELIGION OF THE PEANUT VARIETY

"Church Blindness" Contributes Letter On This Question—Up To Us To Be Honest.

Editor Examiner.

Dear Sir,—A peanut is a good citizen of the vegetable kingdom; but we notice it has certain peculiarities that have given it more than vegetable prominence. It ripens underground, like Uncle Joe Cannon. It is a nut that professes to be a bean and it eats like a potato. It is clean-headed, or hearted, or abdomened. Looked at horizontally, it has two heads, with nothing to indicate whether it is going or coming. Looked at perpendicularly, it has a belly, but nothing to indicate which is which. So is the piety of some people who have their names on the church book. Some "cusspidy" tell us the world is getting better. The time was when a man said "I love God," and he showed it to his brother. How is it to-day? The man who says "Lord, Lord," and wriggles out of his contract, though it personally himself as offensive as he may be able to do that he is "justified" in sweating his work and skipping his duty, knows himself over all a pious "fraud." A man may testify with he is black in the face that he is "saved," and all the pulpit experts in the land may certify him saved, but if he lies, or cheats, or steals, he goes, bag and baggage, to his own place among liars, frauds and thieves, in the skiograph of these X-ray days. What we want to-day is goodness and uprightness in the individual. Beginning, of course, with the persons who call themselves "saved." How can Christians enjoy to trip the light fantastic, or gamble at bridge whist? A Christian does not get his religion out of a high hat or a gold-headed cane, nor yet does the Christian woman feed her soul with a low-neck dress and short sleeves, nor a society class. Again, does a "saved" young man play billiards and pool through the power of the Holy Spirit? Some of our church members say we can do these things. Alas! Alas! For the want of this uprightness the power of the church has lost its influence. Let us get back to the old faith. Human nature is the same to-day as it was in the time of Judas. The time has come when the church will have to cast aside her "fashion society people." Be not unequally yoked together. Persons born of the Spirit look after the things of the spirit, not carnal pleasure. The man who calls himself a Christian must stop being plausible and self-evasive in business. He must stop following the multitude to do evil. For a Christian man to profit by a salted mine, or a merchant with a padded invoice of his goods, selling at a "discount" and still growing rich, is what I call peanut piety.

These are days, and great days, but vastly perplexing, and the Christian must pass through the turmoil of transition to a higher level of character, of clearer reasoning, and more abundant life, by quietly awaiting with confidence on the Lord of Life. What ails our people to-day, which sticks up higher than a church steeple, is the high rate of discount on Christian profession in our churches, in our market places, and polling booths. We howl about the trusts, but they are inevitable, and beneficial, if only the managers of them had something more than peanut piety. The clear call of this predicament is to each of us—"It is up to you and me to be honest."

Yours, etc.,
CHURCH BLINDNESS.

PROTECTION IS NEEDED OR THE BUFFALO WILL SOON BE EXTINCT

E. H. Baynes in Article in America, Says: "We Owe Him a Debt of Gratitude for the Part He Played in Winning the West."—Only About 2000 Now in Existence.

THE LAND OF THE BUFFALO

Hasty writers often lament the "extinction" of the buffalo—the noblest of our wild animals, says the Literary Digest. This animal, properly called the American bison, is not extinct, but he rapidly becoming so, and will soon be in fact unless protected. He is valuable, and unscrupulous hunters will kill off the few remaining hundreds unless measures are taken to preserve them and facilitate their increase. Under the title given above, Ernest Harold Baynes contributes an article on this subject to Country Life in America (New York, January), which he calls "our national animal," should compel our interest because he is one of the most remarkable wild creatures of modern times; although to us he is much more than this. It says:—

A Typical American

"In the first place, he is typically American, and stands out from all the rest of our animals, a rugged picturesque figure in the history of our country. Famous in song and legend his story is inseparable from the story of the Indian, and of our pioneers and early settlers. Moreover, we owe him a deep debt of gratitude for the great part he played in the winning of the West.

"Much as the Indians are indebted to the shaggy wild ox the white man's debt is scarcely less. From this day when Cortez and his men first saw the buffalo in the managerie of King Montezuma, nearly four hundred years ago that debt has been growing. Thousand upon thousands of the early settlers of our country, and of those who crossed the plains before the days of the railroad, were saved from bitter hardship and in many cases from death itself, by the food, clothing and fuel provided by the vast herds whose range covered one-third of the entire continent of North America, and extended from the Great Slave Lake to Mexico, and from Western New York to beyond the Great Divide.

Ingratitude

"And how have we repaid our debt? No good American can hear the answer without a feeling of shame. As soon as the great transcontinental railroads were opened and gave easy access to the plains, we permitted hordes of men many of them from the lower strata of society, to overrun the ranges, and by a series of massacres never equalled by any people since the world began to reduce a race of splendid animals, numbering several millions, to a band full so pitifully small that for a while it was thought to be practically extinct. The barbarous brutality practiced in accomplishing the final slaughters is almost beyond belief. When the buffaloes had, from long persecution become extremely difficult to approach, the hunters kept fires burning all night along the river banks and guarded every water hole, well knowing that sooner or later the tortured creatures would be driven to face even the deadly rifles in a desperate effort to slake their thirst. And when after braving a withering fire, the last gaunt remnant stood to their bellies in the water, fiercely sucking in their last draft, they were shot, where they stood, and the firing ceased only when there was nothing more to shoot."

There is yet a chance, Mr. Baynes assures us, to save the survivors of the race, and not sentimental reasons should govern us, for the buffalo is a really valuable animal in many different ways. He goes on:—

"It is hard for the writer to look at the famous old buffalo from a purely commercial standpoint, but if it must be done, there is little doubt that he is one of the most valuable animals in the world to-day. On the hoof he is worth $300 on an average, and Michel Pablo, until lately owner of the famous herd which grazed the Flathead Indian reservation, Montana, has recently made his fortune by selling his animals to the Canadian Government at about that figure.

"With a fairly large range the buffalo should prove a most profitable farm animal, for as an expert recently remarked, 'there is no other animal worth as much which can be produced so easily and at so small a cost.' He is easier to rear and less expensive to feed than a domestic ox, his flesh very closely resembles ordinary beef, and his robe alone is worth as much as two or three good cows. Then buffaloes bear a heavy coat of wool, which ordinarily they shed on the range during the spring; with proper equipment they might be sheared as sheep are sheared and the product sent to market. The writer has had the wool tested in the mills, and it is [illegible] grade for grade, than sheep's wool, felts beautifully, is very warm, and wears like iron. A pair of gloves, knitted from this material and worn for six months, were subjected to all sorts of rough usage, yet apparently they were about as good as on the day they were made.

"That buffalo calves may be readily brought up on cow's milk as domestic calves are reared, the writer knows from personal experience, as he has reared a number of them. They should however, be taken from their mother when not over two weeks old; otherwise they become too wild to be easily managed. When taken young in this way, they may be broken to harness or the yoke the writer has tried this experiment, too, and has a buffalo team nearly three years old, which he has driven repeatedly at agricultural fairs, and even on the streets of a city. They are much faster than domestic oxen, by actual test, and apparently much stronger. When just a year old they drew a heavy little cart, with two men in it fifteen miles over some of the roughest and steepest mountain roads in New Hampshire."

There are now, the writer tells us, about 3,000 buffalos in existence:—1,000 in the United States, nearly as many in Canada, and the rest in Europe in zoological gardens. The largest herd comprises about 450 head, and ranges the Peace River country in Canada. The only other wild herd is the small one of about twenty in Yellowstone Park. The largest herd in the United States in on Austin Corbin's Blue Mountain Estate, in New Hampshire, comprising 175 head, and there are numerous other privately owned herds of twenty-five or more, most of them for sale. The increase of the Corbin herd, which, starting with 35 head seventeen years ago, could have numbered ten times as many now if it had not been depleted, shows what may be done with the buffalo under proper conditions, something also is being done in the way of crossing the buffalo with domestic cattle, producing what are known as "cattaloes" but this, of course, is not saving the buffalo. A desire to do so led to the organization of the American Bison Society.

CONSTRUCTION OF GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC A FINE PIECE OF WORK

Building of the Great Transcontinental Has Been Energetically Prosecuted---Obstacles Have Been Great But Have Been Persistently Met and Surmounted.

Winnipeg, Mar 20, (Special)—Since Sir Wilfred Laurier turned the first sod in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, the building of this great transcontinental road has been pushed forward with energy by the gentlemen who have had charge of the work, and who had to face many and great difficulties.

At no time in the history of Canada has labour been so scarce and dear as during the time this work has been going forward, and the very severe winter of 1906-7 made it next to impossible to secure ties, while all material has been very hard to obtain. In spite, however, of all these difficulties, the work has been energetically, though quietly, carried on, until now but a short distance of the 460 miles between Portage la Prairie and Saskatoon remains to be laid with steel while about 120 miles of steel has been laid from Fort William west. The work is still going on, two gangs are working toward each other in the neighborhood of 350 miles west of Portage la Prairie, and one gang is working about 120 miles west of Fort William. The favourable weather last fall and this winter ,and a sufficient supply of labour and material since the middle of November, have been taken advantage of to push forward the work with all speed, and very soon the steel will be laid all the way from Portage la Prairie to Saskatoon.

A Splendid Piece of Work

It is however, the character of the work which strikes one in going over the line, as your correspondent has done in part, and your readers will doubtless appreciate what we saw in this connection, as so far as he has seen, but very little has been written regarding this most important part of the undertaking. For the first forty miles west of Portage la Prairie the line is without a curve, then in passing through the "sand hills" there are but three easy curves, and again a stretch of forty miles straight as an arrow, with a grade of only 0.10 of one per cent. This excellent work has been accomplished by cutting through hills, many forty feet high, and, by making "fillings," of quite as great a height, while at certain points trestles, some nearly a mile long, and 120 feet high, were required to carry the line through "at grade." These trestles are to be filled with ballast, and steel bridges will be built where streams are crossed so that the road when complete will be as good as money and brains can make it.

At Rivers, the first divisional point 140 miles west of Winnipeg, the whole yard was dug down from six to ten feet in order to keep the line at grade, but as the location was a gravel knoll an enormous quantity of excellent ballast was incidently secured.

From the above description your readers will get some idea as to the character of the whole line from Winnipeg to Edmonton, 794 miles.

It is stated in engineering circles that the gentleman who had charge of the location of the line won his present position as chief engineer of the road by the ability he displayed. This is especially to be noted as the Grand Trunk Pacific was the last of three lines to be located, and through a considerable portion of the first 200 miles the branches of the other roads were spread in many directions.

The cost of construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific must have been large, but the results justify the outlay, as on such a road fifty cars can be handled by the same power required for thirty-five cars under ordinary conditions.

The Fort William Branch

Most of our readers are doubtless aware that besides the main line mentioned above, the Grand Trunk Pacific is building a branch of some 200 miles to connect Fort William with the Transcontinental Railway running from Winnipeg to Quebec, at a point some 240 miles east of Winnipeg. Upon completion of these two portions the Grand Trunk Pacific will have a through line from Winnipeg to Fort William, where connection will be made with the lake traffic.

Considering the character of the country through which this branch line passes, a continuation of rock and muskeg with a stretch of red clay hills, the location and contruction of such a line in such a country will be a lasting monument to the ability and energy of the gentlemen who have it in charge. For 65 miles west of Fort William until the height of land is reached the grade is carried to a maximum, with the exception of a few short stretches. The maximum grade, however, is light, being only six-tenths of one per cent., compensated, which means that in every 100 feet there is a rise of only 7 1-4 inches, and where curves occur the grade is reduced to about 4 inches in 100 feet to "compensate" for the curve, and by this means enable a locomotive to draw a train as easily on a curve as on the straight track.

The curves are only six degrees, and when one considers the very rough country through which the road runs one must admire the ability of the man who located the road. To build such a line, deep cuts and high embankments, not to speak of many trestles, to be filled up later, were of course, necessary, and on account of the poor character of the material out of which the high embankments had to be made great difficulties were experienced. In one "bad spot," 320 cars of ballast were dumped, enough, it is stated, to ballast eight miles of track, and what with the wet weather and shortage of labour it was found almost impossible at times to carry on the work.

Six Thousand Men Here

Very little grading remains to be done on the Lake Superior branch, as it is called, and the work on the Transcontinental Railway from Winnipeg east is being pushed with energy. Some 6,000 men it is said, are employed at present, and in passing it may be stated that this winter is the first time since the work began that a sufficient number of workmen could be secured. Some sixty miles of steel has been laid from Winnipeg east, and cars of wheat and other freight have passed over it.

From Winnipeg to Portage la Prairie the grading is finished, and the bridge over the Assiniboine River near Portage la prairie is being completed with all speed. The steel will be laid between Winnipeg and Portage early in the spring, thus giving a through line from Winnipeg to Saskatoon, 460 miles. From Saskatoon to Edmonton, 328 miles, a considerable portion of the grading is finished, and steel-laying will be resumed west of Saskatoon as soon as the bridge over the Saskatchewan River is completed. It is expected that the steel will be laid into Edmonton before the end of the coming season, and the Grand Trunk Pacific will have become a real factor in the moving of the crop of this present year.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS

The Fatal Germ and its Remedy now Facts of Sciences.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and cleans the scalp of dandruff, and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, of the Maryland Block Butte, Montana was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the [illegible] of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair on each leg, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. McDermid & Jury and the Market Drug Store, Special Agents.

LIVELY DOINGS IN THE CLOTHING LINE

Messrs. Merrell & Meredith Bound to Capture a Big Slice of Spring Trade —Sensational Sale to Start Wednesday Next.

No matter what weather next Wednesday morning brings with it, Messrs. Merrell and Meredith will look for one of the greatest opening day throngs they have ever had, and busy buying every minute of the day's nine hours. The reason is plain—told in the brief facts and forceful figures which will appear in their page announcement in Monday's Examiner.

"We need the cash—name of our price"—is practically what has influenced this rather unusual sale just at the beginning of the spring season. The firm are in genuine earnest, and to emphasize the fact they have christened this great trade of theirs "A Sincerity Sale." It promises to be the most exhaustive clearing sale the firm have ever undertaken, and those who attended a similar sale which Merrell and Meredith held in their big store about a year ago, will find that this sale will overshadow it in many respects. The difference between this "Sincerity Sale" and other clothing sales is this—that everything is Merrell and Meredith's entire stock is to be cut in price—not a few lines only. In fact, it is stated that Peterborough's wise buyers will have a chance to get the latest spring clothing at half price in many instances, and other prices are less than half.

This should be a wonderful money-saving opportunity for people outside the city—and they will do themselves an injustice if they fail to take advantage of the offerings. The sale will run from the 25th of March to the 15th of April. But the com.-early buyers will have more time and best selections, of course. The firm expect to open their sale with a flying start. Therefore, save Monday's Examiner, or get a copy of the large street bill, and devour the sensational price list of this "Sincerity Sale."

HOLD DISTRIBUTION AGAIN TO-NIGHT

At Mr. Finch Miller's Store—Will Probably be the Last.

The regular weekly distribution of food to the needy poor of the city will take place as usual this evening at Mr. Finch Miller's store, Water street. There is still a small balance to the credit of the relief fund, but it is believed this will be the last distribution this season. Any person desiring food will kindly call any time this evening after 6 o'clock.

SCOTT, THE AUTHOR AND THAT INTERESTING NOVEL "KENILWORTH"

By Miss Margaret Ward.

An essay of a high degree of literary excellence and a musical programme of rare merit combined to make the regular meeting of the Ladies' Literary Society of St. Peter's T. A. S. last evening a much enjoyable one. Miss Margaret Ward was the essayist of the evening and delighted the audience by the reading of an exceedingly interesting essay on "Kenilworth."

Miss Ward introduced her subject by referring to Scott's brilliant reputation as a gifted writer of narrative, and descriptive poetry and of prose romances. It has been said that the literary world was delighted (with his poems and enchanted with his facinating tales, particularly his Waverly Novels. He was always fond of collecting old ballads and weaving them into novels. It was from one of these, a sort of elegy he formed his plot of "Kenilworth."

The plot of this most interesting novel was then minutely given. The Earl of Sussex and the Earl of Leicester stood rivals in the favour of Elizabeth; Leicester had advantages more than sufficient to counterbalance the military services, noble blood and frank bearing of Sussex. It is certain that in some way he was instrumental in causing the death of his wife in order that he might become husband of Elizabeth.

Sir Hugh Robsart and his beautiful daughter Amy lived at Lidcote Hall and with them resided Tressilion, a noble youth whose ancestors had become impoverished by espousing in many rash ways the cause of the House of York during the reign of Henry VII. Amy loved Tressilion as a brother, but he loved her with all the ardour of a noble nature and hoped to make her his wife. Sir Hugh sanctioned this desire, but in compliance with Amy's wish the marriage ceremony was to be deferred for a year. In the meantime, Richard Varney, a dependent of the Earl of Leicester, tried to win Amy's love, but she showed him nothing but aversion. He then conceived the idea of arranging meetings between Amy and the Earl of Leicester. Leicester wins her love, marries her secretly and takes her to "Cumnor Hall". Fearing that Sussex may supersede him in the Queen's favour, he does not acquaint her of his marriage. Varney encourages Leicester in his secrecy and so ingratiates himself in his favour that he allows him to dictate to him and share all his confidences. He had many reasons for thus entanglind his master in this matter. He wishes to bring misery to Amy and to get Leicester so entrapped that the master would become a slave to the servant.

Sir Hugh and Tressilion know nothing of Leicester's love for Amy and thinks she has gone with Varney. The poor old man becomes ill through grief and for his sake the wronged lover determines to trace Amy and Varney, and bring the girl home to her father. By chance he meets Michael Lambourne who wagers that he can enter Cumnor Hall despite the vigilance of Foster, who was an inmate of the hall, and unravel the mystery concerning the fair girl. Subsequently they set out, enter the park through an old fashioned gateway, pass through avenues overshadowed by great oaks, through the wood which is so dark as a wolf's mouth and walk slowly along the solitary and broken approach until they come in sight of the monastic front of the old mansion with its ivy mantled towers. Lambourne knocks loudly and boldly on the strong door. They both are admitted and escorted to a gloomy room where they wait sometime ere Foster appears.

The animated conversation carried on tween Tressilion and Foster were then very vividly given. Tressilion being left alone, heard a noise in the apartment and turning around beheld Amy, she, thinking him the Earl of Leicester, ran towards him, but on beholding Tressilion staggered back. He told her the effect her disappearance had on her father and begged her to return to him, but she haughtily resented his interference in her affairs. Threatened with all manner of violence should she divulge any secrets regarding the place, Tressilion was taken roughly and expelled from the Hall. In his excitement he missed the way by which he entered. While trying to think of a plan of escape he heard someone insert a key, unlock the door and in a moment he was face to face with Varney. A desperate struggle ensued and Tressilion was about to plunge his sword into the heart of Varney, when his arm was stayed by Lambourne. He left the place assuring Varney that he would yet have satisfaction. Lambourne remained with Varney and Tressilion went back to the inn.

In his agitation he forgot to follow the directions of the inn-keeper. After encountering many difficulties and meeting with peculiar characters, among them being as Alchemist named Wayland Smith and Dickie Sludge, he finally arrived at Lidcote Hall and ended his experiences to Sir Hugh, who was overcome with grief when hearing of the imprisonment of his daughter Amy.

Tressilion was now summoned to Sayes Court owing to the sudden illness of Sussex. He was soon restored to health by the administration of a drug by Wayland Smith. Elizabeth visited him and informed him that she intended to settle the dispute between him and Leicester, and ordered him to attend court. The court scene was then very ably described by the essayist, showing that the result of the trial was an enforced reconciliation between Sussex and Leicester. A charge against Varney, Leicester's servant, for the detaining at Cumnor Place of Sir Hugh Robsart's daughter was then made by Elizabeth, but he declared that he was her husband.

Continuing the writer gave vivid descriptions of the deception and cowardice of Leicester to gain favour with the Queen, his cruel treatment of Amy, using Varney as an instrument to administer it, his confession of his secret marriage, to the Queen whose anger on hearing it cannot be fully described, and which caused her to exclaim: "My Lord of Leicester stolen marriage has cost me a husband and England a King," the sad death of Amy, the fate of the villian Varney, who showed no sorrow but rather a fiendlish pleasure in the success of his diabolical plot, the manoeuvres of Tressilion the true character of the story, the sad death of Sir Hugh Robsart, the effect Amy's death had on the pleasures of Kenilworth, and the retirement of Leicester from court were all graphically told.

The excellent essay was intensely interesting throughout, the treatment of the subject by the talented essayist being most praiseworthy.

Each number on the musical programme which preceded the reading of the essay was received with merited applause and deservedly so as the varied renditions were most pleasing.

The following was the musical programme introduced by Miss Langney, who occupied the chair for the evening:—

Instrumental Duet—Misses Primeau

Chorus—Misses L. White, C. Langney, K. Gorman, O. Langney.

Vocal Solo—Miss Verna Devlin.

Instrumental Solo—Master E. Condon

Instrumental Duet—Misses B. Flynn and N. Shevlin.

The accompanists of the evening were Misses B. Flynn and N. Shevlin.

The next meeting of the Society will be held on Friday evening April 3rd, when an essay will be read by Miss Mahoney.

The supporters of the Provincial Liberal party are asked to attend the adjourned meeting in Messrs. O'Connel & Gordon's Office, at 8 p. m. this evening, when final arrangements will be made for the calling of a Convention to Nominate a Candidate to contest West Peterboro' in the forthcoming Provincial Election.

BANQUET TO CRESSMAN HOCKEY TEAM

Pleasant Event at Hooper's Grill Room —Record for the Season.

Mr. A. W. Cressman was the host at a pleasant function in Hooper's Grill Room last night when he entertained the male portion of the staff of his store to a banquet in commemoration of the victories of the hockey team during the winter. The banquet began at 9 o'clock and after the repast the usual toasts were given and responded to during which the victories of the Cressman hockey team were retold. Mr. J. O'Reilly made an efficient toast master and an excellent programme was presented including solos by Mr. Koon which were much appreciated.

During the season the hockey team played 11 games, 9 of which they won, one was a tie, and one was lost. They scored 55 goals to their opponents' 14, which is certainly a good record. The draw game was played in Lakefield ending 5—5. They lost a game to Quaker team by the score of 3—1 and four of their victories were shut-outs for their opponents.

Street Railway Fare Boxes A Mark For Spurious Coins

Strait Settlement and Hong Kong Coins are Given for Fares—Opera House Checks Often Put In Boxes.

CHURCHES ALSO SUFFER

Outside of the collection plate in our churches the fare box of the Street Railway Company's is the next easy mark for the spurious coins. The former is a contemptible act of hypocrisy, while the latter is an out and out case of theft. Not long ago we heard of a certain local church which had received several worthless pieces of money through the offertory, some of them being counterfeit coins.

A manager of one of the large Canadian street railways some time ago announced that they had received a large quantity of bad money during the year. Some of it was absolutely worthless, but that which was of any value was melted and sold. During the year mentioned a considerable amount of Strait Settlement and Hong Kong coins were afloat in the city and the stores were refusing to accept them for their face value. The citizens who had these coins in their possession put them in the fare boxes.

The local street railway company have also fallen a prey to this habit, but not to the same extent as the companies in big cities. They come across a bad coin now and again, but it is very seldom. There is hardly a day passes but a ticket from another city is found in the boxes.

The morning after an attraction in the opera house they generally find a few seat checks, which have been put in the box in mistake for a ticket.

WHEN TOMMY BURNS WAS WORSTED

In a Lacrosse Game He Took His Corner From Referee.

At a meeting of the Boosters' Club in Toronto Charley McKeown, from Dufferin, the man who completely demoralized Tommy Burns on the lacrosse field, was among the speakers. Referring to the incident the Telegram says:

It occurred several years ago, on the bloody lacrosse field of Mt. Forest when Tommy Burns was in the game. Charley McKeown was referee, and when his eagle eye detected Tommy Burns in the midst of a knock-out blow not allowed in lacrosse by the Marquis of Queensberry, Charlie approached Tommy and ordered him off the grounds.

It was Irish-meet-Irish, and Tommy was obdurate.

But the McKeown glowering brow, the McKeown flashing eye, and the thunderous McKeown voice were too much for Tommy.

Tommy slowly withdrew.

Charley McKeown was the victor in the first round.

A POPULAR YOUNG LADY PASSES AWAY

Caught a Slight Cold Last September—In Her 22nd Year—Was a Graduate of Queen's.

The intelligence of the sad demise of Miss Muriel C. Lindsay, B. A., who passed away at the residence of her father, 659 George street, this morning, will be learned with deep regret by all who knew her. She was exceedingly bright and clever and graduated from Queen's University two years ago with the degree of B. A. The deceased lady contracted a slight cold last September and has been ailing for some time. She came to Peterborough in January, hoping that the change would improve her condition, but her health gradually failed, till death ended her sufferings this morning.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and had lived with her aunt, Mrs. Cameron, of Portsmouth from childhood. Upon passing her entrance examination she entered the Kingston College and successfully matriculated in Arts. She then entered Queen's University and received her degree two years ago.

She was very bright and clever and won the esteem of all her college friends, and was very popular among them. During her illness she bore her sufferings with true Christian fortitude.

The funeral will be held on Monday, March 23rd, at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence, 659 George street to the Little Lake Cemetery.

THE NEW ORANGE LODGE TO BE FORMED

Meeting Called for Monday—Known as The Duke of Manchester.

The event of the season in Loyal Orange Association circles takes place on Monday evening next at eight o'clock in the Orange Hall, Simcoe street, when a new lodge will be duly organized and set in working order. The District Master, Bro. A. Robson, has called a meeting of the District Lodge to take place on that date for the purpose of installing the officers and further necessary work. The new lodge will be named as the "Duke of Manchester Lodge, No. 50." The reason why this name was chosen was that the W. M. elect Bro. W. H. G. Armstrong was a member of the Taudragee District Lodge, Ireland, of which the Duke of Manchester, and also his father and grandfather, were active members. The grandfather having built an orange hall on the Taudragee estate of the Manchester peerage in Ireland, and presented it to the Orange Order. The event on Monday night promises to be a milestone in Orange circles, which when past and gone, will be one to which many will look back upon with pleasant memories of the evening's ceremonies. Some of the grand officers are expected to be present and assist in the ceremony. The lodge will be composed of a large membership which any lodge may well be proud of.

"HAPPY EMMA," FATEST GIRL ON EARTH

The amusement-loving public of Peterborough will soon be given a real treat in the presentation of "Happy Emma," the largest young lady of her age in the world. Emma's history has been a somewhat remarkable one. At birth she weighed but 8 pounds, the same as any ordinary baby, although her mother weighed 385 pounds. At 5 years of age she was a chunky little girl, but not remarkable in any other way except for her sweet nature and cheerful disposition. From that age on, she rapidly accumulated flesh, weighing at the age of 15, 250 pounds. At the present time Emma is but 20 years old and enjoys the astonishing weight of 623 pounds.

Born in the heart of the Alleghaney Mountains in Pennsylvania, Emma's life was a rugged one, but to her present great benefit, as is seen in her remarkably beautiful complexion, perfect health and overflow of animal spirits. While her friends considered her "rather stout" neither they, her parents nor herself knew nor realized that she was the fattest girl in the world, as she really is. By accident a well known show man chanced to see her, and by strong, inducements persuaded her to enter the show world. This was two years ago. Since then she has been seen by thousands upon thousands of people, and all have gone away her friends, and more than satisfied that they have been privileged to see her. She is as beautiful as she is fat; with the face of a Madona, one soon loses sight of her enormous proportions, and is more than pleased and delighted with her sweet and sunny nature, unusual intelligence and ready wit. Unlike most very fat women there is nothing coarse or disgusting about Emma, and all ladies and children especially, are charmed with her pleasing personality. Emma will exhibit here on March 25th, and the following few days, and those who see her will have something pleasant to remember for a long time to come.

THE GERMAN FORCES IN AFRICA

Severe Engagement Fought in the Kalahari Desert.

HOTTENTOTS ON WARPATH

Natives Were Defeated With Heavy Loss—German Force Also Suffered Severely — Capt. Von Erckert Is Among the Killed—Chief Koppers Escaped—March Through Waterless Desert to Scene.

Berlin, March 21.—The Government publishes a cablegram from South Africa reporting a battle between the German expeditionary forces and a body of Hottentots in the Kalahari desert.

The German troops had been sent out to find Simon Koppers, the last of the Hottentot chiefs, who is still hostile. The engagement was a very severe one. The enemy lost 58 killed. Seven men and several women were captured, but Koppers escaped. The German losses also were heavy. Capt. Von Erckert, commander of the expeditionary force, Lieut. Ebinger, and twelve privates being killed, and 17 wounded, of whom nine were seriously wounded.

The German force left Ocohos on March 6, 430 strong, with four machine guns and seven hundred camels. They made forced marches into the waterless desert for four days before stopping long enough to cook a fresh supply of food. The only water found was a dirty pool, which was insufficient to quench the thirst of the camels.

Capt. Erckert finally located the Hottentots camp on March 15. He began the attack next morning at daybreak, and soon there was fierce fighting all along the line. The German commander fell in the first onslaught, and the second officer in command took charge of the expeditionary forces, which drove the Hottentots from one position to another, until finally they broke and fled in all directions.

Chief Koppers' power has been badly weakened by this defeat, but it will be necessary for the Germans to continue a vigilant watch over the approaches to the desert.

A collision between German troops, accompanying an expedition which is engaged in delimiting the Cameroons and natives, also was reported on Thursday. The Germans defeated the natives, but Capt. Glauning was killed.

King Edward Visits Spain.

San Sebastian, March 21.—King Edward arrived here at noon yesterday in an automobile from Biarritz. He wore the uniform of a colonel of the Spanish cavalry regiment of Zamora, of which His Majesty is honorary colonel. The secretaries accompanied the King.

He was received by the municipal authorities and a committee of officers from the regiment of Zamora, who presented him with an album containing portraits of all the honorary colonels of that regiment. The King expressed himself as deeply grateful, and said he would consider the album as one of his greatest treasures. He decorated the officers with the Royal Victorian Order.

King Edward expressed his happiness at the safe journey of King Alfonso to Barcelona. During the luncheon which followed, the King proposed a toast to the Spanish royal family and the Spanish army, and later telegraphed to the Spanish sovereign thanking him for the attentions of which he had been the object. His Majesty left in the evening for Biarritz.

Dashed Through Flames.

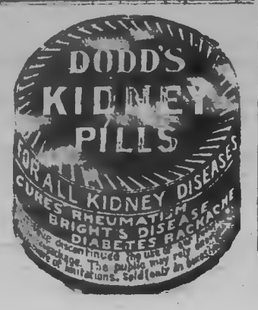
Smiths Falls, March 21.—Mrs. Robert Moulton, 84 years of age, who lives alone at Drummond Centre, had a narrow escape from being burned to death in a fire which destroyed her home Thursday.

She was awakened about 1 o'clock by a strong odor of smoke. Hastily snatching a quilt from the bed, she enveloped herself in it and started to make her way out of the house. When she opened the door of her room the flames burst out in all directions, but she succeeded in making her way through them and the blinding smoke to the outside door. In doing so her hands and face were badly burned. Once outside she went across the fields to the house of a neighbor, over a quarter of a mile away, and called to them for assistance. Without waiting for anyone to accompany her she returned to her home, which was by this time completely enveloped in flames. The old lady, nearly frozen and badly burned, was taken care of by some friends.

Prison and Ten Lashes.

Brandon, Man., March 21.—At the assizes yesterday the jury returned a verdict of guilty against Ernest Stoudine, charged with attempted assault on a five-year-old daughter of a Shoal Lake hotel man, where the accused had been staying.

Judge Perdue sentenced him to four months hard labor and ten lashes.



MR. BECK TALKS ABOUT MR. SMITH

Incident In Legislature Over Report From Hamilton.

STATEMENTS ARE DENIED

Ministers Say No Money Was Paid to Mr. Beck For Horses Shown In England—What Power Commission Expects to Accomplish — Contracts With Fifteen Municipalities Are Now Ready.

Toronto, March 21.—Before the orders of the day were taken up in the Legislature yesterday Hon. Adam Beck rose and said he desired to make a brief statement in relation to certain language used the previous evening at a Liberal meeting in Hamilton by the member for Sault Ste. Marie, Mr. C. N. Smith. These utterances Mr. Beck read. They characterized the power policy as "a fairy scheme" and declared that "after the next election neither electric power not Hon. Adam Beck would ever be heard of again."

Mr. Smith rose. "May I ask," he enquired, "where the hon. gentleman got his report?"

Hon. Mr. Beck: "I am glad to tell the hon. gentleman that this time we have a verbatim report of his utterances. (Government applause.)

We thought it well, in view of past experiences to do this. Last year the same gentleman went into a western riding and made certain statements regarding the Provincial Secretary. When confronted with a report of his utterances in this House, he promptly denied the accuracy of the report. In order to be accurate this time I secured a verbatim report from the reporter's notes." (Government applause.)

"Now as to the statement that not a contract has been closed or a thing done in the work of securing power for the municipalities. I may ask the hon. gentleman to consult with his colleagues from Ottawa, who I am sure will be kind enough to tell him that Ottawa has a contract for power in accordance with the act, and through it solved a difficulty that seriously threatened an outlay of possibly thousands of dollars. The members for Ottawa will testify that for that contract the commission has, I believe, the gratitude of the press and the people irrespective of politics.

"As to other municipalities we are prepared and patiently waiting to proceed at the suggestion of the municipalities. Eleven of them have already definitely decided, and, as soon as the remaining four, who have indicated their intentions, are received, there will be no delay in proceeding. I trust that will take place next week.

"One thing more," concluded Mr. Beck. "The member for the Sault also declared that while Mr. Beck had not made a good showing with power, he had with his horses, but that he did it at the expense of the people, and that the province had spent $2,000 on a horse show. I merely want to say this: that I never received, or ever asked one dollar of provincial funds for the exhibition or transportation of my horses to the International Horse Show."

Mr. Smith, replying, said he got his information from page 201 of the Public Accounts, and the Minister of Agriculture had admitted that horses were shown. "I was not criticizing the expenditure," said Mr. Smith. "What I said was that there were other people breeding horses in the province, and they were not given sufficient opportunity of knowing the decision of the Legislature to assist the expense of Ontario breeders who would exhibit at the exhibition. I said the province had paid $1,700.99 towards the transportation of horses.

"As to my statements on the power question," Mr. Smith continued. "I do not recall my exact words, but what I meant was that to places such as Hamilton, Brantford, Galt, Woodstock and Owen Sound not one horsepower of electric energy had been developed."

Mr. Whitney—"We haven't delivered any to Winnipeg yet." (Government laughter.)

Mr. Smith—"Winnipeg isn't in the power zone."

Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture, expressed surprise that Mr. Smith would make such statements after the facts had been fully discussed in the House. "No money has been paid," he said, "for transportation or otherwise to Hon. Adam Beck." (Government applause.)

Mr. Smith—"Then we had better have some explamtion as to whom it was paid."

"The coolness of the member for the Sault is refreshing," observed the Prime Minister. "Mr. Beck and Mr. Monteith, both of whom have given the incident more attention than I would, have stated that the hon. Minister from London did not receive a cent of provincial funds. The member for the Soult, who attacks in the absence, and at 40 miles distance, according to his custom, and who, alike according to his custom, makes statements which are utterly unjustifiable and beyond the truth, now begins to see that he needs information, that he is not conversant with the facts. He knows the proper way to secure this information and I trust he will secure it and make such amends as decency will suggest."

After the second reading of Hon. Mr. Cochrane's bill to amend the Mines' Act, the House adjourned.

Will Appeal to President.

Portland, March 21.—Angered by the exoneration of school officers and others after state and county enquiries 130 parents of the 167 children who perished in the burning of the Lakeview [illegible] in Collinwood on March 4, united last night in a demand on President Roosevelt that a federal enquiry be made.

Added to this demand were resolutions asking that Congress be urged to enact a law to aid in fixing responsibility for such a disaster, and which shall define criminal negligence. A committee was named to perfect the resolutions and to present them to the President with a plea for prompt action.

THE OPINIONS OF MR. SIFTON

Gives House of Commons His Views on the Budget.

TAKES OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK

Build Hudson Bay Railway—Throw Open Railway Reserve Lands In the West—Reform the Civil Service—Establish All-Red Route—C.P.R. Refuses to Take Hindus Back as Ordered by Government.

Ottawa, March 21.—A new Siftonian polity was enunciated yesterday afternoon. The ex-Minister of the Interior delivered an address of one hour's duration, and crowded into that space of time a variety of ideas, most of them good, which he pressed on the consideration of the Government. He pointed the way for a policy of development and won applause from both sides of the House.

Dismissing the deeds and misdeeds of the past with a word, Mr. Sifton peered into the future. Whatever he said may have been "off his own bat," or it may have been, as many believe, with the full knowledge of the Prime Minister, who still entertains high opinions of the Brandon member.

But whether the speech was intended to prepare the country for the announcement that Mr. Sifton is coming back into the Government or retiring from public life, certain it is that it sounded like the utterance of a statesman.

Mr. Sifton's suggestions were:

Reform of the civil service by the appointment of an independent commission (as outlined in R. L. Borden's Halifax platform).

Throwing open for homestead settlement of 30,000,000 acres of unearned railroad lands in the Northwest, reserving one-tenth or one-twelfth or twelve years.

Construction of a railway to Hudson Bay, the cost to be returned to the treasury by the sale of a portion of the 100,000,000 acres of unsurveyed lands in the north that will be available for settlement when the railway is built.

Establishment of an "all-red" route from England to New Zealand. This would be possible by subsidizing the venture to the amount of a million pounds sterling a year, the proportions being: Great Britain, £500,000; Canada, £325,000; New Zealand, £100,000; Australia, £75,000. This is Mr. Sifton's pet scheme. A twenty-four knot service on the Pacific will reduce the time of delivering English mails in New Zealand by thirteen days.

Mr. Sifton, in advocating the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway by the Government, took a fling at the principle of public ownership in the following words: "I am not an advocate of the construction or operation of a railway by the Government. I have no faith whatever in the idea that when a public utility is being properly carried on by a corporation there is any sense in the Government taking it out of the hands of the individuals or corporations and driving them out of business on the plea that the Government can do the work better. Everybody knows it cannot. For my part, I have not the slightest faith in the idea, and I would like that other gentlemen who likewise do not believe in it in the slightest degree would say they do not. Too many of us are inclined to hedge on questions of this kind because we think public opinion may be strong upon them. But, of course, public opinion is apt to be strong on a question in an improper direction if the men who take healthy views of it are afraid to say what they think. I am not in favor of the Government acquiring public utilities when these utilities are well carried on by individuals or corporations simply on the idea that the Government will do better. But there are cases in which a company cannot be got to undertake an enterprise on a commercial basis. A case of this kind was the construction of the T. & N.O. Railway."

A Candid Speech.

Mr. Bergeron followed, remarking that the moderate speech of Mr. Sifton indicated a disposition to cut loose from the party. It was understood that Mr. Sifton had been offered a portfolio, but had refused to re-enter the Cabinet except on condition that Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Paterson and Mr. Scott should be dropped.

Mr. Pardee found great cause for gratification in the budget statement and expressed his satisfaction with the condition of the country's trade and industry in general.

E. D. Smith (Wentworth) congratulated the ex-Minister upon his candid speech, especially his demand for a department to deal with foreign trade, which, by the way, was a severe reflection upon the Department presided over by Sir Richard Cartwright. He also commended Mr. Sifton's endorsation of the civil service reform plank in Mr. Borden's Halifax platform.

He agreed with Mr. Sifton's criticism of immigration, adding that the country would be better off if 25,000 of last year's immigrants had never came to Canada. Mr. Smith declared that the Government had done nothing to stimulate foreign trade. It had not opened up a single new market in any part of the world, while it had managed to close to Canadian exporters the market of Germany, which was the second largest importer in the world of such goods as Canada produced.

Hon. A. W. Craven, member of the Victoria, Australia, Assembly, was accorded the privilege of a seat on the floor of the House. He is making a tour of the Dominion.

Mr. MacPherson (Vancouver) called the attention of the Minister of the Interior to a despatch from Vancouver, that 143 Hindus had been ordered deported, and that a C.P.R. steamship had sailed without the undesirables.

This was a high-handed action on the part of the C.P.R., and he asked Mr. Oliver if the Government proposed to take action in view of well-defined orders of Government.

Mr. Oliver said the C.P.R. refused to obey the deportation order. The Department of Justice had been instructed to take necessary proceedings.

Mr. Borden asked what policy had been adopted in respect to the entrance of Japanese and Hindus.

Mr. Oliver said both were subject to the same regulations.

Mr. Borden asked the Prime Minister if negotiations were pending with respect to the passage of United States war vessels through the canals to the upper lakes.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said no negotiations were pending, but occasionally permission had been asked to pass not a war vessel but a training ship through the canals, and permission had been granted.

NATIONS TO CO-OPERATE.

Great Britain, India and Canada to Prevent Hindu Emigration.

London, March 21.—The suggestion made by Canada, that there should be co-operation between Great Britain, India and Canada for the prevention of the continued influx of Indians into British Columbia has been sympathetically received in official circles, and there is every prospect that an arrangement satisfactory to all concerned will be reached.

Mackenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor from Ottawa, who arrived here last week, has had lengthy interviews with the Earl of Elgin, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, John Morley, Secretary of State for India, and the permanent officers of the Indian Department, all of whom realize the necessity of doing something.

The emigration of Indians, which is not only harmful to Canada, but to the Indians themselves, is receiving the most earnest consideration here, and Mr. King has a mass of information to give the various departments in support of Canada's contention that an end must be put to the unrestricted emigration of Asiatics.

Any agreement reached however, must be confirmed by Ottawa, so it is not expected that the result of Mr. King's visit will be announced until after his return to Canada.

Students On Strike.

Woodstock, March 21.—Because a Toronto student, Chas. King, son of W. A. King, had been suspended for playing basketball, 150 students of Woodstock College went on strike and paraded the streets at an early hour yesterday morning.

It is claimed King had written on the blackboard statements reflecting on the character of food supplied the students.

As a punishment, Principal McNeill ordered him not to play with the college basketball team in a game with Hamilton a few nights ago. King did not play the first half, but got into the game in the second half, with the permission of a teacher, it is said. For this he was expelled.

Troops Attack Natives.

Lisbon, March 21.—An official despatch has been received here to the effect that the Portuguese troops have made an attack upon the revolting natives at Jafueno and Egina, in Portuguese Guiana, and destroyed the town of Varella.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

Steubenville, Ohio, March 21.—A boiler in a sawmill on the Abrams farm, near here, exploded yesterday, fatally injuring William Abrams, James Oler and Bert Baker.

"I had been suffering for over two months with an obstinate cough; as had also my little girl. We tried several remedies common to any drug store without obtaining any apparent relief, in fact we were growing worse. I got a bottle of Coltsfoote Expectorant from my druggist and inside of two days the cough was stopped, and the results so permanent and rapid that we decided to keep it in our home continually.

ENGLAND

A Norwich, Norfolk, blacksmith named Robert Want was found dead in bed at his house, a few days ago, having apparently committed suicide by means of a home made cannon. A loud report was heard one morning, and neighbours who rushed in found the bedroom filled with smoke and noticed a strong smell of gunpowder. Want lay dead in bed with one side of the face blown away. At the foot of the bed was a piece of gas-piping, 18 in. long, which has been made into a cannon. One end had been welded up and a touch-hole bored. Want must have filled the tube with gunpowder, and as he lay in bed held the weapon in one hand while he put a light to the touch-hole with the other. The recoil threw the cannon out of his hand to the foot of the bed.

There were amazing coincidences in connection with inquests held on two men at the London Hospital the other day. Both men were named George Lee. Both were window-cleaners. Both were fatally injured by falling from windows. Both were taken to teh London Hospital. Both accidents occurred at three o'clock one Saturday afternoon. Both men died on the Sunday. The cause of death in each case was fracture of the skull. The inquests on both men were held on the same afternoon, by the same coroner, and with the same jury. The men were not related to one another.

Some interesting figures have just been published in London concerning the British Empire. The total population of the Empire is 387,911,000, while the total area is 11,323,000 square miles. The total annual value of the foreign and inter-Imperial trade is over £15,000,000,000. A rather striking fact shown in connection with shipping statistics is that Hong Kong is the second largest port in the world in respect to tonnage of vessels entered. The total tonnage at London is 11,222,000 tons, while that of Hong Kong is 11,050,000.

IRELAND

Lord Aberdeen unveiled a few days ago in the presence of a large and distinguished gathering the memorial statue of Queen Victoria, which has been erected by public subscription in the handsome square fronting the Royal Dublin Society's premises in Kildare street, Dublin. The King sent the following telegram from Brighton to Lord Aberdeen:—"My thoughts are with you on the occasion of your unveiling to-day as my representative the statue of my beloved mother, Queen Victoria.—Edward R.I." The statue, which is the work of Mr. John Hughes, the eminent Irish sculptor and which was erected at a cost of £7,000, is in bronze, and shows the figure of the late Queen in a sitting position on a huge pedestal.

The Harland and Wolff Shipbuilding Company has begun the construction of slips that will allow the building of ships larger than any yet known,—that is to say, vessels 1,000 feet long and of proportionate beam and depth. It is expected that a mammoth White Star Line steamer will be laid down here about a year from now, and this vessel will mark an epoch in the world's history of shipbuilding and engineering.

At Kiltyclogher, County Leitrim, while Mr. Meehan, the United Irish League candidate for North Leitrim, was addressing a meeting, a Sinn Fein band began to play close by. There was a fierce fight between Mr. Meehan's supporters and the bandsmen. The latter were dispersed and their drums captured. Free fights took place in all parts of the village, and many persons were injured.

SCOTLAND

A case unprecedented in the annals of the Scottish court became before Lord Guthrie in Edinburgh recently, when the Rev. Herbert Heriot Hill, an Episcopalian clergyman of Dundee asked for an interdict against his wife, from whom he is living apart under an English deed of separation. His wife, he said, having made up her mind to make his life miserabl ein Scotland, followed him wherever he went and spread unfounded and scandalous stories about him. He was compelled to leave three or four places, he said, because of his wife's slanderous work. Lord Guthrie said that there was no authority for giving judgment against persons who said things. He would, however, grant an order for service of petition.

The Bishop of Brechin has been elected Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church, in the room of the late Bishop Wilkinson. The Right Rev. Walter John Forbes Robberds was consecrated Bishop of Brechin in 1904—a diocese with 22 benefices clergy and an income of about £900 with house. He was curate of St. Redcliffe, Bristol, described by Queen Elizabeth as "the fairest parish church in all England," from 1887 to 1892, and went back there as vicar in 1899, remaining there until offered the Scottish diocese. He had experience in Scotland meanwhile as rector of Arbroath, and is an old Cuddesdon student and chaplain.

A whole family of five have been burnt to death at Watertonmass, Fifeshire. A paraffin lamp was upset in the house occupied by John Clark, his wife, two sons and a daughter. Clark made an heroic effort to rescue his sleeping sons. He dashed through the flames and had seized one under each arm when the smoke overpowered him. His wife tried to drag her little daughter out from the bedroom but their escape was cut off by the flames at the head of the stairs. When the fire was extinguished the father's body was found with his sons on either side, and mother and daughter were discovered dead together.

RHEUMATISM

I want every chronic rheumatic to throw away all medicines, all liniments, all plasters, and give MUNYON'S 2X RHEUMATISM CURE a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the 2X RHEUMATISM CURE. There are 160 doses in a bottle, and as one lady says, "Every tablet is worth more than a diamond of the same size." A few doses will take away all aches and pains, and a cure generally follows before one bottle is used.

STRATHCONAS WON THEIR GAME

The first game of the Strathcona basketball team in the Y. M. C. A. Spring League was played last night in the gym., the Collegiate Institute team being their opponents. The Straths were there as in other sports, and at half-time had chalked up 19 points, nearly all baskets, to a blank on the P.C.I. side of the board. The final score was 29-5 in favour of the Straths. The game was cleanly played. The P. C. I quintette were handicapped by being pitted against a stronger and more experienced team. The youngsters, however, played a plucky game.

For their first appearance, the Strathconas presented a strong aggregation, and will make a few of the faster teams go some.

The teams lined up as follows:

STRATHCONAS	P. C. I.
Defence.
Dobson	Pringle
Loomis	Lees
Centre.
Mulherin	Daly
Forward.
D. Baker	McGuire
Wallace	Lang

TORONTO WALKER WANTS TO ENTER

Writes for Particulars About the Big Race—He is a Welshman.

Brooks, the Toronto walker, who originally hails from Wales, is anxious to enter the long-distance walk in Peterborough, beginning April 20. In a letter to Mr. Geo. Stevens, he says:

"I received your letter and will be pleased to show it to the newspapers. How did you get along with Hartley at Kansas City? I saw by the papers that he got fifth place. You could not have had him in the same condition as you had him at Toronto, or also what was the matter he could not do more at Kansas? Will there be any chance for the committee to pay my expenses to Peterborough? I do not know in what condition you have got Hartley in, but if nothing happens I am pretty sure of beating him. I will do my best to be there, and as it will be my first race in Canada I will have to try to win.

Yours truly,
G. L. BROOKS."

Mr. Stevens, of course, did not go to Kansas City.

He states that Dr. Wightman will receive the hearty support of Bridgenorth and the surrounding district for the C. L. A. Council this season. Mr. Crossley has been kept busy in shaking hands with his many friends and acquaintances in this city.

BOWLING SCORES LAST NIGHT

Cyril Giroux Made High Score—A Promising Youth—McIlroy High.

MERCHANTS BEAT PASTIMES

In a match game last night on the new Peterborough Club alleys, the Merchants defeated the Pastimes by three straight games, their margin being an even 200 pins on the night's play, the score standing 2,249 to 2,049. Making allowance for the fact that the participants have had little experience on regulation alleys, they all bowled remarkably well, the indications being that before long Peterborough will boast some of the best bowlers in Canada. Several are already running close to the best scores in Toronto, where bowlers have the advantage of three years' experience on regulation alleys.

Last night's games were characterised by the exceptionally clever performance of Cyril Giroux, a youngster of unusual promise. This is his first introduction to regulation alleys, but he bowls like a veteran. He has a free, easy delivery, a speedy, effective ball and should develop into one of the best bowlers in the Dominion. His high game was 180, tieing Charlie for second place during the evening, first honours for high single going to McIlroy, who hung up a total of 196 in his first game. Frost was high for three games, with a total of 514 pins, six more than McIlroy's grand total.

Billy Waram, who holds the record for the alleys, with a total of 231 in a single game made against the Toronto team on opening night, was high man for the losers, putting up a total of 483 pins. His high single was 171. Boyd's best single of the evening was 169.

Tom appears in a cream coloured gown with pearl buttons, that has all the haberdashers on the globe breaking their necks in a vain attempt to copy the wondrous overcoat. When Burns gets to Paree he promises to make the dust fly. He has sent over there for plans and specifications for the latest clothes architecture, and when Tawm swings down the Bois de Boulogne those lady cabbies had better take a new grip on the reins, because those French plugs are going to do some tall wid rearing and snorting when Burns comes tripping by.

According to press accounts, Johnny McGraw and Clark Griffith have two teams, one of which should return a pennant to old New York Town. The Giants have been materially strengthened, and most critics consider they will be a stumbling block to the Cubs during the coming season. The Yankees, too, have been reorganized, and have a formidable list of players to choose from. Griffith's title, "Old Fox," becomes him well and his men should make good when the season gets under way.

Both teams are reported as showing up well in practice at their respective southern camps.

An interesting game of curling was recently played at Winnipeg, in which the Young Methodist rink carried off the Chaplain's Cup, donated by Ralph Connor. Eighteen rinks competed, with the stipulation that the minister of each church must be a member of the rink representing his church, and that the skip be a church officer. As many of the curlers were of the "novice" variety the game was a good one.

IT IS MIXED AT HOME

A well known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the active kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints at muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine, it is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and it desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

Preacher's Opinions

Rev. P. K. McRae, Forks Baddeck, C. B.: "I always count it a pleasure to recommend the Dr. Slocum Remedies to my parishioners. I believe there is nothing better for throat and lung troubles or weakness or run-down system. For speaker's sore throat I have found Psychine very beneficial."

Rev. W. H. Stevens, Paisley, Ont.: "Psychine seemed just the stimulant my system needed. I shall add my testimony as to its efficacy at every opportunity."

Rev. R. M. Browne, Amherst Head, N.S.. "I have often recommended Psychine since taking it myself, for it is a cure for the troubles you specify."

Rev. Chas. Stirling, Bath, N.B.: "I have used Psychine in my family; the results were marvelous. I have visited people who state that they never used its equal. I strongly recommend it.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Markdale, Ont.: "I have taken two bottles of Psychine and am pleased to say that I am greatly improved in health. I was troubled with my throat, but now I find it about restored to its normal conditica. I find my work very much less taxing. I believe Psychine is all claimed for it."

These are earnest preachers of the gospel of Psychine. They know where of they speak. Psychine cures all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It is a great voice strengthener, acting directly on the vocal, respiratory and digestive organs, thus specially adapted to public speakers. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FOOTBALL GAMES THIS COMING SEASON

Football should boom this year again in the Midland League, as usual. The annual meeting is scheduled to take place on Saturday, April 4th, in Peterborough, and the prospects are that there will be several teams participating. Warkworth has already organized for the season and are eager to enter the Midland League ranks. Norwood is always a popular football town and there should be a soccer team from that quarter.

In the southwestern section of the league Bowmanville appears to be desirous of coming into the fold, after a year's absence. Bowmanville in the past has been represented by good football teams and should easily be able to place a formidable phalanx in line. Cobourg is a probable entry also. Last year that town was represented by a good team, and was only defeated by the Quakers by a narrow margin.

It has been hinted in soccer circles, too, that Bridgenorth will also join the league this year. The Chemong Lake boys are said to have received recruits sufficient to warrant their entrance after so many years of absence. Omemee can scarcely have any reason to be an absentee, and it is likely the Quakers will make another bid for the championship and the Examiner trophy. The Y. M. C. A. have decided to have the game revived in connection with that institution, so that looking at the soccer situation as it stands at present there are good hopes for a big and successful Midland League for the year 1908.

MIDLAND CRICKET LEAGUE PROPOSED FOR THIS DISTRICT

There is now under consideration in the Midland district the formation of a cricket league to be composed of clubs in as many of the towns and villages as desire to enter. Peterborough, of course, will be represented, and if the proposition is carried into effect the local lovers of the game will see a real revival of the grand old sport.

If the league is arranged it will probably include clubs in Warkworth, Port Hope, Cobourg, Lindsay, Lakefield and Peterborough and any others desirous of joining. It will be on a similar plan to the Midland Baseball and Football Leagues and will have a tendency to promote the cricket game throughout the Midland district.

A benefit to be derived from such a scheme will be that games will be played according to schedule. This will insure a certain number for the cricket season and will save the trouble of arranging games just when ever opportunities are afforded.

The promoters of the project hope in the near future to have something definite. Viewing the situation from the present standpoint, there seems every possibility that a league will be formed.

Music and Drama

THE MAYOR OF TOKIO

Mr. Jos. M. Gaites will present "The Mayor of Tokio," Richard Carle's latest and best play, at the Grand next Wednesday, March 25th. The fame of this latest offering has spread in every city. Although "The Mayor of Tokio," "The Mikado," "San Toy" and "The Geisha Girl" have taken subjects and themes of Japan for a background of musical comedies, it seems the path has now ripened into the drama, as the success of the "Darling of the Gods" will attest. It seems that the public nowadays really wants to be carried into the land of chrysanthemums and rice for an evening's entertainment, and when one learns of the business that "The Mayor of Tokio" has done in New York and elsewhere, it seems that the verdict is universal that Japanese musical comedies and dramas have come to stay.

The artists of "The Mayor of Tokio" have been selected with discrimination, and, as the dramatic critic of the Washington Post wrote, "not one in the cast is below the standard of the New York organization." The stage settings are magnificent, and the costuming a veritable riot of rainbow tints, so beautifully schemed that the two scenes present a constant treat to the eye.

Mr. John L. Kearney is given splendid opportunities to display his well-known qualities as a fun-maker in the role of 'Marcus Orlando Kidder,' and it is said he has created no end of merriment in the laughable situations in which he is placed during the course of the play. Taken all in all, Mr. Gaites has furnished a most elaborate and picturesque production, and provided a splendid singing chorus and dainty pretty girls.

MR. NEWELL VISITS HIS BROTHER

States That He Was Not Injured at White Lake.

Mr. Samuel Newell, Aylmer street, called at the Examiner office to-day stating that he had made a thorough investigation of the case in which his brother was supposed to have been shot in the leg near White Lake, Dummer township. He visited him yesterday at Ryan and Lynch's sawmill and found that the rumour which had been widely circulated about the affair was untruthful in every respect. His brother, he states, had met with no such accident and that he had been working at the sawmill without being absent a single day.

It seems remarkable that such a rumour could have spread, when, as Mr. Newell states, there was no reason whatever for its circulation.

SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH TO-MORROW

The mission services lately held will, it is expected, find a splendid and fitting climax at St. John's to-morrow. At 8.30 and 11 a.m. Celebrations of the Holy Communion will be held with special thanksgiving.

In the evening at 7 p.m. there will be a special festival service, when the choir will be supported by the full orchestra under Mr. Gliddon and the mission hymns will be sung. An address dealing with the mission will be delivered by the rector, and the whole service is expected to be one of very great interest.

All are invited, and a particular invitation is extended to those who attended the mission services.

The programme will consist of several drills, including wand, flag, and dumb-bell exercises, as well as club-swinging and fencing. There will also be a musical programme presented by local talent.

Those participating in the gymnasium work have been trained by Miss Coventry, and the exhibition will no doubt be an interesting one.

Write your friends, tell them to meet you there. Admission 25 cents.

The Brigadier will conduct a special service in the barracks to-night and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. THE CHIEFTAINS' LAST GAME

They Will Play for the Junior City Championship.

The Junior City Hockey Championship will be decided on Monday night at the Brock street rink from 7.30 to 8.30 o'clock, when the Junior West Ends meet Jack Thirnbeck's undefeated Chieftains. The game should be a hummer when the splendid work of the Chieftains is concerned. This will probably be the last game of the Chieftains for the present season.

OBITUARY.

MISS SARAH SNYDER

The intelligence of the sad demise of Miss Sarah Snyder, who passed away yesterday afternoon at her home, 51 McDonel street, will be learned with deep regret by all who knew her. She was well known and respected throughout the city and very prominent in church circles. The deceased lady had been suffering for some time from a cancerous tumor of the stomach. Her condition did not improve and she gradually grew worse, finally passing into eternal rest. She bore her sufferings with true Christian fortitude, and was always pleasant. Miss Snyder leaves behind her to mourn her loss two brothers, James of this city and Edward, inspector of the Royal North-West Mounted Police.

The funeral will take place Monday next at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence, 51 McDonel street, to Little Lake Cemetery.

To be strong you must have good appetites, good digestion and good assimilation. Miller's Compound Iron Pills bring all these. Sold by J. D. Tully, druggist, Peterborough.

EACH TEAM SCORED FIVE GOALS

Barrie's Bedellas and Hickey's Terriers Played a Tie Game.

Barrie's Bedellas and Hickey's Terriers met in another desperate hockey battle at Brock street rink last night and when the smoke had cleared away it was found that each team had scored five goals and as a recount failed to discover any change in the situation the referee declared the game a draw. It was hockey with variations and some of the stunts pulled off will probably never be duplicated. H. Mallmoyle refereed satisfactorily and the teams were as follows:—

NO JOBS FOR FAVORITES.

Governor Tweedie Refuses—Premier Hazen Chooses His Cabinet.

St. John, N.B., March 21.—At noon yesterday the Robinson administration placed its resignation in the hands of Governor Tweedie, who at once called upon J. D. Hazen, leader of the Conservative party, to form a Cabinet.

J. D. Hazen, Premier and Attorney-General.

J. K. Fleming of Carleton County, Provincial Secretary.

Dr. D. V. Landry (Kent), Commissioner of Agriculture.

W. C. H. Grimmer (Charlotte), Surveyor-General.

John Morrissey (Northumberland), Commissioner of Public Works.

Harry McLeod (York), Solicitor-General.

The new administration will be sworn in at the executive council rooms next Tuesday, and the dates of the bye-elections will also be announced then.

It is generally conceded that Mr. Hazen has displayed great wisdom in his choice, and there is no doubt he starts out with one of the strongest Cabinets the province has ever known.

The political tension in New Brunswick has been unusually strong during the last few days, and as day by day went by without Premier Robinson announcing his resignation it became evident that there was wrangling over the filling of the several vacant offices.

It has now developed that Mr. Robinson filled the vacancies and recommended the appointments to Governor Tweedie, who promptly refused to sanction them. The governor said the old administration had been discredited in the eyes of the people, and he, therefore, thought all appointments should be left to the new Government. His decision has aroused the indignation of those Liberals who aspired to office. The vacant offices were: Judge probates in the city of St John, with a salary of $2,500; registrar of probates, St. John, $1,400; Supreme Court reportership, salary $1,000; Equity Court reportership, salary $600.

Premier Hazen would make no announcement last night as to how or when these offices would be filled, although it is known there will be no delay.

FAMOUS PRELATE DEAD.

Bishop Fowler, of Canadian Birth, Passes Away in New York.

New York, March 21.—Right Rev. Charles A. Fowler, Bishop of the Methodist Church, died at his home here yesterday.

Bishop Fowler's long life was filled with activity for the church and the cause of education. Born in Burford, Ontario, in 1837, he early evinced deep interest in his studies and graduated from Genesee College, now Syracuse University, in 1859, as valedictorian of his class. He also headed his class at graduation from the Garrett Biblical Institute, which he entered soon after leaving college, and was the first man to receive the honorary degree of D.D. from that institution.

After completing his education he moved to Chicago, where he studied law, but never practiced that profession.

Entering the ministry at the conclusion of his law studies, he served as pastor of several churches in Chicago during the next twelve years, and in 1872 was elected president of Northwestern University.

He remained at the head of the institution four years, when he became editor of The Christian Advocate in New York. He was made a general missionary secretary of the church in 1880, and four years later became bishop.

Count Tolstoi Ill.

St. Petersburg, March 21—The state of Count Tolstoi's health is causing great anxiety here.

A message received from Moscow last night from Count Tolstoi's son confirms earlier reports of improvement in the condition of the count, who has been seriously ill.

Count Tolstoi has been in the habit of taking daily rides on horseback. He persisted in this in the face of blinding storms, and twice recently lost his way several miles from his home. On the second occasion, about a week ago, he fell into a snowdrift, but was able to extricate himself and came home afoot, exhausted. In spite of the remonstrances of his family, he returned to the scene of the accident to save his horse.

Vancouver's Rich Convict.

Vancouver, March 21.—Charles Hendricks, who owns one hundred thousand dollars worth of property in Vancouver, was sentenced yesterday to six months' hard- labor without the option of a fine for renting a building to women of ill-fame.

Hendricks tried to start a new restricted section in the centre east end residence district, and told women formerly of Shanghai and Canton streets that he had squared everything with the mayor and chief of police for opening the new immoral quarter.

He turned out regular tenants and trebled rents to women. Yesterday Hendricks refused to work in a chain gang breaking stone. He is now in a dark cell on bread and water diet.

Three Years For Firebug.

Cornwall, March 21.—The Finch firebug, Phil. Low, who confessed on Wednesday to Reeve McNaughton of Finch, that he had been guilty of two charges of arson in connection with the almost total destruction of the village of Finch last summer, entered a plea of "guilty" to two charges of arson before County Judge O'Reilly yesterday.

He was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on each charge, the penalties to run concurrently.

MR. JAS. TULLY NOW IN ALBERTA

Speaks on the Growth of Oddfellowship —In Interests of the Order

Mr. J. A. Tully of Peterborough, Ont., who is travelling in the interests of the Oddfellows' Relief Association of Canada, says the Claresholm Review, and who is now touring Alberta, paid Claresholm a visit on Friday and Saturday of last week. While here he called on the local I. O.O.F. members and was successful in adding several new members to that branch of the order which he represents. Mr. Tully spoke in glowing terms of the growth of Oddfellowship in Alberta since his former visit about two years ago. He also complimented the local members of the order on having such a fine lodge room.

ORANGE JUICE AND HEALTH

For Stomach and Skin.

Few of us realize what an important part the skin plays in keeping us well or making us ill.

The millions of tiny glands, or pores, are intended to rid the system of waste matter, which the blood brings to the skin. It is a well-known medical fact that the healthy skin carries off more Urea or waste matter than the kidneys. Just think how much poison remains in the system when there is any skin trouble.

The skin and stomach are intimately associated. Find a person with a dry, harsh skin and you will find one who suffers with indigestion or constipation, and both, usually.

Both may be relieved by a judicious use of orange juice. Both can be cured by taking the juice of an orange every morning before breakfast, and taking "Fruit-a-tives" at night. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices in tablet form. The fresh juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes are separated from the pulp, and then combined in such a way that the medicinal action is intensified.

Orange juice alone will not cure Skin, Stomach or Bowel troubles. But when taken in connection with "Fruit-a-tives," a positive cure results. "Fruit-a-tives" may be obtained at all dealers or will be sent on receipt of price—50c a box—6 for $2.50. "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa.

BEN HOWARD, THE WELL KNOWN INDIAN LONG DISTANCE RUNNER, MET HORRIBLE END BY BEING RUN OVER BY A GRAND TRUNK TRAIN

While Under the Influence of Liquor Hiawatha Young Man Left His Horses Here and Started for Home on Foot---Was Terribly Mutilated and Broken Up as a Result of Accident---Identification Was Made by Means of a Post Card Found in His Pocket.

BLOOD WAS FOUND ON THE PILOT OF THE ENGINE

Traces of blood on the pilot of the engine on the G. T. R. Belleville train when it arrived at Lindsay Saturday night, was the first indication of the tragic death of Ben Howard, the well known Hiawatha Indian long distance runner, whose terribly mutilated body was discovered on the Grand Trunk Railway track at Gillespie's swamp, three miles southeast of here yesterday morning. When the train reached Lindsay on Saturday night the train crew, on making the usual examination of the engine, found that the pilot was bespattered with flesh and blood, and telegraphed to Peterborough to Station Agent Frank Sandy to the effect that their train, No. 256, had struck somebody along the line. Yesterday morning Mr. Sandy sent a number of section men east on the track, and they discovered Howard's body three miles out, lying between the rails with the head towards Peterborough. It was so badly disfigured that it was impossible to identify the remains until a post card was found in his pocket addressed to Ben Howard, which removed all doubt. The body was brought to Peterborough shortly before noon and removed to Comstock's undertaking establishment, where it was viewed by a large number of people, many of whom knew Howard, but who could not identify him owing to the mutilated appearance of the body. The face was almost blotted out, so battered and cut up was it, and the body could not be identified by that means. In fact, several were positive that the remains were not those of an Indian, but of an Italian. The postcard, however, was sufficient proof that it was Howard, and there was other evidence to substantiate the point.

It appeared that Howard, who is a son of Madden Howard, of Hiawatha, drove into Peterborough on Saturday to attend to some business and evidently became intoxicated during the afternoon. About four o'cloc he drove into the Munro House yards, and, after tying his team in the hotel sheds, went away. It is supposed that while under the influence of liquor he determined to walk home and accordingly started out on the Grand Trunk tracks, meeting his death by being struck by the Belleville train on Saturday evening. Several people, who saw him during the afternoon, state that he was intoxicated and he was noticed driving up and down the streets in a reckless manner, that showed that he was very much under the influence of liquor. It seems very strange that he should attempt to walk home when he had his team here, but that is apparently what he did and his sleigh and horses were still in the Munro House sheds yesterday. In the sleigh were thirteen bags of seed oats, which he is supposed to have purchased here.

Coroner Dr. Gray was notified, of course, upon the finding of the body and after hearing the circumstances decided that an inquest was necessary and High County Constable Geo. Cochrane was instructed to summon a jury in Otonabee to meet here to-day at eleven o'clock. Mr. Cochrane went to the scene of the tragedy and examined the spot where the body was found, after which he empanelled a jury. Mr. Cochrane is inclined to believe that two trains passed over the unfortunate man. He found traces of blood at Downer's Corners, nearly a mile northwest of the place where the body was found, and believes that Howard was struck by a train at that point and carried down the track as far as Gillespie's swamp, where he was again run over by the Belleville train, which reached Peterborough at 8.40 p. m. The blood on the track so far away from the body would apparently indicate that that was what happened.

From the position in which the body was found Howard must have been lying prostrate on the track when the train struck him, as beyond a doubt if he had been standing or walking he would have been hurled from the track. He had evidently been dragged some distance as his rubbers were torn from his feet and lay some distance to the southeast of the body. The post card found in his pocket was from another Indian, named Jackson, living on Christian Island, and was asking for some information as to what success Howard had had in his races.

His Athletic Record

Howard became known to the majority of Peterborough people by his showing in the Examiner Lakefield to Peterborough road race of last Thanksgiving Day, when he finished a few feet behind Ernie Wilson, after a desperate struggle for the entire ten miles. His plucky work on that occasion won him a host of friends and the news of his tragic death, which spread rapidly yesterday, was received with general regret. Howard sprang into athletic prominence in August of last year at Hamilton, when running under the colours of the Sunderland branch of the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club. He handily defeated P. C. Sellen, of the Toronto Irish-Canadians, and the holder of the Canadian five mile record, in a five mile race at the Garrison games. Afterwards Howard ran in the Ward Marathon race in Toronto, finishing twentieth and was second to Wilson in the Examiner road race. At the indoor meet held

FLEMING'S BODY HORRIBLY MANGLED NEAR KALADAR

From the melancholy task of burying the mangled remains of his brother-in-law, Mr. Peter Warner, of Barnardo avenue, has returned home. Alexander Fleming, one of the trio of sectionmen killed near Kaladar, says Mr. Warner, was in a horrible state of mutilation. His right arm was cut, also was the right arm of one of his unfortunate companions, Anderson. The back of his head was cut open, and the ghastly aperture filled with oatmeal. His body, after being struck, was dragged along the track for two and a half miles.

Mr. Warner went to Norwood, where he met the remains, which were laid to rest in the family plot near Baltimore, to the south of Roseneath.

Two Men Charged With Theft In The Police Court To-day

Alleged to Have Stolen Large Quantities of Mahogany—Some Found in Their Rooms—Allan Allowed to Go—Judgment Was Reserved in Scott's Case.

BOTH ARE OLD EMPLOYEES

In the police court this morning the two men, George W. Allan and George A. Scott, employees of the pattern shop of the C. G. E., who were remanded on Friday afternoon on a charge of theft, were arraigned before His Worship Mr. F. D. Kerr appeared for Allan and Mr. G. Gordon for Scott. Allan's case was first taken up and he was allowed to go, while judgment was reserved in the case of Scott.

George W. Allan was charged with the theft of quantities of mahogany and pine lumber. He elected to be be tried by His Worship and pleaded not guilty.

George A. Scott, the other prisoner, was the first witness. About a year ago, he said, he received two mahogany boards from Allan as a present. Allan was at that time employed in looking after the patterns. He had never received anything else from Allan, but had bought a board from the company.

To Mr. Kerr he said he had been working for the company for 13 years. About a year ago he met Allan in the shop and said he would give him two boards. He went to Allan's house one night and got them and put them in his cellar. Allan said he had bought the boards and showed him a receipt. About a week ago when the four men were arrested, he went to Allan and asked him about the boards, and he was assured they had been purchased.

Another young employee of the pattern shop, said he had bought 12 short pieces of mahogany from Allan at eight cents a foot and had it delivered to his house. He asked Allan if he had bought it, and was shown a receipt for the money he paid the company for it.

The work accountant, Mr. R. E. Layfield, recognized the receipt, dated March, 1907, for some mahogany Allan had purchased. On Friday last accompanied by P. C.s Newhall and McGinty, he went to Allan's home and found a cabinet and several other pieces of mahogany. Summing up all the mahogany found and assuming that Scott's story was true, there was a dollars worth more lumber than purchased by Allan. The mahogany is kept in the carbon works, of which Allan has charge. They thought him an honest and trustworthy man, having been in the company's service six years.

"Are you sure the mahogany in court belongs to the company?" asked Mr. Kerr.

"Yes," said the witness, and he rubbed his finger down the board and showed Mr. Kerr the carbon dust on his finger.

"Well, that might do for Sherlock Holmes," said the counsel.

P. C. Newhall told of going to the house and finding the cabinet which was made of solid mahogany outside, but lined with cedar.

His Worship after hearing the evidence said he was glad for all parties connected that the defendant was not guilty, and allowed him to go. The mahogany found in his room was returned to him.

Geo. Scott was then charged with the theft of some mahogany, wire and brass fixtures. He elected to be tried by his Worship and pleaded not guilty.

P. C. Newhall told of having found several articles in Scott's room and two boards in the cellar, some of which he said he had bought at Mr. Layfield said the only way a man could get the wood out was to throw it over the fence and get it at night.

Allan said he did not recognize the boards in court and also swore that he did not give them to Scott.

Mr. Minnes, the foreman, testified as to Scott's ability as a workman. If there was any wood to be got he would send over a requisition to Mr. Clurton. The wire in question was used to make patterns. The felt was used to hold the tools after they had been used.

The young man in charge of Green's pattern shop last year said he told Scott he could use any of the wood around the shop.

Scott then went into the box, but his evidence was about the same as given before.

His Worship reserved judgment in the case.

Spring Styles

Most pronounced is the two button, dip front, single breasted Sack Suit. This distinctive style is an innovation from the usual conventional cut—a most acceptable new touch in style for Spring, 1908. The bold lapel is receiving a first place in the coat cut. It is long and wide with a slight rolling effect. (See "Three Styles in Summer Sacque Suits" in HOW MEN SHOULD DRESS.

The cloths are mostly in Tweeds and Worsteds—of a check, a plaid or a stripe—prices range from $18.00, $20.00 up to $30.00.

CONTRADICTORY.

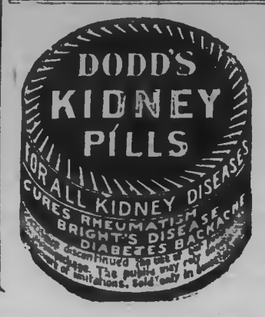
The make-shift policy of the Conservatives, in their anxiety to get a "whack" at the Laurier Government, leads them a Dervish dance; they have to assume contradictory positions. For instance, the Conservative journals profess a desire to make Canada a home market for all Canadian products, and at the same time they place themselves in the position of the strongest antagonism to an increase of population by immigration. These positions are clearly antagonistic, and plainly are assumed from a demagogic wish to stand well with the workingmen by a pretended desire to protect him from competition. Now, anyone who thinks for a moment, cannot fail to see that any policy that would confine the market of our industrial products to the home market, would be the surest way to destroy its value. The industries of Canada, manufacturing and agricultural, are capable of producing an output that would glut the home market in a very short time. A home market requires numbers—the larger the population of the home market the better it will be. The only way that Canada can enlarge its home market is by increasing its population, and the only way in which this can be done with the required expedition is by immigration. Of course, it is desirable that the quality of the immigrant brought into the country should be such as the country demands. What we chiefly want is tillers of the soil. We have an unlimited capacity for adding to our agricultural products and we want immigrants who will people and make productive our unoccupied lands. By this means we enlarge the area of demand and to the extent this is done, we enlarge the home market; for every new household created makes demands upon almost every industrial activity of the country. Reasonable immigration—immigration from the British Isles—should be encouraged and the Government would not make much of a mistake in making the acquirement of farm holdings, and the means of working them, as favourable as they are now, even more easy to the incoming immigrant.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Toronto News, an "independent" journal, has the effrontery to assert that the Whitney Government has administered the license law in a non-partizan manner. Let the News give the opinion of its chief proprietor, Mr. J. W. Flavelle, as expressed by his resigning from the Toronto License Commission Board because he would not submit to the dictation of Hon. Dr. Pyne, a member of the Government, Beattie Nesbitt and Captain Tom Crawford, who were seeking licenses for party heelers.

The Conservatives in power were unable to raise sufficient revenue to meet the ordinary expenditure, and when they had to make capital expenditures they were obliged to borrow the money. The ordinary expenditures, under the Liberals, have been and are, not only being paid out of ordinary revenue, but great public works necessitated by the advance and development of the country are being financed besides, and all this not only without adding to the taxation, but as a matter of fact at a reduced rate of taxation as compared with that of the Conservative regime.

Hon. William Paterson delivered a notable speech in the Commons Friday night in the course of which he paid his respects to Mr. W F Cockshutt's claim that Sir Wilfred Laurier asserted that the Grand Trunk Pacific would cost the country only $13,000,000. And as usual the Minister of Customs dealt with the issue very conclusively. Even one of the Mr. Cookshutt's associates on the Opposition, who interrupted Mr. Paterson, finally admitted that he was aware that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's estimate had reference to the interest on the construction outlay and not the total cost of construction, as was claimed by Mr. Cookshutt.



THE LEMIEUX ACT.

(Finance Chronicle.)

There is no disputing the fact that a distinct step was made in the Dominion's solving of its labour problems when Parliament passed The Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, 1907—this new legislation being the natural sequence of the Conciliation Act of 1900 and the Railway Labour Disputes Act of 1903, both of which were later incorporated in the Conciliation and Labour Act, 1906, popularly known as the Lemieux Act. • • • Aside from the cases where the intervention of the Department of Labour has been formally called for, there is no doubt that various strikes have been averted by the mere existence of a measure compelling public enquiry. No one is better qualified to pass an opinion as to the general success of the new Act to working than Prof. Shortt, of Queen's University. After extended practical experience on Conciliation Boards he has no hesitation in stating that he regards the Act as highly practical in its operation, and useful to a degree not attained by the labour laws of other countries. Its greatest merit, thinks Prof. Shortt, lies in the fact of its being an alternative measure in the matter of its results, rather than a compulsory one, and that although it is incumbent upon the parties at variance to submit before all else to its provisions, it does not prohibit the carrying on of strikes and lockouts should satisfactory terms, after due investigation and conference, be found unobtainable. This, he points out, invites openness of dealing and a spirit of fair play, manifestly impossible of attainment under provisions more drastic.

THE TEMPERANCE VIEW.

The Pioneer, the organ of the Temperance Society, has the following in reference to the three-fifths clause:—

Premier Whitney and his advocates and apologists declare that the purpose of the three-fifths requirement in Local Option is to keep the law in force. It is law enforcement, not law in force, that the temperance people expect of Mr. Whitney. If the Government will see to enforcement the temperance people of the Province will see to getting the law in force and keeping it in force when they get it.

Their complaint against Mr. Whitney and his Government to-day is that they have erected a high barrier in the way of getting the law in force. It has already in two campaigns kept the Local Option by-law out of 73 municipalities.

Temperance people believe that the law in force and enforced so commends itself to the great majority of the electorate that they are quite prepared to assume the responsibility of keeping the law in force. Experience justifies that position. Out of eight attempts to repeal the bylaw in 1907 only one was successful, and this year out of seven attempts only one was successful. Last year there were thirty-four places where the liquor people might have tried to woo the electorate back to the open barroom; they thought it worth while to try in only eight. This year there were over fifty and they tried in only seven.

It is the business of the people to put the law in force; it is the business of the Government to enforce it, and it is not the business of the Government to put any such illegitimate hindrance as the three-fifths in the way either of passing or repealing the law.

HON. MR. BECK'S EXTRAVAGANT HORSES.

(The Globe.)

Even horses grow extravagant when travelling abroad at the expense of the Province, and Hon. Adam Beck was unwisely sensitive in resenting the reflections of Mr. C. N. Smith, of the Soo, regarding expenditure on the Ministers thoroughbreds in London, England. Hon. Mr. Beck and the Government took a deep interest in the International Horse Show, and the Government decided to pay for the transportation of Ontario horses. Hon. Mr. Beck was the only exhibitor, so his horses had no other inquisitive or extravagant equines to call their prodigality into question or to crowd in for a share of the good fodder or sumptuous stalls. Mr. Smith, in Hamilton, tempered his congratulations of Hon. Mr. Beck's success with the disparaging reminder that it had cost the Province $1,710.99. This works out without any disquieting fractions at exactly $190.11 for each of Hon. Mr. Beck's nine horses. Considering that the horses had to sustain the dignity and prestige of the Province in aristocratic London circles, this does not seem extravagant, and Hon. Mr. Beck need not have declared, in contradiction to Mr. Smith's statement, that he had not received the money. No one suspected that his horses left anything over for anybody.

When Hon. Mr. Beck declared he had not received the money for the transportation of his horses, Mr. Smith naturally grew inquisitive as to where the money went. In the public account it was divided into three items: the first $811.85, the second $756.81, and the third $142.33. These are all for the transportation of horses to the International Horse Show, and as Hon. Mr. Beck was the only Ontario exhibitor, Mr. Smith quite naturally wanted to know where the money went. Hon. Mr. Monteith came down with an emphatic declaration that the money did not go to his colleague, but Mr. Smith did not want to know where it did not go, but where it did go. Then the Premier came forth with a still more emphatic declaration against any questioning of an explanation by one Minister and an assertion by another. Mr. Smith could not resist the temptation to show that the public accounts were against them, and there the matter temporarily rested. The moral of the story is the unwisdom of a Cabinet Minister calling into question a statement made by an opponent on the stump, especially when that statement is virtually true, even if technically inaccurate.

The Pharasical Toronto News has, the Brockville Recorder reminds, forgotten to note that the Liberals of Kingston have set an example that its friends the Whitneyites might worthily emulate in that the Liberals of Kingston ask for an agreement by both sides for a clean election. This method was adopted in the bye-elections in that city when Mr. Pense was elected, and now the Conservatives are not enamoured of the principle, preferring the old plan that for years kept Sir John Macdonald in power. The News knows very well that the Conservative party takes to corruption in an election as naturally as a duck takes to water.

HERE IS MAN WAS TOO ABSTEMIOUS

Let Some of Our Old Boys Go And Do Likewise.

An item went the rounds a short time ago giving the particulars of a singular divorce case, in which the husband sought to obtain a separation from his wife because he couldn't stand as much kissing as she demanded. When the case came up for hearing the judge made an effort to get the husband to consent to go back to his loving spouse again, which he finally agreed to do on condition that she should be satisfied with not more than six kisses per day.

One of the Examiner's most intimate readers, who has a keen relish for a good story, desiring to point a good moral and not wishing to see kissing discouraged, sends the following appropriate tid-bit as a sort of antidote to the kissing incident:—

An exchange says: I read the other day of a sinful man who asked the pastor what he should do to show his change of heart.

"Say good morning to your wife and children one by one every morning. When you go to work, kiss your wife and children good-bye."

The man hung his head sheepishly, and, after a silence, said:

"Well, parson, I guess I can manage to kiss the children, but it would be a work of grace to kiss the old woman. But maybe the Lord will help me."

It was not that his wife was old or repulsive; it was only that it had been so long since he had shown her such attention that he felt awkward in making the attempt, but he did it, and the result completely astonished him. The wife, who had seemed cold, harsh and unbending, broke down and wept at the gift of a husband's kiss. Now, if some of our old boys go and do likewise.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. J. A. Laliberte, of 34 Artillerie Street, Quebec, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For six years I have been doctoring for female weakness, heart and nerves, liver and kidney trouble, but in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I can safely say I have found a cure.

"I was continually bothered with the most distressing backaches, headaches, and bearing down pains, and I kept growing more and more nervous.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of all these distressing symptoms and made me a well woman. I would advise all suffering women, young or old, to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Suffered 20 Years

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured in 2 Months

St. Raphaels, Ont.

For over twenty years I suffered from Chronic Constipation of the bowels, and I could get no medicine to cure me. I tried doctors and every known purgative, or laxative, medicine known but I was no better. Sometimes, if I did not take medicine, I would go four or five days, without any action of the bowels. During all this time I was weak and suffered from Indigestion constantly.

About a year ago a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives" as they had helped her. I began taking "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset I began to feel better, and inside of a month the pains were almost gone and the Constipation relieved. In two months I was perfectly well again, no pains, no constipation, and my complexion had lost all that sallow appearance.

(Sgd) MARY A. MCDONELL.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or Fruit Liver Tablets—are the only remedy known to science that actually cure Constipation. They do this by making the liver healthy and active—thus causing more bile to flow into the bowels. 152

"Fruit-a-tives"—or "Fruit Liver Tablets"—are sold by dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ADAM SCOTT

On Wednesday, March 11, at "Meddolma," Millbrook, the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Medd, there passed away at the ripe age of ninety years probably one of the last of the generation that lived and helped forward the first settlement of this part of Ontario. The late Mrs. Adam Scott, formerly Elizabeth Holmes, was the second daughter of the late James Holmes, Esq., who came to Canada and settled, in or about the year 1822, in what is what is now known as the township of Cavan, taking up land near the present village of Centreville. The early records of the pioneers of that district show him to have been a man of strict integrity and sterling worth, and highly esteemed by all those with whom he came in contact, always ready to aid and take part in anything for the general good, and one of the first elders, and for years after, an elder in the Presbyterian church of that community.

Mrs. Scott was four years of age at the time her father settled in Canada, and had many interesting stories to relate of the trials and struggles of the little community in which she lived. Twice a year the settlement was quite cut off from the outside world. The roads and blazed trails were practically impassable in the late autumn and early spring. Travelling about was either on foot or on horseback. From childhood a good horsewoman, she often spoke with pleasure of long trips in the saddle.

The deceased lady was married, on March 6, 1840, to the eldest son of the late Adam Scott, of Scott's Plains, now Peterborough, one of the earliest pioneers of that now busy city, who built and owned the first flour mill and the first frame dwelling house in Peterborough. Mr. Adam Scott, Jr., carried on a flour and lumber business for several years in Cavan. He moved to Manvers, where he built a number of mills, and built up the village of Lotus, and was reeve of the township for several years.

Mrs. Scott had ample scope for the full exercise of those estimable qualities of mind and heart with which she was endowed. The pioneer life of her husband and the undertakings he was engaged in were such as kept her in close touch with the countryside whose wants she knew and sympathized with. Many a case of sickness and misfortune found her taking what means were at hand to assuage or aid, and with her friendly advice and material assistance, often helped to soften the troubles and trials incident to pioneer life. Brought up from childhood in the Presbyterian church, she was a constant member of that communion till the time of her death. She was blessed with the full possession of all her faculties to the end. Her later years were spent in the perusal of those passages on which she loved to dwell, and passed her declining years between reading them and a friendly intercourse between the few that were left of her immediate relatives. Mrs. Scott had two sisters and one brother — Mrs. Samuel Dickson of Peterborough, Mrs. McCabe and Mr W. Holmes of Cartwright, all of whom predeceased her. Of ten children, only three are left to mourn her loss—Mrs. J. H. Pearson, Port Hope; Mrs. P. Brown, St. Louis, and Mrs. Thomas Medd, of Millbrook.—Millbrook Reporter.

WILL START BRANCH IN LINDSAY

Messrs. Yeates Bros. Will Have a Shoe Shine Parlour in Scugog Town.

Yeates Bros., the proprietors of the local shoe shine parlours, have decided to establish a branch of their business in Lindsay and with this end in view have secured the lease of suitable premises on Kent street, next door to the Simpson House. Mr. Louis Yeates is in Toronto securing fixtures and fittings for the establishment, which will be opened for business the first of next month. The Lindsay branch will be in charge of George Yeates, the younger of the brothers. The venture should be a success, inasmuch as Lindsay mud is proverbial and there are no shoe shine parlours in the town.

In the tea-producing countries of the Orient the price of tea has almost doubled during the past year. This has necessitated the "Salada" Tea Company, in order to maintain the high standard of perfection to which they have brought blended Ceylon Teas, to advance the price of the 25c grade to 30c per pound.—9

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, March 21.—The action of the New York Central directors this week in reducing the dividend on the stock from a six per cent. to a five per cent. annual basis, and the possibility that such roads as the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, Atchison and others may follow, the same example, induced a great deal of profit-taking on the part of small investors who have been carrying stocks for several months past and which at present prices show handsome returns over the prices originally paid for them. It will be remembered that, following the disastrous panic of last autumn, there was buying of stocks by this class of investors on both the New York Stock and Consolidated Stock Exchanges, in practically unprecedented proportions, it being estimated that several million shares of railway and industrial stocks were taken up and paid for outright. While these stocks were originally bought with the view of holding them for the investment yields, the sharp advances which they have had in the market since last autumn have proved in many instances too tempting, and now that there is a prospect of dividend reductions, which of necessity would curtail such yields, those who have been carrying these stocks for months past evidently see fit to convert their profits into cash.

BEN HOWARD, THE RUNNER, KILLED BY G.T.R. TRAIN

in the Broock street rink in December, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers Club. Howard was defeated by Hilton Greene, of the Irish-Canadians, in a close three mile event and this has proved to be his last race. He was regarded as a runner of great promise and had intended to take an active part in running this spring with a view of trying to get a place on the Olympic team for England. In fact, on Saturday he held a consultation over the telephone with Dick Baker, trainer of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers, intending to begin training at once. His death will be regretted by all who knew him, for Howard was popular among all classes, as a bright, intelligent, good-natured young man. He was a son of Madden Howard, the well known Hiawatha Indian, and was about twenty-four years of age and was unmarried.

The Inquest

An inquest into the causes of Howard's death was begun before Coroner Dr. Gray, at Comstock's undertaking rooms this morning. The jury, which was empanelled in Otonabee yesterday by County Constable Cochrane, was composed of Messrs. T. C. Holden, foreman, J. Hendry, T. Hendry, P. O'Keefe, Arthur Hall, Thos. Hooper, R. Pulleyblank, Ed Lee Welch, Ed. Jewett, Geo. Frost, Walter Kidd, W. L. Taylor, Roy Deyell and John Blatchford.

The body, which was laid upon a board, was stripped of the bloody and torn clothing, and viewed by the jurors. It was seen that Howard was frightfully mangled and broken. The head was smashed almost into a pulp, the figures being indistinguishable, while both arms and legs were broken in several places, and there were bruises and cuts from head to foot.

After the body had been viewed Coroner Gray stated that in his opinion a post mortem should be held and that the doctor performing it should have an assistant. He considered a post mortem necessary to determine whether or not there were any drugs in Howard's stomach.

On motion of two of the jury it was decided to hold a post mortem, after which the inquest was adjourned until Monday of next week in the city council chamber at 10 o'clock.

A number of Indians from Hiawatha were present at the inquest and seemed to feel Howard's death very much. The father and brother of the dead man, sat in one corner and bore their grief characteristically, saying nothing unless spoken to and then only replying in monosyllables. Occasionally the father was noticed to give vent to a fit of stifled sobbing.

Further light was cast on the affair this morning, when it was learned that Howard drove as far as Dower's Corners with a man named Crowley, of Otonabee, and got off the sleigh at the crossing, starting out to walk home along the track. In his pockets when searched this morning were a gold watch which had stopped at two o'clock, and 10 cents. According to his relatives he did not bring much money to Peterborough with him, only having enough to purchase the oats which are in his sleigh at the Munro House. He was in company with a Deseronto Indian, named Andy Culverson, on Saturday afternoon and the authorities are endeavouring to find the man, whose evidence as to Howard's movements should be of importance. License Inspector Stewart is investigating the the case, with a view to ascertaining where Howard secured the liquor, which was undoubtedly the cause of his death.

The body will be taken to Hiawatha to-night and interment will take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock to the Hiawatha Cemetery.

AN EATING ULCER.

Ulcers are a skin disease, and are more or less directly occasioned by a bad state of the blood, which produces acrid humors and corrupts the secretions.

No one can expect to have a skin free from disease when the blood is in a disordered condition and the stomach and bowels eating feebly in consequence.

Through its wonderful cleansing, purifying powers on the blood, and its renovating action on the entire system, Burdock Blood Bitters has made thousands of cures of different skin diseases during the past thirty years it has been on the market.

Mrs. Joseph Robinson, Hallerton, Que., writes: "I had an eating ulcer on my ankle. I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and it worked like a charm, cleaning out all the impurities from my system and improving my appetite. While taking the B.B.B. internally I used it externally to cleanse the sore, and it helped a treat

NEW 'PHONES ARE BEING INSTALLED

By The Canadian Machine Telephone Company in Lindsay.

Mr. Wm. Lytle who has charge of the construction work of the Canadian Machine Telephone Company, Lindsay, was in the city on Saturday. He is very much pleased with the progress being made in that town and hopes to have everything ready in a few weeks. The manager for the Lindsay branch has not yet been appointed, but it will, in all probability, be a man from the Toronto office.

The 'phones which are being installed in the Lindsay houses are a great improvement on those now in use in Peterborough and it is hoped that this city will soon have them. They are much more simple in form and not so large.

PORTLAND, MAINE, CHILD

Ill, Weak and Emaciated, Restored to Health by Vinol.

Mr. J W Flagg of Portland Me., writes: "Our little daughter, six years of age, after a severe attack of the measles, which developed into pneumonia, was left pitifully thin, weak and emaciated. She had no appetite, and her stomach was so weak it could not retain food. She lay in this condition for weeks, and nothing the doctor prescribed did a bit of good, and we were beginning to think she would never recover.

"At this time we commenced to give her Vinol, and the effect was marvelous. The doctor was amazed at her progress, and when we told him we were giving her Vinol, he replied, 'It is a fine remedy, keep it up. We did so, and she recovered her health and strength months before the doctor said she would."

The reason Vinol accomplishes such results, when everything else fails, is because it is a cod liver preparation made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil. When the powers of life are low Vinol restores the whole digestive system to a normal condition and makes it possible for the daily food to nourish the body as nature intended.

For this reason there is nothing equal to Vinol to create strength for the aged, the weak and run-down and convalescent. Try it on our guarantee. McDermid & Jury, druggists, Peterborough, also the Market Drug Store.

LIVELY DOINGS IN THE CLOTHING LINE

Messrs. Merrell & Meredith Bound to Capture a Big Slice of Spring Trade —Sensational Sale to Start Wednesday Next.

No matter what weather next Wednesday morning brings with it, Messrs. Merrill and Meredith will look for one of the greatest opening day throngs they have ever had and busy buying every minute of the day's nine hours. The reason is plain—told in the brief facts and forceful figures which appear in their page announcement in to-day's Examiner.

"We need the cash—name your price"—is practically what has influenced this rather unusual sale just at the beginning of the spring season. The firm are in genuine earnest, and to emphasize the fact they have christened this great trade of theirs "A Sincerity Sale." It promises to be the most exclusive clearing sale the firm have ever undertaken, and those who attended a similar sale which Merrill and Meredith held in their big store about a year ago, will find that this sale will overshadow it in many respects. The difference between this "Sincerity Sale" and other clothing sales is this—that everything in Merrell and Meredith's entire stock is to be cut in price—not a few lines only. In fact, it is stated that Peterborough's wise buyers will have a chance to get the latest spring clothing at half prices in many instances, and other prices are less than half.

This should be a wonderful money saving opportunity for people outside the city—and they will do themselves an injustice if they fail to take advantage of the offerings. The sale will run from the 25th of March to the 15th of April. But the come-early buyers will have more time and best selections, of course. The store will be closed to-day and to-morrow to mark over the goods. The firm expect to open their sale with a fly-off start. Therefore, save to-day's Examiner, or get a copy of the large street bill, and devour the sensational price list of this "Sincerity Sale."

VENERABLE COUPLE ENJOY HALF A CENTURY OF WEDDED LIFE

The Golden Wedding of Rev. and Mrs. Edward A. Sanderson—Relatives in Peterborough.

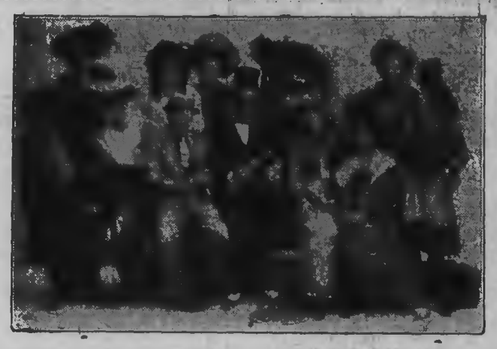
MANY FRIENDS ATTENDED

The North Hastings Review has the following report of a golden wedding in Madoc, which will be of interest here:

Tuesday was the golden wedding day of Rev. and Mrs. Edward A. Saunderson, of Elgin street, Madoc. There was a large family gathering. Six sons and three daughters are living, and all were present except the oldest son, who is in India. In the family gathering, besides the father and mother, were eight sons and daughters, six sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, and ten grandchildren. The oldest son was re-ceiving congratulations presented by one of his sons. The sons are as follows: George, Calcutta, India, editor of the Indian Witness; Francis, teacher at Sidney Crossing, Ont.; Richard, minister of the Methodist Church in Calmphia, Minn.; Arthur, dentist in Grand Forks, N. D.; Henry, minister of the Third Congregational Society, Cambridge, Mass.; Alexander, Peterborough, Ont., engineer on The G.T.R. The eldest son, George, and his wife, Ella, being unable to be present because of the distance, sent a letter which was read at the family gathering; their son, Clare, was present. Richard and his wife, Miriam, and their son, Marion; Arthur and his wife, Harriet, arrived last Thursday. Henry and his wife, Rose; Alexander and his wife, Euphemia (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Elliott, railway engineer of Madoc) and their two children, arrived on Monday. The daughters are: Emma, at home; Mrs. David Lewis of Peterborough; Mrs. Jas. White, Port Hope. Mrs. Lewis, her son, John Burkitt, and four little daughters and her husband, Agnes and her young son and her husband, were present.

The wedding dinner was at 6 o'clock. Besides the family, Rev. and Mrs. R. Bamforth were present as guests. Before the dinner, Mr. Bamforth read the letter from the absent son, and then on behalf of the people of Madoc Methodist Church, presented twenty dollars in gold as a testimony of their good will. Speaking for the other sons and daughters, Henry referred to the interest in this event in the distant places from which some of them came, an example of which was a special message of congratulation from the mayor of the city of Cambridge, Mass., where his church is. Then he spoke of the joy of the sons and daughters in the home-coming, and presented the father and mother with fifty dollars in gold. After a few heartfelt words by Mr. Saunderson in response, a hymn was sung and a prayer was offered. Then all sat down to dinner. After dinner, the L. O. L. of Madoc was represented by Messrs. James White, Robert McGee and John Smith. Mr. White, as spokesman, expressed the fellowship of the Order and presented Mr. Saunderson with the evidence, in gold, of their appreciation of his work for the lodge.

It is gratifying that of those who were expected, not one was prevented by illness or any other circumstance from being present. Most of the family will be here till the latter part of the week.



"Ennie, Menee, Mine, Moe—An Awful Bunch and a Little Dough." Scene from Richard Carle's tremendously successful farcial opera, "The Mayor of Tokio," at the Grand next Wednesday. Plan now open.

For over 250 times Richard Carles "Mayor of Tokio" delighted New Yorkers. The hold that the merry, tuneful and brightly beautiful play had on metropolitan theatregoers is not so remarkable when the many excellencies of the production are considered. It has undoubtedly the best story and wittiest lines of any musical play which has been produced in America in several decades. Musically, it has not been equalled since the "Mikado," but in addition to this, Mr. Jos. M. Gaites has given the play a production so lavishly rich in equipment that he has set a new standard for other play producers to follow, and he has provided a cast which has never been equalled on either side of the Atlantic. The scenery and costumes are so elegant in make in texture and so beautifully bright and correct that they are a delight to the senses. The exceptionally clever company is headed by John L. Kearney, a comedian of much merit, who assumes the character of Marcus Orlando Kidder, and is most droll and amusing.

One Day Of Rest The Motto Of The Lord's Day Alliance

Rev. W. G. Hanna Spoke at Mass Meeting in St. Paul's Church Last Night.

THE WORK ACCOMPLISHED

At a mass meeting at St. Paul's church last night after the regular evening service Rev. W G Hanna, B. A., provincial secretary of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance spoke to a large representative gathering of the various churches of the city on the work of the Alliance. He presented in a forcible manner a strong plea for a closer observance of the Lord's Day Act. Rev. Mr. Hanna's adress was a sympathetic appeal to the people to assist in the work of endeavouring to secure for those who are held in the bondage of seven days labour one day of rest.

Sunday is God's day he said and is also man's day in the sense that he may secure the highest good by specially worshipping God. The Lord's Day Alliance tries to give to everyone the opportunity of resting on this day. Speaking of the Lords Day Act Rev. Mr. Hanna said that several of its clauses limited its scope but that every man had the legal right to one day's rest. The fact that the Attorney General of a province in which an infraction of the Act is alleged to have taken place must give his assent to a prosecution has not been entirely satisfactory. In British Columbia there have been no prosecutions; in Manitoba there have been several but in Quebec and Nova Scotia the law is not enforced. It is carried out, however, in the other five provinces.

75,000 set Free

Rev. Mr. Hanna stated that since the new Act came into force eight months ago 75,000 men of half the 7 day toilers have been set free in Canada. These figures have been computed carefully by labour unions for a leading journal, and are considered practically exact.

The American Sunday newspaper was severely censured by Mr. Hanna who hopes to see its circulation on the Lord's Day entirely forbidden. Over 80 per cent. of the Sunday distribution has been already stopped in Canada.

Another fact the speaker mentioned was that more than 200 different violations of the Act had been stopped. Rev. Mr. Hanna explained the methods of the Alliance in its endeavour to peaceably come to terms with violators. Up to the present 98 per cent. of the cases have been stopped without going to the courts, thus refuting the statement that the Alliance is a disturbing factor in a community.

Rest Required

Continuing Rev. Mr. Hanna pointed out the necessity of rest and stated even mechanical apparatus does better work and has a longer life when it has periods of rest. Where the Lord's Day is violated crime grows apace and Mr. Hanna quoted statistics dealing with some sections of the United States. In conclusion Mr. Hanna asked for the assistance of the people in promoting the work. Canada has a future which will claim every attention. Sunday rest should be a birthright privilege for every Canadian and the present is the time to adjust the laws which will govern it.

Appendicitis Case In The Cold Region Of James' Bay

Only Neighbour 55 Miles Away—Chanced Across Visiting Doctor Who Treated Surveyor Who Was Dangerously Ill.

THE YOUNG MAN'S JOURNEY

To be suddenly attacked with appendicitis in the heart of the James Bay district and 55 miles from any other human habitation is one of the experiences which Mr. C. V. Osborne, of Montreal, witnessed. He was registered at the Oriental Hotel today and to the Examiner gave an account of a mid-winter business trip to the proposed junction of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the T. and N. O. Railways. Mr. Osborne undertook the arduous task which he says he will remember for a life time. One day in the vicinity of Nellie Lake he was travelling along with the doctor, who has to make regular rounds of the camps to look after their sanitary conditions and the health of the men when they saw a man running down the trail towards them. He stopped and asked if they knew where he could find a doctor and on learning that the camp doctor was present made arrangements to meet him at junction further back on the trail and started out to return to the camp. The next night about one o'clock Mr. Osborne heard several men bringing into the house at the junction the man who had appendicitis. He was one of the engineers engaged in survey work on the G.T.P., and was extremely ill. Mr. Osborne continued his trip the next morning and did not find out whether the man recovered.

50 Degrees Below Zero

Mr. Osborne stated that the thermometer hovered between 50 and 60 degrees all the time he was in the northern country. It must be remembered that he penetrated far into the wilds of the James Bay District and in fact was not far from James Bay when he reached his destination. Mr. Osborne said that the supplies for the summer's work on the G.T.P. are being collected now. The reason is that in the summer the country south of the new line is an impassable bog and now when it is all frozen, teams can draw the supplies and necessities which are prepared in the smallest possible parts for the sleighs.

The trees have been felled on the line of the G.T.P. and the construction work will be begun as soon as possible. The difficulty is that the country is unknown and the engineers are not sure of the conditions which they will have to combat.

Story Of The Conversion Of Zaccheus, The Subject

First of Week of Revival Services at St. Paul's Church—By Rev. Robert Pogue.

SERMON ON EARNESTNESS

Last evening at St. Paul's Church a week of special revival services was begun, when an earnest and powerful sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Robt. A. Pogue. The congregation was a large one and joined heartily in the singing of the hymns. Rev. Mr. Pogue asked for the co-operation and prayers of the congregation in the special efforts that are to be made during the week to win souls for Christ. Every afternoon at 3.30 a prayer service for women will be held, and in the evening at 7.30 the men will gather for prayer. The regular service will commence at 8 o'clock and the pastor will preach each evening. The choir will be present and the gospel solos will be sung by Miss Davies.

Speaking from the story of the conversion of Zaccheus, as told in the 19th chapter of St. Luke's Gospel, Rev. Mr. Pogue made a strong appeal to those present to turn from the world and consecrate their lives to the service of God. In a plain, simple statement the speaker drew attention to the zeal and earnestness of Zaccheus the publican, who had been an outcast and derided by his fellow men, yet, despite this, he longed to see Jesus, and so fervent was he in his purpose that he overcame all obstacles that stood in his way and saw the Saviour.

"And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And behold, there was a man, Zaccheus, 'chief of the Publicans, and he was rich,' etc. The conversion of Zaccheus on Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem is as recorded before the crucifixion. This was the Publicans last opportunity. He knew that probably never again would he have the chance to see Jesus of Nazareth. Likewise, said the speaker, to-day might be the last opportunity of seeing him.

Zaccheus had many difficulties to overcome. His occupation, that of a tax collector, was against him. He was spurned by the priests of his time. But his heart was not hardened by the ridicule of his fellowmen. He had heard of Jesus, and his desire for good filled him with a longing to see Christ. The fact that Zaccheus notwithstanding that he was outcast in the eyes of those around him, desired to see Jesus, should be a striking example to men to-day who are keeping away from the Kingdom of God because of inconsistencies of those attending church.

The Publican sees Christ, who looks up to him and says: "Make haste and come down, for to-day I must abide at thy house." Zaccheus came down and received Hime Joyfully. Zaccheus saw in Christ's eyes His willingness to receive him.

"Christ is waiting to receive each one of us,' said the speaker. "He is looking to us. He knows our sins. Those who are in darkness and away from the church make haste and receive your Saviour joyfully. Let Him abide with you and have Him in all that you do.'

Miss Helen Davies sang in excellent voice "Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By.'

MR. BEST BUSY WHILE IN THE CITY

Spoke at Eight Different Meetings on Saturday Night and Sunday—"Heroes of the Veldt."

SPOKE IN TWO CHURCHES

Mr. T. F. Best, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of Hamilton, has been kept busy ever since his arrival Saturday night. He attended the Strangers' Fellowship Club monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and gave a short but very helpful talk on "Fellowship." At 9.15 p. m. he addressed a meeting of personal workers and those interested in Christian work, in the parlour, which was very impressive.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Mr. Best spoke to The Young Men's Bible Class on "Service," showing how a Christian could get peace, power and joy from working in the Christian life.

At 11 o'clock he occupied the pulpit of Murray Street Baptist Church and gave a most interesting address on "Revivals," illustrating his address by telling of the recent great revival in Hamilton. Mr. Best found a sympathetic audience and was listened to with deep interest. At 3 p. m. he spoke for a short time to the members of the Social Adult Bible Club of the George Street Methodist Church, and at 4 o'clock to the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was held in the gymnasium and every available chair in the building occupied, besides dozens standing at the back of the gymnasium, and even on the steps outside the door. At least three hundred men and boys were present and listened with marked attention to Mr. Best's address on "Heroes of the Veldt." Mr. Best told of his work when in the war in South Africa in a way that held the audience right from the start. He then appealed to unconverted to surrender their lives to God and quite a number signified their desire to do so.

At night Mr. Best spoke in the George Street Methodist Church. His address was on the "Y. M. C. A. and its achievements, its wonderful growth and far-reaching influences, its adaptability to all conditions of men in every civilized country of the world. Work among miners, lumbermen, sailors, soldiers, city and town association work. The address was a most comprehensive statement of the great work the association is doing. Thousands of men and boys in Bible study, thousands in educational classes and gymnasium work and all working to make the men of to-day, the all round man in spirit, mind and body. After the church service a song service was held at the Y. M. C. A., to which quite a large number attended. After singing, a short Bible reading was taken up, and a few helpful words spoken to the new converts. An invitation was also given for any more who cared to start the Christian life and several more made the decision. Altogether about twenty men made a definite stand for the Christian life yesterday.

A meeting of the converts and Christians who desire to engage in active Christian work will take place at the "Y" to-night at 7.30 p. m.

A NEW STORE IN THE SOUTH END

Mr. J. W. Buyers Will Handle The Daily Examiner.

Mr. W. J. Buyers has opened out a general store in the south-western suburb of Peterborough. His store is located on the boundary between Peterborough and North Monaghan at the intersection of Chamberlen street and the Boundary Road. In the settlement directly west of the Boundary Road and in the vicinity of the factory of Peterborough Sandstone Brick Company, Limited, there is a population of at least 250 people, this being a section that has been built up very rapidly within the last few years. Mr. Buyers has shown commendable enterprise in opening up a general store at this point and it will certainly meet the requirements of the people of that particular settlement.

Mr. Buyers has arranged to handle the Daily Examiner and subscribers in that neighbourhood may, if they choose, procure their daily paper at Mr. Buyers' store. This will be of much assistance to the people in that settlement who desire to have their daily evening paper at an early hour.

DEATH OF MR. ARCHIBALD MOFFATT

Another of Peterborough's Popular Men Has Passed Away.

The many friends in Peterborough of Mr. Archibald Moffatt will regret to learn of his death, which took place Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Alexander Gibson, 585 George street. Archie, as he had been familiarly known by his friends, was 55 years of age, and during his residence here was one of the best known young men in Peterborough. For many years Mr. Moffatt was connected with the hardware establishment of the late Mr. John Bertram, who, upon the death of Mr. Lannin, was appointed executor of his estate. Mr. Moffatt was placed in charge of the Lannin business, and upon its being taken over by Mr. Adam Hall, remained with the latter gentleman for eight or nine years, subsequently removing to Winnipeg, where he was connected with the business of J. H. Ashdown & Company. For the last two years, since his return from the West, Mr. Moffatt was connected with the Cavendish Lumber Company, and had been most of his time in the south. He returned to Peterborough a short time ago and contracted pneumonia, which was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Moffatt leaves to mourn his loss a widowed mother and three sisters. They are Mrs. Starr of Toronto, Mrs. Alex. Gibson of Peterborough and Miss Moffatt. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Alex. Gibson, 585 George street. Mr. Moffatt, during his life in Peterborough had many warm friends, was a most genial companion and highly esteemed by his friends and associates. By his death another of Peterborough most popular young men has departed this life.

BOWLING BASKETBALL CURLING

AUBURNS BEAT THE PARK STREET TEAM

At Brock street rink on Saturday night between 7 and 8 o'clock, the Auburns added one more to their string of victories by defeating Park street by 4 goals to 2. The score at half-time was 2-1 in favour of Park street. Both teams mixed it up considerably, and as a result quite a number decorated the boards. Referee "Pete" Weatherston handled the bell and was very impartial in his decisions. Both teams had a large number of supporters on hand who made things lively on the side. Loomis and Hillier played good hockey for Park street. For the Auburns the honours were about even. Every man played hard to win.

The game started off at a good clip, some very good combination being played by both teams. After about ten minutes play Kendry was accidentally struck on the head and forced to retire, Elliott going off to even up. At this stage Loomis made a pretty individual rush and scored first blood for Park street. A few minutes later Guerin notched another for Park street. Score, 2-0. The game then went on, both teams trying hard to score. Kendry and Elliott returned to the ice, and soon afterwards Shaw placed one where it would do the most good on a pass from Hawkins. Half-time was then called, Park street leading by one goal.

In the second half the Auburns had the best of the play. Every man settled down to win, and after about seven minutes play Kendry found the nets on a pass from Dallier. Score, 2-2. A few minutes afterwards Flannary got away and passed to Brumwell, who made the score read 3-2. The play went on, both teams doing their best to score. At this stage, Kempt made some fine stops for the Auburns. Just a minute before time was called Kendry scored another on a long wrist shot, making the final score 4-2. Time was called and the game was over.

The teams were as follows:

HARRY CASTLE ENTERS WALKING ARENA

Will Give Davey Hartley "The Walk of His Life"—An East City Man.

Peterborough will have at least two pedestrians in the big walking contest, beginning April 20th at the Brock street rink. Besides David Hartley there will also be Charles Henry Castle, also of East City, whose walking ability is said to be of a high character.

In sending in his application to the Examiner Mr. Castle says: "Please put my name in for the big walk from April 20th to April 25th. I'll give Hartley the walk of his life."

QUAKERS TO MEET AGAIN TO-MORROW EVENING

Final Decision About the Western Trip Will be Reached.

The Quaker football team meet again to-morrow night at 7.30 o'clock, at the Y.M.C.A. when the final decision on the proposed trip will be arrived at. The team is anxious to go and it is only a question of finances that troubles them. If the assistance they expect is given before to-morrow night it's the Pacific Coast for them, but at any rate a final decision will be reached. The management is very desirous that all members or prospective members of the Club will be present at the meeting as they want it to be clearly a representative one.

THE LAST GAME OF THE SEASON

Chieftains Will Play West Ends at the Brock Street Rink To-night

There will be two hockey matches at Brock street rink to-night, after which the popular amusement place will be closed for the season. The Chieftains and West Ends will play between 7.30 and 8.30 o'clock, and the game will be followed by a game between two teams from the C. G. E. The ice is in good shape for to-night's game.

They are all after Bill Waram's record—some of them a long way after.

Starting at an early date a day will be reserved exclusively for ladies once a week. There are several ladies in town who bowl very well, and on the next occasion Mrs. Hull, of Chicago, visits Canada she will be invited to give an exhibition of her prowess. Mrs. Hull is the champion lady bowler of the world.

Good evening—have you got a sore thumb?

Joe Pollard is said to be the coming Bert Moran, of Peterborough.

The B. B. C. team, which visited the Peterborough alleys on Wednesday night, are picked to win the championship in their league in Toronto. They bowled in Peterborough Wednesday night, Thursday morning and afternoon, returned home on the late train and won their scheduled match that evening. And that's bowling some.

Down on your knees telling all you know who would say played the better hockey, Miller, Deeton, Boulton, Whitcroft, Crowley, Banford, Parr—guess again and the answer comes back all of them.

Whitcroft the most criticized man on the team, silenced the anvil chorus last night, he was here, there and all over when needed; he scored the three first goals and his play, when the result was in dispute showed him in his true form, one of the best stick handlers and skaters in the business.—Edmonton Journal.

Although the price of tea at the gardens increased enormously during the past year, the "Salada" Tea Co. did not once withdraw an iota from their high standard of what constitutes the best in teas. The advance in price, however, has at last compelled them to raise their lower priced tea from 25c. to 30c. per pound.

THE WEATHER

Compared with other years, the snow is late in leaving this spring. Although it has settled considerably there has not been any general thaw. A year ago to-day the snow was practically all gone, a little remaining here and there. We also had our first thunderstorm on that day. Two years ago to-day we had it 12 below zero. The snow, too, had all about gone at the date.

The Payne-Meehan Case In The Hands Of The Grand Jury

THE TRAMP QUESTION

The Spring Assizes of the High Court of Justice were begun at one o'clock to-day by Chief Justice Muloch of Toronto. The members of the bar present were Messrs. John Green, G N Gordon, F D Kerr, D O'Connell and Geo Sherry of Norwood.

The members of the Grand Jury answered to their names as follows: Messrs. R E Birdsall, foreman; David Burgess, John Carlisle, Geo. Fitzgerald, Edwin Galvin, Robt. Northey, Cornelius O'Brien, Nathan Payne, Alexander Thompson, John Rothwell, Anthony Taylor, Timothy Walsh, Porter White.

Address to the Jury

The only case for the Grand Jury to deal with was that of the King vs. Meehan, which was referred to in the charge to the jury. His Lordship spoke as follows:—

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury,—Your labours in considering the bills that will be submitted to you are comparatively light. Only one case is presented to you. A young man is charged with the rape of a young woman of 18 years.

His Lordship then briefly reviewed the details of the Meehan-Payne case, concluding by asking the jury to determine whether there was a true bill or not.

Continuing, His Lordship referred to other duties which would have to be performed. Several institutions in receipt of public moneys should be inspected. There was the County Gaol, two Hospitals, House of Refuge and Protestant Home. At present, His Lordship said, there were 16 persons in gaol. Of these, 9 are vagrants, more than half the total number confined. His Lordship said that this was a pertinent question and should be investigated. "How comes it that there are so many vagrants?" he asked and urged the Grand Jurors to determine this reason if possible.

Canada, England and Ireland are represented about equally. Sometimes, His Lordship said, men do not want to work. In the Peterborough gaol there are old and young men registered as vagrants, and these latter cases should be looked into.

The Grand Jury was relieved of the duty of inspecting the House of Refuge. His Lordship said that it was inspected last summer and would be inspected by the Grand Jury of the Court of Session that sits in June and thus an inspection now was not necessary.

Settled out of Court

The Grand Jury then retired to receive the evidence in the Meehan-Payne case. The Port Hope Brewing Company's case was settled out of court. The defendants were Belleville men, Messrs. A Jackson, E A Jackson and W Moffat. O'Connell & Gordon for the Company and Messrs. Porter and Carnew for the defendants.

The first case dealt with to-day was that of Hill vs. Kavanagh. Both parties are from Dummer and the case involved the sale of a parcel of land in that township. Messrs. O'Connell & Gordon represented the plaintiff and Mr. Geo. Sherry, the defendant.

She had been suffering from heart and lung trouble, which caused her death. She had only been in the city about a year, but was well known and a prominent member of Knox Church.

She was forty years of age and was born in Percy Township. She went to Lakefield to reside after her marriage and came to this city about a year ago. She leaves behind, her husband, two daughters, Gertie and Maud, and two sons, William and George Almond.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 11.50 a. m., from the family residence, 212 Reid street and the remains will be taken to Lakefield via G. T. R. for interment.

QUEBEC CELEBRATIONS.

Lord Elgin Asked to Invite Colonies and Other Representatives.

Quebec, March 23.—On behalf of the Royal National Commission on the Quebec Tercentenary, the Governor-General has cabled to Lord Elgin, Colonial Secretary, asking him to invite to the coming fetes a representative of the town of Brouages, Champlain's natal town, as well as representatives of the families of Wolfe, of Montcalm, of Levis, of Murray, of Guy Carleton and of Simon Fraser, the former chief of Fraser's Highlanders, who performed such prodigies of valor at the taking of Quebec.

Lord Elgin has been asked to attend personally, or to send a representative, and also to invite Australia to send one representative, South Africa four, New Zealand one, Newfoundland one, France one, and the United States one.

France and the United States are also expected to send fleets to participate in the fetes.

For Smuggling Grain.

Neche, N.D., March 23.—T. O'Brien, deputy collector of customs, has seized the team and sleigh of Peter McKinnon, together with 2,700 pounds of barley a man had just brought from Gretna, Man., one mile north of here. The barley was purchased there and McKinnon brought it across without offering to pay duty.

This is the first seizure made at this port of entry of grain, though it is believed smuggling has been going on for years. The duty is 35 cents a bushel. Barley, team, harness and sleigh will be sold at public auction.

Quashed the Bylaw.

Toronto, March 23.—Chief Justice Meredith on Saturday morning issued judgments quashing on a technicality the civic bylaw to reduce licenses from 150 to 110, and refusing to unseat Controllers Harrison, Spence and Hocken, who had supported the bylaw, for alleged lack of property and other qualifications.

The Chief Justice held that the terms "license year" and "calendar year" had been confused in such a way as to make the bylaw invalid.

Ship Ashore.

Valdez, Alaska, March 23.—The steamship Saratoga went aground off Busby Island during a blinding snowstorm Saturday and now lies caught amidships on the rocks in such a perilous position it is feared she will break in two with the falling of the tide. All her passengers, including Capt. Mikklesen, an Arctic explorer, were taken to Valdez by a passing steamer.

Murders Mother For Money.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 23.—Grover C. Blake and Orser Reynolds of Anderson, Ind., were arrested yesterday on the charge of murdering Blake's mother with a hammer on Saturday at Anderson. Blake made a confession after his arrest, implicating Reynolds.

Fatally Crushed by Gravel.

Smith's Falls, March 23.—A gravel pit in Gloucester Township, Carleton County, in which several men were working, caved in a few days ago and John Henderson, a young farmer of that section, was fatally injured.

Pekin, March 23.—The authorities on March 17 inaugurated a series of wholesale arrests of reformers and suspected revolutionists, and up to the present time no less than 100 men have been taken into custody. It is reported that four of the prisoners have official rank. Most of the prisoners are men educated abroad.

Hayti Is Quiet.

Port au Prince, Hayti, March 23.—President Nord Alexis, in an interview at the palace yesterday, declared that conditions in the republic were absolutely tranquil.

ITALIAN HAD HIS FOOT AMPUTATED

Had Been Suffering for Eight Months With Rheumatism—Passed Away Yesterday.

At five o'clock this morning in St. Joseph's Hospital, Giuseppi Cupido passed away. He has been employed with the smelting works at Miniand and came here last Thursday to have his foot attended to. At the hospital it was found necessary to have his foot amputated. After the operation was performed the young man's condition gradually grewe worse until death ended his sufferings. The operation was the outcome of a long illness of rheumatism, which had been neglected until a few weeks ago.

The deceased man was thirty-three years of age and came to this city from Italy some years ago. He leaves one brother, Fiorinto, to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place from the residence of the deceased's brother, 157 Elm street, at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

THE SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Had Special Reference to the Recent Missions Held.

The services at St. John's yesterday had special reference to and were, to a certain extent the continuation of the mission services. At the morning services there was a very large attendance—over 200 at the Communion service; and in the evening the church was again crowded. The mission character prevailed. The choir was supported by an efficient orchestra, hymns and prayers were special and the service as a whole of a thanksgiving character for the blessings vouchsafed during the mission. The rector gave a most earnest address, emphasizing two points. The first was that those who had been influenced by the mission should persevere in the true path they had entered upon, by, of course, invoking and relying upon the Divine aid, which could be greatly supplemented by an attitude of sympathy and encouragement by the congregation. Those who had chosen a new path would have a lonely one, the tendency, in religion as in other things, in Canada being to discourage to "keep in their place" those who struck out on new lines of conduct above the level of deadly dullness.

PORT HOPE JESSE JAMES STORY

Told by a Traveller to an Examiner Reporter This Morning.

The following story, which excels all the exploits of the James boys and the Biddle brothers, was told by a Port Hope traveller to an Examiner reporter this morning.

On Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, a middle-aged man, carrying a heavy bag on his back, knocked at the back door of a wealthy citizen's residence. The mistress came to the residence. The mistress went to the door and the stranger asked if he could leave the bag in the kitchen for a short time. His request was complied with and the bag was placed in the corner. The lady was sitting by the fire, when she heard a rip came from the bag. She gazed at it in horror to see a large knife projecting from it and cutting a large hole in the sack. She ran to the cupboard, pulled out a six-shooter and fired twice into the bag. The mysterious bag fell down on the floor immediately, and also the knife. A policeman who was outside heard the shots and rushed into the house. He opened the bag and found the prostrate body of a dead man. Two revolvers were found in his pockets and a policeman's whistle dangled from a chain inside the dead man's coat. The officer put this to his mouth and gave a shrill whistle. In less than a minute two men who had been hiding in the barn rushed into the kitchen and were at once covered by the policeman who held in his hands the two revolvers he had found. The dead man was sent to an undertaking establishment and the other two were handcuffed and taken to the lock-up.

The residents of Port Hope may believe this, but it is one too many for Peterborough.

MINISTER PRESENTED WITH GOWN

Yesterday morning before the regular service a presentation of an informal nature was made to Rev. Robert Pogue, of a new gown. It was presented by Messrs. E. S. Clarry and W. S. Davoidson, on behalf of the Young Men's Guild of the church, and a recognition of it was made by Rev. Mr. Pogue from the pulpit.

TEN PINS DISTURB CLUB ROOMS

Continual Thunder Heard by Knights of Columbus.

A prominent member of the Knights of Columbus said to-day that the noise from the bowling alleys over their club rooms is not conducive to comfort and quietness.

"It is like a continued peal of thunder rumbling in the distance," was his description of the sound and he was confident that with conditions as they are at present the society would have to seek new quarters where the sound conditions are more congenial and the noise of ten pins be as far distant as that which Rip Van Winkle heard in his journey up the Catskills.

The appreciation of the public is the final test of merit. This is the reason "Salada" Tea has the enormous sale of over eighteen million packets annually. If you do not use it, The "Salada" Tea Co., Toronto, will send you a sample. State whether you use, Black, Mixed or Green, and the price you usually pay per pound.

Music and Drama

COMING THRO' THE RYE

The production of "Coming Thro the Rye," at the Grand next Friday brings to this city for the first time one of the greatest musical comedy successes that has ever been brought forward in this country. We are to have in every detail the Rork Company's production, which means scenery, costumes, and electrical effects of the most elaborate and beautiful description. Hence, theatregoers may warrantably look forward to the event with anticipations of more than ordinary enjoyment. The success of "Coming Thro the Rye" everywhere is not only the talk of the communities in which it has been given, but it has attracted more attention and comment in the theatrical world than anything which has been produced in many years. There is something about this show which seems to be attractive to the public even before it is presented in a community, because upon its first visits it is said to draw capacity audiences. But it remains for the return engagements to demonstrate to the fullest extent the immense popularity of the entertainment. Whenever "Coming Thro the Rye" has been announced for a second engagement in a city the result has been invariably the same. All of the seats have been sold within a few hours after the opening of the sale, and this fact may be taken as the strongest indication of the attractiveness of the production. The organization is made up of a large number of comedians, singers and dancers, and the scenery, costumes and electrical effects are described as magnificent and massive to an unusual. The advance sale of seats will begin Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and it may be taken as a timely suggestion that early application be made for them.

PROFANE LANGUAGE IN NEW YORK

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—I notice an item from "Chicagoan," giving his views on how profane and other bad language exists in New York, and stating that it is a good deal worse there than in the west. I can vouch for this fact, as on my visit to the west, a few months ago, both in Canada and the United States can say, that although there the flow of profanity is disgusting, still. I did not hear it to the extent you will in the east, where it seems to have become epidemic. Boston seems to be keeping pace with all other cities in this direction. The most flagrant of all expressions you will hear is the name of the Almighty and the Saviour. You can hear this from men and youths in almost any direction you may go, and it is time that every effort should be taken to prohibit this, as it is really becoming a disgrace to the nation. The stage is becoming one of the greatest distributors of profane and bad language. Owing to its use having become so common among the people, the playwriter has come to think that a production is not complete without profanity, and therefore he takes the license to use it. Of late in depicting western plays, profanity has been introduced as it existed in the mining towns. This should have been prevented at the start as it only encourages profanity. I wrote a letter two years ago to newspapers regarding the amount of profane and bad language that was used in "The Girl from the Golden West." I thought it was very improper to have such expressions used before a respectable audience, as it was making families and the children undesirably familiar with them. I think, therefore, the stage has done a great deal towards increasing the flow of profanity at the present time. The heads of the police department in St. Louis, Chicago and other cities have now come to the conclusion that the police themselves are among the causes of the extensive use of profanity, and are aiming at them as being the right ones to start on to check it, and this without doubt is true. Now, why not also experiment on the theatres? There are also the writers of novels and books of all classes to be taken into account. These writers also have come to think that their publications are not complete without using profanity or other strong words. The time has come when a halt should be made if there is to be any consideration given as to the respect of our language and want to rid the country of this most obnoxious habit which seems to be steadily growing and becoming so familiar amongst the youths of the whole continent.

Yours truly,

GEO. WRIGHT.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give us Newbro's Herpicide

This word of late has been in every one's mouth and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who'd like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now, "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys, after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. McDermid & Jury and the Market Drug Store, Special Agents.

Old Hunter Makes Serious Charges Upon The Settlers

Declares They Hunt Deer on Snowshoes and Feed the Venison to the Pigs—Inspectors Live Where There Are No Deer.

WRITES TO BANCROFT TIMES

In last week's issue of the Bancroft Times the following letter appears on the wanton slaughter of deer in the north:—

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—Will you please allow me a small space in your paper to make a few remarks in regard to the wanton slaughter of deer in Carlow, Bangor and McClure townships. The poor animals are still in the "yards" and on account of the great depth of snow they are unable to get away from the men and boys on snowshoes, who kill them by the score and feed the meat to their dogs, pigs and hens. The does, heavy with young, are slaughtered to a greater extent than the bucks. The men who are paid by the Government to look after this sort of thing live in a district where there are no deer, and know nothing about what is going on back here. If they were dismissed and men appointed who could be right on the ground where their services were most required they might possibly earn their salaries. If a farmer kills one for his family when they are good to eat he is very often punished severely, but during the last month a large number have been killed in this vicinity and so far nothing has been done.

Yours truly,

AN OLD HUNTER.

The Conversion Of Cornelius, The Subject At St. Paul's

Second Mission Service Held—Rev. Robt. Pogue Gives an Inspiring Address—Miss Helen Davies Sang.

LARGE NUMBER PRESENT

At the second mission service of St. Paul's Church last night there was a splendid attendance, and a hearty service was held. The choir was well represented and during the evening Miss Helen Davies sang two solos, in keeping with the subject of the evening, which were greatly enjoyed. The service consisted chiefly of the singing of hymns, prayers and the Gospel address. Rev. Robt. Pogue, the pastor, occupied the pulpit and began the service with the singing of Hymn 99, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

He chose the story of the conversion of Cornelius by St. Peter, as a suitable one for the occasion. The object of the mission, he explained, was to lead men and women to salvation and the subject that he addressed them on was along that line. He pointed out in the beginning of his address that Cornelius was not a Heathen. He worshipped the true God in the synagogues; he was familiar with the general facts of the Gospel, and it seemed that he must be regarded as a man living in the dawn and not in the bright light of mid-day. He was still an unsaved man, and it was for this reason that the angel sent for St. Peter to minister unto him the truths of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Cornelius was a man who lived a devout life, but was not satisfied with it because he was not saved. He was just and was everything that could be desired of a man. The speaker very clearly brought out the different points in the man's life and showed that persons cannot be of Christ unless they partake of His holiness. Speaking about the coming revival, which is so often talked about, he thought that the old, true Gospel should be preached. He believed in the preaching of simple Gospel truths and not in that which does not teach a man to obey the ten commandments. Coming back to the subject of Cornelius the speaker showed him in the light of popularity, well-thought of by men because he always stood out for Christ, which the speaker admired. He next showed the private life of Cornelius; how devoted he was at home and the impression he made upon his soldiers, whom he tried to draw within the knowledge of the Christian religion. People today, the speaker said, were too fond of mocking men who pray openly and call them hypocrites, but Cornelius cared not for the thoughts of his fellow men, but stood for the right. He was a large giver and his alms which he laid at the altar were noticed by God.

The speaker then pointed out that Cornelius was trying in a zealous manner to obtain his own righteousness, instead of seeking the righteousness of the Lord. The people must accept the Lord's salvation and the speaker quoted the words, "By deeds of the law shall no man be justified. Salvation was a gift and not to be laboured for, and whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Closing his remarks the reverend divine urged those present to weigh the matter in their hearts and accept the Lord as their Savour.

GIVEN TRUNK BEFORE DEPARTURE

Popular Young Man Banqueted by Number of His Fellow Employees.

The spacious dining room of the Peterborough House, Hunter street, was gaily decorated, when several of the employees of the Brinton Carpet Company, from Kidderminster, England, gathered to celebrate the 21st birthday of one of their popular fellow workmen, Mr. B Farley, generally known as "Father Keeps on Doing it." A very dainty banquet was spread and heartily enjoyed by those who gathered around the festive board.

At the conclusion of the banquet Mr. Farley was presented with a handsome trunk and a splendid address, to which he made a suitable reply.

During the evening an impromptu programme was arranged in which the following gentlemen took part:—Messrs. B Farley, J Tarrington, E Tarrington, R Folley, T Monk, W Jackson, G Skelding, A Giles, W Connelly, A Astor, G Edwards, T Neil, T Meale, H Ayres, G Billington.

Mr. W A Bishop closed the entertainment with a clarionet solo.

HAS OLD AGE PENSION SCHEME TOO

France Will Grant Pensions to Her Aged Workmen.

COMPROMISE WITH SENATE

After Long Opposition Agreement Has Been Reached—Minimum Pension to Be $72—Workmen to Pay Two Per Cent. of Their Wages—Employers Also Contribute a Like Amount to the Fund.

Paris, March 23.—Finding that the continued opposition of the Senate to the workmen's old-age pension bill, passed by the Chamber in 1906, promised to postpone indefinitely the realization of this social reform which the Radical wing of the French Republicans have been promising for years, the Chambers have finally consented to the principle of a compromise, and have voted a resolution serving notice on the Government and the Senate that this compromise must become law before the expiration of the present year.

By the terms of the bill workmen contribute two per cent. of their wages and the employers a like percentage during a period of thirty years, thus creating a fund from which the workman thereafter is to receive an annual minimum pension of $72. The state is to contribute only when the forced savings of the workmen do not create a fund large enough to furnish a pension of that amount. Upon the promulgation of the law it is proposed to grant annual pensions to all workmen over sixty who have worked thirty years, and then gradually increase the scale of pensions of those "graduating" each succeeding year until at the end of thirty years all will receive at least $72. The liability after the scheme is in "permanent" operation is fixed approximately at $68,000,000. The Chamber has agreed to the principle of absolutely limiting the Government liability for the present to $20,000,000 annually.

FLEW ALMOST TWO MILES.

Aeroplane Makes Successful Flight Carrying Two Men.

Paris, March 23.—Following a record-breaking performance of Friday in flying a mile and a half in his aeroplane, Henry Farman, Saturday made another spectacular flight at Issy, covering two and a half kilometers, a little less than two miles, in 3 minutes and 21 seconds.

Later, in company with Leon Delagrange, he entered the latter's aeroplane, which moved over the ground at the rate of about 30 miles an hour, and then went into the air making a short, but highly successful flight.

This is the first time that an aeroplane carrying two persons, has made a successful flight, and the aeronauts were enthusiastically cheered by thousands of people who had gathered.

These accomplishments are hailed with delight, as they are considered as having demonstrated that the problem of aerial navigation can be definitely solved, especially the question of equilibrium.

Was a Case of Suicide.

Chatham, March 23.—As the locality was out of his jurisdiction, Coroner R. V. Bray of this city did not conduct the inquest into the death of Fred Maunday, keeper of the St. Ann's Island, Mitchell Bay. Instead he notified the crown attorney at Sarnia, and Coroner Macdonald of that town investigated and finds that Maunday committed suicide. Maunday had been found dead in his home early Friday morning by his wife, with a bullet in his breast.

Foul play was suspected because of feuds existing on the island, which is largely peopled by Indians. Duck hunters from various places have club houses here and one of them was burned the other night. Incendiarism was suspected when several guns were not found among the debris. Then when A. B. Wells of Chatham had his gun returned with the threat to keep quiet or get a bullet in the breast next time he was at Port Dover, matters took a serious turn. It was thought that Maunday, who was weak-minded, might have been a victim.

Bad Palpitation of The Heart
EVER SINCE SHE WAS NINE YEARS OLD,
MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS EFFECTED A COMPLETE CURE.

If you find your health failing, your food apparently doing you no good, your heart beating irregularly—now slow, now fast—skipping a beat now and then, palpitations or throbbings on the slightest excitement or exertion, pain in the region of the heart, face pale, dizzy and faint spells, these all point to heart weakness, to nerve derangement, to a state of health consequent upon these, which, if not corrected and cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, will surely end in utter prostration and hopeless invalidism.

From the depths many have been raised by this remarkable remedy, as its power is beyond all question most marvellous; but, why wait until you have gone so far? Taking these pills now will turn you from the perilous path of sickness and put you on the highway to health.

Miss Mary Wilson, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Ever since I was nine years of age I have been afflicted with palpitation of the heart, pain in my side and nervousness. As I grew older it kept increasing. After having tried numerous doctors medicines, but to no avail, I was induced to try your pills, and after using several boxes I began to improve, so kept on taking them for some time until now I can truthfully say I am in perfect health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cts. per box or three for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KEEPS POLICE AT BAY.

Buffalo, March 23.—Crazed because he had been out of work for six weeks, Burton W. Grannis Saturday afternoon barricaded himself in his apartments in the Harvey Block, at the corner of Main and Swan streets, long enough to slash his throat with a razor. Then he unbolted the door as his wife rapped for admittance. He shot himself in the right side of the head, just above the temple, a short time later, and is dying at the Emergency Hospital.

Mrs. Grannis ran screaming down the five flights of stairs and told her story to the police. A call was sent to the West Seneca street police station, when it was found that instead of leaving his door unlocked Grannis had again bolted it and apparently had returned to his bed to die.

A heavy plank was obtained when entrance could not be gained in any other way. This was tried on the front door without effect.

"I kill the first man who come in," Grannis yelled to the police.

Time and time again the police tried to batter down the door.

When the first panel gave way a shot rang out. The bullet just crazed the hat of Acting Capt. Ryan.

After a brief consultation they made a rush against the door with such force that another panel was torn out. Another shot rang out.

The police again withdrew after the second shot. They stood in the hallway until there was a third shot, and then all was quite inside. They looked through the openings that had been made in the door and saw in the kitchen a bloody razor lying on the floor and the form of Grannis lay upon the bed in the next room.

Grannis is 51 years old. He is a stationary engineer, and is credited with being a man of good habits. He was married 27 years ago.

BOY ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Mother Told Him to Hang Himself, and He Did.

Montreal, Que., March 23.—David Machrosky, a Russian boy of 9 years of age, residing at 36 West Laugauchetiere street, had a dispute with his mother on Saturday, the outcome of which was that she rather foolishly advised the boy to go and hang himself, little thinking that the lad would take her advice seriously.

Evidently the trouble had a depressing effect on the boy, as he got a rope and, tying it around his neck proceeded to strangle himself.

He was in a very weak condition when found and had to be hurried to the General Hospital for treatment, where he is recovering.

New Yorkers Wanted McManus.

Kingston, March 23.—It is whispered that an interesting plan of Senator Tim Sullivan and Sheriff Foley of New York, engineered in behalf of their friend, "Kid" McManus, has come to nought.

McManus was liberated from Kingston penitentiary a few days ago and prior to this event was visited by the New Yorkers, when it was arranged on the occasion that a guarantee be given the American Express Co. that bonds stolen by McManus and his pals in Paris would never reappear. By this it was believed that McManus could return to New York and resume his saloon business.

This did not take into account, however, the vigilance of the Paris authorities who hold him now at Montreal for extradition to France.

Russia Needs Money.

St. Petersburg, March 23.—M. Kokovsoff, the Minister of Finance, addressing the budget committee of the Douma Saturday, announced that new loans were inevitable, despite Russia's already heavy indebtedness.

He mentioned the double-tracking of the Siberian Railway, the building of the Amur line and the requirements for national defence and famine relief as alone involving an extraordinary expenditure of $75,000,000 annually for several years to come.

Asphxiates Self and Children.

Fall River, Mass., March 23.—With a crucifix clasped in her hand and with a rosary hanging from her arm, Mrs. Florida Terrien, aged 28 years, and her four-year-old daughter, Mary, and two-months-old boy, Joseph, were found dead in the kitchen of their home yesterday by her husband, from illuminating gas.

Mother and Child Burned.

Montreal, March 23.—Mrs. Cyrille Thomas, aged 23, and her baby daughter, Albina were fatally burned in their home, Beaudry street yesterday.

The accident was due to an attempt to make a fire with a quantity of coal oil to help it along.

An explosion followed with fatal results.

Eleven Dead.

Baku, Trans-Caucasia, March 23.—A violent explosion occurred last night in the workmen's quarters of the naphtha works at Balachari. So far eleven bodies have been recovered from the wreckage.

The cause of the explosion has not been ascertained.

THERE IS MOURNING NOW IN CANTON

Chinese Are Indignant Over Tatsu Maru Incident.

BOYCOTT JAPANESE GOODS

Government Action Is Considered a Disgrace — Monster Meetings Held In Protest—Buildings Draped—Make Bonfire With Japanese Garments and Other Wares—Marked With Black Letter.

Canton, March 23.—The greatest indignation prevails here against the Government for yielding to the Japanese demands in the Tatsu Maru case, it being considered that the Government's action has brought disgrace upon this province.

The Self-Government Society of Canton has organized several monster indignation meetings, at which resolutions were adopted that the anniversary of the release of the Tatsu Maru be observed as a day of public mourning. The resolutions also declared a boycott against Japanese goods.

More than fifty thousand persons attended the mass meetings held yesday; buildings were draped in mourning, and twenty or more orators delivered denunciatory speeches.

Among the speakers was a 12-year-old boy, whose declamation against the Japanese caused the greatest enthusiasm. A great number among those who had assembled thereupon divested themselves of Japanese-made garments, including caps and handkerchiefs, and made a huge bonfire of them. One dealer in Japanese goods offered to sacrifice his entire stock.

The meeting recommended the impeachment of Yuan Shi Kai, of the Board of Foreign Affairs, for weakness in yielding to the Japanese.

IS NOW MURDER CHARGE.

Italian Who Was Stabbed Is Dead—Assailants Arrested.

Hamilton, March 23.—Guiseppe Greco, wanted on the charge of stabbing Antonio Rieszo, who died on Saturday, was captured yesterday with his brother Bruno at Blue Lake, about four miles from Paris. The arrests were made quietly by Chief Twiss of Dundas and Constable Robson, who set out Saturday afternoon and drove as far west as Brantford. On their way back from Brantford, they called at an old shanty about four miles east of Paris that had been fitted up as a sort of hotel for Italians. In response to the summons of the officers, the five inhabitants of the place turned out of their bunks and the Greco brothers submitted to arrest without resistance. They were brought to No. 3 police station yesterday afternoon.

Guiseppe, who is charged with stabbing, is only about 20 years of age, and small. The charge in the summons is stabbing and wounding, but this will be amended to something more serious, either murder or manslaughter. His brother, Bruno, who is a big fellow, 26 years of age, is now charged with assaulting Rieszo's companion, who tried to stop the fight between his brother and the dead man, and who, it is alleged, was knocked down by Bruno with a club. The charge against him will likely be amended to aiding and abetting the stabbing.

The only motive the police have been able to unearth for the stabbing is jealousy due to the fact that the dead man had been appointed as foreman in the stone quarry of Doolittle & Wilcox, superseding one of the Greco brothers.

Brantford, March 23.—It is understood that at the police station yesterday morning Greco made a confession to Sergts. Wallace and Donnelly. He said he had been drinking at the time of the tragedy and plunged the knife once into the victim. On sobering up he realized the crime, and, with his brother, fled.

Biarritz, March 23.—King Edward gave a private dinner last night, the guests including Whitelaw Reid, the American Ambassador to Great Britain and his daughter, Miss Jean Reid.

CAUTION.

Put a strong glass on the label and examine it closely every time. Always look for the name "Gillett's."

Like all good articles, which are extensively advertised, Gillett's Lye is frequently and very closely imitated. In some instances the imitators have actually copied directions and other printed matter from our label word for word. Be wise, and refuse to purchase imitation articles for they are never satisfactory.

Insist On Getting Gillett's Lye

and decline to accept anything that looks to be an imitation or that is represented to be "just as good" or "better," or "the same thing." In our experience of over fifty years in business we have never known of an imitation article that has been a success, for imitators are not reliable people. At the best the "just as good" kinds are only trashy imitations, so decline them with thanks every time.

THRILLING SEA STORY.

Shipwrecked Sailors Suffer Terrible Privations—Rescued by Steamer.

New York, March 23.—The story of a shipwreck on the high seas and a narrow escape from death was told by Capt. Griffis and the crew of five men of the Baltimore schooner Wm. H. Skinner, who arrived here yesterday, from Liverpool aboard the steamer Etruria.

The Skinner sailed from Georgetown, South Carolina, Feb. 14, for New Haven, Conn., with a cargo of lumber, but the next day ran into a heavy southern gale, and in the high seas the heavily-laden craft began to leak. The crew manned the pumps, but the schooner filled rapidly and suddenly turned over on her port side. Capt. Griffis and the crew scrambled up on the starboard side of the hull and lashed themselves fast. Swept by the seas the men remained thus for three hours, when the schooner suddenly righted itself. Cutting themselves free from the lashings, the crew succeeded in reaching the schooner's deck.

Days passed and provisions and water, though carefully husbanded, gave the men only scant nourishment. In a week's time they faced death from starvation. On Feb. 22, when hope was almost lost, the British steamer Braybead, bound for Belfast, bore down upon the waterlogged schooner and took off her sailors. So weak from exhaustion were Capt. Griffis and his crew that it was feared that they might not live until the Braybead could reach Belfast. The sailors finally recovered, though they still show the effects of their experiences.

TOBACCO WAR HAS HORROR.

Farmers Leaving the State—No Crops to Be Raised.

Lexington, Ky., March 23.—Because of warning letters and visits from night riders, many farmers in nearly all of the 62 counties in the White Burley tobacco region, are destroying their tobacco beds, and at the present time fewer than one-third of the normal number have been started.

In many counties huge signs have been erected on buildings and in high places nearby declaring the intention of the farmer not to raise a crop this season. Realizing the difficulty of making a living for their families in case the decision to raise no tobacco is adhered to, many tenant farmers are preparing to move to other states, while many farm owners have placed their property on the market with the avowed purpose of leaving Kentucky.

The murder of Farmer Hedges in Nicholas County Saturday, and the raids in Woodford and other counties last week, have increased the alarm. In announcing their determination to go elsewhere, the tenants declare that it will be impossible to subsist from the proceeds of crops of hemp, wheat and corn.

In the neighborhood of Mount Sterling, many farmers have received threatening letters with which were matches, powder and poison, and armed guards have been placed at threatened points. Conditions throughout the state are declared to be worse now than at any time since the tobacco war began.

SMALLPOX IN MONCTON.

Hundreds of Cases In City—Schools and Churches Closed.

Moncton, N.B., March 23.—With something like a hundred cases of smallpox in this city, and a large number of cases in adjoining counties of Albert and Kent, the situation is serious and the authorities are somewhat puzzled what steps to take to prevent the further spread of the disease, and eventually stamp it out.

The epidemic in Moncton is confined almost entirely to the French district, but as the French are great people to visit, in spite of the warning of the Board of Health, cases have broken out all over town.

All churches, schools and places of entertainment have been closed and general vaccination ordered. Outgoing trains are also being watched.

The City Council has called upon the Provincial Board of Health to take charge of the epidemic and that body will at once issue most stringent orders and endeavor by every way possible to prevent its spread.

In Albert County, it is believed, the epidemic is well in hand, but its rapid spread in Moncton is causing great alarm. The disease was brought here from the lumber camps.

Congressman Resigns.

Rockland, Me., March 23.—A sensation was caused in political circles here yesterday by the receipt by Governor Cobb of a letter from Congressman Chas. E. Littlefield, tendering his resignation as a member of Congress.

All's Fair In Love.

By Constance D'Arcy Mackay.

Copyrighted, 1908, by P. C. Eastwood.

On the veranda of a trim cottage facing the sea Robert Aldrich, tall, fair haired and athletic, sat and glowered at Miss Hildegarde Farney, while the latter put up a small sunbrowned hand to hide a yawn.

The night before she had driven ten miles across country to the little town of Brantly, where she had witnessed a performance of strolling players as spiritedly as poor scenery and costumes would allow, and she had been idly chatting to Aldrich on the actors of the piece, the too bombastic tragedian, the amusingly ingenuous comedian and the little soubrette who looked like a piece of Dresden china. Aldrich listened with a frown.

"I don't care if your aunt did chaperon you," he burst out. "What I object to is the fact that you went with Percy Graham at all. Every one knows he's a cad."

"Bobby!"

"What right has he to come down here and butt in like this? It just shows what an infernal bounder he is!"

"He's only been here three days," murmured Miss Farney.

"Yet he's managed to monopolize most of them. See here, Hildegarde, do you think you're playing the game square?"

"Square?"

"Almost, but not quite."

"Oh, Hildegarde," Aldrich groaned. "We've had such jolly times together all summer, and now"— He ground his heel against the porch rail. "Hang me if I can see his attractions! He's as stupid as an owl and as insignificant as"—

"Robert!"

When Hildegarde Farney spoke in that tone it was time to stop. But the thought that was uppermost in both their minds, though unexpressed, was the fact that Percy Graham was the owner of three millions. In these days of large fortunes it was not an astounding sum, yet to Aldrich it loomed large as a mountain. He knew that Hildegarde was what he phrased "straight stuff" and that this latest caprice of hers might not last the week out.

Still, as even the faintest possibility of losing her gave his heart a terrific wrench, and since Hildegarde's aunt, Miss Norris, looked on Percy Graham with an eye of worldly wisdom as well as critical appraisement, it behooved young Aldrich to see to his laurels, and he knew it.

Percy Graham had money and an abnormal supply of cheek. Aldrich had brains and pluck and an income from his growing law practice of such proportions that he did not hesitate to ask Miss Farney to share it with him.

That Hildegarde should really care for Percy Graham was an idea too preposterous to be countenanced. But alas! There was no sure way of following the labyrinths of the feminine mind. Aldrich straightened suddenly and looked at Hildegarde.

"I was a beast just now," he said quickly. "What I said of Graham is true, but it's not my business to run him down. If you want a good time, go ahead. Only—just remember once in awhile what chums we've been, won't you?" And Aldrich swung himself over the porch rail and smiled back at her as he took his way to the hotel farther down the beach where he was spending his vacation.

As he walked he caught sight of Percy Graham's automobile racing over the smooth sand at the edge of the surf line. As he had turned back to look at Hildegarde, so now he glanced over his shoulder at the speeding car, only in this case his lips opened, not to smile, but to give vent to a volcanic word of one syllable.

Two afternoons later as he went briskly up the nasturtium bordered path that led to Hildegarde cottage she hailed him from the porch where she and Percy Graham were sitting.

"Why, Bobby," she cried, "where have you been hermitting this perfect age?"

"I've just been asking Miss Farney about you," drawled Percy Graham.

Aldrich glared at him cheerfully.

"Thanks. Always glad to have my friends inquire. Ah, good afternoon, Miss Norris," as Hildegarde's aunt appeared in the doorway, while behind her appeared the face of a pretty Irish servant. Miss Norris looked unusually perturbed. "That red haired boy from the village grocery store has been frightening Mary Ellen with absurd tales of a band of gypsies."

"Gypsies! Where?" Hildegarde's face was alight with interest.

"At the back of the pine woods," faltered Mary Ellen. "'Tis kidnapers they are, and 'tis at night they prowl, Thomas says."

"When did they come?" demanded Hildegarde.

"Trust Thomas for seeing anything in a radius of twenty miles," sighed Miss Norris. "Oh, Hildegarde, you're not going"—

"We're all going, aunty," cried Hildegarde, "in Mr. Graham's car!"

"'Tis flying in the face of evil fortune they are," wailed Mary Ellen, "and 'tis myself that will lock up all the doors and sit close by Julia, the cook, till they come back again."

The road through the gypsy camp lay through an undulating bit of country. Pines grew on either hand, casting a twilight gloom, deep, cool, impenetrable. Hidden brooks trilled over moss and pebbles. Bird songs sounded through the stillness as clearly sweet as silver flutes.

Suddenly a turn of the road brought the gypsy camp into view, some three or four tents pitched in a meadow against a background of birch and fir. In the foreground by a huge black caldron sat a weather beaten hag, her black mantle falling about her in witchlike folds, her piercing eyes gazing out from under a shag of grizzly locks.

"Fascinating!" whispered Miss Farney.

The weather beaten crone left her seat by the fire and hobbled forward. Simultaneously Graham and Aldrich tossed her a coin with which to cross Miss Farney's hand. She picked up the money, looked at the givers narrowly and then bent to her task.

"What a Romany reads had best be read alone," she muttered, with a twist of her thin lips.

Aldrich laughed.

"I guess we can take a hint, eh Graham?" he cried, and the two men strolled toward the tents and waited it was as much as five minutes before Hildegarde and her aunt joined them. Hildegarde quite pale, and Miss Norris with a furrow between her brows. "I have always said there was something weird about gypsies," said Miss Norris, "and that old woman's knowledge is actually uncanny."

As to what the fortune teller had read, Hildegarde would say nothing, and on the way home she was strangely silent. It was sunset when the motor reached her door. The sea was tinted with rosy light, and gulls were hovering inland. As Percy Graham helped her aunt up the steps with ostentatious care Hildegarde turned to Aldrich.

"Bobby," she breathed, "forgive me! There never was and never will be any one but you."

Aldrich's hand closed over hers hard. "Shall I bring round the car at 8?" said Percy Graham.

"Thanks, no. I have another engagement," said Hildegarde sweetly.

And the self satisfied owner of three millions would have been amazed at the glance that flashed between Hildegarde and Robert Aldrich if he had seen it. He would have been even more amazed had he watched young Aldrich next morning riding off toward the gypsy camp at sunrise.

When he reached it, the old hag of the day before was the first to catch sight of him. She was busily stuffing a grizzled wig and a long black cloak into a bulging suit case, but she left off packing and went to meet him, smoothing the folds of her blue serge suit.

"Well," she questioned, "how did it come off?"

"The best ever," beamed Aldrich. "I rode over to thank you and bid you goodby."

The old character actress laughed.

"I thought my palm reading would do the work. Finest part I ever played. Meg Merrilies herself couldn't have surpassed the dark hints I gave about your rival."

"Sir," cried the tragedian, pausing in his work of taking down the tents, "sir, your munificence will always be remembered by a band of strolling—I may even say of stranded—players who, save for it, would be walking the ties from Brantly."

As the latter bowed and smiled and rode away the little Dresden china soubrette snapped the last of her gypsy bangles into her trunk and closed the lid.

"All's fair in love and war," she commented tritely. "Originality beats money every time."

Again and again they have proved to be invaluable at those recurring times when so many women feel debilitated and suffer from nervousness, headache and depression. An Elephant Expert.

This is a story of an elephant sale in India. A large herd of the animals was placed on exhibition and a number of prospective purchasers were critically examining the ponderous beasts.

The dealer noticed one man who seemed particularly impressed with a certain elephant, and also noted that the elephant under examination was one which had been doctored especially for the sale. The dealer went to the man and called him aside.

"I see that you know a great deal about elephants," he said. "Of course you noticed that the animal you examined had been doctored. Don't give me away and if I sell the brute I'll give you ten per cent. of the sale price."

The man nodded his head. Some hours later the dealer went to the man and handed him a considerable sum of money.

"I sold that elephant," he explained. "By the way, how did you come to know so much about elephants?"

"I don't know anything about them," replied the man. "In fact that was the first time I ever saw an elephant. When you called me I was trying to figure out which end its tail was on."

Waiting For the Man.

A good story is told of a recent visit of the Bishop of Sodor and Man to Melton Mowbray, in Leicestershire. A brougham awaited the bishop at the station and he stepped into it, expecting to be taken at once to his destination. To his surprise, however, the coachman sat motionless on the box, without the least intention, apparently of leaving the station.

At last the bishop inquired why he was waiting.

"Well, sir," said the coachman, "I was told to wait for the Bishop of Sodor and Man. You've arrived, sir, and now I'm waiting for the man."

Not Gaining Any.

Long division, a writer in the New York Sun declares, is the Waterloo of most of the middle aged women who apply for city positions. One woman took some time off from work to learn how to do long division. The teacher told her a million times, more or less, that when the divisor would not go into the dividend she must put a cipher in the answer.

One day the teacher came along and looked over her shoulder and saw fourteen or fifteen ciphers in the result, while the correct answer could not have more than three figures in it. The teacher was patient with her and asked her where she got all those ciphers.

"Why," she said, looking slightly worried, "you told me that when the divisor wouldn't go to put down a cipher, and it wouldn't go all these times, and I haven't got to the end yet and don't see as I'm gaining on it a bit."

When Temperance Was a Crime.

"Temperance in India at the beginning of the English occupation was a crime," said a clergyman. "Medical men believed in those days that a white man could not live in India without drinking. They thought he needed a half pint of whisky or its equivalent every day, and they insisted on his taking it. Temperance societies, total abstinence and the signing of the pledge were things forbidden in India. Such things were thought injurious to the white man's health out here; hence to go in for them was to be arrested, fined, imprisoned, banished. But today in India total abstinence is encouraged, for it has been found that the abstainer stands the heat far better than does the man who drinks."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Free "Ad."

The little village could not boast of very many entertainments, and consequently a concert was looked forward to with great delight by the inhabitants.

It so happened on one occasion that a singer of renown who had just scored some signal successes at Covent Garden came down to spend a few days with the squire, and smilingly acquiesced in the request of the vicar that he should sing at the village concert.

His song, which was delivered with deep feeling, for which he was famous, was the old favorite, "The Village Blacksmith."

In response to a vociferous encore he was about to give one of his operatic successes when the chairman tugged hard at his coat tail.

"Better sing t'owd 'un over again, mister," he said. "I 'appen to be the chap you've been singing about—the village blacksmith—and I reckon it 'ud only be fair to me if you was to sing it all over again and pop in another verse saying as 'ow I let out bicycles."

Eats 'Em Alive.

"Does this dog like strangers?"

"Loves 'em, ma'am."

"Well, I must have a dog that does not like strangers."

"As I was about to say, ma'am, when you interrupted me, this dog loves strangers an' has eaten several of 'em, ma'am. Yes, ma'am, thank you!"—Houston Post.

Lingering Animosity.

"Those two families in the adjoining flats who used to be at daggers drawn have been reconciled, haven't they?"

"I don't know. They profess friendship, but one family gave the little boy in the other a big toy drum, and the second family gave the first one's oldest boy a fiddle."—Baltimore American

James Smith, Dairyman, Grimsby, Ont., writes: "I was a great sufferer from sciatica. For a time I was completely laid up and for two weeks I was compelled to go on crutches. My limbs were almost useless. I cried many remedies without benefit. South American Rheumatic Cure was recommended. It took six bottles to effect a cure, but I am thoroughly cured, and I heartily recommend it as the greatest of remedies." (16)

RAILWAY COMMISSION CHAIRMAN

Mr. Justice Mabee Accepts Presidency of Railway Board.

WILL BEGIN DUTIES AT ONCE

Succeeds Late Justice Killam at Railway Board — Question of Retiring Allowance Has Been Satisfactorily Arranged — Government Were Anxious to Secure His Services—Distinguished Career.

Ottawa, March 23—The appointment of Justice J. P. Mabee as chief commissioner of the Dominion Railway Board is now officially announced. His duties will commence almost at once.

When spoken to a fortnight ago, Mr. Mabee seemed genuinely surprised that his name was mentioned in connection with the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Justice Killam, and which Mr. Mabee attributed primarily to the strain of the work the late chairman had been performing. By the proposed changes in the Railway Board, however, this strain should be materially removed from the new occupant of the office.

A few days ago it was said that Mr. Mabee had declined the appointment, owing to the fact that he would lose the retiring allowance which his position on the bench entitles him to. This, however, has been satisfactorily arranged.

When Justice Killam accepted the chairmanship the act was changed so as to allow him to carry his retiring allowance after fifteen years' combined service on the bench and on the commission. The conditions will be the same for Justice Mabee as regards salary and retirement.

Justice Mabee is one of the youngest members of the bench in Ontario. He is a native of Stratford, where he practiced law previous to his elevation a couple of years ago. He had been the Liberal candidate in North Perth at the general election of 1904, when he was defeated by A. F. MacLaren.

He stands high in his profession and is noted for his capacity for hard work. His attainments as a judicial exponent of equity as well as law admirably fit him for the position of chairman of the Railway Commission.

His gifts as a cross-examiner may be of service also when it comes to probing matters about which in the public interest it is occasionally difficult to throw sufficient light.

The chief commissionership has a salary of $10,000 a year attached.

Tried to Burn Barracks.

Stratford, March 23.—Charged with attempting to set fire to the Salvation Army barracks, Fred Bryant, aged 35, married, was locked up yesterday. He caused consternation on the street by gathering a crowd around him and publicly denouncing the Army, saying that he had been brought out to this country by the Salvationists and then cast aside. He openly confessed that he had entered the barracks, turned on the gas, flooding the rooms and setting fire to the building in two or three places. The building narrowly escaped destruction on Friday night.

May Have to Lose Arm.

Madrid, March 23.—El Mundo says that it learned on good authority that the wound Prince Manuel—now King of Portugal — received in the arm on Feb. 1, when King Carlos and the crown prince were assassinated, has not healed, and recently has become very much worse.

The attending physician, says the paper, declares that amputation is imperative.

Boy Drowns at Stratford.

Stratford, March 23.—Alfred Gibbard, aged 4, son of John Gibbard, Brunswick street, was drowned in Romeo Creek, at the rear of the Theatre Albert at 6 o'clock yesterday. The body was recovered at 7.

He was playing with companions and was accidentally pushed into the water. An inquest is likely.

Winter Port Figures.

St. John, N.B., March 23.—Seventy-six ocean cargoes have been filed in the customs house this season to date. These steamships carried goods valued at $10,836,799, and foreign goods valued at $5,327,964, making a total of $16,164,763.

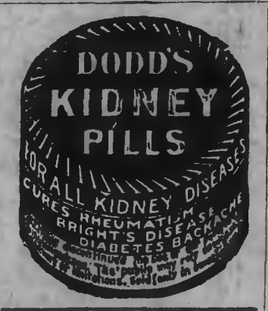
Wheat shipments to date are close to 5,000,000 bushels. Deal shipments are over 34,000,000 feet, while cattle sent forward are over 14,000.

Cure That Cough!
YOU CAN DO IT BY USING
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.
The Most Perfect Throat and Lung Healer in the World.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup gives prompt relief from that choked up, stuffed up feeling which is so distressing, it loosens the phlegm, checks the rasping and useless cough, and heals and soothes the irritated breathing organs. It is a pleasant preparation to take and is therefore specially adapted to the coughs and colds of children and those who dislike nauseous mixtures.

This is no vain boast, but a fact that can be backed by unimpeachable testimony. One 25 cent bottle, indeed, a trial dose, will prove its merits.

Mr. Frank K. Pardie, Brandon, Man., writes: "I have used your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for some years and have always found it a sure remedy for all colds, coughs, sore throat, hoarseness, etc. I cannot too highly recommend it to anyone suffering from any effect of cold."



Killed at Crossing.

Stratford, March 23.—Miss Smith, aged about 56, who lived with her deaf and dumb brother two miles east of Shakespeare, was instantly killed at the crossing, near her home Saturday evening.

She was driving home, and was almost at her destination when the fatality occurred. The cutter was struck squarely, the occupant thrown out and her neck broken, while the horse escaped uninjured.

Deceased was a sister of Mr. Smith, M.P. for Oxford.

Newspaper Strike.

St. John, N.B., March 23.—As a result of the refusal of the management to discharge three printers who had been expelled from the union owing to non-payment of special dues, the entire mechanical staff of The Morning Telegraph and The Evening Times went out on strike Saturday night.

The matter has been under discussion for several weeks and notice had been given by the union that if its demands were not granted it would call all the men out.

Appeals to Old Foe.

New York, March 23.—Gen. Francois Joubert-Pienaar, who fought in the Boer army against Great Britain, and who is now in the United States, urging that efforts be made to bring about the suppression of slavery in Portuguese West Africa, has appealed to Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, to save his family from alleged unjust treatment at the hands of officials of the Portuguese Government in Angola.

Gen. Joubert-Pienaar, in his communication to Sir Edward Grey, states that his second son has written from Angola declaring that the Portuguese authorities induced him to leave British territory in the interior to come to Angola, where he was ordered to embark at once.

The general in another communication to Sir Edward Grey states that he has received word that his son was taken away from Angola and he fears he has been killed.

Shot His Wife.

Sorento, Ill., March 23.—L. Evans shot and killed his wife near the Clover Leaf Railroad station and then shot himself, but inflicted only slight wounds. A heavy guard was placed at the jail owing to covert threats of lynching that were made. Evans and his wife separated four months ago and he left town, returning unexpectedly.

Too Much Collection.

A Scottish gentleman paying a visit to London was taken by his nephew to a service in St. Paul's cathedral. He had no acquaintance whatever with the liturgy of the Church of England. He picked up a prayer book and became very much interested, but as he turned over the leaves his face became clouded with a look of intense anxiety. He placed the prayer book carefully down, looked cautiously around, picked up his hat and crept stealthily to the door. His nephew followed him and said:

"Are you ill, uncle? What is the matter?"

The uncle replied: "No. But it is enough to make any man ill to see the number of collections made in this kirk!"

"Collections!" said the nephew, in surprise. "If there is any at all, there certainly won't be more than one."

"Well," said the uncle, "they should no' mark so many in the book. There's naething but 'collect' and bits of prayer, then 'collect' and more prayers, and 'collect' again. And says I to mysel', 'If I bide here until all these collections are ta'en, I'll no' have a bawbee in ma pocket!'"—London Tit-Bits.

How Indians Tan Deerskin.

The skin dressing of the Indians, both buffalo and deer skins, is generally very beautiful and soft. They stretch the skin either on a frame or on the ground, and after it has remained there for three or four days, with the brains spread over the fleshy side, they grain it with a sort of adz or chisel. After the process of graining, though the skin is apparently beautifully finished, it passes through another process—that of smoking. For this they hang the skin on a frame in a smoke proof house or tent. The fire is made at the bottom out of rotten wood, which produces a strong and peculiar smell. The fire must be smothered to make the smoke. The grained skins must be kept in the smoke for three or four days, and after this the skins will always remain the same, even after being wet, which does not belong to the dressed skins in civilized countries.—"Life Among the Indians."

Gray Versus Brown Camels.

The length of a stage varies throughout Persia, depending on the character of the country, and is reckoned in farsaks, the old Greek parasang. The farsak is a most elastic and uncertain measure, and as animals are paid for per farsak as many as the credulity of the traveler will allow are crowded into each stage. "How far," I once asked an old Kurdish muleteer, "is a farsak?" "As far as one can distinguish a gray from a brown camel," was the discreet answer. They average about four miles and the stage about six farsaks, or twenty-five miles.—Atlantic.

The Partitions of Poland.

There have been three partitions of Poland. The first was in 1772, when Prussia took the palatinates of Malberg, Pomerla and Warmia, a part of Culm and a part of Great Poland. Austria took Red Russia, or Galicia; a part of Podolia, Sandomir and Cracow, and Russia took White Russia, with all the part beyond the Dnieper. The second partition was in 1793, by which Prussia acquired the remainder of Great and a portion of Little Poland, and the Russian boundary was advanced to the center of Lithuania and Volhynia. In the third and final partition, in 1795, Austria had Cracow, with the country between the Pilica and the Vistula. Prussia had the capital, with the territory as far as the Niemen, while the rest went to Russia.—New York American.

AN ARMY EPISODE

By HAROLD OTIS.

[Original.]

MISS CORINNE STEPTOE was spending the social season with her aunt in the city. Miss Steptoe was the daughter of Colonel Steptoe of the United States army, commanding Fort Atkins, and while at home her social relations were limited to the officers on duty there and to the members of their families.

Though a true army girl, regarding the army her home, she was not averse to enjoying a round of balls and parties in the city, but the idea of marrying out of the circle in which she had been born never entered her head.

Civilians were well enough to dance with, but no man except a soldier need apply for her hand.

Among the youths with whom Miss Steptoe flirted mildly was one whose collar was higher and whose manners were more pronounced than any of the rest.

It was whispered among the ladies that he was the wildest young man in society.

This was certainly not indicated by his name, which was Pettypace. He was the son of a wealthy merchant who seemed to supply him with plenty of money to throw away.

Among those who presented themselves for what Miss Steptoe considered "a good time" none seemed to fill the conditions so well as Jack Pettypace, and just before the close of the season, when she was about to start for the fort, Mr. Pettypace completed what she considered "a good time" by proposing marriage.

"I am sorry you have so misunderstood me," she said in reply, "I am an army girl and do not expect to marry unless in the army."

"What! One of those slow going fellows made to toe the mark like schoolboys?"

"The army is the home of many brave and dashing men," was the bristling reply.

"I think I'll try it myself."

Miss Steptoe laughed.

"I'm going to enlist in the corps under your father's command."

"And have three years of drudgery. Talk about the officers being schoolboys! In the ranks you'll be a prisoner in comparison."

"If I don't like it, I'll leave."

Again Miss Steptoe gave vent to her silvery laugh.

"Oh, I don't care a rap for your army fellows. I'm going to enlist, and when I want to get out of their toils I'll have no difficulty in doing so."

Miss Steptoe laughingly told Mr. Pettypace that if he would enlist in the army and get out of it without deserting, buying his discharge or using political influence, she would accept him for a husband. She limited him to two weeks to accomplish the feat.

Miss Steptoe had scarcely reached her father's quarters when she heard the women gossiping about a recruit who had presented himself for enlistment dressed in the height of fashion and evidently a gentleman.

Many causes were suggested for his having entered the ranks, from a disappointment in love to cheating at cards.

The next morning she was startled at seeing Jack Pettypace walking post before her father's quarters. He did not recognize her, and she had agreed to keep his secret.

A few days later she heard it stated among the officers' wives that the gentlemanly private had gone insane and had been put in a straitjacket. This is a true version of how it happened:

One morning after a horseback ride one of the bachelor officers entered his quarters to find the sentinel who had been on guard before his door standing at the end of his suit of rooms pointing his gun directly at his superior's breast. The sentinel's eyes were wild, and he was muttering incoherently. As soon as his gaze struck the officer he ordered him to halt and stand at attention. The officer lost no time in obeying the order.

"Mutiny! Mutiny! Mutiny!" shrieked the private. "Do you come to your general's quarters to kill him? Turn out the guard! Death to traitors! Would you assassinate the czar?"

While firing these incoherent sentences the lunatic was cocking and uncocking his piece, pointing it at the officer's breast, laughing hysterically and muttering to himself.

"The mutineers are coming!" he howled. "They're going to murder their sovereign. I shall kill every mother's son of them, and then my title to the throne will be perfect."

"General—your majesty, I mean," said the officer, "shall I call a force to protect you?"

"Send the Swiss guard!"

In another minute the officer was at the telephone, calling to the sergeant of the guard to bring a dozen men with loaded guns to arrest an enlisted man who had gone insane and was howling in the officers' quarters.

Meanwhile the lunatic was taking a bracer from his superior's sideboard to keep him up to his work, and when the guard arrived he had purposely parted with his musket.

But he struggled and screamed as he was hurried off to the guardhouse and thence to a room in the hospital where he was confined by himself.

The insane man's father was communicated with, the soldier's discharge was made out, and he was sent under guard to a private sanitarium.

One morning Jack Pettypace, armed with his discharge papers, visited Fort Atkins and walked straight to the colonel's quarters. His arrival caused a sensation at the post among the officers, their families and the enlisted men.

It culminated when Mrs. Steptoe announced the engagement of her daughter with the "insane" private who, by outwitting the officers and the surgeons, had secured his discharge.

On the Job.

A Baltimore man who was recently a passenger on a Cunarder tells of an incident of his trip that led him to the conclusion that your average seaman is not apt to waste much thought on his personal troubles.

This sailor had met with an accident the second day out, the result of which was a bad cut on the head. The Baltimorean was most solicitious in his inquiries as to the seaman's welfare when he next saw the captain and would undoubtedly have continued his sympathy had not a rough sea called to mind his own sufferings.

Several days later, when he emerged, white and weak, from his stateroom, he suddenly remembered the poor sailor. In the course of the day the Baltimore man saw the man with a strip of plaster on his forehead.

"How is your head?" he asked sympathetically.

"West by south, sir," was the reply. —Harper's Weekly.

A couple of girls, after the manner of girls since the world was young, were recently discussing the affairs of their various friends.

"I don't see why in the world Clara lets that little snob Charlie Blank come to see her so often!" the dark haired one said. "They are together almost constantly."

"Hum!" the blond commented, with a worldly wise little smile.

"Well, I don't. I wouldn't," her friend asserted. "He is not good looking and has such ugly ways."

"Well, perhaps he has ugly ways, but such handsome means," the other said, and something very near a sigh got past the piece of fudge she hastened to put into her mouth.—St. Louis Republic.

THE TWO BULLETS TOOK EFFECT

Enraged Koreans Attack Adviser to Japanese Consul.

ANGERED AT INTERVIEW

Murderous Assault in Lobby of 'Frisco Hotel — D. W. Stevens Severely Wounded—Bullet Penetrated His Right Lung, and He May Die—Five Hundred Men Pursued His Assailants.

San Francisco, March 24.—Following an attack upon him by four Koreans at the Fairmont Hotel last night, D. W. Stevens, advisor for the Japanese Consul at Seoul, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded yesterday morning at the ferry depot as he was about to leave for Washington. The shooting was done by N. W. Chun, a Korean. Stevens, was shot twice, one bullet penetrating his right lung and the second the groin. A third bullet struck a companion of the shooter, I. W. Ching. A mob of 500 men pursued Stevens' assailant, and H. Sexton, a deputy in the assessor's office, finally captured him.

Mr. Stevens and the wounded Korean were taken to the Central Emergency Hospital. The diplomat, accompanied by the Japanese consul, had just stepped out of the hotel omnibus when several Koreans approached them. One of the party said a few words to Stevens and struck him in the face. He then drew a revolver, covered with a handkerchief, and began shooting at Stevens. At the hospital Dr. Hill extracted a bullet from the Korean, who had been shot through the lungs.

Burns Prove Fatal.

Chatham, March 24.—Cecilia Carron, the four-year-old daughter of Mederic Carron, of Dover, while playing round a bonfire on Friday last was severely burned about the hands and body. Her clothing caught fire and her mother, who rushed to the rescue, was also burned badly before the flames were extinguished. The little child died yesterday as a result of her injuries.

The mother is still in a critical condition, and it is not thought that she will recover.

Three men named Somerfield, Burkie and McGraw, appeared in the police court yesterday morning charged with selling liquor to an Indian named Sturgeon. They pleaded guilty and were fined $50 apiece or six months in the Central Prison.

On Trial For His Life.

Three Rivers, Que., March 24.—The long postponed trial of William McCraw on the charge of murdering his wife, began yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Messrs. Wilson and Tourigny appeared for the Crown and Messrs. Greenshields, Laflamme and Desy for the defence. All the witnesses are present except Mrs. Sclater, who would not be summoned.

Robbers Secured $47,000.

Reno, Nev., March 24.—Three bandits, heavily armed, overcame Edward Hoffman and a companion on a road two miles from Rawhide late Sunday, threw them to the ground and made off with the victims' two-horse rig, taking gold and bank notes amounting to about $43,000. The money was consigned to the Coalition Mining Co. at Rawhide.

Wandered in Undress.

London, March 24.—Saturday night a patient named Walter Hickey, confined in St. Joseph's Hospital with nervous prostration, escaped from the institution in his underclothes, and was captured by a policeman after he had been racing through the streets and the C.P.R. yards for nearly two hours.

Boat Upset; Ten Drowned.

Lubeck, Germany, March 24.—Ten members of a pleasure party were drowned through the upsetting of a motor ferryboat on the Lake of Ratzeburger Sunday evening. The four other occupants were saved.

HE MAKES HIS ANNUAL PLEA AGAIN

John Smith's Motion in Favor of Female Suffrage.

CHAMPIONS THEIR CAUSE

Member For Peel Stands Alone—Legislature Has Short Sessions—Reports on Commissions—Speed of Automobiles on Country Roads—Stringent Regulations to Be Enforced — Bills Advanced.

Toronto, March 24.—The report upon commissions was the only feature of the proceedings at the Legislature yesterday.

John Smith (Peel) made his annual motion in favor of woman suffrage, and introduced his bill to amend the Election Act with that object. To oblige Mr. Smith, if not to "oblige a lady," Dr. Smellie seconded the motion, with the conviction that the Government would kill the bill. So John Smith remains the only truly loyal, gallant, chivalrous and devoted champion of the sex in the House. John will be known as the great suffragan when the suffragettes come to their own.

Other bills introduced were:

To amend the act to regulate the speed and operation of motor vehicles on highways.—Mr. Bowman.

To incorporate the Town of Keewatin.—Mr. Smellie.

Respecting bylaw No. 4, 1906, of the Town of Clinton.—Mr. Gamey.

Mr. Bowman's bill requires motor-cars to stop at least 100 yards before approaching a horse on the highway, and requires the chauffeur to assist the driver in pacifying restive horses. Another clause prevents the operation of motor-cars outside cities between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. on Saturdays and 7 a.m. and 3 p.m. Sundays.

Mr. Preston's bill respecting Port Arthur was reported in committee.

Second readings were given Mr. Craig's bill to amend the act to prevent the spread of noxious weeds, Mr. McCowan's bill to amend the Municipal Act, and Mr. Fisher's bill to amend the same act.

The redistribution committee will meet this morning to receive the schedules dealing with the Government proposals respecting the sixty-five constituencies not yet dealt with. It is not likely that any discussion will ensue until the schedules have been considered.

Abandoned Her Husband.

Detroit, Mich., March 24.—Married to a man whom she did not love because her mother and the priest told her she would thus save him to the church and discovering after two months of wedded existence that the condition was unbearable, a young girl from Wellwood, Ont., presented herself at the local immigration office for admission to the United States Saturday night. She told her story frankly.

Her one idea was to come to a big city, where she would be swallowed up beyond possibility of tracing. Local Inspector Frick finally convinced her that she should return to her husband, and she promised to do so, taking the train for her home.

PINNED FAITH IN SEAL.

Girl Who Wanted Her Lover Back—Woman Arrested.

Windsor, March 24.—Mrs. Carrie Becker of this city is charged with witchcraft and sorcery. For some time past Mrs. Becker is alleged to have been supplementing the income of her husband, a workingman, by unrolling the veil of the future for a consideration.

The information is laid by one Lizzie Bastien, from whom she is said to have taken $80 at various times, and there are also a couple of other witnesses who mourn the loss of about $25.

The evidence the police expect to be able to produce is that one of the women enlisted Mrs. Becker's assistance to win back the affections of a lover who had grown cold and took his departure for unknown points some time before.

Various expedients were employed, each costing money, but none of them proved sufficiently efficacious for one reason or another, and additional expedients were recommended costing more money.

One of the expedients the police promise to produce in court is a love charm consisting of a leaden car seal, picked up on the railway track and carefully wrapped up in tinfoil.

The missing lover, it is claimed, was represented as being on his way back in response to the charms and at one time got as far as Detroit, but didn't cross the river.

ALFONSO'S OTHER SONS.

Law Suit Reveals Scandal at Court of Spain.

Madrid, March 24.—The judges in the Elena Sanz affair called at the palace yesterday to take the evidence of the Queen Mother.

Elena Sanz was a Spanish actress by whom King Alfonso XII. had two natural sons. These children are now suing the heirs of Alfonso XII. for an annuity which they claim was left to their mother by the king and which was to revert to them.

The Queen deposed that a few days after the death of Alfonso XII., Senor Salmeron came to Senor Abbella, who was then Master of the Household, and told him that Elena Sanz had in her possession certain letters of the late King, the publication of which would cause a great scandal.

She would give them up for $15,000 and in addition Salmeron claimed $1,000 for his services in the matter. Trusting to the integrity of Salmeron the Queen paid over these two sums and was assured by him that all the letters in question had been destroyed.

The present suit of the Sanz heirs, however, is based entirely upon letters identical with those which the Queen paid to have burned.

The Sanz matter is to come up before the Supreme Court, that tribunal having declared itself competent to try the case.

MOTION WITHDRAWN FOR SAKE OF PEACE

Mr. Fielding Urges Dr. Sproule to Withdraw Motion.

RAISES BREEZE IN HOUSE

Wants to Know the Creed of House and Senate Staffs—Resents Imputations Upon His Honesty and Truthfulness — Ministers Take Part in Debate—Sir Wilfrid Moves the Adjournment.

Ottawa, March 24.—A lively scene was enacted last night, when Dr. Sproule pressed a motion for a return showing the religious denomination, whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, of the employes of the House of Commons, Senate and printing bureau. The motion was resisted, Mr. Fielding making a plea that it be withdrawn for the sake of peace.

Dr. Sproule, however, claimed that his motive was to verify a statement he made recently at the Grand Orange Lodge at Mount Forest. Three members arose with him to call a division, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier moved the adjournment of the debate.

During the hour for notices of motion, Dr. Sproule said his motion might go unopposed, as he did not desire to discuss it. "We may wish to discuss it on this side," said the Prime Minister. Later when the item was again reached, Dr. Sproule moved his resolution without comment, and Col. Talbot (Bellechasse) submitted an amendment to include in the return the nationality of each employe and to cover all Departments of the Government.

Mr. Fielding asked Dr. Sproule to withdraw the motion, regretting that any attempt should be made to classify the employes of the Government. At any rate some people might take exception to limiting the classes of Protestants and Catholics alone.

"What about the Atheists of Quebec" asked Col. Talbot.

Dr. Sproule stated he was prompted to make the motion by denials of his statement in the House the other day. He considered he was offensively called to task by Col. Talbot before he knew what he said. Moreover, this was not the first time such a return had been asked for and brought down. He had been in the House a long time, and he never made a statement yet but what he believed to be true.

There was another motive. It had been repeatedly said to him, as a prominent Orangeman, that in the matter of appointments justice was not done to Roman Catholics, and he had tried to combat that statement, endeavoring to show that there had been no inclination to deny Roman Catholics their proportion of the offices. For his own satisfaction he secured information showing the proportion of Roman Catholics to Protestants employed in the House was as three to one. By reference to the census returns he found that the Catholics comprised 40 per cent. of the population, and he considered they were entitled to a fair share of all the offices. Was he doing wrong in vindicating his character for honesty and truthfulness?

Col. Talbot said three or four years ago Dr. Sproule had made the statement that the Catholic clergy of Quebec were raising a fund to let out at easy rates to Catholic farmers for the purpose of buying out their Protestant neighbors.

Dr. Sproule said he merely quoted the authority of The Huntingdon (Quebec) Gleaner.

Thought It Unwise.

Mr. McIntyre (Perth) thought it unwise to bring up this question. It should be remembered that there were two official languages, and that the preponderance of Roman Catholics employed about the Departments was owing to the French-Canadians being conversant with both languages; hence they were more valuable than the employes who had but one language.

Hon. G. P. Graham said the necessity for Dr. Sproule verifying his statement would not have arisen if he had not made the statement. It would not do to require a religious qualification of applicants for the civil service. The only qualification should be ability to perform the duties they were to perform. It was regrettable that men taking a prominent part in the affairs of the country should attempt to make party capital out of the preponderance of any class of the community; they were all citizens of a common country.

Dr. Sproule refused to withdraw, and he, with Dr. Reid, Mr. Marshall and Dr. Barr, rose to ask for a division, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier moved the adjournment of the debate.

R. L. Borden, however, continued the discussion, asserting that Mr. Graham went far in his imputation of motives to Dr. Sproule. He did not expect so much of Mr. Graham.

"Not want it," ventured the Minister of Railways.

"Oh, there was nothing very crushing in it," retorted Mr. Borden, who went on to say that the Minister might look closely to some of the newspapers under the direct control of this Government, and he will find imputations, examples of which he would give later on. Mr. Borden defended Dr. Sproule, who, he said, had been taunted with a circumstance which he had denied; and while they might doubt the wisdom of bringing up such a question Dr. Sproule had reason for his action.

Mr. Aylesworth said enough had been said on this occasion to demonstrate how dangerous it was to play with fire in this Assembly. The return could have no other result than to afford means to institute comparisons to the detriment of one class of the community. This was an entirely new thing.

"It was done once before," said Dr. Sproule.

"Unfortunately," replied Mr. Aylesworth, "it is a very old thing."

The motion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier prevailed.

Before the orders of the day were called Mr. Boyce (Algoma) asked the Minister if provisions of the seed grain distribution act would be extended to Ontario. Sir Wilfrid replied that no representations had been received from the Provincial Government.

R. L. Borden was informed that the report of civil service commission had been received by the Government, but it was incomplete and the commissioners had been requested to supply the deficiency.

One bill to incorporate the Institute of Architects of Canada being called in committee of the whole, Mr. Blain (Peel) asked if it was not an infringement of provincial rights. He thought it should be left for the provinces.

Mr. Gervais agreed to withdraw the clause excluding building contractors or manufacturers and as father of the measure (Mr. Walsh) was not present, the Prime Minister moved that further consideration be postponed.

HINDUS MAKE PROTEST.

Send Strong Resolution Against Deportation to Mr. Morley.

Vancouver, B.C., March 24.—Five hundred Hindus met Sunday in the Sikh Temple, and, after many exciting speeches protesting against their exclusion and deportation from Canada, and emphasizing the fact that this would be a strong weapon in the hands of those preaching sedition in India, sent the following cable to John Morley, Secretary for India:

"We protest against deportation and exclusion from Canada. As British subjects we claim protection throughout the Empire. If our interests are overlooked by others, those in India must necessarily resent your Government's neglect."

The cablegram is signed by Uday Ram, who is a nephew of Dr. Davis Chand, a Hindu of high caste, who came to British Columbia to spy out the land, but who is now agitating in India.

He Wants His Honey.

Chicago, March 24.—The Tribune to-day says: Oberlin M. Carter, formerly captain in the United States Engineer Corps, will seek restoration to the army and to his rank as a result of the vindication of the Savannah Harbor graft charges given him in the decision of Judge Kohlsaat, which was handed down on Saturday.

Restitution of the honor that was torn from him is placed above all other considerations by the former captain. It has been known among his friends for some time that he has refused repeated offers of high salaries from engineering concerns that recognized his ability. He would not accept them while his reputation was under a cloud and he always has declared he would devote the rest of his life if necessary to removing the stain on his name.

Log Rolled Over Him.

Chatham, March 24.—H. Murphy, aged 75, a partner of the firm which owns the Chatham Bent Goods Works, met with a serious accident as a result of which he may die. Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock he was superintending the raising of a number of logs. The tackling gave way and one of the logs slipped down the slide and struck him before he could get out of the way. The log rolled up on his body as far as his chest, he was rendered unconscious, and it was found that he was badly bruised. A number of blood vessels in his legs were broken. He is in a serious condition and it is not thought that he will recover.

Has a Bad Record.

Winnipeg, March 24.—A. A. Vivian, convicted in the Police Court yesterday of being a receiver of stolen goods, was sent down for three years.

His record is interesting. Four years ago he was employed in the Union Bank here, but dismissed under suspicion of small thefts, which then stopped. He then went to Sydney, Australia, for a while, painting on buildings, again fell under suspicion and was forced to move on to New Zealand, whence he made a bolt, pursued by the police, back to Winnipeg. He will have to face other charges when he emerges from Stony Mountain.

Would Stop Boycott.

Pekin, March 24.—Japan has asked China to take such steps as may be necessary to prevent a boycott on Japanese goods in China and to put an end to the anti-Japanese agitation growing out of the Tatsu Maru incident.

The native guilds and the press are giving prominence to sensational reports of the Canton demonstration against Japan, indicating a widespread attempts to use the Tatsu Maru case against the Pekin Government as well as against Japan.

LIFE AND DEATH STRUGGLE BETWEEN A GIANT FRENCHMAN AND A BIG BEAR

The Muscular Logger Wrestled With Bruin and Would Not Allow Companions to Interfere---Axe Knocked From His hand By One Sweep Of The Paw.

Grand Forks, B. C., March 24. —(Special).—Such a display of physical strength as was witnessed a couple of days ago at Toulon Mountain on the Great Northern railway, when one Louis Debois, a giant Frenchman in a life and death combat completely overcame an immense black bear, is as yet without parallel in this district. According to the report that has reached here Debois and a young Scotchman named Alex. Campbell, were out cutting cord wood when they came upon a bear's den, and seeing what they supposed was the bear's nose projecting from the winter quarters of Mr. Bruin, the big Frenchman after some deliberation struck a savage blow at the supposed bear's nose with his keen axe blade. As soon as the blow was struck, underbrush and snow were flying in all directions and the two woodsmen perceived what they had mistaken for the bear's snout was in reality the bear's foot, which the axe had completely cut off. By this time the bear had made a savage attack on the two men. Campbell, the smaller of the two men, succeeded getting out of the bear's reach, but the big Frenchman, somewhat conceited over his personal strength, preferred a personal encounter with the bear, to running away.

Axe Pushed Aside

Debois raised his heavy double bitted axe to strike the bear, but in the twinkling of an eye the bear had raised the fore paw, which was uninjured and threw the axe to one side. The next instant the bear had a big Frenchman in his embrace. It was now a struggle for life between the man and the bear. The man being an adept at wrestling, succeeded in tripping his antagonist, the bear falling heavily to the ground with Debois on top of him. In this position the Frenchman actually pinned the bear to the ground, holding the bear's legs apart and clutching him firmly by the throat. By this time both man and bear were literally covered with blood from the bear's wounded foot. At this juncture two other woodsmen came along and wanted to despatch the bear with their axes, but under the direction of the big Frenchman, they quietly opened an artery in the bear's neck and let the animal slowly bleed to death in the Frenchman's arms. When the men all returned to camp and Louis Debois was thoroughly washed, it was ascertained that he had not even received a scratch from the bear.

SAP RAN ONCE FOR DUMMER MAN IN FOURTEEN DAYS

One man in Dummer Township tapped his maple trees about two weeks ago. They ran that day but never since, so that apparently the maple sugar season is somewhat backward in coming forward. However, there is not likely to be a much longer time to wait. A despatch from Mount Irwin to the Examiner states the farmers in that locality are making preparations. Dummer farmers with the exception of one, who got busy too soon, will tap about the end of this week.

A little maple syrup may be expected in this city on Saturday, and if the run is good the next week the supply for the following Saturday should be much greater.

THE MAGISTRATE ORDERS SEVERAL MEN OUT OF COURT

There was a large crowd outside of the police court this morning, waiting to get in and hear the different cases that were on the ticket. At ten o'clock P. C. Adams opened the door, and the crowd began to push and jostle about. The officer closed the door on the unruly crowd and allowed those only who had got in go up stairs. While a certain case was being heard up stairs two boys opened the door down stairs and there was a big rush for the court room. The magistrate, hearing the noise, turned from a witness who was in the box, and ordered the officer to clear all of the late comers out of the court.

Begin To Think Of Stony Lake

Toronto, March 24.—(Special)—The annual meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association, Limited, was held yesterday afternoon. The officers elected were: James Acton, president; S. Henderson, vice-president; H. Sutherland, secretary-treasurer, who, with the following gentlemen, constitute the Board of Directors: A. L. Davis and E. L. Piper, Toronto, Ont.; Hon. J. R. Stratton, W. Irwin, R. Neill, J. Nugent, and W. H. Meldrum, of Peterborough, Ont.

Was Not Guilty Of Theft Of The Mahogany Wood

Judgment in the case of Geo. Scott was given this morning in the police court in favour of the defendant, who was honourably discharged. Mr. G. Gordon, counsel for Scott, made a strong plea in his behalf, showing that he had been an old employee of the company and had always borne an excellent character. Search warrants had been issued to search the house of the prisoner's father and the new house the prisoner had built, but nothing had been found belonging to the company.

His Worship said he would dismiss the charge. The defendant had always had a good character and he would allow him to go honourably acquitted.

Meat Shop Window Broken Last Night And Quantities Of Pork And Beef Were Stolen

The show window of John James butcher shop, corner of Reid and McDonel streets was broken last night and all the meat that was within arm's reach was stolen. The goods included one-half a side of long clear bacon, 12 or 14 lbs. of fresh pork and a quantity of fresh meat, the exact quantity of which Mr. James was not sure. He estimated that there was six dollars worth of meat taken and he also suffered the loss of the broken window.

Heard Window Smash

Mr. James is proprietor of a grocery and meat store combined. His sleeping quarters are over the grocery department. Just about 12 o'clock he heard a noise like that of shattered glass but at the time believed it to be a passing G.T.R. shunting engine. He looked casually out his bedroom window, but saw nothing suspicious. No other sounds disturbed him and he did not discover his loss until this morning.

A Daring Thief

Who ever committed the theft he went about his work in a crude and noisy manner. One of the large windows was found broken by Mr. James this morning, when he went into the shop, and a stick of hardwood about 3 1-2 feet long was evidently used. The broken glass was scattered on the walk just where it had fallen. Mr. James informed the police this morning of the affair and hopes that the thieves wholesale feast will be cut short.

The Fourth Robbery

This is Mr. James' fourth robbery since coming to Peterborough. On two occasion robbers entered his store from the cellar, again they clumbed upon the kitchen roof and crawled through a window. When Mr. James conducted a store in Toronto his show window was broken in the same manner and goods stolen.

Man Who Assaulted Dr. Gray Was Sent To Jail This Morning

"John Lowry you are charged with having assaulted Dr. Gray on the 23rd of this month. Are you guilty or not guilty?"

Lowry stood up in the box looking very stupid, with his eyes half closed and tried to explain his conduct.

"I am guilty inasmuch as I made a mistake," began Lowry. "I was assaulted myself from behind and I struck out in self-defence and hit the doctor. I was crossing Charlotte street, with some men, when someone hit me on the head."

Dr. Gray said he went into the post office about ten o'clock to see a certain party. He stayed there until after twelve o'clock, and then he started for home with his friend. They walked down George street and saw several men standing in front of the Greek's. He heard them say something and the prisoner struck him a blow above the eye, making a slight cut. He grabbed Lowry and told him he had power to arrest. The other men jumped in and tried to get him away but the doctor held on and shouted for the police. This scared the men and they ran away. He was taking his prisoner across the market square when a man leaped from the darkness and tried to rescue Lowry, but did not succeed. When he reached the police station he handed Lowry over to P. C. Newhall.

"You must learn to behave yourself," said his Worship, and fined Lowry $10. He did not have the wherewith to pay the fine, so he will spend the next ten days on the hill.

The doctor asked for leniency as he did not want to see the man go to jail, but his request was not granted.

John Richards' Suspicions As To Cause Of Howard's Death

According to the statements made by John Richards, 138 Simcoe street, a section man on the Grand Trunk, Ben Howard, the ill-fated Hiawatha Indian, whose remains were discovered horribly mutilated on the track on Sunday morning, passed him below the station between four and five o'clock on Saturday night. Mr. Richards was working just south of the station at the time, when Howard accompanied by two other Indians, passed him.

"I know Howard well," said Richards to the Examiner last night, "and I was joking with him about the Examiner road race of this year."

Howard, he says, was somewhat intoxicated, but not sufficiently so that he could not see the head light of an engine or hear the rumble of an approaching train. Neither could he understand how he could have left for home without his horses. He did not know the other Indians, but states that all three were walking down the track.

When asked where he was going, Howard merely remarked that he was out for a little walk. Richards has suspicions that he did not meet death by being run over by a railway train.

Another View

High County Constable Cochrane, however, has learned indirectly from another source that Ben Howard rode with Mr. Michael Crowley as far as Downey's Corners, where he jumped from the cutter and started down the track alone.

Mr. Crowley is stated to have told him to be careful. Mr. Cochrane will investigate the latter report, which, if true, will scarcely compare with the story of Mr. Richards.

Howard's funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Death Of Sister Pulcheria At Mount St. Joseph To-day

The sad death this morning of Sister Pulcheria at Mount St. Joseph is regretted by all her friends. She passed away at 9.30 o'clock from heart failure. Her death was not unexpected as she had been ill for some time previous to her death. Sister Pulcheria was located in Parry Sound District, Peterborough Diocese for a few months before coming back to the city which was just a couple of weeks ago. She was known to the world as Miss Catharine Brady and came to Mount St. Joseph from Lindsay. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed and will be published to-morrow.

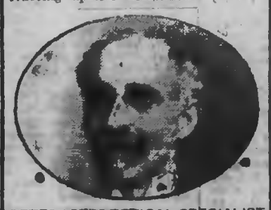
THE GRAFTERS SAID GOOD-BYE TO TWO OF THEIR MEMBERS

The Grafters' Club at a pleasant little banquet held last night at Hooper's Palm Parlours, said farewell to two of their number who are leaving this week to try their fortunes in the golden west. The departing members are Messrs. Eddie Mann and Bruce Hopkins, the former of whom leaves on Thursday for Nelson, B. C., and the latter who will make his home in Calgary. Both have secured good positions and their prospects for success in the west are very bright.

President Harry Lattimer presided at last night's gathering and a very enjoyable time was spent. Many speeches of regret at the departure of Messrs. Mann and Hopkins were made. Both have been very popular with their fellow club members who are sorry to lose their companionship but who will wish them every success in their new ventures.

AN EXHIBIT OF FINE EMBROIDERY IS BEING SHOWN

The exhibit of beautiful embroidery in the northen window of Mr. H. H. Adams' establishment is attracting much attention and admiration from the ladies who appreciate the artistic nature of the articles displayed. The work was done by Miss Simmons who will be the instructor of the free class in embroidery which opens at the store next Monday. Some beautiful samples of Hedebo and Wallachian embroidery are shown, a fish tray and a piece with water lily centre attracting special attention.



PETERBORO OPTICAL SPECIALIST
College Courses, Eye Hospital Experiences, Teacher of Opticians in the Principal Cities of the United States and Canada.

It is now a year and a half ago since Mr J. W. Browett, Dr. of Optics of Philadelphia, first came to our city and a year since he moved his family to Peterborough and became a resident. We are pleased to state that Dr. Browett appreciates our city, is interested in its progress and that this gentleman is meeting with the success which his qualifications deserve.

Dr. Browett has had twenty-five years experience in optical work and during the past fifteen years has taken optical courses of instruction in Toronto, Detroit, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia, and thus be qualified as a teacher of opticians. Dr. Browett attended the Will's Eye Hospital, Philadelphia, where there was an average of three hundred eye patients daily. This experience and that gained at Manhattan Eye Hospital, New York, was most valuable, but for further practice he attended hospitals and the finest optical parlours, as well as optical factories employing from 100 to 1,000 men the grinding of spectacle lenses in Chicago, Detroit and other cities. In later years Dr. Browett has visited many of the principal towns and cities of the United States and Canada, teaching opticians and conducting eye examinations for them; thus thousand of persons have taken the opportunity of having Dr. Browett examine their eyes for glasses. Dr. Browett has many letters from opticians and eyesight specialists approving his services as optical teacher and acknowledging him as one of the most thorough optical specialists in Canada.

Dr. Browett's office is at the McDermid & Jury drug store, 370 George street. We are pleased that Dr. Browett has made Peterborough his home, and bespeak for him ever increasing appreciation of his services in this vicinity.

Speakers To Be Present At All Saint's Banquet

The laymen's banquet in connection with All Saints Church will be held to-morrow night. In addition to Rev. Canon Tucker being present to give an address, Rev. Dr. Langfeld and Rev. Canon Davidson are also expected to give addresses. Between three hundred and four hundred men of the Anglican faith will be present, so that the occasion will be an important one.

The banquet will be held in the basement of the church and will begin at 8 o'clock. Its purpose is for the furtherance of the work among the laymen of the church, which is commanding such widespread attention at the present time.

DIZZY STEED BROKE THE SLEIGH SHAFTS

Standing on George street yesterday afternoon, a horse used for a delivery sleigh was suddenly seized with a dizzy sensation, causing it to topple over i. the shafts. The animal did the peculiar stunt without giving the least warning, and surprised the many bystanders. The result was the shafts were broken, but otherwise no damage was done. The animal was assisted to its feet again, and apparently was none the worse for the sudden seizure by the "blind staggers."

Farmer Crushed To Death Against Side Of Stall In Putting Ring In Bull's Nose

John Atkinson, a farmer living in Percy township, about four miles northeast of Warkworth, was killed in his barn on Saturday by a bull. He went into the stall where the animal was tied, to put a ring in its nose. Friends of Mr. Atkinson in the city to-day, speaking of the sad affair, said that as he went to snap the ring in the bull's nose it crushed him against the side of the stall with such force that fatal internal injuries were caused and death soon resulted.

The late Mr. Atkinson was widely known as a prominent farmer and especially for his prize-winning stock of pure bred shorthorn cattle and also Clydesdale horses. His farming methods were thoroughly modern and progressive, as was his careful attention to his farm stock.

Prizes Awarded For Those Answering Bible Questions

The formation of the International Newspaper Bible Study Class has given the Examiner an opportunity to secure each week a list of questions on the Sunday School lesson of the following Sunday, which are required to be answered by readers in order to secure prizes. The contest begins with the lesson for Sunday, April 5th, and the first series of questions will be published in the Examiner on the Saturday previous, that is on April 4th. They are suggestive questions on the Sunday School lesson, being prepared by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 series of questions to qualify for the prizes. It is, however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible and the basal truths of Christianity. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, barring only ordained clergymen. The club has the sympathetic co-operation of the latter, but it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. Sunday school teachers, Bible class scholars and church-goers generally, belong to this Newspaper Club, also non-church-goers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes.

The Examiner has secured the exclusive right in Peterborough to publish the International Sunday School Lessons by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will, as stated above, appear weekly. One series of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

The Examiner is also authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfil the conditions, that everything herein promised shall be faithfully carried out.

In to-morrow's issue the conditions of this unique contest will be published.

Campbellford Carries Cheap-Power And Free Site By-law

Yesterday the town of Campbellford voted upon a by-law to give the Canadian Rolling Mills Company, Limited, power for ten years at $10 per horse power, and free site and the by-law was carried by an overwhelming majority, only eight votes being recorded against it.

Several Peterborough gentlemen are interested in the enterprise. Their application to Campbellford is explained by the fact that failing to secure power in Peterborough at a sufficiently favourable figure, it was considered good business to forego the desire to locate the mills in this city and secure the advantages which Campbellford was in a position to offer, and which, as the carrying of the by-law shows, it was willing to give. As stated the by-law gives the company power at $10 per horse power for ten years and a free site, in consideration of which the company agrees to employ during the currency of the by-law, 100 hands for twenty-four hours of the day. The enterprise thus successfully launched, as far as cheap power and free site are concerned, is said to promise to become a most important and flourishing industry, upon whose possession Campbellford considers it should be heartily congratulated.

Lebarge Gave Himself Up To The Police This Morning

About 9 o'clock this morning a well-dressed man named Lebarge entered the police station and gave himself up. It will be remembered that this man has been wanted by the police for fighting with Henry Castles in a local hotel some time ago. Lebarge was immediately locked up and appeared in the prisoners dock at this morning's session of the police court.

The first charge was that of having been disorderly in a public place on March 2. To this charge he pleaded guilty.

Mr. Holland, who was present, told of the fight in the hotel.

"Well, I will fine you two dollars, to be paid in five days," said His Worship.

Another charge of having assaulted Henry Castles and inflicting a severe wound by biting him, was also urged. This being an indictable offence, Lebarge elected to be tried summarily by His Worship and pleaded not guilty.

The case was enlarged until Thursday and Lebarge was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

EDITORAL NOTES

Toronto is claimed as the centre of intelligence, and is as full of lawyers as an egg is of meat, yet the City Council couldn a pass a license reduction bylaw that the courts could not quash like an eggshell.

It is now announced that aerial navigation, or mechnical flying, is on the eve of solution. Air-ships have so long been in the sphere of dissolution, that it needs a good deal of faith to believe in the probability of the flying machine being made to fly.

The Toronto World practically demands the resignation of Hon. Mr. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, because, as it asserts, "the minister and his deputy have been reckless in expenditure." Why might not such a tip apply to Hon. Mr Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, who has been reckless in expenditure to the point of increasing the Provincial expenditure fifty per cent. in three years?

The speech of Hon. Clifford Sifton on the Budget was worthy the best traditions of the Canadian House of Commons, and a most grateful change, says the Brantford Expositor, from the jeremiads of Foster & Co. Throughout it was optimistic in tone, and pictured the importance to Canada of such projects as the All-Red line and the construction of a railway to Hudson's Bay. In short, it was the deliverance of a statesman.

FAIR COMMENT.

The Toronto World is not noted for its friendliness to the Laurier Government, yet, on occasion, it shows a fairness which might well be imitated by some 'independent' journals, which are rabidly "independent' in the interval, but rabidly partizan when a general election is in sight. Teh World condemns Hon. Mr. Fielding's generous action in advancing four million dollars to the banks to tide over the temporary financial depression and help in moving the western crop. The World, moreover, does not agree with the pessimists who declare that there is a tremendous deficit in the national finances and that the country is in a bad way. In regard to this point, the World says:

Mr. Fielding's budget discloses what is to Ministerial supporters the greatest surplus on record, and to Ministerial opponents an equally exceptional deficit. The propriety of these descriptive and contradictory epithets depends on whether or not items of capital expenditure are rightly chargeable against the ordinary revenue of the country. As a matter of strict accounting, they are probably not so chargeable, and certainly the bare fact that a deficit can be created by the inclusion of capital expenditure in the revenue accounts cannot be used as evidence that the country, financially, is in a bad way. It would doubtless be highly satisfactory to find the surplus revenue of Canada sufficient to meet all the payments properly classed as capital expenditure, but this can hardly be expected in the case of a young nation busily engaged in opening up vast stretches of territory and in developing its industries.

However open to detailed challenge the present Government may be in its administration of the Dominion finances, the record of the last few years testifies to abundant national vitality and to a spirit of buoyant hopefulness.

The World may seem extreme and erratic in some of the positions it takes, but in this, as in other instances, it shows that it can rise above the petty level of whining, and can deal out fair criticism. Its comments upon the financial position are fair and manly. The World can, as other journals could do, give credit where credit belongs, without surrendering its general policy, or sacrificing its right to give blame, when legitimate occasion arises.

PROVINCIAL FINANCES.

(Brantford Expositor.)

The provincial budget speech was made on Thursday by Hon. Mr. Matheson, who plumed himself not a little on the splendid revenues which the province is in the enjoyment of. He omitted to state, however, that this result has been brought about, in the main, by things which his colleagues and himself deserve no credit for. In short, the base of the buoyant revenues was laid by the Liberals, and the men now in office have simply been spending with lavish prodigality a fortune which they did nothing to create. For example, the total receipts during the last year were $8,320,000. Of this $833,503 came from Succession Duties, $672,241 from taxes on corporations; $235,690 from the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway, $1,184,719 from mining sales and leases, and $297,945 from royalties. All these sources of revenue was created by the Liberals, some of them in spite of the vigourous opposition of the Conservatives, and without them the province would be submerged in debt.

It is when you come to the expenditure side, however, that the financial statement appears at its worst. When in opposition Mr. Matheson and his associates made great professions of economy, and promised to reduce the very modest expenditures of the late government. In office they have increased the annual expenditures from $5,267,453 in 1904 to $7,714,215 in 1907, an increase of about 50 per cent. Many of these increases are, of course, for great public services, such as education, agriculture, public institutions, etc., and therefore in a sense unobjectionable but there are expenditures which the government can directly control, such as those for "civil government," in other words, the salaries and expenses of ministers and the various departmental officials. The expenditures under this heading have increased as follows:

1905	371,975
1906	428,280
1907	538,475
1908	588,545

An increase in the five years of 70 per cent. In three years the John Sandfield Government increased the expenditure for civil government 5 per cent. per annum, the Liberals increased it 6 1-2 per cent., and the Conservatives have increased it 20 per cent.

Following are some of the increases between 1904 and 1907:

	Per cent.
Civil government	50
Legislation	11
Administration of Justice	29
Education	50
Colonization	116
Agriculture	7 1-2
Agricultural College	106
Charities	39
Public buildings	33

The expenditure for salaries has been increased from $265,968 to 378,380, or 40 per cent., and that for contingencies from $78,442 to $165,036, or considerably more than double.

Nowhere is the disposition to extravagance more manifest than in the plums thrown to lawyers who received last year the following:

Crown counsel	$8,164
Special cases in counties	7,354
Revision of statutes	5,200
Constitutional questions	4,400
Education department	1,238
Hydro-Electric commission	2,604
Investigations	4,663
Cordage matters	1,131
Miscellaneous	537
Legislation	1,050

A grand total of some $36,000. Some of the above expenditure was justifiable, but much has gone to the Starrs, the Judds and the Snows more as a reward for party service than for anything else.

It is not surprising with an exhibit such as given above, that there should be a very general demand that the brakes should be applied, and the provincial expenditures made with a closer regard to economy and the professions made by the Conservative party before they were entrusted with the handling of the finances.

Killed While Cutting Wood.

Brockville, March 24.—Robert Vanston, son of Robert Vanston, ex-county councillor of Escott, while at work on Grenadier Island, yesterday, met with a fatal accident.

He was engaged cutting wood with a circular saw and the firy wheel becoming loose was hurled some distance from the engine. It struck Vanston about the right hip, crushing the bones and almost severing the leg from the body, leaving it hanging by only a few slender cords. He died ten minutes after being removed to the St Vincent de Paul Hospital in Brockville

A Dramatic Author.

Like most actor managers, Macready was pestered by would be dramatic authors. An ambitious young fellow brought him a five act tragedy one morning to Drury Lane.

"My piece," modestly explained the author, "is a chef d'oeuvre. I will answer for its success, for I have consulted the sanguinary taste of the public. My tragedy is so tragic that all the characters are killed off at the end of the third act."

"With whom, then," asked the manager, "do you carry on the action of the last two acts?"

"With the ghosts of those who died in the third!"—Cornhill Magazine.

An Alpine Feat.

Herr Walther of the Swiss Alpine club, after a score of failures, has succeeded in reaching the summit of a virgin peak named the Haute Tour, in the Glaris Alps, about 10,000 feet in height. This mountain has defied the efforts of Alpinists for many years, for the last 100 yards of the summit is black, slippery, perpendicular rock, affording neither hand nor foot holds, and one of the most difficult ascents in the Alps. Herr Walther took four hours to climb the last 100 yards. He was accompanied by the porter, Streiff, who was promoted to be a guide after the ascent.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 23.—(Special.)—At the Montreal Stock Yards, west end market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending March 21, were 3427 cattle, 245 sheep and lambs, 2326 hogs, and 286 calves, while the supply to-day for local consumption consisted of 700 cattle, 200 sheep and lambs, 1100 hogs and 150 calves. Choice beeves sold at $5.25 to $5.40; good, at $4.75 to $5; fair, at $4.35 to $4.50; common, at $3.50 to $4 per cwt. There were some good bulls on the market, which brought from $4 to $4.75, and very choice beasts sold at $5 to $5.25 per cwt. Cable advices from Liverpool on Saturday stated that trade in cattle was slow and noted a decline of ¼c per lb. in prices, for American and Canadian steers, as compared with a week ago. A much stronger feeling has developed in the market for yearling lambs and prices show an advance of ½c per lb. for the week. This is due to the continued small supply coming forward and the good demand for the same for local consumption. Sales of choice lots were made at 7c to 7¼c, and good at 6½c to 6¾c per lb. Supplies of spring lambs are still very limited, for which the demand is also good, at prices ranging from $7 to $10 each. The tone of the market for sheep is firm, but as the offerings are small trade is quiet at 5c to 5¼c per lb. Receipts of calves are steadily increasing, for which the demand is good for choice stock, at $5 to $6 each, while lower grades sell at $2 to $4. The undertone to the market for hogs continues strong and prices have scored a further advance of 12½c to 15c per cwt., which makes a net rise of 25c to 27½c since this day week. Supply was fair, but owing to the near approach of Easter and the large number of orders coming forward for hams and bacon, the demand from packers is heavy, which is the only reason for the strength in the market, as foreign advices on Canadian bacon continue to be anything but encouraging. An active trade was done this morning and sales of selected lots were made at $6.25 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

Dynamite Shattered Stove.

Smith's Falls, March 24.—Lucy Lindie, a 10-year-old girl of Admaston, Renfrew County, found what she supposed was some refuse on a floor in her home, and seizing a broom she carefully swept it up and put it in the stove.

The "refuse" proved to be some dynamite caps, which her father had taken from a drawer a few minutes before for the purpose of using them for blasting. They exploded as soon as they were put in the stove, and one of the flying fragments of iron from the shattered heater struck little Lucy in the eye and injured it so badly that the sight was completely destroyed.

They lowered themselves out of a fourth floor window but were compelled to leap more than half the distance because of the shortness of the rope.

Miss Pennington's injury was the cause of their being recaptured by the police who found the trio in the heart of the city in convent garb, the two uninjured ones helping along the cripple.

Poisoned Sweetheart and Self.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 24.—Nettie Plaschek, aged 17 years, daughter of Mrs. Ida Plaschek, 764 Tenth avenue died early yesterday from strychnine, administered by her sweetheart, Leo Wojeinski. The drug was mixed with ice cream. When Wojeinski learned of the death of the girl, he immediately took a dose himself, dying an hour later.

The crime was probably inspired because the man's parents had objected to a proposed marriage to the young

A Narrow Escape.

Smith's Falls, March 24.—Walter McWatt, an employe of the Cooperage Co. at Galetta, Lanark County, had a narrow escape from death a few days ago.

He was working at some lumber which was buried in sawdust to a considerable depth. A sudden jerk on a piece brought the sawdust down, felling McWatt to the ground and burying him beneath its weight. He was powerless to move, and in a few moments would undoubtedly have smothered had it not been for the timely arrival of two fellow workmen, who rescued him from his perilous position.

Hartley Doing Fast Time In His Training Every Night

The man who beats Dave Hartley in the walking match to be held in the Brock street rink, April 20 to 25, will have to move faster than did the winners at Kansas City according to those who have seen the great little walker in his training stunts at the Y.M.C.A. He is at it every night in the week and on Saturday afternoons, under the watchful eye of Trainer Dick Baker of the Y.M.C.A. Harriers, and is showing great form, feeling in better shape now than he did at Kansas City. The other night after walking for an hour, he spurted for a mile and succeeded in covering the distance in 9 minutes which on a small track of 32 laps to the mile, is moving some. With Trainer Baker looking after him he should be in the best of shape when the field of world famous walkers is started on the evening of April 20th.

MILLER'S IMPRESSIONS OF EDMONTON

He Will be Back Again Next Winter—Off to the Ranch.

Edmonton, March 23.—Bert Boulton and Jack Miller, the two speedy wing men of the Edmonton seniors, left for their respective homes this morning on the Calgary train. Boulton will go on to Winnipeg, while Miller will get off at Medicine Hat, where he and his brother have a ranch. In speaking to the sporting editor yesterday, Boulton said: "I have had a fine time here this winter and could not have been used better if I had been a prince. The management of the team have acted like gentlemen with the whole team and deserve credit for the way they have handled the team. I think I would like to come back here next year if the team will have me, and they can count on that. This summer I will spend in the open and will try and keep in condition all the time."

Jack Miller, the boy who has turned out so well, did not have much to say. Jack is of a rather modest disposition except when he is on the ice. He came up here last autumn merely to put in the winter, and for the fun of it got out to practice with the team. The first game he was not on, but play d the second, and seems to have improved immeasurably every game since. "I rather hate to leave the boys now," he said, "after having made such good friends of them all, but no doubt we will all be together next season. I want to come back here, and a contract won't be necessary to hold me. This summer the work on the ranch will keep me in good condition, and when it comes time to practice next year I will be in just as good condition as I am now. The team officials, as well as the general public, have been good to me this winter both in their praise and friendliness, which I have appreciated very much, and I only hope I will be with the team again next winter.

LOCAL WALKER TELLS OF KANSAS TIME

Was Ill Three Days While There—How Walk May Be Advertised.

Sporting Editor Examiner.

I wish you would tell your readers and my friends that I am training every day at the Y. M. C. A., under Mr. Dick Baker, and I wish all to understand that I am in the race to win. I wish to state here to the public that I was sick for three days in Kansas City, and that was the reason I only got fifth place. There were twenty-three started, so the public can see that I did something. If I had been well from the start, of course, there would have been a different story told. Now, here is the record: The Kansas City winner walked 4 1-2 miles an hour and three miles over in 02 hours, and I walked 4 3-4 miles an hour, in 12 hours in Toronto and seven laps over.

Now, you can see by these records if I had been well where I would have been. I will show the people of Peterborough a walk. It was admitted by all the walkers in Kansas that my last day's walk was a wonder and had never been done before. I will endeavour to give you something the first four hours here to talk about. Now, if anyone wishing to help me in my training expenses will buy a card, five cents, and mail it to their friends, they will help me and help advertise the walk. I wish everybody, boys and girls, old and young, to join in to help to advertise this walk and it will be a grand success. The merchants are doing all they can to help advertise it on the back of their envelopes. Thanking you, I am

Yours,
DAVID HARTLEY.

CHIEFTAINS WON FROM WEST ENDS

Jack Thirnbeck's Crack Little Seven Are Still Undefeated

The Chieftains brought their phenomenally successful season to a close last night by defeating the West End team by 8 goals to 1, at the Brock street rink in a fairly fast game. The undefeated Chieftains were too much for their opponents, their aggressive combination and speedy stick handling leaving no doubt as to the result of the game. Despite the fact that they have had little practice recently they showed that they had forgotten none of their cleverness and played brilliant hockey throughout. The West Ends, although outplayed, were plucky and stuck at it until the end. The score at half time was 3—1 in favour of the Chieftains. S. W. Rose refereed satisfactorily. The Chieftains line-up was as follows:

Goal—Lees.
Point—Munro.
Cover—Wallis.
Rover—Crane.
Centre—Hall.
Right wing—Burritt.

HE WOULD HAVE BEEN FRONT RANKER THIS SEASON

Howard Was Game, Says The Toronto Star.

Ben Howard, the Mississauga Indian, whose tragic death, is reported from Peterborough, says the Toronto Star, was a member of the Irish-Canadians of Sunderland, and made his reputation when he beat Percy Sellen at five miles at Hamilton last summer. He also won the Indian race that day. He was second to Wilson in the Peterborough Examiner race, and ran in last year's Ward Marathon, but was not among the leaders. Howard was a quiet fellow, but he would not train consistently. He had a rolling gait, which detracted some from his speed, but he was game and would have been a front-runker this season.

FIRE AT NOON GAVE BRIGADE NEEDLESS CALL

A chimney of the house at 375 Stewart street, between Hunter and Simcoe streets, was smoking more than necessary at noon to-day and a call was sent for the fire brigade. The teams answered readily but there was no need of their services as the chimney had settled down to its usual easy going wreaths of smoke and all was tranquil and serene.

Young Man Had His Clothes Badly Torn —Cutter Not Damaged

An upset occurred yesterday afternoon on Crescent street, in which a young man had a rather unpleasant experience. He was driving home from Little Lake Cemetery in a cutter, when the horse shied at something and started off. At Lock street the horse tried to turn, and the cutter upset. The driver was thrown into the roadway and his clothes were badly torn. The cutter which was the property of Bruce Lees livery, was not damaged.

Editor Post Card Column.

Dear Sir,—I thought from what was printed in the papers that we were to have a policeman, in mufti, to patrol the outskirt portions of the city. Such a man would have plenty to look after. Last night and other nights the streets in the west end were made hideous by midnight roysterers—drunken ruffians, who shout profanity and noisy foul songs in the street, arousing decent people from their sleep, and disturbing the sick, etc. If a plain clothes policeman was around some times he might catch these blackguards. A little punishment might do them good.

EVANS' BIG FLEET.

The Way It Would Have Toyed With the Spanish Armada.

Speaking of the fleet of American battleships now on its way to Pacific waters as an "armada," as some writers appear fond of doing, is comparing very great things with things very small. It is true that the Spanish armada in 1588, to which allusion of course is made, filled a large place in history and was a very spectacular affair in its day, but its power as compared with that of the fleet under Admiral Evans was the power of a crow compared with that of an eagle. The "invincible armada" of Spain, which set out to invade and capture England in 1588, was a formidable demonstration of naval power for that period, though it met with complete disaster.

The armada consisted of about 130 vessels, some of them of great size, but all wooden and without any protection against even the feeble artillery of that day. They carried in all 2,431 guns and more than 19,000 men, besides the working crews. As the soldiers could not help work the ships, they were really in the way and much more helpless on shipboard than modern marines. The cannon which formed the armament of the ships were mere toys compared with those of the present day. Finally the ships were all sailing ships, cumbrously built, hard to maneuver and liable to be put out of action by adverse winds. Torpedo boats and monitors were unknown at that day.

The American fleet consists of sixteen first class battleships, eight armored cruisers, nine protected cruisers, six gunboats, six torpedo boat destroyers and three monitors. The ships carry a total of 2,184 guns, any one of which could sink the biggest ships in the Spanish armada with one shot from a distance that the heaviest gun in the Spanish fleet could not cover half the way. The concentrated fire of all the ships in the Spanish fleet would not make a dent in the armored sides of one of the American ships, while a single broadside from the latter would sink or disable the entire armada. Finally the American ships, being worked by steam and electricity, are entirely independent of wind and weather. After they had steamed through the Spanish armada once, from end to end, coming out scathless, there would be nothing left of the armada.—Kenaphs Journal.

MODERN POACHING.

Country Thieves Use Many New and Artful Contrivances.

As years pass on, poaching, like everything else, becomes more scientific. The old hempen net which the poacher used to hang across a fieldgate at night for hares has given place to one of silken cord, and the cheap bull's-eye lantern to the more costly but more handy electric torch. Perhaps the most dangerous improvement, from the game-preserver's point of view, says a writer in "Chambers's Journal," is the substitution of the motor-bicycle or motor-car for the old-fashioned one-horse trap. It might be imagined that the motor-bicycle would be of little use for carrying game; but only the other day a motor cyclist was arrested near a Midland town with five newly-killed hares in a box behind the seat. Parisian papers tell of well-organized gangs who raid the coverts near the French capital by the aid of apparatus worth hundreds of pounds, who have relief funds for those injured in affrays, and who retain lawyers to defend those captured by keepers. Happily this sort of thing is still unknown in England.

After Pheasants.

Not unnaturally the pheasant stands at the head of the poacher's list. If a poacher can be sure of a quiet half-hour in the covert, he slips in, sets a net across a run, sends his lurcher slinking round through the undergrowth, and presently, with a flutter and a flop, a fine cock-bird is fast in the net, next moment to be transferred to the poacher's pocket. A method of taking pheasants which was more common a few years ago than it is now was that of "smoking." The first essential is to discover a tree where the birds roost. Then, upon a dark, still night, the poacher goes to the spot armed with a handful of sulphur and the lid of an old biscuit-box. A fire of dry leaves is lighted upon the lid, the illumination being carefully concealed by a coat hung round it. As soon as the leaves have blazed up, the sulphur is flung on the flames, and the lid held up under the bough on which the pheasants are roosting. Soon the suffocating fumes take effect. With a rustle and thump a fat bird thuds upon the ground. One after another they drop, and with luck the poacher may get half a dozen from a single tree.

Drugged Barley.

Another favorite plan is to soak barley or wheat for some hours in warm water. When the grain is thoroughly softened, the water is strained off and strong spirit poured over the wheat. The swollen grains absorb the spirit, and the doctored bait is then spread in one of the glades where the birds feed. It is an odd fact that most birds seem to like alcohol. Pheasants are no exception. The not unnatural result is that the finest birds—those which have secured the lion's share of the feast, are soon reeling about helplessly drunk. The poacher, who has been lying "doggo" near by, has nothing to do but jump up and wring their necks. Another method of the pheasant poacher deserves mention for its very ingenuity. It owes its success to the well-known pugnacity of our finest game bird. A game cock is armed with steel spurs of great length and keenness, and dropped where a pheasant has been observed to crow. The pheasant will allow no rival within its domain, and presently comes strutting out of covert. Naturally, he stands no more chance than a man armed with a paper knife would against a Western desperado with a bowie. He is killed in a few seconds. The poacher picks up the dead bird, catches his game-cock, and moves on in search of fresh victims.

The Birds' Caps.

An old-fashioned way of catching rooks when they become too numerous to suit the farmer was to bury in the plough land little conical bags of paper, the sides smeared with birdlime and a bait at the bottom. The same plan has been adopted with considerable success for the capture of pheasants. The bait is barley, and the bird completely blinded by the cap which clings so tightly to its head, falls an easy victim to man or dog. In an open field you will often see small pieces of brushwood stuck into the ground at intervals. These are set by the keeper for the purpose of hooking up the nets of night poachers for partridges. Partridges roost upon the ground, and by means of a long, light net dragged across the grass by two men a whole covey is often captured at one swoop. This form of poaching is only possible on a dark night, and at such a time the birds, and at such a time the branches, and, therefore, they get their nets entangled in them. But some have nowadays taken to lining the ground side of their nets with some stiff glazed stuff. A net so protected will slide over most obstacles.

Unfeeling.

A certain drill sergeant whose severity had made him unpopular with his company was putting a squad of recruits through the funeral exercise. Opening the ranks so as to admit the passage of the supposed cortege between them, the instructor by way of practical explanation walked slowly down the lane formed by the two ranks, saying as he did so:

"Now I'm the corpse. Pay attention."

Having reached the end of the party, he turned round, regarded them steadily with a scrutinising eye for a moment or two, then remarked:

"Yours 'ands is right, and your 'eads is right, but you 'aven't 'got that look of regret you ought to 'ave."

Dear Sir: — I wish to thank you for the magnificent profits I received from you on the 2nd inst on Policy [illegible] on my life, the dividend period having matured on the 1st inst.

To think that all I have paid the Company during the past twenty years was $442.00, and that my reserved cash profits for that period amount to $214.04, leaving the net cost of my Insurance of $1,000 during those years only $227.96, and that now I have a free paid-up policy of $1,000 still drawing profits EVERY FIVE YEARS hereafter, as long as I live, is a result that surprises me most agreeably and causes me to regret that I have not taken more Insurance twenty years ago.

However, as you know I am trying to redeem the past to the best of my ability and have applied for further insurance on same plan with you.

Again thanking you and desiring to know the splendid results I received, and hoping it may assist some, at least, in making a wise selection when insuring, I wish your Company the patronage it deserves, and remain

Yours truly,

Train the boy born this day to carefulness, and make him look before his leaps. He will be inclined to reckless and ill-advised acts.

Music and Drama

Carrie Leonard and Violet Leight with "The Mayor of Tokio."

It requires two sixty-foot baggage cars to accommodate the scenery, mechanical and electrical effects used in the production of "The Mayor of Tokio," which comes to the Grand to-morrow night. The stage settings are most elaborate, while the electrical effects are really beautiful. To put this production where Mr. Jos M. Gaites, the owner, wanted it, it was necessary to spend a large amount of money, but to-day it is one of the best musical productions on the road. The chorus is large and very attractive, while Mr. John L. Kearney, who is the leading comedian, keeps the audience in continual laughter. The music, which is particularly bright, tuneful and catchy is the work of N. F. Peters.

Petition For Independent Conservative Candidate

Mr. Moore of Dummer To Be Asked To Run.

A prominent Conservative of East Peterborough informed an Examiner reporter to-day that a petition is being circulated and being largely signed, requesting Mr. Henry Moore of Dummer to be a candidate for the Provincial Legislature as an independent. He further states that the feeling in East Peterborough as to the manner in which the convention was conducted is becoming more intense, and the questionable way in which Mr. Thompson secured the nomination is being fully discussed, and that considerable doubt is being expressed as to whether Mr. Thompson will proceed with his candidature. To the reporter he further stated that the only solution to the difficulty was to call another convention. Otherwise the party was going to be all split up. The informant also stated that Mr. Andrews' friends are still sore at the treatment he received, and unless another convention is held they will support some other candidate. In the meantime, the petition is being signed by many, and it is not at all unlikely that there will be three candidates in the field for the local Legislature.

Speaking further, he stated that a great deal depends upon what action the Liberals take at their convention to-morrow.

THE SIGNS OF GENTLE SPRING ARE HERE; WINTER HAS FLED

Spring is here.

Look at the calendar. To-day is March 24.

And almanac information, like almanac jokes, is made truthful by long life. This has been true since Father Time started out with his scythe.

The weather to-day makes the first day of spring feel like the real thing.

The noise of the spring hat is also heard in the land, some of the real creations of 1908 making considerable commotion on the highways this afternoon.

Some of the braver citizens have hung up their overcoats in the hall, of course, not at "your uncle's."

They throw out their chests and tell everybody that this is spring, and that the winter has been lulled to slumber by the beautiful spell of daisy time.

Information from Medicine Hat, where weather is invented, says that the weather in the "banana" belt is fine, and easterners need not worry about any more cold snaps.

Of course, it may get chilly, but nothing serious.

It was also rumoured this afternoon that the backbone of winter is broken.

This is an absolutely new expression.

Get out into the air, and it will be found that life in Peterborough is worth the living.

The Strong Features of Our Spring Dress Goods

OUR Dress Goods Department is our particular care and pride. Its standards of quality are so strict just "good" won't do—"best" is what's bought and sold there always.

Experience has taught us that our customers prefer fabrics ranging from 50c to 1.25 per yard in price, and Fashion has advised us that Striped Armures, Poplins, Crepe de Chines, Taffeta Cloths, Tweeds and Voiles will be correct for '08 wear. The best colors and patterns of these fabrics that the market produces for retailing at these prices are now on display in our Dress Goods Department, and they are better than those usually sold for such prices. The new and popular (as well as much that is exclusive) is represented in our Spring stocks in a wide range of beautiful colorings and weaves and nowhere can more excellence and style be had for lesser prices. When you come to make your selections you'll see that we haven't at all exaggerated the advantages of our Dress Goods Department.

Spring Assizes Concluded In Business-Like Manner

Chief Justice Mulock Finished the Work in One Session—Herbert Meehan Discharged.

THE OTHER CASES SETTLED

The Spring Assizes were concluded last evening and the Grand Jury had had completed its work by 9 o'clock. The fact was emphasized that the county is comparatively free from crime. Two cases were settled out of court. The Hill-Cavanagh case was heard, and a compromise made between the parties, by which an amicable settlement was reached. The Payne-Meehan case went to the Grand Jury after 1 o'clock, which, after hearing the evidence, returned "no bill." There was consequently no trial.

HILL vs. KAVANAGH

"Judgment to confirm Davis' title—Davis to pay plaintiff $25 on or before May 23, 1908; defendant to pay plaintiff $15 on or before April 10, 1908. No order as to costs. Subject to the foregoing declaration in favour of Davis, the action is dismissed without costs." O'Connell & Gordon for the plaintiff, Mrs. Hill: Mr. George Sherry, Norwood, for Mr. Kavanagh, defendant.

Grand Jury's Address

The address of the Grand Jury, presented to Chief Justice Mulock, deals with the conditions in the county, as follows:

To His Honour,
Chief Justice Mulock,
Presiding, the Spring Assizes,
Peterborough:

Sir,—We, the Grand Jury of our Sovereign King, Edward the Seventh, beg leave to congratulate you and the county of Peterborough on the absence of crime in this vicinity, of which we have evidence in the very brief calendar.

We have to report that in the course of our duties we have visited the several local institutions, including the county jail, and found all in a satisfactory condition. At the jail we were impressed by the number of aged men, whose only crime is old age, accompanied by poverty, and it would seem to your jurors that the city of Peterborough should be urged to make some provision for the care of such people.

We were also impressed by the number of apparently healthy and young inmates, held as vagrants, and as a charge on the community. These seemed to be making the jail a boarding place during the winter months, and we would suggest that labour be provided. If some such provision were made, they would prefer outside work to a residence in the jail.

We also visited the Nicholls Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital, the House of Providence, and the Protestant Home, and though our visits were entirely unexpected, we found everything very highly satisfactory.

We did not, however, visit the county House of Refuge, near Lakefield, but we understand that this institution is very ably conducted, a credit to the county, and a source of much comfort to the inmates.

We regret that we could not have had the satisfaction of visiting a similar institution in the city of Peterborough. In a community numbering so many as the city now does, will always be found the poor, the aged and needy, and many who become, through infirmity and old age, a charge on the community. Your jurors express the hope that at a not far distant day their successors in office may have the pleasure of inspecting and reporting that the city has done that which it should.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. E. BIRDSALL,
Foreman.

TALK ON EVOLUTION OF THE CHURCH

Interesting Meeting of A. Y. P. A.—"Do We Talk Too Much?" Subject of Next Debate.

The A. Y. P. A. of St. John's Church met last night and the meeting proved an interesting one. The rector, Rev. Canon Davidson, gave a talk on the evolution of the Anglican Church, and Mr. Geo. Chandler sang a pleasing solo with piccolo accompaniment by Mr. Butcher and piano accompaniment by Mr. R. J. Derey.

The next meeting will be held on Monday night next when a debate, resolved "That we talk too much," will be the feature of the programme.

LANG & MAHER TO THE FRONT AGAIN

Are About to Open Another Store in Lindsay

Messrs. Lang & Maher, the live clothiers and furnishers, have secured the lease of the clothing store in Lindsay formerly occupied by Mr. A. J. Graham and are opening at once a new stock of clothing ad furnishings. They are in possession and are making a few alterations and expect to be ready for business about Saturday, April 4th.

This firm have been advancig in popularity so rapidly with the buying publiec that they find they are compelled to reach out, and have selected Lindsay as the most convenient place being in close touch with their business interests here.

Mr. Maher will go to Lindsay and locate there permanently. This step forward will increase the output of the firm very materially and will give larger buying powers. The firm are not strangers to the people of Lindsay by any means, that town being the birthplace and home of Mr. Maher, and who has many old friends who will welcome him back to his native town. Lang and Maher have already very many customers from that portion of the country, who will be very much pleased to welcome them to Lindsay, for their clothing is their best advertisement, and any who have already worn it can at once notice the distinguished effect it has over the ordinary class. In short "They feel dressed up," a fact which insures the continued popularity of their branded garments.

This firm open up under very favourable circumstances and are very lucky to secure the old clothing house so familiar to the people of Lindsay. Lang & Maher are extensive advertisers and will assume the same aggressive style of doing business in Lindsay that they have made such a success in Peterborough, keeping strictly to one price, and that price the lowest possible for dependable goods.

Their stock will all be new and up-to-date, no old off styles to show and everything thoroughly guaranteed.

We have no hesitation in predicting for Lang & Maher a very large share of the clothing business in and around Lindsay right from the very start.

Russia is becoming a great buyer of British-grown teas. Partly owing to the enormous increase in the quantity they are using, the price of tea at the gardens has advanced greatly during the past year, making it necessary for the "Salada" Tea Company, in order to maintain the high standard of quality for which "Salada" is noted, to advance the price of "Brown Label" from 25c to 30c per pound.

TWO YOUNG MEN IN COURT INCLINED TO BE DISORDERLY

"Well, are you here again?" asked His Worship, as a young lad appeared before him this morning.

"I am," saidthe little fellow with a smile.

"You are charged with having been disorderly in a public place. Are you guilty or not guilty?"

"I am not guilty."

The Chief asked to have the case enlarged until Thursday, which was granted. In the meantime the boy was allowed his freedom.

Another young man appeared before the magistrate on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in a public place.

He pleaded not guilty.

The Chief asked to have the case enlarged until Thursday as the officer who made the arrest was not present. The young man had two witnesses in court who were willing to swear that he was not disorderly, and he wanted the case to go on.

His Worship enlarged the case until Thursday, and in the meantime the young man was allowed his liberty.

SHEPHERD ATTEMPTS TO STAB HIMSELF ON HEARING SENTENCE FOR FORGERY

Sensational Termination of the Morning's Police Court—George Shepherd Gets Two Years to Compensate for Crime.

USED A STOUT SCARF PIN

Bystanders Overpowered Him in Prisoners' Box—Blood Flowed Freely From the Several Wounds

Sensational was the culmination of the case against George Shepherd, the forger, at the police court this morning, when, after hearing the sentence, "Two years in Kingston penitentiary," pronounced by Magistrate Dumble, he attempted to stab himself in the breast with a scarf pin. He might have succeeded in his dire intentions had it not been for the presence of several persons near the prisoners dock.

Shepherd was very pale and his body trembled throughout the entire proceedings. When his name was called he stood up in the dock and leaned his head against the partition.

He was first charged with obtaining a watch from Mr. C. D. McClellan by false pretences, on which charge he elected to be tried summarily by his Worship at the last sitting, and he pleaded guilty this morning.

The Chief produced the watch in court, which he received from Napanee, where it had been pawned, and Mr. McClellan had to pay $6 to have it redeemed.

Shepherd explained that he gave Mr. McClellan six dollars for the watch, so that the jeweller will be nothing out.

Shepherd had pleaded guilty at the last session of the court to the charges of forgery brought against him.

Pathetic Story

When his Worship asked the prisoner what he had to say, Shepherd handed the magistrate a letter in his defence, which read as follows:

Your Worship—

I do not feel well enough to say anything in court, so I take the liberty of writing a few words in defence of my dishonest acts. I am 34 years of age and have always lived an honest life previous to this. I have always had excellent recommendations from my late employers and have no doubt that ever Mr. Snowden himself would stand up and testify regarding my character while in his employ. Now, sir, as to the cause of my disgrace. For fifteen months out of the last two years I have been sick in bed—six months in the hospital undergoing a severe operation, and eight months in the Nicholls Hospital, and at Cobourg, my home, during my last sickness, the pain was so severe that my doctor prescribed morphine. I became so addicted to the habit of taking this morphine that if I went without it for many hours I was practically crazy for the want of it. Then, sir, to make matters worse, I was compelled to leave home in the middle of February, a severe month, sick and with very little money beyond my fare to Peterborough, in an endeavour to get work. I failed, and after being without a morsel of food for forty-eight hours, and crazy for the want of the drug, I did the acts to which I have pleaded guilty. Had I been well and in my proper senses at the time I could not have done this. Since then I have, I guess, been one of the most miserable of men. God only knows what remorse I have suffered. I have spent two weeks in prison, eating scarcely nothing, and have been under the treatment of the doctor while there. In conclusion, I ask your Worship to kindly take into consideration these facts and deal as leniently as possible with me. I ask you, if it is possible, to deal with me under the first offenders act. In any event, I will undertake to make, within a certain time, full recompense to those whom I have wronged. I also give your Worship a guarantee not to take any more morphine. In fact, it is impossible for me to get it without a doctor's prescription, and no doctor would give me one now. In future, worry, sickness, nor anything else will ever cause me to do wrong. I have had my lesson, and a bitter one, too. Would the justice of the case be met

WEST END WATCH DOG SCARES BURGLAR FROM A RESIDENCE JUST AFTER JAMES' BURGLARY

Residents in the west end of the city are of the opinion that the party who robbed Mr. James' meat shop, McDonel street, Monday night made an unsuccessful attempt to force an entrance into the house of Mr. E. G. Dormer, 421 London street, near Park street.

Towards half past twelve o'clock Mr. Dormer and his wife heard their dog bark in the kitchen. Mrs. Dormer who was more on the alert than her husband heard a voice say in command to the dog "Lie down there." A moment afterwards the dog barked again and the same voice said louder, "Shut up." Mr. Dormer hastily clothed himself and went down stairs. He found his dog sniffing around the door which led into the back kitchen and the shed in an excited manner. He opened the door but found everything in the shed as he had left it.

A Board off

Burnt matches were found, however, near the door which the man had tried to open. He had evidently entered the shed through an opening that had been made last spring. Mr. Dormer in order to drain water out of the shed broke off one of the boards and the aperture would admit a man of less than medium stature.

Broke the Fence

Mr. Dormer had enclosed his yard to prevent his hens getting away and around the top had stretched wire netting. The man had run from the shed, up a bank of snow that was piled against the fence and in going over the top broke the supports of the netting.

Mr. Dormer intended to call the police but decided that this would be a futile move. His next door neighbour had been wakened but he had heard no particular noise, Mr. Dormer believes that some one acquainted with the place attempted the housebreaking which thanks to his faithful dog was prevented. He has no clue to the party but is inclined to connect it with the robbery at Mr. James' store which occurred about twenty minutes previously.

Applications For Help And Work To Be Left At Examiner By Farmers And Labourers

The Examiner has from time to time received inquiries from farmers looking for labourers and from prospective labourers wanting to be located on farms. On several occasions written applications have been received at the office from both parties, and as no records were kept there was no means of introducing one to the other.

In view of so many of these applications the Examiner has decided to institute a system by which it will be of some benefit, not only to the farmers but also to those who are desirous of obtaining work on the farm. And as the spring work is now nearing its advent this is an opportune time for applications to be sent in.

Already there is an application in for farm help from a gentleman from near Millbrook. He wants an experienced hand, if possible, and one who is single. He states that he will pay fair wages. In referring to Englishmen who are as yet inexperienced, he is willing to take one on a month's trial, and then if he is satisfactory to come to an agreement regarding wages after that.

What to do

It will be necessary for any farmer seeking farm help to write the Examiner, specifying what kind of a labourer he desires. This may be addressed to the editor. The gentleman desiring help may, of course, make a personal application when his wants will be attended to if at all possible.

In the same manner the party applying for work may write or make a personal call at the Examiner Office.

Body Of Apsley Man To Be Exhumed In Stirling; The Authorities Investigating Case

An unsubstantiated rumour circulated in the city to-day regarding a peculiar death that occurred at Chandos some time ago. The authorities, upon being approached, admitted that an investigation was in progress, but nothing definite was given out.

By another source it was learned that the remains of a man buried in Stirling who died in Peterborough county, were to be exhumed to-day or to-morrow.

It is claimed his death at Chandos was out of the ordinary and that the exhumation is being done with a view to investigating an alleged murder.

The Examiner has learned the name of the dead man, but as the proceedings are just beginning it will not be published until later.

Lindsay Masons Were Guests Of Peterborough Lodge A.F. and A.M.

About fifty members of Faithful Brethren Lodge A. F. and A. M. were the guests of Peterborough Lodge of Masons in the Masonic Hall last night and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The Lindsay brethren came down on a special train, arriving shortly before 8 o'clock and returning at 12.30 a.m. There was a large attendance of local Masons on hand to welcome the visitors, whose visit was appreciated. The Lindsay Masons put on the third degree work after which an enjoyable banquet was held in the dining-room.

Wor. Bro E. E. Lord, of Peterborough Lodge, presided as toast master. In response to the toast of the "Visiting Brethren," witty and eloquent speches were made by Wor. Bro. Lorne Campbell, Bro. Rev. J. A. Wallace and Rt. Wor. Bro. Fulton, of Faithful Brethren Lodge.

Bro. McDermott, of the visiting brethren, proposed the health of Peterborough Lodge, and appropriate replies were made by Rt. Wor. Bro. W. H Walkey and Wor. Bro. Mayor Rush.

An enjoyable musical programme was rendered, consisting of songs by Bro. J. Burns, J. J. Turner, Sr., W. McIlroy and John Crane, of Peterborough, and by Bros. P. Wilson and H. Brumwell, of Lindsay, and a flute solo by Bro. Morton, of Lindsay, was given.

Mr. McNulty Selected As Liberal Standard Bearer

Norwood, March 25.—(Special.)—By large odds the largest political convention ever held in East Peterborough, to nominate a candidate was the Liberal Convention in the Town Hall here this afternoon. After resolutions endorsing the Provincial and Dominion leaders' courses had been passed it was decided on motion to postpone the nomination for the Dominion and confine the work of the convention to select a candidate for the local Legislature.

After several nominations were made they all retired except Mr. C. G. Darling, Reeve of Dummer, and Mr. P. McNulty, ex-Warden of the county. The first ballot resulted as follows:

C. J. Darling—46.
P. McNulty—114.

Mr. Darling at once moved that Mr. McNulty's nomination be made unanimous, which was done amidst much enthusiasm. Mr. McNulty then addressed the meeting, accepting the nomination and Mr. Inwood, Secretary of the Provincial Reform Association of Ontario, also gave an address.

ANOTHER GENTLE GERRYMANDER.

Another gentle little Gerrymander. According to the announcement of Mr. Whitney, made yesterday, the Township of South Monaghan is to be detached from West Peterborough for Provincial election purposes and transferred to West Northumberland. At the present time South Monaghan is in Durham for school and municipal purposes and in Northumberland for judicial purposes, and has been in Peterborough for electoral purposes. Commercially South Monaghan is, and should remain identified with Peterborough. With the new bridge constructed at Bensfort a few years ago, to which the township, County of Peterborough and Provincial Government all contributed, South Monaghan is within easy access of Peterborough. This is what the township deserved and what it got. Owing to the intervention of Rice Lake, it will take Cobourg three hours to reach South Monaghan, while the township is within an hour of Peterborough. Now, because it is considered a Conservative township, it is to be dumped into Northumberland to injure Mr. Sam Clarke, while the Conservatives can afford, from a party point of view, to be deprived of its support. Mr. Whitney, by the proposed little Gerrymander, is handicapping Mr. Sam Clarke with an adverse majority, and handicapping the East Riding Liberals by adding a Conservative majority, as represented by Lakefield.

CANADA'S GOLDEN AGE.

The Montreal Herald summarises the financial history of Canada since 1867, as follows:

Confederation will be forty years old next first of July. Do you know how much yearly revenue the Fathers of Confederation had to deal with in the first year of their experiment? Less—three million dollars less—than the surplus Mr. Fielding was able to declare after carrying on the Government for these nine months with which the blue book deals. The Fathers of Confederation had to worry through their first year with $13,687,000. They couldn't manage it, quite. It cost them $13,486,000 to keep things going, and then they took a chance on the future and went in debt $520,000 so as to do some needed work on the Intercolonial, on the canals, and on public works.

In fact, it is rank injustice to the memory of this gallant band to say, as at first sight the blue book seems to say, that they had over thirteen millions to work their will upon. They hadn't anything like that—or rather, they had it and they didn't have it, for very nearly all of it was already spent before they got it. They had to pay interest on the public debt, couldn't get out of it, and that took just under five millions. They had to hand over certain subsidies to the Provincial Legislatures, and that took two and three-quarter millions. They had to set aside a sinking fund for the repayment of debts, and that took a third of a million. Here were eight millions gone out of the thirteen and a half. The collection of the revenue cost just under another two millions. That paid for, the Fathers of Confederation had at their disposal for all purposes, for the administration of justice, for the promotion of agriculture, for civil government, for the protection of the fisheries, for immigration, for legislation, for lighthouses and coast service, for mail subsidies, for militia and defence, for penitentiaries, for public works, for railways, and for the general development of the magnificent territory they had undertaken to govern, for all that, $3,687,000. In the year 1906 we spent $4,204,124 on militia and defence alone. The most they could spare for public works in the first year was $126,269. In 1906 we spent on that service $7,484,000. Perhaps these figures will serve to illustrate how great the growth has been, how remarkable the progress has been.

The rate of progress has not, however, been uniform during all this period. The next convenient landmark in our history is that set by the election of Sir John Macdonald in 1878. At that time, after providing the interest, the subsidies, the sinking fund, and collecting the revenue, the Government of the day dared to spend $6,542,000 on the ordinary management of the country. Unfortunately, they didn't get in that much, not by $1,128,000. Poor as they were, they were going ahead with the work of development, and after they had spent all their money, and a million more, they borrowed still another six and a half millions to build railways and dig canals. They had five and a half millions to work upon, and they dared to spend thirteen. This, be it remembered, was going on, with some variations in amount, year after year. They greatly dared when they spent thirteen millions, they stretched Canada's credit almost to the breaking point, and even then they spent less than Mr. Fielding had left over in 1903, in 1904, or in the nine months of 1906. Canada was struggling hard at the task of nation building, but it was uphill work.

We come next to the year 1886, when Sir John Macdonald was building the Canadian Pacific Railway. Progress had undoubtedly been made, the gross revenue, which was thirteen millions at Confederation, and twenty-two millions when Sir John came to power in 1878, was now thirty-three millions. But of how much of it was he master? Ten and a half millions of it had to go for debt charges; four millions to the Provinces; a million and a half to the sinking fund; eight millions it cost to collect the revenue. Sir John had to carry on the Government, and it cost him fifteen millions that year, but he had only ten millions to do it with. Three millions of that year's expense might fairly be charged up to the Northwest rebellion, but even then Sir John would have been two millions short, out of the modest twelve that he required. And while he was thus paying twelve millions of current expenses with ten millions of current revenue, what was he doing besides? Building the C. P. R., and going into debt fourteen, twenty-four, thirteen, ten million dollars a year over and above. It was magnificent, but is it any wonder that Canada's credit ran low? Is it any wonder that the whole splendid undertaking was on the verge of failure, and was only saved from it by Sir Charles Tupper's desperate determination when he drove about London in a cab and fairly bulldozed the financial magnates of the capital of the Empire into providing the money that was needed to stave off disaster? Confederation was nearly twenty years old, and yet the really available margin of revenue which stood for all government and all development had grown only from three and a half millions in 1868, to five and a half millions in 1878, and ten millions in 1886. On the strength of that growth of ten millions, which was two millions short of being enough for ordinary needs, Sir John Macdonald dared to build the Canadian Pacific. Let us not forget that when faint hearts tremble at the magnitude of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

By 1896, in which year the long period of Conservative administration came to an end, the gross revenue had grown to thirty-six and a half millions, the charges for debt and subsidies were seventeen millions, the expense of collecting the revenue was nine millions. They spent, that year, on ordinary account, $10,616,000, and they had not enough on hand to do it with by $330,000. What they spent, over and above this, on capital account, made up an even four millions. For ten years or so before this time, plans for the improvement of the harbour of Montreal were all ready. We have here the simple explanation of why the work was not gone on with. And what was true of Montreal was true of a thousand other works of varying degrees of importance, that have since been attended to.

From 1868 to 1896 we spent on capital account 204 millions of dollars. In the same period we increased the net debt by 182 millions. The country was governed on the hand-to-mouth principle, and every effort at development was made with borrowed money.

This was the state of things when Mr. Kipling first paid us the honour of a visit. Mr. Foster, like the immortal Micawber, was struggling along with an income just under his modest expenditure of twelve millions. Now Mr. Fielding (we take the figures of 1906, which are still not so remarkable as those we are to get for 1908) spending thirty millions, and having forty-two millions with which to do it. And in the meantime, up to this date a year ago, we have spent 89 millions upon capital account, and added only five millions to the debt. If Canada's credit was safe against assault in 1886, what is to be said of it now?

When Mr. Fielding said in the course of his budget speech the other day that the present is a time for caution, he spoke of the things which all men know from the experience of recent months—of the money stringency, of the effects of crop failure, of the apparently diminishing demand for commodities, of the halt that has had to be called by the reason of the demand for capital having overtaken the supply. When, however, he said that the present is a time for courage, he doubtless had in mind this vastly improved condition on the financial ability of the country, as compared with other critical periods of its history. Defer, for the present, said Mr. Fielding, all other projects calling for heavy expenditure, but push on the construction of the new Transcontinental railway with courage and determination. If the Fathers of Confederation, with three and a half millions of disposable revenue, could cheerfully undertake the construction of the Intercolonial; if Sir John Macdonald, with ten millions of disposable revenue, could undertake and carry through the construction of the Canadian Pacific; with how much more confidence can Sir Wilfrid Laurier, relying upon a disposable revenue of forty to fifty millions, go on with the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

PE-RU-NA CHEERFULLY RECOMMENDED FOR COLDS AND CATARRH.

A Prominent Canadian Gives His Experience With the World-Famous Remedy For Catarrh.

Chronic Catarrh Always Begins With An Ordinary Cold.

So Says Dr. Hartman, the Greatest Living Authority On Catarrhal Diseases.

This gives rise to a discharge, or at least a stuffiness of the nasal passages.

Sometimes fever accompanies the first attack, also a feeling of languor, dullness and aching of the bones.

If no attention is paid to it, the mucous congestion is liable to spread down into the larynx, producing hoarseness and into the bronchial tubes, producing a cough.

Even when this occurs, many people pay no attention to it.

Under such circumstances, the congestion is liable to become chronic, producing a condition of the mucous membranes known as catarrh. Catarrh lasts an indefinite time. Catarrh is essentially a chronic condition and does not leave except something is done to relieve it.

CURE COLDS—PREVENT CATARRH.

What should be done when a person catches cold is to take a few doses of Peruna.

But, even in cases where the cold has been neglected and hoarseness or a cough has developed, Peruna can be relied upon to give prompt and permanent relief.

The frequency of coughs and colds in the winter makes Peruna a popular remedy for those ailments.

A number of the best people of various countries have given testimonials as to the value of Peruna in such cases.

Followed Dr. Hartman's Advice—Restored to Health.

Mrs. Samuelle Vigneau, Avre an Berd, Isle de La Magdaline, Canada, writes:

"I write to tell you that I am perfectly well. I took only three bottles of your Peruna according to your advice and the directions in your book and it restored my health."

C. H. Parker, Ex-Warden of Compton Co., Quebec, has been mayor of Scotstown for a number of years. He is an influential resident in Scotstown and widely known.

He writes concerning Peruna. Read his letter below:

C. H. PARKER.

"I had several attacks of colds from time to time and finally a severe attack developed into catarrh.

"I was advised to use your celebrated catarrh remedy, and after taking three bottles I find myself completely cured, and I no longer suffer from catarrh or colds.

"I can cheerfully recommend Peruna for colds and catarrh."

If Peruna had no other medicinal value than the promptness with which it relieves common colds, it would be well worth while for any family to keep it in the house constantly.

FORGER SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS

by my promise to make restitution in a certain time set by your Worship, and, in the event of not fulfilling my promise, to then come before you for sentence? When I find employment, to inform the police of that place.

Your humble servant,
GEORGE SHEPHERD.

Two Years in Penitentiary

"You have scholarship enough to earn an honest living," said his Worship, after reading the letter. "When you ask for leniency you forget that the police of Brockville, Cobourg, Napanee and Gananoque want you on the same charges. Therefore your letter does not state the truth. It is a charge for which, a few years ago you would have been hanged for. You are a menace to the commercial population and you have used your measure of education to make yourself an outlaw. You state that you have the morphine habit and I know of no better cure than to send you where the drug will not be within your reach. The sentence of the court is that you be sent to the Kingston Penitentiary for two years.

Shepherd turned white when he heard the sentence and fell down on the bench and cried bitterly.

Tried to Stab Himself

He suddenly braced up and looking about the court quietly unbid the buttons of his coat and vest. He took this tie pin from his tie and began to strike himself with it. The police were startled by the thumping on his chest and took hold of his arms and held them. The tie pin was taken away from him at once. It was solid gold and about two and a half inches in length. The prisoner had made several wounds on his chest, but did not bleed a great deal. Dr. Leach was sent for by the police but the wounds did not prove to be serious.

When the incident happened the crowd in court leaped over the benches to stop the prisoner from doing away with himself. The prisoner aimed away when the police caught him by the arms, but soon came round again.

Not a Bright Past

Shepherd has had a past that is not altogether bright. He went to Cobourg two years ago and the Chief of Police secured him a position as porter in a hotel. He got married to a young girl, and then he began to drink. Trouble then began between he and his wife, and one night he broke all the breakable furniture in the house. He was arrested and allowed to go on suspended sentence. His wife has had to work and keep herself ever since her marriage.

In Trenton a short time ago Shepherd passed as George Bromley and forged a cheque, which he cashed in the Molsons Bank.

Attempted Suicide

It has been learned to-day that Shepherd tried to do away with himself at the jail last night, by something the same method as he tried this morning in the police court. At the jail he covered the same pin with tobacco juice and began to stab himself with it. He was discovered and prevented from doing any more harm to himself. Dr. McCullough was called and he was of the opinion that blood poison might set in.

SPORTING NEWS AND VIEWS.....

The Hamilton Herald pays the following tribute to Ben Howard, who sprang into the limelight in the sporting world in Hamilton last year:

Ben Howard, the account of whose sad death appears in another column, was well known in this city. Howard became prominent here last summer when he won the five-mile race at the Irish-Canadian games at Britannia Park. Howard was not known as a runner until that time, and as he had some hard men to beat he was never considered to be a contender before the race started. From the start it could be seen that he was a runner of class, and the way he dogged Percy Sellen, who held the Canadian record for the distance, made the people sit up and take notice. He took Sellen's pace until the final lap, when he shot to the front and won by a matter of few feet, after one of the most exciting finishes ever seen on a cinder track. It was about the only good race Howard ever won. He did not start in the Herald race last fall, but ran in the Peterborough Examiner's four-mile race, finishing second to Wilson, after a desperate effort to outspring him. Wilson won by only a few feet. Howard was a good type of an athlete, and according to his friends was an easy man to handle, as he did not touch firewater or stray from the path which makes an athlete.

Conditions Necessary Concerning The Contest

How the Bible Study Questions Must be Answered—Where to Send the Letters.

GREAT INTEREST IS TAKEN

The fact that there will be published in the Examiner each week the series of questions on the Sunday School lessons, is arousing considerable interest and there will no doubt be many who will enter the contest mentioned in yesterday's issue. It is open to any who desire to compete for the prizes the first two of which are medals.

A trial has been made in other cities to determine just how these questions will be considered by readers and according to authentic reports they are read and answered by members of all creeds.

There are a number of conditions governing the contest which are as follows:—

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to the Examiner, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in this Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Sunday, April 5, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper by April 19th, 1909, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, size about 8 1-2 inches by 11 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, so it can be identified, given a number, registered and then the name cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based.

6. The questions from this Local Club must be delivered to the Examiner office and they will be collated at the close of the contest, and forwarded to the head quarters of the International Newspaper Bible Study Club for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, and those won by members of this Local Club will be given out from this office.

In to-morrow's issue the prizes will be described and other information regarding the contest given.

SUN CLEAR OF SPOTS TO-DAY

Minimum Sun Spot Period Reached—A Rare Occurrence.

In speaking to the Examiner today, Rev. Dr. Marsh, President of the Royal Astronomical Society of Peterborough, stated that the sun was absolutely clear of sun spots. We are now approaching the minimum sun spot period, during which time there are no spots on it. Every eleven years the maximum and minimum sun spot periods are reached, but during the former the sun is, of course, never completely covered.

PETERBOROUGH CONVALESCENTS NEED VINOL

It Hastens Recovery by Creating Strength

"There is just one thing the matter with a person who has been sick —that is, weakness.

"To all such people in Peterborough we recommend our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, as the very best strength creator we have ever sold on our store.

"Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates an appetite, promotes sound sleep, makes rich, red blood, and builds up a depleted system to health and vigour.

"This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods livers, with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

"We return money to those who try Vinol and receive no benefit." McDermid & Jury, Druggists, also the Market Drug Store, Peterborough.

CHIMNEY BLAZE IN EAST CITY

About 10 o'clock Last Night—The Fire Brigade Soon Responded.

A considerable amount of excitement was caused in East City last night by the visit of the fire brigade to that vicinity. About ten o'clock the chimney of Mr. A. Barnardo Boys Arrive At Montreal For Canada Farms

Are Bound for Branch Homes in Peterborough and Toronto—In Charge of Mr. A. B. Owen.

BEHAVE WELL ON BOARD

Montreal, March 25. —(Special.)— Three hundred and twenty rollicking, yelling, spirited and healthy young English lads composed the majority of the passengers of a crowded special train which passed through here over the Grand Trunk Railway bound for New Ontario and the West. The boys are all from the Barnardo Home in London, and are bound for the branch homes in Toronto and Peterborough, whence they will be distributed amongst the farmers and ranchers of the country to be brought up as good Canadians and respectable citizens.

The youngsters came over in the steerage of the Dominion line steamship Dominion, in charge of Mr. A. B. Owen, of the Barnardo Homes, of Canada, and arrived safe and sound at Halifax on Saturday last. From there they were shipped along by rail, in a special train containing immigrants of more advanced age, and coming from almost every country in Europe, and all of whom were bound for the West. While Galicians and Berchovinians stolidly smoked their long pipes and philosophically viewed the outlook from the Bonaventure station platform, the boys raced and chased about in the dirty snow of the freight yards, having the time of their young lives and causing all sorts of grey hairs to crop up in the head of Mr. Owen.

Mr. Owen says that, on the whole, the boys behaved themselves aboard ship and on the train very well. During the year he expects to bring out about twelve hundred children altogether, some of them being girls. The demand for these small slum youngsters, most of them brought up in the gutter, is, according to Mr. Owen, far greater than the supply amongst the farmers and ranchers of the West, and he feels that there will be absolutely no trouble in placing all that the society sends out.

Prominent In Insurance And In The Literary World

Death of Mr. J. T. Patterson at Allentown—Has Sister and Brother in Peterborough.

AUTHORITY ON INSURANCE

The news of the death in Allentown, Pa., of Mr. J. T. Patterson, brother of Mrs. A. W. Patterson, 358 Stewart street, and Mr. Thos. Patterson, real estate agent, Simcoe street, will be received in Peterborough with great regret. Mr. Patterson has had a prominent career in the insurance world. He lectured some years ago in Toronto to the I. O. F., on which occasion several Peterborough gentlemen were present. He visited here about four years ago. The Allentown Morning Call, in referring to his death, says:

J. Thompson Patterson, an insurance actuary of international reputation and the free lance writer whose works and writings in the insurance journal, "The Counsellor," led to the sensational insurance investigations in New York state, died in this city very suddenly last evening after a short illness.

Mr. Patterson had been a resident of this city since last March when, in a search for health, he came into this section and became identified with a new insurance project then forming in this city and now known as the National Alliance. Here he found conditions that gave him hope of prolonging his life more years than he had hoped for and he determined to remain here. In December, however, he had another severe spell of his old illness, stomach troubles and though he recovered he had a relapse on Tuesday last. Rooming in the Y. M. C. A. dormitories, and being well known to the young men who frequent this place, he was visited by many. Last evening several came in to see him. When they enquired how he was feeling he replied that he was feeling fine and asked one of them to get him a drink of water. As the boy went to perform the errand, Mr. Patterson, without another word fell dead.

Mr. Patterson was born of Scottish parentage in Canada about fifty-seven years ago. He was educated for the Presbyterian ministry, and up to twenty years ago served in that profession in Canada. His voice failing him and having a natural taste for mathematical studies he took up actuarial work and entered the insurance business. Later he went to England, where he was engaged in insurance brokerage and later came to America and followed actuarial work in New York and other large cities. He was in the constant employ of prominent insurance companies and was called into consultation on many important problems that arose in the leading concerns in the three countries in which he did business. For ten years he lived in New York city the last two of which he ventured into insurance journalism, becoming the editor of "The Counsellor," a decided-ly free lance publication. His expose of the business methods of New York insurance companies led to their prosecution of him for criminal libel and the attention of the state and nation was attracted to the man who battled the powerful corporations and their officials. By every means possible they attempted to rid themselves of the shrewd Scotchman who had put them up a tree. The whole matter resulted in the sensational insurance scandals that resulted in the revision of the insurance laws in nearly every state in the union. In connection with the investigation Mr. Patterson was summoned to Albany to aid as an expert in the work of investigation. In recognition of his work, Charles Hughes, now governor of the State of New York, and the chief prosecutor of the investigation, sent Mr. Patterson a bound edition of the proceedings in full.

In March of last year Mr. Patterson came to this city and outlined the plans upon which the National Alliance was founded and of which Captain Charles Spangler became the first president and Mr. Patterson the actuary and general manager. The order now has more than 800 members in nine different branches. Mr. Patterson paid close personal attention to the work and only on Monday last visited Bath in the interest of the company.

The man's demise was undoubtedly hastened by the extraordinary grief that has come upon him within the past eight months. In July a son, a talented artist, died rather suddenly in New York. Within a month Mr. Patterson's wife followed.

There survive a son, living in New York, one sister, living in Canada, a brother in Peterborough, Canada, and Rev. Dr. Patterson, another brother, living in Quebec.

Farmer's Wife Sells Cow While Husband Is Absent

Wife Will Probably Hear About Her Poor Bargain on His Return—The Nature of the Affair.

BUYER GETS A BARGAIN

An Otonabee farmer has two cows, one of which is worth about ten dollars more than the other. Not long ago a buyer asked him what he would take for them, and he answered that seventy dollars would buy the two. Yesterday the husband was visiting in Allandale, and his wife was left in charge of the farm. During the day another cattle buyer entered the yard and asked if there were any cattle for sale. The wife said yes, and showed the man the two cows, saying her husband wanted seventy dollars for them. It was very plain to anyone acquainted with farm stock that one of the cows was more valuable than the other. After a little dickering, the buyer said he supposed $35 would buy either, and the woman replied quite innocently that she supposed it would be all right.

The buyer did not want to appear too eager, and inspected the cows again before he finally decided to take the better one. He paid two dollars down to seal the bargain, and went away, leaving the cow, to call for it later on.

"Wait till the husband comes home," the man who related this story said; "that woman will receive a few elementary lessons in finance, ing which she will remember, and I would not be surprised if the husband contests the sale."

HERE FRIDAY WITH A BIG MATCHLESS COMPANY

Scenery and Costumes of the Utmost Splendor.

What must be regarded as one of the very greatest amusement events of the season will occur at the Grand next Friday when the famous musical comedy success, "Coming Thro' the Rye," will be presented. It will be given by a great company of comedians, singers and dancers, headed by George E. Mack, whose performance in this piece has placed him solidly in the front ranks of American's foremost comedians. "Coming Thro' the Rye" toured the United States last season, and it made a good record of success and attendance everywhere which has never been equalled by any musical comedy. "Coming Thro' the Rye" was written by George M. Hobart, a distinguished humourist, and the music was composed by A. Baldwin Sloane, who has more successes of this sort to his credit than any writer of musical comedy scores who has come forward in this country in many years. The comedy element of this piece is said to keep an audience screaming with laughter from beginning to finish, except when relief is afforded by some unusually striking and effective musical number. If this production is greeted in this city as it has been elsewhere, it will be witnessed by as many people as can get within the four walls of the theatre.

If the child is restless at night, has coated tongue, sallow complexion, a dose of Miller's Worm Powders is what is required; pleasant, harmless. For sale by J. D. Tully, druggist, Peterborough.

"O! MY POOR HEAD"

Stop Those Headaches.

Headache and neuralgia are pronounced signs of blood poisoning. This poisoning of the blood comes from the waste matter of the body being left in the system, instead of being regularly carried off by the bowels, kidneys and skin.

When the bowels do not move regularly, the refuse is absorbed by the blood. Thus, the blood is loaded with foul poisons which irritate the nerves.

Poor skin action also causes headache and neuralgia. Impurities cannot escape through the skin, so the blood must take them up and deposit them on the nerves.

If the bowels and skin are not ridding the system of waste, the kidneys try to do so and are overworked.

There is just one way to cure headaches and neuralgia—to regulate bowels, kidneys and skin so that all the poisons of the body will be properly carried off.

"Fruit-a-tives" keep blood pure and rich—relieve the stomach and kidneys—regulate the bowels; and invigorate the skin to healthy action. "Fruit-a-tives" are a wonderful discovery, being a combination of fruit juices and tonics. 50c a box—six for $2.50. At all dealers, or from "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa.

St. Patrick's Day Concert In Ennismore Was Great Success

Audience of Over 500 People Saw The Presentation of "Arrah Na-Pogue" Last Week---Splendid Production of Boucicault's Drama Was Given.

GOOD MUSICAL PROGRAMME

Examiner Special

The St. Patrick's Day concert in Ennismore was a decided success, and the general opinion is, that the young people of the township surpassed all former efforts to amuse the public. The attendance was certainly larger, more orderly and appreciative than in former years. Fully five hundred eager listeners followed closely the stirring Irish drama, "Arrah-Na-Pogue," or "The Wicklow Wedding," which has given to the author, Boucicault, such an exalted place in the minds and hearts of the Irish people. This is by far the most correct interpretation of the Irish character, which the author has given us, and with the single exception of Shaun Rhue, which has made the name of Joe Murphy famous as an Irish actor, we know of no other drama which portrays in such varied colour, the strength and weakness of the Irish character.

The mixture of mirth and sadness, sunshine and gloom, patience under injustice, and the supreme contempt for the informer, spy or coward, which runs all through the play, makes the faithful interpretation of it, all the more difficult.

The following is the cast of characters:—

Col. O'Grady—Frank Scollard.
Beamish McCoul—John A O'Donoghue
Major Coffin—Jas. Mahoney.
The Irish Secretary—P J Scollard.
Sergeant—Frank Creugh.
Michael Feeny, spy—Jas Carroll.
Winterbottom, a valet — Austin Doran.
Shaun, the Post—Peter Galvin.
Dinny Farrel, Andy Regan, Lanigan, Peasants—Joe O'Reilly, Vincent Killen, John O'Connor.
Arrah-Na-Pogue—Miss Lottie Scollard.
Fanny Powers—Miss Agnes Scollard.
Soldiers—Joe O'Connor, Dan Twomey, Joe English, Frank Mulvaney.

The following is the programme in full:

Orchestra, under J K Galvin—The Irish Airs.
Song, "Three Leaves of Shamrock"—Loretta Kennedy.
Song—C Telford.
Banjo selection—J K Galvin.
First act of Drama.
Orchestra—English Airs.
Song—Eliza Flood.
Song—Lizzie Sullivan.
Second Act of Drama.
Orchestra—Scotch Airs.
Song—C Telford.
Song—Miss Tuesa Guiry.
Banjo selection—J K Galvin.
Third Act of Drama.

The play was followed by an able address by Rev. P J McGuire, on "Ireland," which drew forth rounds of applause from the large audience.

After a few remarks by the pastor, Rev. M F Fitzpatrick, in which he thanked all those who had assisted in making their St. Patrick's concert such an unqualified success, the evening's entertainment was brought to a close by the actors singing "God Save the King."

The best proof of the success of the play is that requests have come in from all sides, to have it reproduced immediately after Easter, and in all probability these requests will be complied with, if not at Easter, at least in the near future.

WAS DISORDERLY IN A RESTAURANT

Spilled His Tea and the Pickles Over the Table—Would Not Pay for The Meal.

THREE DRUNKS IN COURT

"John Anderson, you are charged with having been found drunk in a public place, on the 24th. Are you guilty or not guilty?"

Anderson was not sure about the date but pleaded guilty.

"Fine $2.00," said His Worship.

Anderson went down into his pockets and pulled out a handful of bills of all denominations and paid his fine.

John Simpson, a well dressed youth, who seemed to dislike the surroundings was also charged with being drunk. He pleaded guilty and also paid a fine of $2.00. He too, was very well supplied with greenbacks.

The last man on the ticket, Chas. Hailey, was charged with being drunk and disorderly in a public place and pleaded not guilty.

A young man who works at Fowler's restaurant said that Hailey came in to have a supper last night. He spilled the tea and a bottle of pickles over the table. The witness demanded 25c for damages and a like amount for the supper. Hailey refused to pay and began to raise a row. He then telephoned for the police and the disturber was arrested.

Hailey did not deny the statements but said he was drunk. His Worship fined him $3.00 to be paid forthwith. The prisoner, who comes from Havelock had only enough to pay for the meal so he went below.

EARNEST ADDRESS BY REV. MR. POGUE

Special Services at St. Paul's Church are Being Largely Attended.

A PRACTICAL SERMON

Rev. Mr. Pogue preached a powerful sermon at St. Paul's church last night in connection with the special services which are being conducted this week. The congregation was an unusually large one and the whole tenor of the meeting was one of zeal and earnestness. Rev. Mr. Pogue's address was practical in all its points. His text dealt with the wounds which Christ had received in the piercng of His hands, His feet and His side. Rev. Mr. Pogue said that the people of to-day constantly wound Jesus afresh. When His Gospel is preached men turn but a deaf ear and thus repeat the actions of those of the olden days. Men do not realize that to reject Jesus and to continue in sin is as grievous a wound as any which He received in his life.

Mr. Pogue described impressively the unnatural sin of rejecting God in spite of His continued appeal to come to Him. An even worse crime is that of treating His message with indifference. Men attend church but take no active part in the services and leave the edifice totally indifferent to the word which has been spoken. Some of us, Rev. Mr. Pogue said, would not treat our dog as we treat Jesus. The dog is cared for, taken out of the cold and treated kindly, but Jesus waits at our hearts, waiting and pleading but is not even recognized. This is the most cruel hurt of all.

And then the speaker dealt with other means by which Christ is treated. The world is accepted before Him and His appeal seems hopeless it goes so long unanswered.

In conclusion Rev. Mr. Pogue urged people to put their trust in the Divine Power, to receive Him into their hearts and to remain dutiful and faithful in all their relations with Him.

Several appropriate hymns effectively rendered by Miss Helen Davies added appreciatively to the service.

FRED WHITCROFT ADVOCATES PRO. HOCKEY IN PETERBORO'

The sporting editor of the Examiner has received the following letter from Fred Whitcroft, manager and captain of the Edmonton professionals, which will be read with interest here:

Just a few lines to let you know we are all through for the season.

We trimmed Portage la Prairie here last week. On Monday we won a hard game on ice covered with water by the score of 5-4. On Wednesday the ice was in fairly good shape and we won by 8-3. Portage wanted the third game with six men a side, claiming the ice was too small for seven men to work on, so we played six a side, three forwards and three defence, and we won by 11-6.

We have won all our league games but one, and have about 20 wins and two loss a this season.

We will go East next autumn after the Cup, and I think we have a fine chance to lift it. We have the best team in the West.

The people here like their team very much, and are certainly loyal to them. I have a fine chance to strengthen our team to make it complete before the autumn.

Jack Miller from Norwood is on our right wing and has developed into one of the finest hockey players I have ever seen. When I first worked him out the people thought I had a lemon, but now he is a big favourite here.

"Bill" Crowley is playing fifty per cent. better than he did in the East. He is handling his stick grandly and his shooting is fine.

We have a fine set of officers up here, and break about even on the season. Our gates were fairly good on an average. It cost us $800 to bring Portage la Prairie here.

All the towns made a little money this winter, and they are not half as big as Peterborough, nor is the enthusiasm as great as it is back home when they have a team to support. I think you should have a professional team there. It would be a money-maker, and the people would always get a good run for their money. When a "pro." game is on, all the people would forget what an amateur game meant.

With regards to all the boys.

FRED J. WHITCROFT,
Mgr., E. H. C.

FRED WHITCROFT,
Manager of Edmonton Hockey Team, who, in a letter, advocates Pro. Team for Peterborough.

Y.M.C.A. HARRIERS MADE THEIR PLANS FOR THE COMING SEASON

At a largely attended meeting of the executive of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers Club in the Y. M. C. A. last night, arrangements were made for what promises to be a most successful season. The prospects before the club are of the brightest nature, and the blue and white of the Harriers should be carried home to many a victory during the coming season.

The following very satisfactory report was read from Treasurer C. G. Graham:

Receipts—

Cash on hand, Nov. 1, 1907	3 25
Membership tickets	11 00
Donation, H. R. H. Konner	5 00
Club meet, Dec. 3, 1907	313 65
	$332 90

Payments—

Training expenses	10 00
Printing tickets	2 50
Files, Sec.-Treas.	1 50
Expenses, meet	232 83
Rink rental, meet	17 05
Balance in bank	34 05
	$332 90

The question of holding a meet this spring was discussed, and a committee composed of Messrs. R. M. Glover, E. S. Clarry and C. G. Graham was appointed to make arrangements for a meet on May 24 or some other suitable date. It is proposed to have outside athletes of prominence compete, and such an event should prove of great interest.

A committee was appointed to see the athletic members of the club in order to have them get into training as soon as possible. It was arranged to have runs on Tuesday and Friday of each week at 8.15 o'clock on the indoor track until conditions outside improved, when the runners will take to the road.

Dick Baker will be trainer of the squad again this year and expects the men to get out early and get into condition. All those who show any promise and who are in good condition by the date of the Olympic tests will be sent to Toronto to take part in the trial contests there, so it is important that the men should lose no time in beginning their training.

Junior tickets will be sold for 25 cents, while the fee for seniors will be 50 cents. Tickets may be obtained from any of the members of the executive, whose aim is to bring the membership this year up to the 250 mark.

SERVICES OF THEIR TRAINER WERE RECOGNIZED BY THE STRATHCONAS

A pleasing event took place last night at the Y. M. C. A., when the players and officers of the Strathcona Hockey Club took advantage of the occasion to show their appreciation of the services of Mr. Dick Baker, their trainer, and of Mr. Jack Thirnbeck, caretaker of the Brock street rink, both of whom are most popular with the players. Manager Metheral presided and there was a fairly large attendance of the members of the club.

Mr. Baker was presented with a purse containing $20 in gold and an address. Mr. Leonard Dobson made the presentation, while the following address was read by Secretary F. D. Craig:

Dear Dick,—Now that another hockey season is at an end, we the members of the Strathcona Hockey Club, have felt that we could not wind up the affairs of the club for the season without an expression of our appreciation of your services to our club during the year. As a trainer we have found you all that could be desired. You have been most faithful in your attendance at practises and have at all times showed a cheerful zeal and an impartiality in your work that has made you most popular with players and officers of the club alike.

While the finances of the club are not such as to leave us in a position to provide remunerations for you from that source, the members of the club have subscribed towards this token of our esteem and regard for you, which we offer with the only regret that it could not be larger. Wishing you every success.

STRATHCONA HOCKEY CLUB.

The popular trainer of the club replied in an appropriate speech, thanking the members of the Strathconas for their kind gift and words and expressed the hope that they would be together again next season.

Mr. Thirnbeck's gift consisted of a very handsome pipe in a case, the presentation being made by Mr. Clarence Wilson, goal keeper of the city league champions, while Mr. Chas. A. Barber read the following address:

Dear Jack,—The members of the Strathcona Hockey Club cannot allow the season to pass away without offering you some token of our appreciation of the many favours your have shown us during the past season. You have in a hundred ways showed your interest in our welfare by many little acts of kindness, which have not gone unnoticed by our players or officers, and for which we are most grateful. We ask you to accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value, for that necessarily is small, but as an evidence of our recognition of your many favours towards us. We hope that next winter we may be all together again, to once more enjoy such favours.

STRATHCONA HOCKEY CLUB.

"Jack" replied briefly, expressing his thanks for the handsome and unexpected gift and congratulating the Strathconas on their success in winning the city league championship.

PSYCHINE

A sweeping statement, you say. That is true, but proof of the statement is to be found everywhere.

Cured Us Both

"I used the sample bottle of PSYCHINE you sent me and find it helped me very much. My chest is much better. My wife took the grippe when she was in Ottawa. She got a large bottle, and after using it for a few days she was quite well. I took a cold and am using it and am getting alright. Again I think it one of the best tonics on the market to-day."

Psychine vs. Consumption

"I was given up 16 years ago as an incurable consumptive, by Prof. Lyman, Rush Medical College, Chicago. I suffered several years after this until I heard of PSYCHINE, and through it I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed for the past ten years. My sickness began first with catarrh of the head. I readily advise catarrh and la grippe sufferers to take PSYCHINE."
MRS. A. WELLS,

PSYCHINE is the Prescription of one of the greatest Lung Specialists the world has seen. It is the result of his own and several other prominent physicians' life study. It is a thoroughly tested remedy that is doing a great work for humanity.

PSYCHINE builds up the run-down system from whatever cause. Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, Bronchitis, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Chills, Night Sweats, Wasting Diseases, and Stomach Troubles, quickly yield to its wonderful curative power. W. T. CLARKE LATEST ENTRY Walked a Fast Mile and a Half With Two Suits of Clothing On.

And still they come. The latest entry to the walking contest is Mr. W. T. Clarke of Smith, and the list now begins to swell into a large total. Mr. Clarke says he has had no real experience in a walking race, but he feels he can make a place in the coming event. He lives about three miles out in Smith and has a three-mile tramp every morning and evening. A recent performance of Mr. Clarke's was a mile and a half in twenty minutes. This was made over a country road, and of course he was not togged in racing outfit. In fact, he was wearing a double suit, owing to the cold. He had on two shirts, two coats and two pairs of trousers. This was a good showing considering the circumstances, and while Mr. Clarke is not relying on making first place, he hopes to be well up for some of the prize money.

Trainer of Strathcona Hockey Club who was recipient of presentation last night.

THE QUAKERS DECIDE TO CANCEL TRIP

Financial Difficulties the Cause—Will Try Again for Midland Trophy.

At a meeting of the Quaker Football Club last night it was decided to cancel the decision to go to Vancouver. The boys were expecting some financial assistance in addition to what they had agreed to contribute themselves, but as they were disappointed in this they decided to remain at home.

They will, however, again enter a team in the Midland League, and will make another bid for the Examiner trophy, which they have now won two years in succession.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING PROMISED

City League Banquet to be Held Next Monday Night at Hooper's.

The arrangements for banquet given by the Peterborough City Hockey League to the Champion Strathconas have now all been completed. The committee have secured the services of Messrs. W. McIlroy, James Browne, M. Johnston, soloists; Geo. Lynch, reader, and the Mandolin Club, so that the event will be an enjoyable one to all who attend. A piano has been arranged for and music will be an important portion of the programme.

The banquet will be held next Monday night at Hooper's Grill Room and will begin at 8.30 o'clock. Any desiring tickets may secure them from the secretary at the Examiner office or Messrs. F. A. Clarke and C. G. Graham. As only a limited number have been printed those wishing to attend should secure the tickets early.

WEDDING BELLS.

PATTERSON-MOORE

A quiet, but exceedingly pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when two of Peterborough's most popular young people plighted their troth. It was the marriage of Miss Jean E Moore, daughter of Mr. C H Moore, 142 Hunter street, East, to Mr. D A Patterson, of this city. The ceremony was performed in the beautifully decorated drawing room of the bride's home by Rev. Robt. A. Pogue, pastor of St. Paul's church. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Lila Tully, the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, who gave her away, entered the room. She was prettily attired in a gown of white point d'esprit over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Eva Moore, who wore a dress of pink voile over taffeta. She carried pink roses. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Bruce Hutchison.

After the ceremony and hearty congratulations had been bestowed upon the bride and groom, a sumptuous repast was partaken of.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, testifying to the high esteem in which she is held by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left on the 4.48 C.P.R train for Toronto and Detriot, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends. Mrs. Patterson travelled in a suit of maute cloth with hat to match.

A GOOD SEND-OFF THE FIRST DAY

Messrs. Merrell & Meredith's Gigantic Sincerity Sale Starts Off at a Lively Pace.

"You can't help saving money if they giv you as good bargains as I got" exultantly exclaimed one of the crowd of male buyers at Merrill & Meredith's Sincerety sale to-day noon.

"So they must be doing as advertised," remarked his friend, who stood reading the yellow price list bills on the window.

It must have been with pleasure, as well as satisfaction, that the firm were rewarded with soo many responses to their extensive announcements of this startling sale. A clothing man has been heard to say recently that "the people must either be hard of hearing, short-sighted or indifferent to price-saving, Ousoiness was so slow." But it was quite certain that many of them were neither short-sighted nor indifferent to money-saving to-day, when Merrell & Meredith's big double header Sincerety Sale was opened out. Most every man and boy wants to buy a new outfit, or part of one, for the spring, and it's up to all who want to make their money do all its buying power to at least investigate this big stores bargains.

The popular amusement place, the Brock street rink, is closed for the season, and to-day a staff of men is at work removing the ice in order to get the rink in shape for the big walking match on April 20. The closing of the rink will be regretted by the young people of the city, to whom the winter has been a good one. There has been plenty of skating and the ice has been generally in good shape. There has been an abundance of hockey, in fact, never before have so many "scrub" games been played as during the past season.

SUSPICIONS OF FOUL PLAY CAUSE THE BODY OF W. ELGIN WEAVER, BURIED FOR FIFTEEN MONTHS, TO BE EXHUMED

Stomach Will be Sent to Toronto For Examination—Medicine May Have Been Tampered With—He Died at Apsley in Convulsions In December, 1906.

INQUEST HELD LAST NIGHT

Receipt of Anonymous Letter by Crown Attorney Leads to Investigations—Sensational Case Promised to be Ventilated—Provincial Detective Miller Here.

Exhumed from its resting place in the little cemetery at Anson, near Stirling village where it has lain for the past fifteen months, the body of W. E. Weaver was yesterday evening brought to Peterborough to undergo an investigation following the suspicion that death was not due to natural causes. It was back in the month of December 1906 that Weaver passed away. His dying hours were spent in convulsions but from what immediate cause no one has yet discovered. The remains were conveyed all the way to the Anson cemetery and laid to rest in the Weaver plot.

Nothing more was ever definitely known about the death. But recently an anonymous letter from Chandos township to Crown Attorney Wood bore testimony that some of the residents in that community had been suspicious, although for more than a year no one ventilated their reasons. The Crown Attorney informed the Attorney-General's Department of the alleged character of the case and the investigation is the result.

Previous to his death in 1906 Mr. Weaver had been ill. He was taking medicine prescribed by a medical man. The allegation now advanced is that this medicine was drugged, that the poison caused the convulsions and that death ensued. These are the alleged circumstances that will now be investigated.

His Wife Leaves

After the funeral of the dead man Mrs. Weaver left her home in the north and it is supposed she went to Rochester. There were four children in the family but these were left behind.

No more has been heard of the case by the outside public until the present time. Inspector Miller has been in this district for some days and his investigations may be beneficial. They have lead to the exhuming of the body yesterday by Mr. Belleghem and the bringing of it to Peterborough.

The Inquest

The inquest into the cause of the death was held last night at Mr. Belleghem's undertaking establishment and the following jury was empanelled: Messrs. Thos. Lytle, Robt. Mitchell, J. A. Armstrong, John Craig, John F. Thornton, George W. Powell, F. Bartlett, A. H. Wellington, John Thirnbeck, Thomas Emmerson, George Stenton, Henry R. Stewart, George Stevens. Mr. George W. Powell was appointed foreman of the jury and Coroner Grey conducted the inquest. High County Constable Cochrane, Inspector Miller, of the Provincial Government Detective Department, and Crown Attorney R. E. Wood were also present.

The remains were in a decomposed condition and did not present a pleasing aspect.

When the jury returned from examining the body Mr. Wood explained the circumstances surrounding the death which he thought were suspicious enough to warrant an investigation. The man died and nothing was said concerning the death. The friends of the man grew suspicious and rumours began to circulate. Some time ago he received an anonymous communication from that district upon the receipt of which he informed the Attorney-General's Department, Toronto. The doctor who attended Mr. Weaver wrote him stating there was no doubt as to the cause of the Man's death. Several things had transpired since the death and the present time, and the Attorney-General sent Inspector Miller to make an investigation. The internal organs will be sent to Toronto for analysis in a few days.

The inquest was then adjourned until April 8th, at 7.30 o'clock in the Council Chambers.

The Otonabee Gives Up Beaman's Body After Three Months

The body of Edward Beaman, who had been missing since the night of Tuesday, December 10, was taken from the river this morning at 10.30 o'clock at Point St. Charles, 300 or 400 yards below the C.P.R. bridge, from which he is supposed to have fallen.

A dark object floating in the eddy in the broadened part of the river just north of McDonald's mill, was noticed by several persons who chanced to look in that direction. About 9 o'clock the current caught the body again and swept it out into the lake in the boat channel. Mr. Dan Holland, one of the clerks in the McDonald office, had seen the object and had a suspicion that it might be the body of Ed. Beaman.

Gulls Followed it

This idea was somewhat substantiated by the fact that the object was the centre of attraction of a large flock of gulls. As the body had been slowly swirled in the eddy the gulls were seen on the ice hovering over it and making a rather unusual noise. Then, as it was carried out into the lake the birds followed it.

Mr. Holland told two of the employees of the mill to take a punt and find out just what the object was and thus confirm his opinion, or, at least, settle all doubts. Accordingly, Mr. Tobias Fredenburg and Mr. T. Fitzgibbons paddled after the body, which had almost reached the middle of the lake. It stopped against the ice and the men discovered that it was a man's body, and, tieing a rope around it, towed it back to Point St. Charles.

Taken From the Water

The authorities were informed of the affair, and the Dan Spence Ambulance was called. Mr. Wm. Taylor was present when the body was taken from the water, and identified it as that of Beaman. It was taken to Belleghem's undertaking establishment for preparation for burial.

The position of the body appeared to be just as it must have been when Beaman struck the water. His back was out of the water showing the black sweater which he had been wearing. His feet and hands were spread as when one walks on all fours, which position he would probably have assumed in the fall in order to save himself.

Covered With Mud

The trousers were covered with mud, suggesting that the body had been held either at the bottom of the river or in a shallow part near the shore, and the recent strong winds and rough water would likely cause it to float. His watch had stopped at two minutes to 6 o'clock, and it was just about that time when he was last seen.

The night Beaman disappeared was very dark, and a heavy, dense fog that was almost impenetrable hung over the city. Mr. Beaman left the C. P. R. station at about five minutes to 6 o'clock to walk over the bridge to the van of freight that was going west.

His Disappearance

His home is in Manvers and he was engaged in looking after the waterworks here and at Manvers for the C. P. R. His custom, therefore, was to ride to and from Peterborough on the trains. When he left the station on the evening of December 10 he was seen no more, and it was believed he had fallen from the bridge and met his death in the water. There was another opinion that there might have been foul play, and the Portsmouth shooting affray was connected with Beaman's disappearance.

Mr. Wm. Taylor, who has been making arrangements for the funeral, stated that there would likely be an inquest to-day. If it is concluded in time the body will be taken to the family home at Manvers tomorrow morning on the local. Six members of the S. O. E. Lansdowne Lodge will accompany it and return in the evening.

The late Edward Beaman was 51 years of age and was fairly well known in Peterborough. He was a member of the S.O.E. Order, in which he was insured for $1,100. He leaves a wife and several children, who live at Manvers, where the body will be interred.

Former Norwood Man Takes An Overdose Of Morphine

Death of Charles G. Carmichael Due to This Cause—A School of Science Student.

INQUEST WAS UNNECESSARY

Toronto, March 26. — (Special.) — Charles Grant Carmichael, a School of Practical Science student, died at the General Hospital this morning at half past nine from morphine poison.

Carmichael took about ten grains of the stuff late last night while at the St. Alban's Hotel, Bloor and Bathurst streets, and was found unconscious about 11 o'clock. Dr. F. W. Rolph was summoned to attend him, and as the condition of the young man was very serious, Dr. W. S. Fawns was called into consultation. Both doctors worked over him until 12 o'clock, when he was taken to the hospital in Ellis' ambulance. Dr. Rolph accompanied him to the hospital and was in constant attendance until he died.

Carmichael was 30 years of age. He graduated as an electrical engineer three years ago, and went to St. Louis. He returned to Toronto last autumn to complete his fourth year, and was looked upon as a clever student in electrical studies. Deceased had not been about the university buildings for the past few days. He had been drinking heavily, but it was not known that he had been addicted to the use of morphine. He boarded at 687 Euclid avenue, but as he travelled a great deal he had no permanent home. He was born in Norwood, Ont., and no relatives survive him. He was in comfortable circumstances, and so far as his friends are aware he had no reason to suicide.

Chief Coroner Johnston was notified of the circumstances surrounding the death, and will investigate.

He was a son of the late Rev. Carmichael, formerly of Norwood.

Hoodlums Raise Disturbance In Front Of Y.W.C.A. Building

Several Witnesses Testify as to the Character of the Row—Men Were Drunk — Gather There When the Warm Weather Comes

THEY WERE HEAVILY FINED

On Monday night several boys created a disturbance in front of the Y.W.C.A. building. The language, according to the evidence of two of the inmates of the house, was disgraceful and profane. The trouble commenced shortly after eleven o'clock and lasted until the police arrived and dispersed the crowd. The lady in court who telephoned for the police, stated that the trouble comes every year with the warm weather. Two well known men of the city who passed the crowd, gave evidence in court and corroborated the statements and one of them identified the three prisoners in the box, as being there. Two firemen also told of the disturbance and one of the men identified one of the prisoners.

P. C. Meharry, who received the telephone message, said he could hear the swearing a block away. He came upon the boys and arrested one of them.

P. C. Newhall also happened to come upon the scene and he told of catching one of the boys whom he knew and he gave his name as Peter Johnston, of Bethune street, which was false.

One of the prisoners attempted to explain to His Worship how it all happened, but finally admitted that they had been drunk and disorderly.

"Well, I will make that corner pay that you will keep away from it. I fine you each $5 to be paid forthwith, or fifteen days in jail." Only one youth had the cash so the rest went below.

WEDDING PRANKS CAUSE INJURIES

Horses Frighten at Rice and Run Away—Bride Dragged Twenty Feet.

(Walcott, N. Y., March 26.—(Special) —A quantity of rice thrown by an energetic guest at the wedding of Miss Fannie Palmer and Gifford Livingston, of Fair Haven, N. Y., held here, nearly cost the bride her life. Many friends of the pair united after the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Z. Gillard, in the usual pastime of throwing old shoes and rice at the newly wedded couple, just as they were driving away from the bride's home. The rice frightened the horses, they started to run, the carriage was overturned and the bride pinioned beneath it, was dragged twenty feet before the groom, who held on to the reins, stopped the team. The wedding trip was abandoned, and the bride, painfully bruised, is under the care of a physician.

A special meeting of Lansdowne Lodge S.O.E., will be held to-night, Thursday, at 8 o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, E. Beaman.

In connection with the finding of Edward Beaman's body this morning Mr. W. Taylor stated that the reward which the relatives of the missing man offered for information as to his whereabouts was divided between Messrs. Tobia Fredenburg and T. Fitzgibbons. These were the men who went after the body and towed it to Point St. Charles. The amount was fifty dollars.

A POOR PROPHET.

Our evening contemporary found a good deal of cheap satisfaction in contending that the Examiner was attempting to dictate to the Liberals of East Peterborough as to the manner in which they should conduct their nominating convention; and it chuckled, as loudly as could be done on paper, over the fact that the Examiner had not influence and that its "dictation" would be repulsed. Now, the Examiner, in spite of the Review, had no desire and made no attempt to dictate to East Riding Liberals. It only pointed out what was evident to any person who considered the matter, that the proper course was to only nominate at the convention the candidate for the Provincial Legislature. The same idea occurred to appealed to the Executive of the Association, and the convention very heartily endorsed the motion passed by the Executive and acted upon it.

In this the Examiner thinks the Executive and convention took the right course and, doubtless the results will justify its action. One would think that the Review had all it could do in explaining two recent Conservative conventions without "butting in" on the Liberal management of party gatherings.

EAST RIDING CONVENTION.

The Liberal Convention held at Norwood yesterday was, without doubt, the largest, most representative, most harmonious, and generally the most successful convention ever held in the riding, and an excellent candidate was nominated in the person of Mr. P. McNulty, of Asphodel, ex-warden of the county, and well known and highly respected for his sterling qualities of character. There were 161 duly chosen and regularly accredited delegates present, representing every part of the riding. Though the convention was originally called to nominate candidates for both the Dominion and Local House, the convention endorsed a resolution of the executive, deciding that, in view of the Provincial elections being imminent, and the Dominion elections more distant, only the Legislature candidate should be chosen. The spirit of the convention was excellent, and the business was carried forward promptly, and without a hitch, and with perfect harmony—in very striking contrast to recent conventions in the Conservative interest held in East and West Peterborough. Mr. McNulty was chosen by a good majority, getting, on the first ballot, 114 out of 160 votes cast, his opponent, Mr. Darling, moving the resolution to make the nomination unanimous, which was done with great enthusiasm. Mr. McNulty, in a brief speech, accepted the responsibility and pledged himself to push the contest vigourously. The candidate is a man well qualified to make a first-class representative. He has had a large and informing municipal experience, having been for years reeve of Asphodel, and for a term warden of the county. He is a man of good business and executive ability, energetic and active, and bears an unblemished character for uprightness, and is, perhaps, as square a man as could be found in the county or Province. His chances of election are excellent, notwithstanding the fact that the Redistribution Bill now before the Legislature will handicap the Liberals by adding a considerable Conservative mejority, through the inclusion of Lakefield in the East Riding for Provincial election purposes. The spirit of united action shown at the convention indicates that the East Riding will, on polling day of the next general elections, remain in the Liberal column.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Whitney Cabinet may be composed of heaven-born statesmen, but that did not prevent its spending $136,925 last year for lawyers' advice and for commissions in the attempt to discover where it was at.

The whirligig of time, remarks the Ottawa Free Press, brings its revenges to a progressive ministry. When the marine department announced its decision to aid in the cooperation of sub-marine telephony some few years ago, it was denounced as a wasteful expenditure of public money. Perhaps now that the Allan line, in company with other great steamship companies, has adopted the principle, the Conservative critics of the Laurier Government will admit that this Government knows a good thing when it sees it.

EAST RIDING LIBERAL CONVENTION VERY BEST IN HISTORY OF RIDING

Ex-Warden McOulty Receives Unanimous Nomination---Large, Enthusiastic and Harmonious Convention---Mr. Anderson's Letter of Retirement Through Illness.

The Liberal convention held in Norwood Town Hall yesterday afternoon was one of the largest, most enhtusiastic and harmonious political conventions ever held in East Peterborough for the nomination of a candidate. There was a large number of interested electors, sufficient, with the more than 160 duly selected and accredited delegates, to fill the enlarged hall. The business arrangements, made and carried out in a thoroughly straightforward and business-like way were excellent and everything passed off without a hitch, or a single incident to mar the harmony of the occasion, the result being the unanimous nomination for the Local House of Mr. P. McNulty, of Asphodel, ex-Warden.

Mr. John Lang, ex-M.P., president of the East Riding Association, occupied the chair and Dr. Robertson, secretary, was present.

Upon the platform were, Rev. Father Conway, Messrs. John Finlay, M.P., R R Hall, M.P., Hon. J R Stratton, P McNulty, C J Darling, E A Tanner, Ed Hawthorne, Jacob White, and Messrs. C O'Reilley, Wm. Matheson and Andrew Shearer, Committe on Credentials.

Mr. Anderson's Retirement

After routine, the chairman read a letter from Mr. Wm. Anderson, M.P. P., stating that owing to his long continued illness it was his intention to retire from public life at the end of the present legislative term, and thanking his constituents for the kindness shown him and the confidence placed in him.

A resolution of sympathy with Mr. Anderson and of tribute to the faithful services he had rendered East Peterborough in his representative capacity was carried unanamously by a standing vote.

Resolutions

A motion was adopted to ratify a resolution passed by the Executive Committee of the Association, providing that the nomination of a candidate for the Dominion should be deferred till after the Provincial General elections, and that the present convention only the nomination of a candidate for the Local Legislature should be made.

A resolution was also passed per-Lakefield to vote in the selection of a candidate since by the proposed manipulation of the two Peterborough ridings by the Government's redistribution bill, this village would be transferred to East Peterborough for Provincial election purposes of the next elections.

Moved by Mr. S. Armstrong, Otonabee seconded by Mr. W. Mc Graham, Lakefield That this Convention desires to place on record its recognition of the faithful manner in which Mr. John Finlay, representative of East Peterborough in the House of Commons has attended to the duties of his position. He has at all times to the extent of his ability done what he could to promote the welfare of the Riding, and this Convention of Liberals desires to place on record its appreciation of his faithfulness and fidelity to the Government and Liberal Party. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Finlay in acknowledging the hearty vote of thanks, said that during the past four years he had done the best that lay in his power for the riding—done as much, he thought, as any of his predecessors. He thought he was entitled to a second term and would again look for the nomination.

On motion of E A Tanner, and Thomas Webster, it was decided that meetings of the Association should be held hereafter alternately in Havelock and Lakefield and Keene, the next annual meeting to be held in Norwood, the next Lakefield, then in Norwood and the next at Keene.

Moved by Dr. Wilson and seconded by Mr. J. E. Roxburg, Nonwood, and resolved That this Convention of duly chosen delegates representing the Liberal Party of East Peterborough, desire to place upon record a most emphatic expression of its confidence in the great Leader of the Liberal Party in Canada, Sir Wilfred Laurier, and his Government, and to heartily endorse its policy, which, applied during the past eleven years, has been accompanied with a period of buoyant prosperity unprecedented in the history of this or perhaps any other country. This policy has resulted in the development of the resources and a strengthening of the standing of Canada, which give us a foretaste of the immense possibilities under wise and statesman-like administeration the country has enjoyed and is enjoying to-day, which the future so abundantly promises to this country, in justification of the Premier's confidence as shown by his historic declaration that the Twentieth Century belongs to Canada. With every interest of the country represented by the several departments of Government adequately administered; with every public interest strengthened; with the vital interest of transportation efficiently looked after; with immense public services performed with the minimum of addition to the public debt; with tremendous expansio of trade; with a greatly expanded importance of Canada's position, among the nations; with a hopeful outlook, it is desirable if not imperative, that the Government, the country has so flourished under in the past, should be retained in its stewardship. To this end this Convention pledges itself to use every legitimate effort and influence to strengthen the Liberal Government by returning a supporter from this riding at the next general elections.

MR. PATRICK McNULTY,
Ex-Warden, who was given the unanimous nomination of Liberals in East Peterborough yesterday.

Mr. Jacob White moved, seconded by Mr. —. Darling, the following resolution of confidence in Hon. A G MacKay, leader of the Liberal Opposition of Ontario, which was carried with hearty unanimity by a standing vote:

That this Convention representing the Liberal Party and its supporters in Peterborough records its hearty and complete confidence in Hon. A. G. MacKay, Leader of the Opposition in the Ontario Legislature, and Leader of the Liberal Party in this Province. He has shown breadth of view, a strength of policy, a personal energy, aggressiveness and industry, a keenness of political insight, and statesman-like qualities, which eminently qualify him for the satisfactory discharge of the duties of Leadership, and make him, even in Opposit , a powerful factor in influencing a better administration of Provincial affairs, and mark him as a safe, capable and effective Leader of Government, when, as cannot long be delayed, the people demand an end to the extravegance of expenditure now prevailing, which represents a waste of the resources provided by a Liberal Administration. This Convention not only expresses its confidence in Hon. Mr. MacKay, and pledges its hearty support to his leading, but also to make every effort consistent with honourable methods to send him a supporter from the East Riding in the person of the gentleman to be nominated by this Convention.

Nominations

The following names were them placed in nomination:

Mr. E A Tanner, Lakefield, by W M Graham and Thomas Webster;

Mr. C J Darling, Reeve of Dummer, by E Martin and David Barrie;

Mr. P McNulty, ex-Warden, by Wm. Oakman, Reeve of Asphodel, and Richard Walsh;

Mr. Ed. Hawthorne, by John Walsh and J P Leahy.

Mr. W T Buck, ex-Warden, by W Webster and Frederick Fry.

All the candidates having retired except Messrs. McNulty and Darling, a ballot was taken,

While the scrutineers were counting the ballots Mr. Inwood, secretary of the Provincial Reform Association briefly addressed the meeting, referring in terms of hearty eulogy to Hon. A G McKay, the Liberal leader of Ontario, and paying an eloquent tribute to the statesmanship of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He also set forth the political situation in this province and urged to hearty and united action the convention which he pronounced a splendid one.

Mr. McNulty the Choice

Mr. Charles O'Reilley on behalf of the scrutineers declared the result of the first and only ballot as follows:

McNulty 114
Darling..... 46

Mr. Darling in moving that Mr. McNulty's nomination be made unanimous, asked those who had supported him as a candidate to throw in their support to the candidate selected by the convention. The motion was passed amidst great enthusiasm.

Mr. McNulty, briefly but heartily acknowledged the great honour that had been conferred on him and he would do his best by the help of this friends to carry the riding in the interests of the Liberal party. He asked the same hearty support which he would have given to any other man who might have been selected by the convention.

Alaska-Yukon Exposition Secures Famous Leader

Innes, of the Famous Innes Band, In Charge of the Music Bureau

THE PREPARATIONS MADE

Examiner Special.

Seattle, March 25.—Mr. F. N. Innes, leader of the famous Innes Band, has been appointed director of music of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, which will be held at Seattle in 1909.

Already the committee on music, of which Mr. Joseph Collins is chairman, is arranging to secure many noted bands and other kinds of musical organizations to fill engagements at the exposition. Director of Music Innes will have charge of all the band work in connection with the management of the musical programmes, and will close contracts with the different organizations.

It is the intention of the management to have several famous bands playing engagements at the same time during the exposition. In addition there will be orchestra, organ, concert and vocal concerts. The United States Government is expected to send to the fair, from time to time, military and naval bands to give concerts in the Government buildings. Several foreign bands are now being negotiated for.

Innes' Band will play an engagement of about a month long. The band has played at all exposition held in late years.

Kokomo Woman Gives A Fortune

Receives Hundreds of Requests Daily.

In the past few years Mrs. Cora B. Miller has spent $125,000.00 in giving medical treatment to afflicted women.

Sometime ago we announced in the columns of this paper that she would send free treatment to every woman who suffered from female diseases or piles.

More than a million women have accepted this generous offer, and as Mrs. Miller is still receiving requests from thousands of women from all parts of the world, who have not yet used the remedy, she has decided to continue the offer for a while longer, at least.

This is the simple, mild and harmless preparation that has cured so many women in the privacy of their own homes after doctors and other remedies failed.

It is especially prepared for the speedy and permanent cure of leucorrhoea, or whitish discharges, ulceration, displacement or falling of the womb, profuse, scanty, or painful periods, uterine or ovarian tumors or growths; also pains in the head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness and piles from any cause, or no matter of how long standing.

Every woman sufferer, unable to find relief, who will write Mrs. Miller now, without delay, will receive by mail free of charge, a 50-cent box of this simple home remedy, also a book with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer and how they can easily cure themselves at home without the aid of a physician.

Trespasser Had To Retract His Steps From Owners Field

A pugilistic encounter in a forty-acre field was an innovation witnessed by some bystanders in North Monaghan recently. From the roadside it would appear that the trouble arose over a case of trespass. The owner attempted to prevent the pedestrian from walking over some property and the latter resented his interference. The trespasser was given 10 seconds to move his anatomy off the field, but when he had counted off that period of time on his fingers he was still present. A shoving match ensued, with neither being victorious, but by the resistance of a rod of iron the trespasser was removed.

Bell Company Has Installed 43 Phones Since September

To-day the Examiner received its new city Bell Telephone directory, which has just been published. The last directory published appeared six months ago, and since that time the company has installed 43 new phones in the city. This advance is an increase on the previous six months, so the services provided by the Bell Company in Peterborough have certainly been appreciated.

At present time there are 963 Bell phones in service in the city so that Peterborough is certainly a strong rival with Petrolford for the title, "The Telephone City."

Overflowing Hearts And Religious Awakening In St. Paul's Church

Rev. Mr. Pogue's Pre-Communion Services Increasing in Interest —Another Large Audience Last Night Stirred by the Old, Old Story.

Increasing evidences of a spiritual revival among the worshippers in St. Paul's Church was manifested last night by the large number who stood up in the congregation and "witnessed for Christ." Such spontaneity of feeling has rarely, or ever before, been manifested by the young men and young women of the congregation, or by the older members of the church. Grateful hearts rose and expressed brief testimonies audibly, while others quietly stood up without restraint and silently indicated their acceptance of Christ. The pastor was greatly encouraged by these tokens of awakening among his hearers and spoke stirring words of praise and thanksgiving for such testimonies.

Women's Meeting at 3.30

The meeting for women at 3.30 in the afternoon was well attended and was characterized by a spiritual fervour, indicating the deep interest felt by the women of St. Paul's in these services. The meeting was led by Miss Martha Dickson, who took for her theme the subject of prayer. The reading of the Scriptures and singing of specially selected hymns from the Hymnal were entered into by all in an earnest and hearty manner. Individual prayers were offered up by a number of the ladies with a readiness and intelligence seldom evidenced by the women of this city in similar public assemblies.

Mr. Pogue's Evening Address

Promptly at 8 o'clock Rev. Mr Pogue commenced the evening address by the singing of several hymns, followed with prayer by Mr. J. C. Brown, County School Inspector.

Rev. Mr. Pogue said that during these services requests are frequently made for special prayers on behalf of someone connected with the congregation. "To-night," said the pastor, "requests have come from a wife for special prayers on behalf of her sick husband, and from another wife that her husband may be turned from the evil of his ways. I want you all to join with me in my prayer on behalf of these special cases, that divine help may be vouchsafed."

After prayer Miss Davies sang an appropriate hymn in an effective manner.

Rev. Mr. Pogue read the first twenty verses of the third chapter of St. John, taking as his gospel theme the 14th verse — "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up."

"What an awful thing it is to be bitten by a serpent," were the preacher's opening words; "but it was nothing compared with the bite given by the old serpent, the devil. Some will laugh at the suggestion that sin is painful. Yes, many men who indulge in the wine cup and other excitements think it is pleasure. They become drugged so that they do not feel the bite and bitterness of sin. But there comes a time to every man when their sin biteth like the fiery reptiles and their bodies are filled with a fiery thirst."

"Everyone born of Adam has been born in sin and conceived in iniquity—all are bitten by the serpent of sin. God had commanded Moses to lift up a serpent of brass for the children of Israel, so that as many as were bitten had only to look and be saved from the poison of the serpents. And so, out of His wondrous love, God has provided a remedy for us in Jesus Christ, who has also been lifted up, so that all can look to Him for salvation. The only hope the fallen race had was Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

"How does the remedy avail for our salvation? First, Men were to believe. They had to look with faith and cry for help. But men do not believe that sin is such a deadly thing and they procrastinate, which allows the poison to permeate their whole bodies. Second, Men must believe in the remedy. But some believe, while others despise the cross of Christ. For the last 1900 years there has been healing in the cross of Jesus Christ, and how many are there who have never known what it is? Third, Men had to look. What does it mean to look? The promise was that if men would but look, and trust in Christ, they would be saved.

"There was life in a look on the crucified one."

"Bless God I am saved," said Mr. Pogue, "and I know it. Do you know it, sisters, brothers? There are procrastinators who say it is too late. For any soul out of hell to say it is too late is to make God a liar. It is none too late on God's side. Playing with sin is a terrible infatuation. Oh, do not despise His mercy or His love. He is waiting for you."

Miss Davies again sang a beautiful hymn.

Rev. Mr. Pogue said: "I would ask to-night for some witnesses for Christ to stand up. It is something unusual for me to ask this in St. Paul's church. But I only appeal for a simple, audible expression of your faith or even a silent manifestation of the work of Divine love. "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

Many in the audience were seen to rise and give expression to their feelings by short statements such as, "I trust Him as my personal Saviour." "I thank God He is my Saviour." "He is my rock." "I am looking to Christ," etc. Many silent testimonies were also given by both men and women. An invitation was also given for any who wished for further light to remain a few moments for personal intercourse with with the pastor and other Christian helpers present.

The Prizes To Be Won In The Bible Study Contest

First Five Contestants to Receive Gold Medals Suitably Engraved —Next Series of Five Obtains Silver Medals.

NUMBER OF OTHER PRIZES

In yesterday's issue the conditions necessary to compete in the Bible Study contest to be opened in the Examiner on Saturday, April 11th, were given in detail. These conditions will of course be published from time to time before the first series of questions will appear.

The contest will be one that should be entered by a large number as it will be profitable from both a religious and premium standpoint especially for the parties who win the prizes.

Those whose answers are considered the most nearly correct will obtain the following prizes:

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series — A teacher's Bible price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants.

Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a profounder knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational, or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

SHEPHERD WAS IN A CALMER STATE OF MIND THIS MORNING

George Shepherd appears to have reconsidered his decison to end his life before things take their proper course. He was in the county jail last night for the last time in two years. His actions and statements of yesterday bespoke suicide at the first opportunity, and all night he was guarded to prevent any such occurrence.

Three men took turns in watching the prisoner during the night, and this morning he was taken in charge by Mr. F. J. A. Hall, deputy sheriff, to Kingston penitentiary to begin his two-year term.

Although yesterday he was apparently was determined to end his life, this morning he was not quite so ruffled. He has decided to live, and to go obediently to his new home in the Limestone City.

Men's Association Of All Saint's Held Splendid Banquet

Rev. Canon Tucker of Toronto Was the Speaker of the Evening and Gave an Eloquent and Forcible Address ---The Laymen's Missionary Movement And Its Growth Were Explained

Two hundred men of (All Saints' congregation attended the banquet given in the school room last night, under the auspices of the Men's Association, and the result was a decidedly helpful and enjoyable evening. The feature was an eloquent and forcible address by Rev. Canon Tucker, of Toronto, who was the guest of the evening, and whose remarks were listened to with the closest attention. Short speeches were also made by Rev. Mr. Major and by members of the association, the addresses being much appreciated by the gathering. The keynote of the remarks of all the speakers was to unite the laymen in order to accomplish the work of the church, not only in Peterborough but throughout the world. Great enthusiasm was shown in the work, and the banquet will undoubtedly prove a decided stimulus in the endeavours of the members of the association in future.

Ample justice was done to the array of good things which had been provided for the occasion. The tables were tastefully arranged and the needs of those gathered around the board were looked after by the young men and a number of ladies of the congregation.

President A. Graham, who presided, extended a hearty welcome to those present. He explained that the object of the association was to interest the men in the work of the church and they would be glad to have all present on the roll. The association was formed last year with a membership of seven or eight, while now it is in the neighbourhood of forty.

Gathering for Organization

Mr. J. H. McClellan was the next speaker and congratulated the Men's Association upon the success of the banquet. It was an inspiration to look down the room and see so many adherents of the church, which was different than in the early days when there was a preponderance of women. The last ten years had belonged to the women, but if he was any judge the next ten years would belong to the men of the church. If the men remained together and did their duty All Saints' Church would be one of the largest in the city. He likened the church to a fraternal society and said that there was no reason why it should not succeed. In concluding, the speaker paid a warm tribute to Rev. Mr. Major, stating that All Saints was fortunate in having his services, and expressing the hope that his health would be such so that he would long be spared.

Mr. McClellan remarked on the fact that there was only seating capacity in the Anglican churches of the city for only about twenty-five per cent. of the English Church people of the city, and expressed the hope that something should be done along this line at once.

Early History of Church

Ald. Wm. Buller was the next speaker and gave some most interesting reminiscences of the early days of All Saints' Church, from its start in the Union Sunday school to the present building. Mr. Buller has been connected with All Saints' for years, and was therefore in a position to give authentic and interesting information about the history of the church and its great growth, and his remarks were much appreciated by th egathering.

Mr. James Edgar made a brief speech, in which he thanked the ladies for their earnest work on behalf of All Saints' Church in the past. Referring to the financial condition of the church he showed that a debt of $950 had been cleared off, while the church had acquired property to the south and west upon which to build.

Mr. G. W. Howden, after congratulating the association upon the success of the banquet, remarked that there were no better hearted people in the world than church people, but they were sometimes prone to lack sociability. If that spirit could be gotten rid of and if the right hand of fellowship were extended All Saints' would not be long in getting a new church. He thought that people should be made to feel at home in the church and be given a hearty welcome.

Rev. Canon Tucker

Rev. Canon Tucker was greeted with hearty applause when he arose to speak. In beginning he expressed his surprise at the largeness of the gathering. Church meetings as a rule were a gathering where the men were a small almost vanishing body in the back seats, while in the front was a large assemblage of ladies. In the order of nature man should hold a special place on this planet; man was the most important element in all life; he was the aggressive, constructive element of life and could do things that no woman would do or attempt to do.

"The most glorious thing in the world," remarked the speaker, "is to be a man, especially a young man, and at the beginning of the 20th century. We live more in one year than our forefathers did in ten or even twenty-five years, one hundred years ago." He would like to see himself twenty-five years younger if he could have his choice, but he would not live in any other country than Canada for there was no other land which had so much promise.

Two Ways to Look at Life

There were two ways of looking at life. One was that of the parasite, which sought everything for itself, for its own interests, to "get there." The other was that way of looking at life that went out to fellow men with a view of helping them. There was more joy in giving than receiving, and people who did not know that joy did not know life. The joy of the miser in counting his gold was nothing compared to that experienced in raising up and helping fellowmen. The great instrumentality for this was the church of God. The church stood for doing right and for assistance to the world. Its object was to train men, women and children to do right; to speak the truth. To know the right and then do it, whether your neighbours ridicule you or not. The fold of the church embraced the whole world.

As men and members of the church people were called to a world-wide mission the highest work that could be done was the work that went out and claimed men as the sons of God.

The speaker went to speak of this world-wide mission. In the earliest ages, as read in the Bible, Christ led the church. Several instances of this by quotations from the Scripture were given by Rev. Canon Tucker, who explained the spread of the Gospel led by the spirit of God. The question was asked "Does the Spirit of God lead the church to-day?" The speaker in this connection referred to the fact that one hundred years ago not a man in England would volunteer to go to the uttermost parts of the earth to preach the Gospel. The first missionaries came from Germany and there was not an English ship that would take them to their destination.

Advance Guard of Merchants

England's greatest pioneers have been the missionaries, who were the advance guard of the merchant and manufacturers. This was because they uplifted the people socially, as well as spiritually, to live better, to be clean and to be clothed.

Missionary Movement

Twenty years ago the Students' Missionary movement was organized, with the idea of enlisting the young men in the colonies and sending them out as missionaries. Objections were made because the young men had no experience, but to the surprise of everybody thousands of young men in all parts of the civilized world have gone forth to the work. Three thousand educated young men could be sent where none could be found one hundred years ago. Six years ago the Young People's Missionary movement was set on foot and went beyond the college, going to the Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies, representing the need of the people of China, India and other heathen countries. To-day there were 10,000 young people in the church in the United States and England looking forward to the work.

About eighteen months ago the Laymen's Missionary movement was formed. A layman was some times remarked the speaker, a man who said, "let the parson do it" in regard to church matters. The church existed for the laymen not for the pastor.

Rev. Canon Tucker referred to the meeting in New York, where the laymen's movement originated. Laymen should bring to the work business ability, and in the evangelization of the world they were attempting the largest proposition man ever tackled. It was to reach 1,000,000,000 people who did not know Christ. It had been calculated that one man could reach 25,000 men in a life time. At this rate it would be necessary to have 27,000 more missionaries in the field than at present, as well as the expenditure of $45,000,000 more than what is spent now. In fact two men and two dollars were needed for every one man and every one dollar in use now.

Rev. Canon Tucker reviewd at some length the progress of the movement in Toronto, showing how the churches had contributed abnormlaly large sums to the work, while at one meeting in Massey Hall, one hundred young men had offered themselves to the church as missionaries.

He closed with an earnest appeal to the members of All Saints' Men's Association to assist in the world-wide mission of the church in every means in their power.

Rev. Mr. Major

Rev. Mr. Major, rector of All Saints', spoke briefly along the same lines in beginning he paid a tribute to Rev. Canon Tucker for his most inspiring address. He said that there was danger of parochialism in connection with church work. The development of any particular church or parish should not be desired alone, but men should go beyond that and reach out to the world to do something to maintain the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

On motion of Messrs. Jas. Edgar and J. H. McClellan, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Rev. Canon Tucker for his most profitable address, after which the most successful affair was brought to a close with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Canon Tucker.

FUNERAL OF BEN HOWARD YESTERDAY

Large Number of Indians From District And Also From Chemong Present.

The remains of Ben Howard were yesterday afternoon laid to rest in the family plot at Hiawatha Cemetery on the shore of Rice Lake. A large number of friends attended, many of them being from the Chemong reserve, as the dead youth was always popular with those with whom he became acquainted.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. George Dunkley, of the Hiawatha Methodist Mission, and it was an impressive and solemn one.

Y. M. C. A. SHOULD HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM

Plenty of Material to Enter Intermediate Series of Midland League.

Association football was one of the games decided to be played in connection with the Y.M.C.A. at the meetingg of members held there some time ago. A number of the young men have already signed to play with the "Y" and it they ntend to enter a team, senior, intermediate or junior it is about time something was done. The annual meeting of the Midland League will be held on Saturday, April 4th, and there must be some decision arrived at before that time.

There will be a surplus of material here this year over that which the Quakers need and there should be no reason why the Y.M.C.A. could not enter an intermediate team in the Midland League.

YOUNG MAN FINED THIS MORNING

For Being Drunk and Disorderly on Monday Night.

The young man who was arrested on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on Monday night and remanded until to-day, appeared in the police court this morning.

P. C Meharry stated that he saw the men walking along Charlotte street and stop in front of the English Cinco factory. There they began swearing and cursing. He followed along and slipped into the lane to listen to the men. P. C. Newhall was coming east on Charlotte street from Aylmer, and when the prisoner saw him coming he said to his friends "Here comes that sweet Meharry." The officer said he then came out of the lane and seized the prisoner. He was taken to the lock-up and swore in the cells for over an hour.

P. C. Newhall corroborated the statements made by the former witness.

The defendant had three witnesses who tried to prove that he was not drunk and disorderly. It appears that each one of the witnesses had been drinking that night and none of them knew how much they had drunk.

The chief said they sung man had offered him any amount of money if he would let him out, but he told him the price was set upstairs.

His Worship fined him $2 and costs amounting to $3.75, to be paid forthwith. The fine was gathered as if by magic and handed to the prisoner who paid it to the chief.

Invalid Ladies
This Is For You.

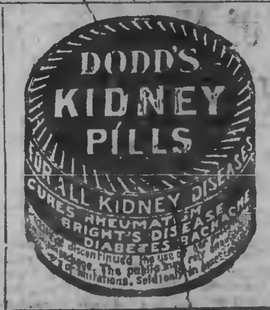
There are thousands of females who suffer untold miseries common to their sex.

This is largely due to the peculiar habits of life and fashion, and the improper training of girlhood. Then, too, the physical changes that mark the three eras of womanhood (the maiden, the wife, and the mother) have much to do with her sufferings, most of which are endured in silence, unknown by even the family physician and most intimate friends.

To all such whose hollow cheeks, pale faces, sunken eyes, feeble footsteps, indicate nervousness, palpitation of the heart, weak, faint and dizzy spells, we earnestly recommend a course of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Jos. Sharp, [illegible] Ont., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, weak spells and nervous trouble, and found no relief until advised to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got one box and that helped me so much I sent and got five more. I am now cured completely."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.



TWO MEN IN COURT FOR INTERFERING

The two men who tried to rescue John Lowry, who assaulted Dr. Gray on Monday night, were charged in the police court this morning. One of the men did not answer to his name. But they were both fined $2 for being drunk. Several witnesses testified as to the conduct of the defendants. They said they were in a restaurant when they heard Dr. Gray yell for the police. They came out and saw two men holding the doctor's arm, trying to get Lowry away.

The prisoner in court stated that he only followed the doctor to explain that the man he was taking to the lock-up was innocent.

P. C Meharry told of seeing both defendants twice during the evening in an intoxicated condition.

P. C. Newhall also testified as to the condition of the men, as he had seen them after the arrest.

"Well," said his Worship, with a smile, "interfering with the police is a penitentiary sentence, but I will fine you $2 for being drunk."

MR. KENNEDY'S WORK IN CALIFORNIA

His Sermons Have Been Very Helpful, Says the Christian Advocate.

A recent issue of the California Christian Advocate contains some complimentary remarks about Mr. H. D. Kennedy, evangelist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Kennedy, of Peterborough. The same paper contains a cut of the church in which he has been speaking. The Advocate says:

Grace Church, San Francisco, Rev. G. A. Hough, pastor.—Our special meetings of three weeks' duration closed on Friday, March 6th. We were assisted by Evangelist H. D. Kennedy and his good wife. God was with us in power from the start. The church was quickened and blessed and more than fifty persons, adults and children together, professed conversion. Rev. and Mrs. Kennedy will long be remembered and loved in Grace Church. Mr. Kennedy's sermons were all strong, original and helpful and are especially calculated to excite interest in Scriptural truth. He rightly puts the emphasis on conversion rather than upon church membership and looks for thorough results. We cordially recommend these earnest and efficient workers to the consideration of churches and pastors who desire real and safe help in evangelistic meetings.

BOYS WERE ALLOWED TO GO

Reynolds' Father Pays $50 to Compensate Two Men for Loses.

WERE GIVEN A CHANCE

The trial of the three local youths Wm. Fallon, Joseph Reynolds and Stanley McCabe, who were arrested some time ago and pleaded guilty on some time ago and pleaded guilty to charges of theft from Messrs. R. M. Roy and E. S. Clarry, culminated in the police court this morning. The boys had been allowed out on their own recognizance and were in their places this morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. R. E. Wood, who appeared for the Crown, explained that fifty dollars would not cover the loss sustained by each of those gentlemen. The nature of the thefts pointed to several cases of wanton destruction. The boathouse had not been broken into for twenty years and was difficult to enter. He urged that an example be made of these boys. They had all been in the reformatory or jail before. He advised that they be sent down this time, and if they improved the parole department would look after them. The offence was not trivial enough to demand suspended sentence, and the fact that these boys had been up before made it impossible.

Mr. Gordon, who appeared for two of the boys, made a strong plea in their behalf. He said they would become hardened criminals if sent to prison. Fallon's father was somewhere in the States, and his mother had been dead eight years, and he was practically an orphan.

His Worship thought that decent compensation to the owners of the property should be made, and put the sum at $50. Mr. J. Reynolds, father of one of the boys, paid the money.

His Worship had intended to reserve judgment until to-morrow, but allowed the three boys to go. Before they left he said to the boys, "You are not boys, but young men. You know when you stole that you were committing a crime. To get a few paltry cents you destroy thesemen's property. I am going to let you go free. I want to give you a chance to begin over again. I hope this will be the last time I will ever address you in court."

The fifty dollars was divided equally between Mr. Roy and Mr. Clarry.

LOAFERS WERE FINED THIS MORNING

$2 Each—This Should be a Warning To Others.

The police have begun an invasion on what they consider to be "hoodlums" who hang about the corners. This morning four Boys were fined $2.00 a piece to be paid in ten days on a charge of being disorderly.

P. Cs. Meharry and Newhall both testified against the boys and said they were continually hanging around the corner of Charlotte and George streets. As soon as they see the police coming they walk into one of the near-by poolrooms until the policeman passes. P. C. Meharry said he moved the boys six times in one hour on Sunday night from that corner. On Monday night the boys were cursing and swearing around the corner in question. The police moved them three times and at last P. C. Meharry made an arrest.

The boys denied the statements made by the officers and swore they were not disorderly.

The Chief explained that several complaints had been coming from that district about boys hanging around the corner.

TUBERCULOSIS CAUSED THIS DOG'S DEATH

Doctor Thinks All Said to Have Been Poisoned Are Not.

The query is raised, do all dogs said to have been poisoned meet death in that manner? Yesterday a local medical doctor held a post mortem examination on a dead canine and he discovered that it had met death from tuberculosis and not from the effects of poison. The doctor is now in a quandary to know whether all the deaths supposed to have been due to poison are really caused in that way or not.

THE COUNTY COURT GETS BUSY

Shepherd Did Not Wish to Press Case so Nominal Fine Was Imposed.

A nominal fine of ten cents and costs, amounting in all to $8.50, was imposed upon James Young, of Smith, by Magistrate Edmison this morning. A man, named Ed. Shepherd, rented a house from Young who was thus subletting it. Shepherd wanted to leave yesterday and had all his property ready to move when Young appeared with a club and prevented him from going. A warrant was sworn out and Young arrested and spent the night on the hill.

Constable Archie Moore effected the arrest.

An old man named Hay is being sought after to-day by High County Constable Cochrane. The old man is a nuisance among the farmers and refused a position from Reeve Scott to work in the House of Refuge.

Prospects For Intermediate Baseball League This Season

Last Year's Teams Will Likely be Out Again and Possibly Some New Blood—Season Will Soon Be Opened.

LEAGUE SHOULD BE STRONG

The baseball season is still several months in the future, but the fans are beginning to look forward already to the good old contests on the diamond.

The younger element is discussing the prospects of the Intermediate City League, which proved such a success and resulted in six teams competing for the championship which was finally landed by the West Ends. Just as to what will be done this year is hard to tell, and Mr. James Lang, last year's president, is beginning to think of calling a meeting of the league. The Karnots will likely have a team, and also the Strathconas. The West Ends should be represented again, as they had plenty of material last year besides the old guard. Harvey Staunton's aggregation will surely be on the job again, as the Excelsiors have been talking ball for some time. There remain the north end teams, and things have been rather quiet there. Manager Campbell of the Lillies has not said much, and the Lakeviews are also quiet, although all of last year's players will likely be in the game again.

So much for the teams of last year. With the success of the year 1907 at its back the league should spread out for new teams, which will probably be forthcoming. A rule the league adopted last year was that each team should sign a certain number of players. The purpose of this was to protect the weaker teams and to give the other clubs a chance.

The teams are now scurrying around looking up their stock, and all the eligibles are being looked after.

JIMMY REYNOLDS IN TRAINING FOR ATTEMPT ON THE TORONTO RECORD

Jimmy Reynolds, the walking barber of Port Hope, intends to go into the walking game stronger than ever this year, and says that records will be scattered in all directions before the summer is over. Jimmy's great trouble in his walks last summer was with his feet, which usually played out on him before his journey was half completed. Ever since he was defeated by David Hartley, of Peterborough last autumn he has been doctoring his feet, and says they are in good shape now, and he does not expect to be troubled with them any more.

Another Attempt

His last undertaking in the way of a long walk was from Port Hope to Toronto, on a wager that he could cover the distance, about 138 miles, in 36 hours. Jimmy lost by just 19 minutes, but is satisfied he can do better, and on June 15 he will attempt to make the journey in 33 hours for a bet of $300 against $600. He will go into regular road training as soon as the roads are in shape and says that with his feet in good condition he will be the one best bet the day he starts. If he is successful in June he will remain in training and try to establish a new record between Toronto and Hamilton, or will meet any local pedestrian in a matched race over the latter course. Although Jimmy is no yearling, he does not bar any man in his challenge.

Let Them all Come

"Had you not better bar Hartley, who beat you last autumn?" was asked. "Not much," replied Jimmy. "I will admit he has it on me in an endurance contest on a board floor, but when it comes to walking on nature's carpet I am willing to meet him for any amount he wants to name. He is a younger man than I am, but age does not figure in the dops with me. I will meet any man in a walk from Toronto to Port Hope."—Toronto News.

Moran, Crack Toronto Bowler, May Visit Peterborough Next Week

Bert Moran, of Toronto, who last week made a score of 290 on the Toronto Bowling Club alleys, thus establishing a record for Canada, has been invited to Peterborough and he will probably be along next week to give an exhibition against some of the more expert members of the Peterborough Bowling Club. When it is explained that the highest possible score is 300, it will easily be seen why Moran's score has attracted so much attention in bowling circles. Such a figure has probably never before been reached on regulation alleys in Canada and it is very seldom that American trundlers have ever accomplished such a feat.

After Mr. Moran's visit outside teams will be brought here from time to time, and it is a safe prediction that they will have to play their prettiest to beat the members of the Peterborough Bowling Club, who are one and all, showing wonderful improvement. In fact some of the best bowlers in Canada will be turned out in Peterborough before long. There are several members who have already entered the very front ranks, despite the fact that they have had only a week's work on regulation alleys.

Yesterday was a busy day at the club, and though there were no very high scores made, the day's work was interesting. A box of cigars has been donated for the member making the high single score for the week and during the evening Billy Wareham went out after the smokes, getting one score of 161, this best of the evening. Gutterson had a splendid chance to excel this performance at one stage, but ran into bad breaks on the last three frames. Boyd, McIlroy, Frost, Hemstead and George Cairns were also out after the honour, but fell a trifle short of Wareham's score.

Tommy Boyd was around after the score this morning and he was more successful, piling up 190 in his first game. This is now the figure to beat.

The walking match to be held here April 20th to 25th, is attracting attention from all parts of the province. A Brockville man is the next likely entry in the big contest, as is shown by the following letter received by Dave Hartley to-day:

Dear Sir.—Would you kindly give me all particulars regarding the walking contest, if it is amateur or professional, and also as to how many prizes there are offered.

CAME NEAR HIS OWN RECORD

Bill Wareham Did Some Great Bowling Tuesday Night.

Billy Wareham's clever trundling was the feature of an interesting night's bowling on the P.B.C. alleys Tuesday night. He rolled four games during the evening and when play ceased he had an average of 182, this high game being 218 and his lowest total 142. His work all evening was closely followed by a large gallery and considerable excitement was occasioned during his high game, as there was every prospect up to the last couple of frames that he would break the record for the alleys held by himself and established on opening night, when he lined up with the merchants against the Toronto team. He started off last night with four straight strikes and a spare, a total of 125 for four frames. The break of the game occurred on the sixth frame and three more strikes followed. A strike on the tenth would have just about landed him a new record, but unfortunately he ran into a bad split and finished 13 pins below the required figure. In the same game Cyril Giroux rolled 198. The youngster is showing constant improvement and is easily numbered amongst the best bowlers in the city.

George Cairns is another of the younger bowlers who is attracting attention at the alleys. He rolled seven games last night for an average of 162.

Clair Gutterson is rounding into form and is out after Billy Wareham's record. His average for six games last night was 154 and on the previous night he come within a few pins of setting a new high mark, rolling 210 in a practice game.

McIlroy bowled in six games last night for an average of 171, rolling among others a 200 and a 182 game.

In a game between the Merchants and Pastimes, the latter emerged victorious by 18 pins, Boyd furnishing the high score, 176. Frost was a close second with 165 pins, Wareham put up 164. The scores follow:—

Pastimes:
Boyd	170
Wareham	164
Cairns	149
Gutterson	135
Pollard	145
Totals	763

Merchants:
Frost	165
Ross	124
Giroux	144
Hemstead	152
McIlroy	160
Totals	745

Strikes and Spares

Charlie Frost has his famous "Sunlight" ball going well and is right after Billy Wareham's high mark.

"This has the transportation problem beaten a block," remarked Billy McIlroy last evening, as he tried to figure out a 7-10 split.

Bowling comes natural to Tommy Boyd, His father was a bowler forty years ago.

Wallace Dickson, of rugby fame, throws with the exception of Hemstead, the fastest ball on the Peterborough alleys. Dickson is only breaking into the game, but he has the earmarks of a star.

Lou Archambault and Harry Jenkins, of Toronto, well known among the bowling fraternity here, will bring a team down to play a picked Peterborough five in the near future.

Tommy Boyd has sent the cigar mark up to 190. Whether the score is high enough to carry through the week remains to be seen, but at the rate at which the trundlers are hitting the wood it will take a score of well over 200 to annex the Havanas.

It is probable that Bert Moran, the great Toronto bowler, who put up a score of 290 last week, may visit Peterborough next week to play a match game with Billy Wareham, who is bowling in brilliant fashion just now.

Claire Gutterson got started well in one game last night and looked good for the cigars, if not for the high mark, but he ran into bad splits on the last four frames and had to be content with 177.

A COUGH COLD IS DANGEROUS.
There are different kinds of colds, and various ways in which they affect different people. Some constitutions will throw off a light cold, while to others it will stick tenaciously. There is one kind—the kind accompanied by a cough, the kind that turns to bronchitis, the kind that ends in consumption — that should never be neglected.
Many a life history would read different if, on the first appearance of a cough, it had been remedied with
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.
This syrup contains all the virtues of the "Norway Pine Tree," combined with Wild Cherry Bark, and the soothing, healing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.
Mrs. R. S. Akerly, Akerly, N.B., writes: "My little boy had such a bad cough he could not sleep at nights. I tried several remedies but nothing seemed to relieve him until I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. From the first few doses he commenced to improve, and when he had taken one bottle he was completely cured."
Be careful in purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark. Price 25 cts.

MR. W. H. HULL,
Dear Sir: — I wish to thank you for the magnificent profits I received from you on the 2nd inst on Policy 19074 on my life, the dividend period having matured on the 1st inst.
To think that all I have paid the Company during the past twenty years was $442.00, and that my reserved cash profits for that period amount to $214.04, leaving the net cost of my insurance of $1,000 during those years only $227.96, and that now I have a free paid-up policy of $1,000 still drawing profits EVERY FIVE YEARS hereafter, as long as I live, is a result that surprises me most agreeably and causes me to regret that I have not taken more insurance twenty years ago.
However, as you know I am trying to redeem the past to the best of my ability and have applied for further insurance on same plan with you.
Again thanking you and desiring to know the splendid results I received, and hoping it may assist some, at least, in making a wise selection when insuring, I wish your Company the patronage it deserves, and remain
Yours truly,

MR. W. LEE PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Came Here From Ireland 60 Years Ago—Was Returning Officer for Ward 4—Had Been Ailing for Some Time.

HE WAS AN OLD CITIZEN

At his late residence, 710 George street, last night at 9 o'clock, there passed away in the person of William Lee one of the oldest, most widely known and highly esteemed citizens of Peterborough. Although he had been ailing for some time, the intelligence of his sad demise will be learned with deep sorrow and regret by all who knew him. His death is the topic of conversation around the city to-day, and the deepest sympathy is extended to the family in their bereavement.

The deceased gentleman had been ailing for over two years from general disability, but had not been in good health for a number of years. He went to the Northwest some time ago and remained there for eight years, but he did not greatly improve by his visit. About a week and a half ago he caught a slight cold and his condition gradually grew worse. he took to his bed a week ago and, with his family gathered around his bedside last night, he passed into eternal rest.

Mr. Lee took a prominent part in politics and in church affairs and was always known as a man of enduring principles. He was a staunch Liberal in politics, and was a prominent member of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. He was also a great admirer of the late George Brown, the well-known Liberal leader. He was a carpenter and builder by trade, but had not followed this occupation for twenty years. He took a deep interest in municipal affairs and had been returning officer in Ward 4 for the past thirty-five years. In this, as in all other things he undertook he was noted for his exactness and honesty.

The deceased was 74 years of age and was born in County Monaghan, Ireland. He came to Canada with his father and family on June 14, 1847, and settled in Peterborough. His father purchased the property at the corner of George and Smith streets, about sixty years ago, since which time it has been known as Lee's corner. Mr. Lee had lived in Peterborough ever since coming to Canada, excepting the eight years spent in the Northwest for the improvement of his health. He was married in 1872 to Mary J. Hammond of Lachute, Que., who survives him. He leaves besides his wife, two daughters, Mrs. E. Manning, and Miss Ida, of Peterborough, and three sons, John Thompson, Hardisty, Alta.; William, of Innisfail, Alta., and Richards of Penhold, Alta. Two brothers, John of Peterborough and Robert of Toronto also survive.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence, 710 George street, to Little Lake Cemetery.

WHAT A STOUT WOMAN SHOULD WEAR

"It is a mistake for a fat woman to wear long, loose, sweeping lines. She should wear fitted or semi-fitted clothes, and choose dark materials," said a prominent dressmaker, notable for making "good figures" of stout women. "My success in making stout women appear thin, however, is due, in reality, to the fact that I can make them thinner if they will take my advice. I advise all the stout ones to go to their druggist, get 1-2 ounce of Marmola, 3-4 ounce of Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 4 3-4 ounces of Syrup Simplex. These ingredients are mixed together at home and taken a teaspoonful to a dose after meals and at bedtime."

"All three are simple, wholesome remedies that cannot do harm to anyone. They even help to improve the health, while they way they reduce fat is truly astonishing. I have known a woman to lose over thirty pounds between visits to me. It takes the fat off symmetrically too, without causing wrinkles, does not interfere with the diet in any way, and does not require a whole lot of fatiguing exercise to show results. I wonder more dressmakers do not try this plan of mine, for the ingredients are cheap, easily secured and pleasant to take, and, as I said, really improve one's health and appearance."

MUCH INTEREST DISPLAYED IN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

To the Editor of the Examiner.

(Mr. Editor),—I am very glad to see the manifest interest in the Sunday School Lessons, and in fact, there seems to be a revival all over the city in Bible study. I happened into the meeting in the Gospel Hall last Friday night and I don't think I ever was in a meeting of the kind that so opened my eyes to the necessity of close Bible study. Every one seemed determined to get at the truth of the matter. I hope a large number may meet again to-morrow night. I understand the subject is to be "How the Christian race is begun." I haven't enjoyed any study so well for a long time as the hour and a half last Friday night. I am looking for more. The beauty of all is the free open discussion of any question asked

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

MEN'S SPRING STYLES

Opening Display of the New Tailoring Models.

What is Correct in Men's Wear for the Spring and Summer of 1908—"How Men Should Dress."

Since the tailoring trade has been centralized, Canadian men wear the same styles each season no matter how far away they may be from the city where the chief designs are made. Not many years ago one part of Canada might be a year behind the other, and the changes in style would only become popular through the visits of tourists and travellers.

Besides creating a revolution in the wholesale system of fine tailoring, the Semi-ready Company have brought about this Cosmopolitan style. The Semi-ready designs are looked upon as the last word in fashion's dictum, and one can readily don their garments with the full knowledge that they are both correct and cultured in style.

A reporter who called at the Semi-ready store at Cressman's was shown the new models, and a brief review of the conservative changes which are evident will be interesting to gentlemen.

Following the long coats, with the exaggerated shoulder, popular some seasons ago, the gradual changes have resulted in a moderate length, loose-fitting coat, and the disappearance of the built-out shoulder. The narrow shoulder, which London hailed with glee a year ago, will never become popular in an athletic, chesty country. The Semi-ready coat has a moderate shoulder, is of reasonable length, and has a comfortable, athletic appearance. With the long, rolling lapels and the moderate shoulder breadth, the coat has a well set up appearance. The distinguishing marks of the coats, single as well as double breasted, are the long rolling lapels. The negligee effect is emphasized by the right angle notch. While the loose lines of the coat are preserved, the chesty effect is as prominent as ever.

The back of the coat is less shaped to the figure than has been the fashion. It falls almost straight from the shoulder.

The British woollen mills have outdone themselves in furnishing artistic designs of distinctive shade and pattern. These fabrics, coupled with the other important features, give the Semi-ready clothes an added advantage this season over those sold by the custom tailor and the ready-made clothier.

The sack coats are shown in both two and three-button styles, and, while those will divide the honours for popularity, the two-button will be the choice of the younger men and will, no doubt, be selected by the more conservative as the weather grows warmer.

Business and Professional

Two kinds of skirt coats are shown for the business and professional man, the English walking coat and the morning frock. Both are admirably suited for office wear and for the every-day business man who adds dignity to the position by wearing it in place of a sack suit.

All the features of the sack suit are incorporated in the construction of the walking and morning coats. The English style is shown in a greater variety of patterns, while the more formal morning coat is made only in the rough and smooth black goods, with a few in dark greys.

The vogue of the morning coat will never diminish the popularity of the double-breasted frock coat, which is the only correct garment for certain occasions. In England the lawyers, doctors and others are wearing double-breasted frock suits, made of less formal patterns and material than the dress garment. With these coats they wear vests of fancy material and trousers of the same material as the coat.

Spring Overcoats

In the contest for supremacy in fashion of overcoats the conventional Chesterfield seems to always retain its favour. These are shown this year in a larger variety of pattern, but the most popular garment will always be the silk-faced or silk-lined vicuna. The lighter and comfortable covert coat is regarded by many men as the most sensible top coat to slip on in the late spring and early summer.

Special Garments

The increasing desire for something different and exclusive has been solved this season by the Semi-Ready Company. They have organized a special order department, and suits, overcoats, uniforms or garments of unique or novel design are made to order in four days. Telegraph orders are filled by the company. The same personality and distinction which can only be given permanently to clothes of quality is woven into the garments made to special order. The store shows some 235 different fabrics to choose from, neat squares of each pattern, with the prices plainly marked. The Semi-ready guarantee accompanies these special garments just as in the garments carried in stock.

That the Semi-ready Company can produce new styles is proven by the fact that some of the leading New York actors buy all their clothes while in Canada. They usually have some of the special novelties designed for them in the special order department. Owing to the high price of good cloth in the United States, they save from $10 to $25 on the suits and overcoats they buy while in Canada.

WEDDING BELLS

CRAIG-JACKSON

A pretty March wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dundas, 155 Aylmer street, when Miss Birdie Jackson, daughter of the late John Jackson, became the wife of Mr. Roland Joseph Craig, of Peterborough also. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of wedding guests by the Rev. E. A. Pearson, of the George Street Methodist Church. The bridesmaid was Miss Tilley Jackson, cousin of the bride, while the groom was attended by Mr. John Jackson, also a brother of the bride. Beethoven's march was played by Mrs. Greenslade, city, and little Miss Craig, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was spread. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of presents, testifying to their popularity. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will reside on Aylmer street.

Mr. Fred Whitcroft Shines in Other Ways Than Hockey Out West.

Mrs. Malcolm McCrimmon was the hostess at a very enjoyable evening party on Tuesday, given in honour of her daughter, Miss Florence McCrimmon. Mr. and Mrs. McCrimmon received with their daughter. The hostess wore a becoming gown of black silk voile with lace trimmings, and Miss McCrimmon wore a dainty gown of white silk with embroidered net overdress. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, tulips and daffodils brightening the drawing-room, while crimson and white carnations were effective in the supper room. Mrs. Stocks and Mrs. Poucher assisted Mrs. McCrimmon. In the cards which preceded the dance, Miss MacCruday and Mr. Whitcroft won the first prizes, the consolation prizes falling to the lot of Mr. Gillespie and Miss Puffer. Among the guests were Miss Babbit, in a pretty gown of cream silk voile; Miss Mackenzie in pale blue silk; Miss Stocks, dainty gown of cream embroidered net over taffeta; Miss Fairlie MacSween, in a pretty cream silk eolienne gown, with lace trimmings, crimson carnations; Miss McDougall, beautiful gown of silver-grey silk richly embroidered; Miss Perkins, dainty white organdie; Miss MacQueen, pink silk with white net overdress; Miss Graham, white silk; Miss Goodridge, cream silk; Miss Puffer, becoming gown of white organdie with blue flowers. Messrs. Carson, Babbit, Perkins, Hinton, Thompson, MacDougall, Goodridge, Grady, Mackenzie, Rie and Gillespie.—Edmonton Bulletin.

WOODMAN'S ROLL HAD DISAPPEARED

Supposed to Have Been Stolen by His Mate—A Hot Cross-Country Run After Thief.

LATTER IS YET AT LARGE

Last night a workman in Hodgson's camp, about five miles this side of Haliburton, had about $110 saved up from his wages. A fellow labourer learned of the large sum he had kept, and set out to make the wad his own. He obtained possession of it in some way and immediately left the camp and made tracks for civilization, where he could enjoy his spoil.

In the meantime the owner discovered his loss and set about to regain his savings. It was known that the culprit had headed down the railway in the direction of Fenelon Falls and Lindsay, so a number took the down train this morning in the hope of overtaking their man. Near Gelert he was sighted and the pursuers chased him into the woods. When the train pulled out he was still at large, though the others were hard on his tracks.

At Fenelon Falls Constable Jones was at the station to intercept the man but of course he was not on the train.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S WAS MENTIONED

As Probable Rector of Chatham Church—Preacher From That Diocese Appointed.

Chatham, March 26.—Rev. T C S Boyle, Wingham, has been chosen successor to the late Rev. R. McCosh as rector of Christ Church, and will soon take charge of the perish.

In connection with the above appointment a delegation from Chatham was in Peterborough some time ago to hear Rev. Dr. Langfeldt preach, whose name was strongly mentioned as a probable rector of that church. It appears, however, that the Bishop of Huron disapproved of appointing clergy outside of his diocese.

No official overture had been made to St. Luke's rector, and it will no doubt be welcome news to Dr. Langfeldt's parishioners to know that he will remain in Peterborough.

THE SCHOOL CHILDREN ENJOYED IT

Came in a Procession to the Opening of the United Agency Company's New Department Store.

Yesterday afternoon there was a regular parade of school children to the formal opening of the United Agency Company's new department store (Clegg's old stand). The store was in gala dress for the occasion and the young people were permitted to walk through and examine the different departments, upstairs and down, to their hearts' content. The sights delighted the youngsters who, doubtless, dreamed dreams last night of the joys awaiting them when they come to "build castles in the air" like their fathers and mothers have done.

CREEK INUNDATES LOW LAND

Ice Jammed Near Townsend Street—Floods the "Willows."

The sudden swelling of the creek during the night has changed its harmless little stream into angry flood, and the low land south of the C. P. R. tracks was this morning completely flooded. The bridge on Townsend street is not high above the water and the ice soon began to gather. The water in the creek is not as high as other years, although it may grow worse before the spring flood has subsided.

A MINIATURE FLOOD FLOWED FREELY THROUGH THE HAMILTON FOUNDRY AND OVER THE STREETS

Dynamite Was Used to Break Ice Jams and "General" Tighe Was Knocked Into the Creek.

MANY WITNESS THE SCENE

Water More Than Two Feet Deep In Coal Yards—Floor of Blacksmith Shop Under Water—There Was Water Everywhere.

Excitement ran high in the vicinity of the Wm. Hamilton foundry this morning, where two immense ice jams caused havoc with the regular water channel in Patterson's Creek. Dynamite had to be brought into requisition, and as a result "General" Tighe, was knocked into the icy waters.

Miniature rivers were running in all directions and ice piled four or five feet high, presented a picturesque picture to the scores of interested bystanders, who had gathered with remarkable quickness to the scene of the early morning operations.

The first ice jam occurred above the Reid street bridge. There it was piled several feet high, causing the diversion of the channel to the right and all day small rivers of water ran through the rear doors of the Wm. Hamilton foundry, making their course down among the machinery and out the front doors bordering on Reid street. The boiler and machine shops were completely flooded with water a foot or more in depth.

Something New

Such a flood through the above-mentioned departments of the foundry have never before been known, which indicates that something uncommon in spring freshets are in store on account of the great masses of snow in the districts to the north.

Some of the employees of the foundry remember a little water making its way in the interior of the building, but in the past the conditions were never so serious.

The foundry blacksmith shop, to the rear of the building, also fell an easy prey to the water, being so low. The water ran in through the windows, leaving the floor at least two feet below the surface.

Forced Into the Creek

The next jam was at the G. T. R. bridge on Bethune street. Here again the broken ice piled high in the air, diverted the flow of water to either side of the creek. It was forced over the road at this point, making the street impassable to pedestrians.

Dynamite was used to blow up the jam and start it moving on down stream.

"General" Tighe, one of the workmen employed, was standing on the ice in the creek when a charge of the explosive was put in it. The operators of the fuse did not notice him and the explosion went off while he was still there. The ice heaved up in the centre and he slid down into the water, which was waist high. With some difficulty he managed to make his way unaided to shore, with nothing more serious than an ice cold bath.

Coal Sheds Flooded

The water also found its way into the coal sheds of Mr. J. E. A. Fitzgerald, situated between Bethune and Stewart streets. This morning the horses were standing in water more than two feet in depth.

Also a number of the cellars were flooded owing to the unexpected miniature flood.

A PICTURE OF A THRESHING SCENE ON THE PRAIRIES

The Examiner has received a large picture of a threshing scene taken near Cobourg, Saskatchewan, which will be of interest to a large number around Peterborough as the proprietors of the outfit are former county residents. The name of the company owning the outfit is the Cobourg Syndicate, the proprietors being Messrs. H W Lillico, Joseph Lett and Charles Padfield.

Cobourg is located about 5 miles south-west of Moose Jaw where last year almost all the wheat was graded No. 1, northern.

The photograph was taken by Mr. A Cunningham, photographer there.

To indicate the progressiveness of the West, the donater of the picture writes: They were taking the machine from one farm to another when the axle of the separator broke on the road. The workmen just propped it up and began threshing where it stood until a new axle was procured.

WATER OVER THE G.T.R. NEAR CAMPBELLFORD CAUSED TROUBLE

Three feet of water on the Belleville line of the G. T. R., about three miles this side of Campbellford, caused a slight delay in the service this morning, and put the company to a little extra trouble. The engine was unable to proceed past the flooded part and the Lakefield train was ordered to go down to the place in order that the passengers might be transferred.

The circumvented the inundated ground, boarded the Lakefield train and arrived in Peterborough but twenty minutes behind the scheduled time.

The Belleville train itself arrived in the city about eleven o'clock, after the water had returned to a lower level, and the line was ready for the afternoon.

The flood was first noticed during the night, when a double-header had to be flagged to prevent its going into the water.

REMINDER OF THE TIMES WHEN CHIVALRY WAS IN VOGUE

An incident that recalls the days of knight-errantry and distressed damsels, and at the same time furnished much amusement to persons on the pavements, happened this morning. A young lady, employed in a shop on the west side of George street, between Hunter and Simcoe, to save the distance to a crossing passed directly across the highway to a shop on the opposite side of the street. The street must have been more sloppy than she had thought, for, after finishing her purchase she bewailed the condition of the street, whereupon the stalwart proprietor seized the young lady, gallantly and gracefully carried her bodily across the intervening slush and deposited her safely and expeditiously upon the other side of the street. This gallant but unusual stunt of chivalry created no little merriment among the spectators on the street. There is not likely to be any romantic outcome to the episode, for the hero of it is a steady-going married man.

NEED OF ISOLATION HOSPITAL; NO PLACE FOR GIRL WITH MUMPS

The need of an isolation hospital is demonstrated by the experience of a west end citizen. His house servant was attacked with mumps. On account of the children of the household, the family physician ordered the isolation of the patient. This could not be done in the house, and both the Nicholls and St. Josephs' Hospitals refused to admit the girl. The Medical Health Officer failed to find a boarding house that would take her in, and the patient had to be sent to her home in Apsley, a journey of forty or fifty miles. O, it was pitiful, near a whole cityful, — home there was none," that, would shelter and care for a simple case of parotitis. The authorities should take the situation into serious consideration. The expense to which the citizen referred to was put would pay for ten years his share of tax contribution to the cost of even a $10,000 isolation hospital.

FAST MOTORBOAT AND GASOLINE LAUNCH BEING CONSTRUCTED

The coming summer season promises already being constructed, one of them to be a lively one for pleasure on to be a speedy motor boat. It is belocal waters. Two new yachts are al ing constructed by Mr. H. B. Rye, proprietor of the Otonabee ferry, to the rear of Mr. R. Wilson's machine shops on George street. The boat is for Mr. J. A. Goulet, a foreman on the C. G. E., and will be a 4 cycle, 4 cylinder, 12 horse-power engine. It will be 25 feet in length with a 3 foot 9 inch beam and built entirely for speed. Its estimated run is fifteen miles per hour.

Mr. Rye has also the contract for the erection of a pleasure gasoline yacht for Mr. Osborne, of the carpet factory. Many others are mentioned and it is expected that several more will be built.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BE CONCLUDED

Last Session of a Successful Series To-night—Last Night's Meeting

Again last night there was a large attendance at the revival service at St. Paul's Church when Rev. Mr. Pogue gave an appealing address on "What Shall We Do with Jesus?" Rev. H. M. Manning of the Charlotte street Methodist church was present and assisted in the devotional exercises of the evening. Miss Helen Davies sang beautifully two gospel solos.

The meetings, which have been successfully carried out each night since the opening special service on Sunday, will be brought to a close this evening, and a special request is made for as many as possible to be in attendance.

SUCCESSFUL FORMER RESIDENTS

Laing Bros. Form Company Known as Dominion Lubricating Oil Company

It will be interesting to the many friends of Mr. Torrance R. Laing, former manager of the Canadian Oil Company, Limited, Montreal, and Mr. Archie R. Laing, former manager of the Canadian Oil Company, Limited, Hamilton, to learn that the Government has granted them a charter under the name of the Dominion Lubricating Oil Company, and in future they will conduct a business of their own, the head office of which will be in Montreal. They are sons of Mr. Robert Laing, 502 Water street, and are well known to the business men of the city and the surrounding district, having both travelled the ground in former years. Their enterprise is quite an undertaking, and the Examiner joins in wishing them every success.

One hundred years ago at Wilkesbarre, Pa., Judge Jesse Fells discovered that anthracite would burn, thus starting the great anthracite coal trade. Sixteen years ago "Salada" Tea was placed on the market. Canadians have discovered that for rich, uniform, deliciously-flavoured tea, "Salada" satisfies the demand. One out of every six Canadians drink it, and this number is steadily increasing.—10.

A CONTRAST.

The Conservatives are fond of declaiming against the extravagance of the Liberal Government. They strive to consider the mere item of increase as ground for condemnation. They forget the accompanying conditions. A man's family increases, and naturally the expense of maintenance grows, although he may have been more extravagant in his early expenditure than in late years, when what he spent in maintenance of his family was perhaps twice as large. If Canada's expenditure has grown, its material interests have increased in far greater proportion. While there has been, under the Liberal Government, increased expenditure, there has also been a greatly enlarged revenue, at a lesser rate of taxation, and there has also been a very large increase in other items. In 1897 the total imports of Canada were $119,218,609. Ten years later the figures had grown to $459,793,278, more than a three-fold increase. In 1897 the total exports were $137,950,253. In ten years they had increased to $258,171,674. In 1897 Canada's total exports to Great Britain were $98,935,940. Ten years later our exports to the Mother Country had grown to $208,715,193. In 1897 the railways of Canada carried 25,300,331 tons of traffic. In ten years this had grown 68,866,133 tons. The bank discounts in 1897 totalled $226,960,482, and in 1907 their total was $639,970,696. In 1897 the bank deposits amounted to $201,141,688. Ten years later the total of bank deposits was $589,459,889, and ten years ago the figures of postoffice deposits were $201,141,680, while in 1907 the grand total was $589,459,889. It needs no study of such progressive figures, which are only a few out of many available, to show that since the Liberal Government came into power there has been a steady and rapid increase of the prosperity of the people of Canada. With such an increase in the interests mentioned, as in many others, it is inevitable that there should be an increase of expenditure. Now, no matter how large this expenditure, if demanded in the public interests and in the interests of the development of our resources and the growth of the country, it is just liable, if it bears a reasonable relation to the income which the prosperity of the people has made available. During the eighteen years of Conservative rule the public debt rose from $140,362,000 in 1878 to $258,479,000 in 1896, an increase in eighteen years of $118,135,000, or an average increase in public debt, under Conservative management, of six and a half millions a year. During the Liberal regime the expenditures have been so closely adjusted to the income that revenue has been largely sufficient to meet ordinary expenditures. In eleven years the Liberals have added only $5,000,000 to the public debt. During their period the Conservatives expended $80,000,000 on capital account, and had to borrow in the process $62,000,000 of that amount. During their eleven years the Liberals spent $127,000,000 on capital account, and paid it all out of current income, except $5,000,000, and even that would have been similarly met, but for a vote of $8,000,000 for Grand Trunk Pacific construction. The contrast is instructive and worth taking into account, as illustrating the respective methods and capacity for administration of the two parties.

Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

FORESTRY WASTE.

Some temperance lecturers make use in their exhortations of what is known as the "horrible example." When they wish to make their appeals for sobriety particularly impressive they bring in a poor besotted wretch to show their hearers the terrible results of chronic intemperance. In the same way a writer or speaker on Canadian forestry is inclined to point his moral by means of the Eastern Townships, as that section of the country is the "horrible example" of the results of wasteful and reckless slumbering methods. The policy of forest exploitation, which thinks only of the present day, and utterly disregards the future and its claims, has there had ample opportunity to show its disastrous effects. A once richly wooded country has been almost completely stripped of its wood; nor have the forest been replaced in any adequate measure by farms. On the contrary there are large sections of the Eastern Townships which are little better than a desert—rocky, broken lands, fit for nothing but the growing of trees, and once covered with fine forests of spruce and pine, but now a melancholy expanse of decaying stumps and worthless brushwood.

It is difficult to realize how little wood there is left in the Eastern Township until the counties composing them are taken one by one and their lumber supply estimated. In Missisquoi there is no wood left to speak of, and the same hopeless situation exists in Stanstead. In Brome, Shefford, Drummond and Arthabaska the supply is so small that it is practically negligible. The same conditions exist in Sherbrooke and Richmond, where there is still a little timber in scattered lots. There remain only the two counties of Wolff and Compton, and in these the timber supply of the Eastern Townships is concentrated. In these counties there are about 400 square miles of limits, a considerable portion of which are owned outright. Beyond these limits there are hardly 25,000 acres of timberland in all the Eastern Townships, and this is scattered about in small patches.

It requires no Daniel come to judgment to reveal to even those who are completely ignorant in matters of forestry that such a state of affairs means a terrible loss to the Eastern Townships, and to the whole country. Thousands of acres of land which could have been made to yield a rich revenue for generation after generation, have now through reckless and destructive greed become barren and unproductive, perhaps for ever. Nor is this all. The forests of a region cannot be destroyed without bringing dire consequences, and the Eastern Townships are now suffering these consequences. The ruin of forests brings with it the ruin of waterpowers, and such powers in the townships have become terribly depreciated in efficiency and value, even where it has been possible to eke them out by building dams and constructing reservoirs. Streams which once turned the wheels of mills and were the motive powers of considerable industries, are now productive of nothing but danger from their floods. The soil, too, is being affected by the stripping of the forests; and the upper levels are gradually being washed bare. Even the climate shows signs of change, and recent winters have become dry and exceedingly cold with very light snowfalls. This also is an evil in a country where the ground requires a thick covering of snow if the grasses are to be preserved from winter-killing. This is but a type of what prevails in other parts of the country, even in Ontario.

Some people may be curious to know how this sad state of affairs has been brought about. The explanation is a simple one. American pulp and paper makers, having largely exhausted their own supply of spruce wood, set longing eyes on the forests across the line in Canada. They had the money and they had no interests in the country. They were allowed to take all the lumber they wanted to feed their industries, protected and fostered by an extreme tariff, and so they proceeded to take it. They set in motion a system of forest stripping which in a comparatively short time has brought the Eastern Townships to their present position. They got the wood and built up an industry. Canada has a desert—and also a very striking lesson.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If Hon. Adam Beck's horse-power scheme is as costly to the province as his horse flesh, "white coal" will be an expensive commodity.

Hon. Mr. Paterson's comparison of the increase of trade during the Tory and Liberal regimes was rather striking. He showed that for the last eleven years of Conservative rule trade had increased by $50,000,000 and that during the eleven years of Liberal rule it had increased by $350,000,000. These figures cannot lie.

Tommy Boyd's score of 607 for three consecutive games promises to stand for some time. McIlroy had a chance to beat it yesterday when he made 212 and followed it up with 190, but he ran into a row of splits in the third game.

PERSISTENT MISREPRESENTATION.

(Globe.)

The Mail and Empire has resurrected and persists in reiterating the "thirteen million dollar" misrepresentation that has been doing duty for Opposition party purposes since the institution of the National Transcontinental Railway enterprise in 1903. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it is alleged made the statement in his speech introducing the scheme, that all the country would be called on to pay for the construction of the line from Moncton to Prince Rupert would be "in the neighbourhood of $12,000,000 or $13,000,000." Anyone who will take the trouble to read the Premier's speech as it is reported in the House of Common "debates" will see for himself how utterly silly such an allegation is, but of course it is made on the assumption that very few will take the trouble to read the official report of his remarks.

Those who desire to see how the sum of thirteen millions was arrived at should turn to the speech made by Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, in a later stage of the debate. There can be no doubt that the Premier had obtained from his colleagues the result of his actuarial calculations, but there is no excuse for misrepresenting them, for Mr. Fielding gave them to the House step by step with the most ample elaboration. When he was interrupted by Mr. Clancy the present Provincial Auditor of Ontario, and presumably an expert, with the question whether he had "made the estimates out of his own mind or from some data which he was prepared to lay before the House," Mr. Fielding at once replied that he did not depend on his own calculations, but took them from a capable actuary, and he challenged the Opposition to submit them to any other actuary to test their correctness.

How the amount given by Mr. Fielding—$13,725,706—was arrived at is not hard to comprehend in the light of his characteristically lucid exposition. The estimated cost of the eastern division, exclusive of the Quebec bridge, was put at $54,609,676. The interest on this amount for seven years would be $11,468,030, and by actuarial calculation it was ascertained that by investing at that time the sum of $8,853,502 it would liquidate the larger amount by the end of the period. By a similar process it was found that the sum of $2,331,575 would meet at the end of seven years the aggregate of the interest payable on the proportion of the cost of the mountain section, for which the Dominion government is liable. In like manner it was ascertained that the sum of $321,246 should be added for the Quebec bridge. These sums make a total of $11,512,325. In order to make quite sure that this would not be an under-estimate, Mr. Fielding added twenty-five per cent. to the cost of construction of the eastern division, and thus brought the total present value of seven years interest up to $13,725,706.

In the face of this explanation, including the Finance Minister's replies to the interjected questions from the Opposition, it is worse than childish, it is brazenly dishonest, to misrepresent the statement he made with such minuteness of detail and courageous frankness. The only way in which The Mail and Empire can escape the charge of dishonesty is to accept the alternative of hopeless obtuseness. Any well-taught schoolboy of twelve can follow Mr. Fielding's explanations and verify his calculations. Of course this will not prevent a reiteration of the falsehood.

SLIPPED ON SIDEWALK.

How Zam-Buk Cured a Bad Knee.

Mrs. S. F. Nicholls, 208 Quesnee St., Montreal, writes: "While returning home from a shopping tour, I slipped on the icy sidewalk and badly sprained my knee. I had to be assisted to the house where I was laid up for two weeks. My knee was very much swollen and painful. I bathed the injured member frequently with liniments I had in the house and they were not much good, so I sent for a box of Zam-Buk, as I had used this previously for cuts and burns and knew its value. For three weeks I used the Zam-Buk as an embrocation and it worked like a charm, taking away all stiffness, swelling and soreness. I am now able to go about all right and have never felt the effects of my accident since."

Peterborough Men Unite In Business In Goderich

Messrs. Neil Cameron and W. E. Moore Purchase Drygoods Business—Both Have Lived Here.

ENERGETIC YOUNG MEN

Mr. Neil Cameron and Mr. W. E. Moore, two men well known in Peterborough, have met in the business world and are joining forces to assume the management of a large store in Goderich, Ont. The following from the Goderich Signal will be of interest to many of their friends in Peterborough, and also in Norwood:

"The Busy Store" is the name by which the store formerly occupied by W. A. McKim will hereafter be called. Messrs. Cameron and Moore, a firm of young men, have bought out Mr. McKim's stock and announce a clearing sale, commencing Saturday. Mr. Neil Cameron, one of the members of the new firm, has for the past three years been a commercial traveller and has made Peterborough his headquarters. His former home was Paisley, Ont., where his mother is still living. His partner, Mr. W. E. Moore, has been engaged in the boot and shoe business in Peterborough, coming formerly from Norwood, Ont. Their past experience of business, coupled with the energy and enterprise of youth, should enable them to attain success in their new location. They intend to add to the dry goods business a grocery and boot and shoe department, and they are increasing the dry goods department with a very heavy additional stock. They have secured the services of Miss Mena Howsie of Perth to take charge of their millinery department, and she arrived in town last week.

The Weather For April As Foretold By Professor Hicks

Opening Will be Quiet in Aerial Circles—Troublesome Weather Towards The Close.

FROST ON THE SCHEDULE

April rains are predicted by Prof. Irl Hicks in his official paper, "Word and Works," in the early portion of next month. About the 7th of the month there is a regular storm period. The weather then varies until the end of the month, when some very unseasonable weather is predicted. The "Word and Works" says:—

The astronomical chart upon which our forecasts for this month are based was calculated in April, 1907, and the forecasts for April, as they appear in our 1908 Almanac, were written in May, 1907. When we come to review these forecasts, after the lapse of a whole year, we find, no occasion to make any change in them, and hence, reprint them verbatim. No one who has long been familiar with our storm diagrams can look at the chart for the last half of April without apprehensions of more or less marked disturbances and unseasonable weather.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 3rd, 4th and 5th. The storm diagram for April shows that the vernal equinox runs up to about the 19th, hence all the storm periods up to that date will be more or less affected thereby. The moon being on the celestial equator on the 1st, higher temperature, with tendency to electrical storms, will be natural on and touching that date, hence April rains may continue through the reactionary disturbances on the 3rd, 4th and 5th. Decided change to cooler, with snow squalls, followed by frosty nights, may be expected in most sections over central and northern states, from about the 4th to the 7th.

A regular storm period, being central on the 9th, extends from the 7th to the 11th. Change to warmer, southerly winds and falling barometer will be noted in western sections by the 7th to 8th, and during the 9th, 10th and 11th storm areas will spread eastwardly, bringing April showers and thunderstorms to most parts of the country on and touching these dates. The storm diagram indicates that the Mars period will not in about this time, but it will be too early in that period to decide as to the kind of storms and weather that may be expected to characterize the whole of this Mars period. Late snow squalls will most likely come with the last stages of the period, 7th to 11th, and sharp change to cooler, with frosts, may be expected about the 11th, 12th and 13th.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 14th, 15th and 16th. The moon is on the celestial equator on the 15th and full on the 16th, and these facts will add positiveness to storms and weather changes at this period. The Mercury and Venus periods will also intensify storm conditions on and touching the 15th and 16th, at which times a sudden rise to very high temperature, attended by a marked fall of the barometer and southerly winds will presage dangerous storms. The general conditions of atmosphere and clouds should be carefully noted at the culmination of this period, as violent disturbances are entirely possible and probable. A seismic period, embracing about five days, central on the 16th, is also quite probable. Change to higher barometer and much cooler weather, with frost in most sections central and northward, may reasonably be expected between the 18th and 19th.

A regular storm period covers the 19th to the 23rd. This period is fully within the Mars and Venus periods, and near the centre of the Mercury period. Moon is at extreme south declination and last quarter. As we centre into this period the temperature will rise phenomenally high in southern, western and central sections, the barometer will fall to correspondingly low readings, and from about the 21st to the 23rd, many vicious storms of lightning, thunder, rain and hail will visit wide areas as the storm centres sweep from west to east across the country. At the culmination of this period, say about the 21st, 22nd and 23rd, no reader of these forecasts should be wholly surprised by violent if not tornadic storms. We should not forget the fact that the Jupiter and Saturn periods are still an force, to greater or less degrees, adding to the probabilities of severe perturbations on earth and air. Central and northern parts of the country may reasonably anticipate snow and sudden change to unseasonably cool on the western and northern tangent of these storms, say from about the 23rd to 26th. Ordinarily such results would be natural; but the Mars period will, by this time, assert its dominating influence, and establish the general tone of storm and weather for the remainder of April and much of May. As the Jupiter and Saturn influences are now decreasing, we believe that the Mars period will not fasten upon us such prolonged cold and unseasonable conditions as prevailed in the spring of 1907, in which event the weather will be warmer, rains and storms will be more tropical and be followed by milder changes to cooler.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 28th, 27th and 28th. This is near the centre of the Mercury and Venus period, as seen by the storm diagram, also the centre of the Mars period, shown on the May diagram. On and touching the dates named, look for decided storm developments—high temperature, falling barometer, great humidity and south winds. Thunder storms, excessive rainfalls, hail and violent winds will reach a crisis on and next to the 28th. If the locality of any observer is to be directly in the path of the storms, there need be little doubt of the fact, long before the storm appears, to any who will pay attention to the indications. The last day of April is the centre of another seismic period, extending from April 28th to May 2nd. We are satisfied that the constant tendency to earthquakes which has prevailed all over the earth since the present Jupiter and Saturn equinoctial periods, will gradually subside as the perturbing power of these periods disappears. A minimum of such disturbances will gradually come, but not an entire cessation. Other astronomic causes for the interims, so that periodic seismic phenomena to some degree are to be expected.

Marvelous case of Leo Corrigan which shows that skin diseases heretofore considered hopeless can be cured.

Since childhood, Leo Corrigan had been tortured with the burning agony and itching of Eczema. His parents had spent a great deal of money in consulting physicians and buying medicines—but all to no purpose.

As he grew older he sought other doctors—some of them specialists. He was eleven weeks in a Toronto hospital—eight weeks in bed. At times the irritation and pain caused by the Eczema were so severe, life was a burden. He would get so bad he could not walk. Several winters he could do no work.

He wrote, on February 20, 1906:

"In November, 1905, I had another attack and was advised to use Mira Ointment. (I thought this would be like the other remedies I had tried, and of no use to me). But, to my great delight, a few hours after the first application, I felt great relief.

I have used it, now, two and a-half months, and unhesitatingly state that it is the best remedy I ever used. It has worked wonders for me. Since using Mira Ointment I have been able to work every day—without irritation or pain—no stiffness of the limbs or soreness. I feel a new person.

"From a state of great irritation and sometimes excruciating pains to freedom from all such, being capable of doing hard work every day, is a marvelous change. Mira Ointment has effected it.

"I strongly recommend any person afflicted with this terrible complaint—Eczema—to use Mira Ointment."

What this wonderfully effective Ointment has done in this extreme chronic case, it can do in other seemingly incurable conditions. If you suffer from any form of skin-disease, don't delay. Certain relief and cure is waiting you in Mira Ointment. Get a box to-day. 50c. —6 for $2.50. At drug-stores—or from The Chemists' Co. of Canada, Ltd., Hamilton—Toronto. 18

HIGH LICENSE BY-LAW QUASHED

Justice Riddell Says Collingwood Council Fixed Fee at Prohibition Price.

Mr. Justice Riddell yesterday afternoon in Toronto gave judgment quashing the Collingwood bylaw which raised the hotel license fee from $250 to $2,500.

His Lordship holds that the Legislature did not intend to give any Council the power to fix a license fee which would practically mean prohibition.

Judge Riddell considers that a fee of $450 would be about fair for a town of Collingwood's size.

AT HOME AT ST. ANDREW'S MANSE

Pleasant Time Enjoyed Last Night—About a Hundred Present.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. G. Potter, president of St. Andrew's woman's Foreign Missionary Society, gave a most successful "at home" at the manse yesterday between the hours of four and six, to the members of the society and their friends. About one hundred took advantage of the occasion, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

The programme was of an informal character, but was a splendid one. Mrs. D McGregor sang a lullaby solo in excellent voice, and guitar instrumentals by Mr. John Brightman with piano accompaniment by Miss Mildred Brightman, were very pleasing contributions. Miss Waddell, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Waddell, of Dunedin, New Zealand, who is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hugh Waddell, contributed a number of piano solos which were much appreciated. Misses Lizzie Shearer and Mary Potter gave an excellent piano duet which delighted the company.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Ladies Of The Y.W.C.A. Please Their Friends In Gym. Concert

Closing Exercises at the Y. M. C. A. Attended by Large Number Last Night---A Fine Programme Was Presented and New Praise Won for the Ladies

The Gymnasium Concert which marks the annual closing of the Y. W.C.A. classes was held last evening in the Y.M.C.A. building and was another exhibition of the effective training which the young ladies receive under the direction of the physical directress, Miss Ivy Coventry. The seating capacity of the young men's "gym." was taxed to its limit by friends of both associations who thoroughly enjoyed the varied and highly interesting programme. In all the exercises the members of the three classes, senior junior and intermediate, displayed a precision of movement that is arrived at after careful practice. Not only that but the skill and gracefulness of the young ladies and little girls was a prominent feature. The exercises were also carried out in practically perfect time, each class going through the movements with every member in unison. It was these features that were so noticeable last year when a decided success was scored and they were responsible for the fresh praise which the classes won last night for the Y W C A, for themselves and particularly for Miss Coventry.

The Programme

An idea of the entertainment may be gained from the following programme:

Part I.

Fancy marching—Senior class.
Wand Exercises—Intermediates.
Flag drill—Juniors.
Dumb-bell drill—Seniors.
Trained Rabbits.
Sword dance—Three Intermediates
Piano duet—Misses Gumpright.
Marching and wand exercises—Juniors.

Part II.

Dumb-bell exercises—Intermediates.
Fencing, class work—Misses M and G Hall.
Club drill—Seniors.
Vocal, selected—Mr. W Mortimer Johnston.
Recitation—Miss Greta Labarr.
Rose-buds—Intermedaites.
Dumb-bell exercises—Juniors.
Highland Fling—Master Ewart O'Shea.
Tambourine drill—Seniors.

The Special Numbers

The extra numbers that were given were particularly pleasing. The Misses Gumpright, in a piano duet, played to advantage a rather brilliant number. Little Miss Labarr's recitation deserved the hearty encore which it received. Mr. Mortimer Johnston sang in good voice "The Sound of the Drum" and on being recalled favoured the audience with one of the selections from Rigoletto. Master Ewart O'Shea danced the Highland Fling in a finished manner and was given a warm reception. He gracefully responded to the encore.

The Exercises

The three classes were composed as follows:—

Intermediates.—Misses Phyllis Deane, Jessie Cressman, Marguerite Sanderson, Nellie Mather, Rubina Cumming, Florence Howden, Florence Scott, Isabel Morphet, Madeline Morrison, Margaret Neill, Jean Hall, Margaret Anderson, Marion Kendry, Margaret Eastwood and Rubina Montgomery.

Seniors.—Misses L Dean, G Sanderson, E Pollock, A Mimms, L Pollock, W Gumpright, H Dean, M Hall, G Hall, Edgar, Sanderson, Smith, Reid, Milburn, Mandel, Wood, Taylor, Stewart, Hyde, Morrison, Udy and Morley.

To give an adequate description of each number would be next to impossible. It may suffice to state that the juniors in their becoming white dresses were specially good in their flag drill. The intermediate class excelled as the Rosebuds, a particularly pleasing drill. The seniors in their first number, fancy marching, were very good but the Tambourine Drill was the piece de resistance of the evening both in costuming effect and in its unusual novelty.

Another of the hits of the evening was a sword dance in which three little girls, Misses Jessie Cressman, Marguerite Sanderson and Phyllis Deane, took part. This number was a charming one, the young ladies dancing in a graceful and clever manner.

An exhibition of fencing exercises by Misses Gwendolyn and Marley Hall was an interesting feature of the entertainment. It was also the first fencing work that the Y. W. C. A. has given in public and was heartily enjoyed.

The Accompanist

The success of the exercises is due in a large measure to the work of Miss Rannie, who played the piano accompaniments. She was of decided assistance to the classes by the exact time of her playing and by the adaptability of her selections to the various exercises.

One of the most amusing numbers was the Trained Rabbits, ten little girls dressed like rabbits, who sang well and performed a few simple exercises that were very funny. The rabbits were Greta LaBarr, Ida Jewitt, Arletta Freeburn, Grace Allan, Jean Shearer, Caroline Sturgeon, Elsie Northcote, Georgie Clements, Margaret Gibson and Florence Marvin. They were so popular with the audience that they repeated their number.

During the evening Miss Rannie and Miss Coventry were on several occasions presented with beautiful bouquets as tokens of appreciation for their efforts.

Kicked Through The Door Of A Charlotte Street Residence

Willam Richard Arrested Last Night — Wanted To See His Daughter But Was Denied The Privilege.

WAS FINED THIS MORNING

A man named Richards was arrested last evening about 7 o'clock by P. C. Meharry. Richards had been drinking during the afternoon at a local hotel and at 6 o'clock he started for home. He got out on Charlotte street and was unable to go any further, so he began to raise a disturbance. A telephone message was sent to the police station and P. C. Meharry went out and gathered Richards in.

In the police court this morning Wm. Richards occupied the box alone and was charged with having on Saturday last unlawfully created a disturbance on Charlotte street by being drunk. To this charge he pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Dancey, a Charlotte street resident, said Richards created a disturbance in front of his house and kicked the door in. The noise drew a big crowd around his home.

Richards, who is totally deaf, could not hear what the witness said, and P. C. Adams had to explain to the prisoner what the witness said. Richards tried to explain matters to the court. He said he went to Mr. Dancey's home Saturday night to say good-bye to his daughter, who is employed there. He was going away, and would perhaps never see her again. He denied kicking the door and said that he only stood outside.

The Chief said he was told by the prisoner's son that his mother was in the Mercer Reformatory and would not be out until July. His desire was to send the father up on the hill until that time, and when the two came out they would leave the city together.

His Worship fined Richards two dollars for being drunk, and as he did not have the money he will spend the next ten days on the hill.

The charge of being drunk and disorderly last night was not urged.

The Brotherhood Of St. Andrew Conference May Be Held Here

Head Office Anxious to Hold it in Peterborough—Local Chapters Will Consider the Matter—Many Prominent Ministers and Laymen Will Attend.

LAST HELD IN BROCKVILLE

The executive officers of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for Canada are very anxious to hold the next annual Eastern Ontario Conference at Peterborough. Mr. Thomas, the travelling secretary for the Brotherhood, has been in communication with the Senior Chapter of St. John's Church, with that object in view. There will be a meeting called some time in the near future of the three chapters of the city to discuss the matter.

The suggestion to have the conference in this city was made by the Junior Chapter of St. John's Church to the senior chapter and the officers of the latter took the matter up with the head office.

Should the conference be held here there will be in the neighbourhood of one hundred and fifty delegates from different points in Ontario come to the city. The head officers of the Brotherhood and several of the prominent clergymen of Canada and United States would be present to address the gathering.

COW TESTS OF INTEREST TO PINE GROVE PATRONS

The Government cow test in connection with the Pine Grove Cheese Factory for the month ending Feb. 17, showed that the milk of 6 cows averaged 376 lbs. The average test was 4.1 and the average number of pounds of butter fat was 15.7.

RUN DOWN---TIRED

Peterborough People Who Are in This Condition Are Asked to Read This Article.

There are many people in this vicinity at this season of the year who are all run down, no strength—hardly able to drag about. Don't know what ails them.

We want to say to every such person that our cod liver preparation, Vinol, is the tonic reconstructor which they need. Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work. In this natural manner strength and vitality quickly replace weakness and lassitude.

Miss Rose Blair, president Sophomore Club, Kansas City, writes: "Last spring I was all run down, nervous, irritable, and could not sleep. I tried many medicines without benefit. Vinol was recommended. It was delicious, and not at all like the greasy cod liver oil and emulsions I was used to. Vinol gave me a hearty appetite and restored me to perfect health and strength."

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as an unexcelled strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women, delicate children and the convalescent.

Try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. McDermid & Jury, Druggists, also the Market Drug Store, Peterborough.

A COLD BATH FROM AN UPPER STOREY

Young Man Reports to the Police That Two Pails of Water Were Thrown on Him.

A young man, named Charles Peters, came into the police station last night to report that some persons in the Conservative Club had thrown two pails of water on him. He said he was walking down George street and was passing underneath the windows of the club when he was covered by a sudden drownpour of water. He looked up in time to get the benefit of a second pail square in the face. Several men, he says, were looking out of the window. The unfortunate man, after reporting the trouble sought out the policeman on the street to investigate the matter. At the time that the water was thrown on Mr. Peters it was raining heavily and no doubt these men were trying to help things along.

CAR WAS PUSHED OFF G.T.R. SIDING

Freight Train Was Being Made Up—No Stop-Block on the Siding.

WAS SOON REPLACED AGAIN

About six o'clock last evening one of the freight cars on the siding east of the G. T. R. freight sheds, was pushed off the track. A freight train in the yards was being made up. The engine backed into the string of cars on the siding. There was no stop block to hold the cars back so that the last one was pushed off. The brakesman noticed the accident and gave the forward signal, but not before the last car had been pushed within a few feet of the street car track. The engine pulled the cars forward again and the trainman held held the last car in position with some railway ties. After several attempts the car was loaded safely on the siding again.

MANY VISITORS WERE PRESENT

Oddfellows Conferred Degrees on Candidates From Surrounding Villages Last Night.

A very enjoyable time was spent in the I.O.O.F. hall last night when three degrees of Oddfellowship were conferred upon a number of candidates from the surrounding villages. There were seven candidates from Havelock, nine from Norwood and three from Marmora, while in addition visitors were present from Lakefield, Hastings and Marmora. The work was put on by the splendid degree team of Peterborough Lodge in brilliant fashion. Afterwards an enjoyable banquet was held, Mr. T. H. Hooper catering for the occasion. Short speeches were made by some of the visitors and by members of the local lodges, and a pleasant social hour around the board was spent before the gathering broke up in time to allow the visitors to catch their trains for home.

THE DAILY ASTROLOGICAL HOROSCOPE

What the Stars Bring for the 28th Day of March.

Calm shines the day, but without signs to guide.
Be heedful. Move in course true and tried,

The 88th day, moon's age 26 days.

A quiet, uneventful day opens with this period and the signs remain neutral, though placid, during the twenty-four hours. No reasonable plan need be negatived, nor need any except hazards be postponed.

There is no clear indication, however, to guide the way. It is a day for prudence and great caution in judgment and word.

Take heed this day in stepping on anything that moves, whether elevator, car or obstruction.

A ready tongue and an alert mind will captivate the woman whose birthdate this is. She must be heedful this twelvemonth. The unmarried will be wooed in a strange place.

The man with this birthdate will lose money in a lawsuit or lose promotion or even position through a complication that can be avoided if passion in suppressed in judging a complicated situation.

The girl born this day will reach after a high ideal. She will be inclined to lack of neatness in dress.

The boy born to-day will be headstrong and quick in temper, qualities which will injure what otherwise will be a great success in his career.

HOLD LITERARY MEETING TO-NIGHT

Young Men of St. Peter's T. A. S. Will Hold Regular Meeting.

PARDON ASKED FOR QUEENIE GRANT

Mr. Gordon Has Applied to the Minister of Justice—Answer Not Yet Received.

SHE IS STILL SERVING TIME

There is a chance that Queenie Grant, who was arrested some time ago as an inmate of a house of ill-fame in East City and sentenced to one year in the Mercer Reformatory, Toronto, may be pardoned and allowed her freedom. It is learned that Mr. G Gordon of the firm of O'Connell & Gordon, who so ably defended the young girl in the police court, has applied to the Minister of Justice for pardon. A reply has not been received yet and Queenie Grant is still confined to one of the cells in the jail. It is also learned that the name this girl has given is an assumed one and she comes from a very respectable family.

HOW MANY CUPS OF TEA IN A POUND?

That depends upon the quality.

If the tea is fully matured and ripened and not spoiled in the touring, there should be nearly 200 cups to a full pound of tea such as John's Tea.

As a rule one teaspoonful of John's Tea for every two cups, infused for five minutes—not boiled—should be as strong as you ought to drink it. This produces that rich, pungent flavour for which John's Tea is claimed to be "high as the Rockies in quality." Prove it by ordering a package from J. John, Opera House Block, George street. 1d 1w

LADIES' CHORAL SOCIETY TO BE ORGANIZED

Meeting in the Y. W. C. A. To-night for That Purpose.

An organization meeting of the proposed Choral Society for the ladies of the Y.W.C.A. is called for to-night at 8 o'clock. This idea is a most deserving one and should receive the hearty assistance of the ladies who are interested in choral work. Mr. McCann of George street church is working hard to promote the society and his past successful efforts should guarantee another success with the co-operation of the ladies.

All the ladies interested in choral work are invited to attend the meeting.

SHEPHERD SENT PRESS CLIPPINGS TO HIS WIFE

Took His Sentence in a Philosophical Manner—To be Watched at Kingston.

George Shepherd was yesterday safely lodged in the Kingston penitentiary by Turnkey Ray and Deputy Sheriff Hall. The "Pen." authorities were put wise to Shepherd's peculiarities and he will be closely watched. Shepherd seems now to take his troubles philosophically. He read the account of his attempted suicide and the two years' sentence in the press, after which he mailed copies to his wife.

A despatch from the Limestone City referring to him is also rather amusing. Upon entering the penitentiary office the party who received the trio from Peterborough remarked that he noticed they would soon be sending down a man who attempted suicide. Shepherd heard the remark and was the first to inform the officials that he was that man.

Mr. Bimberg went to his room and an hour later he was found dead. It is supposed that death was caused by a sudden attack of heart disease. He is survived by a widow, a daughter and six brothers. He was 45 years old.

Kipling Likes Us.

London, March 27.—In the third of his series of articles in the Morning Post, Mr. Rudyard Kipling says the dignity of Canadian cities always impressed him. "Our eldest sister has more beauty and strength inside her first three cities than the rest of us put together." Mr. Kipling criticises the street cleaning, water supply and traffic regulations.

Swallowed By Mergers.

The Legislature Was Divided

Budget Debate Concluded By Premier Whitney.

AMENDMENT TURNED DOWN

Leader of the Opposition MacKay's Resolution of Regret at Provincial Expenditure Voted Down by 54 to 19—Mr. Donovan Deals in Menu Cards and Mr. Lucas Talked About Three-Fifths Clause.

Toronto, March 27.—Nineteen to fifty-four. That was the vote last night in the Legislature on the Opposition amendment to the motion to go into supply. The amendment read:

"That this House regrets the yearly increase in the ordinary controllable expenditure of the province during the last four years, noticeably under the heads of civil government, and contingencies; the expenditure under the former, civil government, having risen from $344,006 in 1904 to $538,475 in 1907, and that under the head of contingencies from $78,442 in 1904 to $185,035 in 1907, and also regrets that the Government is open to a charge of carelessness and extravagance in several other items of large expenditures."

It was the first division of the session. Allan Studholme voted with the Opposition, and there were a number of pairs.

A. E. Donovan continued the debate. He contrasted the two Governments by the device of political menu cards. The Bole card showed Minnie M., cream of chicken soup. Organizer Vance chicken mayonnaise with crooked sauce, prime ribs of beef with burnt ballot pudding, Capt. Sullivan Shannon rice pudding, scrape the barnacles off the ship of state coffee. The Whitney card included cheap school book white fish with truthful sauce, road turkey stuffed with political character, secret ballot plum pudding, honest temperance legislation cheese. The honest Government Whitney soup would sustain them in their darkest hour, he declared.

I. B. Lucas dealt with the financial criticism leveled against the Government. The Government was spending millions on education and to banish ignorance. Next in importance he believed was legislation to control the evils of the liquor traffic. He could not believe that in the discussion of such a point as the three-fifths clause the Opposition was uninfluenced by partisan considerations.

While not in favor of the three-fifths clause himself, he was satisfied with the forceful rule for three years past of the Provincial Secretary.

Mr. MacKay's Address.

"Things are not so bad that they might not be worse," was the view about which Mr. MacKay thought both sides of the House were agreed. Following in the footsteps of their predecessors, accounted for any virtues the Government might possess.

He had advocated the postponing payment of taxes until a mine began to pay, but he had gone further and been in favor of graded royalties so that the poor mine would pay less, and the mine producing millions a heavier royalty.

Local option was an abstract question, and might be all right in a rural district, and yet inapplicable on a city like Toronto. Mr. Lucas had objected to the three-fifths clause, yet had twice voted for it. Mr. MacKay thought it unwise to force a vote unless there was an opportunity of carrying it, but the municipalities should not be forced at all or it ceased to be local option. With regard to the three-fifths clause, he believed, as he had always believed, that the majority should rule.

He considered the Minister of Agriculture "the weak sister of the combination," and complained that the department had not been as generously treated as others.

Mr. MacKay repeated his views on law reform and the desirability of doing away with the bill of costs system.

Mr. Whitney spoke of the contortions of the Liberal party under its present leadership. He did not know what Mr. MacKay's conception of leadership was or whether he had any, but the Opposition had a great constitutional position, almost as important as that of the Government.

Instead of acting as a critic of the Government, Mr. MacKay had spent 40 minutes in defending himself. His speech was a campaign one and Mr. Whitney only regretted that it contained four or five statements without

HAD THIRTY-TWO BOILS ON HIS BACK AT ONE TIME.

Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

The only way to rid yourself of boils, pimples, and all skin blotches and blemishes, so that they will never return to bother you again, is to have the blood thoroughly cleaned of all of its impurities.

For this purpose there is no other blood medicine to equal Burdock Blood Bitters.

It has been on the market for over thirty years, and in that time we have received thousands of testimonials stating positively that it will cure the worst known cases of boils.

Mr. James Combs, Eden, Ont., writes: "I think Burdock Blood Bitters a great medicine for boils. I had them so bad I could not work. I had thirty-two on my back at one time. I used only two bottles of B.B.B. and they completely cured me. I cannot recommend it too highly.

the truth in connection an fact, and these would be circulated in the country and perhaps believed. Mr. MacKay said the Government did not trust the people about Toronto University.

"We do trust the people. And the people trust us," was the Premier's retort. He referred Mr. MacKay to the editor of "The Globe," himself an official of the Government, as to whether the Government had adopted the spoils system.

Mr. MacKay's financial criticism, said the Premier, consisted in declaring that if the Government had not got the subsidy money (pounding on his desk) they wouldn't have it. If they had not got any revenue (pounding on his desk as Mr. MacKay had done) they would not have any.

WELCH MURDER CASE.

Did Detective McDonnell Get the Woman's Diamond Ring?

Detroit, Mich., March 27.—Persistently endeavoring to bring into the trial of Percy Bowin the fact that Chief of Detectives McDonnell had accepted a pawn ticket for a diamond ring belonging to Mrs. Cornelia Welch from the woman's son, William Post, Attorney Edward H. Kennedy injected the first bit of real excitement into the trial yesterday afternoon.

After three days and a half of effort, the jury had been secured shortly before noon. Assistant Prosecutor Grose had rehearsed to the jury the crime in all its ghastly details, and at the afternoon session Post was called as the first witness. He testified that he had talked with Bowin in the county jail and that Bowin had said that he killed Mrs. Welch for money.

Other witnesses who were called yesterday were County Physician William S. Grimes, Coroner's Clerk Clarence Tilton, Patrolmen Devereaux, and Dingeman, and Detectives Ames Kunkle, Elias Baker and Emery Brooks. Their testimony related to the finding of the body of Mrs. Welch and the condition of the room in which it was found. Dr. Grimes said that death was due to hemorrhage of the brain, caused by external injuries, which ruptured the arteries. He created a mild sensation by saying that in his opinion some person had held his left arm around Mrs. Welch's neck and struck her in the face with his right hand.

This is the exact manner in which Bowin is said to have confessed to having killed the old woman, and one of the jurors asked Dr. Grimes if he could be certain about this fact. This testimony was later stricken out, however.

MANY IDLE MEN IN WEST.

Unemployed Refused to Sign Declaration of Poverty.

Nanaimo, B.C., March 27.—The unemployed made a demonstration late yesterday at a meeting addressed by Premier McBride.

One hundred men who had refused to sign a declaration that they had no money as imposed by the Government before relief work is given, assembled in front of the hall where McBride was to speak and were harangued by Hawthornthwaite, the Socialist leader.

A resolution was passed calling on the Government to dispense with the signing of the declaration on the ground that it would disfranchise the men on returning to England. The deputation then strove to break into the hall, but were driven back by the police. Later Premier McBride received the men at his hotel.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Child Five Years of Age Played With Fire.

Huntsville, March 27.—Viola Fletcher, the five-year-old daughter of W. J. Fletcher, Ravenscliffe, was terribly burned playing with the fire.

The mother had gone to the barn to milk the cows. She left her two little daughters, Viola, aged five, and Mary, aged three, in the house. But a few minutes after she left the older girl ran screaming to her with her clothing on fire.

The lid of the stove was removed, and it is supposed that the little girl was lighting paper when the accident occurred. She died an hour later.

WILL HE MARRY HER?

Emperor William Anxious About the Duke of Abruzzi.

Venice, March 27.—It is reported here that Emperor William of Germany, in conversation with King Victor Emmanuel, asked the Italian ruler whether he was soon to have an American cousin.

This was a reference to the reports that the Duke of Abruzzi is engaged to be married to Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Elkins of West Virginia.

The King replied that he could not say, that he must await the arrival of the duke, who is expected in Rome from New York on April 1.

Higher Duty on Tobacco.

Ottawa, March 27.—In the pubils accounts committee to-day Lewis Wigle advocated a higher duty to shut out United States tobacco. He contended that farmers did not benefit by the present duty, while manufacturers did, and said at present only 4,000,000 pounds could be disposed of, but if the United States tobacco were shut out there would be a market for 14,000,000 pounds. He thought a uniform stamp would help the grower, and also favored Mr. Fielding's proposal to make the excise the same on all tobacco.

Fees Considered To Be Too Big

Collingwood's License Bylaw Declared to Be Illegal.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE LOSE

Municipality, Says Judge Britton, Cannot Fix License Fees So High as to Make Them Prohibitive—Evidence of Ulterior Motives Detected,—Says Between $450 and $1,200 Is Reasonable.

Toronto, March 27.—Collingwood's $2,500 license fee is excessive and therefore illegal and the bylaw is quashed. Justice Britton so delivered judgment late yesterday:

"It was not intended by the Legislature," he says, "that local prohibition should be brought in this way.

"If, for any reason in the bylaw itself, it does not permit the business of tavern-keeping to be carried on in a place not under local prohibition, upon the condition of paying a duty and obeying regulations and acting within restrictions lawfully imposed, then the provincial law under which the municipal bylaw was passed is being evaded, and not properly regarded by the members of the municipal council.

"The minority have their rights, and it as much the duty of the municipal council to protect the rights of the minority as to carry out the wishes of the majority.

"The amount of the duty imposed by the law is of itself the strongest evidence of want of bona fides. The liquor act is now, as consolidated, the result of years of experiment and careful watching of the trade, and of dealing with offenders of all sorts against the act, and against rules and regulations as to places where liquor is sold.

"The act has fixed $450 for Collingwood, $1,200 for the largest of our cities. If $450 is not enough for Collingwood, prima facies, some amount between $450 and $1,200 would be reasonable; but instead of that, the highest fee for tavern license known in the world, so far as presented to me in the argument, was fixed.

LIFE-SAVER'S FORTUNE.

Peter Anderson Left Snug Sum by a Man He Rescued.

Chicago, March 27.—A despatch from Tacoma, Wash., says:

To have saved the life of a fellow-emigrant in a wreck in 1873, and 35 years later to have read in a newspaper plastered upon the wall of a homestead shack an advertisement which led to his becoming the recipient of a fortune of $375,000, is the experience of Peter Anderson, a farm hand who resides near White Bluffs, Wash.

Anderson has received a check for $5,000 to enable him to proceed to New York to carry out the final legal formalities necessary in the transfer of the fortune. His friend was Peter Knudsen, who made $1,000,000 in the glove business in New Jersey.

LIVE ABOARD SHIP.

Prince of Wales Not Likely to Stay at the Citadel.

London, March 27.—The Prince of Wales will probably sail from Portsmouth for Canada on the new cruiser Minotaur on July 16. The cruiser is due back on Sept. 4. The prince will not go beyond Quebec, and as the Citadel there is small, will probably live aboard the cruiser. Sir Francis Hopwood, Permanent Under-Secretary for the Colonies, will accompany the prince, Lord Elgin being unable to leave the capital in consequence of Parliament being in session.

DYNAMITE NO GOOD.

Burglars Failed to Blow G.T.R. Safe at Chatham.

Chatham, March 27.—The G.T.R. freight offices were broken into by burglars early yesterday, and the large safe was attacked by dynamite. The burglars got in by prying open one of the windows. They placed a charge of dynamite in the lock of the safe, which blew it to pieces. After the lock was broken, however, they could not get the safe open and had to abandon the job.

216 IS THE SCORE TO BEAT NOW FOR THAT BOX OF HAVANAS

Two hundred and sixteen is the score now to beat for the box of cigars donated by the Peterborough Bowling Club for the highest single score made on the P. B. C. alleys this week. "Bill" Mellroy set that mark yesterday afternoon and it will take a lot of beating, although several of the trundlers were hot on the trail last night. "Bill" Waram had the high score on Wednesday night, getting 181, but that mark did not last long. Tommy Boyd boosted it up to 190 yesterday morning, and in the afternoon he and Mellroy went after it once again, doing the prettiest bowling seen so far on the alleys. Mellroy soon had a score of 190, but that was not good enough for Boyd put up a mark of 207. Once again the cigar mark was raised, Mellroy getting the magnificent score of 216. He was bowling in grand form yesterday, and did not have a break until the last frame, when he had a chance to beat Waram's alley record of 231. Boyd and Mellroy each got several strings of over 200 and were tipping over the pins in lively fashion.

Last night the high scoring was kept up. Cyril Giroux boosted his high mark of 198 up to 212, rolling a splendid string without a break, and at the same time over on alley No. 3 Geo. Cairns was trundling another score of 212. Claire Gutterson had a great chance of beating the record, but fell down towards the close of his string, getting 199.

Outside of the work of these bowlers the feature last night was a game between Frost's Colts and Mellroy's Pastimes, each team winning a game, while the Pastimes won out on the aggregate by 13 pins, the score being 1574 to 1561. Giroux, with 212, had the highest single score, while Gutterson was second with 199. Waram was high for the two games with 375, while Mellroy was second up with 353. The score:

Pastimes—
Mellroy	181	172—353
Wasson	143	161—304
Hamstead	121	134—255
Gutterson	199	150—349
Connors	157	156—313
	801	773-1574
Colts—
Frost	175	155—330
Giroux	131	212—343
Ross	114	130—244
Stroud	140	129—269
Waram	181	194—375

STIRLING MAN WILL TAKE PART

Adolphus Sharp is In Training for the Big Walking Match.

A Stirling man is the latest aspirant for the walking championship of Canada which will be decided at the big walking match to be held next month. Indications point to a very large field, as entries are coming in from all parts of the Province. Mr. Geo. Stevens has received the following letter from the Stirling pedestrian:

Dear Sir,—Kindly enter me for your walking contest which takes place in your city, beginning April 20. I may say I have a commendable local reputation, and in this contest will try to the best of my ability to be worthy of my friends' confidence. I am now in fair condition, and begin to-day to put myself in first-class condition. Send me by return mail full details.

Yours truly,
ADOLPHUS SHARP,
Stirling, Ont.

Writer Wants to Know Where It Is Or If It Was Taken At All.

Sporting Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—Would you kindly give me a few lines of space to air a complaint against the "West Ends." In last night's paper I saw where the Intermediate League is being talked of again. The West Ends won last year and were given the entrance fee money of the other teams, amounting to six dollars with which they were to have their photos taken. I have never seen the photos, or heard of any one who had. So I think it is up to the West Ends to show the photos of the team or the six dollars before the season opens this year. Thanking you for the space, I remain,

Yours truly,
"Member of One of the Other Teams."

MANY WANT TO PLAY FOOTBALL

Club in Connection With the Y. M. C. A. Could Easily be Formed.

In yesterday's issue the organization of a football team in connection with the Y. M. C. A. was proposed, and from all accounts there would be no trouble experienced in forming a club, which could enter in to Midland League. There are many young men who are anxious to play the game and do not desire to enter the Quaker ranks, as the latter's line-up will not be greatly changed from a year ago.

The committee left in charge of this department, and which was appointed some time ago at a members meeting, should find no trouble in forming a club.

BASKETBALL TEAMS TO PRACTICE

Something New for the Closing Exhibition—A Burlesque Game

A practice of the first and second teams, will be held from 6 to 7.30 o'clock this evening. The following men are asked to turn out:

2nd Team — Wallace, Cressman, Loomis, Campbell and S. Laing.

Refreshments will be served after practice.

There will be no league games this evening. The semi-final game, which was scheduled to be played this evening has been postponed till Monday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. Teams 2 and 4 will be the contestants.

After the regular class work this evening the whole class will practise pyramids and postures.

The programme for the closing exhibition will be one of the best ever seen here. The latest addition to the programme will be a sabre exhibition by Sergt.-Major Brittain and one of his pupils. The burlesque basketball game will be extremely funny. The exact date of the exhibition has not been settled as yet, but will be very near the 21st of April. Watch for it.

HARTLEY IS WALKING FAITHFULLY

Doing Training Stunts Every Night on The Y.M.C.A. Track.

Dave Hartley is at work every night in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium in preparation for the big walking match next month and the form he is showing guarantees that his competitors will have troubles of their own. An Examiner reporter watched him in his training stunts last night and was greatly struck with the speed and action shown by the veteran pedestrian. Trainer Dick Baker had him in charge and paced him for a few laps, being forced to run in order to keep ahead of Hartley who finished his workout with a run at top speed. He will be in the pink of condition by the date of the race.

CURLERS PHOTO'ED WITH THEIR TOP HATS

Rollie Waddell's Rink Won the Hats at Orillia—Picture Taken Yesterday.

All who have closely followed the local curlers through their winter's endeavours to keep up with their former prestige in spite of the hard blow which fate dealt them in the loss of the rink. The citizens were pleased when one of the rinks returned from Orilla with four silk hats which they won in the competition there.

The hats are very becoming and the picture which Mr. Louis Mendel took of the rink is a good one. The members are Mr. "Jim" Montgomery, who played lead, Mr. Dave Hall, who had the second stone, Mr. Harry Peete, vice-skip and Mr. Rollie Waddell, skip.

This rink can safely say that it is the only silk "plug" hat curling rink in the Dominion and the men present a fine appearance with their brooms, stones and the four hats. Their friends will be given an opportunity of seeing the pictures when they are put on exhibition in a short time. This rink did some splendid curling during the winter and deserve praise for the good showing they made in Orillia.

HARRON TO START FOR SURE

English Champion Will be Here for Long Distance Walking Match.

Harron, the Sudbury walker is getting in shape for the big walking match next month and the old English champion promises to make things interesting for the field. He has written to Mr. Geo. Stevens as follows:

Dear Sir,—I want you to enter me in the race on 20th of April, as I am sure to start. I shall be hard at it now, walking for all I am worth. I am just about the same as Hartley in walking time and I think we will be close together all through the walk. I am an old English walker; on the track for 30 years and a champion of London, Eng.

Yours truly,
WALTER HARRON.

HIGH SINGLE SCORE IS NOW 221

Tommy Boyd Hung Up That Figure on The P. B. C. Alleys This Afternoon.

This afternoon at the Peterborough Bowling Club alleys, Tommy Boyd set a new high mark in the single score competition, running this week for a box of cigars. The "hook" ball was working beautifully and in his first game he put up a score of 221, five pins more than Mellroy's figures, which up to this afternoon was the high score. Boyd's score is only ten pins below Bill Wareham's record for the alleys.

STRIKES AND SPARES

There is a big bowling game on for Tuesday night at the Peterborough Bowling Club, between the Octagons and the Munro House Colts. The game opens at eight o'clock sharp and will be one of the most exciting games of the season. The teams will be:

Octagons—J. Moore, E. Ford, C. Barber, B. Gillespie, W. E. Hellhouse.

Munro's Colts—R. J. Munro, D. B. McKee, Martin Kirn, Herbert Martin, D. T. Huston.

Ladies will be able to patronize the new alleys now. Two alleys, are being curtained to give privacy to the fair sex while they are indulging in the pastime.

An unusually large gallery followed the games last night and there was some rooting during the Colts-Pastimes' battle, Jack Connors got a hand when he tore off a spare after an 8-10 split.

Ernie Wasson did some pretty bowling last night and would have been over the 200 mark in his first game if he had not "blown" up on the last frames of the string.

Waram made a great finish in one game last night, when starting out with breaks in his first and second frames, he hung up 194.

MR. LOUIS MENDEL GETS BALUSTRADE

Mr. MacDonald, of Hall's Store, Presents Artistic Design That Was in The Window.

Those who admire taste and originality in window dressing will remember the elaborate but dainty design which Mr. H. C. McDonald had at Richard Hall's a week or two ago. One of his backgrounds was enhanced by an ornate arrangement of pedestals and a balustrade in a brown stone effect.

It was an excellent imitation of carved stone and only a genius could have prepared it so effectively out of the simple articles which were used. The outside was of sand put on by a sand blast, and the whole arrangement had a decidedly artistic appearance.

Mr. McDonald has since changed his design and has presented this background to Mr. Louis Mendel as a mark of his appreciation of Mr. Mendel's services to him. It will be an addition to Mr. Mendel's photographic equipment.

PROPRIETORS OF NEW LAUNDRY

The new steam laundry to be opened in Peterborough in the near future will be under the management of Messrs. James O'Brien and Frank Pope. They expect to locate between Brock and Murray streets.

TRAMP PRINTER IN A NEW YORK CHURCH SPEAKS HIS MIND

Asks a Startled Congregation of Worshippers What They Mean By Following Jesus—Wife Had Died In Gasping For Breath.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND

New York, March 26.—The sermon had come to a close. The preacher had taken his seat. The quartette had just sung:

"All for Jesus, all for Jesus
All my being's ransomed powers,"

when the congregation was startled by the sound of a man's voice. It came from the rear of the church, from one of the seats under the gallery. The next moment the figure of a man came out of the shadow there and walked down the middle aisle.

Before the startled congregation realized what was being done, the man had reached the open space in front of the pulpit and turned about facing the people.

"I've been wondering since I came in here, if it would be just the thing to say a word at the close of this service. I'm not drunk, and I'm not crazy, and I'm perfectly harmless, but if I die, as there is every likelihood I shall in a few days, I want the satisfaction of thinking that I said my say in a place like this, before just this sort of a crowd.

"I'm not an ordinary tramp, though I don't know of any teaching of Jesus that makes one kind of a tramp less worth saving than another. Do you?" He put the question as naturally as if the whole congregation had been a small private Bible class. He paused just a moment and coughed painfully. Then he went on:

"I lost my job ten months ago. I am a printer by trade. The new type-setting machines are beautiful specimens of invention, but I know six men who have killed themselves inside of a year just on account of these machines. Of course, I don't blame the newspapers for getting the machines. Meanwhile, what can a man do? I have never learned but the one trade, and that's all I can do. I've tramped all over the country trying to find something. There are a good many fellows like me. I'm not complaining, am I? Just stating facts. But I was wondering, as I sat there under the gallery if what you call following Jesus is the same thing as what He taught. What did He mean when He said: 'Follow me?' The minister said," here the man turned about and looked up at the pulpit, "that it was necessary for the disciples of Jesus to follow His steps, and he said the steps were obedience, faith, love and imitation. But I did not hear him tell just what he meant that to mean, especially the last step. What do Christians mean by following the steps of Jesus? I've tramped through the city for three days trying to find a job and all that time I've not had a word of sympathy or comfort except from your minister here, who said he was sorry for me and hoped I would find a job somewhere. I suppose it is because you get so imposed on by the professional tramp that you have lost your interest in the other sort. I'm not blaming anybody, am I? Just stating facts. Of course, I understand you all can't go out of your way to hunt up jobs for people like me. I'm not asking you to, but what I feel puzzled about is, what what I feel puzzled about is, what mean that you are suffering and denying yourselves and trying to save lost suffering humanity just as I understand Jesus did? What do you mean by it? I see the ragged edge of things a good deal. I understand there are more than five hundred men in this city in my case. Most of them have families. My wife died four months ago. I'm glad she is out of trouble. My little girl is staying with a printer's family until I find a job. Somehow I get puzzled when I see so many Christians living in luxury and saying, 'Jesus, I my cross have taken, all to leave and follow Thee,' and remember how my wife died in a tenement in New York City, gasping for air and asking God to take the little girl, too. Of course I don't expect you people can prevent every one from dying of starvation, lack of proper nourishment, and tenement air, but what does following Jesus mean? I understand that Christian people own a good many of the tenements. A member of a church was the owner of the one where my wife died, and I have wondered if following Jesus all the way was true in his case. I heard some people singing at a church prayer meeting the other night:

All for Jesus, all for Jesus;
All my being's ransomed powers;
All my thoughts and all my doings,
All my days and all my hours;

and I kept wondering as I sat on the steps outside just what they meant by it. It seems to me there's an awful lot of trouble in the world that somehow wouldn't exist if all the people who sing such songs went and lived them out. I suppose I don't understand. But what would Jesus do? In that what you mean by following in his steps? It seems to me sometimes as if the people in the city churches had good clothes and nice houses to live in, and money to spend for luxuries, and could go away on summer vacations and all that, while the people outside of the churches, thousands of them, die in tenements and walk the streets for jobs, and never had a piano or a picture in the house, and grow up in misery and drunkenness and sin—"

The man gave a queer lurch over in the direction of the communion table and laid one grimy hand on it. His hat fell upon the carpet at his feet. A stir went through the congregation. Dr. West half rose from his seat, but as yet the silence was unbroken by any voice or movement worth mentioning in the audience. The man passed his other hand across his eyes, and then, without any warning, fell heavily forward on his face, full length, up the aisle.

A HISTORY OF THE REMARKABLE PROGRESS OF LODGE LANSDOWNE, SONS' OF ENGLAND, PETERBOROUGH

Some Facts Briefly Told of How The Lodge Was Organized—The Success and Prosperity It Has Achieved.

REMINISCENCES OF THE PAST

In the flourishing city of Peterborough, as might be expected, says the Sons of England Record, the Sons of England have a high place in the esteem of the people. The presence of a large English population is one of the reasons for the prosperity of the city. Among the merchants and manufacturers there is a good proportion of the natives of old Albion, and their sons. They have made their mark in the public life of the city, as well as in commercial circles. In their day of success they have not forgotten their early struggles, a fact that is shown by their connection with the great fraternal society that bears the name of their native land.

For nearly twenty-five years the S. O. E. B. S. has flourished in Peterborough. It was on the sixth day of August, 1883, that Lodge Lansdowne No. 25, was instituted. The society was young at that time, as the number of the lodge shows. It speaks volumes for the charter members that from the very first the lodge was prosperous. This is not to say that there were no difficulties to overcome. These are met in the organizing of every new society. But the steady progress of the order in Peterborough was proof that it had found congenial soil, and the happy fruits of good fellowship that have since been garnered is still more convincing evidence of the fact.

The charter of the lodge bears the signatures of the three chief supreme officers: Bro. J. W. Higginbotham, president; Bro. John Clayton, vice-president, and the versatile Supreme Secretary, Bro. John W. Carter. Of these three, Bro. Carter is the only one still living, and is as active in the work of the society to-day as ever. In addition to the supreme officers, the names of the following appear as the charter members: A G Compigne, I S Hall, Phil. P Breillatte, E Mannell, G A Milner, I Bradley, H Manley, Geo. Godfrey, R Parks, W Ringer, Robt. Sproule, Fred Brown and J E Norris. Of the above, Bros. Hall, Bradley, Manley Parks and Sproule are living and still identified with the order — some in Peterborough and others in different parts of the country.

The First Five Years

With that caution which distinguishes the Englishman the young lodge learned to keep within its resources. The men who managed its affairs were determined to put it on a safe footing. For the first five years, therefore, Lodge Lansdowne met in the small hall where it was instituted, which was over Long Brothers store on George street. It was in front of this building that the members of the society erected the famous Queen's Jubilee Arch in 1887. Pictures of this splendid piece of patriotic architecture are in the possession of many of the members. Naturally they prize them highly. It is proof positive of the enterprise of the society in its infancy. It was then only four years old in Peterborough.

From a Membership of Thirteen

The history of Lansdowne Lodge disproves the old superstition about the number thirteen. It started with that number of members, and from the very beginning increased rapidly in membership and wealth. From this small beginning it has grown till now there are 215 members in good standing, and a good round sum to its credit in the bank. It is regarded as one of the most prosperous lodges in the society, with a high standard of qualification for the members.

Some idea of the rapid growth of the lodge is gleaned from the fact that when it had been five years in existence. The sum of $1,800 was spent in the interior decorations of the present hall. The building was dedicated by Bro. W. Kempling, the then Supreme Grand President. To-day Lodge Lansdowne has quarters that any lodge might well be proud of. In addition to the lodge room the suite includes a splendid supper room and convention committee rooms, all on the one floor. The rooms are the coolest and best equipped to be found anywhere. The walls are decorated with a number of valuable pictures, most of which were presented by friends of the lodge. A rare white rose degree chart is among the art treasures. Another wall decoration that attracts attention is a beautifully illuminated and framed list of the Past Presidents from the first meeting down to the present time, which is inscribed as follows:

Lansdowne Lodge, No. 25, instituted 1883. List of Past Presidents:

1884, A G Compigne; 1885, Thomas Gunn, D.D.; 1886, W Brandrette, D. D.; 1887, I Richardson; 1888, Roland Tivey; 1889, F Mitchell; 1890-1, R. Waram, D.D.; 1892, W Saxby, D.D.; 1893, T H Martin, D.D.; 1894, George Carpenter; 1895, D Curtis, D.D.; 1896, E A Peck, D.D.; 1897, Dr. Pigeon; 1898-9, T J Stenton; 1900-1, J. F Dowling; 1902, F Turner; 1903, J Turner, Jr.; 1904, H L Beal, D. D.; 1905-06, C F Kitney, D. D.; 1907, E W Elcombe.

Owing to the success that attended the lodge during the first six years and the enthusiasm that prevailed among the members, it was believed the best interests of the order would be served by the formation of another lodge in Peterborough. They set to work and organized Lodge Peterborough. The lodge ran on for several years, had a splendid record, and with an exceptionally friendly spirit of rivalry existing between the two lodges under which the membership of the order rapidly increased, but owing to the expenses involved in keeping up two lodges, and other details, amalgamation was decided upon, and ever since there has been but one lodge in Peterborough.

Quite a number of those who left Lansdowne to form Peterborough are to-day working hard to push forward the interests of the mother lodge and of the society generally.

The Present Officers

Lansdowne Lodge is to be congratulated in having for this year not only a popular and enthusiastic President, but a very efficient staff of officers. No doubt the work they have undertaken will be accomplished with the same degree of success that has always attended the efforts of its past officers. Following is a list of the officers for 1908:

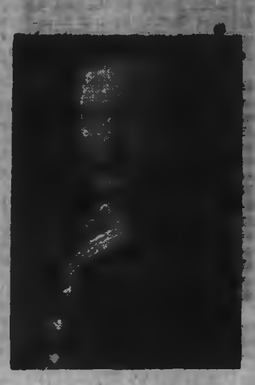
W. Pres., Dr. W H Young, M.D.; P. P., E W Elcombe; Vice-Pres., Robert Bunting; Chaplain, R. Maughan; Treasurer, Chris. Wood; Fin.-Sec., S A Oke; Rec.-Sec., and Press Cor., Wilfrid Shiner; 1st Com., Wm. Taylor; 2nd Com., J Brown; 3rd Com., Robt. Sheppard; 4th Com., Allen; 5th Com., Theobald; 6th Com., Roberts; Inside Guard, R. Waram; Outside Guard, Steve Coveney; Auditors, H L Seal, C F Kitney; Lodge Trustees, H Long and D Curtis.

Owing to the loss of the first minute book of the lodge a complete list of the original officers is not obtainable, but as far as can be ascertained, the officers were: W. Pres., A G Compigne; Vice-Pres., Sam Kemp; P. Pres. (pro tem) E W Elcombe; Chaplain, Thos. Gunn; Sec., W. Brandrette; Treasurer, Felix Brownscombe; 1st Committeeman, Thos. Chapman; 2nd to 6th, unknown. Of the above Bros. Thos. Gunn, S. Kemp and E. W. Elcome and Felix Brownscombe are still active members in the lodge.

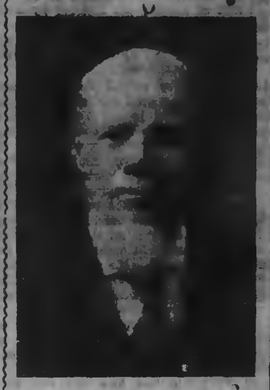
The Grand Lodge at Peterborough

A meeting of the Grand Lodge was held in Peterborough in March 1893. The previous year a grand S. O. E. B. S. demonstration was held for the purpose of raising a fund for the entertainment of grand lodge delegates. There was a grand street parade, races, lacrosse and other games in the park, together with fireworks and music in the evening. The occasion was a grand success throughout.

Lansdowne Lodge proposes holding a S. O. E. B. S. demonstration on July 1st (Dominion Day) at Peterborough. Invitations have been sent out to the various lodges within a radius of sixty miles of Peterborough. A number of them have accepted the invitation. It is proposed to have a street parade, games at the park with music, dancing and fireworks, in the evening, as on the occasion of the visit of the grand lodge.



WORTHY PRESIDENT, BRO. W. H. YOUNG, M.D., Lansdowne, No. 25.



BRO. WM. (DADDY) TAYLOR, 1st Committeeman 21 Years, Lansdowne, No. 25.

Some Leading Members

Worthy President Dr. W. H. Young, M. D., sixteen years ago joined Epping Lodge, Rowsam, Muskoka. After four years membership there he moved to Peterborough and immediately identified himself with Lansdowne Lodge. Owing to his popularity and executive ability he was unanimously chosen W. P. for the ensuing year. Bro. Young's love for the order is supplemented by material service and love for his country and flag. He was Sergeant-Major of the Royal Dragoons, embracing the counties of Peterboro, Northumberland, Durham and Prince Edward, and is now Major and Commanding Officer of the 24th Battery of Canadian Field Artillery of Peterborough. Bro. Young's father and three brothers have experienced active service in the cavalry, artillery, infantry, medical, clerical and army service corps of the Imperial forces, and possesses enough medals to go round the family twice over. Professionally, Bro. Young is Licentiate of the Royal Colleges of Edinborough and Glasgow, is surgeon of both the C. P. R. and the Canadian General Electric Co., and is also on the staff of St. Joseph and Nicholls hospitals; lecturer and examiner for nurses at Nicholl's hospital and Medical Examiner of S. O. E. B. S.

P. P. Bro. Thos. Gunn, P.P.D., one of the original members, is still taking a very active part in the lodge, a regular attendant at all meetings and very aggressive in forwarding the interest of the order on the outside. Bro. Gunn was initiated under the old ritual, when battle axes and swords were used as part of the paraphanalia. He was presented with a Past Master's Jewel in 1886, and now wears it with pardonable pride. During his tenure of office forty-five members were initiated. On four different occasions he has been delegate to the Grand Lodge, visiting Barrie, Ottawa, Hamilton and Port Hope, and was one of the organizers of Exeter Lodge at Lakefield. Bro. Gunn has, for the past thirty years, been successfully engaged in the wholesale and retail manufacturing of brushes of all kinds.

Wm. (Daddy) Taylor is the most popular and widely known S. O. E. member in Peterborough, who, for twenty-one consecutive years has held the office of 1st Committeeman of Lansdowne Lodge, during such time having only missed seven meetings, and that through short illnesses, has never been on the "sick fund" and is a strong advocate of S. O. E. insurance. Bro. Taylor has been instrumental in bringing the greatest number of Sons of England into the order. Three years ago Supreme President J. Boxall presented him, on behalf of the Supreme Executive, with a jewel, as a badge of merit for the faithful services rendered the order. Since then the members of Lansdowne have presented him with a 3-4 size portrait, accompanied by an address. Bro. Taylor was born in Wolverhampton, England, and for the past twenty-seven years lived an active life in Peterborough. Many unpublished acts of charity are placed to his credit. Several years ago Bro. Taylor retired from the services of the C. P. Railway, and is now in receipt of a pension from that corporation for long and faithful service.

P. Pres. Ald. J. J. Turner, Jr, has the distinction of being the youngest and one of the most aggressive and clear-headed municipal representatives in Peterborough. He was elected by the largest majority of votes polled. He is a sincere and faithful worker in the Church of England; teaches the Bible class, and has been granted a license by the Bishop as lay reader. Bro. Turner was elected W. Pres. of Lansdowne Lodge in 1903, proved himself a very efficient officer and is very popular among the brethren. He is one of the five members of the firm of J. J. Turner and Sons, a good representative citizen and a credit to the order.

Auditor and P. P. C. F. Kitney, P. D. D., joined Lansdowne Lodge in 1898, has passed through all the offices and was a Grand Lodge delegate when that meeting was held in Chatham. At this meeting it was decided to enlarge the Record and make it a more up-to-date official organ.

Bro. Kitney was one of the strongest supporters of this movement. Owing to his popularity he held the office of W. Pres. for two consecutive years. During his tenure of office 28 members were initiated and five were received by clearance. Bro. Kitney is junior member of the firm of Kitney & Sons, wholesale and retail provision dealers, who also have extensive greenhouses in Peterborough, credit is due Bro. Kitney for the success of the "Nelson" patriotic concert held under the auspices of Lansdowne Lodge, in the opera house last year.

P. P. Bro. Roland Tivey, an old army campaigner of 1866 is still a stanch member of Lansdowne Lodge. He has seen active service in Her Majesty's Army, and has always officiated as Marshall in any Veterans' demonstration in Peterborough. Bro. Tivey was for years in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway, as bridge engineer and inspector, one of his early works being the construction of the bridges on the section known as the "Missing Link," between Peterborough and Lindsay.

Recording Secretary Wilfrid Shiner, commonly called Sir Wilfrid, is a very efficient officer, young and full of ambition, with the interests of the S. O. E. B. S. always at heart. He is also a hard worker in the Y. M. C. A., one of the best debaters and a good orator—hard to beat on mock trials. Bro. Shiner holds a responsible position in the Brass Department of the Canadian General Electric Co.

Bro. Isaac Birlow is one of the pioneer engineers of the C. P. Railway, having entered the service in June, 1885, and for the past few years has been located at Havelock. As an evidence of his fidelity and love for the S.O.E.B.S., and especially Lansdowne Lodge, it need only be mentioned that he is one of the most regular attendants at lodge, although having to travel twenty-four miles to attend meetings. Bro. Barlow is working hard to institute a lodge at home, in Havelock, and has the hearty co-operation of the members of Lansdowne in the accomplishment of his purpose. A very unique feature of home life exists in Bro. Barlow's family, there four generations living in both his own and his wife's side of the family.

P. P. H. L. Beal, present District Deputy, also, auditor of Lansdowne Lodge, has an enviable record as an active worker in the S.O.E.B.S. During his fourteen years of membership he has been appointed five times delegate to the Grand Lodge. After seven years faithful service a special dispensation was granted by the Supreme Lodge to confer upon him the honour of Past President, enabling him to take the chair and wear the P. P. jewel, which was duly presented to him by his lodge. Since then he has passed through all the chairs and now wears a beautifully engraved ring, which was presented to him by the members on the occasion of his Presidency in 1904. During the six years of office as Secretary he assisted materially in raising the lodge's Reserve fund from $400 to

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and aboveboard."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs — without drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick woman are asked to write?

Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

THEY AR ME BEST

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one ounce;

Compound Salatone, one ounce;

Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Salatone and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

HENRY WALLACE PHILLIPS

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY McCLURE, PHILLIPS & COMPANY

This of course was only Cousin Will's joking, but Miss Mattie noticed with a sudden hot flush that he had chosen the engagement finger—in all ignorance, she felt sure. The last thing she could do would be to call his attention to the fact or run the risk of hurting his feelings by transferring the ring; besides, it was a pretty ring, a rough ruby in a plain gold band—and looked very well where it was.

Then they settled down for what Red called a good medicine talk. Miss Mattie found herself boldly speaking of little fancies and notions that had remained in the inner shrine of her soul for years, shrinking from the matter-of-fact eye of Fairfield; yet this big, ferocious looking Cousin Will seemed to find them both sane and interesting, and as her self respect went up in the arithmetical her admiration for Cousin Will went up in the geometrical ratio. He frankly admitted weaknesses and fears that the males of Fairfield would have rejected scornfully.

Miss Mattie spoke of sleeping upstairs, because she could not rid herself of the fear of somebody coming in.

"I know just how you feel about that," said Red. "My hair used to be on its feet most of the time when we were in the hay camp at the lake beds. Gee whiz! The rattlers! We put hair ropes around—but them rattlers liked to squirm over hair ropes for exercise. One morning I woke up and there was a crawler on my chest. 'For God's sake, Pete!' says I to Antelope Pete, who was rolled up next me, 'come take my friend away!' and I didn't holler very loud neither. Pete was chain lightning in pants, and he grabs Mr. Rattler by the tail and snaps his neck, but I felt lonesome in my inside till dinner time. You bet! I know just how you feel exactly. I didn't have a man's sized night's rest while we was in that part of the country."

It struck Miss Mattie that the cases were hardly parallel. "A rattlesnake on your chest, Will!" she cried, with her hands clasped in terror.

"Oh, it wasn't as bad as it sounds. He was asleep, coiled up there to get warm—sharpish nights on the prairie in August—but darn it, Mattie," wrinkling up his nose in disgust, "I hate the sight of the brutes!"

"But you wouldn't be afraid of a man, Will!"

"Well, no," admitted he. "I've never been troubled much that way. You see, everybody has a different fear to throw a crimp in them. Mine's rattlesnakes and these little bugs with forty million pairs of legs. I pass right out when I see one of them things. They give me a feeling as if my stummick had melted."

"Weren't the Indians terrible out there, too?" asked Miss Mattie. "I'm sure they must have been."

"Oh, they ain't bad people if you ase 'em right," said Red. "Not that I like 'em any better on the ground than in it," he added hastily, fearful of betraying the sentiment of his country, "but I never had but one real argument man to man. Black Wolf and I come together over a matter of who owned my cayuse, and from words we backed off and got to shooting. He raked me from knee to hip, as I was kneeling down, doing the best I could by him and wasting ammunition because I was in a hurry. Still, I did bust his ankle. In the middle of the fuss a stray shot hit the cayuse in the head, and he croaked without a remark, so there we were, a pair of fools miles from home with nothing left to quarrel about! You could have fried an egg on a rock that day, and it always makes you thirsty to get shot anyways serious, thinking of which I hollered peace to old Black Wolf and told him I'd pull straws with him to see who took my canteen down to the creek and got some fresh water. He was agreeable and we hunched up to each other. It ain't to my credit to say it, but I was worse hurt than that Injun, so I worked him. He got the short straw, and had to crawl a mile through cactus, while I sat comfortable on the cause of the disagreement and yelled to him that he looked like a badger and other things that an Injun wouldn't feel was a compliment." Red leaned back and roared. "I can see him now putting his hands down so careful and turning back every once in awhile to cuss me. Turned out that it was his cayuse too. Feller that sold it to me had stole it from him. I oughtn't to laugh over it, but I can't help but snicker when I think how I did that Injun."

Generally speaking, Miss Mattie had a lively sense of humor, but the joke of this was lost on her. Her education had been that getting shot was far from funny.

"Why, I should have thought you would have died, Will!"

"What! For a little crack in the leg?" cried Red, with some impatience. "You people must quit easy in this country. Die nothin'. One of our boys came along and took us to camp, and we was up and doing again in no time. 'Course, Black Wolf has a game leg for good, but the worst that's stuck to me is a yank or two of rheumatism in the rainy season. I paid Wolf for his cayuse," he finished shamefacedly. "I had the laugh on him anyhow."

Miss Mattie told him she thought that was noble of him, which tribute Red took as medicine and shifted the subject with speed to practical affairs. He asked Miss Mattie how much money she had and how she managed to make out. Now, it was one of the canons of good manners in Fairfield not to speak of material matters, perhaps because there was so little material matter in the community, but Miss Mattie, doomed to a thousand irksome petty economies, had often longed for a sympathetic ear to pour into it a good honest complaint of hating to do this and that. She could not exactly go this far with Cousin Will, but she could say it was pretty hard to get along and gave some details. She felt that she knew him so very well in those few hours! Red heard with nods of assent. He had scented the conditions at once.

"It ain't any fun skidding on the thin ice," said he when they had concluded the talk. "I've had to count the beans I put in the pot, and it made me hate arithmetic worse than when I went over yonder to school. Well, them days have gone by for you, Mattie." He reached down and, pulling out a green roll, slapped it on the center table. "Blow that in and limber up and remember that there's more behind it."

Miss Mattie's pride rose at a leap.

"Will," she said, "I hope you don't think I've told you this to get money from you."

He leaned forward, put his hand on her shoulder and held her eyes with a sudden access of sternness and authority.

"And I hope, Mattie," said he, "that you don't think that I think anything of the kind."

The cousins stared into each other's eyes for a full minute; then Miss Mattie spoke. "No, Will," said she, "I don't believe you do."

"I shouldn't think I did," retorted Red. "What in thunder would I do with all that money? Why, good Lord, girl, I could paper your house with $10 bills! Now you try to fly them green kites, like I tell you."

Miss Mattie broke down. The not fully realized strain of fifteen years had made itself felt when the cord snapped. "I don't know how to thank you, I don't know what to say. Oh, William, it seems too good to be true!"

"What you crying about, Mattie?" said he, in sore distress. "Now hold on! Listen to me a minute! There's something I want you to do for me."

"What is it?" she asked, drying her eyes.

"For dinner tomorrow," he replied, "let's have a roast of beef about that size," indicating a washtub.

The diversion was complete.

"Why, Will! What would we ever do with it?" said she.

"Do with it? Why, eat it!"

"But we couldn't eat all that!"

"Then throw what's left to the cats. You ain't going to fall down on me the first favor I ask?" with mock seriousness.

"You shall have the roast of beef 'Pears to me that you're fond of your stomach, Will," said Miss Mattie, with a recovering smile.

"I have a good stomach that's always done the right thing by me when I've done the right thing by it," said Red. "And, moreover, just look at the constitution I have to support. But say, old lady, look at that!" pointing to the clock. "Eleven-thirty; time decent people were putting up for the night."

The words brought to an acute stage a wandering fear which had passed through Miss Mattie's mind at intervals during the evening. Where was she to look for sleeping accommodations for a man? She revolted against the convention that in her own mind as well as the rest of Fairfield forbade the use of her house for the purpose. Long habit of thought had made these niceties constitutional. It was almost as difficult for Miss Mattie to say "I'll fix up your bed right there on the sofa" as it would have been for Red to pick a man's pocket, yet when she thought of his instant and open generosity and what a dismal return therefor it would be to thrust him out for reasons which she divined would have no meaning for him, she heroically resolved to throw custom to the winds and speak.

But the difficulty was cut in another fashion.

"There's a little barn in the backyard that caught my eye," said Red, "and if you'll lend me a blanket I'll roll it out there."

"Sleep in the barn! You'll not do any such thing!" cried Miss Mattie. "You'll sleep right here on the sofa or upstairs in my bed, just as you choose."

"If it's all the same to you, I'd rather not. So help me Bob, I'd smother in here. Had the darnedest time coming on that ever was—hotels. Little white rooms with the walls coming in on you. Worse than rattlesnakes for keeping a man awake. Reminds me of the hospital. Horse fell on me once and smashed me up so that I had to be sent to get puttied up again, and I never struck such a month as that since I was born. The doc told me I mustn't move, but I told him I'd chuck him out of the window if he tried to stop me, and up I got. I'd have gone dead sure if they'd held me a week more. I speak for the barn, Mattie, and I speak real loud; that is, I mean to say I'm going to sleep in the barn, unless there's somebody a heap larger than you on the premises. Now, there's no use for you to talk—I'm going to do just as I say."

"Well, I think that's just dreadful!" said Miss Mattie. "I'd like to know what folks will think of me to hear I turned my own cousin out in the barn." Her voice trailed off a little at the end as the gist of what they might say if he stayed in the house occurred to her. "Well," she continued, "if you're set I suppose I can't object." Miss Mattie was not a good hand at playing a part.

"I'm set," said Red. "Get me a blanket." As she came in with this he added, "Say, Mattie, could you let me have a loaf of bread? I've got a habit of wanting something to eat in the middle of the night."

"Certainly! Don't you want some butter with it? Here, I'll fix it for you on a plate."

"No, don't waste dish washing. I'll show you how to fix it." He cut the loaf of bread in half, pulled out a portion of the soft part and filled the hole with butter. "There we are, and nothing to bother with afterward."

"That's a right smart notion, Will, but you'll want a knife."

In answer he drew out a leather case from his breast pocket and opened it.

Miss Mattie stood in the half opened door and listened.

Within was knife, fork, spoon and two flat boxes for salt and pepper. "You see, I'm fixed," said he.

"Isn't that a cute trick?" she cried admiringly. "You're ready for most anything."

"Sure," said Red. "Now, good night, old lady." He bent down in so natural a fashion that Miss Mattie had kissed him before she knew what she was going to do.

Down to the barn, through the soft June evening, went Red, whistling a Mexican love song most melodiously.

Miss Mattie stood in the half opened door and listened. Without was balm and starlight, and the spirit of flowers breathed out in odors. The quaint and pretty tune rose and fell, quavered, lifted along as it listed without regard for law and order. It struck Miss Mattie to the heart. Her girlhood, with its misty dreams of happiness, came back to her on the wings of music.

"Isn't that a sweet tune?" she said, with a lump in her throat.

She went up into her room and sat down a moment in confusion, trying to grasp the reality of all that had happened. In the middle of the belief that these things were not so came the regret of a sensitive mind for errors committed. She remembered, with a sudden sinking, that she had not thanked him for the necklace. And the money lay even now on the parlor table where he had cast it! This added the physical fear of thieves. Down she went and got the money, counted out, to her unmitigated astonishment, $500 and thrust it beneath her pillow, with a shiver. She wished she had thought to tell him to take care of it. But suppose the thieves were to fall on him as he slept? Red's friends would have spent their sympathy on the thieves. She rejoiced that the money was where it was. Then she tried to remember what she had said throughout the evening.

"Well, I suppose I must have acted like a ninny," she concluded. "But isn't he just splendid!" And as Cousin Will's handsome face, with its daring, kind eyes, came to her vision she felt comforted. "I don't believe but what he'll make every allowance for how excited I was," said she. "He seems to understand those things for all he's such a large man. Well, it doesn't seem as if it could be true." With a half sigh, Miss Mattie knelt and sent up her modest petition to her Maker and got into her little white bed.

In the meantime Red's actions would have awakened suspicion. He hunted around until he found a tin can, then lit a match and scampered the barn with terror stricken squawks from the inhabitants, the hens.

"One, two, three, four," he counted. "Reckon I can last out till morning on that. Mattie, she's white people—just the nicest I ever saw—but she ain't used to providing for a full grown man."

He stepped to the back of the barn and looked about him. "Nobody can see me from here," he said in satisfaction. Then he scraped together a pile of chips and sticks and built a fire, filled the tin can at the brook, set it on two stones over the fire, rolled himself a cigarette and wafted. A large, yellow tomcat came out of the brush and threw his green headlights on him, meaowing tentatively.

"Hello, pussy!" said Red. "You hungry too? Well, just wait a minute and we'll help that feeling. Like bread, pussy?" The cat gobbled the morsel greedily, came closer and begged for more. The tin can boiled over. Red popped the eggs in, puffed his cigarette to a bright coal and looked at his watch by the light. "Gee! Ten minutes more now!" said he. "Hardly seems to me as if I could wait." He pulled the watch out several times. "What's the matter with the d—n thing? I believe it's stopped," he growled. But at last "Time!" he shouted gleefully, kicked the can over and gathered up its treasures in his handkerchief.

"Now, Mr. Cat, we're going to do some real eating," said he. "Just sit right down and make yourself at home. This is kind of fun, by Jinks!" Down went the eggs, and down went the loaf of bread in generous slices, never forgetting a fair share for the cat.

"Woosh! I feel better!" cried Red. "And now for some sleep." He swung up into the hayloft, spread the blanket on the still fragrant old hay and rolled himself up in a trice.

"I did a good turn when I came on here," he mused. "If I have got only one relation, she's a dandy—so pretty and quiet and nice. She's a marker for all I've got, is Mattie."

The cat came up, purring and "making bread." He sniffed feline fashion at Red's face.

"Foo! Shoo! Go 'way, pussy! Settle yourself down and we'll pound our ear for another forty miles. I like you first rate when you don't walk on my face." He stretched and yawned enormously. "Yes, sir, Mattie's all right!" said he. "A-a-a-ll ri"— And Chanta Seechee Red was in the land of dreams. Here, back in God's country, within twenty miles of the place where he was born, the wanderer laid him down again, and in spite of raid and foray, whisky and poker cards, wear and tear, hard times and, hardest test of all, sudden fortune, he was much the same impulsive, honest, generous, devil-may-care boy who had left there twenty-four years ago.

CHAPTER V.

THE next morning when Red awoke arrows of gold were shooting through the holes in the old barn, and outside the bird life, the twittering and chirping, the fluent whistle and the warble, the cackle and the pompous crow, were in full chorus.

"Where am I at this time?" said he as he took in the view. "Oh, I remember!" and his heart leaped. "I'm in my own home, by the Lord!"

He went down to the brook and washed, drying hands and face on the silk neckerchief, which is meant for use as well as for decoration.

In the meantime Miss Mattie had awakened with a sense of something delightful at hand, the meaning of which escaped her for the time. And then she remembered and sprang out of bed like a girl. She went to the window, threw open the shutters and let the stirring morning air flow in. This had been her habit for a long time. The window faced away from the road, and no one could see who was not on Miss Mattie's own premises.

"That has the real old time smell," he said as he held it to his nose. "Sweetbriers are good, and I don't go back on 'em, but they ain't got the fram these fellers have."

Bud in hand, he walked beneath Miss Mattie's windows, and he was the first thing her eye fell upon.

Her startled exclamation made him look up before she had time to withdraw.

"Hello, there!" he called joyfully. "How do you open up this day? You look pretty well!" he added, with a note of admiration. Miss Mattie had the wavy hair which is never in better order than when left to its own devices. Her idea of coiffure was not the most becoming that could have been selected, as she felt that a "young" style of hairdressing was foolish for a single woman of her years. Now, with the pretty soft hair flying, her eyes still humid with sleep and a touch of color in her face from the surprise, relieved against the fleecy shawl she had thrown about her shoulders, she was incontestably both a discreet and pretty picture. Yet Miss Mattie could not forget the bare feet and nightgown, although they were hidden from masculine eyes by wood and plaster, and she was embarrassed. Still, with all the supersensitive fancies, Miss Mattie had a strong backbone of New England common sense. She answered that she felt very well indeed and, to cover any awkwardness, inquired what he had in his hand.

"Good old rose," replied Red. "Old time smeller—better suited to you than to me—ketch!"

ADVICE ON SPRAYING PLANTS

POINTERS ON MACHINERY

At the fruit and seed fair held in Berwick, N. S., by the Nova Scotia Farmers' Institute, late in February, Mr. W. H. Woodworth, secretary of the association, delivered an able address on spraying. He emphasized that in order to spray well the fruit grower must have good apparatus, which should consist of quarter inch hose, five or seven ply, with a length of 25 or 30 feet. All parts of the pump which are to be submerged in the liquid should be of brass. Mr. Woodworth said that there were many good nozzles on the market, but he preferred the Planet Junior, which produces a fog-like spray, and never clogs or catches. He strongly advocated the use of an indicator on the pump.

Other pointers were given as to the care of spraying machinery. The hose should always be carefully washed out after use, and in winter it should be safely housed in a frost-proof building. The audience was reminded never to omit straining the Bordeaux through a cheese cloth, as the finer the particles, the longer they will be held in suspension. It is necessary to keep the solution agitated, or it will settle, and most of the Paris green will be thrown on the first trees. Later the operator will wonder why the worms were killed on the first trees, while they flourish on the last that were sprayed.

In order to kill the bud-moth, the first spraying should be done before the buds open. The next spraying should be done after the petals have fallen. Much indignation was expressed at the growing practice of spraying when the trees were in full bloom. It not only kills the bees, but is very injurious to the tender organs of the flower, and destroys the pollen. It was proved in Wolfville that apples sprayed in the flower stage were not saved from black spot.

Mr. Woodworth warned growers not to spray during damp or foggy weather, or russety fruit and leaves would be the result, and rot was more liable to attack russet spots. Black spot is never found on a russety surface, as it has been protected by the Bordeaux.

People might put on seven or eight barrels of solution a day, but it is impossible to spray properly, and put on more than four or five barrels of material.

It is advisable to plow in the fall, thus covering diseased leaves and preventing any spores of black spot floating back to the trees.

At this juncture several questions were asked, and discussion followed. Mr. Woodworth advised the sowing of vetches in the orchards in preference to commercial fertilisers. Several leading fruit growers then related their success in growing these legumes, the majority of them preferring to sow summer vetches, as the winter vetch, although claimed to be a better nitrogen gatherer, was too expensive for most growers to buy.

The reasons given for apple spots in the warehouse were (1) putting leaves in barrel with the fruit. (2) leaving barrels in the orchard in damp weather, (3) putting damp fruit into a warm temperature. The last two were ideal conditions for propagating the disease.

HON. C. C. BROOKS

Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes:

"I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Peruna. It is a great medicine. I have used it and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."

Cystitis Entirely Relieved.

Miss Mattie McArthur, care of Hospital, Medical Lake, Wash., writes:

"I have not written to you for some time, but, Oh, I have given you many words of praise. I am so well. I had cystitis very badly and could not walk any distance without suffering intense pain, but I do not have a touch of my old suffering now. I can never praise Peruna enough. I am telling every one how much good Peruna has done for me."

Catarrh of Head and Throat.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle street, Beverly, Mass., writes:

"I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can say. I do not think too much praise can be said of Peruna."

MRS. H. A. S. MARSH

Suffered With LaGrippe.

Mrs. H. A. S. Marsh, 2128 Reservoir St., Los Angles, Cal., President Woman's Benevolent Association, writes:

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna.

"I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial.

"I will never be without it again."

Used Pe-ru-na For Bronchitis.

Mr. Frank Battle, Jr., First street, near Charlotte Ave., West Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"I desire to say for the benefit of others that your Peruna has unquestionably cured me of chronic bronchitis. It is the grandest discovery of the age for throat and lungs."

Peruna is not simply a palliative to relieve some of the distressing symptoms. It brings permanent relief.

MRS. SUE M. MORRIS

HON. JONAH KALANIANAOLE

Prince Jonah Kalanianaole, Dewey Hotel, Washington, D. C., Delegate to Congress from Hawaii, writes:

"I can cheerfully recommend your Peruna as a very effective remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."

Malarial Fever For Several Months.

Mrs. Sue M. Morris, 2914 Patterson St., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"Last fall a severe attack of malarial fever laid me up for some months. My condition was serious for a time and the doctor who was attending me did not seem able to cope with the trouble.

"A neighbor advised me to let the doctor's prescription alone and try Peruna, extolling its virtues to the skies, and I am now ready to do the same, for in three days I was much better and in ten days I was able to be up and in two weeks every trace of malaria had left my system.

"I now use Peruna off and on when in need of a tonic and it braces me up wonderfully."

"The Doctors Gave Me Up."

Mr. Lewis Kitchen, Hulington, Ohio, writes:

"I cannot thank you enough for the good your Peruna has done me. About six months ago I could not leave my bed, and the doctors gave me up saying that I had consumption and could not live. Then a friend recommended Peruna to me, and I commenced using it.

"When I started to use your Peruna I weighed 117 pounds, and now I weigh 172 pounds. I had been sick for ten years, and was so sick I could not turn over in bed when I began the use of Peruna. I think it is the greatest medicine of its time.

"I am now feeling well and hearty and would not be without Peruna."

Weak and Nervous.

Mr. Charles Brown, Rogersville, Tenn., writes:

"I feel it my duty to write you a few words in praise of your Peruna. I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder.

"A friend advised me to take Peruna for indigestion, and it cured me in a short time. I was very weak and nervous, could sleep but little at night, but Peruna cured that tired, all-gone feeling, and made me feel like a new man, so I heartily recommend it to all who are weak and run down. Peruna will give new life and energy. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna, and will not forget to recommend it on every hand. I will answer any letter from those desiring to know what Peruna has done for me."

Systemic Catarrh.

Miss Marie Lesser, 928 W. 36th street, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I am glad to give a good word for Peruna, and I hope that all who see this who are troubled with systemic catarrh as I was for years, will profit by it. I had tried many remedies, but none did more than give me temporary relief and some did not even do that. I took Peruna at the suggestion of a friend and was more than pleased and surprised at the results. I am now perfectly well and strong."

True Cause of Disease.

IN these days almost every ailment is supposed to be caused by disease germs.

The medical profession as well as the people, seem to have gone mad over the germ theory of disease.

The universal fear and dread of disease germs is becoming a very serious matter to the welfare and happiness of the people.

Dr. Hartman has consistently contended through all the rise and spread of the germ theory, that most diseases are caused by climatic influences.

For instance, catching cold is responsible for more than one-half of the ills to which human beings are subject.

Danger of Neglected Colds.

A person catches cold easily, thinks nothing about it, neglects it, when it finally becomes settled in some organ of the body, and chronic disease is the result.

A few doses of Peruna in the beginning of the cold would have saved months of suffering, as well as great expense for treatment.

Peruna is a reliable relief for colds. Almost everybody knows this.

Instead of trying to dislodge or kill some imaginary germ, if Peruna was used at the proper time its tonic properties and anti-catarrhal qualities would soon convince the patient that he has found the right remedy.

A multitude of letters are received testifying to this fact.

Keep Peruna in the house. Use it whenever cold or climatic affections assail, and sickness in the household will become greatly lessened, if not entirely prevented.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

Mr. Christian Hofmann, R. F. D. 2, Stattington, Pa., writes:

"Too many years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. I was coughing day and night. After having tried three doctors and many remedies, one of your almanacs came to my hand, and I bought some Peruna. So far I have taken six bottles, and I have not suffered with catarrh this summer. I am cured and Peruna did it. I give Peruna to my children when they feel bad and you should see how healthy they are."

Nose, Throat and Stomach.

Mr. Delbert B. Craft, Lovell, Ind., writes:

"For a long time I suffered with chronic catarrh of the nose, throat and stomach. I would continually take cold and my stomach was in bad condition. I truly suffered untold misery. I took various medicines and tried the treatment of several physicians, but I felt no better. A friend advised me to take Peruna. I wrote to Dr. Hartman, who prescribed treatment. As soon as I commenced to take Peruna I was surprised at the relief it gave me. I kept on taking it until I had taken thirteen bottles and was cured."

Mr. W M Graham is on the Petit Jury at the Assizes in Peterborough this week.

The sad news was received in the village on Saturday last of the sudden death from cardiac dropsy of Inspector D'Arcy A. E. Strickland of the Royal N.W.M.P. Inspector Strickland was the eldest son of Mr. R C Strickland, Lakefield, and was in his fortieth year, having been born on Nov. 26, 1868. He received his education at the Grove School and at Trinity College School, Port Hope.

From the latter place he proceeded to the Royal Military College, at Kingston, and in 1891 received from the Macdonald Government the position of Inspector in the N. W. M. P. In 1895 he was sent as second in command of the first contingent of the force to the Yukon, his wife and six-year-old baby accompanying him, the first white child to arrive in that country.

In 1896 he returned on the steamer Portland to Victoria, bringing the first news of the wonderful gold discoveries in the Yukon. He was then ordered to take a detachment of police over the White Pass to establish a station at Lake Tagish and for the following two years had very strenuous work upholding the law and order in that district. On his return he was stationed for some time at Regina, and then sent to the Wood Mountains on the Montana boundary to suppress the horse thieving in that section. His last appointment was as commander of the post at Fort Saskatchewan, at which place he died.

Inspector Strickland was a man known throughout the entire territor and unusually popular. His striking qualities of head and heart endured him, not only to members of the force but to everyone who had the good fortune to know him. The following pithy summing up of his character by one who knew him well was undoubtedly a true one. "He was a square and a white man through and through."

MR. W. H. HILL,

Dear Sir:—I wish to thank you for the magnificent profits I received from you on the 2nd inst on Policy 10074 on my life, the dividend period having matured on the 1st inst.

To think that all I have paid the Company during the past twenty years was $442.00, and that my reserved cash profits for that period amount to $214.04, leaving the net cost of my Insurance of $1,000 during those years only $227.96, and that now I have a free paid-up policy of $1,000 still drawing profits EVERY FIVE YEARS hereafter, as long as I live, is a result that surprises me most agreeably and causes me to regret that I have not taken more Insurance twenty years ago.

However, as you know I am trying to redeem the past to the best of my ability and have applied for further Insurance on same plan with you.

Again thanking you and desiring to know the splendid results I received, and hoping it may assist some, at least, in making a wise selection when insuring, I wish your Company the patronage it deserves, and remain

Yours truly,

Mr. H. A. Thurston, of 238 Vermont St. E., Indianapolis, Restored by Ferrozone.

"A year ago I took the grippe. I was as weak as a child. I was no longer able to eat. My blood was thin. My cheeks were white and hollow. Doctors gave me all kinds of medicine, but none of them brought me strength. My friends said I was wasting away with some slow disease, and I bade them good-bye. Then I heard of the wonderful Ferrozone. After three days it gave me an appetite. I gained strength and became cheerful. Under Ferrozone I improved steadily. I am well to-day. I weigh fifteen pounds heavier than ever before, and feel like a new man.

The Charm of the Piano

A piano ceases to be an instrument and becomes a thing of life under the hands of a master. It breathes every emotion—that is, if the piano is a great one, like the New Scale Williams. It is matchless for tone and volume. 3

A Convincing Experiment

Dr. Sabouraud of the Pasteur Institute, Paris, France, (ask your doctor about him) inoculated a rabbit with human dandruff germs, and "in between five and six weeks" says the report of the Pasteur Institute, "the rabbit was completely denuded, in fact had become entirely bald."

This experiment proves that dandruff is a contagious disease due to the presence of a microbic growth in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. It also proves that unless the formation of dandruff is stopped by destroying the dandruff germ, that it will lead to falling hair and incurable baldness.

The only safe remedy, the intelligent use of which will absolutely kill the dandruff germ is

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"A stitch in time saves nine." While this quotation does not refer to the hair, the DO IT NOW idea in it, is the best possible advice to those who need a hair remedy.

Each day the hair is neglected means that the scalp is just a little worse than in was the day before. If you are indifferent about your hair and let it take care of itself, you should not complain when it becomes unsightly, or leaves you entirely. People who care for their health and personal appearance, now try to save their hair, and Newbro's Herpicide enables them to do this, surely, and in a very pleasing manner.

It is the first scientific HAIR-SAVER, and it is growing wonderfully in popularity. It acts by destroying the tiny vegetable growth in the scalp (the dandruff germ) after which the hair will grow as nature intended, unless the use of the remedy has been delayed too long. Remember the dandruff germ may be planted in the scalp months or years before its presence is suspected. The first injury is dullness, dryness or excessive oiliness, followed by dandruff, itching scalp, and finally falling hair.

Much can be done toward escaping the dandruff germ without the use of remedies. Information upon this subject will be mailed free, upon request to those who send stamped envelope for reply, to the Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.

A GOOD REPORT

"Before using Herpicide I was constantly annoyed by itching of the scalp and dandruff came off in large scales, each time I combed my hair. I have used one bottle of Newbro's Herpicide and the itching sensation is over and dandruff is almost a thing of the past. I had been troubled with dandruff many years."

Newark, N. J. Signed, ARTHUR J. RUNYON.

RECOMMENDS IT TO OTHERS

"I had dandruff ever since I can remember until two years ago, when I began the use of your Herpicide. Since that time I have not been troubled with it in the least, and as mine was a very bad case and the cure is positive, I take pleasure in recommending Herpicide to all those who are troubled with dandruff."

Seattle, Wash. Signed, F. W. SEXTON.

PLEASED WITH HERPICIDE

"I feel that I ought to say something in praise of your Herpicide as a dandruff cure. I have used several bottles and I find it the nicest and most satisfactory preparation for the hair that I have ever used. I have been bothered with dandruff so long and have tried several remedies, but I have found nothing so pleasing as your Herpicide.

Dayton, Ohio. Signed, MRS. VIRGINIA MARSHALL.

HISTORY OF PROGRESS OF LODGE LANSDOWNE

$1,000. Bro. Best was president of the 1906 W. R. Degree Team and, with other members, is now working strenuously in the formation of a 1908 W. R. team. Bro. Beal is secretary of the Peterborough Light and Power Company, also of the Peterborough Street Railway.

Bro. Felix Bowmscombe, late City Treasurer for twelve years, now Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Canoe Company, which has helped to make Peterborough famous the world over, joined Lansdowne Lodge in December, 1884. He has passed through all the chairs, excepting that of President; was three times appointed delegate to the Grand Lodge, having visited Hamilton, London and Toronto, when the sessions were being held there. Bro. Brownscombe is today a staunch supporter of Lansdowne Lodge, and is always ready to lend a willing hand when anything of special nature is being promoted. He was born in Peterborough and is still living with his family in the same house in which he was born and in which his parents also resided.

Bro. Vincent Eastwood, manager of the Royal Bank, late President of the Peterborough Hardware Company, has been identified with Lansdowne Lodge for a great number of years. Four years Recording Secretary and to-day one of its strongest and best members. Bro. Eastwood was born in Peterborough, is one of its most prominent citizens and has taken a great interest in its growth and welfare.

P. P. Bro. R Warsan occupied the President's chair in the years 1900 and 1901. He was District Deputy two years, and also Grand Lodge officer two year, also Grand Lodge delegate two years, having visited Hamilton, London. Bro. Warsan was recently appointed Lands Guard thereby demonstrating his undiminished interest in Lansdowne Lodge. He has been in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway for the past twenty-five years and has proved himself a good citizen and a worthy member of the O.O.F.B.S.

Bro. Alf. Kingscot, who for eleven years, officiated as Corresponding Secretary, is one of the strongest advocates for a White Rose Degree team. Under his careful handling as Secretary-Treasurer of the W.R.D.T, all excursions and entertainments given under the auspices of Lansdowne Lodge were carried to a successful financial issue.

Bro. E W Bloombe, the immediate P.P. holds to-day the same office which he held pro-tem when Lansdowne Lodge was instituted in 1883. During the interval he has placed the interest of his lodge first and foremost.

P.P., F J R Mitchell, one of the principal merchants in Peterborough, was for seven years Treasurer of Lansdowne. He has been a member for twenty years, and passed through all the stations. He is still an active member and regular attendant. Bro. Mitchell is a veteran of "66," and was in two engagements and, fortunately, went through the campaign without a scratch.

P. P. Bro. W Saxby joined Lansdowne in 1888. He has served creditably in all the chairs. He was District Deputy two years and three times Grand Lodge delegate. Twenty years service in a labour of love for the Order has not lessened his enthusiasm as he is numbered among the most regular attendants at the meetings. Bro. Saxby is a contractor and plasterer, having many men in his employ. St. Peter's, Queen Alexandria and Normal Schools, House of Refuge and Dominion Bank are a few of his works.

P. P. Bro. E A Peck, also past District Deputy and an indefatigable worker in Sons of England interests, is one of the most representative citizens of Peterborough, having served with credit as Reeve and Warden of the county. He is now County Solicitor, Solicitor for the Quaker Oats Company and other large companies in and around Peterborough.

P. P. Bro. J J Turner, senior member of the firm of J J Turner & Sons, is without doubt one of the most patriotic Britishers to be found in the Order. Thirty-three years a member and still talks Sons of England. Bro. Turner is a Past District Deputy and a charter member of Durham Lodge, Port Hope, also assisted in the formation of Lansdowne and eventually affiliated himself with that lodge. He had the honour of being entrusted to furnish the King and Queen at Windsor Castle two years ago, when the meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers Association was held in London. Bro. Turner landed in Quebec thirty-three years ago, with only ten shillings and six pence in his pocket, but with British pluck and ambition with honest toil, he has built up the largest tent, awning, waterproof goods and flag business in Canada, having sixty-five hands employed in his extensive, four-storey buildings. Filling large orders from the Old Country and from Coast to Coast in Canada. The firm recently secured an order from the Ontario Government for six thousand 3x6 Union Jacks for the Public Schools, which, together with other orders in hand, will take nine months to complete. Mr Turner has associated with him 4 sons, one of whom is an alderman of Peterborough, and P. P. of Lansdowne Lodge.

SPRING BLOOD IS BAD BLOOD

How to Get New Health and Strength in The Spring.

The winter months are trying to the health of even the most robust. Confinement indoor in overheated and nearly always badly ventilated rooms—in the home, in the shop and in the school — taxes the vitality of even the strongest. The blood becomes thin and watery, or stagges with impurities, the liver sluggish, the kidneys weakened. Sometimes you get up in the morning just as tired as when you went to bed. Some people have headaches; others are low spirited; some have pimples and skin eruption. These are all spring symptoms that the blood is out of condition. You can't cure these troubles with purgative medicines, which merely gallop through the system leaving your still weaker. What you need to give you strength in spring is a tonic, and the one always reliable tonic and blood builder is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills not only banish spring ills, but guard you against the more serious ailments that follow, such as anaemia, nervous debility, rheumatism, indigestion and kidney trouble. Every dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills makes new, rich red blood which strengthens every nerve, every organ and every part of the body. This is why Dr. Williams Pink Pills is the favourite spring medicine with thousands and thousands throughout Canada. Try this medicine this spring and you will have energy and strength to resist the torrid heat of the coming summer. Mrs. Jas. Haskel, Port Maitland, N.S. says:—"I was troubled with headaches, had a bad taste in my mouth, my tongue was coated, and I was easily tired and suffered from a feeling of depression. I got a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and it was not long before they began to help me and I was soon feeling as well as ever I had been." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Omemee, March 24.—We were visited by Peterborough's famed bill poster to-day.

One of our most respected family farmers, Mr. Geo. Gee, is a victim of appendicitis. He is under the careful attention of Dr. Sutton. Good hopes are entertained of his recovery.

All of our doctors, including Drs. Thompson and Snelgrove, are kept busy.

The Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost capacity on Sunday last to listen to Rev. Mr. Peckover, who spoke by request on the subject, "Future Punishment." Such another effort could not be heard outside of any of the cities. The most thoughtless as well as the most sinful and charitable persons have been profitted and enlightened by this most excellent and edifying discourse.

Quite a number of the citizens are preparing their yachts for the opening of Trent Valley navigation.

Our Board of Trade, represented by Messrs. Cuffy, Lamb, Stephenson, Beatty and Mayor Evans, came home well pleased with their reception by the Railway Commission at Peterborough last week. Good encouragement was given to have our station removed to a more convenient point at Sturgeon street.

Already preparations are being made in contemplation of one of our most important events on Victoria day on the opening up of Pigeon Lake for excursion steamers and yachts.

HOW TO PLANT EARLY TOMATOES

Should be Transplanted Twice—Sprayed With Bordeaux Mixture.

For early tomatoes start the seed in March. The date will depend upon the locality. In the Hamilton district it is from March 1 to 15. Sow in drills, four inches apart, in hotbeds. Earlina is the best variety. The young plants should be transplanted twice, the first time to four inches apart, and the second six inches. Keep the plants growing without a check. Spray with Bordeaux mixture to prevent injury from fungi.

Plant early varieties out doors about May 15 to 20. Before removing from the hotbeds, soak the soil well with water, then remove in boxes, and plant with a spade. Place the plants about four to five feet apart. The land should be fairly rich for the early varieties. For best results it should be prepared and manured during the fall previous. When planting it is necessary to use a marker. This may be done by hand or with a horse, depending upon the area to be planted.

The seed for late tomatoes should be sown about two weeks later than recommended for the early ones. These should be transplanted, once to four inches apart. The land for late tomatoes should not be too rich, or vine will be produced at the expense of fruit. The leading varieties are Stone and Success. The former is the better for long distance shipping, but is not so productive.

WOMAN'S ARMS BURNED BY AN ELECTRIC SHOCK WHILE IN FAINTING FIT

Burned by a ten severe electric shock while under the spell of a fainting fit was the alarming circumstance which occurred a few days ago in Peterborough, the sufferer being a woman. She has repeatedly been troubled with spells of weakness for which she has, for a cure, been taking electric shocks supplied by a small, medical electric shock machine.

On one occasion some friends were visiting her as she was preparing to undergo another shock. However, before the operation was performed she fainted away in the presence of her friends.

Believing that the electric shock would assist in such a serious case of weakness they proceeded to administer it while the woman lay, overcome by the fainting fit.

The shock was more serious than anticipated. The woman's arms were burned to the bone and since that time she has been suffering severely. They are yet in a serious looking condition, being a mass of burnt flesh.

Why the electricity should have acted in such a manner is unaccountable by those who administered the shock. They took all necessary pains in applying it but evidently the mechanism of the machine was not clearly understood.

Where Is The Home That Has No Stamp Collector? Parents Aware Of The Latest Boy Fad

There is scarcely a father in the city that boasts of a boy between the ages of 7 and 16 years of age who has not noticed his hopeful's latest fad of collecting stamps coins and cigar bands. Boys have always been boys and the world goes on just the same consequently the youth of today have the same tendencies as their fathers.

There comes a time in the development of the boy when the treasures articles which may in after life be worthless to him, often, however, his collection of stamps or coins may always be of interest to him.

The latest fad of the small boy occupies all his spare moments. At school he trades with his chums and buys from them; those who take pride in a small pocket allowance purchase stamps from the various concerns whose advertisements are found in almost every magazine. The boy of to-day has a little book and and with stickers keeps his collection of stamps in an orderly manner. Each country has its allotted pages and the stamps are placed in their numerical order.

The boy searches his home for letters that have been stored away by by his parents, the relatives are constantly reminded to keep for him every stamp they come across and the lad himself considers it an ill-mannered day when his collection is not augmented at least to some extent.

Cigar Bands

Great as is the fad for stamps, cigar bands are equally of interest to the youth. The origin of this idea is probably explained by the fact that women have been collecting the bands with which to stick on bowls, plates, etc. The novelty of the idea appealed to the boys mind and hence his rapid conversion. One never finds a stray cigar band on the sidewalks these days and all the tobacco dealers can vouch for the large number of boys who make daily calls asking for bands.

Gum wrappers are also on the list and the boys are so industrious in their work of collecting that they may be found fishing wrappers from the grates on the main streets with long sticks.

In the Schools

The school teachers also are aware of the new fad, for it is during the intermissions that the trading transactions are carried out.

But the boys do not confine themselves to recess and after school hours. Even while classes are in progress their stamps and wrappers on their desks and then the teacher has the painful duty of making a confiscation and a month's saving is gone at one swoop.

Such is one of the phases of school days The days which in after life recall their happy hours, their boyhood wofries and their pleasureable memories. While to adults the collection of paltry wrappers and stamps may not seem of use still the boys acquire a spirit of business and at least they have a real interest in something and as they pursue it, earnestly or not it helps to develop their characters and leaves a stamp on their life.

The Sandstone Brick Co'y To Open Up Again In Two Weeks

The Sandstone Brick Company of this city will open up its plant again in the course of a few weeks. The company employs about twenty-five men and the intelligence that the plant will soon be opened again will be welcomed by those men who were employed in the work last year.

The Sandstone Brick Company has a stock of 700,000 bricks on hand all of which are sold and ready for delivery. The plant, when in operation, has an output of 20,000 brick per day. The brick yard is situated on the C. P. R. line, about one mile and a half west of the station, and the railway line affords splendid facilities for shipment.

Mr. A. Elliott, a director of the company, who is acting manager in the absence of Mr. W. Harstone, was seen by an Examiner representative to-day, and stated that there were splendid prospects for the coming season. It was rather early yet for orders but he belived that the demand would be a large one. Last year about this time prospects for a good business were rather dull, but when the snow disappeared and the warm weather came business became very brisk.

Easter Eggs Will Likely Be Within Reach Of Everyone

The egg market has been suffering a steady slump during the past few weeks. The heavy importations of American new laid eggs caused a break in the high prices ruling some time ago. Since then there has been a gradual decline until lately the market has taken tumbles of several cents. This has been due in a great measure to the unusually heavy receipts lately of Canadian eggs. Shipments of American eggs are now practically nil. Advices from different sections of the country state that the hens are even laying more freely and the trade are looking forward to very liberal supplies. In view of the present and anticipated heavy offerings, it is a pretty safe forecast that Easter eggs will be within the reach of everyone. The consumptive demand cannot cope with the present rate of offerings. An easter market and lower prices are assured.

Anent the egg situation, recent despatches from American points declare that banks will not loan more than ten cents a dozen on egg certificates. As high as fifteen cents has been obtained before. This action on the part of the banks will check speculative buying and tend to depress prices. Dealers here state that its effect on the Canadian market will be somewhat similar and that the price of eggs will be much lower throughout the present year.

The Admission Of Primary Pupils To The Public Schools

The Public School Inspector has informed the Examiner that, according to the regulations of the Board of Education, children who have not previously attended a Public School are admitted to the primary division only during the first two weeks in January, April and September.

As parents prefer to have their children begin school after the Easter holidays, and as those fall in the middle of April this year, the Board has decided to extend the time of admission to the end of the week following the Easter vacation.

Parents, if they so desire, may send their children on April 1, but as the Easter vacation will interfere with the work in the course of about a week thereafter, and as the teachers will have to take up the work from the beginning after the Easter holidays, it would seem to be just as well for the little ones, if they were all started together immediately after the Easter vacation, when they will be admitted as May pupils.

Large Addition To St. Joseph's Hospital Almost Completed

Contains Operating Room After Most Improved Ideas--Equipped With Modern Appliances.

DETAILS OF THE ROOMS

The new addition to St. Joseph's Hospital is now practically complete, the finishing touches having yet to be made. When these have been done the institution will be modern in every respect and will be of the same high standard as the other institutions of the diocese of Peterborough, of which His Lordship Bishop O'Connor has charge. The addition was found necessary to meet the demand of the increasing number of patients and also to provide a larger and better operating room with the most improved appliances.

On the North Side

The addition has been made on the north side of the building and is 50x36 feet in dimensions, and has four floors, including the basement. The corridors of the old building open directly into those of the new and connect therewith on each floor. An elevator, 7 ft. 10. ins by 5 ft., extends from the basement to the top story. It was ordered from the Otis-Fensom Elevator Company, Limited, Toronto, and its installment is almost finished. It is a special elevator for hospital purposes, and a stretcher or bed can be placed in it for movement from one storey to another. The motive power is supplied by a six horse power motor, which is placed in the machinery room.

The Basement

The basement floor is of cement. The rooms provided are as follows: a boiler room and coal room, two cells to be used if ever it is found necessary, a store room, machinery room, caretaker's quarters, elevator shaft, and a wide hall. The furnace is a new one. The heating is done by steam, as in the main building. The sewerage and ventilation is well provided for on this floor, and in fact throughout the entire addition.

Ground Floor

This floor may be said to be devoted entirely to operations. The operating room is 25 ft. by 13 ft. 6 ins., is excellently lighted and ventilated, and has a high ceiling. The other rooms on this floor are as follows: sterilizing room, doctor's wash room, anaesthetics room, and elevator shaft as on the other floors. These rooms have been prepared after thorough investigation of other hospitals, and all the arrangements and appliances are of the latest improved design. The floors are marbled, the walls tiled to a height of six feet, and thence to the ceiling are enamelled with Keen's cement.

Special Precautions

There are no angles or sharp corners, all being rounded off. In like manner, the doors have all the finish panels perfectly flat and straight, without moulding of any kind. Similarly, the trimmings of the windows are rounded, and as a result it is impossible for microbes to find lodgement anywhere.

Remaining Floors

On the first floor there are six private wards, with halls, lavatories and accessories of the most perfect kind. There are five dormitories on

The Old Market Street Bible Class Of Bristol, England

Mr. H. Dunford of This City Once a Member of That Big Organization in the English City.

NOTES FROM "CITY CHIMES"

Among the many church organizations in the world to-day, the "Old Market Street Men's Bible Class," of Bristol, Eng., is probably one of the best known. The Examiner is in receipt of a couple of copies of the "City Chimes," the official organ of that Bible class, and also a handsome booklet, giving an account of the silver anniversary year, which contains some interesting information on the progress of the organization.

The book and papers are the property of Mr. Harry Dunford, city, who was once a member of the Old Market Street Men's Bible Class. He was connected with it for nine years and during that time he represented it at the great demonstration held against Mr. Balfour's Licensing Bill.

The Western Daily Press of Bristol in referring to this says:

Mr. H. Dunford seconded the resolution. He pointed out that they could not check one evil by giving that evil greater power, which was what the Licensing Bill proposed to do. It was a shame that a large number of ministers of religion should have shares in brewing companies. (Applause.) Could they expect the churches to unite when the leaders were so interested in the trade? As a Christian he said, "From this terrible temptation, the ravishing and degrading evils of the drink trade, Good Lord deliver us," and as a politician he called on every true, earnest advocate of temperance to defeat not only the bill, but, at the next general election, its promoters and supporters. (Cheers.)

The class makes special collections every year for the Children's Hospital, and also for some special funds. More concerning the work of this class will be published later.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT IN REAL ESTATE CIRCLES

The real estate men of this city are looking forward now to a bright and prosperous years. Evidences have been advanced to show that the prospects for the coming year are good. Several houses have been sold during the past week, and there are only a few houses around the city to rent. It is learned that several people from outside points have bought property in the city and intend moving there as soon as the warm weather sets in.

CABLEGRAM FROM NAPLES FROM REV. FATHER McCOLL

Friends of Rev. Father McColl will learn with pleasure that he has safely crossed the Atlantic, and that the sturdy ship has bravely completed its journey. Rev. Dr. O'Brien received a cablegram yesterday from Father McColl stating that he had set foot on the historic soil of Italy after anchoring in the beautiful bay of Naples.

His parishioners and friends who are following his footprints in imagination will feel relieved now that Rev. Father McColl is safe on European ground. He will proceed to Rome and remain at the Canadian College for about a month or possibly a little longer.

WORD HAS BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE HOLY CITY

Word has been received from the party of Peterborough people who are making a tour through the Eastern Continents and they have had a very enjoyable and profitable trip. The communication was sent from Jerusalem and enclosed were several picture cards of the different buildings of the Holy City. The party expect to be home in Peterborough again about the beginning of May.

YOUNG MAN SUES OLD EMPLOYER FOR WAGES DUE

A young man who has been employed by one of the leading firms of this city sued his old employer in the police court for wages due, amounting to $19.

Mr. E. L. Goodwill, who represented the defendant, consented to judgment being given to the claimant for the full amount.

His Worship ordered the defendant to pay the $19, and $2.50 costs to the city clerk within the next eight days.

MEETINGS FOR MEN AT GEORGE STREET CHURCH

A week of special meeting for men will be held next week at the George street Methodist church. They are being arranged by the Men's Social Adult Bible Class and Mr. Geo. Robertson's class. They begin on Monday night and on each evening at 7.45 a song service will be held to which all men are invited. The Sunday services to-morrow afternoon will be in preparation for the revival meetings of the week.

WINDOW PEEPER GETS FINED IN COURT FOR ANNOYANCE TO A WOMAN

A respectable young woman appeared in the police court this morning to give evidence against Wm. McGee, who was charged with being drunk and disorderly on Thursday night last. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge and after the evidence was heard his Worship fined him $5 and costs, to be paid forthwith or fifteen days in jail.

The fair witness stated that on Thursday night last she was sitting in the front room of her home upstairs, in company with her brother-in-law. About 8.30 o'clock she saw McGee passing and just at that moment she took a fit of coughing. He looked up at the window for some time and then passed on. He passed upand down in front of the house for some time and kept looking up at the window. She told him to go away or she would call a policeman, but he replied, "I will get you yet." He then came and leaned against the door and she asked two men who were passing to pull him away. They tried to do so quietly but he would not go. She turned out all of the lights in the house and emptied a handfull of orange peeling on top of McGee. He looked up and swore at her and again made his threat. Last night he went back to the house again and looked in the lower window and made the threat that he would get her.

"Your offence is a very offensive one," said his Worship. "You have insulted this woman and you treat her home with disrespect. Your conduct is shameless and bad." The magistrate then fined him $5, to be paid forthwith, or fifteen days in jail. He did not have any money as he went down below.

Mr. Crough's Barn Struck By Lightning And Destroyed, With Some Stock And Contents

Last night about 12 o'clock Mr. M. F Crough, of Ennismore, suffered a very severe loss in the destruction of his barn by fire, it having been struck by lightning. The fire occurred about 12 o'clock on lot 7, con. 6, and immediately north of the Cross and adjoining the premises of his father, Mr. Patrick Crough. The loss was about $2,000 and consisted of a barn 40x60 with stone foundations. There were seven head of cattle saved and thirteen destroyed, together with 10 tons of hay and 600 bushels of oats and 100 bushels of barley, a wagon, stack of straw and straw in barn, together with hay forks and other farming utensils that were kept in the barn. Mr. Crough's farm and contents were insured for $900.

Mr. Crough resided on a farm that he had purchased about a year ago, a mile north at the village and arrived on the scene just as the roof was falling in. Mr. P Crough and his son were in town and returned to the city during the night and there was no assistance convenient to remove the stock when the barn was struck, consequently the loss was more severe than it would otherwise perhaps have been. Mr. Crough has the sympathy of the community in his severe loss.

Figures Showing How Local Market Tolls Have Decreased

The city council is trying the experiment this year of taking the collection of the market tolls in its own hands instead of selling them by public auction, as has been the custom. Mr. Geo. Ball will be the market clerk for the year, receiving a salary of $750. How the scheme will work out will remain to be seen, and it is interesting in this connection to note the falling off there has been in recent years in the amount received for the market tolls.

It is apparent from the figures that the local market is not so profitable as it was some years ago, and various reasons are assigned for this, one being the large number of groceries which sell vegetables, butter, eggs, etc., as cheaply as they can be procured on the market. Many housewives have recognized this fact and do not patronize the market. Then, too, farmers have gotten into the habit of disposing of their produce to the stores, taking in exchange groceries, and many of them do not find it necessary to make use of the market. Others again complain because there is no shelter at the local market for themselves or their horses in disagreeable weather, and just at the present time a deputation is being arranged to wait upon the council with a view to having a shelter built around the outside of the market. They point out that they are compelled to remain in the open in all kinds of weather, and claim that the are paying enough in tolls to warrant the council in granting their request.

Whatever may be the reason the fact that there has been a remarkable falling off in the amount paid for the tolls cannot be gainsaid. In little over a decade the revenue from this source has been reduced to one half. A glance back over the records show that in 1898 J. B. Baptie paid $2,020 for the privilege, while last year W. A. Mellmoyle bought the tolls for $1,060, a difference of $960. Figures are figures and these show that the local market has degenerated, the prices having steadily dropped from year to year. For purpose of comparison the figures for the past few years are given.

1898—J. B. Baptie, $2,020.
1899—E. LeBrun, $1,650.
1901—Jas. G. Hutchinson, $1,300.
1902—Warren Hall, $1,270.
1903—Wm. Taylor, $1,020.
1904—Thos. Lee, $1,000.
1905—Jas. B. Brown, $1,320.
1906—Thos. Lee, $1,830.
1907—W. A. Mellmoyle, $1,060.

Large Curling Rink Assured; Plans Are Being Prepared

A curling rink that will be the equal of any in Canada is the ambition of the Peterborough curlers and, according to one of the members of the club the rink is absolutely assured.

It was spoken of during the winter and quietly but surely the club has developed its plans and a fine large building will replace that which fire destroyed on January 2nd. While the clubman could not give exact details he said that the new building would be about 114x220 feet. It will be the entire width of the lot, the lane between the old building and Dr. Robinson's livery barn being utilized thus providing 7 rinks instead of 6 as formerly.

The intention is to have six stoves using on Charlotte street, thus providing a fine appearance and improving the street to a great extent.

A long felt want in the form of comfortable club rooms will be relieved by one of the upper stories of the front part being used.

When finished the rink will be one of the best in the Dominion and Peterborough will be able to take its place in the curling circles of the province.

It has since been learned that the plans for the rink are in the hands of Mr. John Belcher who is preparing them.

Tommy Boyd Beat All Alley Records With Big Score Of 254

Tommy Boyd and his hook ball knocked all the alley records sky high at the Peterborough Bowling Club's alleys yesterday afternoon, when he hit the wood for the magnificent total of 254 pins in a single game. Bill Wareham had held the round up to yesterday with a mark of 231, but Boyd went him theskidoo number better. Boyd also toppled over his alley record of 607 for the best score in three consecutive games yesterday afternoon, when he made scores of 254, 178 and 212 in a row, giving him the splendid aggregate of 644, which will likely stand for some time. He was rolling in great shape and is already smoking in anticipation that box of cigars donated by the club for the best score made this week.

Secretary J. B Hay has written to the Olympic Committee in connection with the proposed team of bowlers for the Games in London this summer. He pointed out that in the event of a team being sent, Peterborough could not be overlooked, as the local bowlers could hold their own with the best in the Dominion.

Claire Gutterson and Geo. Cairns were doing the high mark bowling last night, both of them getting several scores of over 200, Gutterson's best being 214. Both had high averages on the evening's play. A large number of new members of the club was out yesterday afternoon and evening, and some very promising bowlers are being developed.

REAPING WHERE OTHERS HAVE SOWN.

The Review with a commendable enterprise proposes to present to its readers "a short series of articles on New Ontario." Let us see, where is New Ontario? Mr. Whitney, speaking at a great Conservative rally in Massey Hall, said with unpatriotic sneer that "Ross discovered New Ontario," which, on the same occasion, he described as "the land of the stunted poplar." Does the Review reflect that it is flying into the face of Mr. Whitney when it proposes to eulogise in a "a series of short articles" what Mr. Whitney was pleased to call with grandiloquent disparagement "the land of the stunted poplar?" Does the Review reflect that but for "Ross and the Ross Government" Ontario would not have had any New Ontario to permit the Review to present to its readers "a short series of articles" on "the great hinterland of this province." In face of the opposition of Mr. Whitney and his Conservative followers the Ross Government with that big faith in the country which is characteristic of Liberal statesman, caused the region now known as New Ontario to be explored, revealing its wealth of timber and agricultural lands. Mr. Whitney and his followers scouted the idea of such an undertaking and even after it had been completed and the riches revealed, they must needs "knock" it and Mr. Whitney described it as "the land of the stunted poplar." The Review and Mr. Whitney will remember that the Ross Government, in the face of the Conservative leader's opposition, conceived the idea of building and built the first state-constructed and state-owned railway for commercial and development purposes on the continent. This railway, in the very course of its construction uncovered the greatest deposits of silver in the world, and the development of this mineral wealth brought so much traffic to the railway that it showed net earnings last year of $275,000 and the minerals themselve brought to the provincial coffers last year in royalties, sale of leases, licenses, etc., the large amount of $1,691,340, making a total of nearly two millions —$1,965,340—one year's revenue in part from a little corner of the immense territory which "Ross discovered"—according to Mr. Whitney, and which, according to the same authority was useless and worthless, only "the land of the stunted poplar." But for the Mowat Government of Ontario the province would not have had a foot of the land now known as New Ontario, and but for the Ross Government its value would not yet have been known, nor the provincial railway that is now developing its resources, been conceived or born. Yet the Review is going to give a short series of articles" on New Ontario, a land which Mr. Whitney practically pronounced worthless and which the Review in its vaporwort, in yesterday's issue, coolly lays claim to and describes as a land flowing with milk and honey. No doubt without the least credit being given to the "discoverer" of New Ontario the Review's "short series of articles" will be used to glorify the Whitney Government and the Conservative party, in praise of a motion of the provincial against whose acquisition the Conservative party, Federal and Provincial, fought tooth and nail and against whose exploration and development the provincial party fought with equal pertinacity and, fortunately, with equal unsuccess, The Conservative party may glorify itself on the strength of the fruits of Liberal statesmanship, it may squander the revenue, devised and bequeathed by a Liberal Government, but it can't permanently rob the Liberal party of the credit which history will give it for the great share it has had in laying the foundation of the growth and greatness now possessed, which, with wise statesmanship will come in in greater measure.

LITTLE CANADIANS.

The Review describes the great Transcontinental Railway as "the huge scheme that will bring, ere long ruin upon this once happy country"—Rubbish! When the Canadian Pacific Railway was proposed, some Liberal politicians of the past generation hadn't very much faith in it, but experience has shown that they were mistaken. The Canadian Pacific has built up a new Canada in the west and has been and still is a mighty factor in the growth and greatness of this "once happy" and still happy "country." The success of this great railway in building up Canada gave Canadians new faith in the resources and future of Canada; and it should have sufficed to prevent the Conservative Opposition of Ontario from opposing the exploration of New Ontario and the building of the provincial railway whose construction has, in principle, if not in degree, been as amply justified as the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway. These two examples should also deter Little Canadians, like the Review and kindred sheets, from opposing the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway which is destined to create another Canada in the great Northwest and bring the Dominion as great profit and renown as has done the Canadian Pacific Railway, and, in a lesser degree, the Canadian Northern Railway. The Grand Trunk Pacific will do, in the way of development for the West and for British Columbia, what the first transcontinental railway has effected. All the way from the Atlantic to the Pacific its trail of steel will open a new world of activity, will pass over and waken into life virgin stretches of dormant wilderness, of wealth which has been lying useless for centuries. All the way will industries spring up, towns and cities rise into being, happy homes be established and a new and robust civilization arise. On the Pacific Coast will come into being the city of Prince Rupert, a new gate-way from the Golden West to the Golden East. Cy. Warman, the well known author and journalist, who, by the way, though he is an alien by birth, is a better Canadian than the Little Canadians who decry their country and its great enterprises, writes in the Canadian Magazine:

"Prince Rupert is new and attractive. It is to be a model city in every sense of the word. It guards what is said to be the finest natural harbour on the coast, if not in the world. It is the terminal town of a transcontinental railway which bids fair to surpass anything ever yet attempted in the way of railway construction on this continent, crossing from ocean to ocean without a single mile of mountain grade or grade that can be any stretch of imagination be considered an obstacle to the economical operation of the road. Prince Rupert is at the end of the long portage on the shortest route around the world. Any scheme which has for its ultimate object the swift circling of the sphere must reckon Prince Rupert on its right-of-way. The mineral wealth of all that vast mountain region, the forest products of Northern British Columbia, as well as the food products of the Prairie Provinces and the fur of the far north—that is to say, all the export wealth of this resourceful Dominion originating north and west of the South Saskatchewan, bound for the Orient by the Occidental route—will funnel down and pass out by way of Prince Rupert."

This is no dream but an incipient reality.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Whitney Government is compiling a new dictionary. Its definition of redistribution is, gerrymander.

President Roosevelt of the United States, in a special message to Congress, calls for a reduction or removal of duty on wood pulp. The answer should be, so far as Canada is concerned, that of the small boy who was asked by a chum for the core of the apple he was eating — "there ain't a-goin' to be no core."

Are the electors of South Monaghan pleased with the gerrymander that transfers them to East Northumberland, and necessarily loosens the bond of interest that connects them with their natural and inevitable market town? The people of South Monaghan are much displeased with the new arrangement, the result of which may possibly be less politically profitable than at first imagined.

Mr. Whitney has stated in the Legislature that Lakefield was transferred to East Peterborough "at its own request." Now, perhaps Mr. Whitney, or the Review for Mr. Whitney, would oblige this community by stating who requested the transfer. The village council is supposed to represent Lakefield. Did the council make the request? Did the the citizens present a petition; if so, how largely was it signed, and who signed it? Certainly Lakefield's interests are not served, even politically by this gerrymander.

WAS A TOTAL WRECK FROM HEART FAILURE.

Heart disease is characterised by its stealthy approach and its variety of forms, yet in all its forms nature gives unmistakable signals which warn us of its presence.

One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or, again there may be the most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries. You may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief, such speedy restoration to health that no one need suffer.

Mr. Darius Carr, Geary, N.B., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure I write you a few lines to let you know the great blessing your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been to me. I was a total wreck from heart failure, my wife advised me to take your pills, and, after using two boxes I was restored to perfect health. I am now sixty-two years old and feel almost as well as I did at twenty."

Why Dummer Maple Syrup Has The Sweetest Flavour

The Maples are on the Rocks—Sap Running Around Warsaw This Week.

OFF TO THE TALL TIMBERS

Examiner Special.

Warsaw, March 25.—The maples have again commenced to leak the juice, and many of the owners of such have taken to the "tall and lofty" to again dig out the bung and set the fountains in operation. Those who had their tinware out on Monday were rewarded for their alacrity, as there was a healthy outpouring of this vital juice. It will not be many days until the syrup for which Dummer is famous will be on the market, and from there to the table of the consumer. It is said that the reason for the superiority of Dummer maple syrup is that as most is said to be sweetest and best flavoured near the bone, so maple trees growing near the rock give forth a better quality of sap than those on low land.

Bridgenorth Writer On The Labour Question There

Refers to That Municipal Stone Pile Proposed for the Village---Labour Conditions Carefully Covered---The Cash System as a Means to Increase of Happiness.

The following letter from a Bridgenorth writer is published just as it was received at the Examiner office:

To thee Editar ov thee Weekley Examiner,

Dear Sur,—

Not being personally acquainted with you, I now take my pen in hand to write just a few lines to let you know that we are all well up here in the north countrie. Although our muscular development has somewhat declined during the winter on account of idleness, yet, in lieu of that, our mental capacity has been increased to a marvellous extent, and in consequence an extraordinary aggregation of writers, authors and scribes has been exercising its powers for the past three months. In spite of the fact that we are great on simplified spelling, yet we are in dire need of a good all-round poet who can shovel snow and break stones as a source of inspiration. The first to perform in these literary stunts was young "E. B.," whose modern description made our hamlet appear as a desirable paradise; then old man "T. L." handed down his historic sketch about our former greatness, and finally Mr. Bridgenorth utters his lament concerning the distress of our unemployed. In addition to the aforementioned pen artists there are three honourable and unknown gentlemen who collect, write down and deliver the "copy," telling of the sensational happenings week by week, year in and year out, as the centuries roll along. These latter people are known by the specific name of "our own correspondents," and are always happy by living in such a state of oblivion.

Now, Mester Editor, it is my desire to become famous, so I now, without invitation, enter this charmed circle and herewith attempt to write something really great. My text is, and always shall be, "The Labour Problem in Bridgenorth." Every proposition, correctly enunciated, has a practical and reasonable solution. So it is in this case. A municipal stonepile has been suggested, but that would be a success for about three days, that is, while the novelty lasted. Then the work would be too hard, the boss too severe, the weather too changeable, the wages too low, and the job described as the proper vocation for jail-birds. Yes, sir, something more soul-stirring than a heap of boulders is needed in the solution of the psychological problem. The existing necessity in education along certain lines in fact, a deep-rooted reform affecting the entire population.

Almost daily we read of the sufferings and privations that prevail in towns and cities through lack of proper food and clothing and of the various means of giving relief to the needy. Of these very undesirable conditions Bridgenorth knows nothing by experience. Every family has a shelter that is comparatively well furnished; everyone has clothing enough to keep warm as well as presentable, and it is not known that anyone is living on short rations or even missing a single meal through a short supply. In fact, the inhabitants appear well housed, well clothed and well fed. This picture certainly looks good, but it's not as good as it looks. "There is a reason," and its explanation is herewith tendered in good faith.

As the chief industry is lumbering, the summer months are busy ones in the sawmill and wages are good. Money is freely received and freely spent. Pay-day comes but once a month and is a very important event. Then there is a grand rush to the stores to make a payment on the account which has been growing during the past month or months. Just here is where the fine points i. the case crop up and put the machinery of state out of gear. When a great many go to the stores to make purchases they carry a little book in which these are "charged." This is a very simple operation and quite often the wages earned during the month are not sufficient to meet the bill. In this way people are constantly living a month ahead of their income, while, if they were paying cash they would always be on the level. And moreover, what honourable man would deny his wife the privilege and pleasure of spending the cash for the household requisites?

At the opening of the present winter, wages in the camps were reduced considerably on account of the changed conditions in the lumber trade and some of the men took a great dislike to that profession and stayed "to home" to look for big money which is still at the foot of the rainbow. Then when the cut of logs was finished, an opportunity was given to cut wood, but the snow was mountains high and oceans deep. But, however, notwithstanding all these remarks the little book still continues on its trip to the store and the entries on the cash pages have become so rare that a fair estimate of the aggregate amount owed to the storekeepers would be the insignificant and paltry sum of one thousand dollars, and in addition, the meat man is a good-natured soul, and there is also a friendly slab pie which can be tapped on the strength of next summer's work. There is a good intention that all these debts shall be paid in full next summer, but at the same time, the business man runs a risk in cage some of the debtors should change their place of residence or the breadwinner should be disabled or removed by death.

In the early part of last December a medicine man came to town with a little show and by means of a baby contest got our good people "going," and they eagerly handed out a total of about two hundred dollars of hard-earned money for which they received nothing that really contributes to the maintenance of a household. Did anybody see our cut?

During the past seven years there has been work for everyone and at wages the highest ever paid in Canada and yet the credit habit has adhered to some like unto perfect glue. If the labour conditions should fall back to the former level what shall the answer be?

Working men enjoy a vacation as well as anyone else and if they can have a few holidays without incurring debts, then all is well and good with no complaint and no stonepile reference.

The credit system is the dark cloud that overshadows this burg and the bad feature is that the rising generation is acquiring the habit. What is required is some education in the gentle art of spending money judiciously and the calculation and comparison of income and expenditure. A resume of the situation would be that the storekeeper is to blame for giving credit to such a great extent, and the working man is to blame for not saving his money while he has it and for not taking the work and wages which conditions will warrant, and the employer is to blame for re-instating the "jumpers" who quit work for trifling reasons and are soon back again.

It may be healing balm to some to know that there are several good, steady, industrious men here who are good citizens and get employment the year round and own their homes. It is a well known fact that some farmers and business men get ahead of their incomes, but that is no comfort or justification for the other classes in this terrible grind of existence. It may also be a source of consolation to be aware that other villages have conditions similar to those mentioned in this letter and yet it is to be hoped they are making some attempt to compound an effective remedy.

Well, Mr. Editor, I have intruded largely upon your valuable space, but when the steam cars pass this way, I shall go down to you office and tell you more about the little book and the stonepile. I remain as ever,

THE "BIZZY" BEE.

Bridgenorth, March 25, 19088.

SPLENDID FOR THE OLD FOLKS

Prescription To Relieve Bladder Trouble Which Anyone Can Mix

IT ACTS ON THE KIDNEYS

Cut this out and put it in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatever. The preparation is simple, and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood relieving the worst forms of Rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood.

As you or anyone of your family, especially the old folks, may be attacked at any time it would be wise to cut this out and save it.

A well known local druggist is authority that this prescription is safe to use at any time.

Mix it yourself. 3

LIVELY REMINISCENCES OF THE BACKWOODS DISTRICT

Written by Mr. F. M. Dela Fosse of Lakefield---Men of the North Rough of Speech and Uncouth in Manner---Thrilling Experience at a Funeral.

Mr. F. M. Dela Fosse, of Lakefield, contributed to the Busy Man's Magazine of April, an article on "Reminiscences of the Backwoods" a narrative touching on the life of some sturdy specimens of manhood of the Northern Districts. The story is as follows:—

It is to be regretted that no novelist or descriptive writer has as yet treated in a really intelligible manner the life of that sturdy specimen of manhood, the Canadian backwoodsman. From the days of Marryat and Mrs. Moodie, down to the present, tales purporting to be descriptive of life in the backwoods have indeed emanated from the press, but they have dealt to a large extent with the doings of isolated families, and little is to be gleaned from their pages of the trend of existence in the forest homes of the Dominion.

Although the settler, to those who know him best, is a being somewhat below the heroic level where certain hysterical rhapsodists have tried to place him, he is, in the main, a fair representative of what is physically, if not morally excellent in man. His character partakes the nature of his surroundings. He is often rough of speech and uncouth in his manner and bearing, and can, on occasions, run amuck of the Ten Commandments with as great skill and address as any of his more civilized brethren of the towns and cities; but his kindness and hospitality are proverbial, and in his daily battle for a livelihood he stands forth, the very incarnation of the twin virtues, Perseverance and Pluck. I know him well, for force of circumstances more than inclination caused me, at the outset of my career, to pass many years in the northern woods, where actual experience taught me something of the vicissitudes and trials of a settler's life. Fresh from England, and with insular ideas and prejudices deeply rooted within me, the new life was a revelation. The section of land allotted to me was in a free grant district. It was situated forty-five miles from the terminus of a railway and could only be reached on foot or by ox-waggon over the most villainous road in existence. Many of my neighbours, new arrivals like myself, were in a state of the deepest poverty, and subsisted as best they could on a fare in which bread very often did not form one of the component features. Turnips and tea were the daily sustenance of more than one family, and in order to procure even these necessaries, the poor souls were obliged to tramp seven miles through the woods each way, their provisions on their backs. Often this lot was allotted to the lady of the establishment the husband being too busily engaged in clearing the land to spare time for the errand. Women, also and young girls chopped in the woods alongside their husbands and fathers, and helped, together with the smaller children, in the heavy labour of logging in the burnt fallows. But in every way possible, the settlers formed a community of interest, working shoulder to shoulder in the erection of their humble shanties and in getting small acreages ready to crop. In certain cases, two or three families shared one domicile and the filth and degradation engendered by such close association almost passed belief. One shack at a liberal measurement, not more than six feet by twelve in size, held a family of seven. Their only furniture was a stove and the culinary outfit was limited to a frying pan, a pail with a hole in it, and two or three cracked cups and saucers. The domestic arrangements of this household may be well left to the imagination.

Illness Almost Unknown

Doctors very rarely penetrated to our section. Illness was uncommon and even when the need arose for the services of a practitioner there were individuals in plenty living amongst us ready and eager to fill the gap. There is nothing that appeals so much to the taste of our backwoodsman as prescribing for another's ailments or participating with him in his woe. Some of these forest galens have been known to apply hoof ointment to a cancer and to practice dentistry by the simple but effective use of a hammer and a three-inch nail. Men acted as obstetrical experts to their wives, and here and there a woman was to be found who dabbled in occult science and exorcised "the evil eye." Their diagnoses and prescriptions were of a nature to make an undertaker smile.

Many of them were hopelessly ignorant. Sprung from God knows where, Xmany of them went to God knows only where, but here and there amongst them there certainly shone forth spirits of a superior type—men and women of education and refinement—for whom it was only a question of time ere the wretchedness of poverty should be transformed into the brightness of a prosperous and happy farm life. They were flowers of fragrance in a wilderness of weeds. That there were criminals and fugitives from justice living amongst us was early made evident. One quiet, unobtrusive gentleman, in particular, whose amiable disposition had made him a favourite in Xthe section, caused quite a sensation by suddenly disappearing. But it was nothing to the excitement caused by the subsequent discovery that he had been spirited across the border on the charge of murdering a fellow workman, found guilty and executed.

Sunday services used to be held in different shanties which were generally well attended, and a certain wild-eyed being of heterodox ideas used to preach in the open air, and baptise his victims in the river, leaving them to dry themselves as best they could by a brisk walk through the woods. Amongst his flock was a shrivelled-up old hag who pretended to a knowledge of witchcraft and for a small consideration offered to remove the baleful influence of the "evil eye." The "evil eye" in one particular section was supposed to be operated by a certain Mrs. Patrick O'Brannigan, a detestable creature, who could have held her own in cursing and blasphemy with any blackguard in Christendom. If lovers proved faithless butter refused to churn, children died, or husbands levanted, Mrs. O'Brannigan was supposed to be at the bottom of the trouble, and the old beldame already mentioned was one to whom sufferers turned for succor in their different afflictions. Her mode of procedure was a simple but horrible one. It consisted in the tying of knots in a rope and in the muttering of mysterious incantations during the process. Every knot tied was supposed to cause a spasm of pain in the offender's diaphragm, and poor, disreputable Mrs. O'Brannigan would have had a hard time of it, indeed, had there been any virtue in the charm. There is much pathos, much humour in the settler's existence. How can it be otherwise when he leads a life of such unimaginable incident? One has but to travel along any of the northern roads to note in many a clearing a little grass grown plot surounded by a picket fence. These mounds contain the tragedies of the backwoods. Heartbroken mothers of a bygone day, little infants, and suicides who found the strain too great for their strength and perished in their despair, lie under those desolate hillocks. But under those stormworn crusts of earth lie also the remains of many a noble and heroic man, many a patient and long-suffering mother, who fought the battle of life prayerfully and well, and sank peacefully to their slumbers after the successful struggle. Unmarked by monument or inscription these graves stand on the bleak hillsides bearing eloquent testimony to the storm and stress of forest life.

Humor at a Funeral

Occasionally the pathos and homour get so intermingled that it would be hard to distinguish which of the two preponderates. It was my fate once to be a participant in a funeral in which, although I could not see where the humour came in, others held a different view altogether. A young fellow who had been married only a short time had died of consumption. It was in the early spring, the lakes and rivers had only been free of ice a few days and the lowlying lands lying between the cemetery and the late habitation of the departed, were deeply flooded. In one particular place the lake had overflowed its banks to such an extent that there were from six to eight feet of water covering the road. Feeling that the mourners knew nothing of the real state of affairs, I rowed across the lake and poled my boat through the bushes to the flooded portion of the road to await the funeral cortege. Long before it came in sight the rough lumber waggon bearing the remains could be heard bumping over the rocks as the horses were driven slowly down the steep declivities. At last it came in sight with three or four mourners holding on to the coffin in order to prevent it jumping out on the road. When the party arrived where I was stationed, consternation sat on every face. At least one hundred yards of flood lay between them and the dry land on the opposite side. The horses could not attempt to ford it; the only thing to be done was to transfer the shell to the boat and have it ferried across. The boat was a small one, and after some hesitation the party asked me to ferry the remains across. It was one of the hardest tasks I ever encountered. In some places the road had to be abandoned for a course through the bushes fringing it, owing to the presence of little raised ridges which caused the craft to strand in mid-stream. Submerged stumps and fallen timber obstructed my progress but by constant use of an axe and by dint of alternate poling and pulling at the bushes, I managed at last to strike the opposite bank. Now came the great difficulty. It had taken four men to lift the shell into the boat and only one man was available to help me get it on shore.

Placing the boat alongside the bank we got each at one end, and with one foot on shore and the other in the boat lifted the shell. Just as we did so the boat shot away from the bank. There was no way out of it. It was a case of throwing the coffin into the water or going in ourselves, and we naturally chose the latter alternative. In we went up to our necks, much to the joy of certain small urchins and men who had arrived on the hillside just in time to see the mishap, but to the dire indignation of the mourners who looked upon the misadventure as a gross indignity to the dead. The man who had helped me scrambled out as quickly as he could and the first words he uttered as soon as he had recovered from the shock of the cold water were not words of Scripture.

Shivering as though seized with fifteen agues, I, too, got out and looked ruefully at the boat now some twenty feet away from the roadway. "How are we going to get it back?" I inquired. "Blamed if I know and blamed if I care," said the man warthfully. "I wouldn't go into that water again, not if there was twenty coffins." No help was to be got from my friend, so, plunging into the icy water again I swam to the boat and towed it ashore. The hillside watchers had now arrived on the scene, and with very little trouble we unloaded the craft. Four separate trips had still to be made to fetch the mourners across, and when this task had been successfully accomplished there was still a walk of half a mile to the little wayside cemetery, partly along the road and partly through the forest, sometimes through wet snow that took us to our knees, and at others over fallen pines and brushwood that lay thick in our pathway. But we got to the cemetery at last, and after the impressive funeral ceremony had been concluded, left our late companion to his long repose.

THEY'RE OFF! HONK! HONK!

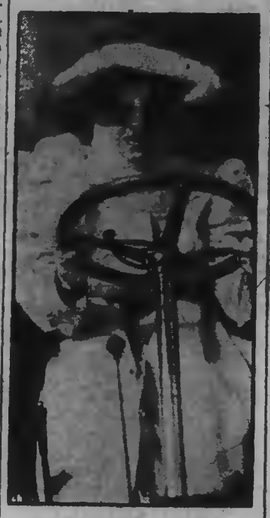
Read What the Philadelphia Item of February 28th Says About the New York Broadway Theatre Musical Automobile Extravaganza.

Filled with vim and vigour, the musical comedy "The Vanderbilt Cup," in two acts, by Sidney Rosenfield, was presented last evening to a large audience at the Grand opera house.

The play is founded upon the world-famed race of that name and interspersed with lively comedy.

The fun of this musical comedy is like the automobile—fast and furious. The tooting of the horn is continuous from the rise of the curtain to its final fall.

Of the musical numbers, "The Little Chauffeur," was demanded so often that it became an immediate favourite, and the gallery gods whistled it with enthusiasm. It is a charmingly-written bit, full of melody, and was immensely popular.



MISS GENEVIEVE VICTORIA

In the New York Broadway Theatre Musical Comedy Success. "The Vanderbilt Cup." Grand Opera House next Wednesday, April 1st. Plan opens Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Genevieve Victoria who takes the character of Dorothy Willetts, a simple country maiden, was a petite dancer and introduced many specialties, making a great hit with her dancing, duets and many song hits with Earl Dewey, as Dexter Joyce, a wine merchant, and Edmond Du-Pont, as Curt Willetts, a "get rich quick" uncle of Dorothy.

She is great favourite with Philadelphia theatregoers, and was given an ovation. Her imitations, in Act III. "brought down the house," and so demonstrative was the enthusiasm that the performance was halted.

The Pendleton Sisters executed many difficult steps in their dancing specialty.

The Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. Nelson, Dewey, Anderson and Tender, made hits and were loudly applauded.

The automobile race at the end of the second act, in which automobiles are used that are actual heroes of the Vanderbilt Cup Races, gave a very exciting finish.

The cast is simply crowded with clever women, whos conscientious and admirable efforts add greatly in making the production such a notable success.

The scenic effects are artistic and characteristic.

NEW MEMBERS FOR THE W. C. T. U.

Regular Meeting Was Held Yesterday—Number Present.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. and was largely attended. The subject discussed was "Systematic and Proportionate Giving," and proved a most interesting and profitable question for consideration. Mrs. A. R. Campbell conducted the discussion. Rev. Mr. Muir, the W. C. T. U. missionary for the lumber camps was present and gave a short talk on his work. It is expected he will give a public address some evening in the near future.

Three new members were received yesterday and promise of several others was mentioned.

EVILS OF SUBSTITUTION.

Means by Which This Widespread and Growing Practice May be Circumvented.

The old axiom that "the most sticks will be found under the best apple tree" may be applied with even greater truth to the widespread practice of substitution now prevailing. The more renowned the article, the greater number of imitators there will be found endeavouring to fatten on its reputation. Substitute articles are always inferior and yield a large profit to the dealers, many of whom, for this selfish reason, persistently try to foist them upon the public. Standard goods, like Magic Baking Powder, Gillett's Perfumed Lye and Gillett's Cream Tartar have proved a shining mark for imitators. The extensive manner in which they have been advertised for years, coupled with their recognized superiority and the great and growing demand for them, has caused manufacturers of spurious articles to boldly and closely copy the labels with the hope of sharing in the trade Gillett's reputation has created. There is but one way to meet such tactics. Examine the label and insist on getting what you ask for, as it can generally be accepted that the dealer who wishes to sell you something else "just as good" has some ulterior motive to serve.

DAMP WOOD CAUSING MORE COMPLAINTS

Some Have Received Slabs With Ice On Them.

Several people during the past few days have been complaining of being unable to buy dry fuel from the woodyards. They claim the slabs received have been soaked with water and that some have been covered with layers of ice. Those who have been receiving wood through charity from the city are making most of the complaints and demand dry hardwood. The lumbermen are unable to do anything owing to the weather, but the trouble will be over in a week or two.

Question To Be Discussed By Bible Classes To-morrow

"Student" Contributes Letter on Subject of Temperance—In Its Various Forms.

SOME NEW IDEAS ADVANCED

Editor Examiner.

What is temperance? Temperance is not the prohibition of some special line of sin by a prohibitory law of the state. But it is, rather, the right use, and not the abuse, of the many gifts that God has given to us. We hear great talk on this one question of intoxication by strong drink. Why some people call themselves temperate and ride this one hobby horse I can not understand. I admit the effect of strong drink is a great evil. But why should we lessen other crime by putting the one thing foremost, and narrow our vision on all the evils we are surrounded with on all sides? Why should we not let the Divine Spirit have a blow at the other evils that are dragging down our nation perhaps faster than strong drink? Why should the will of God in this one line be subject to the will of man, and allow other evils to predominate over the masses? Does God's Spirit stir us up to work in a biased channel? Let us look at a few other lines of sin! Tell me if there was ever a time when the church was feeding the populace with organic organization, supplanting the spiritual life of the individual, and in the home by church societies, clubs, at-homes, circles, and committees without end. There are thousands of families in the church in which the family altar is unknown. The father may be a church official, the mother an active member of some aid society, the eldest son a secretary of some young people's society. The grown-up sister may teach an infant class, while the juvenile children are kept scurrying after the various juvenile processions that the church keeps moving. Does the lack of home training affect the few or many? The family was created before the church. Leave out the home training and down goes the nation. Are we not living in a very licentious age? Does our consciences allow the money craze to make money for pleasure for the carnal desires of the flesh to eat our cake and enjoy our feasting for the "glory of God," and by so doing condemn the drinking saloon? Are our amusements and pastimes clean, and without gambling? What about the millions who are infatuated with the intoxication of fictious novel reading, and still worse, even, some who write them aspire for position in the legislative halls? What about indirect stealing and race suicide? I believe in state legislation, but it should be from within and not from without. The world must be regenerated by the energized spirit of God working through man for the glory of God and not the gratification of man. "Whether, therefore, you eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." The modern idea that has taken hold of our people that some acts being religious and some secular, is not recognized by St. Paul. Be ye temperate in all things.

Yours truly,

STUDENT.

"Why I Should Be A Christian," Was Expounded Last Evening

Rev. Robt. Pogue's Gospel Address Last Night in St. Paul's Church —Witnessing for Christ by the Score.

"Oh, that with yonder happy throng
We at His feet may fall,
And join the everlasting throng,
And crown Him Lord of all."

These were the fervently entreating lines of that grand old rallying hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," which marked the close of the religious services in St. Paul's Church last night. The great congregation, larger in numbers than on any previous night of the series—joined in one inspiring chorus, while the joyful pastor marked time in a magnetic rythm of both hands. His influence reached the audience and rendered the singing more and more infectious, until every voice in the church rang out in unison with the sentiments of the hymn.

Rev. Mr. Pogue opened the services with the hymn "Rock of Ages," and took occasion to express his gratification with the large attendance. Prayer was then offered up by Rev. Mr. Webb, pastor of the Murray Street Baptist Church.

The Pastor's Appreciation

Before beginning his address Rev. Mr. Pogue said, "I desire to convey my personal thanks to all who have assisted in these services. There have been many faithful ones who have come out every night to whom I wish to say that their presence has been specially helpful to myself. Without the assistance of the choir every night these services would have fallen short of much of their interest and helpfulness. To Miss Davies and Mr. Crane, both of whom I know have made professional and business sacrifices to be present, I feel deeply grateful. I have also been pleased with the special attention which the press of the city have devoted to these services; and I trust the reports published each evening may have been helpful, especially to those who could not attend."

Why Should I be a Christian

I want to answer the question tonight, "Why I should be a Christian," was the opening sentence of Mr. Pogue's Gospel address. "The reasons appear to be so overwhelming that it seems hardly necessary to discuss it. Christ was waiting to receive men; and so, before attempting to answer the question let me tell you what it is to be a Christian.

"A Christian man is a man that believes in certain vital things in the Bible. Most Christians believe themselves sinners and that they are lost and unsaved unless God interposes for their salvation. Most men also believe that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners; and, so to be a Christian is to believe Him and to accept Him as their personal saviour.

"And now I would urge upon your attention these reasons why you should be Christians:

1. "Because it is reasonable. God has endowed man with the powers

REV. ROBERT POGUE,

Pastor of St. Paul's who has just completed a series of successful revival services.

to reason, and He expects him to use it. The Christian life is undoubtedly the best life and therefore it is reasonable that we should live the best life. It is best for your body as well as soul, because the Christian man is the happy man, and the happy man is the most healthy man. And so the man who has the most healthful body is the man that can yield most to God. It is also best for the intellect, and the Christ who trains himself to seek Divine guidance yields himself thereto.

2. "You ought to be a Christian because it is a command of Him who brought you into existence.

3. "You ought to be a Christian because the Lord has need of you. Your life as a sacred trust, and God claims your life to be dedicated to His service.

4. "You ought to be a Christian because it is the happiest life. It may not always seem to be pleasant by some men, to do the right thing, but the man who gives his life to Christ begins the happiest life. God pity the man in sorrow who has no saviour to come to—when he has not the comfort of God to sustain him in the evil hour.

5. "You ought to be a Christian because it is only then that you can overcome sin and the lusts of the flesh. You need not be a slave any longer to your appetites. You need not be in bondage to any evil thing. Every unsaved man has in his heart a black wolf which will take the spirit and drag it down to perdition.

6. "You ought to be a Christian because you have to die. Oh, I hate death; I have seen so much of it. I have seen the unsaved die, and I have witnessed at the death beds of many Christians. What will you do in that hour? God can't help you because you won't help yourself. There will be a judgment day, and when you stand before the great white throne how will you answer?"

At the conclusion of the address Miss Davies again sang an appropriate hymn, after which Mr. Pogue asked for short testimonies, with the result that scores of men and women fittingly testified to their allegiance to Christ by brief statements or by rising for a few moments in silence.

Aldermen Are Jubilant; Private Bill Was Approved

Only One Clause Was Turned Down---Aldermen May Be Elected for Two Year Term if the People Show Their Approval at the Polls---The By-laws Were Confirmed.

The city's deputation arrived home in a jubilant frame of mind from Toronto last night, after supporting the city's private bill before the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature. The broad smile on everyone's face is explained by the fact that the bill almost in its entirety was approved by the city. In fact, everything that was asked for was granted except 24, which enacted that in case there should at an time remain in the hands of the City Trust Commissioners money not required for the redemption of the debenture debt, by two-thirds vote of the council they could be given power to invest the money in real estate.

The bbill was to have been taken up on Wednesday, but owing to the fact that the committee had other business on hand only a short hearwas given, and the bill was left over until Thursday.

Aldermen for Two Years

The clause in regard to the election of aldermen, which gives the city power, provided the measure is endorsed by the people, to elect aldermen for a term of two years, one half to retire each year, was passed by the committee, although there was considerable objection owing to the fact that the representatives of other places thought that Peterborough should wait until the Municipal Act is changed to permit of this privilege.

The clause giving the city power to issue debentures to cover the waterworks contingent fund expended in the laying of mains was also approved of.

The clauses making a number of changes in the constitution of the City Trust Commissioners were also carried, except the one mentioned above. Hitherto the commissioners have been appointed for life. They were named by statute in 1861 and the only member then now acting is Mr. James Stevenson. A clause passed yesterday by the committee gives the council the power of appointing the commissioners for five years, one retiring each year. The bill also consolidates the different statutes referring to the City Trust and defines their powers more clearly.

May Sell Park Land

The clause authorizing the Board of Education to sell to the corporation land opposite the King Edward School for park purposes, for the sum of $3,000, was approved with no opposition.

The committee also looked favourably upon the application for confirmation of the following by-laws:

A by-law to aid the Colonial Weaving Company by giving them a site and by fixing their assessment at $3,500 for municipal purposes.

A by-law to fix the assessment of the Auburn Woollen Company at $40,000 for ten years.

A by-law to fix the assessment of the Peter Hamilton Company, Limited, at $20,000 for ten years.

A by-law to grant a loan of $30,000, and give a fixed assessment of $40,000 and other concessions to secure a continuation of the business recently carried on by the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company, Limited.

Opposition was Offered

This last by-law depends upon a vote of the people, and there was opposition on the part of Mr. G. Walter Green, who was supported by Messrs. F. D. Kerr and ex-Ald. Geo. Duncan.

In this connection the following from the Toronto Star will be of interest:

Peterboroough's bill, fixing certain industrial assessments, asking for a two-year term for its aldermen and permission to bonus the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, limited, by way of a loan of $30,000 on a majority vote of the ratepayers came before a small Private Bills Committee of the Legislature this morning. A big Peterborough delegation give it moral support.

"The William Hamilton Company, a firm of fifty years' standing, was forced into liquidation by the failure of the Ontario Bank, and an effort made to resuscitate it. The company has employed 200 men," said Mr. Bradburn.

Opposition to the loan came from G. Walter Green, a Peterborough manufacturer in the same line of business, who employed 40 men, a staff that had grown from "his own right arm." The Municipal Act, said there must be a two-thirds vote.

"But this committee can go in the face of any act," remarked Mr. Sam Clarke.

"I want a fair field," said Mr. Green. "I have had no assistance."

"Did you ever ask for it?"

"No, sir. Then, these people with capital are asking for a fixed assessment, which practically means tax exemption. Have them let me alone, gentlemen."

"You'll hold your own," said Mr. Clarke.

"Ask for tax exemption," Mr. Green was advised.

"I don't want it; my own two hands have given me what I have. Put the other people on the same basis."

But the loan clause was carried by the committee.

By-laws Confirmed

The clauses fixing charges for the use of sewers and confirming a number of debenture by-laws were confirmed.

Peterborough's delegation consisted of Mayor Bush, T. E. Bradburn, M. P. P., City Clerk Armstrong, City Solicitor E. H. D. Hall, Ald. Elliott, chairman of the Legal Committee; Ald. Neill, chairman of the Manufacturers' Committee; Ald. Phelan, Gillespie, Bradburn and Morrow; Mr. W. H. Moore, representing the Water Commissioners; Jas. Kendry, of the Aubburn Woollen Company; Jas. Hamilton, of the Peter Hamilton Manufacturing Company; R. R. Hall, M. P., and Mr. Hollingcake, vice-president of the A. R. Williams Company, of Toronto, which will carry on the business of the Wm. Hamilton Company.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL

the second or top floor, with requisite lavatories, etc. The roof is covered in accordance with the old building, and the whole exterior design of the addition is carried out in every respect similar to the main building. It is the ecclesiastical Gothic style, and the fact that to the stranger it is next to impossible to distinguish the old from the new part is a tribute to the work of Mr. John Belcher, the diocesan architect. The wishes of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, who has given the building his close attention, have been carried out, Mr. Belcher co-operating with him to the best advantage. No labour has been spared in the whole addition, and St. Joseph's Hospital is now as modern as could be secured.

The Contractors

Mr. Jas. Rogus had the contract for the whole edition. The stonework and brickwork was done under his own supervision. The carpenter work was sub-letted to McIntyre Bros., the plastering to Mr. W. Henry, the plumbing, lighting and heating to Mr. R. J. MacPherson, and the painting to Mr. Fred Cook.

The painters are now at work in the various rooms and halls. The total cost of the addition will be in the neighbourhood of $20,000.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor visited the hospital yesterday and was quite pleased with the progress that had been made. His Lordship's progressiveness in keeping the institutions under his care modern in every respect is again shown in this instance, and his executive ability has again shown itself in its effective but unassuming manner.

Williamstown, Ont., April 5th., 1907.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives." I was a life long sufferer from Chronic Constipation and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring, I had a severe attack of bladder trouble with kidney trouble, and "Fruit-a-tives" cured these complaints for me, when the physician attending me had practically given me up. I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" for Chronic Constipation and bladder and kidney trouble. This medicine is mild like fruit, is easy to take, but most effective in action. 147

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL QUESTIONS

The Conditions Governing the Contest And the Prizes to be Presented.

OPENING NEXT SATURDAY

During the past week the International Newspaper Bible Study Club, the Peterborough branch of which is entirely under the control of the Examiner, has been explained to its readers. The Bible Study Club idea is one that will certainly appeal to many. As previously mentioned there will be published each week a series of questions bearing upon the international Sunday School lessons and the first series will be begun one week from to-day.

The conditions in connection with the contest are as follows:

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to the Examiner, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in this Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Sunday, April 6, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper by April 19th, 1909, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, size about 8 1-2 inches by 11 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, so it can be identified, given a number, registered and then the name cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based.

6. The questions from this Local Club must be delivered to the Examiner office and they will be collated at the close of the contest, and forwarded to the head quarters of the International Newspaper Bible Study Club for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, and those won by members of this local Club will be given out from this office.

Prizes Offered

The prizes to the winners will be as follows:—

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series — A teacher's Bible price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants.

Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a profounder knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

WAS ABUSIVE IN POLICE STATION

Was Fined This Morning for Being Drunk and Disorderly.

A well dressed young man was in the prisoners dock this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly last night. He did not think he was in that condition so he pleaded not guilty.

P. C. Newhall said that when he came into the police station last night he found the station empty and the young man in the passage of the cell talking to another prisoner. He ordered him out but he turned around and swore at him. The constable then locked him up. He also swore that the man was drunk at the time.

The prisoner still persisted that he did not do anything wrong, but the Magistrate didn't agree and fined him $2.00 which he paid.

"Gentlemen,—I have pleasure in stating that I have used $18.00 worth of Psychine, and as a result was cured of very serious throat and lung trouble.

My case was a most difficult one, and the doctors had practically said that I could not get well. I tried Psychine, and it did me so much good that I continued its use until I had taken $18.00 worth, with the result that I am now a new man physically. I have gained thirty-five pounds.

"It is with the greatest confidence that I recommend Psychine to all who are afflicted with throat or lung trouble.

Yours truly, C. A. PINKHAM.

A MASS MEETING IN ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

To be Held on Monday Night at 8 p.m.—Report of Pittsburg Convention.

Ever since the very large and enthusiastic missionary meeting in Knox Church a month ago a new interest has been awakened among the various guilds, unions and young people's societies of all the churches in this city. At that meeting special emphasis was placed upon the value and importance of the great Pittsburg convention held three weeks ago. To that convention Peterborough sent four representatives. On Monday night all the young men's guilds, brotherhoods, young people's societies, leagues and unions unite to be addressed by the Rev. H. J. Keith, M. A. B. D., and Mr. H. C. M. Potter of St. Luke's, on the Pittsburg convention. The interest of the mass meeting will be intensified by the presence and exhortation of Rev. Dr. McTaggart, president of the Provincial Christian Endeavour Union. A musical programme has also been arranged.

REGULAR MEETING OF DEBATING CLUB

Young Men of St. Peter's T. A. S. Attend In Large Numbers.

Bill to Control Indian Immigration Next Session.

London, March 28.—(C.A.P.)—In the Commons Mr. Morley stated the Indian Government specially warned intending Hindu immigrants of conditions in Canada. The whole question was receiving attention.

Durban, March 28.—The coming session of the Government will introduce a bill to control Indian immigration and fix a date whereafter the introduction of Indians will be illegal.

The London Morning Post says the Indian Government should be instructed to prevent emigration to countries where it creates disorder. The Standard, referring to an account of the introduction of reindeer in Newfoundland by Dr. Grenfell, says it is by such men as Grenfell and his friends and by such deeds that the true prosperity of peoples is established.

A School Book Commission.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., March 28.—The Provincial Government will shortly appoint a commission to deal with the whole question of education, including the matter of text-books and the best means of obtaining the same.

This was announced yesterday, when an amendment was proposed in the Legislature by the Premier to a resolution of the leader of the Opposition asking the House to appoint a committee to deal with the text-book question only. The matter was warmly debated, it being represented that excessive prices of text-books and frequent changes impose a great burden upon the people.

They Must Come Direct.

Ottawa, March 28.—An order-in-council was passed yesterday providing that all immigrants should come direct. The former order, which was declared illegal by the courts, delegated this power to the Minister of the Interior, instead of ordering it to be done.

The new order has been declared to be within the powers of the Government by the Department of Justice. The objection taken before was that the Governor-in-council could not delegate the work to the Minister. An act will be passed also, but a new order serves the purpose for the present.

SHALL QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY SEPARATE FROM THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH?

This promises to be one of the most important questions that has occupied the attention of the Presbyterian Church for some time. While Principal Grant was alive, an attempt was made to nationalize Queen's University. This meant that Queen's would seek to secure state aid and that, while the theological department would be still Presbyterian, the university would be entirely free from church control.

After Principal Grant's death the General Assembly, at its meeting in Vancouver, decided to retain the university under its control, and determined to raise an endowment of $500,000 to maintain the various departments of the college work. Andrew Carnegie offered $100,000 of this amount, provided the balance was raised. John Charlton, M.P., and William Mackenzie were responsible for almost another $100,000 on the assumption that it would be held in touch with the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The church during the past three years has responded very liberally, until about $200,000 of the balance has been raised.

It is now discovered by the arts professors that if the university were to be freed from ecclesiastical control they would be in a position to claim the Carnegie pension fund, and they have petitioned the trustees to so institute proceedings as will enable them to be in a position to benefit by this fund. As this is of such importance to the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's, a graduate of the university at Kingston, has been pleased to answer some question on this interesting subject. The questions asked and the answers given by Mr. Potter are as follows:

What will the effect of the Senate's action be on the present endowment campaign?

I believe that it can only result in paralyzing the efforts that are being put forth in connection with the endowment fund. The strongest arguments that have been made are those on behalf of loyalty to the college of the church, and it will be a most bitter disappointment to thousands of donors to see any attempt made at this juncture to separate the college from the church.

Do you not think that, if separated, the adherents of other churches will take a deeper interest?

Not at all. In the beginning of the endowment campaign the citizens of Kingston of all shades of religious faith were strongly of the opinion that the university would be much better under the direction of a strong religious organization, and many of them contributed handsomely in view of its retention by the Presbyterian Church.

Then you think that there is an element of dishonour in this move?

I certainly believe that all over this Province our people will look upon it as a breach of faith, and as thousands of dollars have been promised on the conditions mentioned, many will assuredly feel that the contract has been broken. Moreover, it is not very encouraging to find that the matter has been allowed to go on for over three years, and now, for the sake of the Carnegie pension fund, the general public should be dealt with in this way. I am safe in saying that no greater violation of faith and confidence will ever be recorded than even an attempt by the trustees to cut the connection with the church without returning every cent that has been subscribed. Any such action would be unworthy of a great institution like Queen's.

If the trustees decide to petition the next General Assembly, what would be the result?

It is difficult to say. It seems to me that with the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and Knox College, Toronto, appealing for endowment from the same constituency, the Assembly would yield to the appeal, provided it could be done honourably, and then the next step would be the removal of the Theological School to Toronto. The attention of the church has been called more than once to the necessity of consolidating the colleges. This move on the part of Queen's Senate would certainly facilitate this arrangement. The crisis calls for immediate action on the part of all loyal Presbyterians. With only $100,000 to raise to fully equip the university, there should be a number of men who will rise to the importance of the occasion, and, by raising the balance of the endowment, put a quietus upon the unsettling cry of nationalization.

The Sick Made Well
The Diseased Made Whole
"Incurables" Permanently Cured

THE FIFTY YEARS' RECORD of

This is no exaggeration. "Somebody" may think too much is being claimed for Psychine. The Dr. Slocum Company stands ready to donate $1,000 to any charitable institution if any statement or testimonial given concerning this great remedy cannot be verified, or is not found to be absolutely truthful and genuine.

Pronounced Si.KEEN

is one continuous series of triumphs over disease. So wonderful has been that record that "the half has never been told." Large numbers of people, many of them prominent in business and social circles, whose lives physicians had despaired of, have been permanently cured by PSYCHINE, but do not wish to have their names published. They faithfully recommend it, however, to their friends.

Let us mention a few of an innumerable host of volunteer witnesses to the power of PSYCHINE to cure when all other means were unavailing and, in some cases, where hope had fled.

G. Davenport, Toronto, pronounced hopelessly incurable with tuberculosis by three prominent Toronto physicians, and sent by them to Weston Sanatorium for advanced cases of Consumption, cured by Psychine.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Rev. C. E. Burrell, Baptist Minister, Forest, was pronounced incurable. Her physician told Mr. Burrell that "the next dress he would buy for her would be a shroud." Permanently cured by Psychine.

John A. Galbraith, Forest, Ont., pronounced incurable from pneumonia and tuberculosis, physicians said he could live only a few weeks at most, cured by Psychine. A wonderful case. Facts vouched for by his Pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrell, Baptist Minister, Ralph E. Scott, druggist, Forest, and N. J. Pettypiece, Ex-M.P.P., Publisher Forest Free Press, who was so impressed with the cure that he personally interviewed Mr. Galbraith, and said the cure is regarded as a miracle by those who know the facts.

Bryce Allan, Jarvis, Ont., County Councillor, says: "I tried remedy after remedy and doctor after doctor, but got no relief from lung and stomach troubles. After two months use of Psychine I am as sound as a bell. I give Psychine all the credit."

Masterman A. Walden, Cornwall St., Toronto, says: "My troubles started with grippe, then typhoid fever, pneumonia and consumption. Doctors and hospitals failed to cure me, but Psychine brought me back from the verge of the grave to perfect health."

Jimmie Reynolds, the famous pedestrian of Port Hope, says: "I was a martyr to catarrh of head, throat and stomach. Several physicians feared consumption, but could give me no relief. Other remedies failed. I tried Psychine and it cured me. It is the greatest medicine the world has ever known."

These are a few of tens of thousands of such cases. The evidence is overwhelming that PSYCHINE cures when physicians and all other remedies fail. All Throat, Lung and Stomach troubles must yield to the curative powers of PSYCHINE. Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Night Sweats, weak and run-down conditions and nervous exhaustion — the sure avenues to Consumption and Death — are being cured in multitudes of cases while you are reading this. It can be obtained at all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. DR. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, Toronto.

With Advent Of Spring Lumbermen Prepare For Fascinating Life Again

McDonald Lumber Company Will Bring Down 100,000 Logs—First Drive June 1st—Foremen Selected.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

The work in the lumber camps for this season is about completed and the men are now preparing for and looking forward with great interest to that most fascinating yet hazardous phase of a lumberman's occupation—the drive. In a few months the River Otonabee, which is now dotted with cakes of ice, will be alive with floating logs, and the quaint figure of the hardy river-driver, with his broad-brimmed hat and high spiked boots, will be everywhere conspicuous. The life of a river driver is full of hardships, which few people realize, and he is met by danger on every side. There is hardly a season passes but that some unfortunate river-driver is killed in a jam or drowned in the river, while in the discharge of his duties. Still the occupation affords plenty of amusement and interesting experiences which are not met with in any other sphere of life. The lumber companies are arranging now for the coming drives and when everything is in readiness they will commence a systematic transportation of the timber to the city.

Mr. John Duignan, manager of the McDonald Lumber Company, speaking to an Examiner representative, said that the company would bring down the river this year 100,000 logs. All of the logs will be brought to Peterborough this year and will be sold mostly in Peterborough and outside points in Ontario. The first drive is expected down about the first of June and the second one will follow during the month of August. There will be about one hundred men employed on the drive this year, all experienced men. The first drive will be under the direction of the capable foreman, Mr. J. Ford, and Mr. Grath will have charge of the second. The men, while on the river, will be well looked after and the drive will be accompanied by excellent cooks. The logs will be floated down to the lakes and then formed into booms and towed to Lakefield and floated to Peterborough, formed as usual into large booms. The company have a camp in Galway and Burleigh Townships and have also several jobbers through Galway and Harvey.

Speaking about the cut this year Mr. Duignan said that it was about the same as last. They had been greatly handicapped in their work this year by the weather. Frost was lacking in the forepart of the season, and too much snow prevailed in the latter part. Then the men were employed a great deal of the time shovelling snow instead of cutting logs. There were over one hundred and fifty men engaged in the two camps, which is about the same number as were employed last year. Mr. Duignan said that through the winter there was not a very large demand for lumber, but during the last month they had received a great many orders in excess to that received last year. He thought the lumber prospects for this year were exceedingly bright and was looking forward to a busy season.

Mr. Duignan is a practical lumberman of many years experience and is very popular among the lumbermen of the city.

South Monaghan's First Post-Confederation Elections

Story of Poll Book Used First in After-Confederation Elections in That Township---How Voting Was Conducted Under Open-Vote System.

Forty-one years ago, come next July 1, the Dominion of Canada came into existence. Forty-one years ago, come September 2nd and succeeding days the election of the first parliament of Canada was held. Though the general result of that first election has its place in our public records there are many details that will be of interest to the fast passing generation which took a voting part in the first Federal general election.

Access to some of these details of local interest is had through the kindness of Mr. John Riddell, 55 Homewood avenue, who has placed in the possession of the Examiner the first poll book used in the election of September 2nd, and 3rd, 1867. Mr. Riddell formerly lived in South Monaghan. He found in the attic of the old homestead, when leaving his native township, this poll book in an excellent state of preservation.

Days of Open Voting

These were the days of open voting and the contest lasted, on this occasion, two days. There was only one polling division in South Monaghan, and, with considerable indifference to the convenience of a majority of the electors, the election was held at Centreville, in one corner of the township. The voting took place in a hall attached to "Clark's Tavern," then situated on the northwest corner of the agricultural grounds in that hamlet, having for its opposition in business a tavern directly across the way—in Cavan Township—which is still standing and bears the ambitious title of "Rossin House," while its erstwhile competitor has long passed away, having been destroyed by fire; and its proprietor, John Clark, who was the last man to vote at the first election after Confederation, has long since gone to his long rest, though his brother still resides in the township.

Free and Easy Methods

The election procedure of those days was what may be described as of the free and easy character, untrammelled by election laws. There was open voting, hotels were wide open often in some places was a whisky-barrel with its head knocked out and its fiery contents accessible to the free and independent electors through the medium of a tin dipper, placed conveniently for common use. Not only was the hotel at which the election spoken of was held wide open as to the bar, but a free feed was in progress throughout the day, provided by one, or possibly jointly by all the candidates. There were four candidates for whom votes were recorded; for the Federal and Provincial elections were held at the same time and with the same election machinery. The candidates were John Gordon, brother-in-law of the present Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, now of the firm of wholesale merchants, Gordon, McKay & Co., Front street, Toronto, and the late Charles Perry, for the Dominion House; the late John Walton and John Carnegie stood for the Provincial Legislature. The poll book in question consists of paper-covered sheets, ruled in vertical columns, a column each for the names of voters, their legal additions, etc., and four columns for the four candidates.

How Voting was Done

Each voter was numbered consecutively and his vote recorded by a stroke placed in the column under the name of his favourite candidate. The contest was rather vigourous, for out of 189 names on the voters' list, a printed copy of which is gummed on the fly-leaf of the poll book, 173 were recorded; and of these, 148 were polled on the first day. At the foot of every page was this certificate: "I certify that the total number of names entered on this page is ——, whereof the first name is ——, and the last name is ——." This was signed by the deputy returning officer—in this case, J. W. McBain, uncle of Mr. J. J. McBain, city, now resident in the Northwest. The first man to record his vote was William Armstrong, who voted for Perry and Carnegie. Mr. Armstrong, who died at Bonsfort about three years ago, well up into the nineties, was reputed to be at the time of his death the oldest Orangeman in the Province.

Close Party Lines

The voting, as regarded candidates, was pretty faithful to party, the totals at the foot of each page showing nearly identical figures for each of the two party candidates. This applies literally to the footings of the first three pages, the vote on the third page giving each of the four candidates thirteen each. Nearly every voter exercised his full franchise privilege; but James Chalmers of Peterborough (a man could vote in 1867 wherever he had property), who "plumped" for Perry and James Latimer, who "plumped" for Carnegie, were the only two who did not take all that was coming to them in the way of voting. James Clark, who was the last man to vote, was the only independent elector in the "bunch." He voted for Gordon, the Liberal candidate for the Dominion, and for Carnegie, the Conservative candidate for the Provincial. Perhaps, in view of the facts that the polling took place at his hotel, and that, possibly, he received substantial favours from both parties, he considered it the decent thing to divide his political patronage.

South Monaghan seems to have politically degenerated since 1867. In the first election it gave substantial majorities—65 each—for the Reform candidates. Now the township has become sufficiently Tory to warrant Mr. Whitney shouldering it, by way of gerrymander, upon Sam Clark of West Northumberland. In this first historic contest, Gordon (Liberal) polled 105 votes, and Perry (Conservative) 65, a majority of 40; Walton (Liberal) 105, and Carnegie (Conservative) 65, a majority of 40.

The enormous advance in the price of Ceylon Tea has made it necessary for the "Salada" Tea Company to adopt one of two courses. Lower the quality or advance the price. It was felt that the latter course would prove the most satisfactory, consequently the Company adopted it. The price of "Brown Label" "Salada" is now 30c per pound instead of 25c per pound, as formerly.—12.

THE OLD FASHIONED DOCTOR

It is interesting to note how the medical profession is getting back to first principles. For some years we have been swamped with new synthetics, many of them heralded to cure the incurable, but now the leaders of the profession are returning to the well known herbs whose value has been proved by years of experience. These physicians do claim, however, and rightly so, that formerly there was not sufficient attention paid to the preparation of the herbs nor to the quality, and so it is a satisfaction to see the King Palmetto Company offer a combination of these old and esteemed remedies with a positive guarantee as to the purity of the ingredients and of scientific skill in the manufacture. They print the formula plainly on the wrapper and intelligent people can readily appreciate its value in all cases of stomach, liver and kidney trouble. King Palmetto Compound regulates the bowels and cleanses the system, and in thus purifying the blood will immediately relieve and eventually cure many of the diseases caused by impure blood, such as rheumatism, gout, eczema, etc. It is a specific for muddy and sallow complexion and pimples. Send for free sample to King Palmetto Co., Bridgeburg, Ont. King Palmetto Compound is sold at $1.00 per bottle and guaranteed by

RAISING OF RATES NOT TRUE

So Says I. O. F. High Chief Ranger Eastern Ontario—The Story Was Altogether Without Foundation

NEW PLAN ONLY A DREAM

The recent rumours regarding the raising of the I. O. F. rates appears to have originated from some source far from responsible, according to the following letter which appeared in last week's issue of the Cobourg Sentinel-Star. The article was written by Mr. G. H. Wade, High Chief Ranger, Eastern Ontario, and is as follows:

Editor Sentinel-Star,—

Dear Editor, — There appeared in your valuable paper of the 13th inst. an article entitled "I. O. F. Rates to Rise." I do not know from what source you acquired the information the article purports to give to the public, but I presume it was copied from one of the many newspapers in which a similar article was published last week. The article was not authorized by any of the Supreme Executive, and I can only conclude that it was but the vapid emanations of some newspaper enthusiast.

If a change of rates, or re-seating of the assessment is brought about at the next Supreme Court meeting, no man living knows what will be the nature of that change.

The Supreme Court, consisting of delegates from the various High Courts, is the Legislative body of the Order, and until that body convenes and approves of any proposed changes, no changes can take place, and the Supreme Court does not meet until next June. How, then, can anyone say what will be done re the rates of the Order.

The Supreme Executive may deem it wise in order to place the I.O.F. in a stronger position, if that were possible, to recommend certain changes in the constitution of the Order for the consideration and approval of the Supreme Court, but they are not likely to publish to the world at large what those changes are, because the Supreme Court may not approve of them. Besides it would be very indiscreet and impolitic to so play into the hands of the opponents of the I. O. F.

You may rest assured that any such newspaper article as appeared in a number of newspapers last week has not the stamp of authority, and may therefore be taken for what it is worth.

The case as reported by the enthusiastic reporter is within the bounds of possibility—but the plan of re-seating the rates is the one most unlikely to be adopted by a Supreme Court, four-fifths of the members of which are paying the old rates, and would be very materially affected by any such plan.

Whatever is done in that line, the interests of the old members will be the first consideration of the Supreme Court. With $12,000,000 of a surplus we can afford to treat our old members liberally, and nothing will be done that will tend to force them out of the Order and thus lose to themselves and their beneficiaries that protection which they have so long enjoyed and which they have confidently looked forward to as a support in their declining years.

I do not wish to be understood as casting any reflection upon any other fraternal insurance society, for God knows they all are doing a grand and noble work for humanity in the protection and insurance they are furnishing. But if the Dominion Parliament thought it necessary, as was contemplated in the proposed Insurance Bill, recently before Parliament, for the I.O.F. to make a more certain provision for the future of its members in order to secure the perpetuity of the existence of the institution.

What must be the condition of a number of the societies whose rates are much less than our old rates and whose surplus, if they have any at all, is diminutive in comparison to the $12,000,000 of the I.O.F.?

RUNAWAY ON M'DONEL STREET LAST NIGHT

Horse Was Frightened by a Passing Car —No Damage Was Done.

A runaway took place last night on McDonel street, which caused considerable excitement in that vicinity. A horse was left standing on the roadway at the corner of McDonel and Park streets. The horse took fright from a passing street car and started east at a mad pace. The buggy swung from side to side on the roadway, as the horse tore along. At Aylmer street the animal darted southward and was caught about mid-way between McDonel and Brock streets. No damage was done.

SILENT CALL OF THE SUGAR BUSH IS AN IRRESISTIBLE FORCE ON THE ADVENT OF SPRING

The Making of Maple Sugar Again To The Fore—A Prominent Canadian Industry.

SYRUP ON THE MARKET

The season of sugar making has come around once again. It is therefore not an unfamiliar sight in the country to see the farmer who can still boast of being the proprietor of a maple bush, wending his way across the country to the sugar bush. It is a spot, too, which has an especial attraction for more than the farmer. His family as well as his neighbors for the farmer usually takes good care that all his friends shall share in the jollity of the sugar bush—may be seen on an evening about the present time attracted by the silent call of the tall timbers, following the pathway that leads to the camp in the woods.

In Peterborough County the maples have dwindled away at an alarming rate within the past few years, but there are still a few hundred of them still standing. Possibly the larger quantities of the "sweet stuff" that arrives in the city comes from Dummer and Townships to the north of the city.

But any of the modern sugar bushes would be a revelation to the man who lived a quarter of a century ago and who has not since visited the attractive spot. The equipping of a sugar bush with a modern outfit has been proven to be a profitable investment as making maple sugar has become one of Canada's great industries.

The City Folks Look On.

Two Pails On One Tree.

Adulteration Troubles

It is an industry that is rapidly growing into prominence in Canada, and it is by no means a new industry. Its development has been hampered, however, by the placing upon the market of adulterated goods. These are put up in attractive packages, and find easy access into the homes of unsuspecting customers. As a consequence the consumer is defrauded, the market for pure goods injured, and the producers of pure goods discouraged. Fortunately, the abuse is being overcome, largely through the better enforcement of that section of the Adulteration Act dealing with goods such as maple syrup and sugar. Producers of pure goods, therefore, are receiving more encouragement than was accorded them formerly, and the industry is benefiting thereby.

The maple sugar industry is dependent largely upon the weather conditions. When these are favourable, a large run of sap is assured, which, if properly handled will result in as great a profit an acre as can be realized on any acre of the farm, provided the sugar bush is a good one.

The first arrival of the maple syrup in the city to-day was heralded by a large number. There was none on the market however.

For the large cut on the seventh page and also the other cuts of sugar-making scenes the Examiner is indebted to the Canadian Dairyman and Farming World, which in a recent issue dealt fully with the maple sugar conditions of the present day.

ENGLAND

The famous Exeter, Devonshire, Cathedral is in danger. The other Sunday a large piece of stone fell from the south tower, breaking a window in the south choir aisle. This is the latest of a number of similar occurrences which have induced the dean and chapter to have an inquiry into condition of this tower. The report states that the tower shows serious indications of rapidly progressive decay. About £100 has been spent on examining and underpinning the tower, and an appeal is being made for a further £700.

Some of the English newspapers recently published as news an item about fifty years old. A circumstantial report that a ton of contraband tobacco had been discovered off the Dorn, Teignmouth, Devon, appeared in a number of papers, but it has now transpired that the news was written up from a paragraph extracted from a newspaper of February 18, 1858. The hoax caused much official telegraphing between the local Customs and coastguard officials and the Board of Customs in London.

The ancient custom of presenting every colleger of Eton School, Bucks, beginning with the lowest, with a three-penny piece, was celebrated a few days ago. The custom originated with Provost Bost, 1477-1504, who left a sum which gives each colleger 2d.; Provost Lupton, 1504-35, left them the other 1d. Tradition says each colleger is entitled to half a sheep. The college, therefore, gives him what the equivalent was in money in the Middle Ages.

For fortune-telling, Mme. St. Leonard, a professional clairvoyant, was fined £5 and costs at Llanelly, Carmarthenshire, a few days ago. Among other things she predicted a collier accident at Trimsaran, the result being that the superstitious miners refused to go down the pit, which gave employment to 200 men. Some had been idle a month, and others had left the village altogether.

At the Cyfarthfa (Glamorgan) steel works 120 men have been paid off owing to depression in trade. Steel for the tinplate industry is principally produced at Cyfarthfa. The tinplate trade has for some time past been in a poor condition, and foreign steel has been imported at prices lower even than those to which South Wales steel has declined.

The Wester Ross Farmers' Club has voted £10 for the destruction of crows in the district of Dingwall.

A girl in Oakshaw School, Paisley, named Elizabeth Nothery, received a silver watch for seven years' perfect attendance.

The Dowager-Duchess of Argyll, Macharioch House, has gifted a bust of the late Duke of Argyll to the House of Lords Library.

A miner named Jas. MacDowall was killed by a fall of shale while at work in No. 8 Glendoven mine, belonging to Young's Oil Company.

The body of David Coull, an engineer, who resided on Scotland street, Glasgow, was recovered from the Forth and Clyde Canal, Port Dundas.

A fine of £10, with the alternative of two months' imprisonment, was the sentence passed upon Charles Smith, a Polish miner, at Hamilton, for shebeening.

The death has occurred at Aberdeen of James Davidson, a naval veteran, who served in the Crimea and afterwards witnessed stirring service in China.

As an evidence of the abnormal mildness of the season, a starling's nest, containing four young birds, has been discovered in a tree at Leslie Park Deanty.

Georgina Durnan of Anderson was sentenced at Campbeltown to sixty days for a particularly bad breach of the peace. She is described as "an incorrigible."

Last week a miner, William Weed, 23 years of age, of Musselburgh, met his death by falling from a window of his home into the street—a drop of two storeys.

Four men were remitted to the sheriff at Dumbarton, charged with stealing lead from the roofs of Clydebank houses. Recently many complaints have been made of such thefts.

IRELAND

To the disappointment of 30,000 spectators who lined both sides of Belfast Harbour the other day, the new Holland-American liner Rotterdam refused to take the water at Messrs. Harland and Wolff's yard. The steamer is 668 feet long and 25,000 gross tonnage. She has been ready for launching some days before, but the ceremony had been put off on account of the great gale, and when the attempt to get her into the water was made, it was found that she had settled down on the ways. The shores were removed and the hydraulic trigger applied, but she failed to budge an inch. The tallow on the ways had been squeezed out. The launch had to be postponed again for a fortnight, at the end of which time it was successfully held.

While some wedding festivities were in progress the other night at the house of Mr. Guiben, Drumkerran District, Co. Leitrim, the party was broken up by the intrusion of a band of men masked and otherwise disguised, who entered the house with the evident intention of participating in the festivities. When their presence was questioned, one of the men made a sarcastic remark about the North Leitrim election, with the result that a free fight ensued, in which several of the parties were badly injured. The dance was suspended and the disguised intruders fled from the house. They remained however, some distance outside firing shots at the windows, though happily, no one was wounded.

At the closing performance of the "Humpty Dumpty" pantomime at the Theatre Royal, Dublin, a band of students attempted to storm the platform in the middle of the last. They invaded the orchestra, from from which the musicians fled, but the fireproof curtain was rung down and the lights were switched on. Great confusion prevailed for a time. A detachment of police was called in and after a scuffle the more boisterous of the students were ejected, and the others followed.

BEN HOWARD CAME TO HIS DEATH ACCIDENTALLY BY BEING STRUCK BY TRAIN WAS JURY'S VERDICT

No Important Evidence Was Adduced at This Morning's Session—Movements of the Deceased Were Traced Up To 2 o'clock on Saturday.

CASE A MYSTERY TO CORONER

"That the late Ben Howard came to his death accidentally by being killed by a train on the Grand Trunk Railway on the 21st of March."

The above was the decision reached by the coroner's jury in the inquest into the causes of the death of the late Ben Howard; after a short deliberation this morning. The evidence given this morning was such that any other verdict was impossible. The testimony of the witnesses traced Howard's movements up to 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and there was nothing to show what he had done from that time until 7.30 in the evening, when he was seen at Downer's Corners by Michael Crowley.

All the jurymen were present when the inquest was opened before Coroner Dr. Gray in the Council Chambers this morning. Crown Attorney R. E. Wood assisted in the examination.

The Post Mortem

The report of the post-mortem given by Dr. Cameron showed that the vault of the skull protruded through the scalp. There was a large wound in front of left ear, which was partly torn from the scalp. There were wounds at the root of the nose and below the right eye. On the right and left thighs were bruises. There was a compound fracture of the right leg and of the right arm. The skull was crushed at the back base and vault while the internal organs were normal. The neck was broken, and the report concluded: "From the above examination we would say that death was caused by some crushing blow delivered to the head of the deceased." Dr. Cameron was assisted by Dr. Young in the post-mortem examination.

To Mr. Wood witness said that the injuries were, in his opinion, inflicted before death.

Dr. Young corroborated what the previous witness had stated concerning the wounds on the body.

Finding of the Body

Jos. Naylor was the next witness. He stated that he was an employee of the G.T.R. and had been sent down the track to look for the body. He had found the body lying between the rails about two and three-quarters miles from the station and three-quarters of a mile from Downer's Corners. He couldn't say how long the man had been dead. It was lying crossways on the track and he had notified Mr. Sandy, the station agent and he had informed the coroner.

Edward Greer testified that he knew Ben Howard but did not see him in town on the 21st.

Mr. Wood asked if he had stated to anyone that this matter should be followed up.

The witness replied that if he did he couldn't remember. He had been drinking, he stated, and couldn't remember making such a statement.

Mr. Wood asked if he did not think that when he had a chance to give evidence at an inquest he should have kept sober.

"A very good idea," was the comment of the witness.

Saw him in Sleigh

Michael Crowley testified that he was a farmer residing in Otonabee. He did not see Ben Howard in Peterborough but saw him in his (witness') sleigh at Downer's Corners. He couldn't say whether Howard was drunk or not. He had asked him where he was going and Howard had replied "Hiawatha." He didn't appear to be drunk, according to the witness. Witness had gone into the store at Downer's Corners and when he returned Howard had disappeared. It was about 7.30 or 8 o'clock. Howard had a conversation with George Harris who was with witness in the sleigh and Harris had warned him against going down the track.

Herbert Kylie testified that he lived in Hiawatha but was in Peterborough on March 21st. He had seen Ben Howard in the American Hotel on Hunter Street. Howard had come in there looking for a man from whom he wished to get some oats. Howard did not drink there as far as he knew. Witness did not know, which had left the hotel first and had not seen Howard since. Howard had introduced him to another Indian in the hotel. He did not seem to be under the influence of liquor at that time.

Was With Howard

Peter Culverton swore that he lived in Deseronto and was in Peterborough a week ago Saturday with Ben Howard. He had met Ben Howard on the street between 12 and 2 o'clock and went across the river to a hotel on the south side of the street where Howard fed his horses. He did not have any liquor there although they had gone into the bar room. Witness had left the hotel with Howard and had gone to the American Hotel where Howard was looking for Dan Hayes of Otonabee. They did not have any drinks there. Soon after he had left Howard and had gone to the G.T.R. station with a man named Lott. Witness could not say whether Howard had been drinking before he met him or not, he had not smelled breath. Neither he or Howard had a flask.

Lott was called and said that he saw Howard at the corner of Hunter and George streets about 2 o'clock and deceased was sober then.

Michael Crowley was called again and stated that he did not know whether the man on his sleigh at Downer's Corners was an Indian or not.

This concluded the evidence and the jury was left to reach a verdict. Coroner Gray remarked that the matter was a mystery to him. There was no evidence to show that Howard was drinking and if he was sober he did not go to Downer's Corners alone. The evidence did not show that Howard was not sober.

CHESTER GILLETE CONFESSES BEFORE MEETING HIS DEATH IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR TO-DAY

Auburn N. Y., March 30.—(Special.)—In the electric chair at the state prison this morning at 6.14 o'clock Chester Gillette died for the murder of his sweetheart, Grace Brown, at Big Moose Point, on July 11, 1906. Gillette made a confession to his spiritual adviser. This much is contained in the statement which the clergyman gave out after the electrocution, which reads as follows: "Because our relationship with Chester Gillette was privileged, we do not deem it wise to make a detailed statement, and simply wish to say that no legal mistake was made in his electrocution, signed, Henry Mellrov. Cardello Herrick."

The execution was quite successful, only one contact being necessary.

Date Of The Provincial Elections Stated To Be June 9

Toronto, March 30.—From the inner Conservative circles it is learned to-day that the Whitney Government is contemplating making an appeal to the country immediately, and that the election will take place on the ninth of June. It is expected that the Local Legislature will prorogue by Easter at the latest, and that Parliament will be dissolved immediately thereafter. While this may be denied in certain quarters, it is stated that this has practically been decided upon by the Government. Although no notice may be given out, the friends of the Government are actively engaged in rallying their forces together in the different constituencies throughout the Province. This information is obtained from what is considered to be a very reliable source.

Special From Ottawa Came Near Mile A Minute Record

Ottawa to Peterborough, a distance of 185 miles in three hours and forty minutes, was the brief space of time in which a special C.P.R. train travelled yesterday. It left the capital at 11.30 a.m. and arrived in Peterborough at 4.14 p.m., the train being composed of an engine, baggage car and tender. The last 24 miles were covered in exactly 25 minutes, making almost a record of a mile a minute. It usually takes the ordinary train seven hours to make the trip.

The sole passenger was Miss Lillian Moore, who was hurrying home to the death-bed of her mother, Mrs. D. H. Moore, who passed away about an hour after the arrival of the train.

Empress Of Ireland Had A Stormy Atlantic Passage

Mr. T. P. Bayliss, after a two months visit with friends in England, arrived back in Peterborough about 7.30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Bayliss sailed on the "Empress of India," which arrived at Halifax on Friday after the worst trip of her career. The heavy seas gave the ship a severe shaking and she will require several repairs before the return voyage. Leaving Liverpool on March 21st she made 155 miles the first day; 389 the second and 351, 340, 368, 360, 407 and 185 the remaining days of the trip. The average speed was only 15.39 knots an hour. This will give those experienced an idea of the roughness of the weather. She should have made 20 knots an hour.

Two others, besides Mr. Baylis, got off at Peterborough.

DIED AT THE AGE OF 85 YEARS

Mrs. Monerief Passes Away in Peterboro Rather Suddenly.

This morning another of Peterborough's octogenarians in the person of Mrs. Richard Monerief passed away. Her death occurred rather suddenly, as, although she had been suffering slightly from a cold, she was able to move about yesterday at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Robt. Morrison, 484 Dalhousie street. Mrs. Monerief was 85 years of age and was predeceased by her husband about 30 years ago. Her maiden name was Sarah Clark, having been born near Springville.

Her surviving sons are John, George and Richard of North Monaghan and William A. of Chicago, and the daughters are Mrs. Thos. Dunlop and Mrs. Robt. Morrison of Peterborough, Mrs. Thos. Johnston of Otonabee, and Mrs. Geo. Lockie, Kamloops, B. C. She has one brother, Wm. Clark, of Peterborough.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to the Fraserville cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS

PRESTON-GRAY

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the home of Mr. William Gray, Harvey street, when his daughter, Miss Irene, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Preston, formerly of Bethany and now a dentist student, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Pearson, and, being a quiet one, the bride and groom were unattended.

MR. McILMOYLE LEAVES TO-MORROW

His Term at the Market Sees its Last Day on Tuesday.

To-morrow is the last day of Market Clerk McIlmoyle's regime. While he has been in control the market has upheld its reputation as well as it could. There were certain events which tended to decrease the attendances, but in spite of everything the market has been fair. It did not come up to the general expectations and the price paid was undoubtedly too high. However, Mr. McIlmoyle made the best of the circumstances and stayed by his contract.

RUMOUR APPARENTLY UNFOUNDED

That an Indian Had Been Drowned at The Chemong Village.

There was a persistent rumour about the city to-day that a tragedy had occurred near the Chemong Indian village this morning in which William Taylor, an Indian, had lost both his own and horses' lives by going through the ice. The rumour was, fortunately, untrue so far as the Examiner could learn from his friends in the city. Neither had the telephone officers in Bridgenorth nor Lakefield heard of any such accident.

TWO HUNDRED YOUNG LADIES

Members of Sodality Attend St. Peter's In a Body.

The members of the Sodality of St. Peter's Cathedral received holy communion at the early mass yesterday. The ladies were about 200 in number. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor said the mass and was assisted by Rev. Dr. O'Brien in administering the sacrament. The occasion was the celebration of the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin. At the conclusion of the mass His Lordship referred to the duties which the ladies owed to Mary when they take her for their special patron. They should practice humility, obedience and modesty, these in particular among the many virtues.

Next Sunday the members of the C. M.B.A. will attend in a body.

THE SITUATION OF FRUIT MARKET

Not as Bright as They Should Be—Reasons Given.

Speaking of the fruit market a fruit dealer said to-day that the outlook was not the brightest. Bananas are rather scarce and consequently dear on account of the spring crop in the south not being up to its usual mark. Similarly the advance notices about the orange crop were considerably overdrawn. While the first crop was good the later was not what was expected especially the navel grades.

The lemon crop is fair but the dealers have been experiencing considerable trouble in keeping this fruit.

The autumn crop should turn out well but for the present supply

ISOLATION HOSPITAL.

During the past week the Examiner printed a news paragraph, mentioning a case of contagious disease, which broke out in a private house. The family were not unwilling to deal properly with the patient, a domestic servant. The isolation of the patient was ordered. It could not be done in the house affected; both of the hospitals, as was their duty and right, declined to accept such a case and the course was forced of driving the patient a distance of forty miles with evident discomfort and risk of danger to the affected person. This brings up the question of an Isolation Hospital whose existence would have prevented the occurrence of such a reproach to our civilization, not to speak of our Christianity. The City Council long ago adopted the idea of an isolation hospital, but the matter ended with good intentions—in a considerable contribution to the pavement of an often-quoted subterranean region. The council should give the matter of providing an isolation hospital immediate attention. It has to come some time, and the sooner the better. No family knows what moment it may be stricken with a case of contagious disease, and with no isolation possible, with no back township home to unload the patient, or patients, upon, they may be put to indescribable inconvenience, great expence and be made an an element in spreading contagion, and be compelled to be a party to a breach of the Health Act, which requires rigid and effective measures of isolation. Nobody knows, either, when an epidemic of contagious disease may break out in the city, in which event the absence of an isolation hospital would be an untold calamity. Peterborough has a large floating population and the danger of infection and subsequent contagion is thereby made greater. It seems to be time that proper equipment for satisfactorily dealing with contagious diseases should be provided.

BAD MEN NOT ALL FOREIGNERS

The population of the three western Provinces of Canada in 1906 was, in round figures 809,000, an increase of nearly 92 per cent. over 1901. Of the present population 70 1-5 per cent. are British or Canadian by birth; 11 1-5 per cent. were born in the United States, and 18 1-2 per cent. are of other foreign birth. This shows that the rather hysterical outcries raised by Conservative Opposition journals in regard to undesirable foreign immigration are somewhat of the alarmist variety. The Globe even becomes alarmed over the frequency of crime among the foreign element of our population. This exists to a very undesirable extent, but it seems to be inseparable from conditions that attend a rapidly growing population. This condition prevails in all great population centres such as London, England, New York, Montreal and Toronto. The problem seems to be to exclude these undesirables. London has not been able to do it. In fact it does not seem to be very desirous of doing so. London has been for centuries, the city of refuge for the oppressed of continental Europe. It is only natural, that free countries like Great Britain, Canada and the United States should attract those driven from the despotisms of Europe. That with the genuinely oppressed should filter in a percentage of the undesirables, is almost inevitable. The true character of the latter can only be definitely ascertained by their subsequent conduct. How to prevent the entrance of the reprobate class is the problem. Then, it is to be noted that especially in the United States and even in Canada, all the crime is not committed by foreigners. In both countries there is a considerable proportion of crimes of violence committed by members of the native population. The latest despatches tell us that in Washington, the Capital of the United States, the centre of law and authority, a member of Congress, on his way to deliver a temperance lecture in a Methodist church, got into an altercation with a negro, and drawing the ever-present and ever-ready revolver, shot his opponent in the head. A member of Congress a law-maker, on his way to deliver a temperance lecture, armed to the teeth represents a condition of readiness and willingness to commit a crime of violence that would do credit to the most depraved foreign reprobate. When the United States can persuade its law-makers to cease to become law-breakers then it can consistently carry on its crusade against imported criminals. Nevertheless it is highly desirable that these classes when known should be rapidly excluded from Canada as well as the United States, though all the "bad men" are not foreigners, nor all foreigners bad men.

A LOT OF MONEY AND WHAT IT DID.

Montreal Herald.

In 1886 Canada had a gross revenue of thirty-three millions. Ten years later, in 1896, it was three millions larger, or thirty-six millions. Ten years after that again, it was eighty millions, or twice as much and eight millions to spare. That, to borrow a highly descriptive colloquialism, is "going some." Since some people are giving themselves a good deal of concern about the national finances these days, it may be worth while to see what occasioned such a difference.

In the first place, the customs revenue proceeded to run clear away from all previous records. In the first year of Confederation customs revenue was under nine millions; by 1886 it had grown to nineteen; then it climbed to twenty-four in 1890 and was back to nineteen in 1896. Ten years later, the customs revenue was forty-six millions. The nineteen millions were collected at a cost of $4.47 for every hundred dollars; the forty-six millions at a cost of $3.35 per hundred.

The excise revenue in 1896 was eight millions. Collection cost six per cent. In 1906 the excise revenue was fourteen millions, and the collection of it cost four per cent.

The post office used to be an expensive sort of luxury. In 1886, for instance, while we got nearly two millions of revenue from it, the collection of that revenue cost the whole of it and two-thirds of a million more. It wasn't much better in 1896. The revenue, it is true, was three millions, but it cost that and another seven hundred thousand to get it in. In 1906 the post office earned just the least thing under six millions—but it cost under five. It makes quite a difference.

Another item of revenue, of some importance, is that credited to the Government railways and public works. Out of the eighty millions Mr. Fielding had to dispose of in 1906, over eight millions came from the Government railways, canals and public works, and the whole of it was paid out upon the same services. Ten years before they were running the railways, but they were not taking in nor paying out eight millions; they took in three.

In 1896, the sales of Dominion lands were bringing in $166,256. Multiply that by ten, and you have within a few dollars of the income from the same source in 1906.

What has been done with all the extra money? That is a fair and proper question if a fair and proper answer is desired. There are those, of course, who content themselves with the sardonic comment that it has been merely wasted, but there is not much use asking such critics for the particulars. We have seen already that there is no waste in the customs and excise services, for those services are costing considerably less than before in proportion to the amounts received. The post office is no longer producing deficits, but surpluses. The Intercolonial has entered the same class. A glance at the figures show that the cost of legislation, administration of justice, penitentiaries, various classes of inspection, payments to Indians, and such normal services, is about what it was. We must look, therefore, for the increases in those expenditures which have had to do with the remarkable development of the last ten years, and there, sure enough, we find them. Here is a partial, but suggestive, series of comparisons in expenditure:

Fisheries	$ 427,000	$ 968,000
Agriculture	210,000	603,000
Immigration	120,000	842,000
Quarantine	95,000	624,000
Lighthouses and Coast	466,000	2,530,000
Ship Subsidies	534,000	1,227,000

These items account for an increase of almost twenty-five millions in the annual expenditure, and every one of them tells its story of increased national efficiency. The fisheries are protected better; agriculture is organized better; immigration is pouring in at last; care is taken to reject undesirables; the coasts are being equipped with lighthouse and other protective services (we formerly could not afford at all), the great rivers are equipped with the most modern appliances in aid of navigation; ships of the highest class come to our ports and carry our most perishable products without loss; the reign of law has been extended to vaster areas; we have undertaken military responsibilities on two oceans and all over the Dominion in keeping with a growing national spirit; finally the demands for public works coming from all parts of the Dominion, for wharves, for post offices, for buildings, demands the like of which were honoured in the past even if the country had to go into debt to do so, although many urgent needs had still to be overlooked, they are honoured now and payment is made out of current revenue. Canada has been well equipped. We have in Montreal the best example of what the difference means. In the old days we had a harbour wholly unsuited to serve its function, and the money could not be got to improve it. Now we have a modern harbour, and a channel to the sea deepened, swept, and lighted. As our needs have been met, so have the needs of others. Look, for example, at the present annual expenditure of two and a half millions on lighthouses and coast service, where before the country could afford but half a million. Does anyone imagine that that difference means nothing to the people who live by the sea? Canada is being equipped according to her station. That is the meaning of it. And if, after a while, there are lean years, so much has been done already that we can get along without spending on these things even as much as in the old days they had to, and still be better able to do the day's work.

Do we want a gigantic idea of the extent to which the equipment of Canada has been advanced since 1896? Let it be put this way, for purposes of comparison: Between 1886 and 1896, there was spent on lighthouse and coast service, on ocean and river service, on public works, and on the various forms of what are called capital expenditure, which are all for development, the sum of $65,202,000. During the same period the net debt of the Dominion was increased by $35,238,000. In the period between July 1, 1896, and March 31, 1907, there was spent on the same services $150,528,000. In that period the net debt was increased by only $5,174,000. For purposes of easy comparison the two periods may be illustrated thus, the debt increase being represented in black:

1897 to 1907

Is not that a showing of which Canada, and all Canadians, may well be proud?

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Ottawa Evening Journal, with its usual fairness where Liberals are concerned, gave columns to the Opposition insinuations against Mr. J. J. Turrift, M.P., but, remarks the Ottawa Free Press, when it came to Mr. Turriff's reply it could afford only eight lines of space. That is "independent journalism"—very much on the lines of the Toronto News.

A SURGICAL OPERATION

If there is any one thing that a woman dreads more than another it is a surgical operation.

We can state without fear of a contradiction that there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of operations performed upon women in our hospitals which are entirely unnecessary and many have been avoided by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For proof of this statement read the following letter.

Mrs. Letitia Blair, Cannifton, Ont., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was sick for five years. One doctor told me it was ulceration, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor, and advised an operation. No one knows what I suffered, and the bearing down pains were terrible.

"I wrote to my sister about it, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It has cured me of all my troubles, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me to pass safely through Change of Life."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and backache.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

EAT ORANGES

IF YOU WANT TO KEEP WELL

Careful tests have proved beyond question that orange juice has clearly defined medicinal virtues. Those who suffer with Indigestion—are compelled "to diet"—And that after eating oranges regularly for breakfast there is no distress, no palpitation.

Where there was a tendency towards constipation, the eating of oranges regulated the bowels.

In skin troubles, those who began the morning meal with an orange were noticeably improved.

There is, however, a quicker way to get better results. This is to take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets at bedtime in addition to the juice of an orange before breakfast the next morning. "Fruit-a-tives" are the juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes, in which the medicinal action is many times intensified by the special way of combining them. Valuable tonics are then added.

Take the juice of an orange before breakfast—take "Fruit-a-tives" at night—and you will quickly be rid of Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Constipation and Biliousness. "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price by "Fruit-a-tives," Limited, Ottawa.

CANADIAN PACIFIC SCATTERS FLOWERS BY THE WAYSIDE

The Canadian Pacific management are not only noted for the manner in which they scatter the flowers of courtesy, care and comfort in the pathway of the passengers they carry, but for the manner in which they make the prairies blossom as the rose, and deck the wayside station grounds with floral beauty.

In pursuance of this, now permanent, policy, the annual distribution of seeds from the floral department of the Canadian Pacific is now taking place, and as a result of the efforts of Mr. N. S. Dunlop, the C. P. R. floral enthusiast, during the coming summer there will be a streak of flowers and shrubs across the whole continent from St. John to Vancouver Island, which will tend in no small degree to give travellers an idea of the beauty of the country. From a small beginning this floral scheme of the big railway has become almost a national institution, and the interest in it is growing very fast amongst the employees of the C. P. R., especially those in small stations, where they have time to go in for gardening, and where there is frequently keen competition as to who can grow the finest display around the station and office buildings. This year Mr. Dunlop has received hundreds of applications for packages of seeds. Each package contains twenty-nine varieties as follows: Alyssum sweet; antirrhinum, giant flowering; aster, early flowering comet; aster, Semple's; balsam, rose-flowered; candytuft, mixed colours; carnation, Marguerite; centaurea, imperialis; chambers, dianthus, mourning cloak; everlasting flowers, godetia, mixed; gaillardia, aristate; kochia or summer cypress; mignonette, 1900; nasturtium, California giant, dwarf; pansy, Giant Trimardeau; petunia, large flowering single; phlox Drummondi; poppies, (Burbank's Silver Lining and Maid of the Mist); scabiosa, salpiglossis; stocks, dwarf German ten weeks; sunflower, chrysanthemum flowered; sweet peas, Spencer's hybrid mixture; verbena, giant flowering, and zinnias, mammoth mixed.

The scheme is evidently becoming a greater success every year. "During the past few months," said Mr. Dulop, "I have had pundreds of letters from railway agents, section men and others who received these packages of seeds, telling of the great pleasure they derived from them. The work has proved a blessing to thousands of employees of the company in the lonely districts of the west, where both they and their families have taken great interest in beautifying the stations with their garden work. This year we expect to have more railway gardens than ever before, and the result cannot but be both beneficial to the road and its employees, as well as a source of pleasure to travellers along the line."

The Examiner has to thank the C. P. R., through their obliging local station agent, Mr. W. S. Dodds, for packages of seeds.

What Is In Store For The Postmen Of Peterborough

Shropshire Mail Carrier Who Has Walked a Distance Equal to Sixteen Times Around the Earth —38 Miles Per Day.

OTHER FEATS OF POSTMEN

"Sixteen times round the world," is the remarkable record, says Tit-Bits, of Mr. Richard Williams, of Cressage, Shropshire, who recently received the Royal Service Medal on his retirement, after completing thirty-years service under the G.P.O. For the greater part of his time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles a day, the total, according to his computation, amounting to 415,620 miles. Besides this he could reckon up quite a respectable total of miles covered while following the hounds.

This pedestrian feat stands as a record amongst rural postmen, so far as the writer has been able to discover, although other country letter-carriers have accomplished some very remarkable journeys. Mr. George Bunn, for instance, ex-postman of Wembley, Middlesex, has a record of forty-years service to his credit, during which time he walked 280,000 miles; while Mr. W. Moore, a Yorkshire man of Malton, who retired two years ago, traversed some 270,000 miles during his thirty-two years service. What is more, in the words of a speaker at a pleasant function held to co-commemorate this record, "he looked jolly well on it."

A striking contradiction of the assertion that walking exercises reduces weight is furnished by the case of Mr. George Ford, of Ticehurst, Sussex. Mr. Ford is fifty-seven years of age, and has been in the Post Office service thirty-seven years. When he first became a postman he weighed close upon 10st. He now weighs 17st. 2 lbs., and has weighed 17st. for the last ten or twelve years. In spite of his bulk, however, Mr. Ford still covers eighteen and a half miles per day on six days of the week, and on twenty-six Sundays of each year fifteen miles each day.

Other Records

Another veteran who is still on the active list is Mr. Henry Peskett, of Walberton village, Sussex, who entered the service in 1867. During the past forty years he has walked on an average twelve miles a day, which gives a total of over 174,500 miles. The record of Mr. E. T. Bradford, of Cobham, Kent, who was pensioned off nearly three years ago after close upon forty years service, during which time he walked on an average eighteen miles a day, or over 215,000 miles altogether, is remarkable for the fact that during the whole of his term of service he was only fourteen days off duty through illness.

Even more remarkable was the record of David Ramsay, a rural postrunner between the Kirriemuir Post Office and Alyth, in Scotland, who retired some time ago at the age of eighty. For twenty-five years he covered a distance of twenty-four miles a day, and twelve miles a day for another twelve years, making a grand total of 232,000 miles in thirty-seven years. And during the whole of this period he was never known to be off a single day.

A record of a somewhat different character is that held by Ferdinand Cheval, a French postman, who has actually built a palace at Hauterive, France, with stones which he has collected during his daily rounds. The palace, which is constructed of stones of all shapes and sizes, is the most fantastic building on earth, and has taken Cheval twenty-six years to build. It has many unique features, not the least interesting of them being a tomb in the grounds of the palace, where Cheval himself will be buried.

LEGISLATION AGAINST BUCKETSHOPS

Stock Situation From New York—Wall Street's Interest Aroused.

New York, March 28.—The action of the Assembly Codes Committee at Albany this week is reporting without amendment a bill introduced, making it a felony to operate a bucketshop in this State, together with the presentation of a similar bill in the Senate and the promise that the same will come up for consideration on Friday of next week, has again aroused Wall street's interest in the prospect that bucketshops in the State of New York are about to be eliminated for all time. Needless to say, both the New York Stock Exchange and the Consolidated Stock Exchange are lending their moral support, if not something more substantial, to these measures, as it is thoroughly recognized by these institutions that it is of vital importance to them that this long-existing evil should be completely and forever wiped out. The Consolidated Stock Exchange is especially interested in seeing the measure now before the State Legislature pass, as in the event of the suspension of business on the part of bucketshops in this State, much of the trading which now goes to them would of necessity be diverted to the so-called "Little Board."

Not only is the outcome of the pending anti-bucketshop legislation being watched with great interest by the local stock exchanges but the country at large, and even Canada, are very much concerned in the matter, and if the bucketshops are eventually driven from this State, it is pretty safe to say that similar actions will be taken by several other states, as the evil has been no less apparent outside of New York than it has been within its borders. As a matter of fact, it has been even greater, particularly in certain of the eastern states, a few of which have already enacted laws prohibiting them from doing business. Toward the securing of such legislation the Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York has always lent material aid, and it is therefore a foregone conclusion that when the bills now before the Legislature at Albany come up for final hearing that institution will be found in the very front fighting for the suppression of this vice.

STATISTICS SHOWING ADVANCE

Canadas Population Growing More Rapidly Than That of United States

At the beginning of the 19th century Canada had a population of 250,000.

The United States had 5,000,000, while the United States had 5,250,000.

After a lapse of 100 years Canada had 6,000,000, while the United States had 75,000,000.

In other words, Canada increased in population 22 1-2 times, while the United States increased in population 14 1-2 times.

During 1905 twice as many immigrants came into Canada from all sources as came into the United States from all sources during the first ten years of the nineteenth century.

Last year 200,000 people came into Western Canada, or one-fifth of the population of Western Canada, or one-fortieth of the population of the whole of Canada. At no time in the history of the United States did immigration exceed one-sixtieth of its population in one year.

In exact figures 272,376 people came into all Canada during 1907.

WEDDED IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

Lieut.-Col. H. S. Greenwood's Marriage To Miss Dorothy May in Cape Town

The Examiner this morning received a copy of the Cape Town Argus, of Feb. 19th, from the southern part of Africa, containing an account of the wedding of Lieut.-Col. H. S. Greenwood to Miss Dorothy May, nieve of Mr. Wallace Pierce, of Boston, Mass. The Argus gives the following account:

A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at St. George's Cathedral, the contracting parties being Lieut.-Colonel H. S. Greenwood, V.D., who commands the C.S.A.R. Corps, and Miss Dorothy May, niece of Mr. Wallace Pierce, of Boston, Mass. The Dean of Cape Town officiated and the Cathedral was decorated with palms and white lillies. In true American fashion the bride was attended as matron-of-honour by Mrs. Ross Skinner, wife of the general manager of the Durban Roodepoort Gold Mine. Major J. M. Fairweather, D.S.O., acted as best man. Mr. O. Clunie Macpherson gave the bride away.

After the musical service the wedding party repaired to the Mount Nelson Hotel, where an extremely pleasant reception was held.

The bride looked handsome in a white Liberty satin bridal robe. It was fashioned in Directoire style, and the upper portion of the corsage being embroidered in Roman pearl embroidery and adorned with beautiful old lace, which was once worn by her grandmother. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms and a lace veil, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet. A sapphire and diamond brooch, the gift of the bridegroom, was also worn.

Mrs. Ross Skinner presented a very stylish appearance in brown figured silk with an embroidered pale blue and fine cream lace vest and lace undersleeves. Her becoming Parisian chapeau of brown silk was decorated with brown and blue silk roses and she carried a blue lily bouquet. Sir Daniel and Lady Gooch were present and Lady Gooch was elegantly attired in white French muslin and a brown straw hat plumed with ostrich feathers. Amongst those also present were Mrs. and Miss Beachy Head, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson and Miss Paton.

After spending a couple of weeks o motoring tour in the Peninsula, Colonel and Mrs. Greenwood return to Johannesburg, where future they will reside.

THERE IS NO SECRET

About Our Cod Liver Preparation---Vinol

So many patent medicines and advertised cures are now offered to the public that we want to call the special attention of the people of Peterborough to the fact that Vinol is not in any sense a secret or patent medicine.

For centuries medical men the world over have recognized the great tonic and curative elements contained in the cod's liver, but how to extract these medicinal elements from the useless and repulsive oil which envelopes them has been the problem hitherto unsolved.

This was finally accomplished by two eminent French chemists, and the result is Vinol, a delicious modern cod liver preparation without oil, made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, thus combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. Try it on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. Mc-Dermid & Jury, druggists, Peterborough; also the Market Drug Store.

BETHANY TABERNACLE PASTOR SPOKE AT Y.M.C.A.

On Subject, "Why We Believe the Bible To Be Inspired Word of God."

Yesterday afternoon at 4 p. m. Rev. A. E. Steuernagel, pastor of Bethany Tabernacle, addressed a large gathering of men in the Y.M.C.A., taking as his subject, "Why We Believe the Bible Is the Inspired Word of God." The speaker mentioned some very strong reasons why we believe the Bible, and, in closing, gave an earnest invitation to those not believing the Bible as God's Word, and therefore their salvation, to accept its teaching and become Christ's followers.

Mrs. Steuernagel sang both before and after the address in a very pleasing manner.

WANT TO RAISE THE AGE LIMIT

To Prevent Youths Under 20 From Playing in Pool Rooms.

A despatch from Toronto says that legislation to raise the age at which youths are permitted to frequent pool rooms was asked by representatives of the municipality of Orillia, who called on the Attorney-General on Wednesday. There was an agitation to reduce the license fee payable by those establishments, and in view of the feeling against allowing boys to spend their time in them, the municipality suggests that youths under 20 be forbidden to enter them. The minimum age at present is 18.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien Advocates Total Abstinence For Men

Sermon at St. Peter's Cathedral Yesterday Morning on This Important Question — Reasons For Joining the T. A. S.

A STRONG APPEAL MADE

Not satisfied with the large amount of good work that the society has already accomplished, the members of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society are beginning a new campaign to-night to enlarge its membership. The movement has been under consideration for some time and the arrangements have all been completed.

One hundred members of the Society will begen a house to house canvas of the city to-night to personally invite all those who are not members to associate themselves with the T.A.S. by joining at once.

The ambition of Rev. Dr. O'Brien as spiritual adviser is to have every Catholic man over 16 years of age a total abstainer and to have no members of the church dealing in the liquor business. While the Society exists, he said yesterday, it will always keep this goal in view and with the help of God will ultimately reach it.

A Friendly Visitation

At the 10.30 o'clock mass at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday, Rev. Dr. O'Brien in announcing the movement to the congregation said that the men who were chosen to carry it out, (and everyone is expected to do his share) would not visit the homes for the purpose of telling a father or son where he was wrong or of detailing his faults. An earnest invitation will be extended to them to become a member of the society for the glory of God.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien then spoke in an impressive manner of what was to be gained by those who joined the society. Special indulgences are granted by the church which with the prayers that are offered to God for the members cannot afford to be passed by.

Temporal Benefits

Temperance is a virtue, Father O'Brien said and is dear to the heart of God. Total abstinence in the matter of alcholic beverages is the perfection of temperance and should therefore be practiced. Where a father is coming home the worse of liquor it is generally found that there is neither material nor temporal happiness in the household and it is next to impossible that God's grace should rest there.

Father O'Brien said that the material success which men of the congregation enjoy now when before becoming total abstainers they were almost in poverty, should in itself be sufficient reason. He mentioned the danger which the young men who is just beginning to earn his own livelihood daily meets with in the temptation of the bar.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien gave many other reasons for joining the T.A.S. and concluded by expressing the hope that those who are not already members should consider the question in its proper light.

Row Between Lebarge And Castle Began Over A Woman

Lebarge Accused Castle's Sister-in-Law of Standing Between Him And a Girl — Witnesses Tell About the Fight.

JUDGMENT WAS RESERVED

An old-time grudge was assigned this morning by Harry Lebarge who appeared in the police court on a charge of assaulting Henry Castle in the Royal Hotel, as the reason for the fight that took place. Lebarge was defended by Mr. F. D. Kerr, and, after hearing the case, His Worship reserved judgment until to-morrow.

There was an extra large crowd in court this morning and the case seems to have created considerable interest around the city.

Harry Castle, the plaintiff, was the first to give evidence. He said he came to the city Monday afternoon, and after visiting several hotels, met Lebarge and bought him a drink in the American House. After they had treated each other Lebarge began a conversation and said Castle's sister-in-law was putting a difference between him and his girl. Witness told him he was out of his mind, and with that Lebarge struck him on the face and sent him reeling behind the bar. When he got up Lebarge had been put out of the hotel. Witness then went to the Royal Hotel and there the trouble commenced. Lebarge struck him over the eye and they both tussled together. Prisoner bit him on the lip and he fell over. He was kicked in the side and on the head, causing severe bruises. When he awoke a policeman was standing over him. He fainted again, and woke up in the police station to find Dr. Bingham bandaging his lip. Dr. Morgan came later and ordered him to the hospital, where he had the stitches put in his face and lip.

To Mr. Kerr he gave a dramatic description of the fight and stated that when Lebarge bit him he exclaimed "You are biting me." Mr. Kerr asked him to say those words and hold his lower lip, and much amusement was caused by the attempt.

Dr. Morgan said he found Castle in the police cells covered with blood and with a long cut underneath his lips and a gash below his eye, but he could not tell what caused the cuts. He had Castle taken to the hospital, where he stitched the wounds.

John Harris, who was drinking with Lebarge and Castle, heard the conversation about the former's lady friend and Reub. Castle's wife. He saw Lebarge strike Castle over the eye. He went to the Royal Hotel and described the fight, but did not see Lebarge bite.

Andy Blodgett was with Harris but did not see the blow struck in the American House. Both the prisoner and defendant, he said, were drunk. After the trouble in the hotel he tried to get Castle to go home, but the latter turned back and said he was going for tools. Witness told him Lebarge was back there, but he would not go home. Witness went to the Royal and later saw Castle covered with blood.

Henry Pillings said he was having a drink in the City Hotel when Castle came in and struck him a blow on the eye which soon took a dusky shade. He did not strike him back because he knew he was drunk.

Mr. Steve Holland said he saw both men fighting, but did not see Lebarge bite. The trouble only lasted a short time and both men took an equal part in it.

Mr. Dan Sullivan, who was with Lebarge, said they both went into the Royal. Castle met them in the doorway and said "I am looking for you, and you are looking for me." They began to fight, but he could not say who struck first.

Mr. D. Kennedy and Mr. Patrick Kelly, who were in the sitting-room, said they did not see much of the fight, but left the room.

The prisoner then took the box. He said hard feelings had existed between them since last spring, and they were not on friendly terms. He met Castle on George street and was asked to go back and clear out the City Hotel bar, but witness refused. He met Castle again in the American House, and after a wordy war about a certain woman, he struck Castle in the face. He then went to the Royal and met the plaintiff in the doorway between the bar and sitting-room, Castle sprang at him and they began to fight. He was struck on the lip and sustained a small cut. He denied kicking or biting Castle.

One Thousand Members The Motto Of St. Peter's T. A. S.

Large Meeting Yesterday When Campaign Plans Were Given the Finishing Touches—Forty-three New Members.

DETERMINED TO SUCCEED

"A membership of one thousand" is the battle cry of the members of St. Peter's T. A. S. and the campaign begins to-night. In another column reference is made to the announcement that was made at the Cathedral yesterday morning. In the afternoon the society held its regular meeting, when all the arrangements were completed. The question has occupied the attention of the T. A. S. for some time, and the plans have been carefully moulded and developed. The city has been divided into wards and sub-committees of threes have districts in these wards.

These members of the T. A. S. will visit the Catholic homes and invite all the men and boys over sixteen years to join the society in the name of God and St. Peter's T. A. S., and for their own spiritual and temporal welfare.

Reason for Movement

This radical movement has been occasioned by the increase of drunkenness and the sale of liquor in Canada, as shown by Government statistics. Three classes of men are wanted by the society. First, the men addicted to liquor are wanted to stop the use of it; secondly, the moderate drinker, who is in danger of becoming a regular drankard, and lastly, the man who is already a total abstainer, but is not a member of the society.

Forty-three new Members

As an evidence of the interest and the zeal shown by the members the meeting yesterday was perhaps the largest in the history of the T. A. S., and 43 new members were initiated. The society, while looking after its own welfare, is also interested indirectly in the general welfare of the city. Its policy has always been an onward one and it has ever increased in strngth and determination. Should this campaign not result in at least one thousand members being on the roll, the work will be begun all over again.

All Or None Of The London Regiment To Go To Quebec

London, March 30. — (Special.) — Local officers have received absolutely no information regarding the statements that only half of the city regiments will be taken to Quebec to take part in the celebrations.

Col. Peters, D.O.C., stated to-day that he had heard absolutely nothing from official sources regarding either the Quebec trip or the holding of a camp here this spring.

The general impression amongst the members of the Seventh is that no more disastrous step toward the complete disorganization of the whole company could be taken than to only send half the regiment to Quebec.

Such a move would result in the most intense dissatisfaction, and many of the oldest members would undoubtedly drop out were such a step taken.

The men and officers are unanimous in the opinion that either all should go or none at all, and they would far sooner miss the trip entirely than to only take a portion of the regiment and cause discontent and disruption among the corps.

City Bear a Share

It has been suggested that the city might bear a share of the expense, if necessary, in sending the whole regiment to Quebec, but this is a mere suggestion and will not take definite shape until the final orders have been received from headquarters, and not then unless only half the regiment is ordered to Quebec.

The Seventh officers are with the men, and if necessary, are prepared to make the strongest representations to headquarters that the whole regiment should go.

Grain Route To Peterborough To Be Rapidly Pushed Forward

Montreal, March 30. — (Special.)— Mr. John Sullivan, manager of construction for the Canadian Pacific, whose headquarters are at Toronto, was in the city on Saturday in conference with Vice-President MacNicoll and General Manager Leonard with regard to the work to be done this summer in connection with the new lines now being built in Ontario. The Toronto and Sudbury line is now approaching completion, and it is understood to be the intention of the company to push forward as fast as possible the new grain line from Victoria Harbour on Georgian Bay to Peterborough. This line will take cars of wheat from the C. P. R. gathering grounds brought down the lakes by steamers other than those of its own fleets.

NO. 4 COMPANY ANNOUNCES ITS FIRST MEETING

A meeting of the members of No. 4 Company of the 57th Regiment will be held on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the drill hall, when preparations will be made for the coming season. All the members of the company and any one desiring to enlist are requested to be present. The company, which is one of the best in the regiment has bright prospects for the coming season and there should be a large attendance on Tuesday evening.

COUNTY ROADS ARE HEAVY AND PROGRESS SLOW

The country roads are in a very bad condition at present owing to the rains which have softened the snow. The horses sink to their bellies and in many cases the farmers have to walk beside them and progress is necessarily very slow. One man with a cutter drove in with his sister and so dangerous were the roads that she will have to remain in the city with friends.

The difficulty of driving was a reason for Saturday's small market.

ANOTHER GROCERY STORE TO OPEN

Mr. Hanlan Sisson the Proprietor—At Corner of Dalhousie and Rubidge Streets.

On April 1st Mr. Hanlan Sisson will lopen a grocery store at the corner of Dalhousie and Rubidge street. Mr. Sisson is a young and energetic man who is well known. He has been employed in the city at various times by Messrs. Hill, J. R. Bell and Peter Conmal.

NEARLY DROWNED BY THE ROADSIDE

Bridgenorth Young Man Has a Very Wet Experience From Bad Roads.

Mr. George Bell of Bridgenorth had an experience in driving to Peterborough on Saturday which he will not soon forget. He started in the morning but did not arrive in the city until 6 o'clock at night.

In one of the many pitch holes he smashed his cutter and as it skided on one runner Mr. Bell was thrown into the ditch where the water was cold deep and murky. He was half drowned when he got back on the highway, he was drenched to the skin and it was after considerable difficulty that he repaired his shattered cutter. He remained with friends Saturday night, and had to procure new clothes. He returned home last evening.

WELL KNOWN LADY PASSES AWAY

Unexpected Demise of Mrs. D. H. Moore Last Night—Daughter Called From Ottawa.

The sudden demise of Charlotte McKee, beloved wife of Mr. D. H. Moore, occurred last night shortly after five o'clock, at her residence 207 Brock street. The deceased lady was very well known and highly esteemed throughout the city and the intelligence of her sad death will be learned with deep sorrow and regret by all who knew her. Her death was quite unexpected, as she had not been seriously ill. She had been ailing since Thanksgiving day last, but not seriously as she was able to be about. She was in usual health on Saturday, but early Sunda morning she was taken suddenly ill. Her condition never improved throughout the day and shortly after five o'clock, surrounded by her family, she passed into eternal rest.

Miss Lilian, daughter of Mrs. Moore, who has been visiting with friends in Ottawa, was wired yesterday morning to the effect that the worst was feared. She arrived here by a special train from the capital during the afternoon, shortly after four o'clock.

The deceased lady was fifty-four years of age and was born in Smith Township. She was married about thirty-three years ago and came to Peterborough with her husband three years later. She has always lived in the city since that time. Mrs. Moore was a member of St. Paul's church, and was a regular attendant at the services. In social and domestic life she displayed qualities of character which made her a popular and highly esteemed member of society and a model wife and mother.

She leaves behind her, besides her her husband, one daughter Mabel Lilian, and a son, Ernest V. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Henry Bradburn, of this city, and four brothers, Samuel, of London; John, of St. Thomas; William and Edward, of Molesworth.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence 207 Brock street to Little Lake Cemetery.

MR. JOS. MAHER RESIGNS OFFICE

T. A. S. Regrets His Departure for Lindsay in Near Future.

Mr. Jos. Maher tendered his resignation from the office of recording-secretary of St. Peter's T. A. S. at yesterday's meeting. Owing to the firm of Lang & Maher opening a branch store in Lindsay Mr. Maher will necessarily be unable to attend to the duties of the office, as he intends to reside in Lindsay, taking his family with him in a short time.

Many expressions of regret were passed by the members of the society at the loss of such a valued member as Mr. Maher. He has held practically all the offices and has been most faithful in his duties. He was one of the most progressive of the members and the onward policy of the T. A. S. received his untiring assistance.

GIVE THE SHOW GIRLS A CHANCE

"Nott, the Tailor," Complains of the Actions of a Certain Class in Peterborough.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir,—When are the people of this city going to get over their reuberections in connection with show girls? There is a certain class of youths and men in Peterborough which seems to have an idea that chorus girls are some kind of wild animal. Every time a musical comedy strikes town you find these people lined up on the route of march from the opera house, ready to ogle the girls and make remarks, witty or otherwise, as they pass. Perhaps they think the young ladies of the chorus appreciate such attentions, but it is a safe bet that they regard the onlookers as one of the drawbacks of the footlight life. Many of the crowd are married men who leave their wives at home because they want to be in line with the rest of the boys when the members of the "merry, merry" are on their way to their hotels from the theatre. They should remember that the chorus girls are girls who have chosen to make their living in that way—not museum specimens or a circus procession.

Yours, etc.,
"NOTT THE TAILOR."

BOMB WAS THROWN IN NEW YORK

Union Square Scene of Anarchist Outrage on Saturday.

WAS INTENDED FOR POLICE

Ten Thousand Out-of-Works Demonstrate—Cops Broke Up the Meeting —Crowd Showed Keen Resentment When Driven Back — Assassin Fatally Wounded and Two Men Killed by Explosion.

New York, March 30.—A red flag fluttered in Union Square Saturday; a bomb fell; two men lay dying in the people's playground, and New York awoke to the fact that it harbored those prepared to give their lives in armed resistance to constituted authority.

The bomb was intended for the police, who, with rough fitfulness, had broken up a meeting of 10,000 unemployed. It exploded prematurely in the hands of the assassin, horribly wounding him, killing his companion, injuring slightly four policemen, and throwing to the ground a score of those who were massed in the vicinity.

Saturday night Union Square Park, where the public demonstration had been made, was roped off from pedestrians; a hundred police patrolled the boundary streets, and at the station-houses 1,500 reserves, armed with revolvers and night sticks, awaited in readiness to throw themselves into any scene of rioting. No further disorder, however, developed.

Bomb-throwing in the foreign settlements of the east side is a rather common occurrence, but for the first time Saturday saw an engine of destruction openly and deliberately directed against a squad of police officers. It was meant for Capt. Reilly's squad of twenty men, and a longer or slower burning fuse would have perfected an instrument of death for probably every man of the squad.

A labor, or, more exactly, a laborless, meeting, without police sanction, had been advertised to be held at the park. In the thousands that gathered were many of a riotous disposition, a large number wore red hats, and here and there a red flag was displayed.

Suddenly an order to clear the park was given, and the 150 police, half of them mounted, charged the jeering, hooting crowds, driving them back to the streets of the square circling the park. In the wide streets the crowds, fast assuming the nature of a mob, fell into an indifferent formation and marched about the square.

Having cleared the park of all but a few apparently harmless men, who occupied benches, the police contented themselves with keeping the paraders moving. Encouraged, the procession grew; shouts of derision and oaths directed to the police filled the air, and then, as though by prearrangement, the stains of "The Marseillaise" rose from 10,000 throats.

Capt. Reilly's squad, which had been stationed at the east side of the square, started at a double quick pace, two abreast, across the park. As they neared the fountain that marks the centre of the recreation grounds, a slightly-built man darted out from the shadow cast by the heroic statue of George Washington and ran toward the officers, whose backs were now turned to their pursuers. A large man kept at the other's heels. Within twenty paces of the moving squad the two men halted, and the smaller raised a hand, in which was clasped a smoking bomb. As he drew back his arm to throw the weapon it exploded.

The shock, that shook the skyscrapers of the square, threw a score of people to the ground. The assassin and his companion fell, the latter dead, with his breast torn out. The bomb-thrower still lived, but his right hand had been shot off, both of his eyes were gouged out and his skull and shoulder were fractured.

Four policemen who brought up the rear were injured, but not seriously, one of them being hit in the foot by a piece of the bomb. A panic followed the explosion, and the thousands that surrounded the park crushed together, as perhaps half of the number rushed towards the scene of the killing while as many more turned in flight from the square. Many were injured as the mounted police surrounded the injured and again drove back the mob. A half-dozen arrests were made offhand of those nearest the bomb-throwing, but no particular importance is attached to the arrests.

Little is known of the bomb-thrower, beyond what he has told himself. Rendered unconscious at first he, later regained his senses at an hospital, and under prolonged questioning declared that he had been commissioned to kill the police. They had beat him, he said. At first he had insisted that he acted alone, and later, when he said that his act was inspired, he refused to reveal the identity of his companion. His first statement was:

"I am Selig Silverstein, 21 years of age, and I live at 21 Van Brunt street, Brooklyn. I was entirely alone in this thing; no other person was in league with me. I made the bomb from directions I got from the encyclopaedia. I was ten feet from the police, and I wanted to throw it at them. I was mad; a cop had hit me. The bomb went off in my hand."

Later he added: "I was told to do this. I bought the nitro-glycerine for the bomb at a drug store at Clark street and Broadway, Brooklyn. I made the bomb myself from a piece of gas pipe. I have a wife and two children in Russia. I have been in the United States two years. My nearest relative is named Cohen, and lives at 21 Park street, Brooklyn. I worked for a tailor named Goldstein, on Eldridge street, near Broome street, Manhattan."

He refused to incriminate others, and nothing further had been learned from him when he was placed under an anaesthetic preparatory to an operation.

Silverstein was still alive at Bellevue Hospital last night. Though the explosion tore off his right hand temporarily blinded him and caused frightful bodily injuries, he may survive. As yet he cannot see, but the sight of one eye may be restored.

Seven men arrested after the bomb explosion were arraigned in court yesterday. Of the number six called themselves Russians. One of them is an American. The foreigners were held in $3,000 bail each, for further examination, while the American was held without bail. They are charged with taking part in a riot.

The police examined a half-dozen persons, including S. Yanofsky, editor of The Erie Arbeiter Stimme. All declared they had advocated peace in the adjustment of industrial disputes. It was also announced that the police were looking for Alexander Berkman and Alexander Havel, who is connected with the publication Mother Earth. Several other men are also sought, and it was given out that two detectives had been sent up-state instructed to make certain arrests.

The general committee of the local Socialist party met yesterday and set forth their side of the story. They claimed that the meeting was made up of law-abiding persons, and accuse the police of inciting the people to riot. Many statements were issued by individuals, all deploring the act of violence and all taking the police to account.

Police Didn't Club.

Inspector Schmitberger, who had charge of the handling of the crowds in Union Square before and after the bomb explosion, said last night:

"I gave no clubbing orders to any of my men, and I am positive none of the mounted men drew their clubs while scattering the crowd. That is a story made out of wholesale. While I believe something ought to be done, and that quickly, to curb the anarchistic tendencies of some of these people, I do not and never did advocate the whole clubbing of innocent bystanders to effect the dispersal of crowds that collect."

Outrage Shocks Washington.

Washington, March 30.—Official Washington was shocked over the Union Square riots in New York, and the affair is expected to accelerate a movement having its origin with this Government for the holding of an international conference with the object of suppressing anarchists.

The authorities here have been very much concerned of late over outrages in different parts of the country tending to show that the followers of the red flag in the United States are growing numerically stronger and bolder. The officials here are aware that despite the drastic immigration laws aimed at the criminal classes of Europe anarchists find it an easy matter to get into the United States.

Third Assistant Lawshe announced yesterday that he was having translations made of a number of papers published in foreign languages with a view to ascertaining whether they are disseminating matter antagonistic to organized Government. If they are so offending they will promptly be denied the use of the mails.

GILLETTE MUST DIE.

Man Who Killed His Sweetheart Is Refused a Reprieve.

Albany, March 30.—Governor Hughes last night announced that he had denied the application for reprieve for Chester Gillette, and no act of the governor that can now be foreseen, will interfere with Gillette's execution at Auburn prison, for the murder of his sweetheart, Grace, or Billy Brown of South Otselic, Chenango, at Big Moose Lake, in the Adirondacks, on July 11, 1906.

The mother of the condemned youth herself appealed to the governor.

The governor dismisses the theory based on the alleged new evidence presented by John H. Dugan of Albany, who appeared for the Gillette family before the governor, as "wholly untenable" and declares that "if reason is to be our guide, and all the established facts are taken into consideration, there is no escape from the conclusion that a brutal murder was committed and that the conviction was just."

To Suffer From Headaches Makes Life Miserable. . .

It takes a person that has had and is subject to headaches to describe the suffering which attends them.

The majority of cases are caused by constipation and dyspepsia. The dull throbbings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indicates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in relieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.

Mr. Wm. B. Gilchrist, New Mills, N.B., writes: "I was troubled for years with constipation and headache, but after using four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I am completely cured."

Mr. John T. Kidner, Red Deer, Alta., writes: "I was troubled for several years with headache. I tried a number of remedies but they did me no good. I tried a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and it cured me completely."

GENERAL BLOWN TO THE CEILING

Gen. Wells Has Narrow Escape From Assassination.

DYNAMITE UNDER HIS BED

Target For Would-Be Murderers at Telluride—Ex-Adjutant Was Sleeping on Porch—Hurled Many Feet From Wrecked House—Though Badly Shaken Up Escaped Any Serious Injury.

Telluride, Colo., March 30.—Finding the night guard stationed at the Smuggler Union Mine at Pandora, two miles south of Telluride, and the searchlight which is constantly thrown about the premises during the night from the high tower of the mill, as precautionary measure, an unknown person gained access to the residence of Gen. Bulkeley Wells, general manager of the Smuggler Union Mining Co., Friday night, and planted dynamite under his bed.

The dynamite was exploded by igniting a fuse on the outside of the building about two o'clock Saturday morning, when the intended victim was asleep. He was hurled against the ceiling and alighted under a mass of debris, but escaped with a few scratches and bruises and impaired hearing.

In the same building where the attempt to kill Gen. Wells was made, Arthur L. Collins, predecessor of Gen. Wells, as general manager, was assassinated six years ago while playing a game of cards with a number of friends at night. The man who killed Collins fired a heavy load of buckshot through the window into his back. Steve Adams, Harry Orchard's alleged accomplice in the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, now in jail in Telluride, will soon be placed on trial on the charge of murdering Collins.

Wells is chiefly responsible for Adams being brought back to Colorado on this charge.

ACCUSES THE POLICE.

French-Canadian Declares He Was Kidnapped Over Border.

Minneapolis, March 30.—Charging that the Minneapolis police refused to interfere two weeks ago when he was being kidnapped by a Canadian officer, Adelard E. Lafond of Manchester, N.H., called Saturday on the police while on his way to Washington to appear personally before the State Department. Lafond declares that though an American citizen, he was thrown into jail, indicted on a fake charge, carried across the Canadian border with the assistance of American police and there held until he appealed to the United States consul and through him to the State Department. Then he was set free.

Lafond is a French-Canadian by birth. He came to the United States in 1890, was naturalized in 1905, and founded La Tribune of Woonsocket, R.I. While in Ottawa, Ill., after working at the insurance business in Canada, he was arrested, he says, on telegraphic information, purporting to come from Winnipeg, charging that he had misused funds of the Travelers' Life Insurance Co.

En route to Winnipeg, he says he was placed in jail in Minneapolis. He says he stated his case to the Minneapolis police, and protested against being shackled, but his appeal was unheeded.

Another Conspiracy In Hayti.

Port au Prince, March 30.—A fresh conspiracy against the Government has been discovered in this city.

The leader of the plot, Gen. Larraque, former secretary of cavalry, who was arrested on March 14 on suspicion of conspiring against the President, and released with four others on March 24, took refuge yesterday afternoon in the French legation with two other officers.

The police have been scouring the city all day and have set a careful watch on all the legations in order to intercept other conspirators. The palace guards have been redoubled and 2,000 rifles and a large quantity of ammunition, purchased from Germany, were landed yesterday and taken to the palace.

Recent despatches from Washington, and the sending of two additional warships to Hayti, following a conference of officials of the State and Navy Departments, indicated that disquieting news had reached the American Government from that country. The United States cruiser Des Moines and the gunboats Marietta and Paducah are now at Port au Prince.

Duke of Devonshire Buried.

London, March 30.—The body of the Duke of Devonshire, who died at Cannes, March 24, was laid at rest Saturday afternoon beside the body of his father, in the little church at Edensor, near Chatsworth.

The funeral service was attended by representatives of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and the Prince and Princess of Wales, while almost of members of the House of Commons, members of the House of Peers, several Cabinet Ministers also were present.

Eton Boys Subscribe.

Ottawa, March 30.—Earl Grey has received a cablegram from England to the effect that the boys of Eton College have subscribed £500 to the Champlain tercentenary and Quebec battlefield fund.

Lord Northcote, Governor-General of Australia, has subscribed $250 to the fund.

Buried Child In Snowdrift.

London, March 30.—Mystery surrounding the finding of the body of a child in a culvert at Pottersburg, near this city, has been cleared up. It appears to have been a still-born child and was buried by its father, an English emigrant.

Not being able to dig a hole on account of the ice in the ground, he placed the box with the body in a snowdrift, intending to bury it in the spring.

MANY MINERS WERE KILLED

Coal Gas Causes Terrible Disaster in Pit at Hanna.

RESCUERS ALSO PERISH

Nearly Seventy Lives Are Sacrificed—Victims In Remote Part of the Mine —Two Explosions In Quick Succession — Bodies Are Probably All Consumed—Exciting Scenes at Mouth of the Shaft.

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 30—Between 65 and 70, it developed yesterday, lost their lives in explosions late Saturday night in coal mine No. 1 of the Union Pacific Coal Co. at Hanna. The explosions were caused by gases and coal dust, and each was followed by fire.

The first explosion occurred at three o'clock in the afternoon, killing 18 miners, including a superintendent and three bosses.

The second explosion occurred at 10.30, snuffing out the lives of from 40 to 50 rescuers, including State Mine Inspector D. M. Elic. The names of the men killed in the explosion are shown on the company's books, but those of the rescuers are not known, as no record was kept of those who volunteered for this dangerous work.

The wildest excitement prevailed yesterday in Hanna, and at the mine, where hundreds of persons are congregated, including widows, children and other relatives of the victims. Men and women are running about wringing their hands and crying, while many little children, separated from their mothers, are sobbing with fear.

When the second explosion occurred additional appeals were telegraphed to all surrounding towns for assistance. One train is rushing west from Omaha, carrying officers of the Union Pacific Railroad and of the Union Pacific Coal Co.

Fire started in the colliery last Sunday. Since that time attempts at regular intervals were made to extinguish the blaze. Saturday it was deemed unsafe to send the miners down into the workings, and they were told not to report for duty. Superintendent Briggs, with the best and most experienced hands in the camp, went into the mine to fight the fire, but at two o'clock the flames were beyond their control.

At three o'clock the fire reached the gas and a terrific explosion followed. In a few minutes many men volunteered to enter the mine to rescue any possible survivors. The fire hindered the rescuers, but they made some progress. After a long struggle the volunteers got well into the mine.

Those on the surface had begun to expect results from the intrepid daring of the rescuers, but at 10.30 o'clock the camp was startled by a second explosion that partly shut off the shaft of the mine, and most likely killed the volunteers. The victims are all below the tenth level, and it is probable the flames have consumed the bodies.

WAS JILTED; SUICIDES.

Telegraph Operator Could Not Survive Loss of Affection.

Vancouver, March 30.—Romantic indeed is the story of the death of William Heinz, a Yukon telegraph operator, whose body was found at Burns' Lake, several weeks ago.

Months ago Heinz became infatuated in Vancouver with a girl of the under world, Flora Franklin. She is very young, and professing affection for Heinz, who was 50, he sent her to Winnipeg to be educated, but recently she went to Los Angeles, where she is now in a convent. Before leaving Vancouver, he declared he would end his life if the girl went back on him.

He took a large quantity of morphine into the northern wilds, and circumstances point to suicide. His will was made several days before his death, and a note added the day before, instructing that his money, willed her, be forwarded to her. He left her $2,000 in cash and property in the east.

Ship Blown To; 13 Drowned.

Handal, Norway, March 30.—The Norwegian bark Inglewood, recently from New York to Stockholm, and arriving here on the 20th, caught fire. She was loaded with naphtha and subsequently blew up, sinking in forty feet of water. Thirteen of her crew were drowned.

RUGBY HOCKEY ATHLETICS | SEASONABLE .... SPORTS .... | BOWLING BASKETBALL CURLING

NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE IS BEING TALKED OF LOCALLY

A new baseball league that has every likelihood of success is being quietly worked up, and it is altogether likely Peterborough will be represented by a strong team. The proposition is nothing less than an amalgamation of the Kawartha and Trent Valley Baseball Leagues, and making one strong league, in which the teams would be Lindsay, Havelock, Campbellford and Peterborough. With a view of entering such a league, a local team is being organized and will make every effort to go ahead with the proposition, which is said to be looked upon with favour in Campbellford and Havelock, both of which are excellent ball clubs, while Lindsay in the Wideawakes, has a splendid team ready.

127 HOCKEY MATCHES HAVE BEEN PLAYED AT BROCK ST. RINK

The season just passed has, all thing considered, been a most successful one and as far as hockey and skating are concerned. While the O. H. A. season has been a dismal failure there has been more hockey here this winter than ever before. Hardly a night passed during the past winter but that there were two or three games at Brock street rink. Every factory, almost every store has had a team of some kind on the ice this winter.

During the season there were no less than 127 games at Brock street rink and of these an even 100 have been of that variety of the winter pastime known as "scrub" hockey. Only two O. H. A. games were played, while there were nine city league fixtures and sixteen exhibition games.

The season has been a good one for the skaters. The rink opened on December 18th and closed on March 23rd. It was available for skaters 129 times during the year.

WHITCROFT AT TOP OF THE LADDER AS GOAL GETTER

The Edmonton Senior hockey team in the past season, says the Bulletin, have made the best showing ever seen in Edmonton. In the season, 22 games were played, 17 league games and 5 exhibition matches. Nineteen of the games were won with a grand total of 123 goals against 85. The five exhibition games do not figure in the appended comparison of goals scored. Whitcroft ranks first as a goal-getter. He played 16 games, scoring 49 goals, making an average of 3.625 goals per game. Deeton ranked next with 16 games and 25 points scored, averaging 1.562 goals per game. Then came Miller with 15 games and 21 points to his credit, averaging 1.400 goals per game. Boulton came next with 11 games and 13 points to his credit, averaging 1.181 oals to the game.

Players	G.	P.	G.	S.
C. Wilson	11		0
Campbell	8		6
Miller	15		21
Boulton	11		13
Deeton	16		25
Crowley	16		2
Holley	4		2
D. Wilson	1		0
Whitcroft	16		49
Parr	3		0
McKinney	3		2
Bamford	15		3

A few briefs regarding the players will no doubt prove interesting. Big Bill Crowley made his mark on the sheet of ice in Peterborough. Bill always had the reputation of being there, although he is not a fancy stick handler. Jack Miller is a production of the Trent Valley League, playing with Midland at one time. For three years he has been rather quiet in the stickhandling game, but once he branched out his light burned brilliantly. Fred Whitcroft is another Trent Valley League production, first playing under the yellow and blick of Peterborough. Later he was with the Kenora Thistles, Stanley Cup holders and champions of the Manitoba League for the season of '06, '07. Whitcroft has made a lasting reputation here and purposes residing here permanently and living in its light.

Bowling Tournament Will Be Held On The Majestic Alleys

Mr. J. T. Smythe, proprietor of the Majestic Bowling Alleys, Water street, is arranging a tournament on similar lines to that so successfully carried out last spring. The date has not been definitely decided upon but will be announced in a few days. It is proposed to have an event for five-man novice teams, five-man open teams, and for doubles and singles. Mr. Smythe will donate a trophy valued at $20 for the novice teams and there will be five individual prizes of the same aggregate value for the open event, while sweepstakes will be arranged in the doubles and singles. The tournament proved very popular last year and will, no doubt, be even more so on this occasion, owing to the increase in the popularity of the game.

On Monday night at the Majestic alleys a match game will be played between two teams, each composed of three brothers for an oyster supper. Ends for not getting their photos taken with the money given them for that purpose. If "Member of Some Other Club" had taken the trouble to inquire, he would have found that the club decided at the close of last season not to get the photos taken until the beginning of the next season, owing to the team not having suits, and also because the manager and captain had left the city. "Member of Some Other Club" is a little off, however, when he stated that our club received six dollars. Although there were six teams in the league, one club did not pay its entrance fees. Perhaps he was a member of this club.

Thanking you for your valuable space, I remain,

M. W. BUTCHER,
Sec. Treas., W.E.B.C.

The Tuberculosis Convention
What the Governor-General Said and Didn't Say

The White Plague and its Causes can be Cured by

At the Convention for studying and checking the awful ravages of Lung Troubles in Canada, held in the Royal Alexandra Theatre, Toronto, this week, Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, who presided, says people do not get enough fresh air. This is undoubtedly true. Much disease is caused by bad ventilation. His Excellency forgot to say, however, that tens of thousands of people whose work is largely in the open air have throat and lung troubles, brought on by Colds, Coughs, Chills, La Grippe, Pneumonia, run-down systems and exposure. His Excellency also omitted to say that the Greatest Cure the world has ever discovered for these diseases is

Pronounced Si.KEEN

PSYCHINE

which has become world-renowned for its marvellous cures of Throat, Lung and Stomach Troubles, when all other hope has fled and physicians pronounce the cases incurable. Read the evidence of one of thousands of similar witnesses:—

DR. T. A. SLOCUM, LIMITED,—
Gentlemen:—Following an attack of typhoid fever in Toronto General Hospital, three of Toronto's best known physicians pronounced my lungs incurably and hopelessly diseased with tuberculosis. They insisted on my going to the Weston Sanitarium for Advanced Cases of Consumption, and assured me that a few weeks or months at most would be my allotted span. While there I felt each day brought me one step lower into the grave. A friend visited me and told me of his wonderful recovery from lung trouble, through Psychine, and insisted on my taking it. I did, and felt so much better in a few days that I got up said "Good-Bye" to the doctor in charge, and walked out of the institution. I continued using Psychine for some months. I gained in flesh and strength, until to-day I am back at my regular duties as in connection with the C. P. R. Telegraph Service. My life I undoubtedly owe to Psychine. I voluntarily make this statement from a sense of my obligation to you and of my duty to similarly afflicted humanity. As you do not know me and probably never before heard of me, I refer you to any of the C. P. R. Telegraph Officials for the correctness of the above statement.

Yours in lasting obligation.

R. DAVENPORT.

Toronto, Sept. 12th, 1907.

PSYCHINE truly cures La Grippe, Coughs, Colds, Chills, Night Sweats, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Wasting Diseases, and all run-down conditions, which are almost invariably the forerunners of Tuberculosis, and even Incipient Consumption, often when doctors and all other remedies fail. Absolute proof of this fact gladly furnished. Ask your druggist for 50c. or $1.00 bottles, or write to

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, March 30.—After a rather soft opening the market grew strong under lead of Northern Pac., which was bid up quite sharply. As was the case before, however, the market did not follow in the lead of this stock but on the other hand seemed to be under pressures of some liquidation.

Around noontime the bears attacked the list on the theory that nothing would come of the meeting of the Erie directors this afternoon to consider the company's financial condition. The floor element was generally operating on the bear side, but when it began to cover late on the afternoon the market rallied easily.

Manipulation is still apparent to a certain extent, but those who favour higher prices do not seem willing to spend the money necessary to bring about such a development. Buy only on breaks and for the time being accept fair profits. The closing was quiet.

PROGRESS OF BOWIN TRIAL.

Women Tell of Young Man's Movements Prior to the Crime.

Detroit, March 30.—Myrtle Millen, one of the young women who figured so prominently in the movements of Percy Bowin in the days just previous to the murder of Mrs. Cornelia Welch, was the star witness for the prosecution at Saturday's session of the Bowin trial.

The Millen girl testified that she became acquainted with Bowin last fall, at No. 69 Beaubien street, where both were boarding. Some time in September the Millen girl became an inmate of Mrs. Welch's place. She had been here about a week, she said, when young Bowin came to see her. She testified that she gave him money on different occasions, Bowin telling her he wanted the money to pay room rent and get something to eat. Portions of the girl's testimony were of an unprintable nature.

Miss Florence Gibbons, now living at home in Walkerville, Ont., testified that Bowin called at a Randolph street resort one night and asked for Myrtle Millen. Bowin then said he was going to Chicago with a girl named Marie. Further testimony concerning Bowin's last visit to this place and his leave-taking of the young woman was given by Georgie Riley, keeper of the resort, who said Bowin told her he was about to leave town with Marie Hall, to whom he referred as a "lady friend with a lot of money."

To lay the foundation for the introduction in evidence of the diamond ear-rings, stolen from Mrs. Welch while she lay helpless on the floor of her bedroom, and sold by Bowin in Buffalo for $25, the prosecution put on George Reno, a driver for the American Express Co., who told of delivering a sealed package, which, the prosecution will show, contained the diamonds, to police headquarters on Jan. 30. The package had been sent from Buffalo and was consigned to Superintendent of Police Downey.

The court room was crowded with women, crowds of this sex besieging the doors long before the hour for the commencement of the trial.

BAILIFF TOOK BRIBES.

Keeper of Dive Swears He Paid Him Hush Money.

North Bay, March 30.—In the Police court Saturday, W. A. Brown, Division Court bailiff, was convicted of obtaining money from the keeper of an alleged dive on the town outskirts, ostensibly for protection from police interference. Peter Champayne swore that he gave Brown $50 and produced a receipt for the amount. Maurice Ryan was charged as an accomplice.

Brown returned the money and sentence was suspended, pending future good behavior. The charge against Ryan was dismissed.

A number of disorderly houses just outside the town were closed recently by provincial detectives, the keepers and inmates being fined and imprisoned, but they have since renewed operations under different management. Efforts by the local police have been handicapped by information of intended raids leaking out. Some time ago The Tribune published information that hush money was being paid, but no serious attempt was made to investigate the story at the time. Brown's capacity as bailiff has enable him to wear a provincial officer's badge.

Suicide in Hamilton.

Hamilton, March 30.—Mrs. Lillian A. Housden, wife of A. Housden, 328 North Hughson street, of the firm of Housden & Havers, took carbolic acid Saturday evening, after a little tiff with her husband, and died in a short time.

Dr. Hopkins was called in, but could not save her life. The woman was 27 years of age.

Double Tragedy.

St. Paul, Minn., March 30.—William W. Traynor, [illegible] years old, a vaudeville actor, and Mrs. William Pryor, an actress, 35 years of age, were found shot to death in their apartments at the Clarendon Hotel.

ITALIAN ARRESTED.

Man Captured Who Dynamited Boarding-House at Nelson, B.C.

Spokane, Wash., March 30.—Frank Ciddio, an Italian who dynamited a boarding house at Nelson, B.C., causing the death of his sweetheart and injuring ten persons, four months ago, passed through Spokane Saturday on the way to the scene of his crime, from Salt Lake, Utah, where he was arrested the middle of February.

The first information the Canadian authorities had of the whereabouts of Ciddio was furnished by Alex Macdonald, formerly of Toronto, now a detective on the Spokane force, who will receive part of the $1,000 reward offered for the capture. Acting on the clue Chief Constable Devitt traveled thousands of miles and after many exciting experiences finally captured his man five weeks ago in Salt Lake.

The Italian fought extradition vigorously, and it was only after he had exhausted every expedient that he gave up the fight.

Prima Donna in Trouble.

New York, March 30.—Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court Saturday granted an attachment on the property of Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini, the prima donna of the Manhattan Opera House, in behalf of Isidore Lerner, an impressario, who charges breach of contract. Lerner alleges that in January, 1904, in the City of Mexico, he made a contract with Mme. Tetrazzini to sing for him wherever he deemed best in a period of six months in the United States and Canada. Lerner declares that he has been injured to the extent of $30,000 by the alleged breach of contract.

Quebec Elections in May.

Montreal, March 30.—Both Government and Opposition members state that when they left Quebec on Saturday the impression prevailed there that a dissolution was near at hand, and that the general election for the Legislature may be expected about the fifteenth of May.

These reports of a dissolution have also revived a good many rumors, one being that H. Bourassa, ex-M.P. for Labelle, will oppose Premier Gouin in St. James. It is thought, however, that Mr. Bourassa will contest one of the rural constituencies near the city of Montreal.

Premier's Condition.

London, March 30.—The condition of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Premier, showed little change yesterday from that of Saturday.

According to the attending physician he had a fair night and a quiet day.

Amend Coasting Laws.

Vancouver, March 30.—The Board of Trade special meeting Saturday night endorsed the petition of the British Columbia lumbermen asking the Dominion Government to discontinue enforcement of the regulations which now compel owners of timber licenses to cut the specified amount of timber yearly.

It also passed a resolution asking the Government to amend the Canadian coasting laws, placing them on the same basis as United States.

Found Infant's Body.

London, March 30.—The body of a female infant was found last night in an outhouse at the rear of a Richmond street house.

Mrs. Patrick McCue slipped on the pavement in front of St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning and sustained a broken shoulder.

Killed by Umbrella.

Montreal, March 30.—A man named Fred Kaiser was scuffling with two brothers named Laflamme in a street car yesterday. Thomas Laflamme ran the point of an umbrella into Kaiser's eye, the latter dropping insensible and dying soon after. Laflamme was arrested.

Gas Exploded.

South Deerfield, Mass., March 30.—A gas tank on Depot street exploded Saturday night, killing two men and injuring two others, one probably fatally. They had been looking for cause of escaping gas.

The friends of Mr. Jas. Bryans, clerk of the Village of Havelock, will be glad to know that he is doing so well under the skilful care of the Nicholls Hospital attendants that he hopes soon to be removed to his own home. It is only a few weeks ago since Mr. Bryans met with his misfortune at the Norwood station.

STILL ANOTHER FIRE IN CHIMNEY

Another chimney and incidentally another lemon for the fire brigade. About 8.20 this morning an alarm was sent in for a chimney blaze at 392 Aylmer, a house on the east side of the street north of Hunter street. The brigade got out in good time but there was nothing doing.

The epidemic of chimney fires requires the immediate attention of the public chimney inspector to prevent a more serious outbreak or there may be serious trouble. It might also if every other chimney underwent an inspection at the hands of a chimney sweep. A little tonic of this kind is a sure prevention of fires.

HIS EYE INJURED WHILE CHOPPING WOOD

Thought That He Would Lose the Sight —Eye Improving.

A young man, named O'Connor, who resides on Brock street was seriously injured one morning last week at his home. He was chopping some kindling wood in the shed to light the kitchen fire. His work was almost finished, when one of the pieces he was trying to chop flew upwards and struck him very forcibly in the left eye. A severe wound was inflicted by the blow and the eye bled for some time. Dr. McCullough was called and he dressed the wound. It was feared at first that the sight of the eye would be lost, but lately all fear has been removed and in all probability it will be better in a few weeks. Mr. O'Connor has been forced to abandon his employment in the meantime.

The enormous advance in the price of Ceylon Tea has made it necessary for the "Salada" Tea Company to adopt one of two courses. Lower the quality or advance the price. It was felt that the latter course would prove the most satisfactory, consequently the Company adopted it. The price of "Brown Label" "Salada" is now 30c per pound instead of 25c per pound, as formerly.—12.

Mr. W. E. Meagher, the popular Peterborough young man who was selected from the long list of applications for the position of policeman at the last meeting of the Police Commissioners, will be sworn in as a constable on the force to-morrow morning. This brings the total strength of the force up to six men.

The new officer has been employed in the Canadian General Electric Company for a number of years and is a prominent member of St. Peter's T. A. S. Mr. Meagher is an all-round athlete, and there is no doubt that he will do his share to solve the problem of keeping the street corners clear of loafers.

Mr. Hay is said to have been wandering about Smith Township, refusing to go into the House of Refuge. However, he had changed his mind this morning and decided that he would prefer being sent there than to gaol. He was taken to Lakefield by Mr. Geo. Cochrane.

Lebarge Dismissed On Charge Of Assaulting Henry Castle

Magistrate Thinks Cuts Were Not Made by the Fist—Witnesses Did Not Tell All They Knew—Case Not Proven.

CASTLE SOUGHT TROUBLE

The judgment in the Lebarge-Castle assault case, which was heard yesterday in the police court, was given this morning in favour of the prisoner and the case was dismissed. There was a very large crowd in court to hear the decision.

His Worship, in summing up the case, said he found in the evidence that Castle had come over to the city that afternoon for the purpose of getting drunk. He got into a fighting mood and wantonly struck one man, blackening his eye. In another hotel he was struck in the mouth, which was unjustifiable. He went to another hotel against the advice of some friends to square accounts with Lebarge. There the two men met and fought and he had not the slightest doubt but that Lebarge followed Castle into the hotel. He could not see how three blows of a man's fist could produce three large cuts, requiring five stitches each. There were no witnesses, only the plaintiff, who said the cut under his lip was done by a bite. His Worship was of the opinion that something more than bare knuckles was used, but there was no evidence to show. He also suspected that the witnesses might have told a little more than they did. At the conclusion of the summary his Worship dismissed the case.

WRIST SEVERELY CUT BY FALLING ON BROKEN BOTTLE

A painful accident befell Lawrence Rose, the young son of Mr. A. Rose, Lansdowne street, yesterday afternoon while playing with some companions on Gladstone Avenue. He was climbing through a fence when he accidently fell on a broken bottle cutting his wrist severely. The wound required two stitches.

FIVE CATTLE ELECTROCUTED AND OUTER BUILDINGS BURNED

Highland Grove, March 30—(Special)—This vicinity was visited on Thursday night of last week by a disastrous electric storm. Lightning struck the barn of Mr. Southwick and proved fatal, for five of his cattle. They were all electrocuted by the electric current.

The outer buildings also caught fire and were completely destroyed. The cattle were valued at about $30 each and $600 will not cover the loss of the buildings.

It is not known whether the loss is covered by insurance or not.

MARCH A FATAL MONTH FOR MANY; INCREASE IN DEATHS

During the month of March the angel of death has passed through many homes in this city. The death roll for this month is one of the largest that has been known in Peterborough for some time. The number of deaths during the month of February was 22, while the number for this month is 37. Five deaths have occurred since Sunday night.

Pensioned Employees Began To Doubt Arrival Of Money

The pensions of the G. T. R. employees who have been retired from active work have been received by those ex-employees who live in the city. The amount is $16.67 per month, amounting to $200 per year. Some of the more aged men were worrying, thinking that the money would not come in spite of the many assurances they received from their friends.

When the pay car came a few days ago and the pension money was not handed out the situation appeared worse, but yesterday all the fears were removed when each of the men received his prize packet.

Here To Attend Meeting Of The Provisional Directors

A meeting of the provisional directors of the Rural Publishing Company was held at the office of the Canadian Dairyman and Farming World, Simcoe street, this morning. Among those present from a distance were Messrs. Jno. R Dargavel, M. P. P., V P Elgin, W W Balantyne, Stratford; H Jones, Maitland; A C Hollman, Brideau.

Mr. H. B. Cowan, secretary-treasurer of the company and editor of the Dairyman, and Mr. Geo. A. Gillespie were also in attendance. Another meeting was held this afternoon.

Old Couple Return To Former Home To Settle Down For Life

Mr. Geo. Nottingham and wife left last night for their old home in Uxbridge. Mr. Nottingham has been retired by the G.T.R. Company from active service and is now on the pension list. While in Peterborough he worked as day gateman at the Simcoe street crossing and was very faithful in the pursuance of his duties.

Mr. Nottingham's son and daughter were in the city, helping the old folks to move their effects. Mr. Nottingham has been in Peterborough during the past four years and now returns to his old home to live in contentment and peace.

Before going Mr. Nottingham wished to express through the press to Mr. Sandy and to Mr. Chas Noyes his thanks for many kindnesses. He included all his G.T.R. acquaintances who assisted in making his stay in Peterborough a real pleasure.

A MEETING OF TENNIS CLUBS DESIRED

To Make Arrangements for Space on the Nicholls' Oval.

The tennis players of this city are beginning to arrange for the coming season. At the meeting of St. John's A.Y.P.A. which was held last night, Mr. N Greenhalgh, the president, was instructed to make arrangements with the rest of the tennis clubs of the city for a space on Nicholls Oval. A letter from Mr. John Crane, secretary of the Nicholls Estate, was received, giving the society the privilege of using the oval for tennis playing. This is the third year of the St. John's Tennis Club. All members wishing to join should hand their names in to the president.

HAPPY RESULTS OBTAINED

By the use of the new Scalp Antiseptic

It wouldn't take long to number the hairs in the heads of some people, he reason being they haven't many to number. In most instances, however, the fault is their own. A germ at the root soon plays havoc with the most luxuriant growth and causes it to fade and fall out. A remedy for this has recently been discovered, called Newbro's Herpicide, that acts by destroying the germ that does the damage, besides removing all impurities from the scalp. In addition, it permits new life and vigour to enter the scalp, and happy results are sure to be obtained from its use. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes — 50 cents and $1. McDermid & Jury and the Market Drug Store, Special Agents.

MISGOVERNMENT.

The Conservative journals and politicians are wont to grow fecund and eloquent over the sins of preceding Liberal administrations. But with all their implied faults the Liberals were never guilty of sufficiently odious misgovernment and neglect of duty to provoke rebellion in Northrn Ontario, and a demand for secession from the province. Some time ago meetings large and indignant were held in New Ontario to protest against the injustice practised towards the newer parts of the province, which had reached such a stage as to lead to a demand for separation from older Ontario and the consequent erection of a new province. These meetings passed and it was to be supposed that the matter ended with their protests. But the subject will not down. On March 27th a big meeting was held at Sudbury and after the grievances and the hostile attitude of the Whitney Government to northern interests, had been vigourously dealt with, a motion for secession or separation was passed by a two to one majority. On March 27th a similar large meeting was held at Cobalt and every phase of the unsatisfactory relations between the northern country and the central authorities was vigourously discussed. One speaker showed that the Liberal Government had practically built all the existing roads, while the Whitney Government contents itself with promises. Another speaker declared that the Whitney Government regarded the north merely as a treasure vault upon which they made large drafts and failed to return a fair share in needed improvements. Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire —some very strong reason for the strong protests coming from the north accompanied with demands for separation as a relief from the misgovernment of the Conservative Government in Toronto. The Conservatives have an unhappy faculty of rubbing the inhabitants of the newer regions the wrong way. It was Conservative misgovernment from Ottawa prior to 1895 which provoked the armed rising of that year, and it is Conservative misgovernment from Toronto that is provoking the people of the north to demand separation. Their grievances must indeed be weighty to lead to so extreme a form of resort in order to secure just consideration of their rights, which should be conceded voluntarily by any government seized of a due sense of its responsibility.

CANADA'S SHARE.

Some ultra-imperialists are wont to condemn Canada for not contributing more extensively to the defence of the Empire and, like Australia, building a warship or two. But is not Canada doing a large share in maintaining the solidarity of the Empire? One of the most important features of an army's equipment is the commissariat department; and Canada is putting forth every effort to become, in fact, as she is potentially, the granary of the Empire. If we feed the Mother Country, we are making imperial bone and sinew and muscle. But we are doing more than that. We are making substantial expenditure. Sir Frederick Bordon, Minister of Militia, pointed out in the House the other day that the cost to Canada of maintaining the military garrisons at Halifax and Esquimault is between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 per year. That is not bad, and ought to convince the most rabid imperialist that Canada, even in the way of direct outlay, is not neglecting her share in promoting the interest of the great imperial family.

THE AUTOMOBILES AND LIQUOR TRADE.

At first blush there would seem to be little relation between the automobile and the liquor traffic. It is perhaps an undisputed fact that, in large part, the present activity in prohibition and its congenor, local option, is due to certain elements of the traffic itself. If, on the part of the traffic, as a whole, there had been as general an observance of the law as practised by many of the better elements, there would not, perhaps, have been so insistent a demand to punish the traffic as a whole, for the faults of a few. While the most strict observance of the requirements of the law would not have eleminated the evils, due to intemperance, it would perhaps, for a time, have saved the traffic from the intensity of odium, which law-breaking has brought upon it. Likewise, if all drivers or users of automobiles used their machines with due regard to the safety and rights of the public, there would be little cause of complaint. But when a few outrage decency, show a selfish disregard for the rights and safety of others, the whole automobile fraternity is included by the unreasoning public in the class of offenders. So that if there is an outcry against the automobile as an engine of destruction of human life, and an element for making highways unsafe for horses, it is the automobilists that are to blame. The auto. has come to stay, but the condition of its staying in peace consists in proper use of this facile means of locomotion. Automobilists by reckless driving and indifference to the trouble they cause on highways, make enemies for themselves. And not only that; but they injure themselves in another way. Autos require good roads, so does the farmer, and the attainment of good roads rests largely with the farmer. But if the auto makes an enemy of the farmer, if it proves a menace and a scourge to him, is it reasonable to expect that the farmer will improve his highways for the sake of a class of vehicles, which does, in his estimation so much to injure him? The automobile fraternity should get itself together and come to an understanding as to where its best interests lie. Highways are primarily made and maintained in the interest of the farmers and almost altogether at their expense. In one sense therefore automoblists use these highways as a matter of privilege, and not as a right. It therefore becomes them to refrain from useless irritation of their hosts, the farmers, and their interest is common with the latter in combining to make good highways—to thus make themselves a benefit and not a nuisance, and menace to the rural communities.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

During the eighteen years of Conservative rule, from 1878 to 1896, the trade of Canada increased fifty millions of dollars. During the eleven years of Liberal rule, from 1896 to 1907, the trade of Canada increased three hundred and fifty millions of dollars, or seven times more in eleven years than it had done in eighteen years.

Peterborough, says the Brantford Expositor, has got a bill through the Municipal Committee of the Legislative Assembly which gives the council power, on receiving the approval of the electors, to have a two-year term for aldermen, one-half the aldermen retiring annually. This is the first occasion on which this committee has made a departure from uniformity in the matter of the composition of aldermanic boards, although the Municipal Committee has has already done so in the case of Kingston. The object is to afford an opportunity for experimenting, seeing that there is so much agitation for a change in the term of office for municipal councillors.

"The unassailable character of the Federal redistribution of Ontario under Sir Wilfrid Laurier was," says the Montreal Herald, "its adherence to county boundaries and the simplicity of its division within the counties. The new redistribution by Mr. Whitney for Provincial purposes seems to incur the charge of gerrymandering in at least one county, that of Huron, where the constituencies are of a shape that will require a great deal of government oratory to defend. Middlesex may show the same characteristic in a lesser degree. The other changes, although they undoubtedly work to improve the chances of Conservatives, cannot be attacked on that ground alone."

The general tendency is, however, in the direction of gerrymander, inasfar as that represents an undue advantage to the Government party making what is called the redistribution.

Witnessed A Train Wreck On Their Trip To The West

Mr. Fred Holland Writes an Interesting Letter on His Impressions of the West as Seen in Passing.

HAVE WARM WEATHER WEST

One of the friends of Mr. Fred Holland who, with his relatives and with Mr. J. Cuneannon and family, left for Alberta some time ago, has received a letter from him. They reached the town of Didsbury, Alta., on March 21, occupying eleven days in the trip from Peterborough. When they arrived at the station there was a party of Peterborough people at the station to welcome them and make them feel at home.

Mr. Holland was greatly surprised with the weather in the West. After they had passed Moose Jaw the weather began to get fine, and now he says the days are like the warmest we have ever had, although not oppressive. The party was stalled for fourteen hours at Eagle a little place east of Kenora, on account of a wreck.

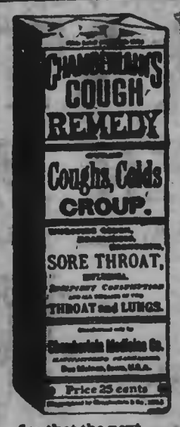
Saw the Accident

Mr. Holland was an eye-witness of this accident. They were waiting on a siding to let an express pass, and the watchman of the yard engine had gone back to get water, leaving the switch open. The express on the main line came along when due, and in the collision that occurred three coaches were hurled down an embankment of 75 feet. Most fortunately no one was killed, although two men were seriously injured. Mr Holland was less than one hundred yards away from the yard engine and was a witness of the accident.

Horses Exhausted

The trip from Kenora to Winnipeg was made with the temperature at 24 degrees below zero. The horses were considerably used up as a result of the long trip. Four men were required to take each horse from the car, and they could then scarcely remain on their feet. At Didsbury the animals were given a run and were exercised to bring them back to their good condition.

Mr. Holland states that the West comes up to all his expectations. The people are free and large-hearted and no one is a stranger, and he expected to become acclimatised in a short time.



See that the next cough remedy you buy is wrapped like this.

A GOOD NAME

EVERY one desires to establish for himself a good name, but it takes time to win the confidence of your fellow men. Truth and perseverance are the alternate rungs on the ladder of success, and he who reaches the top must make no false step.

There are hundreds of cough medicines with all sorts of names, each claiming to be the best, but the test of time will prove whether or not they have established the right to be called the best.

Careful selection of the drugs, intelligent and skillful compounding, the entire absence of opium, chloroform, or any other harmful ingredient, and the absolute purity of every article that goes into its composition, has built up and sustained its good name.

These are the things you should remember, and the next time you want a cough medicine, it is worth while to see that you get Chamberlain's and secure the virtues which a good name implies.

Every dealer who sells a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy guarantees it to give satisfaction or he will refund the money.

Price, 25c.
Large size, 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has had thirty-five years of sale and use, and has cured coughs and colds under all conditions, in all countries and climates, and the verdict today is that it has no equal.

Seeding Operations Begun In Southern Part Of Alberta

Not Many Farmers Applying to Government for Seed—Prospects Good in the West.

SEEDING IN MONTH MARCH

Edmonton, March 30.—(Special.)—Seeding operations have commenced in Southern Alberta. This fact is announced on the authority of Adam Link, homestead inspector, Lethbridge, who is in the city registered at the King Edward. Mr. Link has the evidence of his eyes for the statement he makes. On Saturday on the C.P.R. between Macleod and High River, he saw six different seed drills at work in six different fields. There were a great number of teams engaged in harrowing. The ground is in good shape. There has been no snow for several weeks. Only a faint breath of the storm which embraced on the other parts of that west a week ago, found its way into Southern Alberta.

Seeding on March 29th is not unprecedented in the southern part of Province. In other years farmers have been on the ground in January. But it is not a usual thing to seed in March. This year the atmospheric conditions have been peculiarly conducive to early seeding. There was little snow at any time during the winter, and the frost was not able to withstand the fierce daily onslaught of old Sol.

The fact is, according to Mr. Link, the south is in a fine position as regards prospects this season. In all the district between Medicine Hat and Cowley the total of applications for seed grain from the Government numbers only 119. On the A.R. and I railway branches which run south from Macleod one application has been received for seed grain. A farmer at Cardston, who desires a change of seed, occupies the unique position of being the only applicant in this stretch of country who will avail himself of the opportunity of government assistance for seed grain.

BISHOPS MENTIONED FOR HIGHER ORDERS

Both Clerics Originally for Peterborough Diocese.

Ottawa, March 30.—United Canada, the organ of the Irish Catholics in Canada, which may be regarded as being in close touch with Mgr. Sbarretti, the papal delegate to Canada, will likely say that should Archbishop O'Connor of Toronto retire shortly, as is rumoured and believed will be the case, his successor will most likely be either Bishop McEvay of London or Bishop Scollard of Sault Ste. Marie.

Both clerics are among the youngest and ablest members of hierarchy in Ontario, and both came originally from the diocese of Peterborough. In the event of Bishop Scollard succeeding, his place will possibly be taken by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, parish priest of Ennismore, also of the Peterborough diocese.

Changes are also said to be pending at St. Michael's College, Toronto.

GIRLS, HERE'S ANOTHER CHANCE FOR YOU

London Bachelor Wants a Wife Before the Month of June.

The following from the London Advertiser may be of interest to one or more of Peterborough's young ladies:

Wanted—Young woman under thirty, willing to marry energetic young man by June 1. One with knowledge of cookery preferred. Inclose photo. Box 101, Advertiser.

Now, girls, listen!

You have not been making hay this leap year, as the programme directs you should.

Now, why tarry?

Here is the second grand opportunity for wedlock.

As the poet said, "Tempus fugit," which, being interpreted, means "Get busy while the moon is high."

One under 30, with a knowledge of cookery is what is asked for. If the young lady in the sketch does not know how to cok—well, that will be managed all right.

But it really pains one to note the golden opportunities flitting swiftly by.

HAD A STAB-LIKE PAIN THROUGH THE HEART.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS CURED HER AND SAVED HER LIFE.

There is no one, we imagine, outs about deliberately to do injury to the heart, yet in the excitement and excesses of present-day living, the nervous system is done violence to, and the heart and nerves being so intimately bound up with one another, disorganization of the one means disease and disorder of the other.

When you find your heart the least bit out of rhyme, your nerves unhinged, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They'll put you in such condition you'll never know you have a heart, make your brain clear and active, your nerves strong, your blood rich and pure, and your whole being thrill with a new life.

Mrs. John G. Yonson, Little Rocher, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with a stab-like pain through my heart. I tried many remedies but they seemed to do me more harm than good. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using two boxes I was completely cured. I cannot praise them enough for the world of good they did me for I believe they saved my life."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BANDMEN LEAVING FOR THE WEST

Left This Morning for Regina Where They Will Take Up Residence.

The Salvation Army are losing two of its members in Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, who are leaving for Regina. Mr. Brown is a member of the band playing a saxaphone and will be greatly missed, although there are others who will likely take his place. Mrs. Brown has been teaching one of the classes in the Sunday School, but while their loss will be felt here the Regina corps will be gainers.

Mr. Brown is a carpenter by trade and expects to find a good opening in the west. His friends in the Army extend to him their best wishes and hope to hear of his success.

The officers and some of the members of the Army gathered at the C. P. R. station this morning to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Mr. Geo. Moore, another bandsman, also went West this morning. Mr. Moore has played a solo horn in the band and has been a member of the corps since last summer. He is a painter by trade and expects to find plenty of work at his trade this spring and summer in Regina.

WOMEN TALK LESS THAN MEN

Decision Arrived at Last Night at St. John's A. Y. P. A. Debate.

There was a splendid attendance at the meeting of St. John's A.Y.P.A. last night and an enjoyable evening was spent. After the reading of reports and general business was discussed, a most amusing and interesting debate was held: "Resolved that women talk more than men." Mr. G. Coleman who was leader of the affirmative, was ably assisted by Mr. A. Northcote. Mr. Charles Reid assisted by Mr. J. Hogan, was successful in proving that women are the least talkative. During the debate the speakers introduced many points to prove their contentions. The leaders of both sides are well experienced debaters and handled the subject very ably. Each speaker was allowed eight minutes to speak and the leaders three minutes at the conclusion. After the speakers had finished the subject was put before the society for discussion during which several of the lady members of the society took part. A vote was then taken and it was the unanimous opinion of all present that women talk less than men. The meeting was then adjourned until Monday, April 13, when the biblical committee will provide a programme. A social evening and concert will be held on April 27th.

THE SALVATION ARMY IS GROWING

The New Officers are Accomplishing Good Work.

The work of the new officers of the Salvation Army has been very successful since they were placed in charge of the Peterborough corps. They are Staff-Captain Goodwin and Captain Macey, and during the past six months forty-two new soldiers have been added to the strength of the local corps. This is a splendid showing, and the members of the Army are highly pleased with the results.

The new officers have applied themselves earnestly in the work of advancing the corps, not only in adding new members, but in all other departments, and the Army is flourishing as it has seldom done in the past.

At last Sunday's afternoon meeting the Sunday school had the largest attendance in its history. There were 192 present, and a special review of the lessons of the past three months was held and successfully carried out. The scholars answered the questions with pleasing proficiency. The review was held on the platform and the result was most encouraging to those behind the work. Mr. R. C. Braund is one of the members of the Army who has given a great deal of attention to the Sunday school classes, and he is particularly pleased with the advancement that has been made.

The teachers of the classes are zealous in performing their duties, hence the work is carried out so well and the results are most favourable.

YOUNG PEOPLE WILL UNITE

Large Attendance at the Mass Meeting At St. Andrew's—Near Review of Mission Work of the World.

UNION SOCIETY FORMED

That the young people of the city of Peterborough are deeply interested in the missionary movement, has, during the last month been amply evidenced. Three weeks ago Knox church was crowded with an enthusiastic gathering, when an able address was delivered on the young people's missionary movement. Last evening another big audience assembled in St. Andrew's church. Reports of the recent international convention at Pittsburg were presented by Rev. H J Keith and Mr. H C M Potter. An able and stirring address was delivered by Rev. Dr. McTaggart, of Toronto, and president of the Provincial Christian Endeavour Union. As a result of the meeting the Young People's Union Society has been reorganized in this city. The different societies will combine as one and will take up the missionary cause.

The meeting was presided over last evening by Rev. Dr. McTaggart. After the opening hymn, Rev. H M Manning read a portion of scripture and Rev. A H Brace led in prayer. The chairman made a few introductory remarks after which an excellently rendered vocal solo was given by Miss Ruth Dawson.

Presentation of Reports

Mr. H C M Potter, president of St. Luke's Young People's Society, was a delegate to the international convention at Pittsburg. He read a most comprehensive and lucid report of the four days convention, pointing out clearly and interestingly what took place at each meeting. His report was complete in every detail and it was the subject of much commendation by those who heard it last evening. Thirty-nine denominations were represented at the conference and it has been said that it was the greatest international convention that has ever been held. Mr. Potter outlined the addresses of the different speakers, giving what he considered was the message they wished the delegates to take home with them. Among those who delivered addresses were missioners from almost every heathen land and representatives from Great Britain. In summing up, Mr. Potter said that the convention was, in a few words, "A review of the mission work of the world."

Rev. H. J. Keith

Rev. Mr. Keith commenced his remarks by congratulating Mr. Potter on his excellent report, and did not think that there was much left for him to speak of. It was indeed an inspiring sight, he said, to look upon the vast assembly of thousands of delegates in that great hall. Mr. Keith referred to one thing that particularly impressed him at the convention. At the present time in the different organizations of Young Peoples Societies there is a growing sense of responsibility and a deeper interest is being taken in the missionary movement. Most of the delegates were also Sabbath school workers. The interest in missions is becoming general. This is proved by the existence of three organizations, namely, the Students' Volunteer Movement, the Young People's Missionary Movement and the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The latter, the speaker hoped, would soon be an active organization in this city. Critical conditions exist in heathen lands at the present time. Everyone ought to feel it a privilege to engage in mission work. "If we are to be consistent followers of Christ we must do something for Him," said Mr. Keith. Everyone should become interested along missionary lines and if all would unite, the day would not be far distant when the whole world would be evangelized.

Interspersing the reports vocal solos were given by Miss B. King and Mr. F. C. Freeland.

Rev. Dr. McTaggert

Rev. Dr. McTaggart delivered a very stirring and forcible address. The scope of the Young People's forward movement is limitless, he said, and in this generation the world must be won for Christ. The aim of the Young People's Societies should be to impart knowledge to its members. That knowledge should be the desire of every one. The speaker said that often a society took up the study of some literary topic, but the result was that only a few enjoyed it. Many of the church organizations that have only as their aim the study of some literary subject are dwindling down. The speaker was proud to see a great revival among the young people and also the forming of adult Bible study classes in the churches.

Dr. McTaggart appealed to the people to join in love and fellowship and put forth every effort to advance the missionary movement. It is the young people that is going to evangelize the world, and as in union there is strength, it will only be in this way that all shall be won for Christ.

Officers Elected

Upon motion of Rev. J. G. Potter, seconded by Rev. Robt. A. Pogue, it was decided to re-organize the Young People's Union Society, and the following officers were elected:

Hon. President—Rev. J. R. Webb.
President—Rev. H. J. Keith.
Vice-President—Mr. H C. Potter.
Secretary—Miss Thompson.
Treasurer—Miss Effie Munroe.

The Executive will consist of the presidents and secretaries of the different Young People's Societies of the city.

The meeting closed with a hymn and the benediction.

A LARGE GATHERING OF YOUNG MEN

Special Meeting at the George Street Methodist Church Well Attended.

A special meeting for men and boys was held at the George street Methodist church last night and was largely attended, about one hundred and seventy-five being present. The meetings will be held until after Thursday night, that of Wednesday being open to everyone. Rev. H. C. Coon was the speaker last night, and the George Street Quartette rendered good music. From 7.15 to 8 o'clock a hearty song service was held.

These meetings should be most successful, judging from that of last night.

M. C. A. here for that Sunday. There will be bright singing, and short interesting speeches by the young men from Toronto. It is sure to be a fine meeting.

SAUNDERS A CROWN WITNESS

Charge Against Him is Dropped—He Tells the Story of the Case in the Box Against the Doctor.

DIDN'T ARRANGE OPERATION

Toronto, March 31.—After several adjournments the investigation into the charge of murder preferred against Dr. Ashton Fletcher and Harry Saunders by an alleged illegal operation on Jessie Ellen Gould, was held this morning before Magistrate Denison.

J. W. Curry, K.C., appeared for Dr. Ashton Fletcher and T. C. Robinette, K.C., for Saunders.

The prisoners did not appear to be at all nervous, and sat beside their counsel during the investigation.

Dr. J. Hardy Todd, 165 College street, said that he had gone to 75 Shuter street, in response to a telephone call.

"What name was given you?" asked Crown Attorney Corley.

"I caught the name Saunders, I think," said Dr. Todd.

He said that he had gone to administer an anaesthetic to a girl for an operation.

"What was the matter with the girl?" asked the Crown Attorney.

"She was suffering from a miscarriage," said Dr. Todd. He added some details in the the operation, which he deemed necessary, and said that the girl, who appeared much better after it, was sent to a hospital.

"Did you see the girl afterwards?"

"Yes, on a Tuesday night. She was dead then."

Dr. Fletcher Wanted Post-mortem

"Was anything said about a post-mortem?"

"Yes. Dr. Fletcher said he wanted one; would hold the death certificate till he got one. Afterwards the undertaker had telephoned that he could not get the consent of the parents. He heard that the death certificate had been made out, attributing the death to a ruptured pustule of peritonitis.

"You have known Dr. Fletcher for years?" asked Mr. Curry.

"Yes."

"And his character is good; of the best, in fact?"

"Yes, sir."

"What did you think was the cause of death?"

"Either septicaemia or blood poisoning."

"And you have never had anything against him?"

"No."

"The operation then was one which required a reputable physician to perform and no doubt aided the girl?"

"Yes."

Dr. Silverthorne came next. The gist of his evidence was that the girl died of septicaemia, following a miscarriage, but of course he could not say what had induced that. Mr. Curry objected to all the evidence connected with the embalming.

Dr. Cotton confirmed Dr. Silverthorne's evidence. The only evidence of disease they had was an almost negative one.

Withdrew Charge Against Saunders

"With your Worship's permission, I shall withdraw the charge against Saunders," said Crown Attorney Corley. "I take all the responsibility in this step."

The move of the Crown Attorney created a good deal of interest in court.

Saunders immediately went into the box. He said he was engaged to marry Miss Gould in June. He met Dr. Fletcher, and walked from Church street to Yonge street with him and told him he thought the girl was in trouble. The doctor warned him to be sure of it.

"No particular price was mentioned. We were talking about the Turner case, and the doctor said no particular price was charged, sometimes $50, sometimes $30, and sometimes $20," said Saunders.

"I met the doctor two or three weeks later at my uncle's, and asked him to call and see the girl, who was very sick with cramps.

Visited Doctor's House

"He called to see her and told me to bring her up to his house on a Sunday afternoon. We went up together between 4 and 5 o'clock the following Sunday. The doctor motioned her to go upstairs, and I waited in the parlour. She came down in half an hour, looking very white. I said 'What's the matter?' and the doctor said she'll be all right in a day or two. That was all that was said then.

"Did you instruct the doctor to attend her further?"

"No."

"What did you do then?"

"She came down to my place, and we played cards. Then she went home.

Saunders said that about midnight the girl had been taken ill again with cramps and he had stayed with her, as she was so sick she didn't want him to leave her.

The doctor came to a house in Mutual street where she was. A day or so afterwards she went to the Shuter street house. On the morning of the 10th, a nurse, who had been employed by the doctor, told him to telephone for him. He came at once and told Saunders to get another doctor at once.

Taken to Hospital

Between 12 and 1 o'clock the girl had been taken to the Western Hospital, under the instructions of the doctor. About 7 o'clock he called at the Western and found the girl very much better; she talked and laughed, and told him to bring her books and papers the next morning. She dies very suddenly. He said he had been told that the girl died of pneumonia, and he was unable to remember the name peritonitis.

Never Arranged Operation

"You never made any arrangement with the doctor to perform a criminal operation, or arranged any price with him?" asked Mr. Curry.

"No, sir," said Saunders.

"You brought the doctor down to see the girl from your uncle's house?"

"Yes."

The witness added that he wanted the girl, who was already complaining of illness, to be carefully nursed, and offered no objection to the hiring of a nurse. It was under Dr. Fletcher's instructions that he had telephoned for Dr. Todd. Dr. Fletcher had told him to get any one of half a dozen physicians to help in the operation. Dr. Fletcher was anxious to have a post-mortem.

To both the magistrate and Mr. Corley Saunders repeated his statement that he had made no arrangement with Dr. Fletcher for any operation. Two prescriptions had been filled, but they were for harmless things, like quinine or something of a kindred nature.

The investigation adjourned at 1.55 and will be resumed to-morrow morning.

Music and Drama

Regarding the big musical comedy success, "The Vanderbilt Cup," which comes to the Grand to-morrow (Wednesday) night, the Toronto Globe of March 23 says:

Filled with vim and vigour, the musical comedy, "The Vanderbilt Cup," in two acts, by Sidney Rosenfeld, was presented last evening to a large audience at the Grand, many visitors to the motor show, which is being held this week, being present to witness the famous race scene. The play is founded upon the great Vanderbilt Cup races, run annually at Mineola, Long Island, and at which cars from all countries take part.

The fun of this musical comedy is like the automobile—fast and furious. The tooting of the horn is continuous from the rise of the curtain to its final fall. Of the musical numbers, "The Little Chauffeur" was demanded so often that it became an immediate favourite. It is a charmingly-written bit, full of melody.

Miss Genevieve Victorit, who presents the character of Dorothy Willets, a simple country maiden, was a petite dancer and introduced many specialties, making a great hit with her imitations of popular stage entertainers. Her dancing duets and song hits with Earl Dewey as Dexter Joyce, a wine merchant, and Edmund DuPont, as "Curt Willets," a "get-rich-quick" uncle of Dorothy, were immensely popular.

The Pendleton Sisters executed many difficult steps in their dancing specialty, and the male quartette, composed of Messrs. Nelson, Dewey, Anderson and Fender, were enthusiastically encored, the cast is simply crowded with clever women, whose conscientious and admirable efforts add greatly in making the production such a notable success.

DEATH OF PROMINENT TWEED MERCHANT

Mr. J. M. Robertson, Brother of Dr. Robertson of This City, Laid to Rest in Norwood.

The funeral of the late Mr. J. M. Robertson, Tweed, Ont., one of the best known hardwaremen between Toronto and Montreal took place at Norwood on Saturday from the residence of his mother, where he has been for some weeks under the special and tender care of his nearest relatives.

The press notices stated that the funeral would be strictly private, but, nevertheless in compliance with a request from the village of Tweed for opportunity to express affectionate sympathy and sincere appreciation an agreeable adjustment was at once arranged and at 8.10 a.m. on Saturday about 50 fellow citizens of the deceased took the train for Norwood, following the impulse of their hearts, and attended the funeral.

Beautiful floral tributes, mementoes of grief, were received from Tweed, Norwood, Toronto and Watertown.

The services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Mr. Binnie, of Tweed, assisted by Rev. Mr. Macolennan, of Norwood.

The deceased was a man with a wide field of experience and technical knowledge in his chosen department of commerce in which he attained very marked success. He was of peculiar reserve but of strong dividuality, free from pretension or ostentation, yet fine in intellect, warm at heart, broad and deep in his sympathies, steadfastness, courage and fortitude, and fully unconscious of the greatness of his service to the community in which he lived.

The very large circle of friends and patients of Dr. Robertson, of this city will very much regret his sad bereavement particularly when it is remembered this is the third call from his near relatives within the past six months.

The Examiner, with the remainder of his friends offers its sincere sympathy to Dr. Robertson on the death of such a close relative and of such a manly man.

The Development Of The Strathcona Hockey Club

How the Players Have Made Their Way Into Front Rank as Puck Chasers in Peterborough.

THE FLASHLIGHT TURNED ON

At the City Hockey League banquet last evening the Strathconas were presented with the Examiner trophy for the second time, they having last year defeated the Charlotte street seven for the honours in the final contest, which was one of the fastest, hardest and most closely contested games ever seen at Brock street rink, and this season they again carried away the silverware, but did not have to extend themselves so far this time, having practically clinched matters after they downed the High Lifes and Norwood. The Straths have made a splendid record in City League hockey in the past two seasons, and one which is not likely to be duplicated for some time to come. During the past two winters the Straths have not dropped a single championship contest and have scored 44 goals to their opponents' 20 in eight games.

When the Strathconas entered three years ago they were only a young team, in fact, they were by a long way the youngest seven in the league and only won one contest, but the experienced gained proved invaluable to them. The next year they still stuck, not in the least discouraged by their showing of the previous season. To begin with, they had only three of the old team left, the others having removed from the city. Manager Metheral secured "Bill" Meagher and Fred McGrath to brace up his aggregation, along with Jack Seymour and White, two promising but untried juniors, who more than made good before the season closed. They worked hard and faithful all season, and in the finals "nosed" Charlotte street out and carried off the pewterware.

Again this winter they were minus three of their last year's champions, Seymour, White and McGrath, the former two having removed from the city, while the latter had retired from the game. Dusty and Long, last year with Charlotte street, and Ray and Dobson of the Orphans were secured, which made the seven stronger than ever.

The success of the Strathconas in the past may in no small way be attributed to the interest which Messrs. Chas. Curtis, Rosco C. Kendry, Chas. Delaney, F. D. Craig, Wallie Parnell and W. J. Metheral have taken in the club.

Following is a summary of the different members of the Strathconas and the championship sevens they have played on:

Clarence R. Wilson, the regular goal-tender of the Straths, is one of the members of the original seven, having been with the team since its formation three years ago. He is one of the best guardians in the league and has figured on both championship line-ups of the Straths.

Leo. Derocher, the other goal-keeper, who played with the Strathconas, graduated from the City League during the past season. This is also his second term on a championship team, he having been indentified with the T. A. S. when they won the honours in 1905.

Wm. E. Meagher, point player of the Straths, and the most effective player in his position in the league, is the oldest member of the seven and has been connected with three championship aggregations in the past four years. He was a member of the T. A. S. when they won out in 1905; in 1906 he was identified with the High Lifes, runners-up, Charlotte street nosing them out for first place, and during the past two seasons he has been with the Straths. In addition to hockey, Meagher is also well-known in lacrosse, rugby and baseball circles.

Bert. C. Dusty, the aggressive cover point of the champions, is one of the most promising players in the City League. He figured on the Charlotte street seven when that team won out in 1906, and again last year, when they were beaten in the final game by the Straths for first honours. Dusty also stars at lacrosse and baseball.

Chas. J. Ray, the crack rover of the Straths, who surprised the fans with the phenomenal form he displayed during the past season, promises to develop into one of the best players the city ever produced. His style of play greatly resembles that of Harold Armstrong. He is the youngest member of the team and this was his second winter in the City League.

Herb. J. Long, centre forward, and one of the best goal getters in the league. This was his first season with a championship seven, but he has figured on the runners-up during the previous three seasons, with the Farmers in 1905, High Lifes in 1906 and Charlotte street in 1907.

P. A. Weatherston, left wing of the Straths, is one of the hardest workers on the seven, the feature of his work being his great checking back. This is his third season with the team, and has figured on both line-ups of the champions. Weatherston is a well-known baseball and basketball player.

Hugh J. McMillan, the right wing man of the outfit, is one of the hardest shots and best skaters in the league. McMillan is another one of the first team and has figured on both championship line-ups.

M. Lyn. Dobson, centre forward, who is perhaps the Straths' fastest man, has not been able to show his ability during the season, having been out of the game the greater part of the winter through injuries. This was his first year with the winners.

P. J. Dunnigan also figured on the Strathconas' line-up in their first match with High Lifes.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR A MIDLAND CRICKET LEAGUE

The Midland Cricket League which was mentioned as a probable organization a short time ago in the Examiner now seems to be a reality. The promoters of the scheme who belong to the Peterborough Club have written to a number of the outside towns and villages of the Midland District and have received favourable answers from Orillia, Orangeville and Warkworth. Other places are also expected to get into line after which arrangements will be made to organize a Orioski League.

The local cricketers are very enthusiastic this year over their prospects. They will hold their reorganization meeting on Wednesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Officers will be elected for the year and prospects for the summer's sport discussed. Last year the Peterborough Club had a very successful season both with their games and financially having finished with a surplus.

The officers invite all cricketers as well as prospective cricketers to be present on Wednesday night at the "Y" when a general discussion will take place.

FLANAGAN HAS AN EYE ON SIMPSON

For the Big Indoor Meet—Coley and Jack Tait to Meet.

It is up to Jack Tait now, says the Toronto News. Tom Flanagan, who is looking after the big C.A.A.U. indoor meet April 9, 10 and 11, to-day interviewed Tom Coley over the wire, and received his consent to a five-mile match race with Jack Tait, the West End crack, for opening night at the big meet. "Tait has been looking for a crack at Coley long enough, and I do not anticipate that he will dodge the issue," said Mr. Flanagan to-day. "He wanted a crack at Longboat. Here is a chance for him to tackle the man a whole lot of people think can trim the Indian to [illegible] under ten miles. Tait is a good one, but Coley is in grand shape and will make him step all the way. I have also secured George Adams, the Hamilton crack ten-miler, who recently joined the I.C.A.C., and Fred Simpson, the Peterborough Indian, at five miles for the second night. With Anky Creed, Bob Stamp and George Harber in the jumps, Con. Walsh and William Holmes in the weights, Bobby Kerr and Freddie McGrath in the sprints, and Longboat, Tait, Coley, Goldsboro, Sellers, Tait and other cracks out, there will be something doing every minute.

BURN OF CALGARY INTO BOSTON RACE

Western Man's Entry a Puzzle—He is a C. A. A. U. Man.

The Boston Globe says:

"James Clark of the Xavier Athletic Club of New York sent in his entry for the Boston Athletic Association Marathon run yesterday. Clark finished third in the 25-mile indoor championship of the New Polo A. C. of New York Tuesday night. Word was also received from Arthur J. Burn, the former New England five-mile champion, that he will be a starter in the B.A.A. event. Burn won his New England title two years ago at Wood Island Park. He is located in Calgary, Canada. Burn last Saturday made a new six-mile cross country record by traversing the distance in a little worse than 32 minutes."

This little news item, says the Toronto Star, sets at rest many rumours regarding Burn's origin. He has been running around Canada for some time, but he was so close-mouthed but few place him.

How Burn, who is a C.A.A.U. man, is eligible and Toronto's C.A.A.U. men are not, puzzles people around here. Burn may have taken out a Federation card. If he has he will be bumped by the C. A. A. U., and the C. A. A. U. is in the ascendancy in the West.

Consider well, Mr. Burn!

STRIKES AND SPARES

The feature game at the Peterborough Bowling Club to-night will be a match between the Octagon Club and Munroe's Colts. Bill Hillhouse, Frost, Gillespie and a couple of others were out for a preliminary workout last night, and if they roll in the same form to-night should give Mr. Munroe's team a hard tussle.

A number of commercial men, who have visited the alleys the last few days, pronounce them the best they have ever rolled on. "The lightning facilities, for example," said a knight of the grip yesterday, "are not equalled anywhere and the club is a credit to Peterborough.

Tommy Boyd still holds the record for the alleys with 254, though one of the members had an excellent chance to beat it yesterday, but unfortunately fell down at a critical juncture. He piled up a total of 235, however—the second highest figure reached since the alleys were opened.

SPORTING NEWS AND VIEWS.....

The Y.M.C.A. members interested in the formation of a soccer club in connection with that institution will meet on Thursday night at 7 o'clock for that purpose. There is no doubt that a club will be organized but whether it will enter a team in the Midland League or not is a question to be decided. The "Y" should turn out a football team of more than the ordinary calibre and it should also aim at the development of football players and the cultivation of that reviving sport.

• • •

A meeting of the Knocker Hockey Club is called for to-night in their rooms at 8 o'clock.

• • • •

Last night the Strathcona Basket Ball team went down to defeat by a score of 25 points to 15. The game was fast from start to finish, and although the Strathcona aggregation fought hard, they were outclassed by the effective combination of team No. 4. The teams were as follows:

Strathconas — Metheral, Dobson, Loomis, Wallace and Ross Dobbin.
No. 4—Sisson, Darling, M. Dobbin, Rankin, R. Best.
Referee—E. H. Frowde.

• • • •

The first and second teams had a splendid practise last night and are fast getting into shape. Another practise will be held on Wednesday night at 8.30 p. m.

• • • •

The second semi-final game of basket ball will be played to-night, after the regular senior gymnasium class, between Teams 5 and 6. The teams will line-up as follows:

No 5.—Turner, Dinsdale, Loomis, Austin, Ingham, Fife.
No. 6.—Martin, McCarroll, Sutherland, Wade, White, Cyril Moore.

Hockey His Ruin.

Montreal, March 31.—Edward Morgan, a well-known athlete and a one-time trainer of the Wanderer's team, had a warrant taken out against him yesterday by the Society for the Protection of Women and Children, charging him with non-support of his family.

The authorities said his home was one of the worst in the city, the only furniture consisting of a picture of himself taken with the Wanderer team. His wife said hockey had been his ruin.

Found Bodies of Twins.

St. John, N.B., March 31.—A gruesome find was made at Bridgetown, N.S., when the bodies of two infants were found on the bank of the river near Main street, sewed up in a carpet bag. The children were twins and were born Friday night. The bodies were found early in the afternoon and remained lying on the road in full view until after seven in the evening.

Maniac Cuts His Throat.

Roland, Man., March 31.—A. E. Pike, English, and living here about a year, who lately developed incipient insanity, was taken into custody on Sunday and left with a constable in a private room. While the latter was reading, the maniac seized a razor and slit his throat. He was taken to Carman Hospital, but will probably die.

When your dealer, in filling your order for any of above goods, reaches for a substitute, STOP HIM. That is the time to do it. It is too late when you get home, and the package opened, partially used and found wanting, as is generally the case with substitutes.

There are many reasons why you should ask for the above well advertised articles, but absolutely none why you should let a substituting dealer palm off something which he claims to be "just as good," or "better" or "the same thing" as the article you ask for.

The buying public recognize the superior quality of well advertised and standard articles like Gillett's goods. The substitutor realizes this fact and tries to sell inferior goods on the advertiser's reputation.

STRATHCONAS BANQUETTED BY THE CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE

Most Successful Culmination of the Hockey Season Last night---Banquet Was the Most Enjoyable in the History of the City League---Seventy-five Guests, Many of Them From Outside Points, Were Present.

The Examiner Hockey Trophy, donated to the City League by Hon. J. R. Stratton, and won for the second time by Strathconas.

The complimentary banquet tendered by the Peterborough City Hockey League to the Strathconas, winners of the Examiner trophy, at Hooper's grill room last night, was not only a fitting recognition of the Strathconas' well earned victory, but also

MR. FRED A. CLARKE,

the most successful banquet in the history of the league, if not in the records of sporting circles in this city. Certainly there has not been a more representative gathering around the festive board to do honour to a successful team than was present on the occasion of last night, when all the clubs in the league had large delegations on hand. Lakefield and Bridgenorth had their entire teams with a number of supporters present, while the majority of the Norwood players were in the gathering; their presence being largely instrumental in the success of the evening. Given a hockey company of seventy-five lovers of sport, a menu that left nothing to be desired, a short but enjoyable toast list, and plenty of songs and music, and there is no doubt of the success of a banquet; and as all those conditions were in force last night the result is not hard to judge.

MR. W. J. METHERAL,
Manager of Strathcona Hockey Club.

Many Congratulations

All the speeches were of a nature congratulatory to the Strathconas upon their winning the City League honours for a second time, and none of the addresses were more sincere or earnest than those that came from the representatives of the teams who had been defeated by the guests of the evening. In fact, a feeling of good sportsmanship and good fellowship pervaded the entire gathering. Sport in general and the City Hockey League in particular, has lost nothing in prestige by last night's function, which served to bring into closer connection those involved in athletics in the surrounding villages.

Red and White Prominent

The spacious grill room was severely taxed to accommodate those who gathered around the board. The tables were tastefully laid and artistically decorated with hockey sticks, while the red and white of the Strathconas was prominently displayed, bunches of ribbon adorning the Examiner trophy, which occupied a limelight position on the centre of the table. The guests of the evening were grouped together on the north side of the room. The team and the majority of the officers being present.

The repast arranged by Mine Host Welch, was a most sumptuous one, and the service left nothing to be desired. The menu, to which ample justice was done, was as follows:

Celery en branch Spanish Olives
Blue Points

Green Turtle

Fried fillet of Sea Salmon, Hollandaise (Pommes Duchess)

Compote of Apricots and Rice, Sauce Maraschino

Young Turkey Stuffed, Cranberry Sauce

Creamed Potatoes, Petis Pois

Nesslrode Pudding, Kirschweiss Sauce
Boston Cream Pie Assorted Cake

Tea Milk Coffee

Those who Were Present

In addition to the members of the Strathcona Club there were present Messrs. Fred A. Clarke, president of the City League; Hon. J. R. Stratton, honourary president, and donor of the City League trophy; G. G. Graham, vice-president of the City League; B. [illegible] Huston, secretary-treasurer; T. E. Mann, J. Cullen, Ernest Belleghem, H. Hinchcliffe, T. Cullen, H. Jopling, H. Ball, H. Belleghem, T. N. D. Kelly, J. A. Jobe, J. Mann, H. Stubbs, W. Mann, Bridgenorth; W. G. Crawford, J. Morin, W. Leonard, R. Murdunt, Bygout, L. Sabatino, Leo Quinn, Lakefield; B. Morrow, A. Scott, C. Henderson, J. Doherty, O. King, F. Kempt, B. Huycke, Norwood; S. W. Rose, R. H. Quinn, High Lifes; Geo. Lynch, W. McIlroy, M. W. Johnston, J. C. Lunan, James Browne, Geo. Armstrong, B. A. Rose, H. Donovan, E. T. Carr, E. N. McWilliams, W. E. Wasson, R. M. Glover, H. T. Theobald, A. Cranfield, John Brightman, Jas. Lewis, Bert Tovey, Capt. W. H. White, George Schneider.

While the supper was being served the Mandolin Club, consisting of Messrs. Bert Tovey, A. Cranfield and John Brightman, mandolines, and H. T. Theobald, piano, rendered a most enjoyable programme, which included selections from the Royal Chef, the Ginger Bread Man and the Yankee Consul, as well as some of the popular songs of the day. Their work was of a most artistic nature and well merited the hearty applause which followed each number. The club contributed in no mean measure to the success of the occasion.

Before the toast list opened Mr. W. McIlroy's fine baritone voice was displayed to the greatest advantage in a solo that was greatly appreciated and was received with much applause.

The Mandolin Club followed with another enjoyable selection that earned them well merited applause.

The Toast List

The toast list was then commenced with President Fred A. Clarke as chairman, and Vice-President C. G. Graham, as vice-chairman.

The first toast was that to the King, which was honoured in a manner befitting loyal Canadians, the National Anthem being heartily sung by the gathering.

Toast to the Winners

The toast to the City League Champions and the presentation to them of the Examiner Cup, followed. It was proposed by Hon. J. R. Stratton, the donor of the cup, in a fitting speech.

He was sure that all would join most heartily in the toast. He was glad of the opportunity of co-operating with the young men of the city and of the towns of the surrounding district, and was pleased to see the interest taken in sport in those places. He was sure that the players were satisfied that the best team had won the championship. The speaker referred to the support given by the outside towns to the City League, and complimented the Lakefield Club on its showing in the league since its commencement, saying that Norwood and Bridgenorth were coming along to take their places and be a credit to the villages from which Peterborough had a number of clubs in different lines of athletics and his was confident that no city in Canada had better sports. He believed in encouraging sports of those who engaged in games because of the health strength and vigour they gained from them. It was a young man's age, and by cultivating sport a great deal could be done for young men. Mr. Stratton, proceeding, heartily congratulated the Strathcona Hockey Club on its second time of winning the championship of the City League.

The toast was enthusiastically honoured the gathering singing "They Are Jolly Good Fellows," and following it up with three cheers and a tiger for the Strathconas.

The Champions' Manager

Mr. W. J. Matheral, manager of the Strathconas, replied on behalf of the City League champions, thanking the gathering for the hearty manner in which the toast had been honoured. He expressed the thanks of the Strathconas to Hon. Mr. Stratton, the donor, for the beautiful cup which had done so much for sport, not only in Peterborough, but in the surrounding country, and which had added zest and interest to the games played. The cup had made the league the success it had been, and if there were a few more citizens in Peterborough like Mr. Stratton it would be better for sport.

The speaker complimented the other teams in the league for their sportsmanlike manner both on and off the ice. The games had been closely contested and the winners always had to extend themselves. He was sure then that the league would be as even greater success next year than it had been in the past.

C. G. GRAHAM,

The Mandolin Club was heard to advantage in another enjoyable selection, after which Mr. Jas. Browne, who is always a favourite, rendered a most enjoyable solo, in which his tenor voice was displayed to the best advantage.

The Other City League Teams

The toast to the "Other City League Teams" was proposed by Hon. Mr

DICK BAKER,
Mr. "Dick" Baker, the popular trainer of the Strathconas.

Stratton without any remarks, and was heartily honoured.

Mr. S. W. Rose, manager and captain of the High Lifes, replied on behalf of that club and congratulated the Strathconas on the double victory in twice winning the City League championship. Next year he hoped that his team would be up at the top.

Mr. Leo Quinn, captain and rover of the Lakefield team, expressed his pleasure at being present and referred to the fair treatment his club had received from the City League during its three years connection with that body.

Mr. T. N. D. Kelly of Bridgenorth said that his team was last, but not least. He congratulated the Strathconas on their success, but differed from Mr. Stratton in that Peterborough had better sports, in consideration of its population, than any place in Canada. He thought that honour should go to Bridgnorth.

Mr. Bert Huycke, point player of the Norwood Club, on behalf of that team, congratulated the Strathconas upon their success.

Mr. Geo. Lynch, the popular referee of the league, made a decided hit in his rendition of the recitation, "An Englishman's Idea of Life," and had to respond to several encores, giving the old favourite, "Kelly's Dream," which brought down the house.

Sister Sports

The toast to "Sister Sports" had as its proposer Mr. C. G. Graham, vice-president of the City League, who made a neat speech in which he referred to the success of the City League and of the Strathconas.

Mr. W. E. Wasson, in reply, referred to the development of players by the City League, and after congratulating the Strathconas, expressed the opinion that it would not be best to have them win for the third time, but hoped they would lose out by a nose."

Mr. E. N. McWilliams also replied to the toast, paying his respects to the winners, and expressing the hope that next year the Charlotte street team would once more be in the running.

Mr. Mortimer Johnston was heard in a most enjoyable solo which was well received.

Toast to Donor of cup

Mr. C. G. Graham proposed a toast to Hon. Mr. Stratton, and in doing so referred to the great assistance the subject of the toast had been to sport in Peterborough. Mr. Stratton was always ready to help in any line of athletics, and had given cups to nearly all the local leagues. Mr. Graham referred to him as the best friend of sport in Peterborough.

Great enthusiasm marked the drinking of the toast. In reply, Hon. Mr. Stratton, in a brief speech, thanked the proposer and the gathering for the manner in which the toast was honoured. Anything he had done for sport was with the one object of cultivating the growth of athletics and in assisting in the building up of games to give people a pleasant afternoon or evening as the case might be.

The President of the League

Mr. Geo. Lynch proposed a toast to Mr. Fred A. Clarke, the able president of the City Hockey League. In doing so he thanked the playing members of the different teams for the assistance they had given him in carrying out the duties of referee. The speaker complimented the teams on their showing and improvement.

Mr. Clarke, in reply to the toast, which was heartily honoured, remarked that the success of the City League was indirectly due to Hon. Mr. Stratton in donating a trophy. The league had been most successful this year owing to the fact that the Norwood and Bridgenorth teams had been entered, and he thanked them most heartily for their assistance. Next year he hoped to see, not five teams, but ten or twelve competing for the honours, and he could see no reason why there should not be more local teams in the competition. Mr. Clarke referred to the excellent services given by Messrs. Lynch and Wasson as referees, and before concluding congratulated the Strathconas, whose victory, he said, was deserved.

The last toast of the evening was that to "The Ladies," which was proposed by Mr. Jas. Lewis and replied to by Mr. F. D. Craig.

This concluded the programme and the banquet was brought to a successful close at midnight with the singing of the National Anthem.

The success of the affair reflects the greatest credit upon the officers of the league, particularly the president and secretary. The arrangements had been carefully planned and successfully carried out, and there was not the slightest hitch throughout. Thanks is due to the Mandolin Club and Messrs. Lynch, McIlroy, Johnston, Browne and Schneider, for their contributions to the programme. The piano was supplied by the Peterborough Music Company.

The officers of the City League who are to be congratulated upon the culmination of a most successful season are as follows:

Officers—
F. A. Clarke, President.
C. G. Graham, First Vice-President.
H. P. Morgan, Second Vice-President.
B. T. Huston, Sec.-Treasurer.
Executive Committee—
W. J. Matheral, Strathconas.
F. Doherty, Norwood.
S. W. Rose, High Lifes.
L. Quinn, Lakefield.
T. N. Kelly, Bridgenorth.

MR. W. H. HILL,

Dear Sir: — I wish to thank you for the magnificent profits I received from you on the 2nd inst on Policy 19074 on my life, the dividend period having matured on the 1st inst.

To think that all I have paid the Company during the past twenty years was $442.00, and that my reserved cash profits for that period amount to $214.04, leaving the net cost of my insurance of $1,000 during those years only $227.96, and that now I have a free paid-up policy of $1,000 still drawing profits EVERY FIVE YEARS hereafter, as long as I live, is a result that surprises me most agreeably and causes me to regret that I have not taken more insurance twenty years ago.

However, as you know I am trying to redeem the past to the best of my ability and have applied for further insurance on same plan with you.

Again thanking you and desiring to know the splendid results I received, and hoping it may assist some, at least, in making a wise selection when insuring, I wish your Company the patronage it deserves, and remain

Yours truly,
GEO. A. HAMLIN,
School Teacher, Norwood, Ont.

IRELAND ASKS FOR HOME RULE

British House Carries Resolution Proposed by John Redmond.

ASQUITH WILL NOT SUPPORT

Only Solution of Ireland's Troubles, Says Nationalist Leader—Large Majority in Favor—Unionists Declare Continued Hostility—No Hope During Present Parliament, Says the Acting Premier.

London, March 31.—The House of Commons last night, after a lengthy debate on the question of home rule for Ireland adopted by a vote of 313 to 167, a resolution moved by John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, that "in the opinion of this House a solution of this question can only be attained by giving the Irish people legislative and executive control of all purely Irish affairs," after it had been amended by adding the words, "all subject to the supreme authority of the Imperial Parliament."

It was known beforehand that the debate could have but an academic interest, because the Government already had pledged that there would be no deal in the matter of home rule until it had been given a mandate at the general election. But the debate was made notable through the strong declaration of Chancellor Asquith, which was all the weightier because made at the moment Mr. Asquith is actually assuming the Premiership.

Mr. Balfour, in a brief speech had accused his opponents of speaking with two meanings, a radical meaning and a Nationalist meaning. He asked how it was conceivably possible to carry out great Irish reforms with British money, except by a British Parliament, and ironically challenged Mr. Asquith to clear up this ambiguity.

Amid ironical Unionist laughter, Mr. Asquith rose and said that never in his life had he felt less embarrassed. For over twenty years he himself and his colleagues had steadily and consistently advocated self-government for Ireland's purely local affairs. He held that opinion now as strongly as ever.

He could not, however, support Mr. Redmond's motion in its present form, because he found in it no explicit recognition of Imperial supremacy, and, further, because no Parliament would be justified in embarking in such a task unless the matter first had been submitted to the electorate. It would be a gross and inexcusable violation of their promises to do so in the lifetime of the present Parliament.

As far as the present Parliament was concerned, he said, they had expressed their powers in regard to the problem of Irish Government in the Irish councils bill last year.

VOLCANO HAS AWAKENED.

People Flee For Lives Before Mountain in Guatemala.

San Francisco, March 31.—The steamer Panama yesterday brought news of a volcano in Guatemala, so long extinct that its name has been forgotten, having recently broken out. Its long sleep terminated three weeks ago with such terrifying mutterings and spouting of lava and smoke that the people living at Santillipe, at the base of the mountain, are fleeing for their lives.

Opposite the new volcano is Santa Maria, a volcano which, during the last 200 years, has wiped out town after town. The inhabitants of the district fear a repetition of the Santa Maria catastrophe, and are therefore deserting the mountain-side. Already the country for miles is covered some inches deep with dust and ashes from the active mountain.

Tragedy In Cleveland Suburb.

Cleveland, O., March 31—The bodies of a man and a woman, the former believed to be that of Carl Bernthaler, a music teacher, and the latter that of Miss Lena Zeichmann, a public school teacher, were found in a field near Euclid Heights, a suburb, yesterday. Both had been shot through the heart.

The dead woman was about 28 years of age. The man was about 55 years old.

Liquor Locked In Trunk.

Brantford, March 31.—High County Constable Kerr made a raid on the house of W. H. Loft on the Indian reserve, searching the premises for liquor.

All went well until the officer endeavored to open a trunk, which was locked. Then the owner fought desperately, the result being his arrest. The officer claims he found a jug of whisky in the trunk.

Coroner Not Satisfied.

Montreal, March 31.—The coroner's jury yesterday morning acquitted Jos. Laflamme, bartender, who in a scuffle on a street car early Sunday morning, ran the point of his umbrella into the eye of Fred Kaiser, who died from the wound.

The coroner said the verdict was a miscarriage of justice, and he ordered Laflamme to appear before the magistrate.

Grand River Overflows.

Brantford, March 31.—The water of the tailrace of the Grand River overflowed on Sunday, with the result that part of Eagle Place, known as the flats, was flooded.

In one instance the lifeboat of the fire department had to be called out to rescue the inmates of a house.

Arranges For Cremation.

Buffalo, March 31.—Malvin A. Root, 69 years of age, arrived here on the 25th inst. from Bay City, Mich., and made arrangements with a local crematory to cremate his body when dead. Yesterday morning Root went out to the crematory and shot himself three times on the front steps of the building. His wife died recently. Her body was cremated.

Staked Life For Freedom.

Enid, Okla., March 31.—Charles Bunton was shot and killed here yesterday by Sheriff Campbell of Garfield County.

Bunton was under arrest charged with forging a check on the Garfield County Bank and while being taken to jail attempted to escape.

Becoming Citizens.

Langham, Sask., March 31.—Doukhobors are taking out naturalization papers and making homestead entries in the latest development following the schism which has definitely separated the great bulk of those people from their more bigoted and less tractible fellows.

Noted Archbishop Dead.

Mexico City, Mexico, March 31.—The Most Rev. Prospero Maria Alarcon y Canchez de la Barquera, archbishop and head of the Roman Catholic Church in Mexico, died yesterday. He was 80 years of age.

Dr. Browett's Ophthalmometers

In estimating the degree and kind of astigmatism, this eye instrument is most valuable and accurate. Dr. Browett has, during the past fifteen years, taught opticians the use of five different kinds of ophthalmometers, all of which were good instruments, but the one he now uses is conceded to be the most exact and the finest instrument made for the detection and estimation of astigmatism, and the measurements of the curvatures of the corneas of the eye. This and other instruments are used for many examinations daily at our office. We supply modern eye glasses at reasonable prices.

The Message Of A Murderer To Men

Before his death, Chester Gillette, the murderer of Grace Brown, gave the following message to young men:

"In the shadow of the Valley of Death, it is my desire to do everything that would remove any doubt as to my having found Jesus Christ, the personal Saviour and unfailing friend. My one regret at this time is that I have not given Him the preeminence in my life while I had the opportunity to work for Him.

"If I could only say some one thing that would draw young men to Him, I would deem it the greatest privilege ever granted me. But all I can say now is, I know in Whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day.

"If the young men of this country could only know the joy and pleasure of a Christian life, I know they would do all in their power to become earnest, active Christians, and would strive to live as Christ would have them live.

"There is not one thing I have left undone which will bar me from facing my God, knowing that my sins are forgiven, for I have been free and frank in my talks with my spiritual adviser, and God knows where I stand.

"My task is done, the victory won.

"(Signed.)

BAKERS BREAD AGAIN IN DEMAND

Summer Weather Too Warm for Baking On The Part of Housewife.

BACK TO THE BAKERS

The bakers of the city are again beginning to experience an increase in their business owing to the first approach of the warm weather. It is an established fact that during the winter months those mothers who are proficient in bread making discontinue buying the bakers' article and homemade reigns supreme as the staple food on the family board.

With a considerable decrease in the number of customers the bakers output is of course lessened and their expenses have to be curtailed. Less help is needed and a full staff in some cases is not kept at work. However, the time is close at hand when the ovens will be going at full blast again and the industrious housewife will decline to bake the family's bread through the sultry days of summer. The eleven cent loaf lost many customers to the baker, but the people are coming around again and the former list has been about regained.

A baker said to-day that the busy season is close at hand and the confectionary stores will also experience an increased demand for light confections.

Examiner Special.

Indian River, April 1.—The many friends of Mr. Joseph Elmhirst will be sorry to hear of his death, which occurred in the west on Saturday last. Mr. Elmhirst was only a young man, but has not been in good health for some time. He went west last autumn to try a change of climate, but it was all in vain. Mr. Elmhirst is a son of Mr. Henry Elmhirst, of Otonabee, and he was a special favourite of the boys of Indian River. His parents and family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Elmhirst's body is expected to arrive on the noon train on Thursday at Indian River.

Many young ladies who were supposed to be going into decline have been restored to health and vigour by the use of Miller's Compound Iron Pills. For sale by J. D. Tully, druggist, Peterborough.

Norwood Man Applying For Assistance In The Home; How To Obtain Farm Help

The Examiner has received several applications from men desiring to obtain labour on the farm, and if the farmers call at this office at any time the names and addresses of these will be given.

This morning an application was received from Norwood for a single woman servant. The gentleman writing states he will pay good wages and any person desiring to communicate with him may obtain the address at the Examiner office.

Farmers and labourers are reminded that it costs them nothing to leave their applications at the Examiner. Placing the labourers in communication with the men desiring assistance, and vice versa, is what is desired, and this is done without any expense on the part of those applying, so far as the Examiner is concerned.

F R J Mitchell, A Rountree, Alex. Elliott & Co., J C Sullivan, Geo Dettman, Kinmount.

There are unusual circumstances connected with the application from Geo Dettman for a shop license. Dettman lives in Kinmount on the border of this county and conducts an hotel in Victoria county, which owing to the passing of a local option measure in Victoria, is now a temperance house. Dettman owns some property just across the boundaries of Peterborough County and proposes to run a liquor shop there while he has a temperance hotel a short distance away in the next county. His application was supported by a petition signed by ninety-six residents of the district, while there was a contra petition signed by thirteen.

Mr. Martin Connors has made application to have the license formerly in the name of the late Jas. Dolan transferred to him.

EVIDENCE FOR PROSECUTION IN HOCKEY CASE HEARD YESTERDAY

Lindsay, March 31.—The charge against Kenneth Randall of the Lindsay hockey club of assaulting and doing grievous bodily injury to Albert E Switzer of the Midland Club, was aired in the police court here this afternoon, and the evidence will probably be finished some time to-morrow. Over five hours were taken up this afternoon in hearing the evidence of the prosecution and the defence was begun to-night. Altogether some forty-five witnesses were on hand, fifteen of which were for the prosecution and the remainder for the defence. Magistrate Jackson is hearing the case while ex-Mayor Finlayson and Mr. Storey, of Midland are conducting the prosecution and Mr. G H Hopkins, of Lindsay, is defending Randall.

The case has caused the greatest excitement here and the court room was crowded to the doors at one o'clock this afternoon the hour set for the opening of the trial. The witnesses from outside points held their breath while the defence asked for a further adjournment of the case, but fortunately for them the Magistrate decided to go ahead with the case. Then Mr. Hopkins asked that the witnesses be excluded and out the forty-five who had just secured seats in the crowded court room had to go.

Dr. Ardagh of Orillia, was the first witness for the prosecution, testifying as to the nature of Switzer's injuries. The other witnesses for the prosecution heard were Thos. Wiggins, of Penelon Falls, Switzer himself, Conductor Riddell of Allendale, Gren. Caldwell, of Barrie, the penalty timekeeper, O. Kelly, of Orillia, Ed. Jeffery, W Wright, Thos Fitzpatrick, W Lethbridge of Midland, S W Ramsay, W Carson and F D Craig, of Peterborough.

Their evidence summed up was to the effect that shortly before the end of the game Randall skated over to the penalty box and asked how much time was left to play. On being informed that only about 1 1-2 minutes remained he exclaimed, "watch me get somebody," and skated diagonally across the rink. According to the prosecution's witnesses, the puck went into the side of the rink, and both Randall and Switzer went after it. Randall was ahead of the Midland man, according to the statements made, and suddenly swung around with his stick, the blade striking Switzer in the eye.

The witnesses were put through a severe cross-examination by Mr. Hopkins but their evidence, it is said, remained unbroken.

The case for the prosecution was concluded at 6.15 o'clock and the defence commenced at 7.30 o'clock with Secretary Knight of the Lindsay Club as the first witness.

At noon to-day all the evidence for the defence was in and the case, so far as the witnesses were concerned was concluded. His Worship, however, decided to reserve judgment until next Tuesday.

Long Pole Saved Young Man's Life At Sturgeon

What came very nearly being a fatal accident occurred the other day to two young men who were coming up from a point on Sturgeon Lake to town. They were Messrs. Thos. Flynn of Fenelon and Geo. Casely. Both are well known around Lindsay.

As they were going along the ice in the bay, when just about opposite M. O'Leary's boathouse, the treacherous stuff gave way and precipitated Mr. Casely into the cold water. Luckily, he was carrying a long pole for some purpose or other, and this caught across the hole and enabled him to keep from going altogether under the ice.

His partner, Mr. Flynn, ran and got another pole, and by the united effort of the two men he was enabled to get to safety. While it was a very close call, the victim suffered no after effects except a good wetting.—Lindsay Post.

Mother Didn't Know Babe After Lapse Of Seven Weeks

In seven weeks time a mother had forgotten the appearance of her child. This may seem incredible but it actually happened. Scarcely two months ago the mother became ill and had to be taken to the hospital and during that time her little child remained in the Children's Shelter.

When she recovered, accompanied by the husband, she went back to the Shelter to claim her babe. Strange to say she didn't know it, so great a change had the seven weeks made. Health and happiness was pictured in his face.

At the present time there are seven children at the Shelter for adoption and any parties desiring to adopt a boy or girl may do so by applying to Mr. Henry, the custodian of the Shelter. There are five boys between the ages of 9 months and 9 years, and two girls 5 and 10 years old respectively.

MR. WHITNEY RE-CONSIDERS CHANGING OF LAKEFIELD

Incidentally Mr. Whitney announced that the House would close next Tuesday.

GEORGE BALL PRESENTED WITH PLUG HAT

By His Many Friends—Was Presented While He Was Out to Luncheon.

The new market clerk, Mr. George Ball, who assumed his new work this morning was presented with a new white plug hat to add to the dignity of his position. The presentation was made by many friends of Mr. Ball and he greatly appreciated their gift. He laid the hat on the desk while he went to dinner, and when he returned shortly after one o'clock he found his treasured gift hanging on the wall. It was greatly damaged by fire and the only means the new market head had of identification was the stamp on the inside which read "April 1st."

A FALSE ALARM.

Hon. Mr. Whitney, leader of the Conservative party in Ontario, is always loaded for bear. It is fortunate that he is not a drinking man, for if he took to strong drink as vigourously as he takes to strong language he would soon be a physical wreck. A harmless member of the harmless old Senater, it appears, has introduced a bill to incorporate a Michigan power company, which declares that the work to be authorized under the bill is "for the general advantage of Canada." The bill is that of a private member, and there is no evidence that the Government, or Liberal party, is in favour of it, but, on the contrary, there is good evidence that they are opposed to it. Hon. Mr. Whitney, with a new-born zeal, declares that this is an invasion of Provincial rights, and is after the scalp of the Liberal Government and everything not Conservative, with a long, sharp knife. "If this bill," he declared, "passes even one of the Houses at Ottawa, it will mean that the Dominion Government intends, deliberately and with malice aforethought, to cut the throat of every political and public power which the Province of Ontario possesses." Hon. Mr. Whitney, with the zeal of a new convert, uses mighty strong language over what is a trivial matter—no more serious than the introduced bill of a private member of the Senate. Mr. Whitney need not fear that the Liberal party will procure, aid or sanction any impairment of Provincial rights. The Liberal party has always stood for Provincial rights. It stood for them in Ontario, and in the Dominion, when the party of Mr. Whitney was not only attempting to rob this Provinces of its rights, but also of a large expanse of its territory. And that we were not so robbed is due to the Liberal party, and not to Mr. Whitney nor his party. Now Mr. Whitney is trying, by resolution of the Provincial Legislature, to cast an odium upon the Liberal Government and party at Ottawa in respect of a bill of a private member of the Senate, for which the Government, or Liberal party, is not responsible, and of which it will not approve. Hon. Mr. Whitney's hysterical heroics and strong language are quite gratuitous and uncalled for. It is a cry of "wolf" over a very tame rabbit—a false alarm.

BENEFITTING OLDER PROVINCES.

Apart from the benefits in the way of development and settling of the West which the Grand Trunk Pacific main line will confer; apart from its development of the resources of the now remote and inaccessible portions of New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario through which it passes, the main line will produce, the trade it will develop with these provinces through branch lines, is a matter of great moment. A branch line to tap the main line is now under construction north from Port Arthur; the Temiscamingue and Northern soon, it is hoped, to reach the main line will be another connection with Ontario, and the proposed line from the Transcontinental to connect with Montreal an ocean port, will represent another business creator. Thus the transcontinental railway will not only develop the new country through which it passes but by connecting lines will develop the commerce of Ontario and Quebec with the greater West which its construction will promote. The new short line of the C.P.R. from Sudbury will form another link of connection between Ontario and the West which will not only facilitate the movement of western crops but favour the ingress of the industrial and commercial products of this province to the West. The greatness and growth of the West and the improvement of the trade of the older provinces will be tremendously stimulated by the building of another transcontinental railway, which is as much needed in the interests of the regions it will open, as was the Canadian Pacific railway for the district which it serves. The building of the Transcontinental and connecting lines is of national importance, and of immense direct benefit especially to the older provinces.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is reported that the liquor interests of Lindsay will have a newspaper of their own. It is safe to say that it wont contain much "dry" reading.

Hon. Mr. Whitney, but a short time ago, announced that he would grant no more land to railways, but he now promises Algoma Central promoters that he will meet their demands. And the organs that praised him so loudly for his determination to grant no more lands as railway subsidies will cheer as heartily his abandonment of that policy, which from a party point of view, is made a venial offence, by the near approach of the general elections.

It is the insincerity and inconsistency of church people that discredit religion; it is the same conditions that discredit temperance. When a temperance lecturer goes forth to lecture on temperance, provided with a "pocket pistol," like an ordinary fishirman or hunter, it is time to call a halt. A member of Congress, booked for a temperance lecture a day or two ago, shot a negro on a street car, who was using his pocket pistol for the purpose of taking a drink. The negro is dead. The Congressman was from Alabama. Our southern neighbours seem to practise even more drastic temperance measures than we can boast of, even in this advanced community.

In its successive appointments to the chairmanship of the Railway Commission, the Government has shown, the Montreal Herald says, that its one solicitude was to secure the highest available type of man for the position. In appointing Messrs. Blair, Killam and Mabee, it ignored any consideration but that of efficiency. This was, of course, nothing but what it should have done, but the fact is worth bearing in mind in the days of Mr. Ames' lantern slides. Another striking bit of evidence along the same line of the administration's desire to serve the country's interests first, and its party's after, is furnished in the composition of the Civil Service Commission. A Government afraid would not have named Messrs. Fyshe, Courtney and Bazin.

NO GLOOM THERE.

Hamilton Times.

The latest trade returns published by the British Government gave no encouragement to Chamberlainites, who have their expectations of gaining strength on the hope that the trade of the United Kingdom will fall off in this time of universal money stringency so as to give them a chance to raise a cry against her free trade policy. They have done their best—or worst—to depict the country as a perishing one so far as trade and manufacture are concerned, and they had begun to hope that the 1907 return would give them the excuse they sought, but they have been disappointed. Instead of a record of decline, it is one of cheerful progress notwithstanding the world-wide depression, which is so strongly reflected in the trade returns of other nations.

Some of the items of Britain's exports of manufactures are worth noting. We have been again and again told that in the production of engines she was outclassed, free-trade-handicapped, and all but down and out. But from the returns it appears that while in 1906 her exports of steam engines were $14,089,942, in 1907 the value was $16,718,607. Of other descriptions of engines she exported to the value of $38,520,755 last year, as compared with $33,394,321 in 1906, an increase of over $5,000,000. Even in agricultural machinery her export was $5,511,416, less than $206,000 below her record of 1906. In exports of electrical machinery she gained over $20,000,000 in 1907, sending abroad $154,577,190—a very good showing indeed. In textile machinery she more than held her own, selling over $92,508,000 as against $75,853,000 in 1906. Of sewing machines she exported $8,905,000, about a million and a quarter of an increase, while of mining machinery she increased her sales by nearly $700,000.

We had heard so much about "the wiping out of the British shoe trade," that it is pleasant to read that in 1907 her export in this line reached $9,926,243, the highest on record, and more than $400,000 in advance of the 1906 figures. Her exports of cotton piece goods furnish no excuse for the Chamberlainite croakings of decadence. In 1906 the number of yards manufactured and exported was 6,260,771,400 value $366,780,142. which last year increased to 6,298,040,580 yards, value $394,421,732. Of this amount Canada took $7,819,542.

The net increase in the United Kingdom's exports of manufactures was 13 per cent., both increase in quantity and in prices contributing to the showing, which is a most encouraging one—but not for Chamberlainites.

DR. FLETCHER FREED ON BAIL

Security of $2,000 Asked—Magistrate Says Case is Weak and Sends It On To Jury.

THE EVIDENCE YESTERDAY

Toronto, April 1.—The investigation into the charge of murder brought by the Crown against Dr. Ashton Fletcher, charged with having performed an illegal operation on Jessie Ellen Gould, who died at the Western Hospital, was resumed yesterday morning in the police court before Magistrate Denison.

The first witness called was A. W. Miles, who acted as undertaker. He told of the embalming of the body under the father's instructions.

"I didn't embalm it till I got the death certificate from Dr. Fletcher. Dr. Fletcher telephoned and said he wanted her father's consent to an examination of the body and if he could get it he would get Dr. Todd to make the examination with him.

Mr. Miles, Mr. Curry and and Mr. Corley had a sharp dispute over the instructions issued to undertakers by the railway companies concerning the carrying of bodies. Mr. Corley contending that the word embalming was not used.

Objected to Butting in Chief Inspector Archibald began to take a hand in the discussion, but was promptly bowled out by Mr. Corley.

"Please don't mix yourself up in this case," said he. "We can carry on our work without the aid or interference of a policeman."

"You are not the complainant, are you?" asked the Magistrate, and the Chief Inspector admitted he had really nothing to do with it.

Undertakers Differ

A. Millard, a city undertaker, was called next. His testimony was wholly concerned with methods of embalming, and contradicted that of Mr. Miles'.

"What would you say as to the necessity for the trocher in shipping a body when the death had been that indicated by the certificate in Jessie Gould's case?"

"I wouldn't think it necessary," said Mr. Millard.

A girl friend of Jessie Gould's said she had been present during the operation on the girl at the house at 75 Shuter street. Although in the room, she had turned her eyes away and had not looked.

Mrs. Ward, a nurse, told a detailed story of the operation. She spoke of the girl's illness before the operation, and of the necessity for the operation.

The Detective's Story

Inspector Duncan and Detective Twigg told of the interview between themselves and Dr. Fletcher just after his arrest. Their evidence was practically a recapitulation of the story as told by Fletcher himself and Saunders yesterday. Both said that Fletcher had denied all money relations between them.

"You have found that those things which he said were true you have been able to substantiate and that what he denied you have been unable to substantiate."

"Yes," said Inspector Duncan.

Goes to a Jury

"I shall let the case go on for trial," decided the magistrate, "but I must say I don't think it's very strong against the accused."

Mr. Curry made a strong plea for the release of his client.

"In all the years during which I have had the honour of presenting cases before your Worship, we have have had occasion to send on to higher courts a number of cases, some of them very, very strong, and in only one of them has there been a conviction. I do not think that your Worship should attach the stigma of going on for trial to a man who, in your Worship's mind, may be innocent."

"I do not like the responsibility," said his Worship, "though if I were trying the case I know what I'd do."

"Then your Worship can cite to the Grand Jury the fact that you do not consider the evidence enough to convict. This would not prevent the Crown laying another information, if necessary."

"I cannot do that," said his Worship.

Light Bail

"Then I hope your Worship will not object to bail?"

"I have no objection to saying that I think bail should be granted."

Crown Attorney Corley offered no objections.

Bail in $2,000 was granted Dr. Fletcher, Mr. L. J. Cosgrave being the bondsman.

BURKE WELCOMED BACK BY HIS PALS

Laughed at His Beard Which Has Now Disappeared.

When "Buckhorn" Burke was taken to the penitentiary at Kingston by the local authorities he was welcomed back by the prisoners, who were there before he obtained his freedom the last time. He was given the laugh when he resumed his former garb, and many inquiries were asked him as to where he had grown his turkey red beard. His pals were seemingly wise to the fact that Burke had been locked up in some jail.

The beard, however, has most likely been shaved off by this time, according to the prison custom.

Friends Were Alarmed—Advised Change of Climate.

Miss Mildred Keller, 716 12th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I can safely recommend Peruna for catarrh. I had it for years and it would respond to no kind of treatment, or if it did it was only temporary, and on the slightest provocation the trouble would come back.

"I was in such a state that my friends were alarmed about me, and I was advised to leave this climate. Then I tried Peruna, and to my great joy found it helped me from the first dose I took, and a few bottles cured me.

"It built up my constitution, I regained my appetite, and I feel that I am perfectly well and strong."—Mildred Keller.

Eleven of the Old Board and Four Members of Association on the New Board—Officers Nominated by Committee Accepted—Mr. J. W. Bennett Made Honorary President.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

A meeting of the members of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night in the parlour and the new directors and officers for the ensuing year were elected. There was a rather small but enthusiastic gathering present. Mr. R. J. Kidd occupied the chair, and Mr. A. W. Cressman opened the meeting with prayer.

Mr. Kidd explained that as Mr. Shook was out of the city he had to be chairman. The reason they had gathered, he said, was to elect a new board. The old board resigned without any feeling whatever. There was a feeling amongst the members of the society to instal new features into the building. The old board felt their incapability to continue work and therefore resigned. Two weeks ago a nominating committee met and nominated a new board. They endeavoured to spread the nominations equally among the different churches of the city, and they believed they have selected a good board. The names selected are as follows: Messrs. J. C. Shook, V. Eastwood, J. H. Connel, J. J. Howden, E. A. Peck, C. E. Sisson, G. M. Roger, J. J. Turner, Jr., V. B. Cunningham, W. E. Conway, Dr. Middleton, A. W. Cressman, A. McFarlane, E. M. Best, B. F. Ackerman, B. A. Lillie, J. F. Thornton, H. C. Stabler. After reading the names Mr. Kidd stated that all of the above gentlemen had consented to stand and left the matter before the members for discussion.

Mr. J. S. Knapman asked to have Mr. Bennett's name put on the list. He was one of the most active members, and he did not wish to see the gentleman's name left out.

Mr. Kidd explained that the committee wanted him, but he declined. Mr. Kidd also announced that there were four of the younger members of the association on the new board.

Mr. G. K. Martin thought it was a serious thing for the Y. M. C. A. to see the old board deserting the ship.

Mr. Kidd read the names of the officers selected by the committe for for the ensuing year: Mr. J. C. Shook, president; Mr. V. Eastwood, vice-president; Mr. J. H. Connel, 2nd vice-president; Mr. J. J. Howden, treasurer.

It was moved by Mr. G. K. Martin and seconded by Mr. W. Shiner, that the new board nominated be accepted.

Mr. McFarlane asked to have the name of Mr. Galley placed on the list of directors.

Mr. J. S. Knapman said that there were four members on the board already from the George Street Methodist Church.

Mr. McFarlane thought it very peculiar that the old board had resigned to give the new blood a chance, and that the young members of the last board were not mentioned.

Mr. Martin asked to have the board enlarged so as to have nineteen members.

Mr. E. Best asked to have his name struck off the list and Mr. Galley's put on, but his request would not be listened to.

Mr. Connal asked to have a vote taken.

Mr. Wm. Richardson seconded Mr. McFarlane's motion to place Mr. Galley's name on the list.

Mr. Kidd was nominated for the board again. He said that he would not have time enough to devote to the board, but he finally consented.

Mr. Wm. Madill was nominated and a vote was taken.

The new board were elected as follows: Messrs. J. C. Shook, V. Eastwood, J. H. Connal, J. J. Howden, E. A. Peck, C. E. Sisson, G. M. Roger, J. J. Turner, Jr., V. B. Cunningham, W. E. Conway, Dr. Middleton, A. W. Cressman, A. McFarlane, E. M. Best, B. F. Ackerman, B. A. Lillie, J. F. Thornton, R. J. Kidd.

The officers for the ensuing year were also accepted.

Mr. Connal reforred to Mr. Bennet again as a man who had saved the Y. M. C. A. when it nearly went under some time ago, and asked that in recognition of his services he be made an honourary life member of the board.

Mr. Wright said that nothing like this had been done, but he saw no reason why it should not be.

Mr. Knapman thought it was a good suggestion.

Mr. J. J. Howden moved that Mr. Bennet be made honourary president of the society, and was seconded by Mr. Martin and carried unanimously.

The meeting then closed with a prayer by the secretary.

LONDON JOURNALIST BACK FROM TRIP

Mr. A. J. Dawson's Travels Through Canada a Gratifying Success.

Montreal, April 1.—(Special)—Mr. A. J. Dawson, the representative of the London Standard, who has just made a tour through Canada in the interest of the "Standard of Empire," the new publication which is to come into existence on Empire Day in the form of a Friday colonial supplement to the well known metropolitan daily, returned to Montreal to-day after making the trip to the Pacific coast. He stated in the course of an interview that he visited all the important centres of population between here and the Pacific coast and as a missionary of imperial journalism he was everywhere well received. From the interest with which the projected new venture was taken up by business men and organizations of various kinds he judged that the latest journalistic voice for Canada which will be raised in London will not be without appreciation and support on this side. He considers his mission an entire success. He will return to London by the Empress of Ireland.

FOREIGN REPORT FROM BROOMHALL

Varying Reports of the Condition of the Crops Across the Sea.

Liverpool, March 31.—Broomhall's weekly crop summary says:

United Kingdom—The outlook for the crop is rather unfavourable.

France—The crop outlook is favourable.

Germany—On the whole the outlook is favourable and the supplies are limited.

Roumania—The crop outlook is very favourable.

Russia—Reports regarding the crops vary greatly, but it is generally conceded that winter wheat crop is an uncertain one; prospects are that supplies of wheat will continue very light.

Italy—Beneficial rains have fallen, which have been general throughout the country, and the outlook for crops is favourable.

India—There has been no rains during the past week and moisture is greatly needed; in the earlier districts harvesting has already begun.

BANQUET CONCLUDES THE SEASON

Y. M. C. A. Debating Club Have a Comprehensive Toast List

The present session of the Y. M. C. A. Debating Club will be formally concluded to-night by a banquet, to which all the members and ex-members of the club are invited. The past season has been a most interesting one, and the closing event will be entertaining in more ways than one. In connection with the banquet a toast list has been arranged. The toasts have been chosen to afford interesting speeches, as may be seen from the following list:

"The King."
"Canada."
"The Motherland."
"Literature."
"The Y. M. C. A."
"The Press."
"Our Critic."

This event should make a splendid closing for one of the most successful seasons that has been enjoyed by any literary society of the Y. M. C. A.

120 Pieces Art Ware at Half Pri

China Hall---A Beautiful Collection

China Hall has just received a large shipment of high class Art Ware bought for the Christmas trade, arriving too late, we obtained heavy reductions, enabling us to place it on sale at exactly half price. The original figures was low. Half price means a temptation which no one can resist. The collection is now on exhibition in our show window and consists of Urns, Vases, Ornaments, Jardineres, etc. It is worth seeing. It is worth buying. The cut price should sell the lot in three days.

CHINA HALL'S 3 DAYS' SALE OF ART WARE

Speaking to the Examiner to-day one of the members of the law profession stated that he was of the opinion that real estate would reassert itself and there would be a good business done. He was speaking from the experience he has had so far this season, the legal business of a sale having to be attended to. He had handled quite a few real estate transactions recently and felt that the future would materialize the brighter prospects.

ALADDIN'S LAMP AND THE EXAMINER

The Latter Accomplishes Things As Well As The Genii.

An Examiner Want Ad. is a modern Aladdin's lamp. The young man rubbed his lamp and his wishes were granted but the magic bowl had little on the Daily Examiner. Insert an ad. and you are practically sure of getting your money's worth.

Yesterday a lady was in trouble, she wanted a servant. Instead of going about her duties bewailing her fate that she should have to do all the house work she simply rubbed the magic lamp and to-day her wish was granted. Literally speaking she advertised in the Examiner and one insertion brought about the required result.

OLD PEOPLE OF PETERBORO NEED VINOL

It Strengthens and Vitalizes.

With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly and less effectually; the blood is thin, sluggish, and watery; digestion is weak, and food is not assimilated as it used to be.

Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but a delicious cod liver preparation which contains all the medicinal, body-building elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated, and tonic iron added.

It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit. McDermid & Jury, Druggists; also the Market Drug Store, Peterborough.

THE WAVES WERE SEVEN STORIES HIGH

Mauretania Buffeted by Tremendous Seas—Worst on Record

New York, April 1.—(Special.)—The unusual roughness of the sea during three days of the voyage made the many passengers of the Mauretania exceptionally eager to land when the steamer arrived here to-day.

Two days after leaving Liverpool the Mauretania encountered heavy weather and Monday night the waves began to sweep the upper deck, which is popularly estimated about seven stories above the water. During the night a huge wave struck the navigation bridge, breaking six of the heavy glass windows in the chart house. The officer on duty was cut about the face by the flying splinters, but remained at his post after receiving attendance from the ship's surgeon.

All of Tuesday the sea continued to be particularly rough and did not calm down till the following day. As a result of the gale the Mauretania's speed was reduced to 444 miles during the worst day of the passage.

THRILLING DAY FOR HEAD KEEPER

Attacked by Bear and Big Boa Constrictor at Bronx Park Zoo.

IN THE SNAKE'S GRIP

New York, April 1.—(Special.)—Two narrow escapes were one day's record for Head Keeper Snyder, of the Bronx Park Zoo. When trying to get "Ajax," a big bear, out of his pen, the animal burst the net the keeper and one assistant had thrown over his head and with a sweep of his paw ,hurled both men into a tank. They were rescued promptly.

Later, in the view of 200 women and children, while feeding the big boa constrictor at the zoo, the snake writhed so furiously that several men lost their hold on the slippery body and the creature whipped its tail around Snyder. The snake gradually tightened its grip on the man, despite the efforts of fifteen men to loosen it. Finally the use of clubs and spiked instruments induced the snake to loosen his coil. Snyder white in the face—one of the first times in his life he has been so—feebly walked away. He was uninjured.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO THE MARKET

Lavatories Repaired and Paint is Being Freely Used.

Improvements are being made at the market for the accommodation of farmers which will be appreciated. The lavatories to the right of the entrance to the hall going in are being repainted, cleaned and properly equipped. The farmers have for a long time asked that this be done, but it is only this week that the work was commenced.

If the city is to have the farmers taking an interest in the market the accommodations must first be inviting.

EXACT TIME OF SUN'S CROSSING EQUATOR

Explanation of Press Error as it Must Have Occurred.

Editor Examiner.

Dear Sir,—Regarding the statement of the time at which the sun crossed the equator, as given by Rev. Dr. Marsh, in your issue of March 19, would you please inform me if that is right, as I see it is questioned in a contemporary sheet?

Yours, etc., R. A. S.

In explanation of the above, Dr. Marsh in a telephone conversation said the sun would cross the equator at 7 hours 27 minutes 18 seconds after noon of March 20, which, according to the 24-hour system, would be at 19 o'clock 27 minutes and 18 seconds, and would be in the evening. Doubtless a typographical error was made, as the article read that the crossing would be at 9 hours 27 minutes 18 seconds.

Canada's National Nectar
The Sweet Golden Brown Extract Of The Maple Tree

The last sign of the passing of winter was the appearance of farmers on the market this morning with maple syrup. Cynics may have their say about boiled maple twigs and brown sugar, but this was the genuine article fresh from a maple grove in Dummer. The ancients spoke of the delicious sweetness of the nectar of old and the new honey from the Hybla bees, but none of them, warrior or diety, knew of the appetizing extract which is simply obtained from our Canadian maple.

Mr. James Taylor, of Dummer, was the first man on the market with syrup this year. He drove seventeen miles to the city with a large can of the "good stuff," which may be had for the sum of $1.40 per gallon. This is what he was asking, but he soon had a rival in another farmer and it is believed that the competition reduced the selling price.

Says sap is Scanty

According to Mr. Taylor the syrup harvest does not give promise of being heavy. The frost is not deep in the ground and the sun will spoil the sap. Those who have already tapped their trees have experienced a steady flow, but this may not continue. However, some of the wise ones consider that there yet will be a good supply of syrup. It is hoped that this will be the case for more than one family in town expects to secure a liberal supply of the dark golden variety.

Mr. Taylor has secured a new outfit for his grove. The utensils are new, as well as his evaporator, and the syrup he was selling was drawn off yesterday evening, thus assuring its quality.

Saturday should see the farmers in with the goods although the bad roads present a difficult obstacle. Mr. Taylor could not distribute the syrup as he had a sleigh and it was impossible to deliver it in the city.

Mount Pleasant Folk Want Ferry On The Cavan Drain

Mount Pleasant, April 1.—(Special.)—The construction work on the Cavan swamp drain has been resumed, and it is believed that a finish will be made this year, so that connection can be made at Peterborough with the Trent Valley Canal. It will be a great accommodation to the citizens of Mount Pleasant, providing a ferry boat could be run on the drain during the season of navigation between Peterborough and Mount Pleasant, as the Radial Railway Company has not extended its line to this point yet.

A ferry is being talked of in this district, and it is probable that one of the citizens will see his way clear to institute it.

Old Rubber And Muskoka Free Hospital Fund

The public will be interested in the announcement that the local committee, of which Mrs. Jas. Kendry is secretary-treasurer, for the collection of funds for the Muskoka Free Hospital fund, is again ready for the reception of old rubbers. These may now be sent in by those interested in the noble object involved. By the kindness of Mr. Montizambert, of the Bank of Montreal, and Mr. Hamilton, the premises formerly used by Messrs. Richard Hall and Son, Simcoe street, are available for a depot for the old rubbers sent in.

Mr. Percy Hamilton, next door—in Hamilton's grocery shop—will receive the contributions.

It is hoped that those having old rubber of any kind will devote it to the purposes of the fund.

It may seem at first thought that a few old rubbers would matter little, but when it is remembered that the considerable sum of $168 was realized last year for the same purpose, it will be seen what good can come of articles lying about private premises, waste and useless, if they are only sent in and converted to profitable purposes.

It is to be hoped that a prompt and liberal response will be made to the appeal of the committee for help, at little cost, except effort, for so worthy a purpose.

ENLARGED PHOTOGRAPH PRESENTED

Of the Late Miss Annie Erret to the St. John's W. A.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's Church, which was held in the Guild Room yesterday afternoon, an enlarged photograph of Miss Annie Erret, who passed away in Toronto some time ago, was presented to the society to be hung in the Guild Room. Rev. Canon Davidson, in a brief address, referred to the sterling qualities of this noble worker, while a member of the auxiliary. The Canon also read a kind letter from Miss Erret's family in Toronto, thanking the society for their handsom floral cross which was sent them at the time of Miss Erret's death.

The deceased lady was an active worker in the auxiliary and held the positions of president and secretary.

MISS LOGAN ENTERTAINS A NUMBER OF HER FRIENDS

A very pleasant time was spent last night at the home of Miss F. Logan, 175 Sherbrooke street, when she entertained about thirty of her friends. The evening was spent in games and amusements, the chief feature being the April-fool competition after 12 o'clock. A supper was served, and the party dispersed about 2 o'clock.

RALLIED ROUND THE BAGPIPES

More Than Fifty Scotchmen Unite—To Hold a Banquet on April 14th in Peterborough.

PROSPECTS EXCELLENT

More than half a hundred loyal Sons of Scotland rallied to the skirl of the pipes at the Orange Hall, Simcoe street, last night, where a most enjoyable time was spent. The organizer, Mr. Robert Grieve, has been working hard, and has got in touch with a large number of Scotchmen, some from Dalbeattie, his native home in Scotland; from Dundee, Inverness, and practically from John O'Groats.

The evening was most pleasantly spent in Scotch songs and recitations, speeches from members of camps in London, Cobourg, Kingston and other places, and music of the bag-pipes. Mr. T. H. McKay's work in the latter respect was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Grieve states that the prospects for a large Sons of Scotland lodge in Peterborough are excellent. On April 14 a banquet will be held, and at the same time a number of initiations will take place.

MR. V. BEST PASSES AWAY

Was Suffering From a Paralytic Stroke—Confined to His Room Over a Year.

About 3.30 o'clock this morning at his residence, 209 Brock street, Mr. Valentone Best, one of the most widely known and highly esteemed citizens of this city, passed away. The intelligence of his sad demise will be learned with deep regret by all who knew him. About thirty years ago he lost one of his hands, and it is thought that the shock then produced caused the severe palsied condition in which he had been for several years. The deceased had been confined to his room for about a year, and two weeks ago he received a slight stroke of paralysis, which developed into other complications, causing his death.

Mr. Best was 67 years of age and was born in the township of Emily, where he resided until twenty-six years ago. He removed to Peterborough, and had lived here ever since. In early life he was a successful and prosperous farmer and was highly respected among the residents of Emily. He was a Liberal in politics and a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church, and attended St. Paul's Church in this city. He leaves behind him his wife and daughter, Effie, two brothers, Lowry of North Dakota and Isaiah of Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. Fair of Omemee.

The funeral will take place on Friday at 2 o'clock from the residence, 209 Brock street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

OTONABEE FOLK ENJOY A DANCE

Held at Home of Mr. Herbert Hunter—A Pleasant Evening.

On Friday night, March 27, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hunter, a very enjoyable party was held. About seventy-five couple tripped the light fantastic toe, until an early hour in the morning. Between the hours of eleven and one a sumptuous supper was served. Although the Salem guests were unable to be present, nevertheless the affair proved a success. Mr. Wm. Gordon Johnston provided the music on the violin, while Miss Anna Johnston and Miss Lydia Taylor presided as piano accompanists. Mr. John Fitchner made a splendid floor manager.

COMPANIES HAVE GOOD TURN OUT

Many Men Joining Regiment This Year—Looking Forward to Quebec Trip

At the armouries last night Companies No. 4 and 7 held their first muster this season. There was a splendid turnout on the part of the members of each company and the boys are looking forward anxiously to the trip to Quebec. The uniforms were given out and those who left the company turned their uniforms in. There were seven new recruits for No. 7 Company and about the same number for No. 4. The men who are joining are the proper size and will greatly improve the appearance of their companies. Captains Hounsell, of No. 4, and McWilliams, of No. 7 were well satisfied with the turnout and believe they will have much better companies than last year.

Prominent Fruit Official In The City On Business

Mr. P. W. Hodgetts, Ontario Department Fruit Inspector, Speaks of Canadian Fruit in Great Britain.

FRUIT PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

Mr. P. W. Hodgetts, director of the fruit branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, was in the city to-day on business connected with the Canadian Horticulturalist.

Among the many offices which he has successfully accepted and which he now occupies are those of secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, secretary of the Bee Keepers' Association and the Ontario Horticultural Exhibition. He is also a member of the Advisory Board for the fruit stations in Ontario.

This work was begun about eleven years ago for the purpose of ascertaining the districts in which the many varieties of our fruits grow to the best advantage. There are ten of these stations scattered throughout the Province, and the work that was aimed at has proved entirely successful, and will ultimately do much for the improvement of Canadian fruits.

Canada vs. United States

Mr. Hodgetts was representing the Fruit Growers' Association in his visit to the city. The Canadian Horticulturalist was instituted by the association and was conducted by it for over twenty years and still retains a large number of shares of the stock. His visit was therefore purely one of business.

To the Examiner Mr. Hodgetts said that the past winter has been favourable for all lines of fruit and the first prospects are favourable. Speaking of the quality of Canadian fruits in the English market last year Mr. Hodgetts said that there were complaints received that the fruit was not up to the mark. Despite this fact, however, the reports from Great Britain showed that the Canadian fruit was shillings per barrell superior to that from the United States.

DANTE'S INFERNO THE SUBJECT

Lecture of a Very Instructive Character By The Rev. Dr. Symonds Of Montreal.

AN INTERESTED AUDIENCE

In the course of a lecture on "Dante's Inferno" at Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday, Dr. Symonds said among other things:

"The object of this lecture is (1) to describe Dante's purpose and method in the composition of the Divine Comedy, and (2) to see how he has applied it in the Inferno.

"We must remember that the theological writers of the Middle Ages were devoted to allegory. By an allegory we mean a story which has more than one meaning. There is first the literal meaning, and secondly the moral or spiritual meaning. Our Lord's parables are examples of this. Dante himself tells us that the Divine Comedy is an allegory. "For the clearness of what I shall say,' he writes to a friend, 'it must be understood that the meaning of this work is not simple, but of several meanings. The subject of the whole work taken literally is a consideration of the state of souls after death. But if the work is considered according to its allegorical meaning the subject is man, liable to reward or punishment, according as through the freedom of the will he is deserving or undeserving.' The Divine Comedy, then is a profound study of man from the moral and spiritual point of view.

"In the next place we must notice that the mind of Dante is dominated by the conception of law Herein he appeals to the modern mind. To keep steadily in mind these two points, viz., the allegorical character of the work, and its conceptions of business life as subject to moral and spiritual law is to have the twofold key to unlock all its meaning.

"This profound perception of law lifts Dante far above the ordinary conceptions of his own time or even of ours. His Inferno is not simply a place of fiery torment, but the place where men meet with that form of punishment which their sins on earth naturally and necessarily bring.

"In other words, both in the Inferno and in the Purgatorio there is a congruity between the sin and its penalty. Dante thinks of sin as bringing by a necessary law its own punishment. If Dante makes his Inferno a place of horror, it is not because he loves the horrible, but because he wants to show people what the nature of sin really is.

"The Inferno is described as a vast underground cavern, piercing to the centre of the earth. Around its interior run ten concentric circles upon which the various sins are punished.

"Dante divides all this into two great classes. 1. Sins of incontinence, as follows: (1) Sensuality, (2) gluttony and intemperance, (3) avarice, (4) miserliness and prodigality, (5) wrath and sullenness, (6) heresy. II. The second division are sins of incontinence: (1) violence in three divisions, (2) fraud and treachery.

"Dante thus describes his journey to the Inferno. In the middle of the journey of our life (i.e., at the age of 35) he found himself in a dark wood (i.e., morally and spiritually dost). In this condition the Roman poet Virgil (who represents throughout—human reason) is sent by Beatrice to guide him. His reformation is to be effected by a journey through the regions of hell, purgatory and paradise.

"As typical of what he sees in the Inferno, we may take one instance. After passing the gate of hell, Virgil and Dante come to a place called limbo-hell. 'Here sighs, plaints and deep wailings resounded through the starless air; it made me weep at first. Strange tongues, horrible outcries, words of pain, tones of anger made a tumult. Dante turns to Virgil for an explanation of this, who replies: 'This miserable mode the dreary souls of those sustain who lived without blame or praise.' They are the souls of the neutral, for whom Dante has great contempt. They cannot be in heaven, but even hell despises them, so they are in limbo-hell. We think of the words of St. John in the Revelation to the likewarm Church of Laodicea, 'Because thou art neither hot nor cold I will spue thee out of my mouth.'

'Dante next observes their punishment. 'And I who looked saw an ensign, which whirling ran quickly round, and behind it came so long a train of people that I should never have believed death had undone so many. These were naked and sorely goaded by hornets and wasps, which made their faces stream with blood.'

"The meaning of this is that this spirit of neutrality in life has become the habit of the soul. The wind that whirls them round is the wind of public opinion, by which they are carried hither and thither, having no mind or steadfast purpose of their own. The fluttering fly they follow represents the pettiness of their cause. They are, says Dante, whirled round like sand, which represents the barrenness of their lives. Such men accomplish nothing. On earth one of their aims was to follow the popular banner to escape the stings of hostile criticism, and of adverse fortune. Therefore in the Inferno they are stung by hornets and wasps. They whose aim had been to stand well with all are now rejected by all. They are wanted neither by heaven or hell.

"From this one example we can see how profound is Dante's conception of the moral issues of life, and how carefully he works out his details.

"There is yet one more point which must be noticed. There can be no doubt that Dante meant to teach us that men even in this world are in a condition which corresponds to hell or purgatory. When a man is living in an unrepentant state he is already in the Inferno, although the evil consequences of his sin are not completely worked out. But when he is repentant and striving against sin then he is like the souls in purgatory, of whom we treat in our next lecture. Some even a few of God's saints may be said to be already in paradise, living in the continuous sense of the presence of God."

A TRAGEDY; SMASHING OF A BOTTLE OF BOOZE

An Accident Pure and Simple—It Fell on The Pavement.

The breaking of a bottle of "booze" was th only occurrence bordering on a tragedy in the city to-day. It took place on Hunter street between George street and the post office, and needless to say the disaster was purely accidental. The two guardians of the liquid goods were passing along at a rapid rate with the concealed jug when suddenly it crashed upon the pavement where the remains may still be seen as well as be located by means of the olfactory nerves.

IF NOT A STREET CAR THEN A 'BUS

"Subscriber" Proposes the Institution Of One in East City.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—Since there seems to be a prospect of having a street railway service in East City this summer, would not some energetic man run a 'bus to and from some central point every hour charging the same fare as is charged for street cars—advertise it well? This would be well patronized and very much appreciated.

MAKE AN INVASION OF THEIR RIGHTS

Legislature Adopts Strong Resolution of Protest Yesterday.

OPPOSITION LEADER OBJECTS

Scents Implied Censure on Federal Government—Premier Whitney Sustained by a Vote of 59 to 19—Mr. MacKay's Amendment Defeated —To Safeguard the Rights of Ontario—Other Bills Read.

Toronto, April 1.—"As the leader of this Government I am well satisfied that the House by division should pronounce itself on the great question of Provincial Rights," said Hon. Mr. Whitney at the close of the short debate upon his resolution proposing protest to the Imperial authorities in the matter of encroachments and interference with Ontario's rights by the Federal authorities, when the Liberal leader introduced an amendment, which, according to the Prime Minister, was designed to bring political considerations into a great question in which they should have no part.

Upon a division, at the close of the afternoon, the Prime Minister's position was sustained by a vote of 59 to 19. Mr. Allan Studholme (Labor) and Major Rathbun (Independent Liberal) were both classed with the Government. "I stand with Mr. Whitney on this matter of Provincial Rights like I stood with Oliver Mowat in the old days," quoth Mr. Studholme, as he recorded his vote.

In moving his Provincial Rights' resolution Mr. Whitney said that on March 26 he had telegraphed the Dominion Minister of Railways calling his attention to the serious consequences of the proposed Senatorial bill confiscating the rights of the province in the Pigeon, Sturgeon and Nipigon rivers. He had replied that he would look into it, but nothing further had been heard.

"The Government has taken several days to consider the matter," said the Prime Minister, "and feels that the time has come for Ontario to take a firm and dominant stand. If the Dominion is to be allowed to disregard and trample upon the property and civil rights of the province, then we shall lose all power and control over our public domain."

Referring to the Conmee corporate operations Mr. Whitney intimated that the province had under its watchful eye other efforts "introduced under the same baleful influence."

"I recommend this House to pass the resolution," he continued, "and place itself upon record. In that event if the bill is approved at Ottawa to-morrow we will understand that the Dominion Government has deliberately and with malice aforethought thrown down the gauntlet that it can outrage the rights of the province. Ontario will welcome the guage of battle on those lines," declared Mr. Whitney amid rounds of applause. "This province stands ready to combat the pirates and adventurers of her rights in a very effectual manner. However," he added, amid Government "Hear, hears" and laughter, "I am convinced the Dominion Government will not care to take any such action and will undertake to kill the vicious Senate bill to-morrow."

Hon. Mr. Harcourt agreed in condemning the bill before the Senate, but explained that the Dominion Government should not be held responsible for it. It was the private bill of a Liberal Senator.

Hon. Mr. MacKay complained that the Prime Minister's motion was too emphatic and far-reaching. It was not fair to the Dominion Government. For himself the Liberal leader said he was ready to condemn the bill as severely as the Premier. It was assuredly an encroachment on Ontario's right. But the resolution was too sweeping. He submitted the following amendment:

"That all the words in the resolution after the words 'generated by means of them' be struck out, and the following substituted therefore:

"'That this House, while not unmindful that the said bill is only a private bill, and not a public act to which the Government of Canada is committed, deems it advisable and timely to emphatically and unanimously express its disapproval of the said bill in some of its parts, and to assert and declare the rights of this province in the premises;

"'And this House, while not claiming the right or power to deal with international matter, firmly asserts its territorial sovereignty over lands, rivers, streams, water powers and water privileges within the confines of the province; as also jurisdiction with reference to international rivers, and water powers of water privileges thereon, and to the land there underlying, to the thread or middle of the river;

"'And this House expresses its opinion that it is the duty of this Government upon all such occasions, without specific directions or instructions from this House, to use and adopt all reasonable means and measures to safeguard in any and all respects the rights of the Province of Ontario;

"'And this House hereby declares its approval of the actions of the past Governments of this province in defending and maintaining the rights of the province and hereby declares its readiness and determination to support all lawful means requisite to assert, maintain and defend the legislative and territorial sovereignty of the province against encroachment from any and every quarter;

"'And this House recommends that a conference between the Government of Canada and the Governments of the several provinces be held with a view of arriving at a reasonable solution or settlement of all matters in doubt as to the respective juriadictions of the Government of Canada, and that of the various provinces, and that if necessary Imperial legislation be obtained to confirm a settlement.'"

The Prime Minister replied amid great enthusiasm. It was not, he said, a matter on which he was prepared to straddle the fence. He welcomed the issue of unequivocal Provincial Rights. Repeatedly the province had suffered from Dominion encroachments. "They shall strangle and choke Ontario's rights no longer," he announced amid cheers. "I welcome the vote."

The House then divided.

The following Government bills were introduced:

Hon. Mr. Beck introduced a bill to provide for the development of water power at Dog Lake. It provides for the construction by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario of a dam or dams in Dog Lake or in the Taministique River for the purpose of storing and controlling the flow of water, and the commission will develop electrical energy, and may sell or lease such water power to such persons, firm or corporation as the Government may see fit. The commission is given power to regulate the use of the waters of the river by the owners or lessees of any water powers below the Dog Lake dam. The cost of the work is not to exceed $30,000 and is to be paid out of the consolidated revenue fund of Ontario.

Hon. Mr. Monteith introduced amendment to the act respecting agricultural associations and agriculture societies act. The former substitutes the Gardeners' and Florists' Association for the Toronto Agricultural Society. The latter introduces a number of agricultural societies under new names.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane introduces a bill creating Fort Francis a separate judicial district.

Hon. Mr. Matheson introduced a bill for raising money on the credit of the consolidated revenue fund of Ontario. The bill authorizes the raising of a loan of four million dollars, of which $3,000,000 will be used to repay money advanced by the Government for the construction of the T. & N. O. and the balance for the completion of the railway. The bill was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Matheson also introduced a bill to provide for auditing the public accounts of the province. The bill is a consolidation of the old measure carried out by the statute revision committee.

Hon. Mr. Foy introduced the usual statute amendment bill, which only contains some formal amendments, which will be added to before the close of the session.

WANT GOVERNMENT ELEVATORS.

Deputation of Grain Growers Association Urge New Plan.

Ottawa, April 1.—The farmers of the West are engaged in a struggle with the Western Grain Growers' Association, composed, as it was admitted yesterday, of Winnipeg bankers and big railroad corporations and the grain buyers, exporters and brokers.

A large deputation waited on Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Sydney Fisher, and Hon. Frank Oliver, to present their grievances against the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

Their case was very well stated by two or three intelligent agriculturalists and representatives of the exchange were also heard. The deputation urged the adoption of a system of Government-owned terminal elevators, and they voiced the general distrust of the farmers in the way the grain is handled.

Under the present system, it was urged, the way was opened for fraud by the mixing of grain and sending [illegible] grades out as No. 1 hard, when mixed with the real goods. They wanted the Federal Government to own the terminal elevators and the Provincial Governments to control the small [illegible] and central points in the West.

Shot Through Store Window.

Wilmington, Del., April 1.—John Cook, Jr., aged 13 years, while sitting in Sergt. Lacy's cigar store, near Fort Dupont, Monday night, was shot and instantly killed by some one who fired through the window from the street. Cook sat next to Sergt. Blackburn. It is reported that the bullet was intended for Blackburn.

Eczema, Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed.

The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable.

The pre-eminent success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently curing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties.

No other remedy has done, or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture, as our thousands of signed testimonials can testify to.

Mrs. Jno. B. Keady, Linton, N.B., writes: "I was so troubled with Salt Rheum for eight years, that I could not work my hands were so sore. By using Burdock Blood Bitters my hands were eventually cured."

Mrs. Ira C. Buckner, Eden, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with Eczema for a long time. It came out on my face and between my shoulders. A friend told me about Burdock Blood Bitters. I took two bottles and it helped me so much I cannot recommend it too highly."

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES

Leader of Opposition Criticizes the Amounts Asked For — Sir Wilfrid Laurier Declines to Promise an Investigation Into Alleged Graft —Architect's Bill Passed—Mr. Brodeur's Encounter.

Ottawa, April 1.—Mr. Fielding moved the House into committee for the purpose of adopting the supplementary estimates for the year, which closed yesterday, amounting to $5,319,633, and one-eighth of the main estimates, amounting to $11,246,043, in addition to the portion, $4,586,538, already granted in full. The total for next year was $15,831,681.

R. L. Borden enquired if the estimates of 1908 had been prepared on the same basis in previous years. Would the supplementary estimates to come be of the same character as those asked for from year to year?

Mr. Fielding replied that the Minister of Militia had assured him that he had asked for all he would require. The general aim of the Government was to get nearly all into the main estimates, but it was impossible to avoid asking for supplementaries. He hoped that this year the supplementaries would not be so large as last year.

Mr. Borden objected to the preparation of the estimates without including all amounts that it was intended to spend.

Mr. Fielding said that it was at least courtesy that could be extended to a deputation to say that an enquiry should be made. It was quite easy to tell the deputation that matter would be looked into.

"In this case it doesn't mean anything," suggested Mr. Foster.

"I don't know what it means," replied Mr. Fielding.

The reference to the subject of dredging brought W. D. Bennett to his feet. He charged that there was collusion between dredging contractors and he asked the First Minister if he would allow a full enquiry before the public accounts committee to ascertain, if possible, if two tenders for a certain work were not written by the same hand. It was well known that the profits of these dredge owners amounted to from 50 to 75 per cent. These men were making a "lavish display of vulgar wealth."

Sir Wilfrid pleaded that he was unfamiliar with such matters. He could not on such short notice promise an investigation.

Mr. Paterson remarked that the weight of Mr. Bennett's criticism was discounted by the statements accompanying them.

The member for Simcoe never got up in the House, but he insinuated that some members of Parliament or a relative was involved in some dredging contract.

Mr. Bennett challenged the Minister to produce one statement that he had not made good.

Mr. Paterson replied that the other day Bennett asked the Minister of Marine if "so and so" was not the fact; and the Minister gave it an emphatic denial. It was true that was put in the form of a question.

The bill to incorporate the Institute of Architects of Canada passed its third reading last night, after Mr. Blain (Peel) and Mr. Gervais (Montreal) had succeeded in striking out several of its provisions.

At the suggestion of Mr. Blain the clause prohibiting manufacturers or contractors from the privileges of the society was dropped, while Mr. Gervais moved to strike out the classification clause and the clauses giving the right to affiliate with other associations and to establish branches. Provincial rights are protected by providing that the bill shall not affect privileges conferred by provincial charters.

What promised to develop into a scene occurred in the lobby of the House yesterday when Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, encountered L. J. Tarte, proprietor of La Patrie, and son of the late Hon. J. I. Tarte, and protested against the severe comments of that paper on his administration of the Department.

La Patrie, which speaks for a large community, has printed some biting criticism of the Minister in connection with the revelations of the civil service commission.

Mr. Tarte, who seems to be a chip of the old block, retorted hotly that the course of the Parliamentary reporters of La Patrie had his approval, and that the paper would not be turned from its duty by anything the Minister might say. Some words followed, and Mr. Brodeur, to prevent a disturbance, moved away.

Ottawa, April 1.—The Lancaster bill, as amended by Senator Beique, was passed in the Senate yesterday.

Man Who Shot William Curry Pleads Not Guilty—Defence Will Endeavor to Prove Insanity—Crown Prosecutor Endorses This Theory—Medical Evidence In Support —Jury Has Been Selected.

Brampton, April 1.—Insanity will be the main line of defence for John Tearse, charged with the murder by shooting of William Curry, farmer, on Christmas night. Not only that, but the crown will assist in that line of evidence. Tearse, who is an immigrant, had been employed by Curry as a hired man only a short time. It is alleged that because of a fancied grievance he wantonly shot the aged man with a shot gun and murderously attacked his son, who, however, got the better of him. The defence is in the hands of T. C. Robinette, K.C., while G. T. Blackstock, K.C., is crown prosecutor.

Yesterday Dr. W. A. Young of Toronto, and Dr. Clark of Toronto Asylum, examined the prisoner before he entered the dock, and will testify to-day. It is understod they noted signs of insanity.

Mr. Blackstock, in a lengthy address to the jury, mentioned the importance of the medical evidence, and said the crown's desire was not so much to convict for murder as to bring out all the facts. He himself was convinced that the prisoner was an epileptic, and the question would be to determine what should be done with him.

It is stated that Tearse's father died in an insane asylum after having attempted to murder his wife; a sister was insane and his grandparents on his father's side also showed symptoms.

READ NOTES OF CONFESSION.

Prosecution In Bowin Murder Trial Brings Damaging Evidence.

Detroit, April 1.—Beginning Wednesday morning, Stenographer H. Bliss of the prosecuting attorney's office, will enter upon what he himself declares will be a two-day ordeal, that of reading from his original notes the alleged confession of Percy Bowin to Capt. McDonnell.

Edward H. Kennedy, Bowin's attorney, has insisted that the confession must be read from the notes that Mr. Bliss took at the time it was being made.

Detectives John Downey and Edward Fox, who had charge of the case against Bowin, divided the time on the witness stand. Yesterday afternoon, Downey told of his trip to Woodville, Ont., and bringing Bowin back to Detroit. He admitted that he led Bowin to believe that he was wanted merely as a witness against Dan Scott, who was then under arrest. Detective Fox told of Bowin's arraignment in the Police Court, at which he pleaded guilty.

Otto Kersten, employed as a jeweler at Werbes' second-hand store at Michigan and Wayne streets, gave damaging testimony against Bowin. He said that Bowin approached him in a saloon the morning after the murder and asked as to the value of a diamond ear-ring that he had in his pocket, together with a roll of bills.

Fred Sykes, one of the proprietors of the place, testified that Bowin was a frequent visitor at the place.

Henry Simons, proprietor of the American Hotel on Cadillac square, about a block from Mrs. Welch's place, said that Bowin remained there on the night that he is alleged to have committed the murder. He said that Bowin went out after being shown to his room, Simons did not know at what time Bowin returned, but said that he left about seven o'clock the next morning.

MUNRO'S COLTS TOO MANY FOR THE OCTAGON'S FIVE

The chief excitement at the Peterborough Bowling Club alleys last night was the matched game between the Octagons and Munro's Colts, which was easily won by the latter. In the first, with only four men, they won out against the eight-sided bunch with a full quintette. In the second, the Colts, with the assistance of W. H. Denham, finished high, and they repeated the trick in the third, winning out on the three by a margin of 65 pins with one string to the good.

The Octagons looked like the goods in the beginning of the second. The trundling of Savigny was one of the features, but his high score was more than equalled by Denham. The honours of the evening went to Martin Kirn of the Colts, with a total of 405. He also made the highest single score. "Jakie" Moore of the Octogons was a close second, making a total of 399 pins, his work being consistent throughout the game. The score cards showed the following:

Munro's Colts—

BURRIDGE AND CONNORS REPORT TO YOUNGSTOWN NEXT WEEK

Harry Burridge, catcher, and Jack Connors, centre fielder of last year's Peterborough Midland League team leave on Thursday of next week for Youngstown, O., having been signed by the team of that city in the Ohio and Pennsylvania League. Both men should easily make good in professional company, as they have a great deal of experience in amateur and semi-professional baseball on this side of the line, and judging by the form displayed last year, should hold their position without trouble.

Burridge is easily one of the best catchers in Canada, combining as he does accuracy behind the bat, speed on the bases and excellent batting and throwing ability. He can whip them down to second on a line and it will keep the members of the Ohio and Pensylvania teams on the jump if they want to break any records in the base purloining line. Last year Burridge played nineteen games with Peterborough, getting 31 hits out of 79 times at bat, an average of .392, while he made 29 runs

Connors is a fast outfielder, covering lots of ground, while he has a great arm, his swift, accurate throwing from the outfield having won more than one bat. He is a reliable sticker and is fast on the bases, sliding into second in a way that makes base stealing look easy. Connors played 13 games for Peterborough last year, getting 15 hits out of 48 times up.

Underground Men Defeat the Northern Electrics— Hudson of Losers Was The Evening's Star.

RECORD IS STILL UNBROKEN

A hotly contested match game between the telephone staff was the feature Monday night at the Peterborough Bowling Club and the play was followed with close interest by a large gallery. Two five-men teams were picked to do battle from the ranks of the Underground men and from the Northern Electric staff, all engaged in the work of installing the new exchange. Some of the bowlers had not previously rolled on the P. B. C. alleys and they were loud in their praises of the splendid beds.

With the exception of the first game all three contests were closely fought, but on each occasion the Undergrounds came out on top, their margin on the evening's play aggregating 139 pins. For the Undergrounds the mighty Cross showed the best form, rolling 391 in his three games, while D. Leach and Mawson were also well up. The high score of the night was furnished by Hudson, who piled up 395 pins. Gray had the wrong pair of moccasins on his feet and he explains that this interfered with his work, though it is shrewdly suspected that he failed to aim straight while rolling. The Leach boys were both rolling in good form and contributed materially to the success of their team. Cote rolled an excellent game for his opponents, while Briggs and Mills were in fair form.

The scores follow—

Undergrounds—
Cross	154	121	116—391
H. Leach	95	138	126—359

JUNIOR CHURCH LEAGUE PROPOSED

For the Church Boys—St. John's Have Formed a Team.

It has been suggested that a junior baseball league be formed this year among the boys of the city churches. The suggestion was made last year but no satisfactory arrangement was arrived at and the matter was dropped. The boys are very anxious to get a league under way as soon as possible and from the evidences of enthusiasm shown it will no doubt be a great success. The members of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. John's church have formed a team for this season and are very anxious to see a league formed. It is understood that a meeting of representatives of the different churches will soon be called and the officers for this league will be elected.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, April 1. — The market opened very strong, being influenced by the belief that the Erie bankers had arranged successfully for the financing of the road's requirements. There was a very strong market for Americans in London.

The floor element was generally operating on the bull side, but was quick to take profits on the bulges with the result that there were sharp reactions from time to time. Covering on the part of traders who went short during the day caused a hardening tendency in the early part of the last hour, which was particularly noticeable in the case of the steel stocks.

There was a fractional decline in the local copper metal market to-day and the failure of a couple of mining companies to pay interest on their bonds was also an unfavourable feature, but actual technical conditions still rule in connection with the metal stocks.

The market shows good buying power on the breaks, and we look for a fair rally on short covering. We would buy the active stocks on any weakness, but for the time being would be satisfied with fair profits. Bull tip out to buy B.R.T. The closing was steady,

Turned the Face Of the Angel of Death

A wonderful story this. So far as physicians and human aid and appearances were concerned, the Angel of Death had marked John Galbraith for his own, but the whole plan was changed and a wonderful rescue affected by

PSYCHINE

READ IT! REMEMBER IT!

Here is the story as told by the Forest Free Press:—

(From Forest Free Press)

Forest, May 1, 1907.—The following facts are vouched for by Rev. C. E. Burrell, Baptist Minister, and Ralph E. Scott, the well-known local druggist.

John A. Galbraith is a well-to-do farmer, living in Pympton Township, about five miles from Forest. He enjoyed good health until early in 1906, when he had a severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia, which apparently broke up his whole system. In speaking of the matter to the Forest Free Press he said:

His Own Words

"I did not seem able to gain any strength after the attack of pneumonia. One doctor said that tuberculosis had had developed, that I could not recover and advised me to get in all my affairs as quickly as possible. This was the condition I was in when my pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrell, of the Baptist church, advised me to try Psychine, and procured for me a full bottle. This was in May 1906, and at that time I was reduced in weight to 120 pounds. The Psychine seemed to do good from the start, and I continued until I had used about $15 worth from Scott's Drug Store, Forest. I gained in weight at the rate of half a pound a day until I went up to 150 pounds, steadily regaining my strength and feeling better. I actually had to have my clothes enlarged, not through any corpulency, but owing to a putting on of good flesh all over. I have resumed my work and have gone through this severe and sickly winter with nothing worse than an attack of grip, which my system was able to throw off without any serious results.

"I give this statement for the purpose of showing how Psychine has probably saved my life, and in hope that others may be likewise benefited by its use."

J. A. GALBRAITH.

The Pastor's Words

"Mr. J. A. Galbraith is a prominent member of my church, trusted by his neighbours and very highly respected throughout the entire community. His case has attracted very considerable attention. His was a pitiable case, indeed; in the prime of life with the brightest prospects to be suddenly stricken down in the midst of all. Visiting him after his physician had pronounced his case hopeless (and indeed, set the date at about which he would likely pass away,) and observing pretty closely his condition, it occurred to me that Psychine, which I had used in my own family with wonderful results, might benefit him. I strongly recommended it to him and he began its use. The result was truly wonderful. Almost immediately he began to improve and soon was able to be out again. He apparently regained his old health and was able to take up once again his old duties on his large farm and to perform them with comparative ease and comfort. The improvement was permanent, and he is to-day apparently just as well as ever. He gives all the credit for his recovery, under God, to Psychine."

C. E. BURRELL, Baptist Pastor

The Druggist's Words

"I have read the statements made by Mr. J. A. Galbraith and Rev. C. E Burrell regarding the results of the use of Psychine. I know both gentlemen personally and can heartily endorse all that they have said. Mr. Galbraith obtained his supply of Psychine at my drug store, saying from time to time that it had done him good. I took an interest in his case and noted a steady improvement. Altogether I sold him about $15.00 worth. Psychine is having a big run here, and so far as I know is always used with beneficial results."

Ralph E. Scott, Druggist

"Forest, May 1st, 1907."

H. J. Pettypiece, Esq., ex-M. P. P., publisher of the Forest "Free Press," writing under date of March 19th, 1907, says:—

"THE GALBRAITH CURE IS CONSIDERED A MIRACLE HERE. I know his case was considered hopeless by his physician, and that something had pulled him together. I have only just learned that it was Psychine."

On June 14th, Mr. Pettypiece, writes: "I saw Galbraith in town yesterday. He was looking the pink of health—says he never felt better, and that he is doing his share of the work on the farm, instead of being under the sod where just one year ago the doctors told him he would be."

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, LaGrippe, Pneumonia, Chills, Night Sweats, Stomach Troubles, and all run-down conditions, which are always the sure forerunners of the more fatal diseases, are quickly, permanently and surely cured by PSYCHINE. At all druggists. 50c and $1.00 guaranteed a perfect and effective medicine. DR. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, Toronto

1000 Men To Be Employed On Trenton End Of Canal

Mr. N. Pasto, one of the labour foremen on section 1 of the Trent Canal at Trenton was in the city for a short time to-day. Mr. Pasto is from Montreal and has supplied the contractors, Messrs. Larkin and Sangster, with Italian labour from Montreal.

According to his statements, one thousand men, skilled workmen and labourers combined, will be engaged on the Trenton section this summer. At present the work is in its embryo state, a small force of men being engaged in making the initial preparations, camps, etc., close to the town of Trenton.

Mr. Pasto paid a visit to Campbellford yesterday to see the work which was being done there. As at Trenton the work consists of considerable work through tracts of limestone, which is necessarily slow work. The work on the canal will employ a great deal of labour this year and will prove a boon to the country through which it is cut.

A THRILLING RIDE ON WILD DEER'S BACK

Man Sought to Capture It, But It Ran For Miles With Him—How It Ended

Kingston, March 31.—Thos. Duncan, a young man living near McLaren's Depot, Lanark County, had an experience a few days ago which has probably never been equalled. A full-grown wild deer wandered near the Duncan farmyard and was attacked by the dog. Young Duncan, hearing the commotion, went out to ascertain the cause, and then decided to take a hand in the fray himself.

The deer was so intent on its combat with the dog that it did not notice the arrival of a third party, and Duncan, jumping quickly to one side, upset it. He then sprang upon it and held it down, but before he could realize his position the deer was on its feet, and in spite of the unusual burden on its back it set off through the woods at a great speed. The dog gave chase, and this seemed to give wings to the deer's feet. The rider grimly hung on, however, until fully a couple of miles had been covered, when he conceived the happy idea of hitting his steed over the eyes with his hat, which he had grasped in his hand, and by this means he succeeded in getting it slowed down sufficiently to let him jump off.

Duncan is of the opinion that for a real exhilarating ride he has John Gilpin beaten a mile.

OBITUARY.

JAMES LOUDEN

In the death of Mr. Jas. Louden, 173 Park street, the city loses one of its most respected citizens who has lived in Peterborough since early boyhood.

After an illness extending into five weeks from liver trouble, Mr. Louden passed away at his family residence about 5.30 o'clock last night. While his condition was considered serious his death came as a rather sudden shock to his wife and relatives, who were with them.

The late Mr Louden was 51 years of age. Born in Allandale he removed to Peterborough with his parents when a boy. Thirty-one years ago he was married to Miss Jane Pogue and during the past 28 years they have resided in their present home at the corner of Park and Patterson streets. The only surviving relative, other than his wife, is a brother, Mr. George Louden, of Camberry, Ont.

The late Mr. Louden was very widely known and highly respected in Peterborough .He was a member of the I.O.F. and of the Iron Moulders' Union of North America. These societies will be represented at the funeral. Mr. Louden was in employee of the Peter Hamilton Company for thirty years following the trade of iron moulding.

In politics he was a Conservative and in religion a Presbyterian, being at the time of his death, a member of Knox church.

The funeral will be held to-morrow from the family residence, 173 Park street at 2.30 o'clock to the Little Lake Cemetery.

MISS LILA DRAIN

Norwood, March 31.—(Special.) — After an illness of about eight weeks Lila, third daughter of Mrs. John Drain, of this place, passed away on Friday afternoon. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Sunday afternoon, service being held in the Methodist church, of which deceased was a member. The pallbearers were Dr. A. M. Weldon and Messrs. G. Andrews, W. Pakenham, J. Marks, B. Scott and H. Fife. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss, besides her mother, four sisters and four brothers: Mrs. Darling of Dummer, Misses Minnie, Zina and Cora, at home; Mr. J. Drain, Stony Lake; Mr. W. Drain, Dummer; Mr. D. Drain and Master Clarence, at home. The sorrowing friends have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

MRS JOHN GERRARD.

The intelligence of the death of Mrs. John Y Gerrard in Hamilton at four o'clock this morning will be received with great regret by her many friends in Peterborough. Before her marriage about four years ago she was known as Miss Ethel White, being a daughter of Mr. W. H White of this city. While here she resided on Gilmour street, leaving here about 2 years ago. Mrs. Gerrard was only 26 years of age. She is survived by her father, two brothers, Evans and Joseph, of Peterborough, and one sister, Miss Myra, also of this city.

She was a member of St .Paul's church before leaving Peterborough and sang in the choir.

The body will be brought here tomorrow on the 11.16 C.P.R. train, and interment will take place from the residence of Mr. J. H White, 95 Aylmer street at 2.30 o'clock to the Little Lake Cemetery.

MR. GEO. BALL BEGINS HIS DUTIES

Succeeds Mr. W. A. McIlmoyle as Market Clerk.

Mr. George Ball commenced collecting toll at the market this morning in his official capacity as market clerk. Mr. Wm. McIlmoyle's duties are consequently at an end and may citizens and farmers have expressed their regret at his retirement. His dealings were without one exception just and fair, and during his regime with Mr. Fred Roseboro there never was a complaint made or the cause for one given.

Mr. Ball is not as well known among the farmers as was Mr. "Mac" but he should make a popular clerk.

FALL WHEAT SHOWS UP VERY FAVOURABLY

Weather Has Protected it and it is Now Sprouting—Strong and Healthy.

Mr. Geo. Mather speaking of the general conditions in the country, said that the reports from the farmers of this country are very bright. The fall wheat is beginning to show up well as it had a good winter and was carefully protected by the snow. The season to be dreaded is not yet over, the warm sun of the daytime and the cold nights being disastrous to the young sprouts. If the conditions prevail as favourable as at present the farmers will have an excellent crop of fall wheat. The clover too, is reported to be coming along in splendid shape.

A BLIND MAN FIERCELY ATTACKED

Would Not Lodge a Complaint—Little Faith in Authorities.

Another story of a rough kind comes from Fenelon, says the Tweed News. It is said that two men named Lindsay, one night last week, entered the house of an old man on the Flinton road and began to clean out the house. The old man is almost blind, and it is said the two men gave him a severe beating.

The injured man was advised to lodge a complaint against them, but his answer was that they would only let them off again, and he feared they would do him further injury.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE QUEBEC TRIP

Have Not Been Definitely Settled for Local Regiment.

Regarding the Quebec tercentenary celebration, which is proposed for the latter part of July, Col. Stevenson was asked to-day as to how the 57th Regiment would participate in the great event. He could say nothing more than that the local regiment would go to Quebec on half strength, as was announced a few days ago. Col. Stevenson would not say that this was the ultimatum, as the arrangements were not definitely settled.

CHEESE MEN ADVOCATE COLD STORAGE WAREHOUSE

To be Built on the Dock at Belleville as Well as on Vessels.

A meeting of Belleville district cheesemen will be held in that city in the second week of April, when Mr. Publow, the chief inspector, will address them on general topics in connection with the dairy industry, and Mr. Ruddick, the chief dairy commissioner, will talk on the better facilities for shipping. The cheesemen will also advocate the building of a cold storage warehouse for cheese on the Belleville dock, such as at Picton, and they will also advocate the installation of cold storage rooms on the cheese-carrying vessels which ply those waters.

JURY SHOCKS ITSELF BY BRINGING VERDICT OF WILFUL MURDER AGAINST JOHN TEARSE

Brampton, April 2.—A thunderbolt from heaven could not have produced a greater shock upon the 3,000 people assembled in and around the court room yesterday afternoon, than when the jury brought in the verdict of "Guilty of murder, with a recommendation for mercy" against John D. Tearse, accused of killing William Curry in Peel County on Christmas night.

The spectators were shocked, the counsel for defence were shocked, the crown was shocked, the judge was shocked, and the jury when they learned the true significance of their act, were dazed.

Tearse was sentenced to be hanged on Thursday, June 11.

The 12 talesmen admitted afterwards that they had no idea that their verdict left no course open to the court but to pronounce a death sentence upon the prisoner. To Crown Counsel Blackstock, and to Counsel Hassard, they admitted that they believed their verdict would elicit nothing more serious than a life term in prison. They ignored an insanity verdict because they thought, like the possibilities with Harry K. Thaw, the accused would merely be locked up for a short while and released. They realized the insane tendencies of the prisoner, but thought they would be relieving society of a pernicious element if he were locked up for life.

They refrained from styling it a case of manslaughter, because they thought it would mean imprisonment for a term of from three of five years, and then freedom.

To-day the defence will apply to Ottawa, to the Governor-General, for a commutation of sentence. The doctor who gave expert testimony favor it, the crown counsel had no hesitancy in declaring he favored it, and the general impression of those officially connected with the case is that the judge's report will strongly favor it.

COAL STRIKE WILL NOT HAVE MUCH EFFECT ON LOCAL SITUATION

The strike of the 250,000 bituminous coal miners who went out yesterday in the United States will not have any immediate effect on the situation here, according to Mr. R. Hicks, one of the largest local dealers. In answer to an inquiry from the Examiner, Mr. Hicks said that unless the strike were of long duration, and it is not expected to be, there will be little scarcity of soft coal felt because the operators have a large supply of the bituminous article on hand, which will hold out for some time. The price of hard coal will not be affected for some time, although, of course, if the strike is a long one and the supply of soft coal is exhausted, anthracite will have to be used in its stead, and as an inevitable result, the price of hard coal will go up.

DISASTROUS FLOOD SWEEPS THROUGH VIRGINIA VALLEY

Elkhorn, Va., April 2.—(Special.)—Excepting the cloud burst of seven years ago when one hundred lives were lost, the greatest flood ever known in the Tug River and Elkhorn Valley is now prevailing. Hundreds of families are camping along the mountain sides, their homes being inundated. Three men were drowned by the collapse of a suspension bridge spanning the Bluestone river. Three lives are reported lost at North Fork and two at Keystone.

Mr. Wm. Barry Honoured By His Fellow-Employees Of The C. G. E.

A number of employees of the cabinet shop of the C. G. E. works gathered at the home of Mr. Wm. Barry last evening and presented him with an eulogistic address and a handsome cased pipe and a tobacco pouch. Mr. Barry, with his wife and child, sails on Saturday by the steamship Corsican. He is returning to his home at at Halifax, Yorkshire. He has been in this city for the past four years, during which time he has made a number of friends. He was prominent in local Oddfellow circles and acted as their pianist.

The following address was read last night by Mr. Jos. Begley, and the presentation was made by Mr. R. Martin:

Peterborough, April 1, 1908.

To William Barry:

Dear Friend:

It is some time since we, your fellow workmen, became aware that you had a longing in your heart to return to the land of your birth and the home of your childhood. As the hour is fast approaching when your hopes are about to be realized, and it is time for us to say good-bye, we feel that we cannot do so without expressing in some manner our feelings of sorrow at your departure from our midst. We wish to assure you that it is not on account of any custom that we are here this evening; it is because in our daily intercourse with you we have found you every inch a man, and that you always, when the opportunity presented itself, made proper use of the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would wish to be done by," and it is a well-known fact amongst us that, no matter what knowledge you had gained in regard to your work, it was ours for the asking. Such a quality in a man will always gain him friends, and such we wish you to consider us because we have found in you a true man. We wish you and Mrs. Barry a safe and pleasant voyage, and that you will enjoy a long and happy life, and that the little Canuck whom you are taking back may be the joy and happiness of your old age. You must agree with us when we say she was well worth coming after. We ask you to accept this pipe and pouch as a slight mark of the esteem that your fellow workmen have for you.

Signed on behalf of the workmen,

JAMES PRICE,
F. E. DICKINSON,
R. J. MARTIN,
JOS. BEGLEY.

Mr. Barry made a brief reply, thanking his fellow employees for their gift and the complimentary remarks, and said that he would always cherish pleasant memories of his residence in Peterborough.

PRINCE OF WALES DRAGOONS WILL LIKELY BE ROYALTY'S ESCORT

Major Joseph Duffus returned this morning from Port Hope where the annual meeting of the officers of the 3rd Prince of Wales Canadian Dragoons was held in the Queen's Hotel yesterday. Col. Brown, of Colborne, the commanding officer of the regiment, was present, as well as officers from Millbrook, Newmanville and Picton. Among the questions considered the arrangements for the year were made and the trip to Quebec was discussed. Fifty per cent of the regiment will assist in the tercentenary display and will be in Quebec from July 21 to 26.

Col. Brown has imbued his officers with the spirit that they are to be second to none at the celebration. Their accoutrements and all their equipment will be up to the standard and any new trappings that are needed will be ordered. Besides the days spent in Quebec two days will be required to make each one way trip.

Peterborough Squadron

The Prince of Wales Dragoons will have as high an honour as any of the regiments, as an escort for the Prince, who will be present at the celebration, will be chosen from them. On a former occasion the Peterborough squadron had the honour of being the escort and it is their intention to again be found worthy of this distinction.

EXAMINER CIRCULATING IN THE COUNTRY

Distributed From Mr. Jas. McMartins' Grocery Store in Otonabee.

Through the enterprise of Mr. Jas. McMartin of Otonabee, who recently opened the new Cold Springs grocery store, the Evening Examiner is being distributed among several homes in that township. In this manner, Peterborough advertisers in the Examiner receive the benefit of its circulation in the country, as well as in the city. The evening papers reach Mr. McMartin's store early in the evening, where the Otonabee subscribers, some of them residing between three and four miles from the centre of the city, obtain them as early as many in the city.

DOES NOT WANT MONEY FROM CARNEGIE

Rochester Citizen Writes on the Grants For Public Libraries.

A writer in the Rochester Post strongly advocates the building of a public library for the city but objects to becoming dependent upon Andrew Carnegie by accepting a loan. Rochester, he says, has many people who have no library facilities and in this respect Peterborough is very similarly situated.

Speaking of procuring the means to finance the building he writes:

If the skilled labour of Rochester wants employment, it could get it in a public library building, and that is what we ought to have in this city. Instead of begging money from Andrew Carnegie, let us go ahead and issue bonds and build a library ourselves and manage and control it, with a feeling of independence and ownership. I have no idea what the cost would be, but suppose it would be a million dollars, what of it? Let us issue long-term bonds and make the future generations pay part of the expense.

PROVINCIAL RIGHTS.

Yesterday the Examiner called attention to the unnecessary heat Hon. Mr. Whitney developed over the Senate Bill to incorporate a Michigan Power Company and also to the extreme improbability of such a bill going any further than the introductory stage, and as a matter of fact it was thrown out. It was, of course, proper that the Ontario Legislature should object to the proposed legislation which was a palpable invasion of provincial legislative jurisdiction. With a Liberal Government in power at Ottawa, however, there was no reason, judging from precedent, that there would be permitted an attack on provincial rights, as was promptly shown by the assurance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wired to Hon. A G Mackay, leader of the Liberal Opposition, that "the bill would not be allowed to pass." Mr. Whitney was in the right in protesting against the very remotely possible interference with provincial rights as implied in the proposed bill. His resolution of protest was passed without reference to the amendment offered by Mr. Mackay, the Liberal leader. If Mr. Whitney had been as earnest in the matter of provincial rights as he seemed to be to achieve party advantage, he might, without any disparagement of himself, have embodied in his resolution at least, the rider to Mr. Mackay's amendment recommending that with a view of removing all subjects of doubt as to the respective legislative rights of the Dominion and Provinces, a conference be held between the Government of Canada and those of the several provinces and that, if necessary, imperial legislation be obtained to confirm the settlement that might be arrived at. Such a course would have led to a settlement of the principle in regard to the respective jurisdictions, and would make impossible future friction. Hon. Mr. Mackay by his proposal showed that it is not enough to scold and find fault, but a quality akin to constructive statesmanship is represented by providing a remedy.

DUTY ON PULP.

The United States legislators are considering a bill to abolish the import duty on pulp. Now, although civil service reform fills the horizon, it might wait a little till we deal with the new pulp situation created by the legislation in question. If this bill passes, there will be a much greater demand for Canadian pulp, and the destruction of our pulp resources will be accelerated. The evils that are alleged to affect the civil service are a legacy from Conservative times, and have been in existence about forty years, and the country has survived. If the two cannot be dealt with at the same time, the pulp situation has the call in the matter of urgency. If the present output of Canadian pulp is not sufficient to meet the demands of the United States, the hustling Yankees will erect mills here, and slash will go our pulp woods to benefit foreigners. The pulp situation may seem a difficult proposition to deal with. But the Liberal Government of Ontario provided an effective remedy by providing that no pulp-wood should be exported from Crown lands in Ontario in an unmanufactured condition. Wood in the form of pulp is held to be "manufactured." Extending the prohibition to paper made from pulp-wood would "clinch" the situation, protect our forests from swift destruction, and give Canadian people and their industries the benefit. If our Yankee neighbours must have our pulp-wood, they must also have the paper made from pulp. If they want our pulp badly enough to make a hole in their "protection" wall to pass it through, they would make a similar hole for our paper, but we would get greater benefits. Canadian pulp-wood exported raw realizes about $7 per cord; made into paper, its value is represented by about $10. The thirty odd dollars difference represents the benefit to this country—wages paid to Canadian workmen, expenditure for supplies, carrying charges, and the numerous items that enter into the conversion of the standing pulp-wood tree into printing paper. The civil service should by all means be placed upon a sound basis, but no time should be lost in dealing with the pulp problem.

Militia general orders warn the members of the various volunteer corps that they must not be surprised if they have to travel to Quebec next July in freight cars. That seems hard at first glance; but as July comes along there will be thousands of Canadians who would be willing to get to Quebec even in cattle cars. Ordinary summer traffic will employ nearly all the available passenger rolling stock.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The great political problems worrying Great Britain are the Lords, Labour and Liquor.

The Kingston Whig, which favours civil service reform, puts it this way: "There will be civil service reform, right enough, and it will clear a lot of incapable Tories out of office."

Colonel Howell of the Salvation Army, says the Ottawa Free Press, puts it right up to the critics of that organization when he offers to place any British man out of work in any city in Canada on a farm, and, moreover, promises that the Army will make the farmers live up to their contracts. That is the proper spirit in which to tackle the immigration problem. If the newcomers will not take the first work that comes to their hands, as did their predecessors, they should not complain.

At the public nomination here last fall, says the Brockville Recorder' Mr. Donovan said that he had assurances from the Government that a large amount of money would be spent on the Brockville Asylum. A close scrutiny of the estimates as submitted in the budget speech failed to reveal any such appropriation. Now it is up to Mr. Donovan to insist upon that promise, even if it were semi-veiled bribery, being carried out. It was a legitimate subject for discussion in the budget speech, but a very large gap appears where the appropriation ought to have been inserted.

The Victoria Colonist, the leading Conservative paper of the Pacific slope, said in a recent issue: "We are inclined to take stories of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's early retirement with the whole contents of the salt-cellar. He is only sixty-seven years of age. Sir John Macdonald was seventy-six at the time of his death; and with Lord Strathcona projecting 'all-red lines' at eighty-eight, Sir Mackenzie Bowell at eighty-five discussing questions of the day with force and aggressiveness, Senator Scott laughing at the idea of going on the shelf at eighty-three, and Sir Charles Tupper at eighty-seven still shaping Imperial sentiment, it seems a little premature to talk of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a 'has-been.' A few years ago it seemed as if he might be forced to retire, but it looks at present as if those who are waiting for his shoes will have to exercise a considerable stock of patience." He will be but an indifferent patriot who will not pray that Sir Wilfrid may long be spared to control the destinies of Canada, and set a high mark of honourable, efficient, nation-building statesmanship.

THE BRITISH FLAG IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR US.

From La Patrie, Montreal, Feb. 28.

Dr. Thompson, M. P., for Yukon, yesterday pronounced in Parliament the most unexpected pleas in favour of Canadian independence. He claims for our country the right to make its treaties, the absolute control of all its institutions, and in consequence the severance of the colonial tie.

We know that some in Canada have already been entertaining dreams of independence, but no one thinks any more of it to-day; and it is a long time since ideas have been given expression to, both the press and Parliament, like those of Dr. Thompson yesterday, and which we have a right, because of this, to designate retrograde. The icy reception accorded his speech by the whole House has proved to the Yukon orator what an unworthy inspiration had influenced him, and how far afield he was from expressing Canadian sentiment.

Let us hasten to say that the French-Canadians especially disapprove of his unfortunate reference. Our English fellow-citizens have their reasons for remaining faithful to British fealty, but we also have ours, we French-Canadians. We have in our interests a more powerful reason than sentiment even. Under the conditions of numerical inferiority which still obtain with us, what would Canada's independence signify, if not its absorption at short notice by the American ogre. Can we sincerely imagine that our language, religion, laws, our most sacred prerogatives, in short, would find beneath the stars and stripes the same broad and generous protection guaranteed them today?

Hon. G W Ross proudly announced, before Americans themselves, in New York, some time since, that in Canada, father than in the United States, reigned the truest spirit of liberty. There was doubtless friction in former times, but England to-day fully comprehends her mission. She strives her utmost, so to speak, to make the weight of her rule as light as possible. Year after year she allows us a greater latitude, until to-day we are practically our own masters.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier gave Dr. Thompson the energetic and worthy reply which he deserved. The French-Canadian population is at one with him; on this point all are united. We lose no occasion for saying so, because we feel it sincerely. French-Canadians are proud of living under the folds of the British flag and they salute it as the symbol of their liberty.

CALLS HIM "FLIRT BY PROFESSION"

There Are Such Men According to the Experience of a New York Woman

SHE HAD HIM ARRESTED

New York, April 2.—(Special.)—"I'm sure he is a professional flirt," indignantly cried Mrs. Mary Casey, pointing at Gustavus Meyer in the Long Island City Police Court yesterday.

"Professional flirt, madame. What do you mean?" asked Magistrate Smith wonderingly.

"Oh, yes; there are such men if they deserve to be called men," retorted Mrs. Casey, thirty years old, most comely and well dressed. "They try to flirt with every female they see, be she eight or eighty, black, white or yellow, a duchess or ragpicker.

"I live on Washington avenue, Bergenfield, N.J.," Mrs. Casey continued when she grew calmer. "I was going to see my mother, Mrs. Laffey, who lives at No. 111 Fourth street, Long Island City. When I got off the car at the ferry house in New York this prisoner deliberately winked at me. Of course I paid no attention to him. He followed me into the women's cabin of the ferry boat, seated himself near me and tried in every way to attract my attention, but I would not look at him."

"How did you know he was trying to attract your attention if you did not look at him?" asked the puzzled Magistrate.

"Any woman can tell you that," answered Mrs. Casey, tertly. "Finally, when I ignored him, he became even more insulting. He spat toward me and went so far as to make a face at me and stick out his tongue. Several persons in the cabin saw his behaviour. I was never so embarrassed in my life. When we reached Long Island City I had him arrested."

"The lady makes a serious mistake," earnestly declared Meyer, who said he was thirty-five years old and lived on West One Hundred and Fifth street, in this city. "I never saw the lady on the boat or anywhere else until she had me arrested. I go to Jamaica on business every Saturday, and I was going there to-day."

Meyer has blue eyes and a dark mustache, and was well dressed. Despite his protestations Magistrate Smith held him in $500 bail on a charge of disorderly conduct.

SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT THE HEAVENS

To be Answered by Dr. Marsh at To-night's Meeting.

The Royal Astronomical Society of Peterborough will hold a meeting tonight at the Y. W. C. A. at 8 o'clock sharp. This is question night and will no doubt be interesting, as Dr. Marsh has received some good questions to answer. Among them are the following:

Why do not stars in the northern portion of the sky rise and set as those overhead, and in the southern part of the sky?

What causes the northern lights, and why are they not visible every clear night?

What does declination in astronomy mean?

Where do meteors come from? what is their origin? what are shooting stars?

Why do stars twinkle, especially in winter time?

How many miles are the lines of longitude apart?

Do meteors fall on the earth in day time as well as by night?

Is there any connection between comets and meteors?

A meeting of the council of the society will be held afterwards.

HE OBJECTS TO THE POSTERS

Citizen Says That There are Enough on The Billboards.

A citizen calls attention to the fact that many of the telephone and telegraph poles in the residential portions of this city are decorated with flaming yellow advertising posters. He is of the opinion that the poles are bad enough in themselves without being aggravated with advertisements, and wants to know what is the use of a citizen endeavouring to beautify his home when a big poster is hung up before his door. "Surely," he remarked to the Examiner, "there are enough bill-boards in the city without calling into use the telegraph poles."

Suffered From Heart and Nerve Troubles FOR THE Last Ten Years.

The heart has supplied to it two sets of nerves, one set which quickens, the other which slows its action. The proper action of these nerves, so important to the well-being of the heart, depends upon the general condition of the nervous system. If there be nerve derangement of any kind it is bound to produce all the various phenomena of heart derangement.

Knowing the intricate structure of the heart, and being aware how diseases of the nerves affect the heart, we have combined in Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a treatment that will cure all forms of nervous disorders as well as act on the heart itself, and in this is the secret of their success in curing so many cases of heart trouble which have defied all other treatment.

Mrs. John Riley, Douro, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from heart and nerve troubles for the last ten years. After trying many remedies and doctoring for two years, without the least benefit, I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial. I am thankful to say that, after using nine boxes, I am entirely cured, and would recommend them to all sufferers."

Price 50c. per box or three for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ARE FAT WOMEN ALWAYS MARRIED TO THIN MEN?

"Watch the four o'clock promenade on Fifth Avenue, New York, or along Rotten Row in London, and you will be struck by the circumstance that every fat woman is accompanied by a thin man, while every fat man has a lean, and usually a tall woman by his side," said a world-renowned form and beauty specialist recently to a gathering of artists and newspapermen in a Broadway cafe. "The effect is grotesque, and every artistic sense is offended by the lopsided, top-heavy, overbalanced appearance of such a couple. It is an entirely unnecessary offence, too, on the part of the fat person, at least," continued the beauty expert, "for getting rid of an excess of fat is a very simple matter. Most people think they must punish themselves with a slim diet and lots of the hard, distasteful work called exercise, in order to do so, but that is a mistake. As a matter of fact, there is a simple mixture of common, wholesome, harmless household remedies that if put together in the right quantities and taken in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime will take off from half a pound to one pound a day from either man or woman) without causing wrinkles, interfering with their diet in any shape or form, or requiring any gymnastics to help it out. This mixture consists of one-half ounce Marmola, three-quarters of an ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and four and three-quarter ounces Syrup Simplex, which are obtainable at any drug store for a few cents. Most fat people never heard of this effective home receipt, however, and so, thinking they must diet and must exercise to get thin (which is not true and not good advice, either), they will do neither, and so continue fat and porpoiselike, a travesty and caricature of the human form divine." One fat newspaper worker to the group was seen taking notes, however, and the chances are this paragraph is the result.

AMERICAN HUSBANDS THE BEST IN WORLD

But They Are by no Means Perfect According to a Minister's Statements.

Rev. B. A. Jenkins, in a recent sermon in Rochester, spoke the following words, which are generally applicable:

"The greatest fault of the American husband is that he is over kind. That the wife may go to the seashore, he toils his heart away. That she may be surrounded with luxuries, he toils Sampson-like in the mills. But too often he forgets the woman requires more than wealth to make her happy. It were better for both did the husband take more of the time he wastes piling up luxuries, to cultivate the love and society of his wife. Any good, normal woman would rather be poor than be neglected, as is too often the case with many wives of overworking men.

"Too many husbands forget to pay their wives the ordinary attentions of polite society. How many husbands have you seen arise when the wife enters his office or drawing-room? How many will assist her when she leaves a street car, even so much as to escort her to the door? How many refuse to be seated in the dining-room until after the wife has taken her place? Yet these things are as much due her as the providing of wearing apparel and food. One can never be too busy to be a gentleman; courtesy is true love.

"The earliest years are not the happiest of married life. It takes a man at least three years to learn how to get his wife's point of view—to learn how properly to love her.

MR. OVEREND SUES FIRM IN HAMILTON

For $10,000 Damages—Alleged Infringement on a Patent.

A suit involving the sum of $10,000 has been brought against the firm of Burrow, Stewart & Milne, of Hamilton, by Mr. W. J. Overend, of Peterborough. That amount is claimed by Mr. Overend for an alleged infringement on a curry-comb patent which he secured some time ago.

The Hamilton Herald in referring to the case says:—"An action has been begun by W. J. Overend, Peterborough against the Burrow, Stewart & Milne Company for $10,000 damages for an alleged infringement on a patent right of the plaintiff. The Burrow, Stewart & Milne Company has been making patent curry-combs for some time, and Mr. Overend claims that he has the exclusive right to manufacture these combs in Canada, and has taken out an injunction against the Hamilton firm to restrain it from making them, and has also instituted the action for damages for those it has already made. John Milne, president of the Burrow, Stewart & Milne Company, said this morning that his company's manufacture of these combs was in no way an infringement on Mr. Overend's right, and the action will be fought out in the courts.

TO SPEAK OF THE LIFE OF A LUMBERMAN

All Interested in These Should Attend Meeting at St. Andrew's on Friday.

There were 25,000 lumbermen busy last winter with axe and saw conquering Ontario's forests. Statistics show that Canada's forestry products have reached an annual value of over eight million dollars.

Few think of the 25,000 lumbermen scattered in groups of hundreds, through our vast northland, who make this revenue possible. Deprived of all the comforts of civilization these men, most of whom are English speaking, put on their long days work to the music of the axe and saw. Even in the best equipped camps life is made up of just work, food and rest. Often the work is attended with great danger to life and limb.

All who are interested in the brave fellows should hear Mr. Munt on Friday evening in St. Andrew's School Room.

GET OUT IN THE AIR FOR A TONIC

Spring Rejuvenates the Old And Refreshes Tired Bodies.

"Get out of doors" says John Burroughs, air is the best tonic. This is the one time of all the year that the city man should get out into the air and sunshine. For months he has been living indoors, in overheated rooms, riding to and from his office or store and taking every precaution against wind and snow. The spring finds him worn out with the strain and work of the winter, his vitality at a low ebb and his appetite sluggish. He needs to get out into the vitalized air into the sunshine and wind. Women also should follow this advice and enjoy the bracing air of spring for they perhaps more than the men have been confined to their homes. Fresh air stirs the lagging muscles and instils a new life in the sluggish blood. Everyone can enjoy it and doing so take on a new life without expense in the form of doctors' or druggists' bills.

IMPATIENT DYSPEPTICS

And a few doses is all that is needed to convince the most impatient and sceptical of patients. Carry them about with you in your pocket; take them when and where you please; they're harmless and give almost instant relief. A gentle tonic to the whole nervous system. 35c for 60 tablets. (14)

Mr. Finch Miller Presents The Relief Fund Report

Has a Balance of $10.03—Eleven Distributions Held—An Average of Sixty Families Benefitted Each Week—Many of the Citizens Contributed.

TOTAL RECEIPTS WERE $404

The energetic relief officer, Mr. Finch Miller, gives his report of the receipts and expenditures of the Relief Fund which was entrusted to his care. The report shows a balance of $10.03 still on hand for some other work. The report shows a balance dit for the splendid manner in which he has looked after the poor and needy of this city during the winter and those who have been benefitted by the weekly distributions have nothing but praise for him.

When the winter set in and everything looked black for those out of work it was his suggestion that a Relief Fund be started to aid the destitute. When the idea was announced the officers received many contributions of money, clothing and food to go on with the good work. The distributions are now over and the following is the relief officer's report:
